

UNION MUTUAL

Life Insurance Company of Maine, Henry Crocker, Pres. Whiting H. Hollister, Sec.

Assets, - - $9,000,000!

C. M. R. NDALL, State Agent, Rooms 12 and 14 Talbot's Block, corner Pennsylvania and Market streets, Indianapolis, Ind.

Wall Paper, CARPETS!

OIL CLOTHS, WINDOW SHADES, AWNINGS.

ALBERT GALL, 101 East Washington St. Opposite New Court House.

TO LOAN.

We have always on hand, without reference to applicant, from $20,000 to $50,000 per month to loan on long time in sums of $1,000 and upward.

D. E. SNYDER & CO., No. 16 North Meridian street.

SHIRTS TO FIT EVERYBODY AT PARKER'S, 32 West Washington St.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CITY ASSESSOR--JAMES SWAIN WILL BE a candidate for City Assessor, subject to the decision of the Democratic Nominating Convention.

FOR TRADE.

FOR TRADE--FARM ACRES SIX MILES from Indianapolis, for improved city property. Address Resident, this office.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL--MADAM DEGRASSE'S READINGS this evening at 142 Virginia avenue; admittance 2 cts; her reading last eve. proved a success.

Letters addressed simply to the number of a box, and without the name of the party for whom intended, are not to be delivered through the post office, but sent to the Dead Letter Office, in accordance with Section 60, Regulation of 1866, United States Laws.

WANTED.

WANTED--GIRL, 109 CENTRAL AVENUE. WANTED--FURNITURE TO REPAIR. 149 N. Delaware st. WANTED--A GIRL, APPLY AT TRUNK store under the Bee Hive.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT--WICE FURNISHED FRONT ROOM. 215 W. North st. FOR RENT--FURNISHED ROOMS AT 57 N. West Maryland st.

FOUND.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

Senate met at 9 A. M., Lieut. Governor in the chair. On motion Mr. Sarnighausen was appointed to wait upon the Governor and ascertain if he had any further communications to submit to the General Assembly.

REPORTS.

RESOLUTIONS.

HOUSE.

FOR RENT--WICE FURNISHED FRONT ROOM. 215 W. North st. FOR RENT--FURNISHED ROOMS AT 57 N. West Maryland st.

FOUND.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

Senate met at 9 A. M., Lieut. Governor in the chair. On motion Mr. Sarnighausen was appointed to wait upon the Governor and ascertain if he had any further communications to submit to the General Assembly.

REPORTS.

RESOLUTIONS.

HOUSE.

REPORTS.

FOR RENT--WICE FURNISHED FRONT ROOM. 215 W. North st. FOR RENT--FURNISHED ROOMS AT 57 N. West Maryland st.

FOUND.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

Senate met at 9 A. M., Lieut. Governor in the chair. On motion Mr. Sarnighausen was appointed to wait upon the Governor and ascertain if he had any further communications to submit to the General Assembly.

REPORTS.

RESOLUTIONS.

HOUSE.

REPORTS.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

London, March 8.--Lieutenant General Sir James Hope Grant died yesterday, aged 67. Arthur Helps, the English author, died yesterday, aged 57.

Civil Rights in Indianapolis.

Suit is about to be commenced in the United States Circuit Court of this District by Merret Braxton and Sandy Wakefield, gentlemen of color, against Simon McCarthy, manager of the Metropolitan Theater, for $500 damages, by reason of being refused admittance because of their color.

A Severe Snow Storm in the East.

Proceedings in the Beecher-Tilton Case to-day. A Diamond Bonanza at Ironton, Ohio. Death of Distinguished Men Abroad.

ETC., ETC., ETC.

NEW YORK CITY.

The Severe Storm--The Catholic Jubilee.

New York, March 8.--The storm of snow and rain prevailing since yesterday morning is the severest of the season. The snow commenced yesterday morning and continued till late at night when it was succeeded by rain.

OHIO.

Defaulting Railroad Clerk--A Diamond Bonanza.

Zanesville, March 8.--It is reported that Samuel Howard Jr., ticket agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad here is a defaulter to the amount of $20,000.

INDIANA.

The Governor's Proclamation.

Mr. Glasgow, from the Committee appointed to wait upon the Governor, reported that His Excellency had nothing to lay before the General Assembly except his proclamation calling a special session to convene on Tuesday morning, March 9th.

ILLINOIS.

Sweeping Charges of Corruption.

