MASONIC MIRROR, and Mechanics' Intelligencer.

BY MOORE & SEVEY.

THIS work has been two years before the public.—Its success has been such as to place it, in point of numbers, on an equality with the first periodical publications in the country: and the publishers, sensible of the many obligations due their Masonic Brethren, for the exercise of their influence in giving it this extensive circulation, are encouraged to a renewal of their best efforts.

Free Masonry is a subject that has engrossed the attention of man, from the primitive ages to the present: and its mystic beauties like its elder sister, Religion, have commanded the respect and adoration of the wise and good. The first object of the Institution, is to preserve its members from the immoral infection by which they are surrounded in the various walks of life—unite them in the bonds of Charity & Peace—sublimate their minds with the noblest principles of nature, and render them fit for the service of a pure being: that, when the Grand Master of the Universe appears in the splendid robes of his majesty and glory, to inspect the Universal Lodge, he may say to them—“Well done good and faithful,” enter the glorious Temple of the living God, and encircle his throne forever. To inculcate this sentiment, has been the primary object of the MIRROR, and the publishers have the satisfaction to believe they have not labored in vain. In addition to this, the Masonic Department contains Historical Essays on the Origin and Progress of the Order: Hymns, Songs, and such intelligence as is calculated to interest or instruct.

The Scientific Department of the paper, is designed to afford Mechanics, whose avocations and means preclude them the perusal of voluminous works, a cheap, but correct source of information, relative to their trades and professions.—It contains such extracts & original communications, as are best calculated to subserve their views and interests.

The Miscellaneous Department comprises Historical Sketches, Fancy Tales, Instructive Lessons, Anecdotes, Poetry, and such other branches of Polite Literature, as are adapted to Female taste, or have a tendency to promote the Youthful Genius in its researches. A summary of Foreign, Domestic, and Political Intelligence is furnished weekly, comprising every article of news worthy of record.

CONDITIONS

The MIRROR is published every Saturday morning, on a royal sheet of fair complexion and fine texture, each number containing eight large quarto pages, at $2 per year, in advance—$3 per year, payable in nine months after subscribing. $1 50 cents for six months—$1 for three months, in advance. The paper can be obtained on no other conditions.

Those who act as agents, procure six annual subscribers, and become responsible for their yearly payments, shall be entitled to a 7th copy gratis, so long as the said six may continue to receive the paper.

* Letters must be post paid. Agents transmitting money are requested to be particular in forwarding the names of the individuals to whom it is to be credited.

* The numbers from the commencement of the third volume can be supplied, if required.

* Address MOORE & SEVEY, Publishers of MASONIC MIRROR, 75, Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

* Subscriptions for the above, received at this office.

Apprentice Wanted.

WANTED an apprentice to the Tinning business—a lad from the country, who can come well recommended, from 14 to 16 years of age, would be preferred.

THE CASKET

Or, Flowers of Literature, Wit, and Sentiment, for 1827.

Office of the Saturday Evening Post, } Philadelphia Dec. 2, 1826. }

THE Casket, or Flowers of Literature, Wit, and Sentiment, which has had an unprecedented increase of patrons during the last six months, will after the present volume is finished, contain each number, 40 octavo pages, printed well, on small handsome type, upon the finest paper, stitched and covered, and furnished at the low price of Two Dollars and fifty cents per annum. The Casket is a collection from the choicest pieces of the Saturday Evening Post, made with a reference to the difference which should exist in the materials of a weekly paper, and those of a monthly publication, the former of course enriched with essays, poetry, anecdotes, and those set off by a recital of the occurrences of the week.—The latter can receive little value from a mere detail of events, many of which would cease to be interesting before they were recorded.

The vast quantity of matter crowded, by small type, and careful arrangement in the columns of every number of the Saturday Evening Post, will, in the course of a month, furnish the most ample materials from which to form an interesting periodical work such as the Casket has been considered by its partial friends, and such as we intend, it shall be. Notwithstanding the fact, that the Casket is but a collection from the columns of the Saturday Evening Post, we confidently predict, and indeed we are sanctioned in the experience we already have, that its most numerous patrons will be found among the subscribers to our weekly paper. A large number of those who take the “Post,” depend upon that paper for the news of the week—it is therefore read with avidity by almost every member of the family where it is received, and this general use frequently injures its appearance so much, as almost to render it unfit for the file, and for binding. The numbers too, by this general use, are not unfrequently lost, mutilated, or entirely destroyed, and the file thus broken. The Casket is calculated to prevent this inconvenience, and to furnish, at a very cheap price, all the useful matter for which the weekly paper would be desirable when bound. In thus giving a permanent form and select association to the choice pieces of our weekly contributions, it is confidently anticipated, that new and successful inducements will be held out for the exercise of superior talent, and unusual care in our literary department. In addition to the recommendation of neatness in the general appearance—and particular attention to the typographical execution, it is our intention to embellish each number of the “Casket” with three handsome Engravings, from the hands of some of the most distinguished artists of the country.

With these claims to patronage, the “Casket” will, as has been previously mentioned, be afforded to those who subscribe for that paper exclusively, at the low price of two dollars and fifty cents per year, subscription which, it is confidently believed, is much lower than that for any publication of a similar character in this country—but to the subscribers of “The Saturday Evening Post,” “The Casket” will be furnished for two dollars.

The January No. for 1827, will be embellished with a portrait of the venerable John Adams, formerly President of the United States, one of Longacre's best engravings: Also, a correct and beautiful view of Fair Mount Water Works, in the vicinity of Philadelphia: besides the first number of the School of Flora, being the commencement of a regular series of Treatises on Botany, illustrated with numerous cuts.

Postmasters and publishers of papers who will interest themselves in obtaining subscribers, and be responsible for the subscription, shall be entitled to every sixth copy gratis. Address

ATRINSON & ALEXANDER, Philadelphia.

Persons wishing to subscribe, will please to send in their names by the first of the year, as there is no doubt the demand for the work will be greatly increased, and, therefore, the possibility of being furnished with the numbers from the beginning, will be rendered more doubtful. Editors inserting the above two or three times, shall receive a copy of the work.

Subscription for the above work received at this office.

Apprentices Wanted.

ONE or two Apprentices will be taken to learn the SADDLERS BUSINESS, boys from the country, who can come well recommended, from 14 to 16 years of age, will meet with a good situation by applying to
