

tempting to represent as reduced to subordination, has issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of the south, and declared in favor of Santa Anna's movement. He has offered the contingent of his troops, and promises to be guided by the general in all points.

The following stirring proclamation of Santa Anna to the troops, we translate from the el Centin, of the 4th Feb.

Old Companions—The sufferings of the republic—the tampering with its liberties, and the attempts against individual freedom have broken upon my domestic retirement. Different invitations extended to me, from several sections of the country, called me in the lists to take up the defence of our institutions; your noble enthusiasm, kindled against despotism, gave birth to the saving act of this garrison. You called upon me to share in your resolution, and participate in the perils, which execrable tyranny was summoning against you. I stood at your head—I came as a mediator—expostulated with the Vice President—endeavored to obtain redress in the name of every free Mexican, without awaking the horrid clang of civil war. All was in vain: your petitions were thrown back in contempt; those of the several legislatures were returned with scorn, and public opinion was made a subject of derision—Terrorism frowned upon your noble spirit; the harmless cohorts of a treacherous ministry advance against you, to back the cause of perfidy. The honorable soldier is baited with promises of promotion and hopes of reward, to traffic his country, and trundle to the desert; freedom totters on her base, independence bows before perturbation, and we have no other means to save both, than an appeal to valor and patriotism.

Companions in arms! Jalisco, southern Mexico, the Sierra, and other sections answer your call; oppressed populations join in swelling the cry of freedom, and death to the tyrants, which you have pealed in the ear of despotism. Comrades! We have conquered the enemies of the republic, in Taumalipis; we shall crush the traitors who meditate the annihilation of our constitution and plan the establishment of tyranny. Soldiers of your country! In a few days we shall march to rescue Tenochtitlan, the great, from oppression, and you shall mark by your side, him, who has never deceived, and ever led you to triumph and to glory.

Congressional.

From the Globe.

Washington, Feb. 25.

In the Senate, yesterday, the Vice President communicated a letter from the Governor of Virginia, transmitting the resolutions adopted by the Legislature of that Commonwealth, on the subject of the removal of the remains of George Washington from Mount Vernon. Some private bills were acted on, and, at one o'clock, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of Executive business, after which they adjourned to Monday.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. WATMOUGH, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill to reorganize the United States corps of Marines. Various local bills were reported from the Standing Committees. At an early hour, the House went into Committee of the Whole, on the bill for the benefit of Mrs. Susan Decatur. An animated discussion ensued, in which Messrs. CARSON, WICKLIFFE, DRAYTON, DODD, RIDGE, McDUFFIE, WHITE of Louisiana, PEARCE, HOWARD E. EVERETT, BURGESS and WILDER participated. On motion of Mr. WATMOUGH the committee rose, reported progress, and the House adjourned.

Feb. 27 1832.

The Senate did not sit on Saturday.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. ADAMS submitted a resolution calling on the President for a copy of the instructions to the agent who negotiated the treaty with the Sublime Porte. The resolutions submitted by Mr. BRANCH on the 23d inst. calling on the Secretary of the Navy for information respecting the live oak on the public lands in Florida, &c., were taken up. Mr. WHITE, of Florida, offered amendments proposing to extend the enquiry. A discussion of an acrimonious and personal character occurred, between Messrs. BRANCH and WHITE. The amendments were finally modified by the mover at the instance of Mr. BRANCH, and, together with the original resolutions, were agreed to by the House. The bill granting letters patent for useful discoveries to certain aliens, was passed. The House resumed, in Committee of the Whole, the consideration of the bill for the relief of Susan Decatur, &c. The amendment proposed by Mr. PEARCE in favor of the pieces of Commodore Decatur, was further discussed by Messrs. E. EVERETT, WATMOUGH, RENCHER, McDUFFIE, ANDERSON and PEARCE. The amendment was rejected. A motion was then made to strike out the enacting clause of the bill; before the question was taken, the Committee, at the instance of Mr. DAVIS, of Massachusetts, rose, reported progress, and the House adjourned.

Feb. 28, 1832

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. WEBSTER presented several petitions in favor of the abolition of slavery within the District of Columbia. A number of memorials in favor of the renewal of the charter of the United States Bank, were presented. Mr. WHITE, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported a bill establishing the office of Superintendent of Indian Affairs. Mr. CLAY's resolution was taken up and Mr. DALLAS spoke two hours and a half in its support, when not having concluded, he gave way for a motion to adjourn.