Chicago, March 8.--Pursuant to announcement the Times yesterday contained a very long article arraigning every department of the city and county government for fraud and corruption, and making sweeping charges against nearly all the public officials and against the management of the new custom house.

LOUISIANA.

The Democrats Come In.

New Orleans, March 8.--During the last days of the session of the Legislature several Democratic members of the House, among them McAlpin, of Vernon, Carlos, Webster and Webb, of St. Landry, took their seats and were sworn in, making more than an unquestionable quorum of members returned by the returning board.

BEAUCHER-TILTON.

The Trial To-day.

Brooklyn, March 8.--All the principals in the scandal trial were promptly on time in court this morning. The full jury was present. Mrs. Putnam resumed the stand and testified. Her evidence was unimportant. A large part of the morning was consumed by sparring between counsel.

MINNESOTA.

King's Property.

Minneapolis, March 8.--The Tribune estimates William S. King's property at $616,000, and his liabilities, excluding the First National Company's claim of $265,000, at $175,000, leaving a balance of $341,000, beside $50,000 life insurance and $75,000 settled on his wife.

FOREIGN.

London, March 8.--Lieutenant General Sir James Hope Grant died yesterday, aged 67. Arthur Helps, the English author, died yesterday, aged 57.

Civil Rights in Indianapolis.

Suit is about to be commenced in the United States Circuit Court of this District by Merret Braxton and Sandy Wakefield, gentlemen of color, against Simon McCarthy, manager of the Metropolitan Theater, for $500 damages, by reason of being refused admittance because of their color.

A Severe Snow Storm in the East.

Proceedings in the Beecher-Tilton Case to-day. A Diamond Bonanza at Ironton, Ohio. Death of Distinguished Men Abroad.

ETC., ETC., ETC.

NEW YORK CITY.

The Severe Storm--The Catholic Jubilee.

New York, March 8.--The storm of snow and rain prevailing since yesterday morning is the severest of the season. The snow commenced yesterday morning and continued till late at night when it was succeeded by rain.

OHIO.

Defaulting Railroad Clerk--A Diamond Bonanza.

Zanesville, March 8.--It is reported that Samuel Howard Jr., ticket agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad here is a defaulter to the amount of $20,000.

INDIANA.

The Governor's Proclamation.

Mr. Glasgow, from the Committee appointed to wait upon the Governor, reported that His Excellency had nothing to lay before the General Assembly except his proclamation calling a special session to convene on Tuesday morning, March 9th.

ILLINOIS.

Sweeping Charges of Corruption.

Chicago, March 8.--Pursuant to announcement the Times yesterday contained a very long article arraigning every department of the city and county government for fraud and corruption, and making sweeping charges against nearly all the public officials and against the management of the new custom house.

LOUISIANA.

The Democrats Come In.

New Orleans, March 8.--During the last days of the session of the Legislature several Democratic members of the House, among them McAlpin, of Vernon, Carlos, Webster and Webb, of St. Landry, took their seats and were sworn in, making more than an unquestionable quorum of members returned by the returning board.

BEAUCHER-TILTON.

The Trial To-day.

Brooklyn, March 8.--All the principals in the scandal trial were promptly on time in court this morning. The full jury was present. Mrs. Putnam resumed the stand and testified. Her evidence was unimportant. A large part of the morning was consumed by sparring between counsel.

MINNESOTA.

King's Property.

Minneapolis, March 8.--The Tribune estimates William S. King's property at $616,000, and his liabilities, excluding the First National Company's claim of $265,000, at $175,000, leaving a balance of $341,000, beside $50,000 life insurance and $75,000 settled on his wife.

MARION.

Center Lodge, No. 23--Special meeting to-night at 7 o'clock. Work--First Degree.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

THE EVENING NEWS

JOHN U. HOLLIDAY, PROPRIETOR. MONDAY, MARCH 8, 1875.

THE EVENING NEWS is published every week day afternoon, at four o'clock, at the office, No. 65 North Pennsylvania street.

Subscription rates: One copy for one year, 60 cents; one copy for three months, 15 cents; one copy for one month, 5 cents.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is a handsome eight-column folio, published every Wednesday. Price, $1.00 per year.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Bishop Odenheimer, of New Jersey, has completely recovered his health in Europe. The loss by the burning of the museum building at Albany, Friday night, is $60,000.

General Sheridan and Colonel Forsyth of his staff left New Orleans Saturday for the West, via the Jackson railroad.

