Bloxsome Addresses Greencastle Teachers At McAnally Thursday

Dr. John Bloxsome, a 1927 graduate and Rector Scholar of DePauw University and a member of the Board of Trustees of the University from 1959-65, will deliver the address at the formal meeting of the teachers of the Greencastle School Corporation at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in McAnally Center.

The meeting will be preceded by a brief instructional period for new teachers at the Superintendent's office at 8 a.m. and an informal period of visitation for all teachers at McAnally Center at 9 a.m. Coffee and rolls will be provided by the Greencastle Classroom Teachers Association.

Following the address by Dr. Bloxsome, all teachers will report to their respective buildings after lunch. Regular class sessions begin Friday, Aug. 23 at the regular time.

Dr. Bloxsome received his A.M. degree from the University of Chicago in 1935 while serving as head of the Humanities and Social Sciences Dept. at Rose Polytechnic Institute from 1929-60. From Sept. 1960-May 1, 1969, he was vice president for development at Rose.

After receiving his Doctor of Letters from Rose Polytechnic Institute in 1970, he was appointed vice president and special assistant to the president until his retirement Sept. 1, 1970.

Dr. Bloxsome also served as a visiting lecturer at Indiana University on School Administration for the graduate school during the summers of 1954-60.

He served 12 years on the Board of School Trustees for the School City of Terre Haute, from 1948-60, including five years as president. He also was president of the Indiana School Boards' Association in 1951 and 1952.

The Terre Haute resident was the recipient of a distinguished service award from Governor Schricker in 1951 as the school board member in Indiana who had made the greatest contribution to public education. He was also given an Alumni Award for distinguished public service by the University of Chicago at the June, 1957 commencement.

Allen Honored In Next Edition Of Award Publication

Putnam County should be proud of the many students who have achieved high enough in academics, athletics, activities or community service to be honored through features in the Eighth Annual Edition of "Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1973-74", the largest student award publication in the nation.

Cindy G. Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, Roachdale, was recently notified that she is among the less than three percent of the junior and senior class students nationwide who are being awarded this recognition.

A 1974 graduate of North Putnam High School, Miss

Allen was active in G.A.A., O.E.A., the high school band, Pep Club, Pep Band, J.C.L., and the Honor Society.

Having attended Hoosier Girls' State, Miss Allen will be enrolled this fall at Ball State University to begin her studies in the area of business.

After three months of freedom from teachers, homework and books, Greencastle High School students find their independence slowly ebbing away with the approach of school and the necessity of registering for classes and purchasing textbooks. Left, Susan Wood, Marcella Lambert and Kathy Archer, all GHS sophomores, complete schedule information Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Janice Bond, office secretary.

American Heritage Academy Opens Doors In Putnam County

Although most of us received our education through the public school system and have, therefore, accepted public schools as a natural, our country began with only private schools. In the last decade there has been a renewed interest in private schools.

Several new private schools have opened in and around Indianapolis in the last few years. Although most of these schools are church-affiliated, this is not a requirement to be chartered in Indiana.

One of these private schools is about to open its doors in Putnam County. The American Heritage Academy, located on State Road 240 just west of Indiana 75, is not church-affiliated. However, according to the school's brochure and to the headmaster, James Jester, the curriculum will be based on teaching the principles of "love of God, love of country and love of family."

Accredited through the National Parents League, Inc., in Portland, Oregon, the school is chartered in Indiana. The curriculum was specified by the League which is headed by Mrs. Mary Royer, a clinical psychologist.

Mrs. Royer will be at the American Heritage Academy August 30 to test the approximately 20 students who have enrolled for this fall term to determine their placement. Classes are scheduled to begin Sept. 3.

Instruction is offered to children in grades 1-12. There will be one teacher for high school students and one for elementary grades, in addition to Jester, who will take charge of administrative and disciplinary duties.

William McHenry of Owen County has been hired as principal and high school teacher. He has had previous experience teaching in the public schools in Bloomington and in a private school in the Terre Haute area. McHenry is a graduate of Indiana University.

Jester, who is also vice president of the School Corporation, teaches part-time at Union Bible Seminary in Westfield, of which he is a graduate. The Stilesville High School graduate lives east of Belle Union and is employed nights at IBM.

The teacher for elementary grades has not been hired as yet.

Other members of the school corporation are W.R. Collier, Route 1, Fillmore, president; Verna Dickerson, Route 2, Coatesville, treasurer; Frank Dickerson, Route 2, Coatesville; and Jack Hampton, Clayton.

The school board is scheduled to hold regular meetings at 8 p.m. the third Sunday of each month at the school building.

The approximately 20 students, who come from Putnam, Hendricks, Morgan and Owen counties, will be tested again by Mrs. Royer at the end of the school year to determine what they have achieved during the year. Emphasis will be placed on achievement of the individual student, according to Jester.

At present the facilities of the school consist of one portable unit constructed especially for use as an educational unit. Classes will be taught in one large room divided into two sections to separate the elementary and high school students.

Jester said the same curriculum would be offered as in public schools, but, evidently, the difference will be in the way the courses are taught and in the manner in which the student is handled as an individual.

DPU To Feature New Programs

At least two new educational programs, as well as several new courses, are in the offing this year at DePauw University.

The department of earth sciences is introducing an M.A. degree because of the increasing demand for personnel to teach earth sciences in the public school systems and the junior colleges. Two new courses that will be offered in the department include Environmental Geology and Analytic Methods in Geology. The latter will utilize new x-ray units obtained by the University.

Students in the department will also take up the geologic mapping of three state parks and a portion of the Big Walnut Creek basin.

A new program aimed at preparing students for work with exceptional children in settings other than public school systems is to be offered by the department of psychology. It will provide para-professional and professional training at the undergraduate level.

In this program collegians receive academic and practical experiences to prepare them to serve as teachers, program planners, and administrators in day care centers for the pre-school mentally retarded and in-patient facilities serving mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed children.

The program will include specified courses in the regular curriculum, two special summer courses in mental retardation and mental health, and an internship in a day care center for the mentally retarded.

Recent diplomatic developments in the Mediterranean world coincide with the introduction of an international semester abroad program in Athens, Greece, and the introduction of a new course called History of the Middle East. The former is an outgrowth of DePauw's present back to back semesters in Athens where emphasis is on Greek culture in the first semester and the entire Mediterranean basin in the second.

University officials, however, are keeping a watchful eye on developments in Cyprus, trying to anticipate the impact if any on travel an safety in Greece. The closing of the Athens airport last week to most foreign air traffic delayed the arrival there of the program's resident director, Professor Tom Emery, and his family.

On the other hand, field study in the Arab nations by DePauw students, especially in Egypt, previously hampered by American-Arab tensions, is expected to be greatly accelerated by new political developments in the Mid-East.

Archie Chadd Injured In Accident

Putnam County Councilman Archie Chadd, 69, Bainbridge, was treated and released from Putnam County Hospital yesterday following a car-tractor accident on U.S. 36 just west of Bainbridge at 3:55 p.m.

Chadd was thrown from the tractor he was driving when it was struck from the rear by a car driven by Judith Disney, 36, Bainbridge. The tractor overturned and was broken in half, according to Bainbridge Town Marshal John Martin who was on the scene.

Chadd was treated by volunteers in the Operation Life ambulance before being taken to the hospital.

Indiana State Police were called to assist.

Fire Strikes Mobile Home At VanBibber Lake Early Today

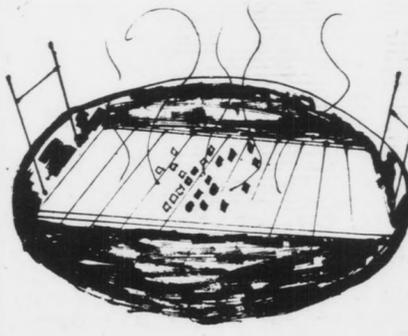

The Bainbridge Volunteer Fire Dept. was called to VanBibber Lake at 2:45 a.m. today when a mobile home owned by Ronnie VanBibber caught fire. Fire Chief Larry Miller said the cause of the fire, which completely destroyed the home, has not yet been determined. He returned to the scene later today to continue investigation.

Although the Norris Long mobile home next to VanBibber's became very hot, the fire was kept from spreading to it by constantly hosing it down. The VanBibber's use the only only on weekends so it was not occupied at the time of the fire, Miller said.

Hot Off The Gridiron

The stars of the county football jamboree in the next four to eight years are busily engaged each late afternoon at the high school practice field, learning the fundamentals of the game from Alex Warfield and his staff.

These, of course, are the Greencastle Pee Wees, who have been practicing over the past few weeks in preparation for a jamboree of their own at the end of this month.

To see the Pee Wees as they work out, in addition to the latest pro football news and two college grid previews, turn to page 12.

DePauw

DePauw's speech department is also plugging into international developments, offering for the first time a senior level seminar in Greek theatre. It will dovetail with the Little Theatre production of "Sophocles" and utilize DePauw students associated with the Greek semester.

Still in the stream of contemporary events, the University's political science department plans to place greater emphasis this year on advanced courses in American politics, public administration, and urban politics.

Freshman students will be the beneficiaries of a broadened counseling program. On an experimental basis this year about 48 freshman women in one dormitory will receive greatly enlarged academic counseling so that students will have much better access to academic options and career guidance and also be aided in dealing with potential academic problems.

Every student at DePauw is assigned a faculty adviser, but frequently students in academic difficulties don't seek the help they need, one adviser stated. He added that under the new pilot program, advisers will meet regularly with their advisees in the dormitory or elsewhere. This approach will be facilitated because the adviser's advisees will all be in the same residence hall. Six faculty members will be involved in this new program.

