TROY.

IN pursuance of an order of the Circuit court of Perry county, Indiana territory, I shall expose to sale on Tuesday the 4th of April, 1815, the lots in the town of Troy.

TROY, the seat of justice for the county of Perry, is situated on the Ohio, about half a mile above the mouth of Anderson river. There are in it a number of excellent springs adequate to the supplying any number of inhabitants, and there are a number of excellent mill seats on Anderson, not to be subject to inundation, and there is an extensive view of the river.—The adjacent lands are generally of a good quality and the country is settling very fast. The sale to commence on the lot first offered for sale—one eighth part of the purchase money to be paid down, and the residue in dance will be given by,