Austin Drake, the only son of Chief Justice Drake, died in Washington, yesterday, aged 31 years.

Senator Johnson pronounces as forgeries letters and telegrams recently published from his criticizing the Democratic party.

Advices from Asia Minor state that in one district alone, out of a population of 52,000, 20,000 have died since the beginning of the famine.

A letter from London states that Dr. Knapley has given notice that on the 16th of March he will call attention to the Tichborne case.

G. Schoy's house was burned at Sunbury, Pennsylvania, Friday night, together with two children. Mrs. Schoy was probably fatally burned.

Four men killed themselves or were murdered by frenzied companions in drunken orgies over the wreck of the bark Giovanni, on Cape Cod.

Crimes block, at Burlington, Iowa, was damaged by fire and water from engines, on Saturday, to the amount of $15,000. It was fully insured.

General Colton, President of the Occidental & Oriental Steamship Company, has declined the position or Director of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

Among the bills which failed of consideration in the United States Senate, was that to return to Japan one-half the indemnity lately paid to the United States.

A fire originated in Boxley & Cole's bank, at Hempstead, Texas, Saturday, destroying that and the adjoining building. The loss is estimated at $20,000, and the insurance at $6,000.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee, the Detroit Diocese of the Episcopal church confirmed the nomination of Bishop Jaggar, but refused to confirm Dr. De Koven's nomination.

Owing to the passage of the civil rights bill the proprietors of the two principal hotels at Chattanooga have surrendered their licenses, and will conduct their establishments as private boarding houses.

New York bank statement: Loans, increase, $488,000; specie, decrease, $2,616,700; legal tenders, decrease, $174,700; deposits, increase, $3,406,000; circulation, decrease, $72,400; reserve, decrease, $3,483,250.

A heavy snow storm visited the South and East yesterday. Nine inches fell at Columbus, fifteen at Memphis, ten at Cairo, and eight at Cincinnati. The storm extended into Pennsylvania and New York.

The President has prepared a list of nine new paymasters which he will send to the Senate to-day. The nominations are nearly equally divided between the regular and volunteer officers. There were 240 applicants.

It is understood that among the nominations to be sent to the Senate will be that of Jacob J. Martin, present sister Auditor of the Treasury, to be postmaster at Montgomery, Ala., and ex-Congressman C. C. Sheets, of Ala., to be sixth auditor.

Henry Varley, the English Evangelist from London, preached last evening to a congregation of about 7,000 people, in the course of which he referred to the revivals being carried on by Moody and Sanky, which he said were attended with great success.

There is a rumor current that Plymouth church has subscribed $125,000 to defray the expenses of that suit. The rumor goes so far into details as to relate the action of Bowen, who entered a hearty protest against the appropriation, and utterly refuses to be a party to it.

The factory of the American Butter Company, at South Framingham, Massachusetts, was burned yesterday morning. The loss is $28,000, and insurance $16,000. The Boot and Shoe Shank Company loses $4,000, and the surrounding property considerably damaged. The total loss was $38,000.

The Secretary of the Treasury will issue a call this week for thirty million dollars of bonds on account of the sinking fund, under the act of March 3d 1875. The interest on the bonds will cease after ninety days, but it is understood that the bonds, with accrued interest, will be paid at any time after the call.

The Superior Court of the State of Tennessee rendered a decision yesterday in the case of the holders of the notes of the new issues of the Bank of Tennessee, deciding it a legal issue, and a preferred claim against all the assets of the bank. It is considered that this decision virtually makes the State liable.

The Hon. James Buffinton, Representative of the First Congressional District of Massachusetts, arrived home yesterday morning with his family, and went to the residence of his son-in-law at Fall River, where he died suddenly an hour later. He was 58 years of age, and has been indisposed for a long period.

The act to correct errors and supply omissions on the revised statutes of the United States, provides that the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims shall not extend to any claim against the United States growing out of the destruction or appropriation of or damage to property by the army or navy engaged in the suppression of the rebellion.

The presentation speech of Minister Cushing to King Alfonso will contain only the customary formal expression of friendship on the part of the United States for Spain. He, however, has specific instructions to govern him in the negotiations which were initiated under the late republican government, and now to be consummated.

A Sioux City special says that at a meeting of the leading citizens and business men of that city, the Sioux City and Black Hills Transportation Company, with a capital of $100,000, was organized. Its object is the transportation of men and merchandise to the Black Hills. Teams will be at once purchased and trains started by the first of April.

surer denies the charges and an investigation will take place.

