We hope and desire that our correspondents over the county will send in their letters regularly, that the world may learn what is going on in the various neighborhoods.

We are under obligations to T. G. Bowman, Esq., of St. Louis, for a handsome Album of "Photographic Views of the Great Cyclone at St. Louis, on May 27, 1896," for which we are under obligations and return thanks.

A test of the effectiveness of the fire department was made, on Tuesday night, for the benefit of the City Dads. The alarm was sent in from the box on the corner of Indiana and Hanna streets at 8:20 o'clock, and eighty seconds later the department was at the hydrant ready to begin business; the distance from the department headquarters to box 31 is nearly a half mile, hence the record made is particularly swift.

"The History of Church Music" is the title of the entertaining and instructive paper read by Mrs. John before the Womans League of College Ave. Church, last Wednesday afternoon.

In regard to the case against Will F. Wood, the Cincinnati Post says: "Will Wood's attorneys announce that he is ready to surrender to the United States authorities on the charge of sending improper matter through the mails without the formality of arrest. They say Wood will come at any time he is wanted. He is now on a farm near Greencastle, Ind. The feeling is bitter against him there on account of his connection with the Pearl Bryan case. He can be tried either in Cincinnati or Indianapolis, but, as the letter was found in Cincinnati, he will probably be prosecuted here."

Two slick citizens who represent themselves as being physicians in the employ of the state board of health, are working a smooth and daring swindle in neighboring cities, is the statement of an exchange. Their victims are women. They go up to the house when the men are away and tell the female members of the household that the state board of health has recently issued an order requiring all persons to be examined for defective eyesight. They claim that they have been retained to fit the glasses and have thus been enabled to sell many pair of cheap spectacles at fancy prices to persons possessed of perfect optics. The state health officials have been notified of the matter.

It is just the season of the year to make public and treasure the fact that you can build up your town, 1st, by trading with home people; 2d, by encouraging public improvements; 3d, by the economic use of public money; 4th, by advertising liberally; 5th, by keeping up to date, complete stock of goods to correspond with your advertising; 6th, by providing good schools and churches; 7th, by avoiding cliques and rings and all exclusive kinds of business; 8th, by bidding a warm welcome to all strangers who seek a home in your midst; 9th, by standing together as brothers in business and socially; 10th, by making a heroic effort to pay your debts; 11th, by not talking all the time about hard times; 12th, by not requiring business men to sell goods below cost or artisans to toil without a profit.

A very delightful reception was given in the Delta Tau Chapter Rooms, Monday night, in honor of Miss Edith Cooper, of Chicago, who was here visiting her brother.

James Houck, P. O. Collier, D. E. Williamson, W. G. Neff, Richard Bunten, Jackson Boyd and John Maloney attended the Democratic State Convention at Indianapolis.

There are thousands of people who carry with them in their joints, barometers of almost infallible accuracy. The feet and ankles of a rheumatic patient will give him notice of a coming change of weather 24 hours before the barometer furnishes any signs of its approach.

The Greencastle Fishing Club held a special meeting, last Saturday, as a board of inquiry, to examine into charges preferred against the Manager, to-wit: that he had talked politics and endeavored to precipitate a political argument at the last previous outing of the Club. The charge was proven, and it was decided that he be required to furnish all the bottled bread and liquid bait required by the Club during the remainder of the season of 1896. He would have been expelled from the club had he not put in a plea of mitigating circumstances; said circumstances were that the President of the Club had insinuated that the defendant's political bias led him to furnish nothing but silver beetles for bait, when he had full knowledge of the fact that gold bug bugs were best for the purpose, more especially as their use diminished them in number, to the relief and edification of all the people.

Wilson-Henton.

On Wednesday morning, at the residence of the bride's parents, in this city, Miss Ora Henton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Henton, was married to Mr. J. E. Wilson, Dr. H. A. Gobin, President of DePauw University, pronouncing the ceremony before a large number of relatives and friends who were invited to witness the marriage. The bridal couple entered the parlor just as the closing notes of "I Love Thee," sang by Miss Stella Grubb, with Miss Myrtle Grubb, at the piano, were heard, and the marriage service immediately followed. The bride appeared beautiful in a frock of sheer white organdy, carrying a single rose, and the groom was attired in the usual dress suit. The parlors, etc., were tastefully garnished with roses, lilies, daises, ferns and potted plants arranged with artistic skill. After the bride and groom had received the congratulations of those present, dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left, via the noon train on the Monon, for their future home at St. Edwards, Neb., where the groom is a successful lawyer, whither they are accompanied by the good wishes of a host of friends.

The Annual Conference of the Indiana Epworth League is in progress at Anderson. Among those on the program are Dr. Ridpath and Dr. Poucher, of this city.

The Lafayette Times says: Rev. Hilary A. Gobin, D. D., is the new president of DePauw University. The right man in the right place. Dr. Gobin has been for several years the professor of Greek at DePauw, and has earned his promotion. He is a fine scholar and an accomplished gentleman, and occupies a front rank in the Methodist Church. He should be a bishop. And, by the way, this reminds me that two of the former presidents of DePauw, formerly Asbury, and the name should never have been changed—were afterwards bishops, viz.—Bishop Simpson and Bishop Bowman. May Dr. Gobin follow in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessors—and become a bishop.

The 11th annual meeting of the Western Association of Writers will convene at Winona Lake Spring, Fountain Park, Warsaw, Ind., June 29 and 30 and July 1, 2 and 3. These pleasant literary and social gatherings are looked forward to with interest by the members of the association, and nearly all have become perfectly acquainted during the various conventions. The program are graced with the name of some of the best known writers of the west, such as Dr. John Clark Ridpath, W. H. Venable, W. W. Pfommer, James Newton Matthews, Eugene Ware, Benjamin S. Parker, Josephine Brooks, Minetta Taylor, Mary Hartwell Catherwood, John James Piatt, Miss Evalene Stein, David Starr Jordan, Herman Rave, J. J. Soule Smith and Coates Kinney.

Rev. I. W. Joyce, Bishop of the M. E. Church, formerly pastor of College Ave. Church, this city, received the most acceptable assignment for future duty at the recent quadrennial Methodist conference, which is nothing more nor less than the largest bishop itinerary ever accorded to an official of the Methodist church. Two years will be consumed in making a circle around the earth, organizing new mission conferences and incidentally penetrating into the regions never before trod by an officer of Methodism with bishopric distinction. He sailed from Vancouver on the Empress of Japan on June 20. Bishop Joyce expects to arrive in Japan the middle of July; after a short stay there will leave for Corea. After holding the Methodist conference of that section he will proceed to North China and preside over the conference of North China missionaries. In the fall he will start on a houseboat journey of 1,000 miles up the Yang Tse River. The boat will be hauled by natives on the towpath. Above the falls he will be carried in a chair on the backs of the natives. In the spring of 1897 he will return to Japan. In November, 1897, he will proceed to India, Egypt, Palestine, Alexander, Naples, Rome, Paris, London, Liverpool and then home.

J. P. Allee made a business trip to Clayton, on Monday.

Isaac Hammond's handsome new residence is under roof.

Mrs. James B. Nelson is visiting her mother, at Greencastle.

Dr. H. A. Gobin preached a strong Missionary sermon, at College Ave. Church, last Sunday morning.

Mr. A. R. McMurtry, of Marshall, was here the first of the week visiting his daughter, Mrs. George Hathaway.

Hon. F. D. Ader and M. D. Bridges went to Indianapolis, Monday afternoon, so as to be on hand for the State Convention's early work.

Mrs. Jackson has been at Covington, Ky., this week, visiting her son, Scott Jackson—she had a long interview with her condemned son on Saturday.

A. O. Lockridge and wife gave a reception in honor of Hon. J. A. Mount, Saturday night, at their residence on East Washington street, all the leading Republicans of the county being invited to attend. The guests spent most of the time on the lawn, listening to songs by the McKinley Glee Club and in social conversation.

On Saturday evening Miss Flora Mathias entertained a number of her young lady and gentleman friends in a charming manner, at the home of her parents, on East Seminary street, and the guests report a most enjoyable time. There was music, and social chat, and delicious refreshments, and all else necessary to the pleasure of the occasion.

A peculiar incident is reported by one of our physicians and surgeons. About a year ago one of Greencastle's young ladies lost a needle one evening; she had stuck it in her belt when she finished sewing, and many hours afterwards she missed it. Several months after that same needle was found protruding from a young man's arm, above the elbow joint. The question is how it got out of the belt and into his arm.

The Cincinnati Post says: It is reported that Will Wood may be indicted for sending improper letters through the mails, now that Jackson and Walling have both been convicted. Whatever steps are being taken by the Indiana or Federal authorities toward an indictment of the Greencastle minister's son, the Kentucky officials promise to throw no obstructions in the way. The letters which would be necessary in the prosecution of Will Wood are now in the custody of the Campbell county circuit court. Commonwealth's Attorney Lockhart says: "If these letters introduced in the Jackson case are needed in an action brought against Wood there will be no objection I am sure, to their being withdrawn from the court here. Exact certified copies could be left."

The Terre Haute Gazette says: John Clark Ridpath, the historian, whose home is at Greencastle, is mentioned by the Democratic papers of Putnam and Hendricks counties as a probable Democratic candidate for Congress from this district. Prof. Ridpath has not been active in politics at any time in his career and little has been known of his political views. But he is well and widely known all over the United States as a historian and as a writer. Any list of a dozen most distinguished Indians would of necessity include his name. This district was made by the last legislature with the express purpose of having it represented by a Republican. Prof. Ridpath would unquestionably receive the votes of many men who would be glad to have the district represented by a man of national reputation.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The Cincinnati Enquirer of Tuesday says: Scott Jackson was the recipient yesterday of an elegant present from a Mrs. Hughes, of Cincinnati. The package contained a variety of choice fruits, six white shirts, with collars and cuffs, one half dozen hose, one half dozen handkerchiefs, silver-backed hair brush and comb, gold pen, box of writing paper and other trinkets calculated to make his few days on earth pleasant.