In the House of Representatives, numerous memorials and petitions were presented. Mr. ARCHER, from the committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a bill to carry into effect the Convention between the United States and France, concluded at Paris on the 4th of July, 1831. Mr. ARCHER, from the same Committee, reported a bill to amend the act fixing the compensation of the Ministers and Consuls of the United States residing on the Barbary coast, and for other purposes. Mr. McDUFFIE, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill making appropriations for Indian annuities and other similar objects, for the year 1832. Mr. PLUMMER, from the Committee on the Public Lands, reported a bill to remove the Land office from Mount Sales to Jackson, in the State of Mississippi. Mr. HALL of N. Carolina, from the Committee on Public Expenditures, reported a bill to establish a uniform rule for computing the mileage of Members of Congress. Mr. BARRINGER, from the Committee on the militia, reported a bill to provide more effectually for the national defence. The resolution submitted on Saturday last by Mr. ADAMS, was modified by the mover, and agreed to. The resolution submitted on Thursday last by Mr. CLAYTON, of Georgia, for the appointment of a Select Committee to examine into the affairs of the Bank of the United States, was taken up. Mr. CLAYTON addressed the House in favor of the adoption of the resolution, and was followed by Mr. McDUFFIE in opposition thereto. When the latter gentleman had concluded, Mr. PATTON obtained the floor, but the hour heretofore agreed upon for a recess, having expired, he gave way, and the House adjourned to meet again at 7 o'clock, P. M.

EVENING SESSION. The House re-assembled at seven o'clock. On motion of Mr. JOHNSON of Kentucky, the bill to establish certain Post Roads, and to alter and discontinue others, and for other purposes, was considered in Committee of the Whole on the Union. Numerous amendments were agreed to, when the Committee rose, reported progress, and at a late hour the House adjourned.

Feb. 29, 1832.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. HAYNE introduced a bill extending the right of Debiture to Key West. The resolution respecting the Tariff submitted by Mr. CLAY, was taken up, and Mr. DALLAS resumed and concluded his speech in its support. Mr. FORSYTH then took the floor, and, after speaking some time in opposition to the resolution, gave way to a motion for adjournment. He will resume his remarks this day.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. WICKLIFFE, from the Committee on the Public Lands, reported a bill for the final adjustment of the claims for land in the South Eastern Land District in the State of Louisiana. Mr. DODDRIE, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, made a report on so much of the President's Message as related to the expediency of granting to the citizens of this District a Delegate in Congress, or a territorial government, concluding with a resolution, adverse to the views of the President. Mr. ROOR laid on the table sundry amendments to the bill for re-chartering the Bank of the United States, which were ordered to be printed. The House resumed the consideration of the resolution, proposed by Mr. CLAYTON, for the appointment of a Select Committee to examine into the affairs of the Bank of the United States. Messrs. PATTON, POLK, and CAMBRENG, addressed the House in favor of the resolution; and Messrs. JENNIFER, BRANCH & HUNTINGTON, in opposition to it. Mr. MITCHELL, of South Carolina, is entitled to the floor to day.

COMBUSTION.—Just as the Southern mail was leaving this city for the North, this morning, the mail bag was discovered to be on fire. It was immediately opened, fears being entertained that some hot political papers of opposite opinions had got together, and were consuming each other up, somewhat after the manner of the Kilkenny cats. Several packages were burning, and one was quite in a blaze. It is supposed to have arisen from unextinguished sealing wax, or perhaps from spontaneous combustion. Conjectures as to any other cause, are, in modern parlance, shrouded in mystery.

[Philadelphia Gazette.]

The King of England, accidentally, or perhaps, intentionally, for he is a republican king, celebrates the birth day of Washington. He was to leave Brighton for the Palace of St. James, on the 17th, and hold his first levee for the season on the 22d.

The Portland Courier says, that the resolutions in the legislature of the state of Maine against re-chartering the United States Bank, were debated at great length, and passed by 102 to 55.

The Louisville Advertiser states that the Agent, for paying Pensions in Indiana is in funds to meet the stipends due on the 4th inst.

Mr. Clay, in his second Tariff speech, made a malicious attack upon Albert Gallatin—denouncing him as a "heartless foreigner" and opposed to American interests! Mr. Gallatin is the same conspicuous individual whom Adams and Clay sent to England, as Foreign Minister, to settle the West India trade! He is now President of the Branch Bank of the United States at New York. We thought the Bank of the United States did not employ "heartless foreigners" to direct its concerns! So say the monopolists, at least.

PROSPECTUS

OF A NEW VOLUME.

ATKINSON'S CASKET,

Or Gems of Literature, Wit and Sentiment.—(A Monthly Periodical.)

Each number containing 48 royal octavo pages of letter press, embellished with at least one copperplate, and several wood engravings, and one or more pieces of music.—The work forms at the end of the year a volume of about 600 pages, to which an elegant engraved title page and a general index are added.

THE number of volumes of the CASKET which have already been published, and the faithfulness and punctuality of the publisher in fulfilling his contracts with his patrons, in respect to their contents, are sufficient, with those at all acquainted with the work, to show its true character.

