Town Lots for Sale, TROY.

IN pursuance of an order of the Circuit court of Perry county, Indiana territory, I shall expose to sale on Tuesday the 4th of April, 1815, the lots in the town of Troy.

TROY, the seat of justice for the county of Perry, is situated on the Ohio, about half a mile above the mouth of Anderson river. There are in it a number of excellent springs adequate to the supplying any number of inhabitants, and there are a number of excellent mill seats on Anderson river, some of which are within a short distance of the town—the land is sufficiently high not to be subject to inundation, and there is an extensive view of the river.—The adjacent lands are generally of a good quality and the county is settling very fast. The sale to commence on the lot first offered for sale—one eighth part of the purchase money to be paid down, and the residue in three equal annual payments.—Due attendance will be given by,

FRANCIS POSEY,
Agent for Perry county.

Ten Dollars Reward.

LOST or stolen from my lot, two horses, one a bay, about 15 hands high, a small star in his forehead, branded with the bottom of a stirrup iron on the near shoulder and buttock, also V.L. about 12 years old, trots and paces.—The other a small sorrel, with a narrow blaze in his face, the brand not recollected, a natural trotter —any person who will deliver the above horses to me shall receive the above reward, or five dollars for either.