It's silver, silver, silver
On every ringing side
On every hand throughout the land
Swift sweeps the silver tide
There's a jingle in the cities
And a jingle on the plains,
And all the skies of springtime
Pour down their silver rains!

The Tariff Plank.

It has been well remarked that no good cause depends for success upon lies. To this it may be added every cause which depends on lies for success is bad.

This will serve to introduce fittingly some comments upon the prolonged St. Louis tariff plank and the tariff harangue of Temporary Chairman Fairbanks, which are tissues of express or implied falsehoods.

The platform says that a protective tariff "taxes foreign products"—"puts the burden of revenue on foreign goods." These are merely alternate forms of expression for the old lie often uttered by the latest republican president of the United States and the man who expects to be his successor that "the foreigner pays the tax."

The tax is on foreign products, but it is the American who buys the products for consumption that pays the tax. And the curse of it is that the American pays the tax also on the like home product and this part of the tax goes down into the strong box of protected American producer and not into the treasury of the United States to be used for public purposes. The protectionist dares not let this truth be known. In order to the accomplishment of his object he must lie about it.

The platform asserts that protection "secures the American market for American producers," but lyingly seeks to hide the fact that it accomplishes this at the expense of American consumers.

The platform declares that protection is "just, fair and impartial, equally opposed to foreign control and domestic monopoly, to sectional discrimination and individual favoritism." This is false throughout. The very essence of the system is injustice, unfairness and partiality. It necessarily creates domestic monopoly, discriminates between sections and favors individuals just so far as it succeeds in accomplishing its purpose.

The carpenters who built the platform inadvertently admit as much when they say that protection "bonds the strength of all on the strength of each." If this means anything it means that protection takes strength from those industries that are able to stand and go forward in their own strength and bestow this strength unrighteously wrenched from the strong upon those who are crafty and deceitful enough to make congress believe they are weak.

The special sugar plank illustrates this. Translated from the general into concrete it proposes to tax Americans, $80,000,000 a year or more for the benefit of cane and sorghum and beet growers who try to make congress and the people believe they are unable to make their own living unless congress gives them power to tax the rest of us. This is the true inwardness of every protective tax.

The tariff plank contains many lies, but none is more palpable and contemptible than that which Temporary Chairman Fairbanks borrowed from the stump speeches of 1894 and those in congress since then that it was the democratic tariff which reduced revenues below expenditures. The treasury books shows that the expenditures more than devoured the receipts before Harrison left office and that there was a deficit of more than $60,000,000 during the last year of the McKinley law.

A cause which has to depend upon such barefaced and gigantic lies as those which the republican platform and all its supporters tell about the revenues and the expenditures must be rotten beyond expression.

"We are not pledged to any schedule," say the tariff liars. But they are pledged to McKinley, who stands for the plan of handing every tariff robber and monopolist a blank sheet of paper and tell him to write in all he wants. We all understand that "particular schedule" lie.

WHALE ON A CABLE.

The Insulation Damaged by the Floundering of the Big Fish.

Submarine cables are usually imbedded in the slimy bottom of the ocean, but at certain points they hang like wire bridges over deep submarine valleys, so that whales and other large inhabitants of the deep may become dangerous to the cable. Once in awhile it is the cable that becomes dangerous to the whales, as recently shown in an accident to the western Brazilian cable. There was some trouble with the wire, and after many futile efforts the seat of the trouble was discovered 76 miles north of Santa Catharina. The repair ship Viking was sent to repair the damage, and began to take up the cable near where the seat of trouble had been located. After the cable proper had been grappled and was taken up on the large drums provided for the purpose it was found that it floated very much easier and was more buoyant than was ordinarily the case. The reason was discovered when in a loop of the cable the carcass of a whale of more than 60 feet in length came up with it. It appears that the whale had become caught under the cable, and, not being able to lift it nor to go forward or back, it suffocated, since it could no more rise to the surface. By its last spasms or attempts to free itself the whale had damaged the cable so that the insulation was rubbed off and the wire became useless. This is the third case of the kind, since a similar case once happened in the Persian gulf and another on the Peruvian coast.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is good for the complexion because it makes the whole body healthy—because it clears and purifies the blood, makes the digestion strong and clears out impurities of all kinds. By increasing the ability to assimilate nutritious food, and by the infusion of its own ingredients, it enriches the blood and so makes skin healthy. It fills out the hollows, rubs out wrinkles and substitutes for sallowness a rosy, healthy glow. There is no mystery about it. It isn't a miracle. It is merely the result of a combination of rational, natural common sense with expert medical knowledge. It cures diseases of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, skin and scalp simply because all these diseases spring from the same cause—a disordered digestion and consequent impure blood. Don't let prejudice and scepticism cheat you out of your health. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will positively cure you, if suffering from diseases named above.

It cures diseases of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, skin and scalp simply because all these diseases spring from the same cause—a disordered digestion and consequent impure blood. Don't let prejudice and scepticism cheat you out of your health. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will positively cure you, if suffering from diseases named above.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is good for the complexion because it makes the whole body healthy—because it clears and purifies the blood, makes the digestion strong and clears out impurities of all kinds. By increasing the ability to assimilate nutritious food, and by the infusion of its own ingredients, it enriches the blood and so makes skin healthy. It fills out the hollows, rubs out wrinkles and substitutes for sallowness a rosy, healthy glow. There is no mystery about it. It isn't a miracle. INDIANAPOLIS, June 25.—The Democratic state convention finished its labors at exactly 9 o'clock last night. It was 8 o'clock when the call for nominations were made, so that the expedite manner in which this part of the work was handled is attested in the small number of hours occupied.

The contest for governor offered the only chance for a test vote on the strength of the silver element and the weakness of the gold standard men, but this vote was not announced. Mr. George W. Cooper, who had stood as representative of the latter element, moving to make the selection unanimous before the totals had been reached, acknowledging that it was more than 16 to 1 against him.

The most exciting incident of the day was a dispute between Chairman Bell and William D. Bynum as to the latter's right to debate the report of the committee on resolutions when a call for the previous question had been made. Mr. Bynum vigorously and forcefully asserted his right to be heard under the rules, and the howls of derision and the disposition of the chairman to rule him out of order created a pandemonium of hisses, howls and cheers, the expressions being divided between the respective elements. Mr. Bynum's final triumph through the vote of the convention, which granted him five minutes, was the climax of a dramatic scene, and he was greeted with cheers when he took the stage. His advocacy of the national financial plank of 1892 was shouted down with derision, however, notwithstanding the respectful hearing given him.

Another picture of enthusiasm was manifest when the committee's hearty recommendation of the candidacy of Governor Matthews for president was read. This was the signal for a demonstration which lasted several minutes and brought most of the delegates and spectators to their feet.

DETAILED PROCEEDINGS.

Report Showing the Manner in Which Business Was Transacted.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 25.—The weather man failed to do a satisfactory job when he furnished convention conditions laden with a dense sort of humidity, producing an uncomfortable and tired feeling exceeding that incident to the first hot days of spring. At the moment the doors were thrown open there were perhaps 100 people in the hall, including sergeants, ushers, newspaper men and a few favored guests who had been admitted early by the rear door. While the band, located at the rear of the hall in the top gallery, played a lively air the crowd came in with a rush. The front rows of the balcony were filled quicker than it takes to tell it, spectators coming down the aisles on a run and preempting what by each was deemed the most available position from which to see and hear what was to constitute the work of the convention. There was an unusual promptness in the movement of a good part of the delegations, the Fifth, Eleventh and Second district chairs first showing up with a good proportion of their representation. It was a noticeable fact that the agricultural element of the meeting would be most prompt in readiness for the proceedings. They had been standing about the streets for three or four hours, anxious to get at and finish the work which they were here to accomplish. They manifested some impatience that there were laggards in the crowd, who came in late, disturbed those already seated and seemed disposed to think that the convention had all week in which to perform its work. The First, Fifth and Ninth districts had choicest positions, being ranged across the hall directly in front of the press tables, the latter being just to the front of the stage. The Seventh district, which formed a point of interest on account of the belligerency of the Marion county delegates, caused by results in the primaries and whose seats were contested successfully by the free silver people, were in the far off corner to the southwest of the hall, where they might hold a little convention of their own without disturbing those more fortunately located. The seats on the first floor filled rapidly, the heat was intensified by the presence of the masses and fans were in liberal demand. From the beginning there was a liberal doling of coats, the idea of increased comfort thereby gaining converts steadily. Just before the call to order an enterprising photographer took a snap picture of the scene and will reap a harvest of dollars if his work proves satisfactory.

The feature of the delegations was the presence of Mrs. A. D. Leach of Sullivan county as a delegate. She is the only woman who has ever served in a like capacity in this state, and was consequently an object of considerable interest. Mrs. Leach was the first woman ever admitted to practice in the courts of Indiana. She is one of the "original silver men."

Chairman Holt of the state central committee appeared at the front of the stage at five minutes past the time announced for the beginning of business, but it was 10 minutes later when he requested that "delegates be seated as soon as possible."

At 10:30 Rev. Mr. Carstensen of St. Paul's Episcopal church invoked the divine blessing on the convention. He prayed for divine presence and asked for guidance with God's most gracious favor. He asked for help to make principle the only policy of the party, and prayed for blessings upon the president, governor and all others in authority.

John Johnson, Jr., of the Bedford Democrat, who had been chosen one of the secretaries, called the roll of counties upon direction of the chairman, each county making proper response, Marion county responding "Here" with a dozen voices and creating the first ripple of amusement.

