

In His name and through his grace, they are therefore all and severally called upon and required, to transmit to me through the post-office without unnecessary delay, such sums as in all due faithfulness of mind, may to each seem meet on the occasion, according to their respective circumstances; any suggestions of spirits, natural or supernatural, to the contrary notwithstanding—for non compliance there will be allowed no excuse, no exoneration, no justification.

And now, in further compliance with the will and direction of the Lord, the Creator and Sovereign Ruler of heaven and earth, after the manner of a witness, as foretold in scripture, I testify, considering myself in His immediate presence, that herein I have told the truth and nothing but the truth.

Sale of Seminary Lands.

IN conformity with a law of the state of Indiana, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that on the first Monday of September next, and from day to day thereafter until the sale shall be completed,

The Seminary Township, in Gibson county, will be sold in Princeton, at Public Auction, in half-quarter sections: one fourth of the purchase money to be paid in hand, the balance at the option of the purchaser, to remain on interest for ten years, and thereafter at the option of the State Commissioners for that purpose, under the direction of the General Assembly. The interest to be paid annually in advance; and a failure for two years successively to pay such interest shall occasion a forfeiture of the land sold. Title in fee to be made when the payment is made in full. The above land was selected nearly twenty years since for the use of a State Seminary, and is recommended to purchasers by every advantage of fertility of soil and beauty of situation. It adjoins the flourishing town of Princeton, 28 miles from the Ohio, 6 from the Wabash, and the same distance from White river.

On the first Monday of Oct. next.

The Seminary Township,

in Monroe county, will be sold at Bloomington, in the same manner and on the same terms. This tract of land joins Bloomington where the State Seminary is situated, and is inferior in quality to none in the state of Indiana. Both townships were selected prior to any sales in their vicinity, and have ever been considered the most advantageous that could be made. They have farms in every variety of improvement: the towns they adjoin contain six or eight hundred inhabitants each, and it may be safely stated, that for procuring desirable situations for permanent settlers nothing equal has been offered to the public for many years. The land is to be divided by the Commissioners, James Smith for the former township, and James Borland for the latter, into three rates: the first to be sold at no less than three dollars and fifty cents per acre, the second two dollars and twenty-five cents, and the third one dollar and twenty-five cents.

PROPOSALS.

BY P. PRICE, JR.

No. 66, Lombard Street—PHILADELPHIA. For publishing a Literary Journal to be called THE SOUVENIR,

EMBELLISHED WITH

Splendid Quarto Engravings.

THIS work is intended as an agreeable and instructive companion for the parlour, and an appropriate attendant at the Toilet—to be issued every Wednesday, commencing with the first Wednesday in July next.

No exertion will be spared to render "THE SOUVENIR," in all respects worthy the patronage of the public, both as a cheap and elegant emporium of useful and interesting information, and a valuable repository of choice specimens of Miscellaneous literature. Strict attention will be bestowed on the moral tendency of "THE SOUVENIR," and a constant watchfulness preserved over the interests of virtue.

A portion of the contents will be as follows:

I. TALES, original & selected; ESSAYS, moral, humorous and scientific; POETRY, original and selected from the best American and Foreign publications; BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES of distinguished persons, male and female, particularly the latter; ANECDOTES, Bon Mots, &c. &c. The original matter necessary for this department of our paper will be furnished by individuals who are advantageously known to the public through the medium of their Literary productions; besides the numerous correspondents who may be expected to contribute.

II. MISCELLANY—Interesting items of intelligence, foreign and domestic occurrences, deaths, marriages, &c.

III. ENGRAVINGS—The first number of every month will be embellished with a splendid COPPER-PLATE ENGRAVING fitted to the size of the work, among which will be the following:

Alhambra, Ancient Palace of the Moorish kings in Spain.	Burning Fountain, one of the seven wonders of Dauphiny.
View of the permanent Bridge over the Schuylikil.	Grotto of Oselles.
Etna, from the gardens of the prince Biscaria.	Temple of Pluto.
View St. Petersburg.	Pont du Gard, near Nismes, Languedoc.
Arch street Ferry, Philadelphia.	Saunders's ascent of Mount Blanc.
Paraclete, founded by Abelard.	Cascade near Oysans, Dauphiny.
Giant's Causeway, and Bridge of Bridon.	Desert of the Grand Chartreuse.
State Prison, Auburn New York.	East prospect of Giant's Causeway.
Tynwall hill, Isle Man.	Castle of Segovia.
	Lake of Killarney from Kenmare Park.

Each subscriber will thus be furnished yearly with 13 superior Copperplate Engravings, the price of which if purchased singly would more than double the annual cost of the entire work.

IV. THE TOILET—In addition to the usual Literary matter contained in similar publications, the Proprietor has completed an arrangement by which he will be enabled to furnish correct descriptions of the prevailing fashions, both foreign and domestic, illustrated with elegant engravings, besides the regular series, once in each quarter; places of fashionable resort; sketches of life, manners, &c. &c. at the earliest possible period, and from the most authentic sources.

V. Editor's department; Notices of passing events; The drama; New Publications; Criticisms, Reviews, &c. &c.

TERMS.

"THE SOUVENIR" will be published every Wednesday morning, on extra-medium fine white paper, printed with new and elegant type, and decorated, in addition to the engravings alluded to above, with many appropriate embellishments. Each No. will comprise eight pages, cut, stitched and expressly adapted for binding. At the expiration of every year, or the close of a volume, the subscribers will be furnished gratis with a general index of the contents, and a handsomely engraved title-page.

Price of subscription $2 50 per annum, payable in advance. Postmasters and others out of the city, procuring five subscribers and becoming responsible for the payment, will be entitled to a sixth copy gratis.

The Copper-Plate embellishments will be superintended by the Publisher, and the typographical part of this work will be under the exclusive directions of Messrs. Atkinson & Alexander, who have been so long known to the public as able and enterprising artizans, that it is entirely unnecessary to say that so far as they are concerned, there can be no doubt as to the elegance of its execution; and with regard to his own share of the arrangements, the Publisher binds himself, in case he should fail to perform any essential part of his undertaking to refund the price of subscription.

Agents will shortly be appointed in different parts of the United States, until which time subscriptions will be received by PHILIP PRICE, Jr. No 66, Lombard street, Philadelphia, to whom all orders must be addressed, post paid.—And also by JUDAH DOBSON, 108, Chesnut street; at the office of the SATURDAY EVENING POST, No. 112 Chesnut street, two doors below the Post Office.

Post-Masters, or other gentlemen, ordering six copies of the work, will receive one copy gratis.