The constantly increasing patronage bestowed on the CASKET, has enabled the publisher to make considerable improvements in the work. Its typographical appearance is much changed for the better, and the contents are much enriched. He believes that the volume now proposed, will not be exceeded in respect to typographical execution, the quantity and quality of the engravings, and the value of the contents, by any other periodical; and he safely asserts it to be the cheapest publication of the kind in the country.

The facilities for obtaining suitable articles for this work have of late, much increased. Some of the best literary publications of Europe are regularly received at the office of the CASKET, as well as the prominent American periodicals. From both selections are made with much care. To secure a sufficient quantity of ORIGINAL MATTER, and to enable men of talent to prosecute their labors with success, & contribute to advance the literature and science of our own country the publisher gives a compensation to his correspondents, commensurate to the support he receives.

In respect to the Embellishments which appear in the work, the publisher believes that no other periodical has such a profusion of elegant and expensive engravings. Executed in general by the first artists in the city they will suffer nothing by comparison—These form a considerable item in the expenses of the work, and in one year, exceed the whole cost of publishing some periodicals for the same length of time, the subscription price of which is no lower than the CASKET. The subjects of the engravings will continue to be as heretofore—PORTRAITS of distinguished characters; plates of the NEWEST FASHIONS, both of Europe and America; VIEWS of AMERICAN SCENERY, particularly striking and interesting; NATURAL HISTORY; EMBROIDERING; FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC ARCHITECTURE; BOTANICAL PLANTS, and whatever other subjects may be deemed calculated to instruct, interest and amuse.

To inculcate sound virtuous precepts, and guard the thoughtless against the snares of vice; to lead the youthful mind to the contemplation of those sublime and all important subjects which deeply affect his prosperity; to give a taste for the rich, pleasing and beneficial enjoyments of literature and learning, and to hold out inducements for the young to cultivate their powers and enrich their understandings with substantial information, are matters which the publisher trusts he will ever keep in view. He is gratified in looking over his past labours, to find no language or sentiment recorded, calculated to detract from the beauty of virtue, or to show vice in a less hideous aspect than it really is.

Due attention is also paid to POETRY, ANECDOTE, LIGHT READING, AMUSING SKETCHES, and those et ceteras which relieve the mind from the labour of close study, while they refresh the understanding, and give a zest to graver and more important compositions.

Each number of the CASKET contains at least one piece of MUSIC, which is selected and arranged expressly for the work. The popular and newest airs are always at command, and afford a judicious selection.

Notwithstanding the many extra expenditures, and the heavy expense of the fine engravings, given monthly, it is not the intention of the publisher to increase the price of the CASKET. When paid in advance, it will be furnished for twelve months for $2.50; or for three dollars if not paid until the end of the year. Agents at a distance remitting six subscriptions are entitled to a copy gratis, and 10 per cent. for collections. Complete sets for 1828, 1829, and 1830 supplied to order.

Orders, free of postage, will meet prompt attention. Persons at a distance will find the mail a safe conveyance for ordering the work and enclosing remittances.

THE LADY'S BOOK.

COMMENTARY OF A NEW SERIES.

IN catering for the amusement of their patrons the publishers have sought to obtain materials of an interesting, novel, and diversified character, and although they have not been able hitherto to present much in the shape of Original contributions, they have always cherished a proper regard for Native Talent, and have been zealous and persevering in their efforts to obtain it. With this view, it will be seen by the annexed advertisement, that a liberal premium of 200 DOLLARS has been offered by them for the BEST AMERICAN TALE, and there is no doubt the competition for the honor of the award will be contested by writers of the highest distinction. A secondary premium of 50 DOLLARS is also offered for the BEST POEM, suitable for publication in the Lady's Book. It is reasonable to conclude then that the attractions of the succeeding numbers of the work will be manifold—they will be increased both in the character of its contents and the beauty of its external appearance. The publishers have made engagements for a new and excellent paper, on which to print it; and they also propose to make some improvements in its Typographical appearance.

The Music Type which they have selected for their use is of the most approved kind, and in future, the accompaniments entire will be given with the music they select for publication.

The present No. for December, completes the 3d volume; it is embellished with several beautiful and costly Engravings—the TITLE PAGE particularly has been worked up in imitation of gold, which is a very expensive mode of printing, attended with incalculable trouble, and as a highly ornamental and gratifying display of the arts, deserves particular attention. Besides which there are, a splendid engraving on steel, of "THE WIFE"—The latest London Fashions for Caps and Bonnets;—A view of the King's Bridge and Royal Barracks, at Dublin;—The Woodpecker and the Wood Lark;—Two favorite pieces of Music, with the accompaniments;—also, a General Table of Contents for the Volume.

The publishers have a few copies of the last six numbers remaining on hand, with which they will be happy to supply new subscribers—as these will form a connection with the future numbers, all who desire the work complete, will of course commence with them.