Organization Report.
The report of the committee on organization was presented by W. J. Hilligoss of Delaware county. It recommended R. C. Bell of Fort Wayne for permanent chairman and Lincoln Dixon of Mount Vernon for permanent secretary. The assistant secretaries appointed at the district meetings were indorsed. The committee recommended:

For electors-at-large—
Jason Brown, Seymour
John B. Stoll, South Bend.
Contingent electors-at-large—
David S. Gooding, Greenfield.
C. E. Howard, Logansport.

Delegates-at-large to the national convention—
Daniel W. Voorhees, Terre Haute.
David Turpie, Indianapolis.
James B. McCabe, Williamsport.
G. V. Menzies, Mount Vernon.

Alternates-at-large—
John E. Lamb, Terre Haute.

District delegates to the national convention are as follows:
First—J. R. Goodwin of Evansville and W. B. McCormick of Newburg.
Second—John H. O'Neill of Daviess and W. A. Cullop of Knox.
Third—Albert P. Fenn of Perry and George H. Volght of Clarke.
Fourth—John H. Overmeyer of Jennings and Joel H. Matlock of Jackson.
Fifth—Sam McGregor of Clay and Eb Henderson of Morgan.
Sixth—U. S. Jackson of Hancock and A. H. Andre of Fayette.
Seventh—William E. English and Charles M. Cooper of Marion.
Eighth—W. A. Humphreys of Jay and Ralph Gregory of Delaware.
Ninth—David Sims of Fountain and Eli Marvin of Clinton.
Tenth—James E. Murdock of Tippecanoe and J. M. Lautman of Lake.
Eleventh—Joel E. Cook of Huntington and John T. Strange of Grant.
Twelfth—Henry Colerick of Allen and James Washburn of Whitley.
Thirteenth—John B. Stoll of St. Joseph and Preston Miles of Kosciusko.

J. C. Branyan of Huntington created a degree of excitement by moving to substitute the name of Gilbert Shanklin for that of G. V. Menzies of Mount Vernon as a delegate-at-large to the national convention. W. D. Bynum of Marion moved to lay on the table, but this was howled down by a loud majority. A demand for a call of the counties was made, but before it could be proceeded with Mr. Shanklin gained the floor and said he came in no spirit of self-seeking, though he had had the honor to be considered by some of his friends for delegate-at-large. Understanding, however, that the preference of the distinguished governor of Indiana was for Major Menzies, and in view of the latter's pledge to faithfully observe instructions, asked his friends to support the choice of Governor Matthews. There were shouts of "No" when Mr. Shanklin begged leave to withdraw and the call of the roll was ordered to proceed. Indications were favorable to the adoption of the motion to substitute Shanklin for Menzies, when Chairman Holt was prevailed upon to stop the roll-call as being out of order after the withdrawal of Mr. Shanklin and to put the motion on the adoption of the report of the committee on permanent organization, which was decided carried.

Mr. Bell's introductory remarks as permanent chairman were in a humorous vein. He complimented the size and enthusiasm of the meeting and stated that he was glad to see them full of fight, as the fighting would only result in making more Democrats. "You are making history here today for state and nation. Let it not be poorly made. No inflated boss sits at the end of a wire and tells your candidates when they shall speak. This plan seems to have prevailed in the cyclone city, but we are going to give that party a greater cyclone in November. No better Democrats or sterling patriots are to be found than in the Hoosier state. Aside from the eternal justice of your cause you have much to invigorate you." The speaker reviewed briefly the history of dead statesmen, referring in laudatory terms to Hendricks, Williams, McDonald and Gray. Of the living he paid tribute to Voorhees, Turpie and Matthews, mention of each name producing applause of a generous character. He said that to nominate Claude Matthews for president meant certain victory in November. Mr. Bell said it was the duty of the party to support a financial policy providing for silver and gold upon a ratio of 16 to 1.

The committee on credentials reported on the Indianapolis contests in favor of the silver men in most instances and by resolution attached to the report ordered that the Seventh district delegates be required to retire and make selection of delegates to Chicago, members of committees, etc., in lieu of those reported from the two district meetings held on the night before. The report was adopted under application of the previous question, Mr. Kern having merely filed a minority report without reading. While the Marion county folks were preparing to withdraw, the ousted delegates under vigorous protest, the chairman lost control of the convention, everybody being on the tip-toe of expectancy for some dramatic incident. The gold element from the Seventh tried to work in a report recognizing their selections for various places, but it was promptly ruled out of order by Chairman Bell. Then, after a recess, the regular delegates as seated returned with a report showing the selection of William E. English and Charles M. Cooper as delegates to the Chicago convention, the latter instead of John P. Frenzel, Leon O. Bailey for resolutions committee instead of W. D. Bynum and Maurice Donnelly for elector.

THE PLATFORM.
Adoption of Resolutions as They Came From the Committee.
The report of the committee on resolutions was read as follows by Judge McNutt of Terre Haute and was adopted: Resolved, That we reaffirm our adherence to and faith in the Democratic doctrine of bimetallism, and therefore we demand the immediate restoration of bimetallism by the free and unrestricted coinage of both silver and gold, as primary money, at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting the co-operation of Great Britain or any other foreign power, all such coinage to be full legal tender in the payment of all debts, public and private.

TARIFF—Resolved, That we believe the existing tariff laws will be fully equal to all demands for needed revenue for the expenses of government economically administered under the conditions which will rise from the restoration of bimetallism.

GREENBACKS—We are opposed to the redemption and final cancellation of United States notes (greenbacks), or any other notes or certificates issued by the United States to circulate as money, such redemption and cancellation necessarily involving an increase of the public debt by the issue of bonds and the reduction of the currency.

We demand a sufficient, stable volume of money—gold, silver and paper—to meet the requirements of our ever-growing population and the constant increase of our productive industries.

BOND ISSUES—We protest against the increase of the public debt by the issue of interest-bearing bonds, or otherwise, in a time of peace, and if the redemption clause of the so-called Sherman redemption act of 1875 authorizes, as is claimed, the right of the treasury department to issue interest-bearing bonds without limit, without the express and definite authority of congress as to each issue of such bonds, we demand that that provision of said act be unconditionally repealed. The Democratic party is never believed that a public debt is a public blessing.

We demand that obligations of the government, of every form, be paid and redeemed, in conformity with the laws under which they were issued, in coin, gold and silver, at the option of the government of the United States, and not at the option of the creditor.

LABOR LEGISLATION—Resolved, That we have heretofore favored and enforced much legislation in our state friendly to labor; we continue to support, and shall maintain a policy favorable to organized labor, with all its rightful orders and ordinances, and we especially commend the action of the United States senate, during its last session, in passing an act providing for trial by jury in the federal courts in cases of alleged contempt.

That we demand such legislation by the general assembly of the state as shall provide for a just and equitable method of arbitration of all disputes and controversies arising between employers and employees.

PENSIONS—To the gallant survivors of the army of the Union, to the widows and children of those deceased, we tender our steadfast regard and gratitude. We favor the prompt adjustment, the punctual and regular payment of all pensions as the same accrue. We believe that the pension is a vested right. We heartily indorse the rule of Commissioner Murphy that no name shall be arbitrarily dropped from the rolls, and the fact of enlistment and service should be deemed conclusive evidence against prior discharge or disability.

CUBA—That we do most earnestly sympathize with the people of the island of Cuba in their gallant struggle against the Spanish monarchy for freedom and independence. We believe that public war exists in Cuba, and that the parties thereto ought to be accorded all the rights of belligerents.

ELECTION OF SENATORS—We are in favor of the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people of the several states.

The Democratic party is the faithful and consistent adherent of that great principle of popular government known as personal liberty of the citizen and opposes intolerance of whatever character, and especially opposes any attempt to control the habits of the people where such habits are consistent with the public order and general welfare.

GOOD ROADS—The comfort and convenience of all the inhabitants of the state require good roads. We are, therefore, in favor of such legislation as will serve to stimulate the enterprise of the people to the end that such roads may be constructed.

We are opposed to all subsidies or land grants to private corporations, believing that the remainder of the public domain ought to be subject to entry by actual settlers only.

SENATORS INDORSED—Resolved, That this convention fully and cordially indorses the course and action of Senators Voorhees and Turpie in the senate of the United States as having been at all times true and loyal to the interests of our state and country, and as having been distinguished by signal ability and success in the discharge of the duties of their high position, and we tender Daniel W. Voorhees, that faithful and long-tried friend of the people, our sincere sympathies in the severe illness he has suffered, with our heartfelt wishes for his early and complete recovery.

MATTHEWS FOR PRESIDENT—Resolved, That we indorse the administration of Hon. Claude Matthews, governor of Indiana, as having been wise, prudent and patriotic, and that his practical ability, his executive genius and capacity for public affairs, as well as his high personal integrity and character and his popularity with the people all show him to be well worthy of higher honors.

We therefore earnestly commend him, in full confidence of success at the election, to the Democracy of the United States as a candidate for the presidency. And the delegates from Indiana to the national convention are hereby instructed to cast their votes in his favor for president, first, last and all the time, and to use all honorable efforts to secure his nomination.

The 30 delegates selected to represent the Democracy of Indiana in the Chicago national convention are instructed to vote as a unit upon all questions involving platform or candidates in that convention.

Senator Turpie was introduced amid cheers and delivered a silver address of a few minutes length. Subsequent to this occurred the most stirring scene of the session up to this time, when W. D. Bynum sought recognition, for the purpose of insisting upon the right to debate the resolutions and was ruled out of order. Bynum was vigorously hissed by a large proportion of the delegates when he refused to take his seat upon demand of the chairman, and an hour was wasted in a futile attempt to settle the question of recognition, it having to be finally determined by a vote of the counties on roll-call, John E. Lamb having moved that Mr. Bynum be allowed five minutes in which to address the convention. The vote resulted 1,281 eyes to 511 nays, Marion county having cast 185 in favor of the hearing. The gentleman took the stage amid cheers.

