

old women, who rashly ventured their persons in defence of their property.

If the fate of Andre is to be regretted by the American people, what should they do about Hale? If Jones was a "pirate"—what dictionary can furnish us with a proper name to give Cockburn?—Let justice be done. (Niles.)

Van Diemen's land, is rapidly increasing in civilization. A plan for supplying the town with water, by iron pipes, a bank, distillery & brewery, all give proof of the rapid progress in the comforts and conveniences of Europe. (ib.)

Notice to Printers.

THE undersigned acquaints the Printers of this city, and throughout the United States, that after very heavy expenditures, and much exertion, he is enabled to execute at the shortest notice, all orders for type of the following sizes:

Great Primer,	Burgois,
English,	Brevier,
Pica,	Minion,
Small Pica,	Noupareil.
Long Primer,

The type which is furnished from his foundry, will, it is confidently believed, be pronounced equal, if not superior, in beauty and durability, to any now in use in this country.

As it has been the wish of the subscriber to have his plain type except in elegance, he has not yet prepared himself to issue a Specimen Book of ornamental type—he will, however, in a short time, furnish Printers with samples of every requisite type for a paper or book office. He will thankfully receive orders for any quantity of type, or other articles above enumerated, and pledges himself to furnish them as punctually, and upon as good terms as they can be procured from any Type Foundry in America.

The subscriber takes the liberty to mention that he is the first native American Letter Cutter in the United States, and that nearly all the letters furnished from the different foundries have been cut by him. He has for many years labored in the service of proprietors of other foundries. He now asks the patronage of Printers for himself.

He has also every description of Brass Rules, Space Rules, Quotations, Justifiers, Leaders, &c.

RICHARD STARR.

NOTES.

1. The Postmaster General may expedite the mail and alter the times for arrivals and departure, at any time during the continuance of the contract, by paying an adequate compensation for any extra expense that may be occasioned thereby. And he reserves the right to abridge any contract made under this advertisement when he thinks it proper, and to deduct from the compensation at the ratio paid under the contract, for lessening the duties of the contractor.

2. Ten minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mail, at all offices where no particular time is specified.

3. For every thirty minutes delay, (unavoidable accidents excepted,) in arriving after the time prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit five dollars, and, if the delay continue until the departure of any depending mail, whereby a trip is lost, a forfeiture of double the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip, shall be incurred, unless it shall be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident; in which case the amount of pay for a trip will be forfeited.

4. Persons making proposals are required to state their prices by the year. Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly—in the months of May, August, November, and February, one month after the expiration of each quarter.

5. No other than a free white person shall be employed to carry the mail.

6. Where the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals; and the stage must be of sufficient size, unless otherwise expressed, to conveniently convey seven passengers.

7. Every proposer may offer in his bid, to make improvement in the transportation of the mail, from the terms invited, either as to the mode of transporting it, the speed required, or the frequency of the trips per week—which shall receive due consideration.

The number of the post route shall be stated in every bid, and the proposal must be sealed and directed to the General Post-Office, and endorsed "Proposals."

Strict attention must be given to the endorsement, as it is not intended to break the seal of any proposal, until the time for receiving bids shall have expired.

8. The Postmaster General reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end, whenever one failure happens, which amounts to the loss of a trip.

9. The distances stated are such as have been communicated to this office, and some of them may be incorrect: On this subject the contractor must inform himself—the department will not be answerable for any mistake.

10. No bid shall be withdrawn after the time for receiving bids shall have expired; and should any person refuse to take the contract at his bid, he shall be held responsible to the Department for the difference between his bid, and that at which the contract shall be made. No decisions on bids shall be made known before the 17th of October. The assignment of any contract without the consent of the Postmaster General, shall forfeit it—and in all cases where application to make a transfer is made, the terms must be fully stated.

11. The contracts are to be in operation on the first day of January next. The contracts for routes N. 1 to 65 inclusive, are to continue three years. No. 65 to 93, and from 135 to 167 inclusive, are to continue two years, and all the others one year, except 173, 174 and 175, which will continue two years.

JOHN MCLEAN.

Post-master General.

GENERAL POST-OFFICE,
Washington City, June 14th, 1825.

Administrator's Notice.

FROM the number and magnitude of the claims recently to me exhibited against the estate of James Moore, dec'd. (late of Gibson county,) it is ascertained that the said estate is inevitably insolvent—therefore I have filed in the Gibson Circuit court my bill of complaint for the settlement of the said estate according to the statute of the state of Indiana for the settlement of insolvent estates—and I do hereby give notice to all the creditors of said estate, that unless they come in and present their claims before the determination of the court thereon, they will be postponed until after the payment of those which shall be presented.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber living now at Columbus, in Mississippi, a negro man named and was taken up sometime in June last, in Pope county, Illinois, and broke jail, and made his escape from there on the 20th of July. He has a scar from a stab just above one of his hip bones. He is about 27 or 30 years old, five feet six or eight inches high; black, has rather a down look when spoken to, his eyes have rather a red cast, spare built, but neatly formed—and no particular marks other than as above described.

Before leaving the jail, he told another negro that he would not tell his right name, nor acknowledge the name of his master again, as it was from his having done so, in this instance, that he came to be taken up, and news of it sent to me—I have reason to believe that he is aiming for the state of Ohio.

I will give the above reward to any person who will apprehend said negro, and put him in jail, so that I can get him, or one hundred dollars to have him delivered to me, where I now live, and will pay all expenses for the transportation.

JAMES BAILEY.

Sawneetown, Aug. 22, 1825.—30-9t

$100 Reward.

LOPED from my farm in Wilson county, Tennessee, 6 miles from Galatin, and twenty-five miles from Nashville, on the 4th of this instant, a negro man named about 25 years of age; six feet high, of a yellowish complexion; has a scar over one of his eyes, some scars on his legs. He took with him a fur hat, a drab great coat, with a large cape covered with buttons, he is a house carpenter by trade, and will, there is no doubt, endeavor to pass as a freeman. The above mentioned reward will be given to any person, who will apprehend said negro, and secure him in some jail, so that I can get him again.
