

MORE THAN 400 ATTENDED FARM BUREAU BANQUET

ANNUAL EVENT OF PUTNAM COUNTY AGRICULTURISTS ORGANIZATION IS SUCCESSFUL TO THE EXTREME — PICTURE SHOW PLEASURES — WOMEN OF COUNTY GIVE "STUNT"—LOTS OF GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Basing their estimate on the number which attended the Putnam County farm bureau banquet last year—(there were 135 present)—those in charge of the event this year decided that the attendance this year would be something near 200.

Imagine their surprise, Tuesday evening, when a crowd of at least 450 assembled in the court house lobby, prepared to enjoy the splendid program which had been arranged. And imagine their discomfort when they realized that they had prepared banquet service for not more than 250.

But that did not disturb them to any extent for all those who could be seated at the tables, which had been arranged in the first floor lobby for the banqueters were served "cafeteria" style.

And, although, some were confronted by difficulties in securing their dinner, everyone finally was served and there was no one but had a good time and got plenty to eat. In fact the situation proved a rather enjoyable feature to the event.

While the crowd was awaiting arrangement of the banquet it was entertained in the assembly room by motion pictures and other features of entertainment. A Farm Bureau picture, followed by a comic film, "A Bogus Baron," greatly pleased the crowd.

This was followed by a feature given by the farm women of the county. Mrs. Ora Day, attired as a housewife, first appeared and told of the importance of the farm woman, the housewife. She called attention to their many duties and their importance to a well conducted farm. Mrs. Day in closing stated that the importance of the farm woman and her many duties would be demonstrated.

Then in rotation appeared: Mrs. John McCabe, representing the Housekeeper.

Mrs. Phillip Hutchison representing the cook.

Mrs. Galvin King, representing the Gardner.

Mrs. Charles Lobdell, representing the milkmaid.

Mrs. Everett O'Hair, representing the laundress.

Mrs. Gilbert Knetzer, representing the mother.

Mrs. George Frank, representing the business woman.

Mrs. Fred Hunter, representing the seamstress.

Mrs. Ray Clodfelter, representing the nurse.

Mrs. Oren Watts, representing the poultry woman.

Mrs. Thomas Talbott, representing the politician.

Each was dressed in a costume in keeping with her representation and each was clever in her part. As each appeared on the platform, Mrs. Walter Clift, either read or sang a description of her duties.

Community singing lead by Gilbert Knetzer of Fillmore, then occupied the interest of the crowd until the banquet was served.

Following the banquet the crowd went to the Court room, where the speaking program of the evening was carried out.

BOY IS KILLED WHILE HUNTING

ED GATES, AGED 12, OF SEELYVILLE, KILLED BY ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE OF HIS SHOT GUN—TWO BOYS WERE ON HUNTING TRIP—GATES SAT DOWN ON LOG WHILE COMPANION FOLLOWED THE DOG AND IT IS SUPPOSED THAT BOTH BARRELS WERE ACCIDENTALLY DISCHARGED

His body torn by the simultaneous discharge of both barrels of a shotgun with which he was hunting in fields near his home near Seelyville, Ed. Gates, 12 years old, was instantly killed at five o'clock last evening. Sitting within a few inches of the muzzle of the gun, the boy received the full load from each barrel, one in the pit of the stomach and the other in the hand. He lived a mile south of Seelyville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gates.

It is believed that the two triggers of the shotgun were released together when the Gates boy sat down on a log laying the gun in front of him and probably catching the triggers on a twig or some other projection. He had a companion in the hunting trip, Fred Kirkman a close friend who lives near the Gates farm.

The two boys left their homes early yesterday afternoon saying they were going rabbit hunting and went into fields and woods not far from the Gates home. Kirkman was following the dog which the two took with them and the Gates boy, who was behind in the hunt to catch up is believed to have stopped at log where his body was found, where he laid the gun down and then sat down in front of the muzzle. It is thought that the trigger was caught and pulled just as he seated himself upon the log.