He proposed an amendment to the platform covering the exact language of the plank of the national convention of 1892 and wanted to know if this was Democracy four years ago why should backs be turned upon that resolution now. [A voice "We've turned our backs on you."] He closed by saying that under no circumstances would he turn his back upon the administration he helped to elect.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS.

Proceedings of the State Convention in Peoria.

John P. Altgeld Renominated for Governor—The Platform Declares for Free Silver—National Delegates Chosen.

Peoria, Ill., June 24.—Bitter denunciation of the gold-standard element of the east, flings innumerable at President Cleveland and fervent declarations that the time had arrived when the west was prepared to combine against the plutocracy of that section of the country, were the most noticeable features of the largest and most enthusiastic convention in the history of the state democracy of Illinois. The stronger the language, moreover, the greater was the approbation of the speaker, and the more the present national administration by Temporary Chairman Bell and Gov. Altgeld brought the vast audience to its feet with cheers that shook the frame foundations of the shell-like tabernacle. After the convention had adjourned at 7:30 it was stated that some of the principal speakers of the day would be retained by the state committee to take the national stump during the coming campaign.

The Ticket.
Following is the state ticket nominated: Governor—John P. Altgeld.
Lieutenant Governor—Monroe C. Crawford.
Secretary of State—Finis C. Downing.
Auditor of State—W. F. Beck.
State Treasurer—Edward C. Pace.
Attorney General—George A. Trude.

Mr. Downing, the nominee for secretary of state, is the gentleman who, in the closing days of congress, was unseated in favor of Gen. Rinkler in the contest over the seat in the house for the Seventeenth congressional district.

Presidential Electors.
The electors at large chosen by the convention are: Thomas Cary and F. M. Youngblood. The district presidential electors: First district, M. J. Ryan; Second, Lawrence M. Ennis; Third, George P. Foster; Fourth, Thomas A. Smith; Fifth, M. M. O'Connor; Sixth, Martin Becker; Seventh, C. C. Breyer; Eighth, Thomas M. Cronin; Ninth, M. H. Cleary; Tenth, E. W. Hurs; Eleventh, William W. Gray; Fourteenth, Thomas H. Neban; Fifteenth, Byron Pontius; Sixteenth, H. T. Rainey; Seventeenth, T. W. McNeely; Eighteenth, W. H. Dowdy; Nineteenth, George Leclone; Twentieth, T. B. Stelle; Twenty-first, Edward A. Bond; Twenty-second, Joseph B. Gill.

The delegates.
The following were selected as delegates at large to the Chicago convention: Gov. John P. Altgeld, Secretary of State W. H. Hinrichsen, ex-congressman George W. Fitzhian and ex-Judge Samuel P. McConnell.

The district delegates are as follows: First district, A. S. Trude, Jesse Sherwood; Second, Edward Tilden, Thomas Bryne; Third, Charles Martin, J. C. Shubert; Fourth, John Powers, William Loefler; Fifth, John J. Brennan, M. C. McDonald; Sixth, Henry F. Donovan, Joseph A. Martin; Seventh, William Prentiss, J. D. Donovan; Ninth, Frank W. Barron, Samuel Ray; Tenth, C. K. Ladd, James W. Knox; Twelfth, Dr. M. Cushing, Free P. Morris; Thirteenth, W. G. Krebs, J. P. Heffernan; Fourteenth, N. G. Worth; Fifteenth, W. A. Sparks; Sixteenth, Register, B. P. Preston; Seventeenth, Frank Robinson, A. H. Bell; Eighteenth, T. U. McNeely, J. T. Beach; Nineteenth, A. W. Hope, C. W. Bliss; Twentieth, R. N. Stottler, H. S. Tanner; Twenty-first, William H. Green, J. K. Williams; Twenty-second, J. N. Penin, W. A. Sparks; Twenty-third, L. O. Whitwell, William W. Clemens.

The platform.
The platform adopted declares for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the rate of sixteen to one; opposes contraction of the currency by the retirement of treasury notes; favors a tariff on raw wool only and an income tax; denounces interference on the part of the federal government in local affairs; demands the abolition of government by injunction, whereby a federal judge at once became legislator, judge and executor; declares that arbitrary interference on the part of the federal government in local affairs by ignoring lawful authorities is not only a violation of the constitution of the United States but a crime against free government; indorses the administration of Gov. Altgeld; upholds the industrial arbitration law, and demands legislation that will put an end to child labor; denounces the flag law as unconstitutional, unparliamentary and unwise, and demands its repeal; declares against prison labor being brought into opposition with free labor, and instructs the delegates to the national convention to support only such men for the presidency as are in full and pronounced sympathy with the declarations of the platform, and to vote upon all matters, including nominations for candidates, as a unit.

FATAL CYCLONE.
Four Persons Killed by the Wind's Fury in Wisconsin.
Milwaukee, June 24.—Violent storms swept over portions of the state Tuesday and did much damage. In the vicinity of Clayton a cyclone demolished a number of dwellings and one man, name unknown, was killed. The cyclone also passed over Clear Lake, killing one man and destroying much property. The house of John Seaman at Neshkoro was torn down and his daughters, aged six and three years, who were playing on the porch, were killed. At La Crosse houses were torn down and a vast amount of property destroyed.

Bank Fail.
Salt Lake City, June 24.—The private bank known as the Bank of Salt Lake (not incorporated), with James H. Bacon as principal owner, failed to open its doors for business Tuesday, and is in the hands of F. W. Ross, as assignee. The liabilities are about $250,000, which, it is said, will be paid in full.

Still the King.
Sheepshead Bay, June 24.—Henry of Navarre demonstrated once more his right to the title of king of the turf by winning the 13th Suburban handicap at Sheepshead Bay. Commoner was second, Clifford, third. Time, 2:07.

Big Mass Convention of Silverites.
Minneapolis, Minn., June 24.—A mass convention of the silverites of this state, without regard to party, has been called to meet in this city July 16 to elect delegates to the national bimetallite convention in St. Louis.

Texas Democrats Divided.
Austin, Tex., June 24.—The democrats in convention here yesterday split on the money question and two sets of delegates to the national convention were elected, one for gold and the other for silver.

Died at Sea.
Queenstown, June 24.—Four of the crew of the Norwegian bark Alexander Lawrence, Capt. Dahl, from Passaic, N. J., which arrived at this port Tuesday, died on the voyage and six others are ill.

North Floyd.

On the night of June 17, G. G. Buis gave a party in honor of Miss Myrtle Prather, of Fillmore, among those present were Misses Prather, Wright, Hart, Wiselhart, Lewis, Dick, Buis and Knight, and Messrs. Buis, Clark, Chas. and Conroy, Denny, Knight, Wright, Wain, McCoy, Gowen, Gorman, Summers and Pickett. Refreshments were served and a nice time is reported. Mary and David Sherley of Brazil made a flying visit to Floyd on the wheels last Saturday. A. J. Owens and N. W. Ader have new binders. A large crowd attended the basket meeting at Zion last Sunday. Ward Michler from near Dayton, O., is staying at Mrs. Shackelford's. John Carter of Bainbridge Sunday with Scott Lewis. The church bugs are eating up our corn. What shall we do? Grabby Monday raised their new barn on Monday. Plenty of gypsies—or tramps, on the Rockville road this week, such people had better stay away from Groveland. Chas. Barber painted his wagon on Monday and was seriously hurt.

Bainbridge.

Mrs. Clay Howard and little daughter Helen, of Lafayette, are visiting relatives here. Charlie Ingle's family of Chicago are visiting relatives here. D. P. Darnall and son, of Danville, visited Charlie Carver and family on Sunday. Preaching next Sunday morning at the Christian Church. Mr. Kelly has painted his residence. George Pickel, who is working at Greencastle, was home last week. Mrs. Iva Priest and children of Crawfordsville, have been visiting friends in Bainbridge. Mrs. M. C. Dyer has returned from Kansas. Sam Fyfe who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to Kansas. Tom Priest and family, who have been visiting parents, have returned to Bedford. There was a dance at the hall Saturday night. Obituary.

Died, on June 18, 1896, at the family residence, near Brazil, Mary B. Myers, aged 51 years, 4 months and 14 days. Deceased was the second daughter of William and Mahala Gorton, and was born in Washington tp., Putnam county, near the town of Beasly, she was married to Levi Myers on Sept. 6, 1869; to them were born five daughters and two sons; the husband, four daughters, one son, other relatives and a host of friends mourn the loss of a loving wife, mother and sister; may the bereft family say like one of old: "We can go to her, she cannot come to us; the Lord has taken her to him, but she is the name of the Lord." The funeral services took place at Harmony M. E. Church, on Friday; burial at the Boone Cemetery.

Reelsville.

Along in April the farmers were crying for rain, and now they wish it would quit raining. Born, on June 19, to Elias Gorton and wife, a son named Matthews. Quite a number from here attended the day exercises at Canaan, on Saturday night, and port a nice time. There is an immense crop of oats, if it will quit raining long enough to save them. Ben's ship has a nice car of hogs to Indianapolis this week. Large attendance of friends at the funeral of Mary Myers, at the Boone Cemetery on Friday. Some farmers have begun to plant corn with their hoes. Children Day exercises on Sunday night; preaching at 10:30 a. m. Some parties are around painting barns and paying for the privilege. Fox Brothers are getting ready to start three threshing machines. The ticket and platform of the Republicans suits me, but the ticket and platform of the Chicago Convention, of July 7, will suit me better. Those parties that were shooting over south on Sunday, were shooting at rain drops. J. I. C.

