THE subscriber has opened a house of PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT in the town of Vincennes, at the upper end of Water street, near the honorable Benj. Parke's—where he tenders his services to the public in quality of an

INN-KEEPER, and he hopes from his being well provided with all those things which generally afford rest to the weary—his house commodious—his bidding neat—his servants attentive—his liquors excellent, and just from Baltimore—and his stabling and forage good; to receive a share public patronage.