The Kirkman boy hurried to the Gates home and summoned assistance.

Besides the parents the victim is survived by two brothers, Nelson and Clarence.

GLARE OF ICE ON ROADWAYS, AUTOS SLIDE

EARLY MORNING MOTORISTS AVOID SERIOUS DAMAGE WHEN CARS CUT "DI-DO'S" ON SLICK ROADS—MANY GO INTO DITCH

A glare of ice, the result of a light rain, Tuesday night which froze as it reached the ground, was the cause of many motorists slipping into ditches early Wednesday morning. A number of minor accidents occurred and many motorists had narrow escapes from serious accidents.

Clint Whittaker, of Cloverdale, who was going south of road 32, early Wednesday morning, went over a twenty foot embankment just south of the Milo west farm. Luckily his machine, a Ford, went straight down the embankment and did not turn over.

Frank Welch, a Greencastle painter, also had a narrow escape just across the road at the same point. His machine, also a Ford slid down the bank backwards, leaving his front wheels headed up the bank. Both men were assisted from their predicament by the W. A. Corns wrecking machine from Cloverdale.

A sedan was also reported in the ditch on Deer Creek Hill early Wednesday morning. The machine was not damaged and evidently no one was injured.

PAINT SMEARERS ARE KNOWN; ARE WABASH MEN

DETECTIVE EMPLOYED BY DEPAUW UNIVERSITY HAS COMPLETE KNOWLEDGE OF FACTS, INCLUDING LIST OF NAMES OF GUILTY COLLEGE STUDENTS—WHAT ACTION WILL BE TAKEN NOT ANNOUNCED

That all the facts regarding the defacing of DePauw University property on the night before the Wabash DePauw football game, when vandals smeared red paint on many of the college buildings and campus, including the names of the boys who participated in the acts of vandalism are known, was definitely announced here today.

Detective Guy Bollin, of Brazil, employed by University officials, to investigate the affair is responsible for the information which now is in the hands of the University officials.

Although the information has not been made public, it is said on good authority that twenty Wabash College students, are guilty of the vandalism.

Damage of unrepairable nature was done by the paint smearers. A large corps of workmen managed to remove much of the paint but much of the damage can never be repaired. It is said that the damage amounts to $2,000.

Reports from Wabash College following the affair were that immediate action expelling all those guilty of the outrage would be taken by Wabash College officials, should the guilty ones be found to be Wabash students. As far as is known here, no action of this kind has been taken by Wabash College officials as yet.

It is intimated that the guilty boys will be required to pay the damage done, but as yet no announcement has been made here as to what action will be taken by the University officials.

MAIL YOUR XMAS PRESENTS EARLY

POSTMASTER GENERAL NEW ASKS EVERYONE TO GET THEIR PRESENTS MAILED BY DECEMBER 20TH—THE DEAD LINE HAS BEEN REMOVED—POSTMASTER GENERAL ASSERTS THAT CHRISTMAS DELIVERY WILL BE SHORTENED TO ALLOW EVERY POSTAL EMPLOYEE TO EAT CHRISTMAS DINNER AT HOME

Last year, through the generous co-operation of the press, the movies and other advertising mediums, Christmas mailers were induced to dispatch their Yuletide presents earlier in the month than ever before in the history of the institution of gift exchanging in the holiday season.

As a result the spectacle of the last minute rush of former years with its attendant heartbreaking labor on the part of the weary and nerve worn store clerks and postal employees, was avoided.

This year Postmaster General New and First Assistant Postmaster General John H. Bartlett have determined to make an even better record and to banish for all time the suffering undergone in past years by those engaged in the sale or transportation of gifts. They hope to make "Shop Early" and "Mail Early" a habit with the American people.

Mailing early does not mean December 1 or before, but if everyone could get their holiday tokens in the mail between December 10 and December 20, the post office could not ask more.