Portland Mills.

D. A. Shoptaugh is visiting his many friends here this week. A. D. Fordyce died at his old home, on June 20, 1896, from old age; he was 80 years of age, having been born in 1816. He was married to Miss Mary Chambers, and to them were born nine children, three of whom died several years ago; Mrs. Fordyce died in 1883. The children who are left to mourn his loss are Charles, Anna and Ella, who are all single; Clara Porter married State Geologist Blatchley; Alice, wife of Robert Ashby, and Morton, who married Miss Ella Guiliams. He was a kind father and good neighbor. Rev. McCay preached the funeral sermon at Mt. Pisgah, where the remains were buried June 21. Mr. Inge is very sick. Ed A. W. George, of Barre, Fenton, Michigan and Clara Porter have new buggies. Maud Grimes is very low with consumption. Donald Grimes is sick. Dave Spencer is seen in our midst quite often since he came since he came to Danville. Jake Scott and Rhoda Beauchamp have new buggies. John McCabe and family are visiting at Indianapolis. Mr. Inge intends to remodel his house after harvest. xx

AN ELABORATE MOSAIC.

Executed for a Beautiful Palace in Vienna.

The British vice-consul in Venice in his last report says that mosaics still continue in great demand there, says the London Times. A well-known company executed last year a splendid mosaic for a palace now in course of construction in Vienna. It measures 1,000 square feet and is copied from cartoons by the painter, Edward Weith. It represents the five parts of the world. Europe stands in the center of the frieze, represented by the symbolic figures of its various nations, having on one side the emblems of industry and trade and at the top the emblem of the flying genius of light. On the right are the figures of Asia, India, China and Japan, with their rajahs, mandarins and the allegorical chrysanthemum. Next follows Africa, with camel-drivers, palm trees and other African symbols; on the left, America and Australia, with natives on horseback and on foot, foliage and other emblems.

All this variety of types, from the fair Cressian down to the negro, and the display of costumes, from the most decorative to the simplest, have enabled the painter to arrange 24 figures with great delicacy of color and in an artistic manner. Over these figures, which rest on an ornamental base, a blue sky reflects all around its light so as to unite all the tints of the mosaic and to give the whole a harmony of effect which is said to be most delightful to the eye. The same company is executing another important mosaic for the apse of the Guards' chapel at the Wellington barracks in London from cartoons.

OUR DAILY BREAD.

The Kind Most Common Now Was Unknown Last Century.

Much rye bread was eaten in this country in the beginning of the century, and much rye and Indian—a healthful compound that disappeared when stoves superseded the huge brick oven in which the maize ingredient was rendered digestible by being cooked all night. The snowy wheat loaf, as the staple bread of the land, dates only back to the cultivation of the wheat fields of New York in the early part of this century; and simultaneously there seems to arise a "fashion" of white bread. The using of bread made from anything less than "the best Genesee flour" was thought a mark of poverty. About 1840 there appeared about an even distribution of dyspepsia throughout the northern and eastern states, more especially among those well-to-do people who used only the "best Genesee." One investigator announced that the root of the mischief lay in robbing the wheat of its best elements in the process of milling, and taking away its outer coating. This man was Sylvester Graham—a monomaniac on his own hobby, but he rendered an important service to the science of alimentation, though the epithet "bran bread" was derisively applied to the sort that still bears his name.

THE HABIT OF DREAMING.

Scientists Say It is an Indication of Insanity.

The fullest examination into the nature and origin of dreams has been made by M. Moreau, the French scientist. He divides dreams into the dreams of health and the dreams that are the result of the diseased state of the mind or body. In regard to the latter it need only be remarked that persistent dreaming is one of the most invariable symptoms of insanity, and it is a psychological fact if genius is near allied to madness, genius must be expected to dream more than ordinary men. With regard to the dreams of health, they are the result of an imperfect state of consciousness or an imperfect state of sleep, according as we look at it. It is obvious that the mind of the clever man, that is constantly occupied with many schemes and thoughts, is more liable to be awake when his body is asleep than that of the dullard, whose mind is often asleep when his body is awake. Thus the sleep of the plowboy has become proverbial on account of its undisturbed nature. In most cases a man of lively imagination and quick brain is undoubtedly more liable to dream than the dullard.

Constitutional Rhetoric.

The rhetoric of the Utah constitutional convention is said by the New York Tribune to be often amusing. For instance, one of the delegates said the other day:

"There is an insurance company doing business here that has a building that cost more than $3,000,000, and has that much more in assets. And there was a man in this town who paid that company over $5,000, who had been dead for more than two years, and that man isn't able to collect the insurance."

The Gentleman Was Rude.

A leader of the house who at one time held the office of prime minister, was noted for his indolent, gentle manner, and the soft drawl with which he sent stinging sarcasm home to his opponents. One of his long-suffering victims, however, dealt him a telling blow by complaining that the honorable member had been rude to him. "His manner," he asserted, "was—not ungentlemanly, but it was less ladylike than usual."

A Cow's Obituary.

Cattle must be very precious in Borneo, when a cow receives the honor of an obituary notice in the official journal. Thus a newspaper solemnly informs its readers that "an aged cow belonging to the government herd met its death on the 14th by falling into a dyke at a secluded spot, where it was unable to extract itself."

What Egyptians Wore.

The common people among the ancient Egyptians had wooden sandals. If we may credit the assertion of historians, one of the Egyptian queens received the revenue of one city solely to keep herself in sandals.

ADVANTAGES OF LIBERIA.

Prof. O. F. Cook Speaks of the African Republic.

Prof. O. F. Cook, of Huntington, L. I., who has spent the winter in Liberia, Africa, studying the plant and animal life of that region, has returned to his home. He says, according to the Republic, that the advantages of Africa as a place of residence, even for the white race, are but imperfectly understood. Liberia is naturally no more unhealthful than other tropical countries, in which civilization has taken root, such as India and South America, and, as in these cases, the healthfulness increases as the forests are cleared away and better conditions of life rendered possible through improvements in transportation. Mr. Cook has spent several seasons in Africa in pursuing his investigation in the interest of the American and the New York State Colonization societies, with a view to ascertaining the possibility of resuming, under new plans, the colonization of Liberia with negroes from the United States. He says former movements in that direction have failed through want of proper management rather than on account of any insurmountable difficulties inherent in the idea of colonization or in the nature of the country where settlements of American negroes were attempted. That something is possible, he says, is demonstrated by the fact that many colonists who left America 15 or 20 years ago with nothing have now coffee farms, yielding incomes greater than their owners can spend, while others have achieved independence in much less time.

MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT.

President McCosh's Novel Method of Complying with a Request.

President McCosh, of Princeton, is the subject of this story, says the New York Call, which is vouched for by old Princeton men: "The venerable doctor was accustomed to lead the morning exercises in the chapel every day, and during the exercises in the chapel gave out the notices to the students. The closing exercise was a fervent prayer by the doctor. One morning, after he had read the notices as usual, a student came up with another notice that Prof. Karge's French class would be at nine o'clock that day, instead of 9:30, as usual. Dr. McCosh said it was too late, but the student insisted that Prof. Karge would be much disappointed if the notice was not read. The exercises went on, and the doctor forgot all about the notice. He started to make the final prayer. He prayed for the president of the United States, the members of the cabinet, the senators and representatives, the governor of New Jersey, the mayor and other officials of Princeton, and then came to the professors and instructors in the college. In the meantime Prof. Karge's notice came into his mind and the assembled students were astonished to hear the venerable president say: 'And, O Lord, bless Prof. Karge, whose French class will be held this morning at nine o'clock, instead of at 9:30, as usual.'"

CHEERFUL PROSPECT.

What a Young Minister Had to Inspire Pleasant Thoughts.

A nervous young minister, in visiting a neighboring village, had an unpleasant experience. The old lady at whose house he stayed, in showing him to his room, said: "It ain't anybody I'd put in this room. This here room is full of sacred associations to me," she went on. "My first husband died in that bed with his head on these pillows, and poor Mr. Jenks died sitting in that corner. Sometimes when I come into the room in the dark I think I see him sitting there still. My own father died layin' right on that lounge right under the window there. Poor pa, he was a spiritualist, and he allus said he'd appear in this room after he died, and sometimes I am foolish enough to look for him. If you should see anything of him to-night you'd better not tell me. It'd be a sign to me that there was something in spiritualism, and I'd hate to think that. My son by my first man fell dead of heart disease right where you stand. He was a doctor, and there's two whole skeletons in that closet there belonged to him, and half a dozen skulls in that lower drawer. If you are up early and want something to amuse yourself with before breakfast just open that cupboard there and you will find a lot of dead men's bones. My poor boy thought a lot of them. Well, good-night, and pleasant dreams."

EXERCISE A NECESSITY.

Early Decline of Physical Powers Due to Neglect of Athletics.

Beyond the age of 40—at a period when so many are physically lazy—the superior value of exercise is apparent, but ordinarily this is just the time when the hygienic of athletics is neglected, aptly observes Rev. F. S. Root. There is no reason why a punching bag, rowing machine, pulley weights and other apparatus should be relegated to college boys and clerks. But, having done a good deal of work in his time, it is almost impossible to persuade a business or professional man turning 40 to give any sort of attention to physical culture if such training has been previously neglected. It is an inexorable physiological law that we can only retain our bodily or mental powers by properly using them. Exercise is not a matter of choice, but of necessity.

Drinking by Instinct.

Some discussion has lately occurred in scientific journals on the question whether newly-hatched chickens will drink water if the mother hen does not set them the example. Mr. H. W. Elliott, in a letter to Science, answers positively that chickens will drink of their own accord. He has frequently placed a dish of water before a brood hatched the day before, and observed the chickens, without any maternal teaching or assistance, putting their bills into the water and lifting up their heads to swallow it, in the manner of full-grown fowls.

