

those who may hereafter enlist, are to receive an acre of land per month as long as they continue to serve the state; so that if the war should linger on for several years, every private will find himself, at its close, not only a free man, but a landed proprietor. Those who may be called upon to serve beyond the frontiers of the Morea are to receive an acre and a half per month. The rights of those killed in battle will descend to their heirs, who will receive for the whole amount of the time which the deceased had engaged to serve. These incapacitated by wounds are to be considered as having completed their engagement.

Smyrna May 29.—Amongst the number of private circumstances, the following is guaranteed by several eye-witnesses. A young Greek female, sixteen or seventeen years of age, of great beauty, was carried off by an Arab, who sold her to a Turk for 300 piastres. Shortly afterwards, he offered 3,000 piastres to her new master for the re-purchase of this beautiful Chiot. The Turk, who already felt a sentiment of love, refused the money. The Arab proceeded to the market, met the Turk, and wanted to compel him to restore the slave on receiving 300 piastres, the original price. The Turk opposed this, and high words arose; the Arab, at length, in a transport of anger, said, 'you shall not have her,' and, taking out his pistol, lodged the contents in her bosom; she fell and expired. The noble Turk embraced the inanimate body, and mingled his tears with its blood. Recovering himself, he presented himself before the captain Pacha and demanded justice. 'You shall have it,' said the grand admiral. 'Do you know the murderer?—Yes.' 'Let all the Arabs be arrested and brought before me.' The order was executed, and the Turk pointed out the guilty individual. 'Draw thy sabre and cut off his head.' The Turk declined the office, which was then performed by the executioner.

Africa. The British government now have possession of the establishments on the coast that heretofore belonged to the African company, and they are placed under the restrictions of the colonial laws. The governor general is sir Charles Mc Arthur. Com. Mends, the naval commander, has a frigate and several smaller vessels under his charge—He appears to be an active and vigilant officer, and a worthy man, affording aid and assistance liberally to strangers on the coast. He has had the command about eight months, during which his squadron has captured eight slave vessels, with 1856 slaves on board—in one case, after a smart resistance, in which several of the dealers in blood were happily killed—as we wish that all engaged in it may meet.

28 PROPOSALS

OF
SAMUEL DILLWORTH, FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION

The Military Instructor, And Militia Manual,

Containing a System of Discipline and Manoeuvres of Infantry,

Adapted to the use of the Militia.

Shewing the formation, manœuvres and evolutions of Company, Battalion & Regiment.

Also the several duties and situations of each Officer and non-commissioned officer,
on Parade and in Manœuvre.

To which is added, the most approved mode of

Manuel Exercise.

The whole compiled from the best modern authors, under the immediate inspection of Major Genl. H. JOHNSON, of Vincennes, Indiana.

The necessity and utility of such a work must be obvious to every Officer and Soldier: an uniform action of the whole, greatly facilitates the movements of any body of men, & on the knowledge of this, the efficacy of their exertions must greatly depend. There are no means by which knowledge can be more readily obtained than by the experience of others, with these considerations the proposed work is presented for patronage.

CONDITIONS.

The work shall be neatly printed, on good paper, and will contain about 150 pages. It will be delivered to subscribers at 75 cents per copy, stitched, or $1 bound in boards.

Those who subscribe and pay for ten copies shall be entitled to one copy gratis—the work will be put to press, & shall be finished with all possible dispatch, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to defray the expenses of printing.—The names of subscribers will be printed at the end of the work.

Printers in Indiana and Illinois, disposed to aid the above work, will be pleased to give the proposals a few insertions in their papers, and receive subscriptions for the same

1500 MURDER. $50 REWARD.

THE Sheriff of Sullivan County will give the above reward, for the apprehension of JOHN HADDEN, who broke jail on the night of the 20th of June, 1822. He is about 35 years of age, five feet 10 inches in height, well set, light hair, blue eyes, down look, a wen on one of his wrists, believed to be on his left, slow in speech, and much of a sloven in his dress, fond of ardent spirits, and and when intoxicated loses the use of his limbs, talks but little. When agitated or much pleased, shrugs his shoulders—his cloths not known, a great woodsman, and fond of a Rifle. It is thought he is armed with knife, tomahawk, and rifle, and will make for Canada.—He stands indicted for the murder of his mother, Isabella Hadden, on the 11th of May last. All officers are requested to use diligence to apprehend him, and Editors of Newspapers throughout the United States who are well wishers to the laws of Justice to insert the above.

GEORGE BOON, Shff.
