THE Public are hereby notified, that the Directors of this Institution having reason to believe that the genuine, One Hundred Dollar notes issued by it (if there are any now out) have been withheld from circulation, for fraudulent purposes, by the circulators of counterfeit notes of the same denomination: It is particularly requested that no note purporting to be for One Hundred Dollars, of Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, be received by any person whatever, that the present holders may be obliged to present them for payment at the Bank, where a proper investigation will take place.
