

the militia as he shall judge necessary to repress the insurrection. Whenever the militia are so called out they shall be subject to martial law. Any officer who shall then disobey the presidents orders or of a superior officer, shall for the first offence forfeit a certain portion of his wages, and be rendered incapable of holding any military office for a given period of time, or for life as shall be adjudged by the court martial.—Every officer, commissioned and uncommissioned private, who shall be detached, and shall disobey the president's orders in any of the aforesaid cases, or the orders of a superior officer shall be tried by court martial we presume as one guilty of mutiny: and if they refuse to march and join the corps, shall receive sentence of death; substitutes, however may be provided in such cases. It is further provided, that no writ or civil process from any court of the U. States, shall be served upon any man while in the service, nor shall his property be taken. All offences by the officers, non-commissioned officers or privates after their detachment for the service of the U. States, before their assembling at the appointed places of rendezvous, shall be tried by courts composed of militia officers only, of the state or territory to which they belong, not in the actual service of the U. States. All offences committed while in actual service, shall be tried by militia officers in actual service, if the offender is absent, a copy of the summons left with some person at his usual place of abode, shall be a competent service.—These are the principal outlines of the report.

LAND OFFICE AT VINCENNES, January 25, 1817.

WHEREAS it is provided by the sixth section of the act of Congress, passed on the tenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred, entitled "An act to amend the act entitled an act providing for the sale of the lands of the United States in the Territory North West of the Ohio, and above the mouth of Kentucky river," That "If any tract shall not be completely paid for within one year after the date of the last payment, the tract shall be advertised for sale by the Register of the Land Office within whose District it may lie, in at least five of the most public places in the said District, for at least thirty days before the time of sale: and he shall sell the same at public vendue, during the sitting of the court of Quarter Sessions of the county in which the Land Office is kept, for a price not less than the whole arrears due thereon, with the expenses of sale, the surplus if any, shall be returned to the original purchaser, or to his legal representative; but if the sum due, with interest, be not bidden and paid, the land shall revert to the United States. All monies paid therefor shall be forfeited, and the Register of the Land Office may proceed to dispose of the same to any purchaser, as in case of other lands, at private sale."

And whereas, by four subsequent acts, passed respectively, April twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and twelve; February thirteen, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen; February nineteen, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen; February eleven, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen; a further credit is granted to purchasers of public lands on certain conditions therein expressed.

In pursuance thereof Public Notice is hereby given,

That the purchasers of the following tracts having failed in complying with the conditions required by the above mentioned acts, the same will be exposed for sale at public vendue, during the sitting of the court at Vincennes, on Monday the third of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

The sale will begin at ten o'clock, and if any tract be purchased the amount must be paid on the same to the Receiver of Public Monies, and the receipt deposited with the Register.