Extra-classroom educational opportunities proliferate at DePauw. The chapel and convocation program—a series of public lectures and discussions—will offer the ambassador from Ecuadore to the U.S., an authority on American Indians, the assistant secretary of the U.S. Treasury, films on Martin Luther and the crucifixion of Jesus, theologian Harvey Cox, and back to back appearances by Indiana political adversaries Senator Birch Bayh and Indianapolis Mayor Richard Lugar. Several concerts, athletic events, plays, opera and a year-long series of art exhibitions will be offered by the School of Music, the athletic department, the speech department, and the art department respectively.

Free Lunch & Milk Program Policy Announced

The North Putnam Community School Corporation today announced its policy for free lunches and milk for children unable to pay full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch and Special Milk Programs.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility: one, $2,910; two, $3,830; three, $4,740; four, $5,640; five, $6,488; six, $7,310; seven, $8,060; eight, $8,810; nine, $9,510; ten, $10,190; eleven, $10,860; twelve, $11,530. For each additional family member $670 should be added.

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels on the scale for free meals are also eligible for free milk. Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown on the scale for reduced price meals are eligible for reduced price meals only.

In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter cost in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses, are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, the school should be contacted.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

Under the provisions of the policy North Putnam Community School Corporation will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the office, they may make a request either orally or in writing to the superintendent, Box 126, Bainbridge, Indiana 46105 for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

Each school and the office of the North Putnam Community School Corporation has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

"I Think The President Has Made A Wise Choice:" Albert

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders of both parties indicated today they anticipated no problems in confirming Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president.

Speaker of the House Carl Albert, D-Okla., said Rockefeller is "one of the most experienced and capable men in the country."

"I think the President has made a choice very few will criticize," he said.

Asked if he could see any problems in the confirmation procedure, Albert said, "I don't know of any. I think that Gov. Rockefeller will be confirmed."

Albert spoke with newsmen after leaving the White House, where he attended the Oval Office announcement of President Ford's vice presidential nomination.

Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., minority whip, said he is delighted with Rockefeller.

Griffin indicated that the Rockefeller nomination could be approved quicker than Ford's nomination last year.

And Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah, said "I think he'll be confirmed without any delay," and indicated the nomination could be approved within a week.

New VP's Wife Leads "Happy" Life

by The Associated Press Her full name is Margaretta Fidler Murphy Rockefeller, but she's known almost universally as "Happy."

She's been compared to the Duchess of Windsor and accused of costing her husband a chance at the presidency.

She is tall — 5 feet 7 — attractive and is the kind of woman who looks equally at home pouring tea for some formal function or relaxing on a country estate.

Her finishing school yearbook noted her "bright smile and perpetual good humor."

Happy Rockefeller, the wife of the man President Ford nominated today as vice president, was born in Bryn Mawr, Pa., on June 9, 1926, the daughter of William Wonderly Fidler Jr., a millionaire.

Her parents were divorced when she was 10 and her mother later remarried George E. Bartol of Wynnewood, Pa.

Happy was brought up in the Philadelphia Main Line society of money and distinguished ancestors — one great-grandfather was Gen. George Gordon Meade, commander of the Union forces at Gettysburg; another great-grandfather, Edwin H. Fidler, was mayor of Philadelphia in the late 19th century.

She attended Shipley's finishing school for girls, was graduated in 1944 and served as a hospital worker and driver for the American Women's Volunteer Service in Philadelphia. She made her debut in that city and married Army Medical Corps Capt. James Slater Murphy in 1948.

Ten years later, she worked as a volunteer in Nelson A. Rockefeller's successful campaign for governor of New York and later joined his staff as a paid employee.

In 1962, Rockefeller divorced his wife of 31 years and the mother of his five children and announced he would marry Mrs. Murphy as soon as possible.

In April 1963, Happy got her divorce, signing away custody of her six children, and married Rockefeller the following month. She tried later to regain custody and lost, but won visitation rights.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, said upon leaving the White House that he had met with Byrd and that he hopes the nomination could be approved within 35 to 40 days rather than the 55 days used to approve Ford's nomination.

Sen. Robert Byrd, D-W.Va., Senate majority whip, said Rockefeller was his top choice and he would do everything he could to expedite the nomination.

U.S. Attempts To Sooth Relations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is trying to smooth its relations with Greece while awaiting an undisclosed British initiative for setting up new Cyprus peace talks.

Britain, a guarantor of the 1960 treaty establishing the island's independence, is expected to sound out the Greek and Turkish Cypriots before enlisting U.S. aid and reviving the Geneva conference.

Knowledgeable U.S. officials believe Britain is likely to try to work out some preconference agreements so that when the parties, including Greece and Turkey, return to the negotiating table there are reasonable prospects of success.

A breakdown in Geneva proceeded the onslaught by Turkish forces that led to their control of about 40 per cent of Cyprus.

In a gesture to Athens, which strongly suspects Washington of having tilted toward Turkey, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger told a news conference on Monday that "upon calmer reflection the responsible Greek leaders will recognize that the United States has shown deep sympathy for the Greek government."

Kissinger added "we welcome the present democratic government in Greece" and any negotiated settlement must be "consistent with the dignity and honor of all of the parties."

He said the first imperative at this point is to "get the parties to the conference table."

Kissinger spoke of a British initiative in this regard, but other officials here said the details of the British approach were not yet clear.

Kissinger said he has received assurances from Premier Bulent Ecevit that Turkey is willing to negotiate a pull-back from positions it holds on Cyprus and that it would reduce its forces on the island.

"We believe it will be necessary for Turkey, as the stronger power on the ground, to display flexibility and a concern for Greek sensibilities," Kissinger said.

Chairman Benjamin S. Rosenthal of the House Europe subcommittee said he will move to suspend all $242 million in U.S. aid to Turkey despite her pledge to negotiate.

"I just want to keep the pressure on. We've been through this before," the New York Democrat said.

Rosenthal announced his intention of trying to cut off the aid during a subcommittee hearing at which the American policy on Cyprus came under heavy fire.

"I think American policy was severely tilted in favor of Turkey," said Rep. Paul S. Sarbanes, D-Md.

Testifying at the hearing, Asst. Secretary of State Arthur A. Hartman blamed the Cyprus flareup on upsetting Cyprus stability last month. He contended the ensuing Turkish military invasion could not have been stopped with anything short of U.S. armed force.

Phillips-Ikamire Vows

Miss Vera Christine Ikamire and Richard Clifton Phillips were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony on Saturday, July 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the Latvian Evangelical Lutheran Church in Indianapolis.

The Rev. Coleman Barow performed the double ring ceremony before the altar which was accented by an arrangement of blue, white and pink carnations. While the bride and groom knelt at the altar, Peter Apinyar recited the Lord's Prayer.

Martha Geisler, organist, presented a program of bridal music including "Always" and "Priore A Notre Dame". She also accompanied the soloist, Ronald Phillips, brother of the groom, as he sang "Sunrise, Sunset".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ikamire, Route 2, Greencastle. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phillips of Indianapolis.

Miss Ikamire was escorted to the altar by her father. The aisle was decorated with candles, springer, leather leaf, baby's breath, and white satin bows marking the pews. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of sheer organza and beaded lace. Lace encircled the high neckline, cascaded down the bodice and over the graceful, demi-bell skirt. Billowy lace adorned the bishop sleeves. The lace-edged chapel length mantilla veil completed her bridal ensemble. She carried a bouquet of white roses, mini carnations, stephanotis, baby's breath, springer vine, and white velvet streamers. After the ceremony, the bride and groom presented their mothers with single roses from the bridal bouquet.

Attending the bride as her maid-of-honor was Mary Shaw of Indianapolis. She was attired in a full-length gown of blue, one of the bride's chosen colors. She wore a short blue veil and carried a bouquet of pink, blue, and white carnations with baby's breath and pink velvet tubing.

Leanne Fabrycki, niece of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fabrycki of Kingston, Ontario, Canada, served as flower girl. She wore a floor-length, pink-flowered dress and scattered pink, blue, and white rose petals from a white basket trimmed with pink streamers.

The groom chose his father, Mr. Richard Phillips of Indianapolis, to serve as his best man. The ushers were Floyd Shultz and Roy Baughman of Indianapolis, friends of the groom.

Guests were registered by Miss Gloria Copp of Indianapolis. Robert Alan Schroer, nephew of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schroer of Greencastle, served as gift bearer.

The mothers of the bride and groom chose dresses and wore corsages in the bride's colors of blue and pink.

Immediately following the

Mrs. Richard Clifton Phillips

Should she conveniently "forget" the Pill?

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1974 by Chicago Tribune, N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: John and I have been married for 14 months. He had a 3-year-old son by a previous marriage. We had no trouble getting custody of the boy because his mother didn't want him. (She hasn't come to see him once.)

I am 29 and John is 35, and I want to have a child of our own. John's son, whom I honestly couldn't love more if I had given birth to him, would dearly love a little brother or sister, and I desperately want one, but John says no. His excuses are lame. ("The world is in such a sorry state, we shouldn't increase the population now. We have one healthy, normal child now, why press our luck?")

I am on the pill, and could conveniently "forget" to take it a few mornings, but I hate to be dishonest. If I were to get pregnant, he couldn't force me to have an abortion, and I'm sure that after the child was born he would grow to love it like he loves his son.

Please help me sort out my feelings, Abby.

