Republican League Wrestling With the Silver Issue.

OTHER DIFFERENCES.

Why That the Convention Will Adjourn Until Tomorrow In Order to Give the Delegates an Opportunity to Hear Governor McKinley and Hear Resolutions Committee.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 20.—The opening of the eighth national convention of the Republican clubs adjourned yesterday until 10 a. m. today disposing of all preliminaries and matters. There were no debates in the convention indicating a contest between those wearing white badges and representatives of the gold and silver planks. But in the committee rooms, the arena, hotels and elsewhere the contest continues.

The committee on credentials had considerable amusement over the South in a contest. The committees on work, rule and order of business and place selected Milwaukee for the next national convention, and referred the selection of the executive board, with instructions to select any date after that of the Republican convention. The committee on the time to a date subsequent to that of the national convention next year was for the purpose of settling any such contest on resolutions that which is now confronting the delegates of the clubs.

To Wait for McKinley.

There was a movement yesterday to adjourn the work with the banquet to the evening before the convention. The agitation before the common resolutions during the afternoon and evening developed such differences that it is not likely the convention will adjourn before tomorrow. The delegates from the west and south want to adjourn tomorrow. As it is known that Governor McKinley cannot get here until tomorrow morning, there is a desire to wait for him till that day and some charge that his friends are trying to prolong the session so as to have a big McKinley day. Others charge that the efforts to expedite business to conclude tonight were in order to give the delegates an opportunity to leave before McKinley's arrival.

Dividing the Offices.

It was conceded yesterday that the leading offices would be divided between the gold and silver men by making General McAlpin of New York, and John Byrnes of Denver secretary, but last night it was proposed that the selection of a secretary to the executive board. It is claimed that Humphreys was first selected by the executive board and afterward rejected by the annual convention. The committee think the New York delegation feeling confident of McAlpin's election, are seeking to avoid having a silver man for secretary.

The Silver Fight.

The feature of the day has been the fight before the committee on resolutions. The committee organized by Congressman J. B. Robinson of Virginia as chairman and H. G. Brown of Delaware as secretary. The resolution was against the silverites, and the latter were not discouraged and they kept up the fight from the start. The committee was in open session till 11 o'clock when, on motion of Congressman Towney of Minneapolis, it adjourned until 8 p. m. for an executive session at which time a subcommittee was announced by Chairman Robinson and time given to the silverites and others for a hearing.

Resolution of the silver men was also other silver resolutions. The committee of free silver, through Mr. Brown of Missouri, offered the financial compromise resolution at the most attention was presented by Senator J. M. Thurston of Nebraska follows:

To improve the declaration of the last national convention "that the American people from tradition and interest are opposed to the use of both gold and silver as a standard money with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals so that the purchasing and debt power of the dollar, whether of gold or paper, shall be at all times equal and refer the action for a more specific declaration to the next Republican national convention, which alone has the authority to bind the party or make platforms and principles."

Over the Disturbing Element.

There was no discussion of the tariff or other issues in the committee except that of the silver plank and no differences of opinion existed in the committee of 46 members except on the silver question. Nearly all the members of the committee were instructed on the silver question by their respective state delegations. It is conceded that these instructions make it almost certain that a majority and minority reports will be presented to the convention and that the silver question will be fought on the floor today. The silver men still have confidence in their strength among the delegates, although a majority of the committee is against them.

When the committee on resolutions adjourned at 8 p. m. the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions:

George and Hutchins were quickly seized by Sheriff Bowers and Deputy Sheriff Bramlett, who followed them into the bank. E. M. Kennedy, a liveryman, who was on guard at the bank door, and Robert O. McFarland, who was in charge of a team with which the robbers intended to escape, were also arrested. The prisoners are residents of the Springs. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 20.—For 23 years the case of the Travelers' Insurance company vs. Prairie school township has been on the dockets of the White county circuit court, and it appears to be only begun. The suit involves some $25,000, which was borrowed of the plaintiff company by a former trustee of Prairie school township, and which the township is now refusing to pay, because of alleged illegality and fraud. After a change of venue to Pulaski county, where the evidence was heard, the case was brought to Logansport for argument. Judge Capron of Rochester was called as special judge in the suit, and now has it under consideration. His decision will not be made known before the September term of court, and it is probable that whatever way his ruling may be the other side will take an appeal.

