Five States Converge in Indianapolis for Council's Eastern Conference

Defence Is Theme
For 3-Day Meet
At Lincoln Hotel

Delegates from Council of Jewish Women Sections of Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and West Virginia, will converge on Indianapolis next October, Oct. 21, for the three-day convention of the Mid-Eastern Conference of the organization at the Lincoln Hotel.

Opening Tuesday evening with a banquet in the Travertine room, the convention will continue through Thursday, with the discussions centering around the theme, "Community Part in National Defense.

Mrs. Benjamin Spitzer, of New York, national third vice president of the organization, will be the opening speaker at the opening banquet, which will be followed by a reception honoring council officers.

Work of the meeting proper will get underway Wednesday morning when the convention theme will be discussed from all angles. The principal speaker of Wednesday morning will be given by Julian Kiser on "Mobilizing City Facilities for the Army and Navy," with a clinic on administration that will feature the afternoon session Wednesday. A buffet supper and reception that evening will be held at the Broadmoor Country Club to close the day's activities. Charles Lenz will be principal speaker at the supper. His subject will be "America's Outlook Now." Wednesday marks the annual election of officers, a concluding business session Thursday morning will end the conference properly, although a sight-seeing tour Thursday afternoon has been arranged for the visitors.

The following officers will form the receiving council in its twenty-one year history: J. Fineberg, Harry Pazol, Gus Do-

SECRET J. T. A. REPORT INDICATES EVEN GERMANS SHOWING SYMPATHY TO JEWS

By Jewish Telegraphic Agency

CINCINNATI—Rabbi Frederic A. Doppelt, of Temple Achduth Vesholom, said that the German situation is the merriment of every Jewish newspaper. Rabbi Doppelt, who is now in Germany, said that the reports from Berlin indicate that the German people are showing sympathy for the Jews instead of hatred.

The change of mood among the German people toward the Jews is reported to be the result of the introduction of Reform Judaism and the efforts of Rabbi Doppelt and other rabbis to educate the German people about the Jews.

The reports from Berlin conclude that the twenty-seven-page will now be used "for the maintenance of civil liberties and the protection of workers' education in the United States."

God Bless Us

IIN THE spirit of the American heritage that is now and forever an American achievement, Sigma Alpha Mu at Indiana University recently conducted several events to dedicate themselves to Jewish causes. Sigma Alpha Mu is a national fraternity established for and dedicated to the welfare of Jewish students at universities and colleges throughout the United States.

The national Sigma Alpha Mu convention was held at Indiana University for the first time in the fraternity's 23-year history. At the convention, Dr. Fred Siegel, president of the periodical, "The Jew in Our Time," was elected as the new president of Sigma Alpha Mu.

The convention included several events, including a banquet, a symposium on Jewish education, and the election of officers and directors. The national executive board was also announced, consisting of representatives from various Sigma Alpha Mu chapters throughout the United States.

Sigma Alpha Mu members believe in the principles of American democracy, and are dedicated to promoting Jewish culture and education on college campuses. They have been instrumental in fostering a sense of Jewish pride and identity among Jewish students across the country.

Sigma Alpha Mu is proud to continue its tradition of promoting Jewish heritage and education, and looks forward to continuing its work in the future.
Ornaments Displayed for Wedding Cake

A unique and special feature of the wedding cake at this ceremony will be the decorations which will embellish its top. The decorations themselves are a special creation of the Baker Brothers, who have worked on the cake for the past week and a half. They have been using the latest techniques to create a cake that is both beautiful and delicious.

The cake itself is a classic round white cake with a layer of buttercream icing. The decorations, however, are a completely different story. They are made of marzipan, a type of confectionary made from almonds, sugar, and egg whites. The marzipan is rolled out into thin sheets and then cut into intricate designs using a variety of tools and techniques.

The centerpiece of the cake is a large, ornate medallion featuring the couple's initials. Surrounding the medallion are smaller designs, including roses, doves, and stars. The cake is also topped with a large, ornate horse, representing the couple's love of horses.

The use of marzipan in this way is quite unique and adds a special touch to the cake. The Baker Brothers have spent countless hours working on the cake, making sure that every detail is perfect. The result is a cake that is not only delicious but also a work of art.

The wedding cake will be displayed at the reception following the ceremony, and guests will be encouraged to come up and admire the decorations. The couple hopes that everyone will enjoy the cake as much as they have enjoyed creating it.