TORN IN CHICAGO

DEAR TORN: About your scheme to "conveniently forget" the pill: Forget it. (The scheme, not the pill.) Ideally, you and John should get some counseling together. Most clergymen are well equipped; also Chicago has many expert marriage counselors. If John refuses to go, you can't force him, but do go alone. You need some sound, objective counseling to help you resolve this knotty problem.

DEAR ABBY: A writer was unhappy about her flat chest and asked you whether breast implants were considered deceitful and therefore sinful in the eyes of the Lord.

You suggested that she ask her clergyman for a ruling. I disagree. Every clergyman cannot keep abreast of new developments in plastic surgery; some clergymen are big busts as advisers on these points.

The writer should look behind her breast—where her heart is—for the answer. Whom is she trying to deceive or please?

"Capping" one's teeth for cosmetic reasons has been an accepted practice for years. Are teeth more important to beauty than breasts?

BEVERLY HILLS M.D.

DEAR M.D.: Only to those who have trouble keeping their mouths shut.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SHIRLEY: I agree. Something is wrong. Maybe he gave at the office.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Opening lead — king of hearts.

Leon Sapire of Johannesburg has long been one of the world's foremost advocates of asking bids. Publisher of South Africa's Bridge Bulletin, he has persistently been beating the drums for wider use of these bids — which are virtually unheard of in most bridge circles.

Asking bids were introduced by Ely Culbertson back in the 30's, but they never caught fire because of their alleged complexity. They were basically aimed at greater accuracy in slam bidding, the purpose being to pinpoint partner's values in a particular suit and so remove some of the guesswork from the game.

Consider this deal where North has a wide choice of bids he can make over two hearts. There might be a slam opposite even a minimum opening bid, and there might conceivably be only a part score with South holding a super-sound opening bid but the wrong hand.

In order to discover partner's diamond holding, North makes an asking bid of four diamonds. (Three diamonds would be a normal forcing bid; consequently the unnecessary jump to four diamonds is an asking bid which at the same time announces good spade support.)

Four notrump is a conventional response that indicates two aces and second-round control of diamonds in the form of either the king or a singleton.

North, not being a mouse, goes to six spades after this highly favorable response, and South easily makes the slam by establishing dummy's diamonds.

Not a bad result, considering that North-South have only 19 high-card points!

Score one for asking bids, without which a slam could not be reached with normal bidding methods. At the same time, score one for Leon Sapire, whose tom-toms have been sounding a muffled roar in the wilderness for many years.

CLUCKERS star in many recipes in Mrs. Buchanan's book. Naturally astringent, they can be used to treat oily skin, reduce pores, dry pimples. They also help to soothe sunburn.

Back to nature Herbal Secrets for Making Beauty Aids

Diane Dancin Buchanan

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

"GRANDMOTHER spent all her time preparing creams, gargles and complexion waters," Dian Dancin Buchanan recalled. "She had a remedy for everything—a cold, a headache, blackheads, you name it. You got it. Grandmother would cure it. It used to embarrass me because it seemed so old-fashioned. Everyone else was buying the latest cosmetics or wonder drug. Grandmother was making her own version in the kitchen."

Change of View
That embarrassment has long since vanished. Mrs. Buchanan now thinks Grandma was onto a good thing.

"You listen to the news," she said, "and learn they're pulling this drug or that product off the market because of bad side effects and you begin to think there's a lot to be said for going back to nature. We've lost contact with the things that helped us survive before antibiotics. It's time to remember them for the minor things, and save the wonder drugs for serious ills."

Mrs. Buchanan's grandmother was Romanian.

Gypsy Lore
"Those Romanians always had a thing with beauty," she said. "and Grandmother was special. Orphaned at 15, she was taken in by a band of gypsies. She traveled with them for a year, until she reached relatives in a distant village. Meanwhile, she learned all the gypsy herbal secrets." They are secrets Mrs. Buchanan has included in a book that tells readers all about herbal and natural aids from alder root (a hair darkener) to yarrow (an astringent) or yogurt (a skin bleach). Titled, "The Complete Herbal Guide to Natural Health & Beauty," it is available in Doubleday hardcover and paperback editions.

"I got started on the book," said the author, "when I began to feel that so-called progress is sometimes damaging. There are many beauty treatments that are naturals. Take witch hazel. The American Indians were well aware of its worth. They used poultices of witch hazel twig and bark to bring down the swellings from wounds. It's also an antiseptic. You can use it to close pores, to reduce eye puffiness, or as an after-shave lotion."

Royal Secrets
In researching her book, Mrs. Buchanan looked into the beauty secrets of such legendary lovelies as Lady Hamilton, Marie Antoinette and the Duchess of Alba. They all, she said, had two things in common — each left trails of loveliest swains and each had oily skin. From their diaries, she reprints Marie Antoinette's night cream (milk, lemon juice and brandy), the duchess of Alba's firming skin mask (almond oil and egg whites) and Lady Hamilton's astringent lotion (a strawberry concoction).

The book, a fascinating roundup of cosmetic "recipes" for skin, hair, eyes, mouth, teeth, hands and feet includes instructions for making perfume, preparing soothing and toning baths and using herbs to induce sleep. The ingredients needed for the many beautifying formulas can be found at fruit or vegetable counters, on grocery shelves or in drug stores.

The author, who's currently working on a book on natural cures, may do a sequel on herbal beauty.

She is married to Herman Buchanan, associate professor of makeup at Pace University's Theater Department and a movie, TV and stage makeup man. The Buchanans have one daughter, currently taking a summer course at Oxford.

"She's quite enthusiastic about herbal beauty," said her mother. "It's an in thing now. "But there is one thing that bothers me — that's pronunciation. Why do Americans go Cockney, drop the 'h' and say 'erb' when they put the 'h' back on to pronounce 'herbal' and 'herbalist'?"

EYES PUFFY? You can reduce the swelling, says Dian Dancin Buchanan, by applying grated potato over the puffiness.

Ford's Offer Of Leniency To Evaders, Mutes Critics In Congress

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford's surprise offer of leniency to Vietnam-era war evaders has muted congressional critics of any form of amnesty and opened a new debate on the degree of forgiveness the nation should extend.

Many congressional leaders agree with Ford that blanket immunity is not an appropriate remedy.

But many said that some form of conditional amnesty, probably alternative civilian service, is needed to end the voluntary exile of thousands of young men.

In a major shift in policy from the past two administrations, Ford told the national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Chicago on Monday that his administration proposes a policy of "earned re-entry."

"So I am throwing the weight of my presidency into the scales of justice on the side of leniency. I foresee their earned re-entry into a new atmosphere of hope, hard work, and mutual trust."

Ford said, "As I reject amnesty, so do I reject revenge. In my judgment, these young Americans should have a second chance to contribute their fair share to the rebuilding of peace among ourselves."

He said he had ordered Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe and Defense Secretary James R. Schlesinger to begin a case-by-case review of 50,000 men convicted, charged or sought for draft evasion or desertion.

A Justice Department spokesman said the department is "seeking a meeting as early as possible with Department of Defense and Selective Service officials" to examine ways to accomplish the objective Ford announced.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-

Mass., who has favored complete amnesty for those who opposed the war as a matter of conscience, called Ford's initiative "a fresh breeze from the White House."

"He's opening the door," said assistant Senate Republican Leader Robert P. Griffin of Michigan. "I think it's a courageous and appropriate move..."

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania said an approach to conditional amnesty is one of the measures he has urged on the White House.

Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., said, "I think it was a very right thing to do..."

Some members of Congress said they expected Ford's announcement will lead to a revival of attempts to pass legislation offering a period of civilian service in exchange for amnesty.

Others said they believe only the President can offer amnesty but that Congress might be asked to express a formal opinion.

Sens. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, and Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., have had conditional amnesty legislation pending since 1971.

Their bill would grant amnesty to draft evaders willing to serve two years in either the armed services or in a civilian agency. The bill offers no relief to deserters.

Rep. William J. Scherle, R-Iowa said: "I have sympathy and compassion but I've got to reserve that for the 1,200 missing POWs and MIAs. My first consideration is for them. Once this is attained, we can think about those who deserted and dodged the draft and fled to a foreign country..."

Firemen Back On Job After Two Day Strike

MISHAWAKA Ind. (AP)—City firemen were back at their posts today after agreeing to end their two-day strike.

The agreement announced by firefighters' negotiations and the City Council Monday night will provide firemen $60 paid insurance premiums, a key point in the dispute.

A joint statement issued at 10 p.m. Monday said firemen will lose one paid holiday in exchange for part of the insurance payment.

Firemen will receive their pay for the two days of the strike. No decision was announced on their demand for binding arbitration on wages.

Mayor Margaret Prickett announced that no fireman would be fired but there would be some minor administrative changes.

Earlier Monday the city obtained a temporary restraining order against the strike.

South Bend and Elkhart firemen were on standby during the strike which began at 7 p.m. Saturday.

"Young Americans Should Have A Second Chance"

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Of

amnesty for Vietnam draft dodgers, Richard M. Nixon once vowed, "Never, never, never."

Eleven days after he succeeded Nixon as President, Gerald R. Ford said of those who fled the country rather than serve in Vietnam: "I want them to come home, if they want to work their way back."

"... These young Americans should have a second chance..." Ford told a veterans convention in Chicago on Monday.

"So I am throwing the weight of my presidency into the scales of justice on the side of leniency. I foresee their earned re-entry into a new atmosphere of hope, hard work, and mutual trust."

The dramatic shift in policy is a result of what administration officials describe as a broad-scale, continuing review of Nixon positions on a range of issues which Ford inherited when he took office.

The review could result in other dramatic policy changes, especially on domestic issues, and is intended to place an indelible Ford stamp on the presidency, one adviser said. It also is intended to demonstrate Ford's ability to "bind up the nation's wounds."

