TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Revenue Office, August 20, 1813.

Public Notice is Hereby Given.

IN pursuance of the act of congress, passed on the second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, entitled "An act laying duties on notes of banks, bankers and certain companies, on notes, bonds and obligations discounted by banks, bankers and certain companies, and on bills of exchange of certain descriptions," that from and after the last day of December next, there will be levied, collected and paid, throughout the U. States, the several stamp duties following, viz:

For every skin, or piece of vellum or parchment, or sheet or piece of paper, upon which shall be written or printed any or either of the instruments of writing following, to wit:

On any promissory note, or notes payable either to bearer or order, issued by any of the banks or companies who issue or discount notes, bonds or obligations, either incorporated or not incorporated, which now are or may hereafter be established in the United States, or by any banker or bankers, (in case such company, banker or bankers shall not agree with the Secretary of the treasury to an annual compensation, in lieu of such duties, of one and a half per centum on the amount of their annual dividends) according to the following scale, viz:

If not exceeding one dollar, one cent.

If above one dollar, and not exceeding two dollars, two cents.

If above two, and not exceeding three dollars, three cents.

If above three, and not exceeding five dollars, five cents.

If above five and not exceeding ten dollars, ten cents.

If above ten and not exceeding twenty dollars, twenty cents.

If above twenty and not exceeding fifty dollars, fifty cents.

If above fifty, and not exceeding one hundred dollars, one dollar.

If above one hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars, five dollars.

If above five hundred and not exceeding one thousand dollars, ten dollars.

If above one thousand dollars, fifty dollars.

On any bond, obligation or promissory note or notes not issued by any bank, companies or bankers, as aforesaid, discounted by any such bank, companies or banker, and on any foreign or inland bill or bills of exchange above fifty dollars, and having one or more endorsers, according to the following scale, viz.

If not exceeding one hundred dollars, five cents.

If above one hundred and not exceeding two hundred dollars ten cents.

If above two hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars, twenty five cents.

If above five hundred and not exceeding one thousand dollars, fifty cents.

If above one thousand & not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars, seventy five cents.

If above fifteen hundred and not exceeding two thousand dollars, one dollar.

If above two thousand & not exceeding three thousand dollars, one dollar and fifty cents.

If above three thousand and not exceeding four thousand dollars, two dollars.

If above four thousand & not exceeding five thousand dollars, two dollars and fifty cents.

If above five thousand & not exceeding seven thousand dollars, three dollars and fifty cents.

If above seven thousand & not exceeding eight thousand dollars, four dollars.

If above eight thousand dollars, five dollars.

All which said stamps have for their legend the duty as above specified, with the device of an eagle bearing a shield.

All treasury and other notes, issued for the use or benefit of the United States, in pursuance of any act of congress, or drafts or bills drawn by the treasurer of the United States, or checks payable at sight upon any bank, company or banker, are exempted from duty and are not required to be stamped; and no duty is charged on a second or other copy of a set of exchange.

When any person shall deposit any vellum, parchment or paper, at the office of a collector, accompanying the same with a bill specifying the number and denomination of the stamps which are to be thereto affixed, it will be the duty of the collector to transmit the same to the office of the Commissioner of the Revenue, where such paper, parchment and vellum will be properly marked or stamped, and forthwith sent back to the collector, who will deliver the same, pursuant to the order of the person from whom it was received.

Stamps on paper will be transmitted from this office to the collectors, who will deliver the same, on the payment of the duty, to the person applying therefor. In case of stamps required on vellum or parchment, the vellum or parchment must invariably be transmitted, through a collector, to this office, whence it will be returned stamped to the collector, subject, on the payment of the duty, to the order of the person from whom it was received.

Any person, other than an officer employed in collecting the revenue of the United States, who shall apply to a collector at his office for the purchase at one time of a quantity of stamped vellum, parchment or paper, the duties on which shall amount to ten dollars or upwards, shall receive from him such quantity of vellum, parchment or paper, on said person paying down the amount of said duties, after deducting therefrom seven and one half per centum thereon.

Given under my hand at Washington,
the day and year above mentioned.

SAMUEL H. SMITH,
Commissioner of the Revenue.
