

THE WESTERN SUN.

VINCENNES, JUNE 4, 1814.

The last mail from the west furnished us nothing new, and but few articles by the eastern mail either of a foreign or domestic nature—we have in this day's paper given the most important.

Dayton, May 16.

To the editor of the republican.
SIR—The great council with the Northern Indians, will commence at Greenville, on the frontiers of this state, on the 20th day of June next.

JOHN JOHNSON.

Agent for Indian Affairs.
Piqua, May 12, 1814.

Chillicothe, May 24.

On Thursday evening last, fifty nine of the British prisoners of war encamped near this place, were put into close confinement, in pursuance of orders from the president of the U. States. Several rumors are afloat with respect to the cause of their imprisonment; but as we cannot vouch for their authenticity we do not feel ourselves authorized to circulate them.

We are sorry to learn that genl. Harrison's resignation has been accepted by the war department.—It will, we fear, be no easy task, for government to select a suitable character to supply his place.

Gen. Brown, it is believed will shortly attempt the re-possession of Niagara by the American troops.

Gen. Winder is appointed adj. and inspector gen. to the army, the first appointment of that grade in the army—he will go to the lines.

The 74 building at Charlestown (Mass.) is in a state of great forwardness for launching; and if not retarded by some unforeseen delay may be expected to leave her cradle on the 4th of July. An event of this pleasing nature, would add much to the festivity of our grand national jubilee.

To the editor of the Mercury.

Erie, May 13.

"As soon as the weather will permit an expedition will start from here for Long Point. The force consists of the regular detachment, about 300 of Fenton's militia, sailors and marines. Col. Campbell, I understand is to command.—Capt. Markle, formerly of Canada acts as topographer.—No other news."

From the Shawnee Republican.
Citizens! Lock out!

The enemy is near at hand! letters were received by express this evening, from the south, to the mayor of this city, and other persons, which state, that a large British force is off St. Mary's Bar, & that an attack is momently expected. Citizens! be on the alert.—Watch, for you know not when the enemy will make his appearance among you. A proclamation issued by adm. Cochrane has also been received in town which tends to excite our black population. It is addressed to them, dated Bermuda, 2d April, 1814. An express will leave town this evening, to convey it to the governor.

Chillicothe, May 17.

By a letter from Detroit, of the 18th inst. we learn that all was quiet at that time, and no apprehensions were entertained of a visit from the enemy. An expedition was on foot and would set out in a day or two—destination unknown.

Buffalo, April 19.

From lake Ontario we soon expect to hear of naval events of the greatest moment to the nation and the people of this state. Both contending parties have been indefatigably engaged to get the superiority in point of force. In a fair contest, ship to ship, gun to gun, man to man, we have no fears of the result. There will be but little manoeuvring this spring; there must be a great & decisive action fought early in the season of naval operations.

We have no correct data, from which to make an estimate of the naval forces on lake Ontario—but are told, however, that both fleets are calculated to mount near 500 guns!—When we consider this force in reference to lake Ontario, the history of the world cannot produce its parallel.

The islands of St. Croix and St Thomas, restored to the Danes, have been recently given up by the English, and the Danish government re-established.

We learn that colonel John B. Campbell has set out from Put-in Bay on a secret expedition. A defector from Long Point, it is said, gave information that a party of British, about 400, were on that peninsula, manufacturing flour & building small vessels—it is therefore probable that col. Campbell is gone thither to dislodge them.

A detachment on a secret expedition has also set out from Detroit—destination supposed to be Mackinac and Chicago. Gezette.

Extract of a letter from commodore Chauncey, to the secretary of the navy.—U. States ship General Pike, Sackett's harbor, May 7, (5 o'clock,) 1814.

SIR—The enemy's fleet passed in sight about an hour since, at a great distance, & sounding for Kingston. We have several vague reports that the enemy landed from 1500 to 2000 men, & that they carried the fort at Oswego by storm, and put the garrison to the sword; others that the garrison, with capt. Woolsey and seamen surrendered, and that the enemy was marching to the falls. All these reports are unquestionably much exaggerated, & if it should turn out that Oswego has been taken, it will be found that the troops & seamen did their duty, and that the enemy has paid dearly for the place. I have the honor to be, &c.

ISAAC CHAUNCEY.
Hon. Wm. Jones, &c.

Extract of a letter from maj. gen. Brown, dated May 7, 1814.

"I received a report from col. Mitchell, by an express who left him after the affair of the day and night of the 5th. The enemy with his old fleet, one new ship & some gun boats, endeavored to force the col. from his position. They had not succeeded in landing any force. Our garrison was undismayed, and like brave men, tenacious alike of their honor and their post. The result of yesterday's attack we know not."

New-York, May 14.

We learn verbally, by the steam boat Paragon, that the British have evacuated Oswego—previous to which they carried away or destroyed 40 barrels of flour, 200 of whiskey, 7 large & 3 small ordnances, and burnt one or two public stores. Our garrison in the fort, during the two first attacks upon it lost 14 men killed, and between 30 and 40 wounded—the loss of the British is said to be 200—Lieut. Woolsey, with the fehr. Growler, and two others of the squadron, from Sackett's harbor had been at Oswego, but hearing that the British fleet were out, he returned for Sackett's harbor before the British fleet had made their appearance.—The Growler was taking in cannon and military stores—and not being in a situation to fail, it. W. had her scuttled.