OUT OF PURE PHILANTHROPY.

Unappreciated Kindness of a Considerate Old Gentleman.

About four o'clock the other afternoon a half-dozen members of the Tioga wheelmen started from the clubhouse for a spin down to Point Breeze, says the Philadelphia Record. As they curved their wheels out of Verango street and into Broad street a tall, portly and pompous man of middle age, and with mustaches waxed a la militaire, stepped out into the roadway, and in a voice full of command yelled: "Stop!" The cyclists instantly dismounted. "What's the matter?" inquired one. "You've got no lamps on your wheels," said the pompous man. "Why, you must have wheels in your head," replied one of the riders; "we don't have to carry lamps in daylight." "Say, are you a bicycle cop? Where's your star?" asked another wheelman. "I beg your pardon, gentlemen, if you took me for a policeman you owe me an apology. Out of pure kindness I stopped you to call your attention to the fact that it will be dark in a few hours, and I should hate to see such nice looking fellows run in for riding without a light. By the way, gentlemen, I am introducing a new and improved bicycle lantern, warranted not to go out in the stiffest wind or over the roughest road. Throws a brilliant—" "Come off! Is that what you stopped us for?" Certainly. I can show you testimonials—" Scat! Scatter! You're occupying our air!" and away the wheelmen went down Broad street.

MAKING ONE'S WILL.

It Has a Soothing Influence on the Mind as a Duty Done.

The making of one's will does not hasten one's death; on the contrary, it has a calming and soothing influence upon the mind. A person who has done it feels that he has done his duty, says the New York Mercury, that he is so far prepared to die.

He has no burden upon his mind, in reference to what he shall do in sickness. When sickness comes he has no regrets on this subject; he has done his best to prepare for the inevitable hour. If he has made his will aright he has attempted to do good in his death as well as in his life.

This is not only a reminder that every man who has property to dispose of should make his will, but also that those who can do so without injury to their natural heirs should give a certain portion of their property for the public benefit. No man has got wealth without receiving it from society at large.

It is the growth of population, it is the general industry of the country from which he has benefited. He could not have got his wealth in an unorganized society.

Society has done much for him. Let him do something for society when he dies. The time will come when a man will not feel himself to be dying creditably who does not die generously.

TEN AT A BIRTH.

Recorded Cases Which Beat That of the Indiana Farmer's Wife.

One of the best-known physicians in the city, apropos of the case reported in Indiana of the German farmer's wife who presented him with six children of practically the same age, said:

"Even triplets are quit rare, and such cases as this are still more rare; yet instances are recorded in medical annals of the birth of six, seven, eight, nine, and even ten children at one time. It is very rare, however, that any of the children live where there are more than two at a birth, although a case is recorded by Chambon of quintuplets, all of whom survived their baptism for a short period. I heard not long ago of a Texas woman who gave birth to six children, and there is a case in Chicago where four fully-developed children were born, who lived for some time. According to statistics kept by Dr. Churchill, of England, twins occur once in 80 births, but of 37,440 births five cases only were those of triplets."

Barnato and His Landlord.

South Africa naturally recalls Barney Barnato, the "diamond king," who, within ten years, has risen from a circus clown to a many times millionaire. When he was just beginning to amass riches he rented a house in Natal and spent considerable money in improving it. But the landlord would not do his share, so Mr. Barnato decided to move. Before doing so he took means to get even with his landlord by inserting this advertisement in the local paper: "Wanted, 100,000 black beetles, by a gentleman who has agreed to leave his dwelling house in the condition he found it." Then followed his name and address, and the landlord's feelings may be imagined.—Golden Days.

The Mule Blowed First.

A negro was sick and a friendly colored brother came in to see him and asked what was the cause of his illness. The darky replied: "I's feelin' poorly. My mule done gone and got sick and I went to de hoss doctor and he tole me what to do. He tole me to git er tin tube an' put de tube in de mule's mouf and blow de medersin down his froat. I got everything ready to blow, but de mule blowed fust, and I tell yer, brudder, dat ar mule medersin was too much for dis here nigger."

Balloon Racing in Paris.

Balloon racing is the latest form of petty gambling in Paris. A number of toy balloons are set off at the same time, each bearing a postal card having on it the umpire's address and a request to the finder to note the time and place of the balloon's arrival. Bets are paid and the stakes awarded on the results of the replies received within a week. The balloon that goes furthest in the shortest time gets the prize.

An Old Custom.

The custom of having days "at home" is by no means new. It was prevalent in Queen Anne's time, when the ladies were "at home" once a week to their friends of both sexes and called it a "day" just as we do.

RACE WITH A CYCLONE.

Terrific "Twister" Dogs a Northwestern Passenger Train.

Wild Ride from Dixon to De Kalb—Storm Whirls Its Way Along Only a Few Hundred Feet from the Railroad Track.

Passengers on the Northwestern train which leaves Dixon for Chicago over the Northwestern railroad at 3:54 o'clock were given a wild chase the other afternoon with a full-grown cyclone which first appeared as the engineer steamed out of Dixon town and followed the rear sleeper as far as De Kalb.

The phenomenon was accompanied by a cloud of dust and cinders, and was of the whirlwind variety. It meandered along in a dogtrot and toyed with farmers' wagons and rail fences, occasionally slipping up and nipping the tail end of the passenger train.

The fireman heaved coal as he had never before heaved and the engineer threw the throttle wide open and put on the safety valve.

But the cyclone whirled along like a hoop snake, staying abreast of the train on the left side, about 250 yards distant, ripping up the sod and making the landscape look haggard.

The passengers were in the high "o" of excitement, expecting at any moment to join in the merry-go-round without getting value received out of their tickets.

The cloud was fully 100 feet in diameter. With it came a terrific rainstorm, which lasted till De Kalb was left behind many miles. Farmers who were lumbering along in their wagons unhitched their horses to give the animals a chance to escape, while the farmers themselves flew in all directions to avoid the cyclone.

No fatalities resulted and the farm land over which the wind cloud passed will need no plowing this spring.

Sticks, roosters, bushes and dirt were hurled high in the air. Rail fences opened to let the wonder pass, while haystacks were swept before it and distributed promiscuously over the next county.

One of the passengers who saw the disturbance from start to wind up stamps the thing as a complete success.

"It was a thrilling sight," said he, "and yet beautiful."

"I ran up against its twin brother in Colorado a few years ago. I recognized the family coat of arms the moment I saw it. It whizzed along by the side of the train, now a little in advance of us and now playing with the end lights on the rear coach.

"As long as it did not kill anything, I can say it was a beautiful sight."

A SLAP AT NEW YORK.

Korean Courtier's Views of Gotham's Bad Streets and Bad Manners.

Min Yong Hiwan, the envoy of the king of Korea, and three associates, who have been delegated to represent Korea at the coronation of the czar on May 26, were in New York city the other day, en route to St. Petersburg. Min is an intelligent Korean, and stands high in court. He is attended by a suite of 40 natives. The party made a tour of inspection and subsequently Min gave his impressions of Gotham. He said the streets of the metropolis were not as well kept as those of Seoul. New Yorkers, Min said, were remarkable for their extremely bad manners in public. He understood the natural curiosity aroused by foreigners in native attire, but he did not think this a sufficient excuse for the people to stare at himself and his companions and pass remarks.

It appears that Min's private secretary and interpreter kept him posted on a trip over the elevated railway concerning the remarks of fellow passengers. He does not like the "L" system of rapid transit, but is much impressed with the cable. Fifth avenue, he thinks, is a beautiful thoroughfare. He was especially pleased with the pretty girls who happened to be on dress parade when he passed up the avenue.

A MILLION DOLLARS LOST.

United States Notes Probably Burned Up in the Great Chicago Fire.

A New York Sun special from Washington says: The books of the United States treasury still carry an item of $1,000,000, which represents United States notes which are supposed to have been consumed in the great Chicago fire 25 years ago. It is known that there was a million dollars of currency, more or less, in the vaults of the sub-treasury then, and that none of it was recovered, but the denominations of these notes and the exact amount are unknown, as the books of the cashier were consumed also. There could not have been, however, very many dollars less or very many dollars more than 1,000,000, and it would simplify the accounts of the treasury and save a great deal of labor to the bookkeepers if congress should pass a bill or resolution recognizing the fact that this money is no longer in existence, for every day when the cashier in the treasury balances his accounts he has to include this item, deducting it or adding it, as the case may be, from the amount in hand. It appears upon every daily, weekly, monthly and yearly statement of the assets and liabilities of the government as "unknown destroyed United States notes, $1,000,000."

Automatic Waiters.

At the Spittlemarket in Berlin there is a coffee tavern where waiters and tips are conspicuous by their absence. All along the walls of the establishment automatic machines are placed, each with a label revealing its contents—beer, coffee, tea, etc. You take a glass, hold it up to the machine, insert a penny in the slot, and you are served instantly.

A BABY ELEPHANT.

Just Brought from the Jungles of India to New York.

Is a Vigorous Little Beast with a Prodigious Appetite—Story of Her Capture—Her Parents Killed by the Hunters Who Took Her.

Pinta, a baby elephant weighing 800 pounds, arrived the other day in New York on the steamer Port Adelaide from Singapore, India. Nine weeks ago a hunting party left Singapore to search the jungle for tigers. There were 15 in the party, six Europeans and nine natives. One day they came upon Pinta and her mother. They had no paraphernalia for trapping elephants, but they resolved to make captives of the two. Mrs. Elephant, as soon as she became aware of their presence, hustled her baby along in an effort to escape. She trumpeted loudly as she fled, and soon there came from the depths of the jungle the answering bellow of her mate, Pinta's papa.