Iron Hall Funds.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 20.—Receiver Failey of the defunct Order of Iron Hall filed a report with Judge McMaster showing that he has received $1,950,000, estimated, while the disbursements have been $1,500,000. It is the intention to close up the trust within a month. The receiver asks for "not less" than 5 per cent allowance of the amount he has collected for his services. This would be $97,500. Some time ago Judge Winter ordered an allowance of $50,000 for the receiver, but this aroused such a storm of protest that the order was rescinded. The Iron Hall went into the hands of the receiver in the latter part of 1892.

The Star-Press should come out and say what it is for. It one week eulogizes Cleveland and sound money, and then comes out and eulogizes Turpie and Voorhees and others who are for free silver. What's your racket, neighbor. A careful reading of your columns fails to find your purpose clear.

The Commercial-Gazette thus speaks of Turpie, who has been eulogized considerably hereabouts by democratic papers:

Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette: Voorhees wants to be on the watch, or that politically mummified colleague of his will be stealing all his glory as the most rampant advocate of free silver in Indiana. For more than a quarter of a century Voorhees has been the boss demagogue of Indiana, and we do not want to see his crown taken away from him. Up, Voorhees! up, we say! Be yourself once more! Let that clarion voice of yours ring out in bold declaration of your rights! If Turpie is for free silver at a 16 to 1 ratio, discount him by declaring for a 10 to 1 rate. Down him in some way, or your mourning friends on the Wabash will have to say that the glory of Ichabod has departed.

In our columns today will be seen the preliminary arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration in Greencastle. There will also be seen a notice calling on Company I of this city to prepare for a visit to Anderson on the Fourth. The committee on invitation for our celebration should at once send an earnest invitation to Company I asking them to stay at home on that day. Now that it has been decided that we are to have a Fourth, we can not afford to send any of our attractions to boom other cities' celebrations.

The Star-Press has for weeks been making silly assertions that the price of wool was higher now than a year ago. Sensible people have not been fooled by the organ's remarks because they know better. That paper last week said: There is a great peculiarity noticeable in republican newspapers now-a-days—they have nothing to say about the price of wool and sheep, and are content as to American sheep being forced to compete with the pauper sheep of Europe. The fact is prices are better under the Wilson bill than they were under the McKinley bill.

The current issue of the American Economist shows the untruth of the Star-Press clipping by printing the following:

THE PRICE OF WOOL.

The American farmer will be interested in studying a comparison of the prices paid for his wool in the open market this month and in June of last year. Taking four of the principal grades of domestic wool, the quotations are as follows:

Grade.	June 1894.	June 1895.	Loss per cent.
Indiana quarter blood unwashed.....	17 1/2	16 1/2	1
No. 1 medium unwashed.....	15	13	2
Fine unwashed.....	14	11 1/2	3 1/2
Fine territory, 70 per cent. shrinkage.....	10	9	1

It was thought that prices could not fall below the figures of a year ago, when it was hoped that the effect of free trade in wool had been fully anticipated. But the result is even worse than the realization.

The Summer School.

Chas. Newlin returned from his home at Wabash yesterday to resume his work.

Milas Lassater, formerly of '95, who has been teaching in eastern Texas for the past three years, has returned for the summer term. He will graduate with '97.

Mr. B. S. Smith returned to his home at Anna, Ill.

Garret Cooper returned to resume his work yesterday from a visit to his home in Chicago. He rode down on his wheel from Crawfordsville.

Miss Gertrude Neal, after spending several days with her parents at Charleston, Ill., has returned to get up her work in order to graduate with '96.

Some fine snakes have recently been added to the collection in the zoological department.

The friends of Harl Burnison are much pained to hear of his death, which occurred in Chicago the first of the week. Mr. Burnison was here only a few weeks, but he made many friends and impressed every one with his genial manner. He was a young man of good character, sterling qualities and lofty aims of life, which affected all with whom he came in contact. His parents and the members of his fraternity have the sympathy of all who knew him.

