

FROM THE BALTIMORE PATRIOT, MAY 2
Further Important Particulars
Extract of letters from a gentleman in Buenos Ayres to his friend in this city.

BUENOS AYRES FEB. 28.

"In my last letter, I informed you of the progress of gen. San Martin, who had advanced into Chili, having passed the Cordilleras without opposition, at the head of an army of 5000 men. I have now to state, that we have received the account of an action having been fought between the royalists and the troops of this province, which ended in the total defeat and destruction of the former. The express arrived in town, accompanied by an officer, who brought the colors of the king's troops taken. There were 1000 killed, and 500 taken prisoners, with a general. The Buenos Ayreans have entered the capital, Santiago."

MARCH 1st, 1817.

"Chili is gone; it is in the hands of the patriots who have carried every thing before them. The last accounts state them to be in Coquimbo, and the royalists flying in every direction. San Martin writes with all confidence and they apprehend no further resistance, the people all being disposed for revolution. The cry now is for a war with the Portuguese, and it is firmly believed by many, that it will be declared immediately."

MARCH 5th, 1817.

"We have further accounts. Gen. Macon, the royal governor of Chili, with his suite, have been taken at Valparaiso, on the point of embarking, with two millions of dollars! The patriots have possession of every port on the coast of Chili!"

"That there will be a war with the Portuguese, I have no doubt. This government in retaliation of some acts of the Portuguese, at Monte Video, have imprisoned all the Portuguese merchants & others at this place."

Republican Notions.

The titles of public officers, from your plain worship up to his excellency, are not the only distinctions which ought to be lashed out of fashion. There is one, we understand, growing into vogue at Washington, which ought to be scouted by every friend of the Republic.

We were surprised the other day to hear of a sort of tariff sometimes used at the Metropolis of the union, and growing more into use which is at war with all our Republican ideas. The plain men, who take up this paper, will no doubt be just as much astonished as we were to learn that there is a sort of scale, to estimate the degree of respect, to which a man is entitled. One would think, that a Representative of the people is entitled to as much as almost any person. But no such thing. He is almost at the very foot of the scale. For instance;

1st. comes the simple citizen—

Next the Representative of the people (in the lower house of Congress)—

3d. Foreign Ministers—

4th. Senators and

5th. Heads of Department.

The etiquette is, for those below to wait upon all those above them. For example, a foreign minister, Mr. Bagot or M. Hyde de Neuville, does not wait upon a representative, to pay his respects to him; but he waits upon the Senators and Foreign Ministers.—Thus a representative of the people is, according to this new tangled cartel two grades below a Senator—and 3 below the Heads of the Executive Department.

These distinctions are of course not universally adopted. There are many men too proud to acknowledge them.—Nor are they as pertinaciously adhered to by any American officer as by the foreign ministers, who recognise something in them of the ranks and privileges of the European Courts.—But it is a fact, that this contemptible etiquette is begun, and is, we are afraid, increasing, and ought to be extinguished.

Let any man ask himself what he would think of his Representative, who would stoop so low as to acknowledge his inferiority; or what he would think of a Senator or Executive Secretary, who would be so insolent as to exact this difference. Would he not deem either of them as unworthy of his good opinion? We know that hospitality to strangers has been in all countries considered as a public duty. Foreign ministers are certainly entitled to their full share of it—but if a foreign minister does make it a point of etiquette, to wait upon a Senator, and only to return the visit of a Representative, what high minded Representative, would bow to the distinction, even though he should be fortunate enough to receive an elegantly ornamented card from "The Hon. and Lady to the Honorable Mr. —" requesting the pleasure of his company this evening at drawing room? From such courtly customs, may our country be forever delivered!

SMALL POX.

Pittsburg, May 10

We understand that there are several cases of the small pox in this city. Every precaution ought to be taken to prevent the spread of this dreadful disease. By the important discovery of vaccination or the cow pox an effectual preventive is afforded. There is now in town a supply of genuine vaccine matter; and we are happy to state, that Dr. Mowry & Dr. Lewis have both called at this office, and have authorised us to tender their services for the vaccination of the poor of the city, gratis.

Sale of Lots in WASHINGTON. (Indiana.)

THIS SITE being lately chosen by the Commissioners appointed by the legislature to fix the permanent seat of justice for Daviss county, is situated in the FORKS OF WHITE RIVER on the Main state road, leading from Cincinnati and Louisville to Vincennes & is about 20 miles from the latter. It is also within four miles of that beautiful and navigable stream the West Fork of White River, at which place the road crosses said river, at the falls.

This town is situated in a rich and fertile country surrounded on all sides by rich and wealthy farmers. It adjoins Liverpool on the north, a flourishing little village containing 15 or 20 families and in which there are two or three never failing springs which afford a sufficiency of stock water throughout the year, and there is also within six miles of Washington, six Grist and two Saw-Mills.

Together with all the above advantages, it has one which few towns can boast of, an advantage too which should interest every person wishing to purchase lots in the western country, this advantage is health—Liverpool adjoining the town of Washington, has been settled about 7 years, 3 years of which it was occupied as a fort, and it appears almost incredible to say that there has not during that time been a single death in it and such is the fact that during a settlement of 7 years there is not even the death of an infant recorded.—In short WASHINGTON in point of HEALTH is the garden spot of Indiana—The sale of lots will commence on the second Monday in June next.

Terms of sale will be made known on the day of sale by