Mayors who met with Ford at the White House last week were impressed with his pledge of a fresh look at urban problems.

The mayors recounted how Ford said that as President, his views will be broader than those he held as a Republican congressman from Grand Rapids, Mich., representing a narrow, conservative constituency.

Afterwards, one Democratic mayor told a friend: "This guy may be more liberal than you think."

The phrases used by Ford in his Chicago speech could easily have been uttered by someone as liberal as, say, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

"I ask all Americans who ever asked for goodness and mercy in their lives, who ever sought forgiveness for trespassers, to join in rehabilitating all the casualties of all the tragic conflicts that are past,"

Ford said.

But those close to Ford reject suggestions that his speech signals a shift to the left for a man generally considered slightly to the right of the political spectrum.

Rather, they ascribe it to Ford's feeling that it is now time for the nation to end painful divisions.

Ford told correspondents aboard the presidential jet returning from Chicago that "you can't talk about healing unless you're going to use it in the broadest context."

Eyebrows were raised by his use of the phrase "broadest context" in the news conference and his appeal in the speech for forgiveness and rehabilitation of all casualties of all conflicts that are past.

Some wondered whether Ford has in mind an amnesty of sorts for Nixon and other figures in the Watergate tragedy.

Ford's aides brush aside the question by referring to his statement during last year's vice presidential confirmation hearings that the nation wouldn't stand for immunity or pardons for Watergate principals.

But the question remains.

Top Korean Leader Resigns

SEOUL South Korea (AP)—President Chung Hee Park's chief governmental and political associates resigned today in a traditional Korean gesture. They assumed responsibility for the failure of the security forces to prevent the attempt last week to assassinate Park.

Resignations poured in on Park from Premier Kim Jong-pil and his cabinet, the top five officials of Park's ruling Democratic Republican party, the national police director, the mayor and police chief of Seoul, South Korea's ambassador to Japan, Park's chief bodyguard, secretary and protocol officer, four economic and political assistants, and eight senior officials of the presidential protective force.

Park was expected to announce in a day or two what he would do about the resignations.

Information Minister Yun Chu-yong announced that the cabinet was quitting to show its deep regret over its failure "to prevent the assassination attempt carried out in the capital at the instruction of the North Korean puppets."

Park was uninjured in the attack last Thursday as he made an Independence Day address in Seoul, but his wife and a teen-age girl in the audience were killed. Mrs. Park was buried on Monday.

The assassin, Moon Seok-wang, was a Korean living in Japan who came to Seoul with a Japanese passport issued to him under an assumed name. The government has not explained how he got in to the National Theater for the invitation-only Independence Day ceremony.

Park's government charged that Moon was acting as an agent of North Korea and its sympathizers in Japan. North Korea denied the charge Monday. Moon was wounded by security guards and captured.

Official resignations are customary in the Far East whenever an embarrassing incident occurs. Even should Park accept all the resignations, the mass turnover is not likely to affect government policy since the president exercises dictatorial powers.

The opposition New Democratic party welcomed the resignations, saying they would give the president the opportunity to carry out sweeping reforms to meet the people's expectations. But there was no expectation that Park would modify his repressive policies under which nine persons have been sentenced to death this year and 162 others sentenced to prison terms ranging from three years to life.

GMC Bows To Popular Demands

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors is apparently bowing to criticism of its highly automated Vega assembly line by emphasizing more manual labor in planned 1976 production of a new mini-Chevrolet.

The swing back to more manual labor appears designed to stem any new outbreaks of "blue-collar blues" which plagued the Chevrolet Vega assembly plant at Lordstown, Ohio, two years ago.

At the same time, however, GM will be using more robots on underbody subassembly operations in an effort to keep assembly lines relatively error-free.

Officially, Chevrolet has yet to acknowledge the company will build the mini-Chevy.

But the trade newspaper American Metal Market said on Monday it had learned Fisher Body division's Grand Blanc plant will build the underbody line for the new car and will employ 22 robots.

The 22 programmable industrial robots would be the largest number in any single system at GM outside of Lordstown. Ford is the automotive leader in use of robots with about 35 at its Kansas City assembly plant.

About 200,000 of the tiny cars, which will be roughly two-thirds the size of a Vega, will be assembled at GM's Wilmington, Del., plant starting next summer, the trade paper said.

Many observers believe that GM, by relying on more manual labor, not only will eliminate "blue-collar blues" problems, but also will be able to get into production with a lower initial capital investment and a quicker return of money.

Chip Found From Revolver

KNOX Ind. (AP)—A pearl-handled revolver authorities believe was used in the slayings of a Howard County mother and her son was found in a ditch Monday.

Investigators said a chip missing from the handle of the .22 caliber weapon was found earlier at the shallow graves containing the bodies of Connie Jo Fivecoate, 33, Rt. 1, Russiaville, and her son, Chad, 8.

Investigators also said the pair was abducted from their own backyard and not from a Kokomo city park as originally believed. They said they believe the boy was beaten with the revolver, shot with a shotgun in the stomach and then shot between the eyes with the revolver.

Mrs. Fivecoate was shot once in the head with the pistol, officials said.

State police divers recovered the weapon from Chapman Ditch in southeastern Starke County a quarter-mile from the graves. They also found personal effects of the woman, including her checkbook, sunglasses, cigarette case and bank savings book.

Officials said $1,500 was withdrawn from Mrs. Fivecoate's savings account July 18, the day she and her son disappeared.

Widow Found Beaten To Death

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The "brutally beaten" body of an 85-year-old widow was found Monday evening in her ransacked home, police said.

Detectives said Mrs. Horace Cooper was found slumped on a blood stained couch when her daughter, Ruth V. Cooper, arrived home from work.

"It appears she had been beaten on the head with a blunt object," said Detective Sgt. Jack R. Ohrberg.

A bloodied telephone receiver with the cord attached was found on the floor of the kitchen. The base was in its usual location in the sitting room where the victim was found.

Police said two $10 gold coins and $100 in cash were taken from beneath Mrs. Cooper's bed. It was the third time within a year the house had been broken into. Three weeks ago about $300 in cash was taken.

Ralph E. Murphy, 35, and Marianne Larsen, 19, both of Kokomo, and Charles F. Lockert, 21, identified by police as a drifter, are held in the Howard County jail in Kokomo in connection with the case, authorities said.

Demos Back To "Hair Pulling Stage" On Reform Issue

By DON McLEOD
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—After two years of trying to settle their reform controversy, Democrats are back to the same kind of hair-pulling strife which tore the party apart in 1972.
Probably the last chance to salvage the party's reconciliation effort in time for the 1976 presidential year will come this December at the first mid-term Party Conference, a miniaturized version of the national convention.

It may be too late to restore unity for this year's elections in the wake of a walkout by blacks, women and white liberals from the final meeting of the Democratic Charter Commission on Sunday. They charged that party "regulars" were bent on an item-by-item overhaul of reform efforts.

The disenchanted reform wing left threatening to retaliate in the fall by withholding support from some Democratic candidates.

Although the party regulars outvoted the more avid reformers by three to one at the commission's closing session in Kansas City, the balance will be much closer at the conference in December.
Ironically, the blowup which derailed party chairman Robert S. Strauss's unity campaign was brought on by efforts to push through modifications he felt would avert just such a split.

The Strauss-backed changes were aimed at giving the reformers some of what they wanted but not enough to alienate the regulars who are still smarting over the McGovern Commission rules that kept many of them from the 1972 convention in Miami Beach.

But once the rollback got started and the regular-labor-conservative bloc saw how much muscle it had, Strauss's lieutenants lost control and were unable to stop it.

The break-up of Strauss's rapprochement began over an article designed to open up the party and which contained the ghost of the 1972 quotas.

The black members protested when the regulars began chipping away at this article. The Kansas City commission voted to report four alternatives to the mid-term conference which must now make the painful choice.
The alternatives range from required quotas to virtually no requirement to encourage minority participation.

Canning Supplies Continue To Be Short During Peak Of Season

NEW YORK (AP)—A worsening shortage of tin plate and soda ash has made still another consumer product hard to get: Canning jars and tin lids.

But the firms haven't been able to keep pace with the demand.

The shortage is especially pressing this time of year as many parts of the nation are in the midst of harvest time or near it.

Manufacturers of the jars and tin lids, including the two biggest, Ball Corp. of Muncie, Ind., and Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corp. of Los Angeles, say they are being besieged by angry customers from every state wondering why their stores have run out of canning jars.

Kerr said steel makers that make tin plate—U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Jones & Laughlin and Youngstown Sheet and Tube—are having to allocate their resources to cope with heavy worldwide demand.

W.A. Kerr, president of Kerr Glass, says he has heard reports of black markets in at least four states—Utah, North Carolina, West Virginia and Georgia.

Because of rising food prices, unprecedented numbers of Americans are canning their own peaches, pears, apples and berries. In fact, Kerr says demand for canning jars and lids has grown some 170 per cent this past year.

Dr. Shultz adds, "When the black man was in slavery, he was not privileged to communicate with other workers. They communicated through songs."

And Louis T. Jones, a young organist, said, "It's the best part of the service."

"Gospel Beat," Is Key To Their Church

By BARRY HANSON
Associated Press Writer

SPRINGFIELD Ill. (AP)—The stamping, clapping gospel beat of a 100-voice choir is the lifeblood of his church, says a black Baptist pastor.

At Union Baptist Church, one of the largest black congregations in central Illinois, more than half of the two-hour Sunday service is filled with rousing gospel songs and blues-tinged spirituals.

