AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION.

We are gratified at laying before our readers the following proposition to amend the constitution of the United States, which has been offered in the legislature of Virginia, by Mr. Newton. The time, and the two great parties in our country, are favorable to such an amendment. We have no doubt it would take from the future contests for the presidency, much of the bitterness and acrimony which would otherwise attend them; and at which the feelings of every good man in the country must revolt.

Scioto Gaz.

Resolved, by the general assembly of Virginia, that the constitution of the United States should be so amended, that the President or Chief Magistrate of the Union, may be elected for one term of six years, and be rendered forever thereafter ineligible to the same office.

Resolved, That the governor of the commonwealth, cause a copy of the foregoing resolution, to be sent to the governors of each state of the United States, to be laid before the legislature thereof, with a request that they will co-operate with this state in such measures as may be necessary to effect the desired amendment of the constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That the senators of this state in the congress of the United States, be instructed, and the members of the Virginia delegation in the house of representatives, be requested to use their exertions to promote the object desired by this assembly.

The following letter is published under a belief that the distinguished patriot & statesman, by whom it was written, will have no objection that his fellow citizens should know his opinion; and a confidence that they will allow that opinion the weight to which it is entitled.

Nat Int.

RICHMOND, January 1, 1829.

Dear Sir—I have received your speech on the resolution amendatory of the constitution, and thank you for sending it to me. I have read it with great attention, and think the argument against the re-eligibility of the president very strong. Public opinion is, I think, taking a decided direction towards this point; and, I am disposed to think, in its favor.—Some difference may exist respecting the time for which the chief magistrate ought to be elected—more perhaps, than on the propriety of his being re-eligible.

The question is one of great interest and delicacy; and is not without difficulty. We may perceive the inconvenience of the present arrangement much more clearly than those which may result from any new and untried system. In a great and powerful republic, nothing is more difficult than the disposition of the executive power. Yet, though not very fond of experiments, I should be disposed to try the effect of confining the Chief Magistrate to a single term.—With great respect, I am, sir, your most obedient servant,

J. MARSHALL.

THE PHILADELPHIA SOUVENIR,

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY,

Embellished with TWENTY ELEGANT QUARTO COPPER-PLATE ENGRAVINGS of remarkable Views, celebrated Persons, and quarterly plates of the Fashions,

"Now that the winter of our discontent is made glorious summer by the Sun of" JACKSON—or in other words the storm which has agitated our political horizon, being now dispelled—the publisher deems it advisable at the commencement of the New Year, to return his thanks to his patrons for the favours already bestowed, and inform them, and the public that he enters upon his duties with renewed prospects of rendering it still more interesting than at any former period—he has completed his arrangements, and is now in the receipt by every packet which arrives here or at New York from England, of the most interesting periodicals, from which he will be able to furnish his readers with the latest literary productions of merit, instead of receiving them second hand from publications in this country—for those who attach an importance to the Proteus changes of fashion, he has been induced to add La Belle Assemblee, which is believed by the gay world, to hold the "mirror up to nature," and which will enable him to present them with the earliest notice of all changes in taste & fashion which are constantly taking place, and from it to select the elegant engravings with which it is adorned to grace the pages of the Souvenir quarterly—in short no expense has been spared that will be likely to add to the value of our publication. But whilst our attention is thus directed to what transpires in Europe, it shall not permit us to neglect NATIVE MERIT—and we shall freely select from American publications what seems adapted to our purpose—and last but not least, we have succeeded in enlisting in our interest many valuable correspondents, both in this country and in Europe whose productions would do credit to any publication, and were we at liberty to give their names to the public, would add lustre to any work to which they were attached—in short, no exertion will be spared to render "THE SOUVENIR," in all respects worthy the patronage of the public, both as a cheap and elegant emporium of useful and interesting information, and a valuable repository of choice specimens of Miscellaneous literature. Strict attention will be bestowed on its moral tendency, and a constant watchfulness preserved over the cause and interests of virtue.