FOR THE FOURTH.

Greencastle Will Celebrate Independence Day—Uncork Your Enthusiasm.

Greencastle will have a Fourth of July after all. Though getting a rather late start toward booming the thing, the enthusiasm necessary for a successful time on that day is beginning to bubble to the surface, and with the proper kind of a movement the day can be made a rouser. The preliminary meeting was held yesterday in James T. Denny's office. Squire Denny was president and L. D. Mathias secretary. The executive committee was first filled and is as follows: J. T. Denny, chairman; Lee Mathias, secretary; W. H. Ragan, C. L. Martin, H. M. Smith, Henry Meltzer, W. B. Vestal, W. L. Denman. The finance committee is J. McD. Hays, W. E. Starr, R. L. O'Hair, M. D. Bridges, Jerome Allen and T. C. Hammond. The committee on business men's parade is W. B. Vestal and W. L. Denman. Committee on music: H. M. Smith, Mrs. F. A. Hays and Miss Kate Hammond. Committee on reception: Mayor Jonathan Birch, H. H. Mathias, T. C. Grooms and C. L. Martin. Committee on grounds: J. T. Denny, W. L. Denman and J. M. Donohue.

These committees will begin active work at once and there is no doubt they will hustle out all the enthusiasm and "patriotism" in this neck of the woods to cause the eagle's screams to be heard at Brazil, Terre Haute, Crawfordsville and some of the other suburban towns hereabouts. Get a push on, gentlemen, and put up a Fourth that will stand out as a shining beacon light to point the way to Putnam's capital.

This movement can be made a success only by united effort and now is the time to unite. Get a hustle on.

Parke County Races.

Rockville is preparing to give one of the finest race meetings of western Indiana. July 9 to 12 has been fixed as the date. The association offers $2,150 in purses, and opens the great Eastern Illinois Circuit with purses aggregating $12,900. The track, remodeled for the coming meeting, is among the best half mile courses in the state, and the grounds and buildings have been specially prepared to accommodate the large crowds expected. Liberal purses, excursion rates on all railroads, and an energetic, obliging management insure a wide awake and successful meeting. All correspondence should be addressed to Parke J. Keeney, Secretary.

They Brought Rain.

A lot of the members of Fletcher Avenue and Roberts Park churches picnicked at Fern today. We are indeed thankful for this. If anything can bring rain it is a Methodist picnic, and the Indianapolis brethren go home this evening with the able-bodied blessings of every male and female inhabitant of Putnam county. We don't want to ask too much, but the capital city folks will be assured of additional thanks if they will come over again, say next Thursday.

TOOK PARIS GREEN.

Miss Carrie Hurst, of Carbon Tries to Leave this Sphere.

Elder J. H. Dalby came rushing up town last evening about seven o'clock in search of a physician. He resides on the Rockville road, in the residence in which John Howard died lately, near the city limits, and reported that a young lady, a Miss Carrie Hurst, of Carbon, had taken paris green and was violently ill. Dr. F. H. Lammers made a hurried trip to the house and there found the story to be true. Miss Hurst was quite sick and had vomited a large quantity of the paris green. The physician administered the proper medicines and relieved her of the poison. In reply to the question as to how much she had taken Mr. Dalby reported that he had recently purchased a dime's worth and that about two-thirds of it was missing. Ten cents buys a quarter of a pound of the stuff at any well regulated drug store, so it will be seen that enough of the drug, if it was taken, disappeared to make death sure. Miss Hurst had been living at Elder Dalby's for about two weeks, but had formerly been engaged as a domestic in the family of W. T. Scott. She is eighteen years of age and her parents reside at Carbon. Her father visited her last evening and her mother arrived today to give her attention. Dr. Lammers visited her this morning and found that the drug had affected her system, causing great soreness, but stated that she was out of danger. Miss Hurst frustrates all attempts to find out why she took the poison. Mr. Scott states she was an industrious, hard-working girl, but was at times despondent, caused he thought by physical disorders of which she suffered. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hurst, and she is a niece of Elder Dalby.