There was a crashing of trees and then he appeared, a tremendous beast, with a swinging trunk and the light of battle in his twinkling eyes. The hunters made up their minds that they had a bigger fight on their hands than they had bargained for and began to shoot at the massive brute who came charging down upon them. Two luckless natives were unable to get out of his way. One of them was caught in the long trunk and dashed to the ground. He was killed instantly. The life of the other was crushed out beneath a ponderous foot. The survivors rained bullets upon the elephant. Finally one entered his eye and he fell dead.

The mother had been disabled early in the fight and she and the baby were captured. They were taken to Singapore, where they were purchased by the agents of an animal dealer in New York city, who shipped them at once on the Port Adelaide. The mother had been wounded fatally, and when the ship was five days out she died.

Pinta is three feet eight inches in height and measures eight feet from the tip of her trunk to the end of her tail. Her body is four feet long. Every day she eats 25 raw eggs in a pint of port wine, ten loaves of bread and 25 pounds of hay.

WOMEN MOONSHINERS.

They Are Accused of Unlawful Manufacture of Mountain Dew.

In the latest raid of the United States marshals in Kentucky and Tennessee a dozen women were arrested and eight of them are in the Covington jail.

"Pretty as a picture" does not apply to these mountain maids. Eliza Vaughan was arrested four months ago and brought to Covington. When she was first brought in she refused to speak a word to anyone for two weeks. She finally broke the spell of silence, since which time she has been in the best of spirits. She married a man who managed to get rid of all her money and then deserted her. She then joined the moonshiners, but protests her innocence.

Julia Ison is a comely lass and was betrayed to the officers by a lover whom she had rejected. She declared her innocence, and says as soon as she gets through with the court she intends to make her home in Cincinnati. She is 21.

Minnie Oakley, aged 16, of Elliott county, is the youngest of the prisoners. She says Mary Ebersole, who is also a prisoner in the Covington jail, told her and she told on Mary.

Mary and Nancy Howard, of Elliott county; Holly Mullis and Susie Coot, of Big Tennessee Creek; and Ellen Bunn, of Menefee county, all protest their innocence. Besides the eight women there are 70 male moonshiners in the Covington jail.

ATTENDS A DRAWING-ROOM.

Duchess of Marlborough Presented to Princess of Wales.

The princess of Wales held a drawing-room on behalf of the queen at Buckingham palace the other afternoon. The duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Vanderbilt, of New York, was presented by her mother-in-law, the marchioness of Blandford. The duchess wore a magnificent train of white duchess satin embroidered with pearls, with a gold and silver design of true lover's knot bordered with foliage. Her bodice was of the same material and design as the train, trimmed with Brussels lace and fronted with a bouquet of tiny white roses. The sleeves were of tulle and white satin. Her petticoat was composed of several flounces of exquisite Brussels lace, and her cape was of white satin. The duchess wore a head-dress and court plume with a veil and ornaments of lily of the valley from Blenheim palace. The three sisters of the duke of Marlborough were attired alike in white satin and wore the family pearls. The marchioness of Blandford wore pearl-gray satin.

BREAK A RECORD.

Homing Pigeons Make Three Hundred Miles in Less Than Five Hours.

Two Detroit homing pigeons the other day broke the 300-mile record. They are owned by Fred Rouff and Robert Schemansky, of Detroit, Mich. Rouff's pigeon was let loose at Sidney, Ill., at 6:30 a. m. on Sunday, and aided by the strong wind reached its loft in Detroit at 11:44 a. m., traveling the entire distance in 4 hours and 54 minutes, or at the rate of 1,852 yards or a little over a mile a minute. Schemansky's pigeon arrived there 23 seconds later. Both pigeons defeated the standing record made by Goldman's birds of Boston by 146 yards per minute.

SUCCESS OF THREE SISTERS.

Reveries in Fortune Induce Them to Open a Lunch Room.

The city of Cincinnati possesses a striking example of what can be done by woman's pluck when accompanied by practical common sense. Twelve years ago the Misses Stewart, three young women who had been reared in wealth, were by business failures thrown upon their own resources.

They secured a room in a business block and established a lunch-room, where they made a specialty of home cookery. Most of the work they did with their own hands, and the excellence of their supplies soon created a demand. The little lunch-room became a success, and at the end of five years, when the great Chamber of Commerce building was put up and there was to be a large restaurant connected with it, the Misses Stewart boldly applied for it. They were backed by many of the best business men of the city, who had known them in their days of wealth and been impressed by their ability as business women. Their bid was accepted, the Misses Stewart assumed charge of the "Glencairn" lunch-room, and have conducted it without a break or a failure for the last seven years.

The clientele is very large. For rent and services alone the yearly expenses are $10,000. The prices charged for food are very reasonable, yet the sisters not only paid all expenses, but live in comfort and are becoming wealthy. They have never lost social position by going into business, and during their entire career have never had to borrow a dollar.

POISONED AIR.

What Produces Discomfort in a Crowded Room.

A very important investigation into the nature of the substances contained in air expired by human beings, says the London Graphic, has just been completed by two prominent men of science in America, Dr. J. S. Billings and Dr. S. Weir Mitchell. As a result of their extended researches they declare that "the discomfort produced by crowded, ill-ventilated rooms, in persons not accustomed to them, is not due to the excess of carbonic acid, nor to bacteria, nor in most cases to dust of any kind. The two great causes of such discomfort, though not the only ones, are excessive temperatures and unpleasant odors." But though the air actually expired by healthy men and animals contains no more poisonous substances than carbonic acid gas, experiments on the air in inhabited rooms and hospital wards are said to show that an important source of contamination is the minute particles of dusts, in which there are micro-organisms, and it seems probable that these are the only really dangerous elements in the air. These views, and the conclusion that the presence of carbonic acid gas is not a trustworthy criterion of the existence of other and more poisonous exhalations, are likely to be questioned by many students of ventilation.

THE RICHEST MAN'S WIFE.

Some Amazing Truths About Marchioness Li and Her Home.

Of the wife of Li Hung Chang, millionaire of millionaires, a writer in Pearson's Weekly says: Marchioness Li is very beautiful, and, compared with her fellow-countrywomen, an exceedingly learned lady. Her age is more—possibly a great deal more—than 50, yet she looks 30, or even less.

The wife of the richest man in the world, she spends royally, although not without keeping a detailed account of her expenditures. In her magnificent home on the banks of the Pei-Ho she lives in great splendor, surrounded by song birds, peacocks, aquaria, pottery, gems and botanical collections.

One thousand attendants and servants answer her beck and call. In her wardrobe are guarded 2,000 coats, 1,200 pairs of "trouserettes" and 500 fur robes, made from the finest skins. Her feet have been compressed until they are quite inefficient for the original purpose, and the marchioness is unable to walk more than a few yards at a time.

Twice a day she bathes in oil of orange and acacia blooms and afterward takes an airing in the coolie sedan. Finally she dresses her hair in 50 ways, each more miraculous and a more perfect example of the coiffeur's art than the one that goes before.

HIS MISTAKE.

A Young Lawyer's Happy Retort to a Presiding Judge.

The New York Recorder gives a story of a young lawyer who evidently did not consider the well-known learning of the judge a sufficient reason for omitting evidence of his own attainments.

The judge was compelled to listen to a case that had been appealed from one of the police courts. The young practitioner who appeared for the appellant was long and tedious; he brought in all of the elementary text books and quoted the fundamental propositions of the law.

At last the judge thought it was time to make an effort to close the argument. "Can we not assume," he said, pompously, "that the court knows a little about law itself?"

"That's the very mistake I made in the other court," answered the young orator, "and I don't want to let it defeat me twice."

Pope Was Not Offended.

The London Morning Post tells a pleasant story of Pope Leo's kindness. It seems that not long ago an English lady, a Protestant, with her little son, 11 years old, and her daughter, obtained an audience of the pope, through the good offices of Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary of state. The latter invited the boy to kiss the pope's slipper. "We don't kiss people's feet in England," said the little fellow, "but he's a nice old gentleman, and I'll kiss his hand, if he likes." The pope was delighted with the little fellow's answer, and paid him several compliments in Italian.

The main points of the Republican platform are, of course, gold and protection, but a number of minor deliverances, were thrown in apparently to oblige delegates here and there. The "planks" on temperance, rights of women. Territories, national arbitration, lynching, etc., are so framed as to commit the party to no particular course. The section about Cuba is vague, and amounts to nothing but a tender of our good offices, which are already at the disposal of anybody in the interest of peace. The Monroe doctrine is Democratic and the Republicans have added nothing to it. How the American Government is going to stop the Armenian massacres is not apparent, and the platform does not tell us. There is some specification about Hawaii and the Danish West Indies, but these will hardly be heard from in the canvass. The declaration for discriminating duties in favor of imports in American vessels, though a branch of the tariff question, tenders a new issue, and may become prominent in the campaign. The currency and the tariff, however, will furnish the chief material for discussion.

South Washington.

On Tuesday, June 16, quite a number of neighbors and friends assembled at the residence of Uncle Wesley Grable and gave him a dinner, in honor of his birthday. The table was bountifully spread with good things to eat, and a nice time was enjoyed by all. Miss Maggie Evans and Mrs. Minnie Evans visited their uncle and aunt, Christopher Neese and wife, last week. Mrs. Mary Rader and granddaughter, Plumie Rader, visited her brother, Wesley Grable, last week. Mrs. Minda Zenor and daughter, of Jordan Village, has been visiting in these parts the past week. Mrs. Esther Evans has been quite sick with ague. John Keiser and wife, of Terre Haute, have been visiting here. Mrs. James Heath and children, of Illinois, are visiting relatives and friends here. Frank Heath, of Greencastle, has been visiting here.

