

THE WESTERN SUN,

VINCENNES :

Saturday Morning, July 12.

With pleasure we announce Gov. Posey as a candidate for the suffrages of the freemen of this state, to represent them in the 15th Congress.

When we reflect that this venerable man belonged to that family who purchased the inestimable right, which he now offers to be favored with—we cannot believe that there are any who are so lost to the noble passion of gratitude and to their own interests, as not to rally round this remaining patriot, and hail him as their choice.

Those who have faced the foe during the day, and reposed upon the mossy couch at night—the bending heavens their covering, their arms their pillow, know what his country owes him for his military exertions—those who have read, know how to appreciate his political services—those who are acquainted with his private reputation, know it to be unspotted—Who then among us will oppose his election? None but the ambitious—the selfish—the ungrateful—or those who know nothing of the qualifications of the man.

GENL. W. JOHNSTON will serve his fellow Citizens, if a majority of them by their vote request him, in the next session of the Legislature.

We are authorised to state that Ovid Flint, offers himself as a candidate for the office of sheriff, for the county of Davis.

We are authorised to say that G. R. C. Sullivan, will serve the people, in the next Legislature, if elected.

WE are requested to state that ISAAC BLACKFORD, Esq. if elected, will serve the people in the next Legislature.

WE are also authorised to state, that JOHN BENEFIELD of SULLIVAN COUNTY is a candidate, for the favor of the people at the next election.

MR. STOUT,

I have understood with much pleasure that Gov. Posey has yielded to the wishes of his friends, in consenting to serve the people of this state in Congress if elected. A man whose character stands very high, who has faithfully served his country in various situations from the commencement of the Revolution to the present day, cannot fail to meet with the confidence and support of the people. I am well convinced from my knowledge of him, that he is actuated by no other motive in consenting to become a candidate, than a pure and disinterested wish to promote the political welfare of the people. His mind is too pure, his sense of propriety too sacred, to become the instrument to sanction any other principle than a sincere wish to contribute all in his power to promote the public good, in a manner that will be honourable to himself, and to his country. The Governor's health which for several years since he has been amongst us, has been bad, is now happily restored, and he is now able, and if the people choose, willing, to go to Washington & use his best exertions to guard their rights, and promotes their interest. When he was before the people last year, reports were but too successfully propagated by his enemies, that his great age and infirmities disqualified him from discharging the duties of the office for which he was then a candidate. It is easy to make assertions, and some men unblushingly and unhesitatingly make them to answer their own individual views. Gov. Posey's age is not as great as hundreds of men who are serving in high and responsible offices in different parts of the U. States, and yet we hear no complaint of these men not discharging their duties satisfactorily and with ability. Our late President Mr. Madison is nearly, if not quite as old as the Governor, and the present chief-magistrate Mr. Monroe is very little younger than either. No person will I presume be hardy enough to say that those illustrious men are incompetent from age to discharge the duties attached to the high office of President of the Union with distinguished ability, if they do, the voice of millions will deny the allegation. There is scarcely any man who becomes a candidate for popular favour, against whom charges of some kind or other are not made. Whether this proceeds from the imperfection of human nature, or the proneness of some individuals to calumny and detraction, I leave it for others to determine. In regard to the present instance, I will observe that Gov. Posey is in full possession of his mental as well as physical powers, and that he has given the best evidence of his zeal for the public good, in a course of forty years of faithful services to his Country. Will not such a man be entitled to the public confidence? Can a man who has sealed his devotion to his Country with his blood, who has honourably filled the highest and most responsible offices, be viewed with suspicion, or rejected to make room for others, who have no such claims to support them? I pretend not to support Gov. Posey by making comparisons between him and any other person who may come in competition with him; I go upon the broad basis of his services and his merit, and I do not hesitate to say that these, in my estimation entitle him to the gratitude & confidence of the people. I hope at the polls that we shall all rally around this gallant old soldier, this excellent citizen! This venerable Patriot, who in the "days that tried men's souls" victoriously breasted the storm which threatened to overwhelm our liberties and degrade us to the characters we despise, that of being made slaves to a tyrant.

A VOTER.

To the electors of Sullivan, Knox, and Davis counties—

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

By the mutual solicitations of my friends, I am induced to offer myself as a candidate for a seat in your next legislature. From urgent considerations I thought it my duty to offer my services to the people, as it was the wishes of those who are acquainted with me, and likewise my principles—a warm and devoted republican; and my qualifications necessary for the discharge of the duty incumbent on me as a legislator.

Should I meet with your approbation in tendering my services for such a public charge, and you should consider me competent for the performance of the task—and willingly confide to my care such an important trust, it is only necessary for me to say I will be vigilant in the discharge of my duty and use my best endeavors to promote your political welfare.

I am respectfully yours,
WILLIAM PITTS.

"Do unto others as you would be done by."

THE deceased capt. PARMEAS BECKES was generally acknowledged to be an honest man. He came to an untimely end, leaving a number of tavern and sporting accounts unsettled.—And as a sufficient time (four years!) has been afforded for the honest to do his estate that Justice which his name merits, but as yet omitted.—The books have at length been placed in my hands for collection—and settled they must and shall be. I therefore flatter myself that no one will be backward in calling to pay who were not so run in debt. Its pretty well known that those who had demands against him have found out, long since, who his executors are!!

For the executors,
G. W. JOHNSTON.