The Same as Bread

Hood's Sarsaparilla on the Table at Every Meal

"In my opinion Hood's Sarsaparilla has not an equal as a blood purifier. I doctored 6 months for stomach trouble and Neuralgia of the Heart without any good and then took Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every spring and fall since I have used it and it has done me lots of good. I have not been attended by a physician for the last four years. My wife was suffering with water brash and Feeling All Tired Out.

She was severely afflicted but upon my prevailing upon her to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills she felt differently in a short time. Now she is quite well. We have great faith in Hood's Sarsaparilla and put it on the table at every meal the same as bread." AL. G. HYAMS, with T. V. HOWELL & SONS, residence, 426 North Third Street, Hamilton, Ohio.

We consulted the best medical talent. They said there was no help for me, that I had organic disease of the heart for which there was no remedy. I had read your advertisement in The Graphic and a year ago, as a last resort, I tried one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart, which convinced me that there was true merit in it. I wish to say to all who are suffering as I did; there's relief untold for them if they will only give your remedies just one trial." FRUIT AND FLOWERS

AMONG THE ROSES.

Cultural Notes—A List of Best Roses—Desirable Climbing Varieties.

The rose thrives best in a deeply worked, well drained, good, loamy soil. It fails under the shade of a tree and will give better growth and blossom if transplanted to fresh soil every few years. In dry weather liberal soakings of water at least once a week will repay for all the trouble, so will a heavy mulch of chopped straw or short manure, which tends to induce continuous bloom. A well known New Jersey florist, in a communication to American Agriculturist, says on the subject of best roses:

If on starting to grow roses you can only afford to buy one plant, I would say take Clothilde Soupert. It is a beautiful rose either in bud or full blown, of a beautiful soft pink when first opening, changing to paler pink as it gets older, and some of the flowers are almost pure white. It is beautifully formed, very double, sweet scented and a most prolific bloomer. It will continue in bloom from early spring till frost in the fall and is as hardy as a brier. If you want 20 plants to start with, take Clothilde Soupert, Mrs. Degraw, rose color; Malmaison, flesh color and deliciously sweet; La France, clear soft pink; General Jacqueminot, crimson; Duchess of Albany, deep pink; Dinsmore, coral red. If you want 100, take the same list, adding Empress Augusta Victoria, white and very fine; Papa Gontier, bright red, and Etoile de Lyon.

The last three are not quite hardy, consequently are not always to be relied upon to go through the winter alive; but, first, last and all the time I advise taking these and all other roses on their own roots. For the amateur they are so much more desirable and will live and thrive for years, while budded stock, if not thoroughly understood and watched very carefully for suckers, will be dead in two or three years at most. Having made a success with the above, you need not hesitate to indulge your fancy to any extent that the pocketbook will agree to.

The number of truly hardy climbing roses is limited. Baltimore Belle, blush; Gem of the Prairies, rose; Prairie Queen, deep rose; Tennessee Belle, blush, and Seven Sisters, light rose changing to white, are among the most reliable climbers we have for vigorous climates. Reine Marie Henriette is a fine climbing rose and thrives in southern New Jersey. At the south Devoniensis, Cloth of Gold, Marshal Niel, Gloire de Dijon and hosts of others are their common everyday stock.

Planting Young Carnations.

Well rooted carnation cuttings when potted or boxed off will make at once strong vigorous plants, while those with very small roots, even if quite healthy, take long to start as they become hard. Every young plant should be planted deep and firm enough to enable it to maintain a perpendicular position throughout the season. The plant at the left in illustration represents a young plant put firmly in the ground, and deep

CORRECTLY AND INCORRECTLY PLANTED. enough to be safe from any influence which might affect its stability. It will go right along without stopping if we keep the conditions right for its growth.

The figure at the right shows a young plant which has been carelessly potted in the first place and when planted outside was put so near the surface that the first puff of wind sent it over to one side, ready for a wind from opposite direction to send it back again. Under such circumstances we can scarcely expect a plant to amount to very much.—American Florist.

Dwarf Pear Trees.

