

POETICAL ASYLUM.

True Greatness.

IN Heavenly synod once arose
A wondrous strong debate,
The Mighty Secret to disclose,
What makes a mortal great?
Mars bluster'd forth that love of arms
Enrich'd the daring soul;
While Bacchus swore the brightest charms
Flow'd from the sparkling bowl;
That he, who fill'd with generous wine,
Could frolic laugh, and sing,
Was far more rich, was more divine,
And greater than a king.
Apollo vow'd, with musick's power,
None others could compare:
When Jove produced his golden shower,
And fix'd true greatness there.
Pallas, to wisdom ever dear,
Heard gravely what had pass'd;
The goddess came prepared to hear,
And silence broke at last.
Your shower, said he will melt away,
Your musick lose its charms,
Your sparkling bowl will all decay,
And rust o'erspread your arms;
But Heaven-born Masonry knows no change,
No time dissolves her state,
To blest eternity she'll range;
'Tis she makes mortals great.

Sale of Lots in the Town of PETERSBURGH.

THE site of this town has been selected by the commissioners appointed by the state Legislature for fixing the seat of Justice for Pike county, and laid off by the county Commissioners on the most liberal plan; the streets from 60 to 100 feet wide, and alleys of 10 feet each inn lot containing one quarter of an acre, and out lots one acre, the public square, containing one acre, in the centre of the town.

PETERSBURGH is situated one & a half miles from White river, surrounded by an extensive country of rich and fertile land, and in the centre of a large settlement of good farmers; it lies 20 miles from Vincennes & 22 from Princeton, from each of which places a public road passes through Petersburg, to Louisville, and is on a direct line from Troy the county seat of Perry county to Vincennes.

Terms of sale—Lots in Petersburg will be sold at public sale on the second Monday in April next, on a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, the purchasers giving bond and security for the punctual payment at the times they become due.

JOHN JOHNSON,
Agent for Pike county.

DOCTOR L. S. SHULER,
PHYSICIAN, SURGEON & ACCOUCHEUR;
Late from New-York,

RESPECTFULLY informs the inhabitants of Vincennes, and its vicinity, that he has commenced practice in this place, and now occupies a room in the house of J. Bond, where he will at all times cheerfully attend to those who may call on him.—He hopes by unremitting attention his knowledge and experience in the different branches of his profession to merit a share of the public patronage. Those residing at a considerable distance, wishing to employ him, are assured that the best assistance will be afforded, on the most liberal terms.—Advice in all cases given gratis.
15-tf March 14, 1817.

NOTICE
ALL those who stand indebted to me on note or book account, are requested to call and pay off the same on or before the 15th day of April next; I also wish those who have accounts, to recollect that they are due agreeably to contract and must be paid by the time above named as I am determined to have them settled by suits, if not otherwise closed by that time.—No excuse will be taken, so none need be offered, being fully satisfied no reasonable one can be given.—The Militia and Rangers have been paid, your Wheat, Corn, Beef and Pork sold, and yet your old debts are suffered to stand unsettled.—No excuse, unless accompanied with the cash, can now be received. Land speculations will not pay my debts, unless I am the speculator—I want land, and must have money to pay for it.
WILSON LAGOW.
