

26th of Aug. The Captain states, that just before his departure intelligence was received that the Russians had possession of Constantinople.

The London Traveller of 25th August, has the following remarks.

It is more than probable that the fate of Constantinople is by this time determined; & notwithstanding all that we have heard from time to time about the enormous power of Russia, and the danger of disturbing the equilibrium of Europe, it is quite evident, from the comparative indifference with which the population of this country await the event, that they feel no disposition to panic, after all the predictions.

Just so we thought it would be. But can any thing prove more decisively, the confidence which is felt in the present Administration? If they had been weak or wavering—if there was any reason to suspect them of want of prudence or foresight, what outcry should we now hear amongst the discontented on the approach of the Russian army to the gates of Constantinople!

But if the people have confidence in the Ministers, so have the Ministers shown a confidence in the resources of the country, which can at anytime call upon Russia to fulfil her engagements, in an attitude not only of persuasion but command. That Russia will fulfil her promises is probable, if for no other reason than this, that it is her interest to fulfil them. She knows with what jealousy the Cabinets, not of England and of France alone, but of almost every Continental power must regard her progress at the present moment. It is by good faith alone that she can maintain herself against such a coalition as could soon be formed against her.

Great praise is, therefore, due to the steadiness of the men, who, suspected of being too favorable to military adventures, withheld every temptation to war, & kept their country aloof from the struggle and in a condition to look to its termination without the fever of partisans. We look forward with curiosity to the next accounts from the East; but we have every guarantee in the vigilance and energy of our Ministers, combined with the strength of our resources, that however the war may terminate for Turkey, England and Europe have nothing to fear.

Hats Made & Sold, by

R. P. PRICE,

(VINCENNES, INDIANA.)

In the house lately occupied by James & McArthur, as an Iron store, on Second street, one door above Market street. The prices of HATS in general, are for
Beaver, - $10 Fine Rorams, $5
Fine Castor, 36 8 Coarse do 3
Coarse do 6

Hats made in the shops here, are in general, much superior to those imported from the Eastern states, for the latter are made of the coarsest wool, and naped with rabbit fur—the farmers would find it to their interest, at least 25 per cent. to purchase from the manufacturers.—I pledge myself that my HATS shall be made in the best manner, of superior stuff, and in the most Fashionable style.

By the President of the United States

In pursuance of law, I, ANDREW JACKSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare and make known, that a public sale will be held at the Land Office at CRAWFORDSVILLE, in the state of Indiana, on the second Monday in November next, for the disposal of the public lands included within the limits of the undermentioned townships and fractional townships, all situate North of the base line, and West of the second principal meridian, to wit:

Fractional townships nineteen and twenty, of range one.

Fractional townships nineteen and twenty, of range two.

Being a reservation of ten miles square, heretofore appropriated for the use of the Eel river and Thornton party of Miami Indians, at their village on Sugar creek, and ceded to the United States by the treaty of February 11th, 1828.—Also,

Fractional township twenty-four, and townships twenty-five & twenty-six, of range four.

Townships twenty-four and twenty-five of range five—also,

Fractional townships twenty-one, twenty-two and twenty-three, of range ten.

Which last mentioned range is bounded by the line of demarcation between Illinois and Indiana.—The lands reserved by law for the use of schools, and for other purposes, are to be excluded from sale.

Given under my hand, at the city of Washington, this 19th day of August, A. D. 1829.

ANDREW JACKSON.

By the President:

GEORGE GRAHAM, Commissioner of the 32-tds General Land Office.
