THE EFFECTS OF DEPRESSION

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS AND THE DAILY BANNER

The effect of the depression is evident in the daily output of the student newspaper, The Daily Banner. The paper is published daily during the academic year, and its circulation is estimated to be around 2,000 copies. The paper covers local news, sports, and campus events, and is known for its critical attitude towards the administration.

In memory of

Josephine M. Frank
(1850-1936)

Dear friends and neighbors,

This small memorial is offered in appreciation of the love, care, and prayer with which you have surrounded her during her illness.

May God continue to comfort you during your grief.

Sincerely yours,