"If the black church does not have a vital choir, it almost dries up—dies," says the Rev. Dr. Rudolph S. Shultz, pastor of Union Baptist. "I wouldn't want to pastor a black church without a choir. I wouldn't be going anywhere."

The choir inspires the pastor to preach and the congregation to listen, he said.

"The black clergyman takes his cue from the music," Dr. Shultz said. "The music must be attractive to bring the people closer to him."

"The central point is the preaching, but the choir sings songs that relate to everyday experience. Music is a very vital part of religious worship."

Dr. Shultz said the style of music is shifting from the solemn strains of spirituals to the h and clapping, foot-stamping beat of gospel.

"Black people have to have this rhythmic food," said Mary Louise Smith, a choir soloist. "The beat is the difference. The spiritual tells the story, the gospel has the beat."

Dr. Shultz adds, "When the black man was in slavery, he was not privileged to communicate with other workers. They communicated through songs."

"For example, if the slaves were going to have a meeting, they would sing. Meeting tonight, meeting tonight, meeting at the old campground." All the boss man would hear was the song.

He said the music eventually made its way into the black church and developed into a significant part of the service.

At Union Baptist, teens and senior citizens alike take up their hymn books and sing, accompanied by piano and organ.

Church officials said the choir and its style of music has much to do with attracting young people to the church.

"It's really their bag," said Hazel M. Taborn, minister of music.

Ball Whackers Edge Clover Girls, 15-14

"I can't tell you how proud I am that they never quit." Greencastle Ball Whackers girls softball team manager Herman Wallace was so full of pride Tuesday that he didn't even need to eat lunch, for his girls had filled him to the brim with satisfaction in a come-from-behind 15-14 extra inning victory over the previously undefeated Clover Girls at Robe Ann Park Monday night.

Down 12-11 going into the bottom of the last regulation inning of a game that had already witnessed two lead changes and one tie, the Ball

Whackers pushed one run across to send the game into overtime.

Sherrie Anderson promptly put the Clover Girls back on top with a two run homer in the first half of the eighth frame, but the Ball Whackers would not give up, sending across two runs to tie the contest and set up Lisa Garrison's game winning hit.

Sue Bowser pitched the whole way to pick up the win for the Ball Whackers, while Joan Price absorbed the loss in relief for the Clover Girls.

"We drilled and drilled and preached not to quit," smiled Wallace, "and the girls didn't. They just kept coming. It took the team to do it; there was no one individual who won that game for us.

"I've got to give a fantastic amount of credit to that Cloverdale team. To beat an undefeated team is one thing, but to beat a good, undefeated team is another. They had a really excellent infield. They had us beat four or five times, but our girls would not quit."

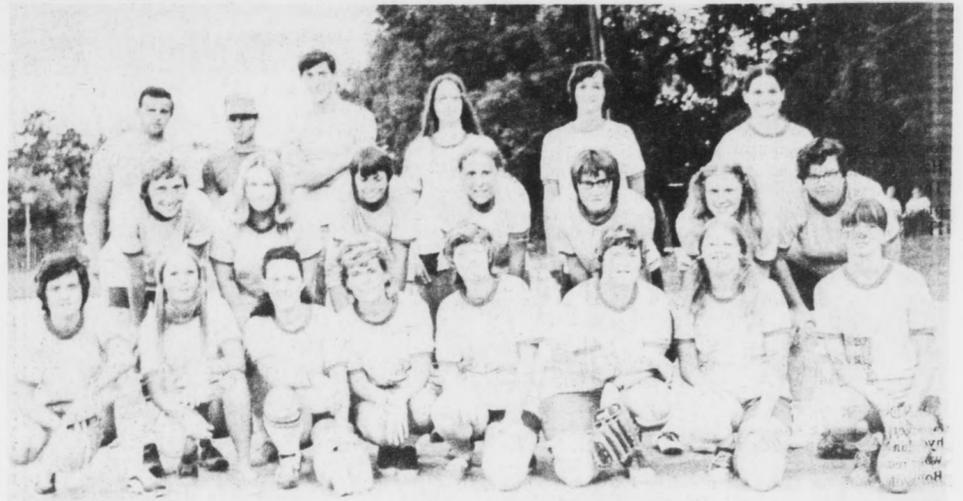

The win evens the Ball Whackers slate for the summer at 3-3, while the Clover Girls are now 3-1.

A return game is expected between these two county foes, but an exact date has not been determined. Meanwhile the Ball Whackers will amuse themselves this evening in a game of fun with the Greencastle Jaycees, beginning at 7 o'clock at Robe Ann Park.

Wallace previews tonight's game as "a break from the monotony of discipline" for his girls and as "a good time for everybody."

Morgan Slams, Reds Romp

CINCINNATI (AP)—After 11 years, Joe Morgan figured he had it coming.

The pint-sized Cincinnati Reds second baseman waited that long for his first grand slam home run.

It came Monday night—an inning after his three-run homer sent the Reds stampeding to a 15-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

"He's amazing," said Reds Manager George "Sparky" Anderson. "He's the strongest little man I've been around. He's a little man, but a big man when he swings."

The Reds erupted for nine runs in the third to bestow a 14-0 lead on starting pitcher Don Gullett, now 14-8.

Morgan's seven runs batted in represented a career-high for the 5-foot-7 slugger and sparked the Reds to a season-high total.

The explosion kept the Reds in hot pursuit of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who snapped a six-game losing streak with an 8-7 extra-inning victory over Chicago.

"We're swinging the bats now," said Morgan, who left the game after his grand slam.

"I wanted to give him a chance for a breather," said Anderson.

Morgan agreed with the decision. "It made no difference at that point. A rest now would be better for later on," he said.

"Records mean nothing," said Anderson. "The purpose is not to see how badly you can throttle someone. I know how it feels to be on the other end."

The home runs were the 16th and 17th of the season for Morgan.

The grand slam brought back memories of one he saw disappear as a rookie.

"I thought it was out of Crosley Field, but Frank Robinson crawled up the fence and robbed me," said Morgan.

The victim Monday night was Tom Underwood, a rookie making his professional debut.

"You hate to see that happen to a kid," said Anderson. "But sometimes it's the best thing for 'em. They don't think it's an easy league."

"You can't throw pitches down the pipe to Joe Morgan," lamented Phils' Coach Danny Ozark.

Wayne Twitchell, 6-5, took the loss, leaving after two innings trailing 5-0.

The lone highlight of the night for the Phils was Mike Schmidt's league-leading 30th home run.

In Monday's other National League games, the San Francisco Giants beat Pittsburgh 5-3, the Atlanta Braves belted St. Louis 11-6, the Houston Astros edged New York 2-1 in 11 innings and the Montreal Expos defeated San Diego 7-4.

Giants 5, Pirates 3

Dave Kingman hit a tie-breaking double in the ninth inning—a liner down the third base line which Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh insisted was foul—then scored on Ron Bryant's single in the Giants' victory over the Pirates.

Braves 11, Cardinals 6

Two-run homers by Hank Aaron and Darrell Evans and a pair of two-run doubles by Marty Perez powered the Braves past St. Louis, wrecking Claude Osteen's debut with the Cardinals.

Aaron's 730th career homer and 17th of the year came off Osteen in the third inning. Osteen has given up 14 of Aaron's homers, more than any other active pitcher.

Astros 2, Mets 1

Milt May drove in Houston's tying run with a sacrifice fly in the ninth inning, then singled home the winner in the 11th to beat Tom Seaver and the Mets.

Expos 7, Padres 4

Montreal's Barry Foote drove in two runs, one with a tie-breaking homer that triggered a three-run seventh inning and beat the Padres.

he made up for it. He went six innings to gain his 12th victory against eight losses and marked the first time this season he's gone more than four innings.

Marshall didn't see the victory as the one which could turn the slumping Dodgers around.

"I didn't think we were going the wrong way," said Marshall. "Sure, we lost six in a row but we played good baseball. It wasn't a matter of the club going bad, just that the other teams played a little better."

Yet at first it appeared that the Dodgers were heading for a seventh straight loss. Chicago erupted for six runs in the third inning to take a 6-2 lead with Jose Cardenal tripling in two runs and scoring another. Cardenal doubled and scored again the fourth to make it 7-2.

But the Dodgers rallied for three runs in the fifth and tied it in the seventh on Steve Garvey's two-run homer. That's when Marshall took over.

Marshall Does It All As Dodgers Dump Cubs

CHICAGO (AP)—It took 12 innings and every dimension of Mike Marshall's enormous talents for the Los Angeles Dodgers to break their six-game losing streak with an 8-7 victory over the Chicago Cubs Monday.

It was Marshall the pitcher, Marshall the hitter and, finally, Marshall the gambler, dashing, baserunner who scored the winning run from second base on a topped ball between the pitcher's mound and the first base line.

Marshall opened the 12th inning with a single to center and moved to second on a sacrifice bunt. Rick Auerbach then topped the ball and catcher Steve Swisher and pitcher Oscar Zamora both went for the ball.

Swisher made the play at first but Marshall kept coming around from third base to cross an unprotected plate.

Marshall, who thrives on work, had pitched only one inning in the last four days. But he made up for it. He went six innings to gain his 12th victory against eight losses and marked the first time this season he's gone more than four innings.

Marshall didn't see the victory as the one which could turn the slumping Dodgers around.

"I didn't think we were going the wrong way," said Marshall. "Sure, we lost six in a row but we played good baseball. It wasn't a matter of the club going bad, just that the other teams played a little better."

Yet at first it appeared that the Dodgers were heading for a seventh straight loss. Chicago erupted for six runs in the third inning to take a 6-2 lead with Jose Cardenal tripling in two runs and scoring another. Cardenal doubled and scored again the fourth to make it 7-2.