Particular attention this year will be paid to greeting cards. Despite the success last year it was noted that the last-minute mail consisted largely of cards. Possibly many of them were returned greetings to friends heard from on a previous mail but overlooked on the original Christmas list. Unlike parcels and letter containing money orders, cards, of course can not well be marked "Do Not Open Until Christmas." Therefore, it is possible that the many mailers hold them until the last to insure delivery on Christmas Eve. This class of mailers this year, however, may find their cards undelivered until after Christmas day.

Believing that the energies of postal employees should not be sapped to the last degree for any avoidable reason and intent upon securing for the same Christmas privileges enjoyed by others, Postmaster General New asks the hearty co-operation of the public. The last-minute or zero hour has been moved up so that all postal employees may eat their Christmas dinners at home. Rural carriers will deliver no mail at all on Christmas day and clerks and carriers in the city offices will stop work promptly at noon.

The burning out of an electric light fuse in the breakfast room of the Dr. W. M. McGaughey residence on east Seminary street at near 5 o'clock, Wednesday morning, caused a fire which did quite a bit of damage. The curtains in the room caught fire from the burning fuse and the burning curtains falling on the floor, burned a large hole in the floor covering. Persons in the house heard the fuse blow out at near 5 o'clock but the fire damage was not discovered until a couple of hours later. The fire burned itself out before it was discovered.

TIGER NETMEN TRAINING FOR TEACHER TILT

FRIDAY NIGHT GAME WILL BE HARD BATTLE, IT IS BELIEVED—BIG SQUAD OF FRESHMEN REPORT FOR PRACTICE

With but three days to go before the speedy Teachers quintet appears from Danville to battle the representatives of the Old Gold on the court, Coaches Morrison and Gipson are whipping a formidable array of eagerness into shape for the curtain raiser of the DePauw net schedule.

Doubt as to the most effective performers for various positions is still troubling the Tiger mentor. Although a tentative line-up has been announced for the Danville battle it now seems that a shake-up in the entire line-up will be made before the opening whistle of the game.

A growing demand for tickets is reported at the Normal School, and it is probable that the Teachers will have a big delegation on hand to greet the appearance of the fighting teachers.

With several stiff battles looming up beyond the Normal game Coach Morrison will allow no let-up in the practice sessions. The Rhinie team will be molded into shape as quickly as possible to give the varsity some hard scrimmage.

The Hoosier A. C. is down for the second DePauw tilt of the year and this organization may be depended upon to furnish some real opposition for the Tigers.

Nearly seventy men answered the first call for Freshman basketball material at DePauw University last night. The number reporting being a record over the previous years of Rhinie basketball at the Old Gold institution.

The material promises to be up to standard and the probabilities are that Freshman Coach Gipson, who is in charge of the yearlings, will turn out a classy quintet of basket tossers. The first cut of the freshman squad will be made the last of the week, at which time the number will be cut to about half the size of the present tiday wave.

McCarthy, Marshall, Christie and Mertz appear to have the edge over most of the aspirants. Kern seems to be the best prospect for the back guard job.

GRAND JURY IS CALLED TO MEET HERE THURSDAY

SEVERAL MATTERS ARE TO BE TAKEN UP FOR INVESTIGATION DURING SESSION, IT IS SAID—NOTHING TO GIVE OUT NOW, SAYS PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

The Putnam County Grand Jury has been called to meet here Thursday, according to an announcement made Wednesday by prosecuting attorney, Glen Lyon. The prosecuting attorney has not divulged what matters are to be taken up by the grand jury, but it is intimated that the session will be an eventful one. Several matters are to be investigated, it is said.

A school truck, driven by Ulys Broadstreet, of Cloverdale, slipped on the slick roads and turned over on the Higgins hill, two and a half miles east of Cloverdale, early Wednesday morning. There were no school children in the truck at the time. Mr. Broadstreet escaped injury.