The editor of Gardening, who has had excellent results with dwarf pear trees, recommends them without hesitation to his readers, who are told that these trees are useful not only in small gardens, but to plant in borders in large ones. Pear trees, both dwarf and standard, require good ground, if a little inclined to clay so much the better, though any fair garden soil will suit them. But they must not be crowded, even if dwarfs. Nine or ten feet apart is close enough. The following is a good selection of kinds: Margaret, Giffard, Clapp's Favorite, Bartlett, Seckel, Hardy, Sheldon, Bose, Anjou.

Worth Knowing About.

A new industry is that of spraying fruit trees by the job. Centaurea, candidissima and gymnocarpa make a very effective edging for beds of double General Grant or Bruant geraniums.

The leaf blight may be checked by using the bordeaux mixture, beginning just as soon as leaves appear, and continuing the application every few weeks throughout the season.

Do not plant scarlet and pink geraniums in the same bed. The colors do not either blend with each other or form any striking contrast.

Phlox Drummondii makes a showy bed, and is very effective when planted in bare places near the edge of herbaceous borders.

Among the various novelties introduced last season there was none more striking or beautiful than the new tulip "lowered vobby."

Obituary. Mrs. Alice Foster (nee Wells) was born June 14, 1858, in Johnson county, Ind., near the town now known as Trafalgar. When about eight years of age her parents removed to Greencastle, where she made her home for several years. At eighteen years of age she was married to Alvah C. Foster, of Cloverdale, Ind. No children blest their union. In Nov., 1884, she was left a widow. Shortly after her husband's death she returned to Greencastle to make her home with her widowed mother. After trying different occupations, she decided that her calling was to nurse the sick, in which she had great success and won many friends. As has been said by one who has known much of her life, "It was a pleasure to be sick to be waited on by her." She was kind, sympathetic and unselfish. Much of her earnings was bestowed in charity in various ways, but so unostentatiously that even her most intimate friends were unaware of how much she was doing in this direction. She was baptized in infancy and united with Locust Street M. E. church in her thirty-third year during the ministry of Rev. Albert Hurlstone. She died at Terre Haute on June 2, where she had been nursing her uncle, and was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the Cloverdale cemetery June 4, 1895. Though she suffered greatly during her last hours, she was filled with spiritual joy and triumph, repeating over and over: "O death! where is thy sting? O grave! where is thy victory?" We feel assured that she is in that better home above, where her father and one sister preceded her; and while we mourn her loss we sorrow not as those without hope.

A Military Note.

The Anderson Herald concerning their Fourth of July celebration says: The committees last night placed the advertising department in the hands of Captain Burr, who is to appoint a detail of six to bill the country with bugles, and a detail of four to take in the surrounding cities, from Logansport to Richmond, from Greencastle and Franklin to Union City, and from Benton Harbor to North Vernon. The committee also placed the reception of the militia companies and arrangements for the camp into the hands of Captain Burr.

WHY GO AWAY?

Why go to Martinsville, French Lick, or any other watering place when Greencastle has at her doors some of the best mineral water to be found in the state. The Spring on the Mahan farm, south of the Vandalia railway, contains iron and sulphur. It's medical properties have been accurately tested and found to be the equal of any spring.

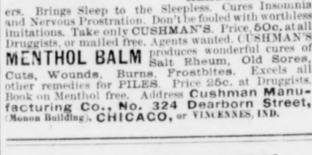

Read the following testimonial: GREENCASTLE, Ind., June 18, 1895. I was troubled with constipation and kidney trouble for ten years, and had arranged to go to Martinsville for treatment. I determined to try the water in the Mahan spring and within five weeks was entirely cured. JOHN RILEY.

GREENCASTLE, June 20, 1895. I have been constipated for more than ten years and my bowels were in such a condition that they refused to perform their function without the use of a physic. About four weeks ago I heard of the wonderful results of the Mahan Mineral Water and commenced the use of it. Its result was soon apparent and I am much better than I have been for years. I would not be without it and advise others with similar troubles to try it. JEROME SMITH, barber, 605 Ohio St

I have made arrangements to peddle the water around the city, making delivery by wagon each morning. Customers supplied at 10cents a gallon, delivered. Call on or address by postal card JOHN RILEY, South Greencastle.