But the Dodgers rallied for three runs in the fifth and tied it in the seventh on Steve Garvey's two-run homer. That's when Marshall took over.

Red Sox Withstand Chisox 1-2 Punch

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Chicago Manager Chuck Tanner gave the Boston Red Sox his best 1-2 punch right off the bat Monday night but Bill Lee and Diego Segui saw to it that not much punch at all came off the White Sox' bats.

Remembering back to May 31, when he had sluggers Dick Allen and Bill Melton batting in the 1-2 spots and they delivered consecutive third-inning homers off Lee for all the runs in a 3-2 Chicago triumph, Tanner tried it again.

This time, they managed only a single apiece and Allen ended Chicago's only real threat with a double-play grounder in the eighth inning as the Red Sox rolled to a 6-1 victory and stretched their lead in the American League's East Division to five games over idle Cleveland.

Elsewhere, the Milwaukee Brewers nipped the Oakland A's 1-0, the Minnesota Twins whipped the New York Yankees 6-2 and the California Angels blanked the Detroit Tigers 1-0. Baltimore, Kansas City and Texas also were idle.

Lee and Segui combined on a five-hitter. Lee blanked the White Sox on three hits until the eighth when his arm stiffened and he needed help from Segui after Chicago scored its only run on a walk and singles by Pete Varney and Bucky Dent.

Brewers 1, A's 0

George Scott hit a second-inning homer and Billy Champion and Tom Murphy made it stand up with a six-hitter. Scott's 10th homer of the season, a drive that curled around the right-field foul pole, was one of only four Milwaukee hits off Vida Blue.

Murphy replaced Champion when Bert Campaneris led off the eighth inning with a single and recorded his 15th save.

Twins 6, Yankees 2

Bob Darwin slammed a three-run homer off Sam McDowell in the first inning and Joe Decker scattered six hits, including Graig Nettles' first home run since July 9.

Steve Brye opened the game with a double but was thrown out at third on Rod Carew's bunt. Larry Hisle followed with a single and Harmon Killebrew grounded out before Darwin powered his 20th home run of the season into the stands.

Decker finished with a flourish, retiring the last 11 New York batters after a one-out walk in the sixth.

Angels 1, Tigers 0

Frank Tanana hurled a six-hitter for his second straight shutout and the Angels edged the Tigers on Winston Llenas' bases-loaded sacrifice fly in the ninth inning.

Detroit rookie Fred Holdsworth matched scoreless innings with Tanana until the California ninth.

Iowa Closes On Indians

By The Associated Press

Iowa clipped two full games off the Indianapolis Eastern Division lead in the American Association by sweeping a doubleheader from Evansville Monday night while the Indians were dropping a pair of 2-1 decisions at Omaha.

The Oaks climbed within 2½ games of Indianapolis by blistering the Triplets, 9-2 and 10-5.

In the Western Division, runner-up Wichita trimmed Tulsa's lead to 5½ games with an 8-6 decision over the Oilers, and Denver downed Oklahoma City, 5-3.

in both homers and runs batted in. But he won't get a chance to better his marks since he was recalled after the game by the parent Chicago Cubs.

Foe Skidmore's 12th homer, one pitch after three Oklahoma City players let a foul ball drop, provided the margin of victory for Denver.

game, taking a 2-0 lead into the fourth inning when they exploded for an eight run rally capped by catcher Mike Hogan's grand slam homer.

They added four more runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings to account for the final tally.

Don Simpson added a solo round tripper in the sixth to the HTC attack that was also befooled by two hits apiece off the bats of Sid Scott, Jim Harshbarger and Ron Simpson.

Player-coach Chuck Skelton went all the way on the rubber for the win, aiding himself with three hits. Left-center fielder Bob Clampett provided the defensive high-lights of the game by twice snaring line drives and doubling a stray runner off base for double plays.

Boswell Photos, champions of the American Division of the Crawfordville City League, has challenged HTC to a two out of three play off round to determine the city champion, although the league has not officially sanctioned the games.

Nevertheless, the challenge has been accepted and plans are being worked out to play the games at the end of this week.

Roachdale HTC Wins City Division Crown

The Roachdale HTC softball team claimed sole possession of first place in the Crawfordville City League National Division Friday night with an 18-1 playoff victory over Caster Farms.

The newly crowned champions of the 16-team National Division took an impressive league record of 10-2 into the playoff, gaining entry to it by winning four tough games in the last week of regular play, one of them a win over Caster Farms that helped to force the showdown.

The HTC team was never headed in the championship game, taking a 2-0 lead into the fourth inning when they exploded for an eight run rally capped by catcher Mike Hogan's grand slam homer.

They added four more runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings to account for the final tally.

Don Simpson added a solo round tripper in the sixth to the HTC attack that was also befooled by two hits apiece off the bats of Sid Scott, Jim Harshbarger and Ron Simpson.

State Fair Harness Racing Starts Tomorrow

As post-time draws near for 1974's Indiana State Fair Harness Race program this Thursday through Saturday, prospects of Indiana's ITPHA races being exceptional look better and better. Director of Harness Racing, Dwight A. Smoker, reports the heaviest action taking place this year on Thursday at 7:00 p.m. Other ITPHA events will be run on the Thursday afternoon slate and one at 11:00 p.m. on Friday. This has been a good year for speed on half-mile tracks for Hoosier Standardbreds. And stacking up to what might be the most hotly contested of this year's heats is the two-year-old filly pace set for Thursday afternoon.

Holding down first place in the point department in this one is Goldie Pauline with 21. This filly is owned by Ed Crouch of Elwood, and is followed closely by Robert Gangloff's Dance Music. Next in line is Royalty Rights who is owned by Jim Anderson of Shelbyville.

Coming into the three-year-old trot on Thursday is another group of charges that are fairly close in the point spread. Edna Virgne, Spiceland, has horses in the top two spots with Virgne's Charmer and Virgne's Ladys Man. Following close behind is Cliffland, owned by Dana and Sheila Bramlett of New Albany. Being in the top spot is not exactly something new to Mrs. Virgne—she and her late husband had a world record holder in Virgne's Ladys Plaid (dam of Ladys Man).

Heading up the pack in Thursday afternoon's "Standard bred Board of Regulations" two-year-old pace is Doc Bluegrass. This colt holds the season's best time of 2:06 2/5, set at Corydon earlier this year. His brother, Doctor Bluegrass, owned by Don Paddock, Alexandria, was Indiana's two-year-old pacing champion in 1973. Happy Picture Show and Eagle Ridge fill the next two spots winningly four and one heat respectively.

Hoosier Grit, having won five heats this year, is leading the two-year old trotters.

Fast Miles follows with four heat wins, but the fastest time this season was set by third-place Cotton Pickin' Quacker at Corydon, 2:10 2/5.

Setting the fastest time for three-year-old pacers was Golden Paul Dean, another Ed Crouch horse. Dean is leading in heat wins with four to his credit while second place Day's Tar has two and Kingly Czar three.

Thursday night's Wabash Pace finds The Belle Mare with five heat wins to her credit. However the most consistent of this group is Just Bluegrass. Just Bluegrass has only one heat win but is second with 30 season points, all of which means this colt has placed second consistently on Indiana tracks in '74. This colt also holds the year's fastest time of 2:08 4/5 set at Corydon.

If past ITPHA events are any indication, for leading Indiana Trotters and Pacers the Indiana State Fair Harness Program is a brand new ballgame, in which all records and heat wins of the past season can be dismissed—for the present anyway. It seems State Champions never win on the fairgrounds mile track. However, you can bet that there are many leaders (some of the afore mentioned) who are just itching to turn the tables on fate, and set a precedence in '74 by continuing their winning ways in the year's ITPHA events.

Rocket Dragster Breaks Four World Speed Records

WENDOVER Utah (AP) — A rocket dragster powered by hydrogen peroxide broke four world records Monday on the Bonneville Salt Flats.

The Pollution Packer, fueled by the pollution-free fuel, hit an average speed of 181.341 miles in 4.963 seconds from a standing start over a quarter-mile course.

Vern Anderson, 35, of Minneapolis, broke both the time and speed records in the standing quarter-mile and the standing half-kilometer. The run also gave him the corresponding national records.

It was the first time a rocket-powered car had attempted to break records on the salt flats.

The vehicle is expected to go after the standing mile and kilometer records today.

The chemical reaction that powers the rocket car produces only water and oxygen. The Pollution Packer is powered by a 90 per cent solution of the substance.

The run went smoothly except for a near-rollover at the end of the run, when Anderson's car swerved nearly out of control coming down from speeds of between 390 and 430 miles per hour.

The Southern California Timing Association clocked the runs, in which Anderson also set national records. In the half-kilometer, the vehicle reached an average of 203.536 m.p.h. in 5.4925 seconds. This means the car was going in excess of 400 miles at the end of the course and would have, from a dead stop, passed a car going by at 200 miles per hour.

Anderson broke records set by Dave Anderson, who died last March when his car crashed during competition in Charlotte, N.C. Though not related, the Andersons attended the same high school in Minneapolis and were good friends.

Later Monday, Bill Snyder, 54, a Minneapolis businessman, drove a Falcon Ranchero powered by a Thermo King diesel engine, to set eight additional records through the quarter-mile and one-mile speed traps.

Intrepid On Top In America's Cup

NEWPORT R.I. (AP) — Intrepid, the leader thus far in the America's Cup final trials, attempted to pad its 14-1 record yesterday at the expense of winless Valiant in one of two races on Rhode Island Sound.

