

such spectacle. Yet many of the fashionable ladies attend on such occasions, and appear to enjoy the sight very much: some of whom sitting near me, appeared to be much amused at the disgust I manifested on the occasion.

There were fully thirteen thousand people present, and eight bulls provided for the occasion; of which number four, with fourteen horses were killed, and many horses badly wounded.

"One ball is turned out at a time, who is encountered by a man on horse-back, armed with a lance, of ten feet in length, with a spear on the end; he is called a Picador—when the animal charges on the Picador he is received on the point of the lance, which generally makes him change his course. Should the rider miss his aim, which frequently happens, then his horse is sure to be killed or severely wounded by the horns of the bull.

"In these savage recreations the rider seldom gets hurt, notwithstanding the danger there appears in the enterprise."

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

A motion made in the French Legislature this spring, to enforce respect to the established religion of the French empire, and to punish outrages against it, was negatived on the ground that sectarians associate peacefully together only while they enjoy the liberty of differing, and that they cannot be prevented by legal restrictions from attacking the dogmas of each other. "You may," said the keeper of the seals, "drag them to prison; you may load them with chains: they will still preach the same Gospel. Destroy their liberty, you become tyrannical, and you do not attain your aim." We rejoice to see this liberal and enlightened policy avowed by the cabinet of France. The example of America completely demonstrates, that pure and vital religion flourishes best under the genial shade of liberty and universal toleration.

QUEBEC, MAY 7.

Last evening a huge mass of rock detached itself from Cape Diamond and fell into Chambain street, blocking up the avenue, of about 50 yards, and burying under its fragments a number of pieces of cannon and gun carriages.

LONDON, April 10.

Emigration—Numerous emigrations are now taking place from York-shire, chiefly for the U. States; but a considerable number have also recently gone to South America, and many others are preparing to follow them. The mischief of the expatriations is increased by the emigrations alluded to, being not composed merely of poor distressed artisans who are in quest of food and employment, but chiefly of persons possessed of property, sufficient to render them comfortable in their own country.

The London newspapers advertise no less than fifteen ships to take out passengers to America, whose tonnage amounts to 3,200 tons; and the Belfast papers nearly as many more. By the returns of the latter ports, it appears that about 11000 persons emigrated to America from thence, last season, amongst whom were upwards of 700 families.

MAY 13.—An old woman 70 years of age, was one of the emigrants who lately sailed on board the brig Fanny, from armstrong, for America. She had waited at a public house in the town some days for the sailing of the vessel, and the landlord accidentally going into the parlour, to his great surprise, found the table covered with gold coin of different descriptions amounting to 900 guineas, which she was at that moment in the act of counting. The money, she informed him was the many years savings of her profits of a small farm; but finding latterly her store decreased she was resolved on going to America to improve her property.

HOUSE FLIES.

These troublesome little insects may be effectually destroyed, without the use of poison. Take half a tea-spoon full of black pepper in powder, one tea-spoon full of brown sugar and one tablespoon of cream; mix them well together, and place them in the room, on a plate, where the flies are troublesome, and they will soon disappear.

From the Philadelphia Union.

Mr. Brownson.—During a late visit at Mount Vernon, I found in the back leaf of a book, the following compliment from Lord Erskine to George Washington. The book was entitled "A view of the causes and consequences of the present war with France, by the hon. Thomas Erskine."

S****.

"To General Washington,

"Sir, I have take the liberty to introduce your august and immortal name, in a short sentence, which is to be found in the book I send to you.

"I have a large acquaintance amongst the most valuable and exalted classes of men; but you are the only being for whom I ever felt an awful reverence.

"I sincerely pray God to grant a long and serene evening, to a life so gloriously devoted to the universal happiness of the world."

"T. ERSKIE."

LAND,

YING in Crawford county, Illinois, about 3 miles from Harris-

Bluff, which is a good landing place
for boats at all seasons of the year—4½ miles from the Town of York and 8 miles from Palestine, the county seat for said county. There is 80 ares under fence, and 40 under good cultivation—also, several never fail-

SPRINGS, a good Cabin, some stock, a team, and farming utensils

sufficient to carry on the business.—

About one half of it is Prairie and the other excellent timber. This land, for the convenience of its situation and richness of its soil, cannot be surpassed by any in the western country. It is favored by a salubrious breeze at all seasons of the year—in a neighborhood of people where nothing but harmony prevails. A road is to run between the two quarter sections, to strike the Wabash river at the main landing place for that settlement. A saw-mill and grist-mill are now building within 1½ miles of the premises. Any person wishing to purchase land with improvements

would do well to look at this for I am positive that they would be pleased with its situation and the terms on which it can be purchased.
