

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Sheffield (Eng.) to his friend in Charle-ton, dated in December.

"Ever since I have been in England the things have borne too dark an aspect for my visiting Charleston. At present, it is a general opinion here, a war with America will take place; but I hope not: There are a great quantity of American orders in the country; but they dare not execute them, nor any other foreign orders. Our manufacturers are in a complete stand; the people are crying out for peace; but our ministers are determined to go to war with all the world. God knows what will be the result. Our markets are glutted with all kinds of produce; but no buyers—Lan.

Mr. Rose on Monday took leave of the president, and yesterday left this city for Alexandria whence he proceeds to Norfolk, where he means to take immediate passage for England in the Statira.

Mr. Foster, secretary of legation, and the Messrs. Cassimajors, are to accompany him. Mr. Mansfield remains for some time in this country, not in the character of secretary of legation, as has been rumoured. Mr. Foster not having vacated that place, and it being his purpose to return to the U. States about October next.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 25.

By an arrival at Philadelphia from Calcutta we learn that an embargo had existed for several weeks at that port, owing to an insurrection or engagement which had taken place between the natives and English troops, in which a number of British soldiers and 60 officers bit the dust. The information was received by a passenger in the Philadelphia stage. The day's mail will no doubt furnish us with the particulars.

PROSPECTUS

Of a news-paper to be printed in Louisville (K.) under title of the

KENTUCKY JOURNAL,

By GEORGE C. SMOOT,

HAVING been for some time since solicited by my friends to establish a paper in Louisville, have at length come to a determination to publish a weekly News-Paper in that town under the above title.—The Editor deems it of no importance to impose upon the publick, a long list of services which printers often promise and seldom perform.—He will, however, observe that the JOURNAL shall be printed on an impartial principle, uninfluenced by any regard to party, and investigation into the conduct of public officers shall always claim his serious attention.

Essays original, or selected, on subjects publick, or local, and all others which may have a tendency to amuse or edify, shall always have a place in this paper.

On the above principle it is submitted to the public for patronage, and he only hopes to be supported, as they shall think him worthy of it.

CONDITIONS.

THE KENTUCKY JOURNAL shall be printed weekly, on the day that may appear most suitable at the commencement, on a good Tyre and Paper, and shall contain as much matter as any paper printed in Kentucky.

Price of subscription will be Two Dollars in advance, or Three Dollars at the end of the year, per annum.

Advertisements of no more length than breadth, inserted three weeks for One Dollar, and Twenty-Five cents for every continuance. Longer ones in proportion.

The first number will probably appear on or before the first of August next.

kings) about twenty seven or twenty eight years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, stout and well made, very black, lips of the ordinary size of negroes, rather awkward in his manners and appearance, fond of liquor, and careless as to his dress, therefore appears generally dirty; he had on when he went away, a round about and overalls of new and fine brown coating, a good wool hat, two hemp linen shirts, white woolen socks, and tolerable good shoes—it is believed that he has procured a pass from some person, and that he will make for Detroit.

Therefore the above reward will be paid to any person who will apprehend and deliver the said negro to me, or to Mr. Sanford Carrel, at Limestone, and thirty dollars for depositing him in any jail, and giving information so that I get him.

It is with peculiar pleasure I announce to the numerous patrons, and to a liberal and enlightened public, the completion of this truly valuable and celebrated work.—Like all heavy and arduous undertakings, it gives great relief to the body and mind to have got through it, and a complete remuneration of expenditures, which have far exceeded my first calculations, depends on the punctuality of the subscribers, in calling or sending and paying for their books. The solicitation for payment is not, however applicable to all; many have generously paid the whole, as required by the subscription, on getting the first volume; but far the greater number have paid only a part, and many nothing at all—such cannot calculate on getting their books until the price of them be completely discharged before they leave my book store. This done, no attention shall be wanting to attend to such instructions as may be given respecting their packing, forwarding, or consigning them to agents which may be appointed to receive them, and this I should like done as often as possible.

P. S. It may be well to observe, that in consequence of the first edition being all engaged, and on account of the pressing demand for the work throughout the United States, I have commenced the publication of a Second Edition, for which subscriptions are respectfully solicited, and will be received until its completion, which may be in the summer of 1809. This circumstance puts it in the power of those who had not an opportunity of subscribing for the first edition, to do it now for the second, and have their names forwarded as early as possible to the publisher, that their names may be inserted in the last volume.

Sword hilts gilt in the best and most durable manner at their Factory.

To the enlightened public, who know how to appreciate the advantages resulting from domestic Manufactures, the subscribers look with confidence for that encouragement which they will spare no pains to deserve.
