NOTICE

The CITY OF WASHINGTON GAZETTE will commence publication on Monday the 27th of October 1817; the size of the sheet to be superroyal, handsomely printed, and to be issued daily, and three times a week, namely, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The principles and conduct of this paper will be liberal and independent. It is intended to furnish the regular business of congress, the debates as far as practicable, without partiality; and generally all interesting matter relating to the legislative and executive branches of the government of the United States; treaties, state papers, and all official information, will be printed at large, with a copious selection of foreign and domestic news.

The prospectus, published in most of the newspapers of the United States, contains a further outline of the plan, & a declaration of the politics of the editor.

The price, daily, will be ten dollars per annum; and twice a week, five dollars per annum. The papers will be well packed, and regularly transmitted to any part of the United States. Advertising on the usual terms.

Postmasters, and others, who hold subscription papers, are requested to forward them to the editor at the City of Washington, without delay, in order that subscribers may be placed on the list in time to embrace the proceedings of the 15th congress, which will convene on the 4th of December next.

JONATHAN E. LINT

Printers who have had the goodness to insert the prospectus of the Gazette and those who EXCHANGE, are respectfully solicited to copy the above advertisement into their papers.