In the other pairing, Mariner squared off against Courageous. Each has three wins in five outings.

Intrepid took over the top spot Monday by coming from behind and beating Mariner by 2 minutes, 39 seconds. Courageous swamped Valiant by 6:48 in the day's other race.

Monday's races were delayed almost three hours in starting because of the lack of wind and had to be shortened from 243 miles to 19.8.

Former star class world champion Dennis Conner of San Diego, who was at the helm of Mariner, said his choice of a wrong job contributed greatly to his yacht's defeat.

Mariner took the start and grabbed a 30-second lead at the first turning mark. But Intrepid gained on the two reaching legs and finally eased past Mariner five minutes after the two blats rounded the third mark on the course.

It was the fourth leg which proved decisive. Mariner started that stretch with a lead of nine seconds, but ended up 2:36 behind. Conner said later that the job he had picked was too heavy for the six-knot southerly breeze.

Intrepid added another three seconds to its lead on the run home.

Courageous, with Bob Bavier of New York and Ted Hood of Marblehead, Mass., sharing the sailing, had no trouble with Valiant, piling up a lead of 3:19 early, pushing that margin over seven minutes at one point and then coasting in.

One of the four boats will be chosen by the New York Yacht Club by Sept. 3 to defend the America's Cup against either the French or the Australians in the races which begin Sept. 10.

Renaissance Generalist Of Sail Racing

MARBLEHEAD Mass. (AP) — "Ships are but boards," said the bard, "sailors but men." Shakespeare, however, never envisioned America's Cup sailing where the ships are metal marvels, the men princes of competitive sailing.

But he would have understood how the sails of these majestic 12-meter cup contenders can mellow and become sleek and improve with age. "Particularly ours," said sailmaker Ted Hood, grinning.

Hood is a kind of renaissance generalist of sail racing, designing and building sails and boats and then making them perform. He has been in on every America's Cup competition of modern time.

This time he is making sails for Courageous and Mariner, the two new aluminum 12-meters. For Courageous, he has cut and recut a mainsail of the controversial new Kevlar sailcloth.

But he notes that Courageous also carries two other mains that were used by the cup winner four years ago—Intrepid.

"As a sailor I think they should spend more on sails," said Hood. "If they want a boat that cost over a million dollars, they're spending less than 5 per cent on sails." That's a layout of up to $45,000 for sails, which is still a good bit more than most yachtsmen spend for an entire boat.

The new aluminum 12s, along with the renewed wooden defender Intrepid, are aiming for the right to defend the old silver mug beginning Sept. 10 off Newport, R.I. The Australians with Southern Cross and the French with France hope to take it away.

But the current preliminary trials are in many ways more intriguing, demanding and frustrating as the contenders race against each other, make desperate changes, practice relentlessly—and scheme.

Hood has many responsibilities that tug at his time, but when it comes to sails for a cup contender he moves to the loft floor with his crew, measuring, lining up, marking, cutting and watching all the details.

"Kevlar is the closest fiber to metal," he said. "It's light but stronger than steel. It was developed for auto tires."

Sailmaker Hood is not exactly sold on Kevlar. He calls it "exotic. It needs a couple of years of tests. If they want it, we'll make it, but we don't recommend it."

East Germans Unveil New Swimming Weapon

VIENNA (AP) — The East Germans, expected to be the dominant force in the European Swimming Championships which run through Sunday, unveiled a new weapon in Monday's races at the Stadionbad Pool.

Carla Linke, a 14-year-old blonde who is a relative newcomer to world class swimming, broke the world record for the women's 200-meter breaststroke in morning qualifying heats, then lowered it once more in capturing the finals.

The tall, slender Miss Linke broke the mark of 2 minutes, 37.89 second by taking her qualifier in 2:37.44, then smashed her own record by a whopping 2.45 seconds, winning the evening finals in 2:34.99.

Miss Linke showed little emotion after her remarkable performance.

"It was a good swim," she said, with barely a trace of a smile. "Everything went well, everything was perfect."

Not to be outdone, Kornelia Ender, East Germany's best known star, lowered her own world record in 100-meter freestyle by winning the final in 56.96 seconds. Her previous mark was 57.51.

Another East German, veteran Roland Matthes, didn't break a record but easily won the 100-meter backstroke final in 58.21.

Ulrika Tauber had started the East Germans off with a record 2:18.93 in winning the 200-meter individual medley Sunday.

U.S. Embassy In Cypriot Capital May Be Closed Temporarily

By The Associated Press
Greek, Turkish and Cypriot leaders expressed shock and abhorrence at the fatal shooting of the United States ambassador to Cyprus, Rodger P. Davies. He was killed during an anti-American riot Monday.

American sources in Nicosia said the U.S. Embassy in the battle-scarred Cypriot capital might be closed temporarily, and an official said unessential files were being burned to make the job quicker if we decide to go.

But there was no indication from the State Department in Washington of any such action. Lindsay Grant, the embassy's second in command, was flown from a vacation in Scotland to replace Davies.

There were these other developments in the Cyprus situation:

—The civilian government in Greece increased its authority over the military by firing the commander in chief of the armed forces and his eight top officers and replacing them with foes of the ousted military junta.

—Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said Turkey had expressed willingness to negotiate a withdrawal from part of the 40 per cent of Cyprus its troops have occupied.

—Turkish troops that pushed south of Nicosia over the weekend held their positions but made no significant advances. Little fighting was reported Monday.

—The Turks in Famagusta handed over 150 Greek Cypriots to United Nations forces. Most were women, children and elderly men who had been left in the east coast port city when most of the Greek Cypriots fled before the Turkish advance.

—A U.N. economic team said Nicosia was critically short of water, and several parts of the city were without water because of broken pumps.

Davies was killed by sniper fire during a wild, anti-American demonstration by 300 to 600 Greek Cypriots who accused the U.S. government of siding with Turkey.

The snipers were believed to be gunmen from EOKA-B, the Greek Cypriot terrorist force whose aim is to unite Cyprus with Greece and which helped to overthrow President Makarios on July 15.

Although hundreds of the demonstrators broke through the embassy gates and stoned the building and its U.S. Marine guard, an embassy official said bullet holes showed that the shots came from rooftops or balconies of neighboring buildings and the ambassador's second-floor office was clearly the target.

Davies and members of his staff had taken refuge in a corridor outside his office. He was killed by a bullet that went through his office and his secretary's office. Another shot killed a Greek Cypriot secretary who rushed to the 53-year-old ambassador's side.

President Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Budea of Rumania said he was "shocked and deeply saddened" by Davies' death. He dispatched a plane to Bierut to pick up the diplomat's two children, Ann, 20, and John, 16, whose mother died last year after a long illness. The plane will return Davies' body to the United States.

The U.S. embassy had been told Cypriot civil servants planned a protest demonstration, and about 30 or 40 unarmed Greek Cypriot police had been sent in response to its request for protection.

Some of the police watched passively, while others tried to push the crowd back, yelling: "For God's sake, there are Cypriots in there." Half a dozen

U.S. Marines were also on duty and drove the mob back with tear gas. But American officials said the Greek Cypriot national guard failed to respond to an appeal for help.

The police said they made no arrests. But some police were seen struggling with armed EOKA-B members.

U.N. troops also rushed to the scene but did nothing to stop the rioters. A U.N. spokesman in New York said it was "not the job of the peacekeeping force" to intervene, "this is the job of the police." He said that the force is empowered only to intervene between the Greek and Turkish communities and their armed forces.

Davies, an expert on Middle East affairs, had taken up his post less than six weeks ago, on July 10. He is the third American ambassador slain in recent years while on overseas duty. John Gordon Mein was killed during a kidnap attempt in Guatemala in 1968, and Cleo Noel was shot by Palestinian terrorists in Khartoum, Sudan, in March 1973.

Old, Plush Railcar May See Use Again

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The thick pile carpeting makes walking a silent experience. The deep red velvet settee is framed by elegant side tables with gilt edges. Each of the four bedrooms has a separate bath attached.

Sound like a mansion? It is, but it's on wheels and the rail car—valued at a half million dollars—soon will be available for post vacation trips.

"Victoria" is her name and since she was built at a cost of $100,000 in 1927 the grand old lady of the Pullman Co. has brought up the rear of hundreds of coast-to-coast trains, carrying opera stars, political dignitaries and presidents.

Heads of state visiting the United States were given the car for their travels. Franklin D. Roosevelt used the car in 1935 for his second presidential campaign.

The opulent, 83-foot car was purchased by the Burlington Railroad in 1944 and renamed the "Blackhawk."

In 1966, the car changed hands again. It was purchased by two San Diego distributing company executives, S. Steve Ourpas and John Cuchna. They renamed the car the "Victoria."

Now they are turning over the plush pullman to the Pacific Southwest Railway Museum Association of San Diego, which plans to prepare it for future travels.

Cover Girl Looks Forward To Marriage

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The teen scene may be on a romantic beam if this year's newly selected 1974 Cover Girl, pretty Sheri Dolph of Ontario, Calif., is an indication. She writes love songs, likes to have boys open doors for her, might like to have lived in the gala times of "Gone with the Wind" (without the war), and she's not only eagerly looking forward to marriage — "I'm really close" — she says, but her plans include "a feminine bridal outfit."

ment hasn't changed her ideas, many of them old-fashioned, she supports the Equal Rights Amendment because "thousands of women might benefit from the educational opportunities." A speaker from the National Organization for Women persuaded a lot of males at her high school that "Women's Lib isn't just a lot of ladies burning their bras." Many are working hard to achieve fairness for women, she says.

