

brig La Regna de los Angelos, capt. Arthol, arrived yesterday capt. Roca, from Campeachy, from Liverpool, in 34 days passage, the Editors of the Gazette have received Liverpool papers to the 28th, and London to the 25th Oct. both inclusive. The former contain London dates of the 26th and Paris to the 22d October. They contain nothing of material importance—a few extracts will be found below.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Port-au Prince, to his friend in New York, dated Oct. 20.

"The patriot expedition sailed from here yesterday morning, consisting of a ship of 94 guns, a brig mounting 18, and a small sloop. None of the officers appeared overstocked with joy;—nor were they permitted to know to what place they are destined.—This expedition has left some of our merchantmen completely in distress—they have got almost all of our men, by making promises to them. As to our vessel, we have but one man left, and a number of others in the same situation. When we shall get from here I know not—there is very little produce at this place; not enough to load one sixth of the vessels in this port.

From the Liverpool Mercury.

Spain.—By recent letters we learn that a most arbitrary act has been committed by the Spanish government. The kingdom of Navarre is a portion of the Spanish monarchy which had its ancient rights—a permanent body of deputies has existed, to whom the guardianship of these rights and privileges was confined.—This body had a right to declare whether any measure emanating from the king was contrary to the constitution of the province. An order was lately sent from the court, and the deputies in the exercise of their privilege refused to sanction it. In consequence of this refusal, the viceroy (Espejel) arrested the whole of them in their beds, and put them into prison.

By accounts from Ronda, July 20, it appears that there are great commotions in the Spanish armies. Officers and soldiers are constantly murmuring that the king thinks of nothing but of fattening the monks and canons, like hogs, while the military are suffered to perish.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.

There arrived in this city yesterday morning, led by general McIntosh and by major Daniel Hughes, U. States' factor, eight chiefs and warriors, deputed by the head men of the Muscogee or Creek nation, on a visit to the president of the U. States. Of the object of their visit we are informed; but they are, we learn, invested with full powers to treat on all points relating to their nation. This Deputation is composed of the principal officers who enrolled early in the Creek war, and who, under McIntosh, co-operated with major general Jackson during the war, and latterly with their leader, marched against the negro fort on Apalachicola, which they united with col. Clinch in the destruction of.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 5.
By the British ship Homer, arrived yesterday from Liverpool, in 34 days passage, the Editors of the Gazette have received Liverpool papers to the 28th, and London to the 25th Oct. both inclusive. The former contain London dates of the 26th and Paris to the 22d October. They contain nothing of material importance—a few extracts will be found below.

The Homer sailed the day after the Union arrived last week, and consequently cannot bring much later statements of the market. American staples maintained the same prices as per last dates.

We observe nothing in the Liverpool or London papers relative to the expected scarcity in that country.—The apprehension of such an event appears to have subsided.

London, Oct. 24.

Commercial letters from France are said to mention that the Ministers of Louis XVIII. had resolved to make a fresh attempt to negotiate for the Sovereignty of St. Domingo, in consequence of which new Commissioners have sailed in a private manner from a small port in the neighborhood of Brest, in an unarmed vessel. They go direct to Pagan's dominions, and it is understood that their tone will not be so high as that of their predecessors.

Letters from Pomerania, dated 25th ult, state that the crops had been all secured; that the wheat was a good crop, and in higher condition than last year; that rye was a very rich crop; barley tolerable; and peas rather scanty.

London, Oct. 25.

We are happy to state that there are no accounts to day of new disturbances of any sort.—There is not one word of truth in the statement of a morning paper yesterday, of riots having broken out in Staffordshire, and at Swansea and Brecon. All is quiet in that country and in Glamorganshire; and a letter from a magistrate near Newport, dated the 22d, takes no notice of anything unpleasant having happened in Monmouthshire. The depot at Brecon is in a state of the most perfect security. The staff of the Carmarthenshire militia, which had, with the greatest alacrity, made a forced march to render assistance if necessary had been ordered back to Carmarthen.

OCTOBER 26.

A letter from Dover, dated Oct. 25, (yesterday,) says, "Six transports arrived this day from Calais, with about 900 discharged men and invalids from our army in France."

Compensation to late officers.

Mr. Johnson, of Kentucky, from the Military Committee, reported the following bill:

Be it enacted, by the senate & House of Representatives of the U. States of America in Congress assembled, That donations of land be granted to all the officers of the regular army who have been disbanded as supernumeraries, either in consolidating regiments or corps during the late war, or in reducing the army conformably to the act of March the 3d, 1815, as follows to wit: to each major general, 1,280 acres; to each brigadier general, 1,120 acres; to each colonel & lieutenant colonel, 960 acres; to each major, 800 acres; to each captain, 640 acres; to each subaltern 480 acres; and to officers of the medical and other staff, who have no rank, in proportion to their pay according to the scale aforesaid.

This bill took the usual course of reading and commitment.
