CUMBERLAND ROAD.

PROPOSALS for contracts for opening the Cumberland road, located through the state of Indiana, will be received by the Superintendents at the Post-Offices in Centerville, Wayne county; Indianapolis, Marion county; Greencastle, in Putnam county; and Terre Haute, in Vigo county, until the 31st day of July, next ensuing. The work is to be done in the following manner, to wit:

The road is to be opened eighty feet wide, the timber on that width cut off and removed, the stumps must be cut low; for thirty feet of the central part of the road the stumps must be grubbed up, and removed from off the whole width of eighty feet. The said thirty feet to be levelled, the hills cut down, and the valleys filled up, so that on no part of the aforesaid width of thirty feet, the elevation of the road shall exceed an angle of four degrees with the horizon. Wherever the road is to be raised for the purpose of carrying the road over a valley, the sides of the embankment must be made to slope at an angle not exceeding thirty degrees with the horizon, or with a base of about one and a half feet for each foot in height; and in all cases the width of thirty feet at the surface must be preserved, making a proper allowance for the settling of earth, and no stumps or wood of any kind to be permitted in filling up.—Where hills are cut through, or the road dug along the side of a hill, the bank must be cut at such a slope as to prevent the earth from slipping in on the surface of thirty feet, the slopes thereupon varying according to the ground. On each side of the said thirty feet, and contiguous to it, a ditch must be made of such breadth and depth, as to lead the water freely off, and prevent its flowing on the road.

Commencing at Indianapolis, the road will be divided both Eastwardly and Westwardly, into sections of one mile each, in the following manner, viz:—Eastwardly from the 72 mile post at Indianapolis, to the 71 mile mile post or tree, to be the first section Eastwardly; from the 71 to the 70 mile post or tree, to be the second section, and so on to the state line between this state and the state of Ohio. And Westwardly, beginning at Indianapolis, and from thence to the first mile post or tree, to be the first section; from the first to the second mile post or tree, the second section, and so on to the state line dividing this state and Illinois.

Proposals for opening the road agreeably to the aforesaid regulations, will be received at the places, and until the time before mentioned. Contracts will be given to the lowest bidders, and not more than ten sections, (ten miles,) will be given to any one contractor. No advances of money will be made to any, and no bonds for performance are required; monthly payments will be made to contractors, equal to three fourths of the value of the work actually performed.

It is expected that undertakers will commence their work immediately, or so soon as possible, and complete it in a reasonable time. Articles of agreement will be entered into between the contractors and the United States, as to the manner of doing the work, and the time for its completion. Should any person offer for more than one section, he will specify distinctly and separately, the sections, and the amount for which he will complete each, and the whole.

Persons whose proposals may be accepted, will be notified immediately of the same, and directed where to attend to enter into articles of agreement. Should the present appropriation of fifty thousand dollars, not be sufficient to open the whole road, it is to be understood that no contracts will be made for a greater portion than may be opened by means thereof.

JOHN MILROY,

THE PHILADELPHIA SOUVENIR,

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY, EMBELLISHED WITH TWENTY ELEGANT QUARTO COPPER-PLATE ENGRAVINGS of remarkable Views, celebrated Persons, and quarterly plates of the Fashions.

Now that the winter of our discontent is made glorious summer by the Sun of JACKSON—or in other words the storm which has agitated our political horizon being now dispelled—the publisher deems it advisable at the commencement of the New Year, to return his thanks to his patrons for the favours already bestowed, and inform them, and the public that he enters upon his duties with renewed prospects of rendering it still more interesting than at any former period—he has completed his arrangements, and is now in the receipt by every packet which arrives here or at New York from England, of the most interesting periodicals, from which he will be able to furnish his readers with the latest literary productions of merit, instead of receiving them second hand from publications in this country—for those who attach an importance to the Protests changes of fashion, he has been induced to add La Belle Assemblee, which is believed by the gay world, to hold the "mirror up to nature," and which will enable him to present them with the earliest notice of all changes in taste & fashion which are constantly taking place, and from it to select the elegant engravings with which it is adorned to grace the pages of the Souvenir quarterly—in short no expense has been spared that will be likely to add to the value of our publication. But whilst our attention is thus directed to what transpires in Europe, it shall not permit us to neglect NATIVE MERIT—and we shall freely select from American publications what seems adapted to our purpose—and last but not least, we have succeeded in enlisting in our interest many valuable correspondents, both in this country and in Europe whose productions would do credit to any publication, and were we at liberty to give their names to the public, would add lustre to any work to which they were attached—in short, no exertion will be spared to render "THE SOUVENIR," in all respects worthy the patronage of the public, both as a cheap and elegant emporium of useful and interesting information, and a valuable repository of choice specimens of Miscellaneous literature. Strict attention will be bestowed on its moral tendency, and a constant watchfulness preserved over the cause and interests of virtue.

A portion of the contents will be as follow:

I. Tales original and selected; Essays, moral, humorous and scientific; Poetry, original and selected from the best American and Foreign publications; Biographical Sketches of distinguished persons, male and female; Anecdotes Bon Mots, &c. &c. The original matter necessary for this department of our paper will be furnished by individuals who are advantageously known to the public through the medium of their literary productions.

II. The Toilet.—In addition to the usual Literary matter contained in similar publications, the Proprietor has completed an arrangement by which he will be able to furnish correct descriptions of the prevailing fashions, both foreign and domestic, illustrated with elegant engravings, besides the regular series, once in each quarter; places of fashionable resort, sketches of life, manners, &c. &c. at the earliest possible period, and from the most authentic sources.

III. Miscellany.—Interesting items of intelligence, foreign and domestic occurrences, deaths, marriages, &c.

IV. Engravings.—In each quarter the Souvenir will be embellished with four splendid quarto copper-plate engravings of remarkable American or European scenery—or portraits of distinguished characters—also one plate of the prevailing fashions, which will be sent coloured, free of charge to those who comply with the terms of subscription, of payment in advance.

Each subscriber will thus be furnished yearly with twenty superior copper-plate engravings, the price of which if purchased singly would be more than double the annual cost of the entire work.

V. Editor's department.—Notice of passing events, The Drama, New Publications, Criticisms, Reviews, &c. &c.

Terms.—The Souvenir will be published every Wednesday, and forwarded to subscribers out of the city by mail or otherwise as may be directed—each number will contain Eight closely printed pages and will be decorated with appropriate embellishments in addition to the above engravings.

Price of Subscription Three Dollars per annum payable in advance—for four copies Eleven Dollars—for ten copies Twenty-five Dollars, and at the same rate for a larger number—in all cases in advance, which entitles them to coloured plates of fashions.

PHILIP PRICE Jr.