The Louisiana Committee changing their intention to hold a session for the perfection of the Wheeler compromise in Washington, have decided to adjourn to New York. If the duplicate returns and other papers necessary to the task can be obtained from New Orleans in time the first session of the committee will probably be held Thursday next.

The Springfield Grange, of Pottowattamie county, has declared themselves free and independent of all authority of the National and State Granges, and that their connection therewith is dissolved. The grievance alleged was that the officers of these granges had forfeited all confidence, mismanaged the finances and otherwise wronged them.

The Internal Revenue office rules that when the same citizen contains spirits produced before and after midnight of the first day, the burden of proof rests on the distiller to show the precise quantity distilled on the third. Unless satisfactory evidence is given to the collector that the quantity is so produced, the whole contents must be stamped a ninety cents and the distiller left to his claim for a refund.

Gen. Ord has instructed Col. Bradley, the commandant at Fort Laramie, to send out a force to bring in the remainder of the Sioux City Black Hills party, who are reported to be in a suffering condition. If the two men who came in from the hills will guide the command. Orders have been issued to prevent any one else from going into that country, and any one trying it will undoubtedly be followed and driven out by the military.

Mr. E. J. Ovington, who testified during the past week for the defense in the Tilton-Beecher suit, has been subpoenaed for the prosecution and in consequence could not sail for Europe as he had intended. Mr. Tilton's counsel have knowledge of several letters which he wrote and which they want identified and put in evidence. There is a rumor current that Plymouth church has subscribed $125,000 to defray the expenses of the suit. The rumor goes so far into detail as to relate the action of Bowen, who entered a hearty protest against the appropriation and utterly refused to be a party to it.

On last Thursday evening, between 8 and 9 o'clock, a man called at the residence of Mr. Templeton Patterson, an old wealthy citizen of Milton township, near Pittsburgh, and asked for information as to the residence of the Rev. Mr. Shriver. Mr. Patterson, directed him, saying that he would go with him but for the fact that no one was at home but himself. The man left and in a short time returned with a companion, and Mr. Patterson, re-opening the door, seized him, presented revolvers, and demanded money. After getting about sixty dollars they left. There is no clue as yet to the rascals.

Gilman, of Richmond, has introduced a bill in the Virginia House of Delegates to punish parties creating disturbances in hotels, theaters or other places of amusement.

It is intended to nullify the provisions of the civil rights bill, and to punish parties creating disturbances in hotels by boisterous demands for accommodation after the proprietor or his agent has declined to entertain them for want of room or other reasonable specified causes, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment. In the case of theaters managers are to have the right to issue reserved seats stamped not transferable and when a party not the original purchaser demands admittance, the doorkeeper can refuse him, but the price of the ticket must be refunded, and if he refuses to take the money and thereby creates a disturbance, he is liable to arrest and fine. In both cases half the fine goes to the hotel keeper or manager, as the case may be. There are also provisions regarding steamboats and railroads.

The Senatorial Republican caucus committee has not yet completed the list of Standing Committees. The Democratic Senators have been informed that they will be allowed three members on all the committees consisting of nine members, and two on the committees consisting of seven members. The Chairmanship of all the committees will remain as during the late session, with the exception of those heretofore filled by outgoing Senators. The Chairmanships are selected, as a rule, from those first on the list after the names of the retired members. The Chairmanship of the Committee on Claims will leave Senator Boutwell Chairman of the Committee on the Civil Service and Retrenchment, Hamlin Chairman of the Post office Committee, Windom of Public Lands, Child of Indian Affairs, Oglesby of Pensions, Hitchcock of Territories, West of Railroads, Sargent of Mines and Mining. It is probable that Conkling will be Chairman of that on Commerce, and Spencer of that of the District of Columbia.

Senator Andrew Johnson declares thus: "I can give no pledge of my future course. I can't say that will act with one party or the other. We have too much to party and I propose to bind myself in advance to no theory or party policy. I have never done so in the past, and I do not intend to do so in the future. I shall support such measures as appear in my judgment best for the country, caring not whether it is a Democratic measure or whether it is supported by Republicans. I will never place myself in a position where I must do a thing because it is a party measure, or to oppose a thing at a party's dictation. I place the country above party. Johnson could not say whether he would participate in the debate on the Pinchback resolution. On being asked if he would not, in his position, have an opportunity to pay off some old scores, and if he did not have a mass of facts against the leaders of the parties to-day, he said: "Whatever I may have I don't say, but I shall use nothing. My service in the Senate will not be a personal one. I do not represent myself, but Tennessee. The country has now nothing to do with my personal matters, and with that of friends. I have no enemies to punish or friends to reward. I have buried resentments, and have forgotten the ill treatment of individuals. If I can perform the duties that are now before me, as conscientiously and clearly as I see them at this moment, I shall accomplish as much as human vanity may seek to attain."