Persons who have not seen the Book, may have a specimen No. by addressing the publishers (post paid) to that effect.

The publishers are desirous of obtaining as early in the succeeding month as possible an estimate of the number of copies of their work which may be subscribed for, so that they may know what edition they will be obliged to publish—it is earnestly requested therefore, that all new orders for the Book may be forwarded at once, by doing so, those who wish to secure a copy of it will not be disappointed.

Agents procuring TEN NEW SUBSCRIBERS to the Lady's Book, and remitting the cash for the same, besides the discount which is allowed in such cases, SHALL BE PRESENTED WITH A COPY OF THE 3d VOLUME OF THE WORK, SUPERBLY BOUND. The publishers will have the work carefully packed up, and subject to the orders of the persons entitled to it.

THE LADY'S BOOK is published on the 1st of every month—contains nearly 60 pages each No. of neatly printed letter press.—Terms, $3 per annum in advance. Address (post paid) L. A. GODFREY & CO. 112 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

THE SATURDAY BULLETIN.

A Family Newspaper of the very Largest class, free from all Political bias. Published every Saturday, by EDMUND MORRIS, No. 95, Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

AT TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

THE proprietor of the Saturday Bulletin takes advantage of the enormous enlargement of his paper, to point attention to the merits of that highly popular journal.—It avows the ambitious aim of being the most informing, most amusing, and most spirited of all Newspapers, and in particular of being the best weekly paper for respectable families, ever offered to public patronage from the Philadelphia press. To establish this latter claim, the utmost care is taken to crowd into its ample columns every possible variety of new and interesting intelligence; and on the score of the talent, spirit, and real interest of its contents, combined with the beautifully white paper on which it is printed, the clear, new type, and its not being crowded with an abundance of advertisements, it is hoped it may claim admission to the parlours and libraries of all persons of education and taste. To those who do, as well as those who do not read the daily papers, the Saturday Bulletin will never lack novelty; every part being entirely original, or compiled in a manner to engage attention to even the least imposing portion of its contents. It is printed on a large imperial sheet of fine white paper, twenty-four columns in each number, and contains the news of the week down to the latest dates. The papers for subscribers in the country are carefully packed in strong wrappers and put into the post office in time to leave the city by the mails on Saturday morning, so that by Saturday night, they may be received at offices 150 miles distant from the city; while those who live within 50 or 70 miles, will receive them on the evening of Saturday.

GENERAL PLAN OF THE SATURDAY BULLETIN.

News of the week.—Every useful fact and interesting occurrence, whether at home or abroad, carefully selected and logically arranged, with particular attention to the early insertion of late foreign news.

Life in Philadelphia.—Exemplified in a series of well written and deeply interesting narratives, under the title of the Town Letter, affording pictures of real life never before communicated for publication.

The Drama.—Criticism with freedom and spirit, but with candour and kindness.

Anecdotes and Gossip.—Under this head is furnished all the floating rumors of the day which are deemed proper for a newspaper.

The Markets.—This subject is peculiarly interesting to the country subscriber at all times, and in the present excited state of Europe, is of supreme importance. The most copious and accurate accounts will be given weekly, up to the latest moment, of any changes in the Flour & Grain markets, including the prices of Wheat, Rye, Corn, Flaxseed, &c., Corn meal, &c., Cotton, &c.

Select Variety.—Consisting of the choicest and most captivating Tales and Sketches from Blackwood's Magazine, & other highly popular English publications, Poetry, &c.

Police Reports.—Procured exclusively for this paper, and to be found in no other Philadelphia publication. These reports consist of cases at the Mayor's Office, and are generally of an exceedingly humorous character, while all are invariably interesting.—In these reports the country reader, though far removed from the busy scene, will have a bird's eye view of much that is daily transpiring in real life.

The Saturday Bulletin has been established about five years; and during that period, the patronage has been great beyond all parallel in the history of American newspapers. Five thousand subscribers are a sufficient recommendation to its merits. No Gazette, in fact, could be offered with more confidence to the country resident. Numerous able writers assist the Editor in furnishing a larger amount of interesting original matter than is published in any other periodical of the kind; and nearly $1000 are annually paid by the Editor to writers for this paper. A few numbers of the paper will be sent to any person who may be desirous of examining its pretensions, on application, free of postage, to the Editor. The extensive improvements made in the size and quality of the Bulletin on the 1st of January, 1832, can be compensated only by an increase of subscribers; and in order to induce gentlemen at a distance, as well as those in the city, to promote its circulation, the Editor offers the following

PREMIUMS.

1. Any person forwarding five subscribers and a years subscription, shall receive the paper free for himself, so long as the five continue.—2. Any person forwarding ten subscribers and a year's subscription, shall receive a copy of the Life of Napoleon, beautifully bound, in two volumes, or any other work of equal value which may be desired. These books will be forwarded with care, in the manner directed by the owner.