In addition to the winning check and other awards — makeup, a new hairdo, a fashion ensemble and a savings bond — provided to all semifinalists, Sheri's face will appear on the cover of the October issue of Co-ed, one of the sponsors of the annual contest. She'll also be photographed for a national four-color advertisement for a product of another sponsor, the Noxell Corp.

How does she care for her pretty complexion, now golden-tan?

"I use hot water and soap, rinsing it off with cold water and I use astringent and moisturizing lotion when it is needed." As for makeup she uses blush, mascara (pastels), lipstick and eye shadow to emphasize her bright blue eyes.

Lugar Agrees To Debate Terms

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Mayor Richard G. Lugar of Indianapolis has agreed to the debate format set by his Democratic opponent for the U.S. Senate, Sen. Birch Bayh.

The televised debate will be Sept. 1 at 8 p.m.

dinator Gordon K. Durnil also stated:

"Since Mayor Lugar has agreed to the Sept. 1 debate, please give us the senator's answer regarding Lugar's challenge to debate at more reasonable times. To refresh your memory, Lugar's compromise calls for debates Sept. 17 or 18 at South Bend, Oct. 7 or 8 in Fort Wayne and Oct. 28 or 29 in Evansville."

"This is a real rarity," said Jack Stodelle, director of the museum. "It has a diesel stove, two rear staterooms, a solarium lounge that seats 12 and it can sleep eight. We'll have it on display to the public for a while, but when we get the money we'd like to get her ready to get back in service."

He said the museum needs $8,000 to put new couplings on the car to conform to modern equipment and then "she'll be ready for charter."

The $1,000 she won in the contest is going into the bank to be added to another $1,000 she has saved working in a variety of jobs — baby sitting, giving piano lessons, the local department store. The store job has made her aware of changing fashions. But "John has good taste in clothes" and she respects his suggestions.

British Lass To Appear At Indiana State Fair This Saturday

By MARY CAMPBELL
AP Newsfeatures Writer
Can a British girl with a hyphenated name cut a record as far away from Nashville as London and get a country hit in the United States?

Sure. Olivia Newton-John did it with "If You Love Me, Let Me Know" and then she did it with "Let Me Be There." Both became pop hits, too, and sold a million copies. Now she's recorded "I Love You, I Honestly Love You" and advance orders are so strong that it's on the best-selling charts before it's in most of the stores.

the last tour and we were pleased with them. They're not well known or anything but they play everything; they can play country and they can play jazz."

Better than touring, though, Miss Newton-John says, "I like recording best. I think I like it best because it means I can sing a lot. Usually I go in in the afternoon and work through until I finish. It could be 1 in the morning. Sometimes there are days when I sing six or seven good tracks in the same day. Another day I can only get through one or two. It all depends. I record in London — on Abbey Road."

OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN

And Olivia Newton-John hasn't yet set foot in Nashville. She won a Grammy Award in the "best country female vocal performance" category this year with "Let Me Be There" and says, "It's probably the first time an English person won an award over Nashville people."

But she wants to go to Nashville and says, "I don't think it makes any difference where you make a record. I did hear about one lady singer who wasn't too happy about me, but I don't think they'll eat me there. I want to go there; I'm not afraid. The problem is just finding time to go."

Asked about aspirations and goals, Miss Newton-John says, "I just drift along with it."

"I had been told that because she is so pretty young men are falling in love with her in droves. 'Really?' she says when asked about it. "I don't think they're doing it enough to bug me."

She says, "I'm single. I think it would be very difficult if I wasn't. I have a boyfriend but I think unless a husband could travel with you, it's difficult for a marriage when you're away so much."

"I don't want to be on the road forever. I want to be able to get in a position where I can work so many weeks and be off so many weeks."

About acting, Miss Newton-

Sheri was being interviewed at the excitingly decorated hair salon of Louis Guy D in New York. It is done in colorful reds, yellows and so on, but Sheri wasn't up to the flashy decor. The whirlwind activities and being selected Cover Girl had put such a strain on her emotions that her smiles ranged from weakly pleasant to gamely pleasant. But the nervousness was nothing new. She "had been scared" when she won a regional designation.

"My hair was down to my waist when I came East, but I like it short," she said of her new hairdo. "I might let it grow for the wedding though. John didn't seem to like the idea of the short hair when I told him. Most men like long hair, but usually they like long blonde hair which I never had."

Then the two songs that did make it were written by John Roskill. Unfortunately he died recently. He was a friend.

"My new record was written by Jeff Barry and Peter Allen. I write some. One, 'Changes,' is on my new album. One is on an English album that isn't out here. Maybe it'll be on the next one."

John, 21, works for a construction company and has plans to own his own business. She's already thinking about the kind of home they'll have in terms of "lots of indoor plants and, hopefully, a swimming pool." Her favorite color is yellow so it will be a "sunshine house."

Although the women's move-

In this country, Miss Newton-John has three albums out, "Olivia Newton-John" on UNI, "Let Me Be There" and "If You Love Me, Let Me Know" on MCA.

They don't have exactly the same songs as her albums in England because the second album for the United States was a collection of all her country cuts. But things will get lined up so that future releases will be alike.

Miss Newton-John is in the United States, having performed at the Greek Theater in Los Angeles and in Las Vegas for two weeks with Charlie Rich. Next, she says, "I'll go on the state fair tour all over the place. In Vegas I wore long dresses. I think I'll wear trousers for the state fairs because I might be walking across muddy fields to get on stage. Trousers are more comfortable."

The band who'll be with her for the state fair tour is from Minnesota. "We heard them on John says, "I've done a little bit. Nothing vast yet." She isn't sure what comes next after the tour of state fairs. Probably some more happy, long recording sessions on Abbey Road. And some more country hits.

Buffalo have heard about thermal heat

WASHINGTON (AP) — While Americans in general are just now waking up to the possibilities of thermal heat and power, Yellowstone Park buffalo have been benefiting from it for generations.

A National Park Service report says that hot springs in the park are largely responsible for the survival of this country's only wild buffalo herd. Reduced to 23 animals in 1901, the herd now numbers over 800.

Dr. Margaret Mary Meagher, a research biologist, says that areas kept snow-free by the springs have been of great importance to the bison population during critical periods. The herd's chief hazard is severe winter weather and heavy snow. That's when the warm ground areas come in handy.

DON'T FORGET THE ANTACID

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) - The Kenya capital is to play host later this year to the first International Gastronomic Fair for Africa. The slogan of the October event will be, appropriately, "Foodstuffs are fruits of earth and the result of human toil."
Foodstuffs, national dishes and drinks and other delicacies from all over Africa will be on display at the four-day event.

Most fruit trees should be pruned annually so they will maintain a good supply of the one-year-old wood on which most bear their fruit.

WORRY CLINIC

By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.

James Kuser was a deft chaperone for my lecture trip to Ohio. And I enjoyed his scheduling me before the high school assembly, for teen-agers are very receptive to practical ideas on everyday psychology. They also laugh heartily when I lampoon silly fads.

several years and thus is entrenched in error. And on the day of an address, a professional speaker is usually keyed up, like a boxer, so he doesn't feel the fatigue till the following morning, so I figure I might as well talk twice.

At first I thought he was joking, for I had expected a usual one-hour time limit, but he really meant it, so I mentally reorganized my ideas.

CASE B-621: James K. Kuser is the dynamic newspaper publisher at Napoleon, Ohio.

But the next day a speaker may be so weary he can't think! For example, Indiana State Senator Leo Sullivan invited me to deliver an evening "March of Dimes" address at 8 P.M.

Luckily, for several years I had been writing a monthly essay on "Professional Psychology" for Cal Dental Journal so I hoped when I got warned up and began hitting on all 8 cylinders, that some of my previous writings would flit back into my mind — and they did!

"Dr. Crane," he telephoned earlier this year, "we'd like to have you come over here to address our Chamber of Commerce banquet."

But he persuaded me to drive all over Miami County with him that day, where I spoke to all 5 separate high school assemblies.

Since then, I have learned that such professional clinics or seminars are geared to a 3-hour session, with a 15-minute coffee break in between.

"But I wonder if you'd mind talking to our high school assembly at 2:30 the same day?"

Sen. Sullivan figured he was just keeping me "warmed

If you wish to construct a popular talk whether of 5-minute or 50-minute duration, send for my booklet "Public Platform Strategy," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25¢.

ORATORICAL "MILEAGE"

This type of schedule has been routine for me during the past generation.

Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.

Indeed, a few weeks after my visit to Napoleon, I was also scheduled to address the Cleveland Dental Society banquet session.

up" for the main event that night.

And the chairman asked if I could fly in the earlier in the day for an extra informal talk to a special group of dental surgeons.

But I was younger then and didn't mind this strenuous lecture schedule.

As a dedicated educator, I relish addressing the afternoon high school and college assemblies when I am invited to a city for a banquet appearance.

However, my first initiation into prolonged speaking occurred before the Akron Dental Society in Ohio.

For young people are at the crossroads and thus may be undecided as to which direction to take.

Via telephone, I had been told I was to start the convention at 9 A.M., but the doctors drifted in slow, because of their late breakfasts.

7:00 2 Today In Indiana

Indeed, it is easier to steer an undecided person into the right road than to try to pull back somebody who has been traveling the wrong path for

"Well, Dr. Crane," he said, "we had expected to begin promptly at 9 o'clock, but we are starting a half hour late, so you can continue till 12:30."

How much time did you allot for my address?" I quietly asked the Chairman, as the audience courteously were applauding following his introduction.

Ellis followed that advice for two years, then convinced Indiana University officials to give him a chance.
