DANIEL SULLIVAN, Collector,
Territorial Taxes for 1806.

Knox county,
January 20, 1808. }

ALL those indebted to the subscriber are requested to discharge the amount of their debt against the 25th of February next, otherwise they may be assured that suits will be commenced against them without discrimination.—He has a NEGRO WOMAN for sale, for terms apply to,

Peter Jones,

January 20th, 1808.

NOTICE,

ALL persons are hereby cautioned against taking on assignment on a note given by me to Isaac Plough, as I have already paid the same, and am determined not to pay it again unless compelled by law,

John Decker.

January 9th, 1808,

NOTICE,

I AM determined to move to the country in a few days, about five miles above this village, where I intend to reside for the future—all those that are indebted to me by bond, note or book account, are requested to come forward and settle their respective accounts, and make payments in as short a time as possible, as I am not capacitated to give any longer time.

And moreover I will sell or rent my house in this village, where I now live, with about one hundred and fifty acres of good land in the publick field and near the town, with some fencing; the house will be commodious when finished, there are two chambers complete up stairs, and three below, and the ballance of the house will be complete this coming spring—there is a large stone stable, and a lot of four acres of ground well enclosed. If the house is rented I will furnish four beds, four tables, a bearough, and a billiard table all in good repair, also one dozen of chairs.

George Fisher.

Kaskaskia, January 1, 1808.

BECKES, s TAVERN,

Vincennes, Indiana Territory.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has purchased the house formerly owned by Peter Jones, Esq. and known by the sign of

THOMAS JEFFERSON,

And he is determined that no exertion, expense or attention shall be wanting, to promote the accommodation of those who may please to favour him with their custom.—He has a variety of liquors of the first quality, and his table plentifully supplied with the best viands that the season affords.

He has a spacious stable, abundantly furnished with corn, oats and hay, and an attentive hostler to attend it.

From his attention and wish to please, he hopes to give general satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call.

BLANK DEEDS
For sale at this Office.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in Washington, Kentucky, on the eleventh instant, a negro man named

BROOKS,

(who calls himself Brooks)

about twenty seven or twenty eight years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, stout and well made, very black, his lips of the ordinary size of negroes, rather awkward in his manners and appearance, fond of liquor, and careless as to his dress, therefore appears generally dirty; he had on when he went away, a round about and overalls of new and fine brown coating, a good wool hat, two hemplinen shirts, white woolen socks, and tolerable good shoes—it is believed that he has procured a pass from some person, and that he will make for Detroit.

Therefore the above reward will be paid to any person who will apprehend and deliver the said negro to me, or to Mr. Sanford Carrel, at Limestone, and thirty dollars for depositing him in any jail, and giving information so that I get him.

D. VERTNER.