A SMALL CROWD WITNESSES BOY SCOUT EXHIBIT

HIGHLY INTERESTING DEMONSTRATION OF KNOT-TYING, ROPE-SPLICING AND SIGNAL MESSAGE SENDING ARE GIVEN BY LOCAL BOYS IN DEMONSTRATIONS IN CHARGE OF SCOUT MASTERS

Only a small crowd witnessed the exhibition of Scout activities given in the High School gymnasium Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock by the Greencastle organization of the Boy Scouts of America. The exhibition was immensely worth-while and should have been seen by a much larger number of people. The exhibition was in charge of Assistant Scout Master, Eugene Volz and Lawrence D. Coley.

Demonstrations of knot-tying was first given by the Boy Scouts. Rope slewing was also included in the knot-tying exhibition.

Two signal systems of sending messages were demonstrated by the Scouts. Messages written by the audience were sent by both the Wigway or Semaphore systems. The method of wigwagging the messages was most interesting to the audience.

The exhibition of signal sending was followed by a First-Aid demonstration. Emergency rolling and taping of bandages, as well as actual bandaging, was demonstrated by the Scouts. The Scouts were most proficient in the application of the bandages to the various parts of the body. The proper carrying and lifting of the injured was also included in the exhibition. The First-Aid work was in special charge of Assistant Scout-Master Laurence D. Coley.

A practical demonstration on a living model of the proper methods of checking hemorrhages was one of the most instructive parts of the exhibition.

A demonstration of artificial methods of resuscitation of the drowning concluded the demonstration of Scout activities. The Schaefer method of reviving the unconscious was used.

HIGH SCHOOL NET SQUAD IS REORGANIZED

INJURIES WILL KEEP TWO REGULAR MEMBERS OF LOCAL QUINTET OUT OF THE LINE-UP IN THE COLUMBUS GAME, FRIDAY NIGHT

Coach W. E. Bausman is drilling his High School proteges hard in preparation for the net tilt with the strong Columbus High School aggregation, to be played on the local floor Friday evening.

Injuries to two members of the squad has caused a change in the local line-up. The reorganized squad, according to Coach Bausman is a much faster five and works much more smoothly than the team used in previous games. In two practice contests with college fraternity teams the squad has shown up unusually well. The High School squad won both practice events by decisive scores.

The shifted lineup consists of Riggs and Willis Masten, forwards; Tate, center; Marion Crawley, running guard and Ader, back guard. Captain Masten, veteran of last years squad and frazier, regular forward are on the injured list. It is possible that Masten may get in the Friday game however. If he does Coach Bausman will use him at the running guard position. Hurst, who has been playing running guard has left school.

Coach Bausman has also announced that a preliminary game between the Brazil Junior High School net team and the Greencastle Junior High team, would be played Friday evening. The line up of the Greencastle Junior team is George Howard and Rex Moffett, forwards; Schmidt, center; and Chenoweth and Don Gasaway, guards. The preliminary will start at 7:45 o'clock.

Vandivier, of Martinsville, will referee the main contest.

IS YOUR WORK HARD?

Many Greencastle Folks Have Found How to Make Work Easier.

What is so hard as a day's work with an aching back?
Or sharp stabs of pain at every sudden twist or turn?
There is no peace from that dull ache.

No rest from the soreness, lameness and weakness.
Many folks have found relief through Doan's Pills. They are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Greencastle people recommend Doan's.
Mrs. Arvel Roach, 121 W. Jacob St., Greencastle, says: "My kidneys distressed me for quite a long time, as they acted too often. I had dull, nagging backaches most all of the time and when I did my housework, I tired easily. My back gave out and I often had to stop and rest. Nervous, dizzy headaches made me miserable. Doan's Pills which I purchased at Mullins' Drug Store helped me right away. The backaches left and I could do my work without suffering."

LOCAL NEWS

The case of the State of Indiana against Harve Gorham, charged with bootlegging, was heard today before a jury in the Putnam Circuit court.

attorney gave evidence to prove that the officers were wrong in their identification of Gorham. Miller who also was arrested, testified that it was not Gorham who was with him in the automobile.