Eight dollars a day is a great temptation.

The Reporter of the Supreme Court was reformed.

A few more such Legislatures would be the undoing of us.

The Legislature stops, only to get a fresh grip on the treasury.

ORTH will probably go to Vienna. The good must be rewarded.

Is there no balm in Gilead? Can't Co-burn have a foreign mission?

AUDITOR of State Henderson is not so much of a reformer as he was.

Ir the Legislature was disposed to attend to business a short session would follow.

BLAINE groans for New Hampshire, but his voice is too weak to permit him to take the stump.

The Auditor of State was not reformed. He still draws $13,000 a year from the insurance fees.

The need of additional quarters for the insane and feeble minded was never more apparent than on Saturday night.

FORTUNATELY plowing time is at hand and the Legislative Grangers will have to arise and go home before many days.

A. JOHNSON says he is for the country above the party, and has no personal enmities against prominent Republicans to gratify. Forgiving Andy!

The result of the Pacific Mail investigation has been to kill subsidies and put the company into Jay Gould's hands. The gain is greater than the loss.

CONGRESSMEN out of business can perhaps hear of something to their advantage by using the popular columns of The Evening News. Price, only five cents per line.

MAYNARD goes to Turkey. The Sons of the Prophet will take him for an aborigine. A little paint and a few feathers would enable him to deceive the elect.

MR. McDONALD does not seem to have made his appearance in the Senate. If he should lose a vote on the Hawaiian treaty the denizens of Dubois and the wayfarers from Warrick will never forget or forgive it.

SOME bankrupt hotel keepers in Southern cities are making the Civil Rights bill a good excuse for closing their houses. But little attention seems to be paid to it, however, and in its emasculated form it is not likely to create much commotion.

The Virginia avenue viaduct scheme is to be reported to the Council to-night. Members must allow full time for the consideration and discussion of this business. It is too great a thing to be put through hastily. There is too much room for jobs. There was a job in the other viaduct scheme and this one will bear watching.

The Legislature deserves credit for one thing. It established a valuable precedent and instituted a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen or more papers and pay for them out of the public treasury, under the pretext that it afforded the best means for a member to acquaint his constituency with what was being done. In reality it was simply a sop to the newspapers, both parties uniting in order to give their own organs a little sustenance. But this late Assembly made a reform which, though comparatively small in its saving, cuts off a useless expense and an unauthorized subsidy. We mean the refusal to subscribe for copies of newspapers for the use of members. Heretofore it has been the custom to take from three to six copies of half a dozen

Indianapolis Savings Bank
 Removed to No. 65 East Market street.
 Net earnings belong to depositors. Open Mondays and Saturdays till 5 p. m.
JACKSON, President.
JOHN W. RAY, Secretary.

C. H. FORBY,
TRUNK
 and
Traveling Bag Factory,
 115 SOUTH ILLINOIS STREET.
DESIRABLE DRY GOODS.

WE ARE JUST IN RECEIPT OF

200 Shawls, price $1.75; worth $2.50.
 10 Pieces Black Australian Crapes, 50 to 60;
 worth 20c to $1.
 10 Pieces Black Silks at a bargain. Persons in need of a Black Silk, will save money by seeing our goods.
 2,000 Fine Embroidered Corsets, $1.65; worth $2.
 1,000 Fine Embroidered Corsets, $2.25; worth $3.
 Another great job lot of Fine Embroideries at 10, 12, 15, 20 and 25c per yard. It is known that we sell Embroideries cheaper than any other house,
 besides showing a large assortment.

New Styles in Hoop Skirts, Bustles and Forms.
 200 White Spreads at $1.24; worth $1.75.
 200 White Spreads at $2.45; worth $3.00.
 100 Pieces Woolens, suitable for Boys' wear;
 some elegant goods and nice styles.

New Goods Arriving Daily.
M. H. SPADES & CO.,
 BOSTON STORE.

