

its symmetry and parts, which must remain in mystery to the multitude, and as inaccessible to it as the laws of Caligula, shall be the rule by which the conduct of all shall be squared. I shall hope that gentlemen of the bar will not suppose, that this attempt to promulgate the laws of the land, will be aimed at their useful profession, or condemn its practicability, until they see the book.

The sales and entries of the lots in the town of Indianapolis, authorized by an act of the last session, from May last up to this time, amount to twelve thousand and seventy four dollars.

The treasury is not in as good a condition as it was last year, on account of the reduction of taxes, which was authorized by the last session. The assessments of the past year, will not exceed thirty-three thousand dollars; of which it is not probable that more than twenty seven thousand will be paid into the treasury, the balance being required for commission, delinquencies, mileage and advertising. An old balance in the treasury of $ 9,234, as reported to me by the treasurer on the 31st December last, added to the sum of twenty seven thousand dollars, supposed to arrive at the treasury of this year's revenue, will make the sum of forty-six thousand two hundred and thirty-four dollars for the service of the current year, except the amounts paid out since the said 31st December last, which the treasurer has not reported to me. The ordinary expenses of the present political year, ought not to exceed twenty-seven thousand dollars. In addition to the above, it may be expected that something will be realized from old delinquent lists. Our state debt is extinguished, except what is due the road and canal and semi-annual funds, which are payable at the pleasure of the state; the amount of which appeared in my last regular communication.

The existing revenue law will produce means enough for the common purposes of government in future. The polls are rapidly increasing, and a large additional quantity of land will be added, this year, to the old source of revenue.

I shall be at all times at my post, ready to co operate with you, in any measure tending to preserve the union of the states; public and private prosperity; the just and constitutional powers of the people; the powers of the several departments of the government free from encroachment; civil liberty and equality, with their original qualifications; the rights of private property, and the sanctity of individual contracts; the exercise of all the legitimate powers delegated to the central and national legislature at Washington; the unrelinquished rights of the states; a proper respect for the acts of those in authority, always tempered by public sentiment—peace; the unqualified toleration of religious and political sentiment, without proscription, and the elements of that greatness to which our beloved country is destined, by the Ruler of the Universe, in her majestic march to arrive at

Indiana Legislature.

IN SENATE.

December 6—Mr. Smiley laid before the senate the memorial of sundry citizens of Union county, praying such alterations in the law relative to elections as will confine voters to their respective townships; read and referred.

Mr. Simonson offered for consideration the following resolution: Resolved, That the committee of ways and means be instructed to inquire into the constitutionality of the road law, which imposes a greater road tax upon non resident, than resident owners of land, and also into the expediency of repealing or modifying that part of the revenue law which provides for the sale of real estate, and the passing of an absolute title in fee simple, to the purchaser for the non payment of taxes, after the lapse of two years, where infant orphans are the owners, and report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Gregory then moved to amend the same by adding after the word "orphans" the words "and non residents," which was adopted.

Mr. Fletcher then moved further to amend the same, by adding the words "infant owners," the words "idiots, persons insane, females covert, and persons without the jurisdiction of the United States on public business," which amendment was also adopted. The resolution thus amended, was adopted 11 to 10.

Mr. Boon moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday, taken on the resolution proposed by Mr. Huntington, & which reads as follows—Resolved, That a select committee be appointed to inquire into the propriety of instructing our representatives in congress to procure a repeal of the duty on Turk's island salt, and that said committee have leave to report by memorial, or otherwise—which was carried in the affirmative, and Huntington, Graham and Judah, were appointed a committee in pursuance thereof.

On motion of Mr. DeCoursey—Resolved, That a committee be appointed to inquire into the expediency of instructing our senators and representatives in congress, to procure from the U. 1. A joint resolution relative to so much of the state road from Mauk's ferry to Indianapolis, as lies between Franklin and Indianapolis.
- 2d. A bill directing the agent of the three per cent fund to pay certain claims.
3. A bill to locate and open a state road from Indianapolis to Lafayette in Tippecanoe county.
4. A bill to establish a state road in the counties therein named.
5. A bill to provide for the survey and location of a canal from fort Wayne, to some point on the Wabash river, north of the mouth of Tippecanoe river.

duties.—19. Two bills relative to crime and punishments.—20. A bill relative to the election of county and township officers.—And your committee further report, that they have partially examined the foregoing unfinished business, and from the best view they can take of the subject, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the bills and resolutions numbered 1, 2, 3 & 4, be committed to the standing committee on roads; that the bills and resolutions numbered 5, 6 & 7 be committed to the standing committee on canals; that the bills and joint resolutions numbered 9 & 10, be committed to a select committee; that the bill No. 8, be indefinitely postponed; that those numbered 11 & 14, be committed to the committee on education; that those numbered 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 & 20, be committed to the committee on the judiciary; and that those numbered 12 and 13, be committed to the committee of ways and means.

Mr. Judah moved to refer bill No. 5, to a select committee. His object in making this motion, was, that the business might be speedily and efficiently acted upon, which he feared might not be the case if it were referred to the standing committee, in consequence of the quantity of business to which they were compelled to attend.—Mr. Stevens was opposed to such a reference. He considered it a very unusual course to take matters of such high import from the standing committee.—Mr. Judah's motion was lost.—Bill number 8, was laid on the table.