Cheering Up Father

She—You must ask father's consent. He—But is that necessary? You have promised to marry me. "I'll marry you all right, but, George, dear, you must go to father. It pleases him once in a while to know that we still consider him one of the family."

A Reform Method

Aunt Elisa—Have you heard of the new theory for reforming humanity? Uncle Josh—No, what's it like? Aunt Elisa—All mothers are to exchange children on the grounds that each mother knows to perfection how the other's children should be brought up.

The Bitter Truth

She (pouting)—You don't tell me you love me half as much as you did before we married. He—Well, if I did tell you I loved you half as much you wouldn't be pleased.

Not Very Select

Young Robinson (who has a very good opinion of himself and has just been introduced)—I think I have met your uncle, Mr. Brown, at dog shows. Miss Brown—Oh, yes, uncle will go to those dog shows, and meet the most appalling people.

Substitute

Guide—In this room the earl was murdered! Visitor—But you told us that in quite a different room last year. Guide—Yes, but that one is being repaired now!

All Her Fault

Sympathetic Person—Hello! What is the matter, little boy? Are you lost? Little Boy—Yes, I am. I mighta known better'n to come out with grandma. She's always losin' sumthin.—Tit-Bits.

JOLLY JACK FROST

"Of course," said Jack Frost, "lots of people do not like me.

"They do not like to see the flowers disappear and the winter come.

"But I know that winter wants to be given a chance too, and that the cold days that like to come about when the autumn and late fall is here want to have a chance.

"So I help them in my jolly way." "It is true you're a jolly little fellow with your brisk ways," said the Fairy Queen. "But it is sad to see you make the flowers droop."

"I kiss them," said Jack Frost. "I say to them: "Dear flowers, how pretty you are. But you must go to bed. It is past bed time."

"Ah, but what a cold kiss you give them," said the Fairy Queen. "True, but such is my way," Jack Frost answered.

Then he went and called Master Chilly and all of the others of his family, all of the Frost Brothers and the Artists and the Workers.

They rushed forth when he called them, and they said: "Yes, we will help you, Jack. You know we will help you."

The artists went to the windows and painted their wonderful pictures with their frost paints.

Others went to the flowers and gave them their cold, chilly kisses so that the flowers quickly drooped their pretty heads and said:

"Good-night, or, good winter, for we must be really going to sleep now. "Jack Frost will not let us stay up any longer."

There were a few who were able to stand the cold kisses, but another time they, too, would go to bed.

They had succeeded in staying up just a little longer. Ah, such a night as Jack Frost and his workers had!

As they worked they sang, too. And this was the song they sang which every one of them joined in singing:

We're chilly and frosty but full of fun, Our fun we've only just begun. We'll come again and again and work, Our frosty duties we will not shirk. We'll laugh and we'll sing, Cold weather we'll bring. We'll work with a will in this nice air so still. We're chilly and frosty but full of fun, Our fun we've only just begun.

We're chilly and frosty but full of zeal As every flower in the garden we feel. And as we feel them they feel us too. And what we tell them they will do. We tell them to go to bed right away And that they must not any later stay. We go to the windows and make pictures fine. And people know it's the Jack Frost sign.

We're chilly and frosty but full of zeal As every flower in the garden we feel.

We're chilly and frosty but full of zest. To nip the flowers we do our best. We do not think it is unkind, They don't really, really mind, For sooner or later to bed they must go.

And we hurry them up so they won't be slow. We wish them good-night and we wish them well. And these wishes with our cold whispers we tell. We're chilly and frosty but full of zest To nip the flowers we do our best.

And then they all sang the first verse over again:

We're chilly and frosty but full of fun, Our fun we've only just begun. We'll come again and again and work, Our frosty duties we will not shirk. We'll laugh and we'll sing, Cold weather we'll bring. We'll work with a will in this nice air so still. We're chilly and frosty but full of fun, Our work we've only just begun!