THE EVENING NEWS
 MONDAY, MARCH 8, 1875
CITY NEWS.

The new pews for St. Mary's Church will be in place by Easter Sunday.

Hayverly's minstrels are billed for the Academy Friday and Saturday evenings.

Rev. W. H. Milburn, the blind preacher, lectures at Trinity Wednesday evening.

The Boisset family, a wonderful band of gymnasts, open to-night at the Metropolitan.

Bert Hibben and J. J. Bingham have buried the hatchet over a bottle of Sherrod's apple jam.

It is whispered upon the breezes that William Wallace may be a Republican candidate for Mayor.

Roberts Park Church has received over 100 accessions to its membership during the past winter.

Luther Benson was in the city Saturday evening. He speaks Sunday afternoon at the Academy.

G. W. Morgan, the great organist, will give an organ recital at the First Baptist Church early next month.

Elizabeth has received a divorce from Robert E. Kersting; failure to provide and abandonment being the cause.

The County Commissioners believe they have not the power to grant right of way for the Irvington railway.

The first organ manufactured by the Benham Organ Company is now on exhibition at Benham & Shepard's.

Granville Blanchard was found guilty of forgery by the jury, and given two years north. An appeal will be taken.

The project of making Plainfield a suburb of Indianapolis by the Vandalia commutation system is again receiving attention.

A pleasant meeting for the children was held at the Fifth Presbyterian Church, with speeches by Messrs. Mitchell, Church and Scott.

The chief objection of Reed to the Academy contest is, "that it was a stag spelling match, and like a stag dance, wasn't satisfactory."

George Brunig, Billy Cone and Charley Dennis are the three Republican candidates for City Clerk. Are there not other patriots yet to hear from?

Mart Dahl, 47 West Washington, offers a $25 premium to the one making the highest run to-morrow evening in the billiard match between Burley and Shaw.

The Telegraph professes to have discovered a secret political society in this city, having for its main object the exclusion of foreigners from holding office.

Weaver, ex-Councilman, wants to wager that the Republicans will carry the Third Ward, and that the Democracy will not elect one-half of their city ticket.

The spelling-match to-night at the Third Presbyterian Church will be led by Mrs. Oren and George C. Harding, and is held for the benefit of the Ladies' Temperance Union.

The Herald professes to have heard of a member of the present Legislature exhibiting an obnoxious bill in a bagnio, and offering to make way with it for a consideration.

Rev. F. C. Inglehart has had success in his pastoral labor for the Salem M. E. Church. During the past two months the revival resulted in over 100 conversions and 200 accessions.

The Y. M. C. A. on Saturday night organized a branch, to be called the Yokefellows, whose duty it is to work among those addicted to intemperance, and effect their reformation.

Reed, the post-editor, chafes in his joints because so many sheriff advertisements appear in the Herald. Somehow the People is getting left in the grab for official fitness, hence the irritation.

Jacob Bowman, Jr., and Johnny Keen are to play 300 points French caroms for the championship of the West End. The game will commence some time when business is dull, and last indefinitely.

News comes that Lieut. Warrington, who failed to hit Tyler Mason at five paces, recently killed an Indian on the Texan frontier. The Lieutenant may have been terribly close to the unfortunate Lo.

"Ex-convict" continues his sketches in the People of life in the Northern Prison; but there was nothing new in the chapter of yesterday, unless it was additional evidence of the Deputy Warden's cruelty.

Several of the ladies of the city have formed themselves into clubs for intellectual enjoyment and improvement. Courses concerning the latest fashions are strictly tabooed, and the extravagance of a Mrs. Jones or some other female, is not referred to more than once an hour.

Some time ago James H. Sterling was brought before the Mayor, charged with larceny. But was acquitted. This Sterling has been confounded with James H. Sterling, bookkeeper for the Bentwood Furniture Co., and the circumstance has proven of unusual annoyance to the last named gentleman.

A member was expelled from the North Carolina Legislature for nonbelief in the existence of God. From the general action of our Legislature one might infer that, as a body, they believed neither in a God nor a hereafter.—[People.] And yet the People's chief grievance is because the Baxter law remains upon the statute book.

Legislator Pate, from Switzerland and Ohio counties, considered that $5 per day was sufficient salary, and he therefore covered back into the State Treasury $125. $5 per day in this individual instance was sufficient, but had he covered back fifty per cent. more the conscience of his constituency would have been proportionately easier.

