

Portugal proceeds tranquilly in the cause of reformation: but the political fate of Spain, must also be her fate, and it behoves her, to unite heart and hand, with her neighbor, to discountenance internal treason, and foreign interference.

The situation in which these two last mentioned powers are placed is extremely interesting, and every citizen of the U. States must look with anxiety for the final event of the impending struggle between the partisans of absolute power on the one hand, and the friends of a free representative government on the other.

The U. S. SCHOONER GRAMPUS has arrived at Charleston, with her prize the brig Palmyra, belonging to Porto Rico, lately called the Panchita, a "notorious character" in the West India seas.

From the account, it appears that when the Grampus was convoying some vessels to St. Thomas, this brig came within hail, saying that she wished to board one of the fleet, and was told it would not be permitted. "The G. left St. Thomas 14th August, having under her care the schooners Veloce and Caducus, for Curacao, and next day saw a brig in chase; on the 16th saw the same brig on the weather-bow and gave chase to her; she hoisted English colors and then changed them to Spanish and fired a gun to windward, and at half past 10, she hoisted a white flag at the fore top mast, and was soon found to be the Palmyra. At twenty minutes past 11, the Grampus was brought under the lee of the brig, within pistol shot, and Lieut. Gregory demanded her instant surrender as a pirate; the brig answered that the demand was not understood, and, upon its being repeated, she commenced a fire upon the Grampus with her small arms and carronades; this was so effectually returned that, in about three minutes and a half she gave up the combat, being a complete wreck, having one killed and seven wounded, and three shot between wind and water, both pumps shot through and the brig in a sinking condition. The cry of we are sinking, was made immediately upon striking her flag, and boats were despatched under command of Lieut. Vorhies, to take charge of the vessel, and save her if possible. It was with great difficulty and after great exertions that Lieut. V. was able to stop the leaks—the water was on the cabin floor, and the pumps being in a great measure useless, he laid her over on her side, by shifting her guns and other weighty articles to the sound side of the vessel, and by that means saved her. The Grampus received a little injury in her sails and rigging, but had no man hurt."—The Palmyra was armed with one long brass pounder, and eight 18-pounder carronades, and had a crew of 88 men, "a mixture of all nations and the friends of none." It was ascertained that they had robbed several vessels of the United States and a part of her crew was recognized as having committed certain acts of piracy all which, it seems that Lieut. com. Gregory has taken care to obtain the proof of. The people of St. Thomas were much pleased with the capture of this vessel. The sick and wounded were sent to Porto Rico, by Lieut. Gregory, with letter to the governor, stating the circumstances under which he had made the capture of the brig, and hoping it would cause no coolness between the United States and Spain. But it is said that the governor immediately embargoed all the American vessels, and impeded all the American citizens there.

On board of the Grampus and her prize, 77 prisoners, with the former captain of the brig, were brought in. In consequence of having so great a number on board, the duty of the officers and seamen has been severe to guard against a surprise. They slept upon deck for 28 nights, but are all healthy.

Lieut. Weaver, of the Navy, arrived in this city on Friday last, from the Pacific, though not immediately from our squadron in that sea. He left Lima about the 25th of June, shortly before which a battle took place between the Royalists and a division of San Martin's army, in which the latter were decisively beaten and nearly destroyed. No other event of importance had recently occurred.

Lieut. Weaver came over land from the Pacific to the Atlantic, across the Isthmus of Panama, which has become an interesting country from the possibility of an attempt, some time or other, being made to connect the two great oceans at that point, if the nature of the intervening land be found to admit the practicability of such a work. Lieut. W. represents the country, on the route which he came, as generally low and flat, and such an one we should presume, as would render an inter-oceanic communication, by canal, between the rivers which fall into each sea, a work neither difficult nor expensive. We did not see Lieut. W. ourselves, during his stay in town, or our inquiries would have enabled us to give a more particular description of the Isthmus. Its general character, however, may be understood from the above, and from his denouncing it as throughout an ague and fever country, of which he had good evidence being detained some time on that road by the sickness.

16 HORRID MURDER. $50 REWARD.

THE Sheriff of Sullivan County will give the above reward, for the apprehension of JOHN HADDEN, who broke jail on the night of the 20th of June, 1822. He is about 35 years of age, five feet 10 inches in height, well set, light hair, blue eyes, down look, a wen on one of his wrists, believed to be on his left, slow in speech, and much of a sloven in his dress, fond of ardent spirits, and and when intoxicated loses the use of his limbs, talks but little. When agitated or much pleased, shrugs his shoulders—his cloths not known, a great woodsman, and fond of a Rifle. It is thought he is armed with knife, tomahawk, and rifle, and will make for Canada.—He stands indicted for the murder of his mother, Isabella Hadden, on the 11th of May last. All officers are requested to use diligence to apprehend him, and Editors of Newspapers throughout the United States who are well-wishers to the laws of Justice to insert the above.
