

THE WESTERN SUN.

Vincennes, January 25, 1817.

No mail from the eastward this week, which will account for the barrenness of this day's paper.

We have been authorised to say, that William R. Mc Call, is a candidate for the office of Associate Judge, at the ensuing election.

We have been authorised to say, that Thomas Mc Clure, if elected, will serve as County Commissioner.

William Gamble, esq. has requested us to say, that he is not a candidate for the office of Associate Judge, and that if elected, he cannot serve.

The citizens of the Borough of Vincennes, will do well to remember, that the first Monday in February, is the day appointed by law for the election of Borough Trustees.

CORRECTIONS.

In the advertisement of B. V. Beckes, shif. of this county, no places are mentioned for holding the election in Hawkins or Perry townships—it will be held in Hawkins township, at Liverpool—in Perry township at Frederick Shoultz.

In the advertisement of A. Armstrong, shif. of Edwards county, Illinois territory, we are requested to say, "the heirs of John Bt. Tugaw, dead" in place of John Bt. Tugaw, in his advertisement for the sale of land for taxes.

COMMUNICATION.

MR. STOUT—Permit me to offer to the independent electors of Knox county the following ticket for county officers, and comprising at least equal talents with any heretofore offered, George Leech, and } For Associate William Carruthers } Judges.

John B. Drennen, } For County Com- John Ockeltree, & } missioners. Ebenezer Welton.

Robert Bunting, sen.—for Clerk, and Valentine J. Bradley—for Recorder.

In selecting the characters for County Commissioners, I have had in view, not only the qualifications necessary to discharge the important duties attached to that office, but their residence in the different sections of the county—In the other candidates, qualification, has alone governed my choice and, no doubt, on the day of election, will that of all.

A VOTER.

Indiana Exchange Bank.

Within a few days, we have seen notes purporting to be on the Indiana Exchange Bank, issued at Jeffersonville, and signed J. Bigelow, president, knowing of no law, authorising me. Bigelow's paper shop, we deem it our duty to caution the public against giving currency to the paper of any bank not sanctioned by the constitution and laws of Indiana and our constitution says expressly, that "there shall not be established or incorporated any bank or banking company, or monied institution, for the purpose of issuing bills of credit, or bills payable to order or bearer" except a state bank and branches.

PROPHECY.

The following is a curious extract from the Gentleman's Magazine, for July, 1807, (page 616)—"There is now living at Giltingham, in Kent, a most eccentric old gentleman who assumes to himself the faculty of second sight, and has, for several years, predicted the fate of empires, and the fall of Bonaparte. At the time of this declaration, there was a general expectation of peace, which was really ratified—but the old gentleman stood firm in the opinion he delivered, and speaks with exultation of some recent events which have confirmed them.—Before the treaty of Amiens was concluded, he declared that it would not last, and this country (England) ought not to expect it—for, said he, Bonaparte must be a greater man than he now is; it will be by opposing this country that he will become so—he will go on, becoming higher and greater, and will make victory till he comes to the confines of Russia, where will be fought the last great battle, in which Bonaparte will fall and die—(politically)—his death will bring to light a greater general than he has ever been who will really perform what Bonaparte pretended to do when he acquired power—make the nations of the world happy. This general he says, will be a descendant of David, who will turn his attention to the Jews, gather them altogether, and leading them home to their own country, lay the foundation of their future greatness—that at the time all Christendom shall be subdued to him, and the fate of the country be the fulfilment of the 27th chapter of Ezekiel. The period when these great events will take place, will be when three years and a half are passed, after the time of the highest exaltation, and the last honors attained by Bonaparte!"

A Boston ship has made a voyage round the world, in 15 months and 15 days, including 3 and a half months spent at Valparaiso. She went round Cape Horn, visited the Sandwich Islands, discharged and took in a load at Canton, and came home by the Cape of Good Hope.

All the foreign Ministers resident in the U. States are now at the seat of government.

Arg.

We are indebted to a highly respectable gentleman of this city for the following intelligence:

Extract of a letter from an intelligent person in Bordeaux, to his friend in this city.

Public opinion has undergone an extraordinary change here. These legitimate are no longer the idols of the people. Even those who first supported them, and contributed so much to the degradation of this delightful country, & its amiable people, begin to hang their heads from the contempt and scorn in which they are held, even upon it, this state of things can last.

To give you an idea of the wretched shifts to which the Anglo-Royalists have been driven to endeavor to support their sinking cause, I have only to mention that there are at present in this country, 83 tribunals or provost courts (one in each department) which are solely occupied in trying people for what they are pleased to call political crimes, and 24 military tribunals (who are engaged in the same laudable work)—The prisons are filled with their victims, and terror is striking about in every form.

This is the government that promised to make Frenchmen forget the horrors of their revolutions, of which, it now appears, they were by their agents in a great measure the authors. Even the tyranny of Bonaparte is regretted.—If he was ambitious, say they, he at least rendered us independent and powerful. What a change for this high minded nation! The time is fast approaching when the distinguished exiles who have sought refuge on our happy shores, will be called back to support the independence of their country, and to assist in raising the French name from the degradation to which these puny Bourbons have reduced it. I hope the conduct of our fellow citizens towards these distinguished men in such as will be remembered by them with pleasure hereafter, and thus prove beneficial to us, who are greatly beloved here by the nation at large. I found our minister at Paris highly respected, though he did not appear to me to be entirely satisfied with the present state of affairs—at least such was my impression."

In addition to the foregoing, we learn that the Bourbons are so fallen in the estimation of the royalists of France, as to seem already deposed. Austria will insist on placing the young Napoleon in the seat of Louis the XVIIIth.—Important events may be expected—British influence in France will fall with the Bourbons. N. Y. Columbian.

Agreeably to previous appointment, a number of the citizens of Knox county met at the house of William Bruce, on Saturday the 11th January, 1817 for the purpose of selecting suitable characters to fill the different offices at the ensuing election, to be held on the first Monday in February next, as provided for by the constitution and laws of the state, and whom they wish to have supported.

On motion, Daniel Mc Clure, esq. was appointed Chairman, and Wm. Poike, Secretary to the meeting.

On motion the Chairman nominated Samuel Mc Clure, Noah Purcell, Samuel Chambers, Wm. Carruthers, Samuel Thompson, Saml. Dus, Chas. Polke, Wm. Purcell and John Elliott, a committee—who, after they had retired a short time, returned and made the following report, which was unanimously agreed to by the meeting, viz.

Your committee, appointed for that purpose, beg leave to recommend to this meeting and to our fellow citizens throughout the county, the following gentlemen as proper characters to fill the different offices annexed to their respective names, viz.—For county Commissioners—George Leech, Charles Smith, and Wm. Bruce—For Associate Judges—Wm. Carruthers & Jas. B. Mc Call—For Clerk of the Circuit court—Robert Bunting, sen. (provided he will procure a certificate as prescribed by the constitution)—For Recorder—John D. Hay—Your committee wish it to be expressly understood, however, that they do not presume to dictate or controul their fellow citizens in the choice of officers; but to express their own wishes in a manner guarantee to them by the Constitution and laws of the state.

On motion—Agreed that the Editor of the Western Sun, be requested to give the above one or two insertions in his paper.
