

POETICAL ASYLUM.

FROM THE PORT FOLIO.

"Thy Will Be Done."

When adverse winds right keenly blow ;
When stern affliction's grasp we know ;
Her torch when persecution whirls ;
When envy lifts her snaky curls ;
Thrice happy he whose soul resign'd,
Unmov'd can see the torrent run ;
Can say, his eye to heaven inclin'd,
"Thy will be done."

O life, thy roses thorns unfold ;
O death, thy grasp is fearful cold,
With riches come unnumber'd cares :
With poverty ten thousand snares,
Then where can happiness be found !
Nor in the cot, nor purple throne,
Herein deth happiness abound,
"Thy will be done."

When blasting winds blow cold & bleak,
With longing eye and sunken cheek,
When haggard famine stalks around :
When war triumphant stains the ground ;
When the sad mother beats her breast
To see her babe's last sigh is drawn
O what can sooth her soul to rest ?
"Thy will be done."

'Tis this can still the adverse gale,
'Tis this can bid wan famine hail,
'Tis this can soften war's alarm,
'Tis this oppression's rage disarms,
This plucks the thistle from our road
When life's deluding joys are gone ;
'Tis this will raise the soul to God,
"Thy will be done."

GOOD WISHES.

A French Journalist addressed the following to his readers on New-Year's day.

To my friends I wish independence—to my enemies, that they may be dependent on government.

I wish the gout to inguineers—the jaundice to the envious—the black jaw to assassins.

I wish firmness to the members of our chamber of deputies, and sincerity to our orators. To all warriors I wish the retirement of Cincinnatus—to all wives the devotedness of Aescle—to all mothers the joy of orphans—to certain husbands the patience of Socrates.

To foreigners I wish a happy return to their country—to ministers a peep into futurity.

To men in office I wish sound sleep. I wish Philosophy to Philosophers—devotion to devotees and judgment to the judges.

I wish a 12 month's repose to physicians—to the ambitious 1 month in office—one day in prison to the enemies of liberty.

I wish happiness to Europe constantly to my subscribers, and a fructual augment to myself.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
June 9, 1817.

This is to give notice,

THAT separate proposals will be received at the office of the secretary for the department of war, until the 31st day of October next, inclusive, for the supply of all rations that may be required for the use of the troops of the United States, from the 1st day of June 1818, inclusive, until the 1st day of June, 1819, within the states, territories, and districts following, viz

1st. At Detroit, Michilimackinac, Green bay, Fort Wayne, Chicago, and their immediate vicinities and at any other place or places where troops are or may be stationed in the state of Michigan, within the territory of Michigan, the vicinity of the upper lakes, and the state of Ohio, and on or adjacent to the waters of Lake Michigan.

2d. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, within the states of Kentucky and Tennessee.

3d. At St. Louis, Fort Harrison, Fort Clark, Fort Armstrong, Fort Crawford, Fort Osage or Fort Clark on the Missouri river; and at any other place or places where troops are or may be stationed, within the state of Indiana, and the territories of Illinois and Missouri.

4th. At Fort Montgomery, Fort Crawford, Mobile, Fort St. Phillip, New-Orleans, Baton Rouge and Fort Claiborne; and at any other place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched, or recruited within the Mississippi territory, the state of Louisiana and their vicinities north of the Gulf of Mexico.

5th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the District of Maine and state of New-Hampshire.

6th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Massachusetts.

7th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the states of Connecticut and Rhode Island.

8th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of New-York, north of the Highlands, and within the state of Vermont.

9th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of New-York, south of the Highlands including West Point, and within the state of New-Jersey.

10th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Pennsylvania.

11th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the states of Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

12th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Virginia.

13th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of North Carolina.

14th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of South Carolina.

15th. At Tybee Barracks, Fort Hawkins and Fort Scott; and at any other place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited, within the state of Georgia, including that part of the Creek's land lying within the territorial limits of said state.

A ration to consist of one pound and one quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of salted pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap and one pound and one half of candles to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration must be particularly mentioned in the proposals, but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration as shall make the price of each part thereof bear a just proportion to the proposed price of the whole ration. The rations are to be furnished in such quantities that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contract, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops for six months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every one of the commandants of fortified places or posts, to call for at seasons, whenever same can be transported, or at any times in case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions, in advance as in the discretion of the commander shall be deemed proper.

It is understood that the contractor is to be at the expense and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops, and that all losses sustained by the depredations of the enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid by the United States, at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the depositions of two or more persons of credible characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued, until the supplies which have been or may be furnished under the contract now in force, have been consumed.

GEO. GRAHAM,
Acting secretary of war.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.
KANAWA: from the subscriber on the night of the 31st August last a negro man named

SAM CARR,
6 feet high, weight 200 & upwards when in health left leg smaller than the other from a white swelling, which occasions him to limp smartly—hands & feet large—broad flat nose, very black, he is one of the greatest hypocrites and liars perhaps in the world. Of his color, very smart shrewd cunning fellow—professes to be a methodist, prays regularly night and morning in his family. I purchased him out of Jail, at $560 at this place, of Elisha Green, of Tennessee, from whom he runaway. He has with him a Rifle gun, brass mounted, Tomahawk and Butcher knife—wearing apparel of all kinds, bed clothing to a considerable amount. ALSO

ALICE, the wife of SAM, very black, small woman large mouth & eyes handsomely shaped small hollow feet—small toes short, she has considerable clothing also. I wish them to be well searched when taken, as I believe they have upwards of $300 with them, as I have lost money lately out of my desk—they have with them a young girl 12 or 13 years old, the daughter of Alice a servant to John Harbin—I will give the above reward for Sam & Alice, or $50 for either of them, with all reasonable expenses if secured in any jail so that I get them, or delivered to me in Vincennes.
