Treasury Department, June 15, 1815.

NOTICE.

ARRANGEMENTS are making to discharge the whole of the arrearages of the Treasury Note debt, where the same became due and payable, as soon as a competent supply of current money can be obtained, at the seat of the several Loanoffices.

Arrangements are also making to furnish a competent issue of Treasury Notes to assist in the re-establishment of a circulating medium throughout the U. States; but it has been ascertained, that an issue of Treasury Notes, not bearing an interest, and fundable at 7 per cent, cannot at this time be employed for that purpose.

Notice is therefore hereby given,

That funds have been assigned for the payment of such Treasury Notes, and the interest thereon, as became due, or shall become due at the Loanoffice in Philadelphia, in the state of Pennsylvania, on the following days, to wit:

On the 21st November; the 1st and 11th December, 1814.

The 1st January; the 1st & 21st February; the 21st April; the 1st, 11th and 21st May; the 1st, 11th and 21st June; and the 1st, 11th & 21st July, 1815; being all the Treasury Notes due, or becoming due, at Philadelphia, prior to the 1st day of August, 1815.

And the said Treasury Notes will accordingly be paid, upon the application of the holders thereof respectively, at the said Loanoffice in the city of Philadelphia, on the first day of August next; after which day interest will cease to be payable upon the said Treasury Notes.

And Notice is hereby further given,

That funds have been assigned for the payment of such Treasury Notes, and the interest thereon, as became due at the Loanoffice in Savannah, in the state of Georgia, on the following days, to wit:

On the 1st April, and the 1st May, 1815; being all the Treasury Notes due, at Savannah, prior to the first day of September, 1815.

And the said last mentioned Treasury Notes will accordingly be paid, upon the application of the holders thereof respectively, at the said Loanoffice in Savannah, aforesaid, on the 1st day of September next; after which day interest will cease to be payable upon the said Treasury Notes.

And Notice is hereby further given,

That funds have been assigned for the payment of such Treasury Notes, and the interest thereon, as became due at Washington, in the District of Columbia, on the following days, to wit:

On the 11th and 21st April; on the 1st & 21st May; & on the 11th June, 1815; being all the Treasury Notes due at Washington.

And the said last mentioned Treasury Notes will accordingly be paid upon the application of the holders thereof respectively, at the treasury of the U. States, in Washington, aforesaid, at any time subsequent to the date of this notice; and interest will cease to be payable upon the said Treasury Notes after the 1st day of July next. And all Treasury Notes hereafter payable at the treasury of the U. States in Washington, aforesaid, will be there punctually paid, from time to time, as the same shall become due and payable; and the interest thereon will cease on the day, or days, when such Treasury Notes shall respectively become payable.

And Notice is hereby further given,

That funds have been assigned for the payment of such Treasury Notes, and the interest thereon, as became due at the Loan office in Baltimore, in the state of Maryland, on the 1st June, 1815. And the said last mentioned Treasury Notes will accordingly be paid, upon application of the holders thereof respectively, at the said Loan office in Baltimore aforesaid, at any time subsequent to the date of this notice; and interest will cease to be payable upon the said Treasury Notes after the first of July next. And all Treasury Notes hereafter payable at the Loan office in Baltimore, aforesaid, will be there punctually paid, from time to time, as the same shall become due and payable; and the interest thereon will cease on the day or days when such Treasury Notes shall respectively become payable.

And Notice is hereby further given,

That as funds in current money, cannot at present be obtained at Boston in the state of Massachusetts, to pay such of the Treasury Notes as became due, and remain unpaid, at the Loan office in Boston aforesaid, on the following days, to wit:

On the 1st November; and the 11th and 21st December, 1814; and 21st January; and the 1st February, 1815.

Subscriptions in the principal and interest of the said last mentioned Treasury Notes, will be received to the Loan of 12 millions of dollars, at the rate of 95 dollars in principal and interest in Treasury Notes for 100 dollars of 6 per cent stock. The holders respectively of the said last mentioned Treasury Notes, may also, at their option, receive drafts on Philadelphia and Baltimore for the amount of their claims; or they may exchange the old for new Treasury Notes, fundable at 6 per cent, to include the principal and interest now due.

And Notice is hereby further given,

That as funds in current money, cannot at present be obtained at the city of New York, in the state of New York, to pay such of the Treasury Notes as became due, and remain unpaid at the Loan office in New York aforesaid, on the following days, to wit:

On the 1st and 11th December, 1814; the 1st and 11th January; the 11th February; the 11th March; the 21st April; and the 11th May, 1815.

Subscriptions, in the principal and interest of the last mentioned Treasury Notes, will be received to the Loan of 12 millions of dollars, at the rate of 95 dollars of principal and interest, in Treasury Notes, for 100 dollars of 6 per cent stock. The holders respectively of the said last mentioned Treasury Notes may also, at their option, receive drafts on Philadelphia & Baltimore, for the amount of their claims; or they may exchange the old for new Treasury Notes, fundable at 6 per cent, to include the principal and interest now due.

And finally Notice is hereby given,

That on the 1st day of August next, instructions will be issued, forbidding the collectors of duties on imports and tonnage, the collectors of the internal duties & taxes, and the receivers of all public dues whatsoever, to receive in payment of such duties, taxes and dues, the bank notes of any bank which does not on demand, pay its own notes in gold and silver; and at the same time refuses to receive, credit, re-issue, and circulate the Treasury Notes emitted upon the faith and security of the U. S. in deposits, or in payments to, or from the bank, in the same manner, and with the like effect, as cash, or its own bank notes.

The Loanofficers of the several states are requested to make this notice generally known, by all the means in their power; and the Printers, authorized to print the laws of the U. S. will be pleased to insert it in their respective newspapers.

A. J. DALLAS,

Secretary of the Treasury.

NEW LONDON.

LOTS will be sold in the town of New London on Thursday the 10th of August next; sale to commence at 9 o'clock A. M.—This town is elegantly situated on the Ohio River, 1. T. 10 miles below Madison, and thirty five above the falls of Ohio (at the place formerly known by the name of Monroe's and Duncan's Ferry.)

This town has the advantage of all the towns in the Territory for good landing for Boats—A large road now engaged to be cut sixty feet wide leading through Lexington, (I. T.) and to all the White River and Wabash country.

This town has a large and extensive fertile country on both sides of the Ohio and no doubt will become the key of the Indiana Territory for business.

A great many other advantages can be seen on the day of the sale.—The lengthy credit of two years, Viz. One half at the expiration of one year and the other half at the expiration of two years will be given. Due attendance at the town of New London will be given on the day of sale by.

B. W. HUNT, Proprietor.

N. B.—Merchants bringing Goods on to the towns back of New London, can be accommodated with a Ware House.

New London July 7, 1815.

NOTICE.

TO all to whom it may concern, where—as I intend setting out for Philadelphia about the 15th day of August next, all those who are indebted to me by bond, note or book account, are earnestly requested to call and pay their accounts between this and that time.—I flatter myself from the indulgence I have given on my old accounts, that they will be attended to without fail, and your compliance will much oblige your friend and humble servant,

Wilson Lagor.