Engineering Appliances as Carriers of Contraband Goods.
There is a story of several years' standing to the effect that at one time a locomotive on one of the lines running across the German-Russian frontier was used most successfully as a carrier of contraband goods, and that the fraud, so long practiced, was discovered only while overhauling the engine in the repair shops. The exact circumstances cannot now be called to mind, though the essential facts of such illegal use having been made of a legitimate piece of engineering work is brought back to memory by a recently published item which chronicles a somewhat similar bit of deception. The Belgian customs authorities, it appears, knew for a long time that large quantities of jewelry were smuggled over the French border, but how it was done puzzled them. In the luggage van of the express which runs between Paris and Brussels is a case which holds the accumulators when the train is electrically lighted. A key of the case is held by the conductor of the express, a foreman porter and an excise official of the border station, but none of these ever appear to use it. The other day, as the train ran into Query, the border town, a customs inspector took it into his head, more through officiousness than suspicion, to open the chest. To his amazement, it was filled to the brim with watches, chains, rings, bracelets and all kinds of dutiable jewelry. It was found that the foreman porter at Query had, for a long period, been carrying on a contraband traffic for a well-known Paris jeweler, who, it is said, had had to disgorge heavily, both in jewelry and hard cash, in consequence of the disclosures of his frauds.—Carrier's Magazine.

Morris performing the ceremony in an impressive and beautiful manner. The bride was attired in a tailor made traveling frock of silk mixture novelty goods, very handsome and becoming. The parlors, etc., were handsomely decorated with roses, carnations, daisies, ferns, etc. There was a large number of invited guests present to witness the ceremony and tendered congratulations and good wishes to the twain now one. Delicious refreshments were daintily served after the ceremony, and the bride and groom left on the midnight train for their future home, at Parsons, Kan., where the groom is engaged in railroading, on the midnight train; their departure was midst a shower of rice and old shoes cast upon them for good luck by admiring friends.

Fifteen Styles.

In the Middle Ages it was determined, after long and careful research, that there were just fifteen different and distinct sorts of kisses, which were classified and labeled as follows:
1. The decorous or modest kiss.
2. The diplomatic or kiss of policy.
3. The spying kiss, to ascertain if a person has drunk wine.
4. The slave kiss.
5. The kiss infamous—a church penance.
6. The slipper kiss, practiced toward tyrants.
7. The judicial kiss.
8. The feudal kiss.
9. The religious kiss (kissing the cross).
10. The academical kiss (on joining a solemn brotherhood).
11. The hand kiss.
12. The Judas kiss.
13. The medical kiss, for the purpose of healing some sickness.
14. The kiss of etiquette.
15. The kiss of love—the only real kiss.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATS.

They Meet in State Convention in Milwaukee.

Delegates Chosen to the National Convention—The Platform Adopted Favors the Gold Standard and a Tariff for Revenue Only.

Milwaukee, June 24.—The democratic state convention was called to order in the Bijou opera house at 11 a. m. Tuesday by ex-Gov. Peck, chairman of the state committee. Thomas F. Frawley, of Eau Claire, was the temporary chairman. The reception of his address, strongly favoring the gold standard, foreshadowed the action the convention would take on the financial question. After the address the usual committee were appointed. Recess was taken until 3:30 p. m. On reassembling the temporary officers were made permanent. Chairman Usher, of the committee on resolutions, read the majority report. The financial portion was greeted with loud cheers. The report is as follows: Report of Committee on Resolutions.—The administration of President Cleveland is endorsed. Tariff for revenue only is declared, and on the money question the platform says: We believe that the demands of a commerce built upon the broad and enlightened doctrine of free trade require a currency that cannot be discredited in any civilized country. Realizing this logical demand for the best money for international trade; realizing also the dangers of a fiat currency in domestic use, and aware that the present condition of commercial distress calls for the patriotic and sturdy maintenance of national honor and financial integrity, we declare ourselves opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver and in favor of gold, the highest monetary standard of the world.

We hereby direct the delegates from Wisconsin to the national democratic convention to be held in Chicago July 7 next to vote as a unit on all subjects and candidates when and as a majority of the delegation may direct.

The Minority Silver Plank. Mr. Silverthorn read the minority report. Resolved, That we reaffirm the platform of the last national democratic convention and particularly upon the subject of coinage, believing that a fair interpretation of the same favors free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold as legal tender money of the country.

Majority Wins. Loud cries for Vilas filled the air, and a perfect pandemonium of applause greeted the suggestion. The senator took the platform in response to the cheers, which continued for some moments, and made a stirring appeal for the gold standard. Speeches followed by Delegate Dockery, of Ashland, for silver; Louis J. Bohmrich, of Kenosha, for a straddle on the financial question, and Gen. Bragg for gold.

The minority report was then rejected, with 217 against 129 votes, and the majority report unanimously passed.

HONOR FOR HANNA.

He is Elected Chairman of the Republican National Committee. St. Louis, June 20.—The new republican national committee met Friday morning at the Southern hotel for the purpose of organizing and becoming acquainted with each other, there having been a number of new men placed upon the committee by the various delegations. Secretary Manley, of the old committee, called the new one to order, and Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, presided.

The members of the committee having been sounded on the subject, it was determined to elect the chairman at this meeting, instead of leaving it open until the meeting that will probably be held in New York two or three weeks hence. Mr. Hanna was nominated for chairman on the motion of Mr. Payne, of Wisconsin, seconded by Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York. He was elected by the unanimous vote of the committee. Mr. Hanna accepted the nomination in a short speech that was received with applause.

Reception to Hobart.

Paterson, N. J., June 23.—This city was brilliantly illuminated and decorated last night in honor of Garret A. Hobart's nomination for vice president. Some 6,000 citizens of all political parties joined in a procession to the armory, where addresses were made by Judge Hopper and Mayor Braun, both democrats. Mr. Hobart said that he would rather have the esteem and confidence of the people than any office within the gift of any political organization.

THE Indiana Supreme Court has handed down a decision upholding the law which permits the taxation of city property for the maintenance of gravel roads. This law has caused a vast amount of complaint in the cities and towns throughout the state where property has been taxed to keep up country roads. The case decided was one appealed to the supreme court by N. S. Byram, of Indianapolis. Mr. Byram had petitioned the county commissioners to refund the proportion of his taxes that had gone into the gravel road funds. The county commissioners refused and Mr. Byram brought suit in the circuit court to recover the amount. The court sustained the law and found for the defendants, and Mr. Byram appealed to the supreme court, which sustained the lower court.

The people of Roachdale have arranged for a big 4th of July celebration, and Jackson Boyd, Esq., of this city, has been selected as the orator of the day.

Solomon Henry, one of Greencastle's old and well-known citizens, died on June 25, after a sickness of only about two days, of congestion of the bowels—his age was about 72 years.

W. M. Ridpath, of Spokane Falls, Washington, formerly of this city, who will be remembered as an ardent Republican who was elected speaker of the Indiana House of Representatives, was one of the signers of a telegram sent to Senator Teller, after he had been elected from the Republican gold bug convention at St. Louis. The telegram read as follows: "The undersigned Republicans admit your courage and endorse your course and stand ready to follow your leadership, and we pledge you the State of Washington. We state further that the Republicans of the State are misrepresented in the National convention on the financial issue."

Extract of Beef Killed Him.

On Wednesday last Mr. Mahlon B. Draper, a merchant of Coatsville, died from the effects of eating extract of beef. The circumstances reported are, that he had eaten quite freely of the extract of beef, in the form of soup, and his wife also partook of it, at the noon meal, on Wednesday. Both were made sick by it, and Mrs. Draper soon vomited, thereby undoubtedly saving her life. His sickness was of a more serious nature from the start, and he suffered intensely until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when death resulted. Deceased was 45 years of age, and was a very successful business man and one of Coatsville's leading citizens. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and a son, aged about 15 years, as well as a large number of other relatives and friends.

Quirk, Gammon and Snap.

A Greencastle attorney, who is said to be a Republican in politics, and an ex-Republican official and is also said to be a present city official, gets the credit of being the "Greencastle lawyer" mentioned in the following item from the Indianapolis Journal, which the same is a sort of cross between attempted bulldozing and a scheme to rob the honest solvent debtor, and as such deserves only contempt. The Journal article is as follows: "The fallacy of a man who is in debt favoring free silver because he thinks it will enable him to pay his debts with money that is worth only half as much as the money he borrows was well illustrated a few days ago by a Greencastle lawyer. He was asked why he favored the free coinage of silver. "I have farm mortgages to the amount of $80,000 locked up in my desk in Greencastle," said he. "They are not mine, but I am the agent for the companies that loaned the money. The farmers who own the mortgages cannot pay it now, nor can they after we have free coinage of silver. It will be harder for them to pay it then than now, for the times will be much harder. Then I will foreclose on every one of them and sell their farms. By this I will pocket about $20,000 in fees. That is why I favor free coinage. As an abstract question I am strongly opposed to it, but it will be money in my pocket for us to have it."

The complete novel in the July issue of Lippincott's is "A Judicial Error," by Marion Manville Pope. It is a strong story, based on a murder for which the wrong man was convicted and hanged. He has a friend who determines to prove his innocence, and does it. This plot involves some rousing scenes and situations, and the author has not been slow to improve her opportunities.

"A Twenty-dollar Bill," by Algeron Tassin, is a pathetic tale of honesty among the very poor and in the face of the strongest temptation—to save a sister's life, Gilliam W. Ford tells about "The Rector's Gamecock," which came to the minister in a singular way, and was thenceforth a bird of peace. Jean Wright narrates briefly "An Old Story," which is not a familiar or commonplace one at all—of the army.
