Commercial Report.

FROM THE LOUISIANA ADVERTISER, OF MARCH 10, 1832.

GENERAL REMARKS.—Since our last report, the weather has been fair, and favorable to the transaction of business of every description. The market however, in many articles of produce, has not been so animated as might have been expected, taking into view the season of the year, and the quantity of merchandise of almost all descriptions, now offered for sale, as well as the number of buyers in the city. Few articles have found very material improvement. The river remains at the same stage as last noticed.

COTTON.—The week opened with a large demand, which continued several days—during that time, from 12 to 13,000 bales changed hands, a considerable proportion being Alabama and Tennessee, for English account. We notice no change in quotations, except a small improvement in prime Tennessee and Alabama, which have been particularly sought for. In fact, the market for cotton from those states has not been fairly opened previous to the present week. The briskness of demand has subsided within the last day or two, and very little is now doing.

SUGAR.—At last it is in our power to notice an improvement in this important but hitherto neglected article. We are informed that purchases of about 5,000 hds. were made on Wednesday and Thursday last, at 54 a 6 cents; and 6 cts offered for a superior crop of 300 hds on the plantation. It is said that one of the purchases noted above was made on speculation.

MOLASSES.—The demand is fair, but the prices have declined a shade.

FLOUR.—has become scarce, and prices have advanced about 25 cents per barrel. We quote to-day $5 50 a $5 75, looking up. There is still very little demand for shipment.

FORK.—Sales of mess and prime, inspected, have been made in small lots at $11 50 for mess, and $9 50 for prime—in large quantities at $11 25 for mess, and $9 25 for prime, being a small advance on last week's quotations, which we change in conformity. The demand has been more animated this week than previously.

BEEF.—Western mess and prime appear to have met a decline of about 50 cents per barrel. Of unbranded, there is a quantity on hand, for which purchasers cannot be found, even at the most reduced prices.

LARD.—The quantity on hand is large, and the demand limited—consequently the article is dull, and looking down.

WHEAT.—The demand for shipment has not been supplied by new arrivals. It is sought for at an advance of 1 a 2 cents per gal. on last week's prices. The last sales which have come to our knowledge were at 34 cts.

COFFEE.—We have no change to notice. The market remains well supplied, and sales limited. We continue to quote Havana green at 14 a 15 cents.—St. Domingo 13 a 14 cts.

IN CHANCERY

THE Literary Department of the Courier is watchfully superintended, and no article is admitted which does not possess positive merit. One hundred dollars were paid for a Prize Tale which was published in this paper on the 7th of January, and other inducements have been offered to secure original contributions. Among the voluntary correspondents of the Courier are Miss Leslie, (author of several publications, which have been highly applauded by American and European critics,) Richard Penn Smith, the celebrated Dramatist, Novelist, and Magazine writer; Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, the accomplished author of the prize-tragedy, "De Lara;" Miss Bacon, the fair writer of the pathetic "Love's Martyr," &c. And many others whose names are equally distinguished; besides a number, whose productions under fictitious signatures, have elicited general approbation.

In the selection of literary matter, the publishers of the Courier have extensive facilities. Their exchange list includes the most valuable American journals; & among other periodicals which they receive from abroad may be specially enumerated Bulwer's new Monthly, Campbell's Metropolitan, Frazer's Magazine, London Literary Gazette, Blackwood's La Belle Assemblée, World of Fashion, and the United Service Journal. Through their agent, Mr. WILLIAMS, they are also furnished with the choicest English papers, including the John Bull, Bell's Life in London, &c.

A portion of the Courier is appropriated to Sporting Intelligence, and particularly to that branch which relates to the Turf. Subjects of this kind are introduced as often as a proper regard to variety will admit. Descriptions of favorite horses, their pedigree, performance and appearance, accompanied with engraved likenesses, are occasionally given, in furnishing which, assistance is procured from several distinguished sportsmen.

Police Reports occupy a share of attention. These are prepared by a skillful person, engaged expressly for that purpose; and as the materials are gathered from authentic sources, their general accuracy may be confidently relied on. In arranging them for the press, the reporter combines factitiousness with fact, and so constructs the narratives, that in most instances they will be found extremely graphic and diverting, with all the slightest sacrifice of truth.

In preparing the contents of the Courier, strict regard is paid to News. All foreign intelligence, up to the latest dates, is invariably given; and whenever a press of important matter may require it, an extra will be published. The summary of domestic affairs is more complete, correct and full, and embodies a greater extent and variety of information than can be found in any other paper, as in addition to a condensed statement of localities, a synopsis of passing events in all parts of the country, is regularly prepared and published.

In order that those who love to laugh, may find matter for their mirth, each number contains a melange of Humorous Subjects, some of which is illustrated by an engraving executed by a skillful artist.

The Editorial Department embraces reviews of new publications; notices of the fine arts, &c.; remarks on general topics; descriptions of public improvements, amusements, &c.; discussions of suitable subjects, dramatic criticisms, &c. This department has been, and will continue to be, conducted in a spirit of the most fearless independence. Whatever comes fairly within observation, shall be frankly dealt with, and no station or influence will deter the prompt and decided expression of unbiassed opinion.

In fine, the Saturday Courier professes to be the largest, cheapest, most diversified, entertaining and instructive weekly newspaper issued from the American press. The publishers claim for its contents a character of vigorous originality, judicious selection, extensive variety, and interesting detail; and they invite comparison with contemporary publications.

WOODWARD AND SPRAGG,

Price $2, Payable half yearly in advance.

THIS popular journal is printed on an extra size imperial sheet, of the largest dimensions. It contains twenty-eight columns of reading matter, each column being equal to eight pages of a duodecimo book.

The publication of the Courier was commenced in April last, since which time it has received a patronage so unexampled that more than seven thousand copies are now distributed weekly through all parts of the United States. This fact, which has no parallel in the annals of the periodical press, will show the high estimation in which the Courier is every where held; and that the same ratio of increase will continue, may fairly be presumed, inasmuch as since the commencement of the present month, nearly one thousand new names have been added to the subscription list.

The Courier possesses advantages over all other weekly newspapers. Its immense size admits of the greatest possible variety, and its contents furnish an extensive, useful, novel, entertaining and instructive miscellany, comprising the different branches of popular literature, such as Tales, Poetry, Essays, Criticisms, &c.; notices of the fine arts; History, Sporting Anecdotes; Sketches of Life and Manners; Police Reports; Prices Current of the grain market; Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, of the latest dates; and an abstract & summary of all matters which may possess interest for the general reader.