Solomon, Democratic candidate for City Treasurer, is credited with believing that the office should seek the man, and that any one who will go around and spend his money among bummers and dead-heads, should not be eligible, etc. Solomon is young in politics, and will have to tarry at Jericho until his political beard grows if he expects to win by ignoring the b. and d. h. element.

If the people, and especially business men, would show some "sand" in prosecutions, they could eradicate the Weiritt, Red Cloud, and hoodlum dens on Indiana avenue.

Within the Weiritt saloon it is orderly enough, for he with his brawny fist knocks right and left; but it is in his den where the hoodlums fire up with whisky, none of the best, until they are ripe for any mischief.

If there is peace and contentment to be found any where on earth a heart that is humble might look for it in the Northern Penitentiary—according to the report of the legislative investigating committee. The deputy warden is kind and fatherly; the cat purrs so softly that there is constant strife between the convicts as to which one will be licked; the food is very fattening and the work mere pastime.—[Sunday Herald.]

Patrick H. Curran, Eighth Ward Councilman, was dished up yesterday by the People. Curran is of Tipperary, Ireland, born in 1846, and settling with his parents in this city ten years later. A carriage maker by trade and now a grocer; a soldier in the "Finnigan war." Democratic, but with positive beliefs of his own, a good citizen, and a frank, honest man—the Eighth Ward voters have reason to be proud of their aldermanic representative.

Councilmen candidates are springing up like mushrooms. Gus Shae is after a seat in the Second Ward; Ed. Moody, Joe Martin, and Dan. Lemon, in the Third; Ripley in the Fourth; McShepherd in the Fifth; Yardmaster Somerville, Peter Weis, James Laughlin, and Mussen in the Seventh; John T. Presley and Ev. Kennedy in the Eighth; Duncan Denar in the Ninth; and so on. This list is not a fraction of the whole amount, but it indicates the sign of the times.

A Sham.
 An obscure reporter for an obscure sheet accidentally heard that a young girl, disaffected with her Vincennes home, had come to this city, and with no further material from this she gave the sensation that she had been inducted into Queen Mab's bagnio. The report, uncontradicted, was taken up by papers of reputation and worth, and the agitated mother found her innocent daughter headed over the world on an east. She came to reclaim her, and found instead that the girl had secured a reputable home, but was in deep grief because of this disgraceful notoriety. Both returned to Vincennes, the daughter with pure heart but tarnished name, and mother and daughter alike suffering from the cruel publications.

O'K. vs. Barry.
 The People says that the contest for the Marshalship is now narrowing down to the O'Kenington and Barry; the former a Protestant and the latter a Catholic, and it hopes that religion will not be dragged into the nomination. And so does the News, for it is mockery to connect the O'K. with anything having a moral tinge. It is news to the Protestant world that this mis-representative of the Seventh Ward is one of 'em, and the laugh is not yet out in thinking how he attempted to play "Catholic" at St. Patrick's some weeks ago, and gave the sign of the "holy cross" with his left hand. Both claim to be Catholics, but while Barry labors by the week in a planing mill, some of the work of the other has been to charge the city $7 per keg for nails, get the City Sexton into a scrape, sell whisky and be indicted therefor, and keep grocery on Bicking street. One is a soldier, and the other something else.

A Howl at the Sheriff.
 A Liberal-Republican Democrat Fourth Warder, who is in his intimate linen in the effort to be appointed by the Sheriff to a position he was not competent to fill, has so agitated the elements that his party friends are making a desperate howl because Al Travis is retained as a deputy. An embryo politician from the same district, on the morning following Reissner's election, is reported to have been thrown by the Sheriff at the beheading of Travis, and he too occasionally fractures his clothes because the thing was not done. The truth is, Sheriff Reissner is compelled to have a few competent men as bailiffs and deputies, and Blume and Travis, in the departments filled by them, are the best he can place. Reissner has a good officer in either one of these gentlemen, and he has sense enough to know it, and, it is believed, the "sand" to keep them, the People and those other fellows to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bad Beef.
 [From the Sunday Herald.]
 The News continues to make sickening revelations in regard to the quality of the beef cut and thrown upon the market. Not only do bulls abound, but cattle in the last stages of disease, many of them with loathsome ulcers upon their heads, are sold in the market, and undoubtedly eaten as food. It is needless to say that such food is poisonous as well as disgusting. Something should be done to stop this infamous business. The penitentiary is too good for the beef that would sell, or the butcher who would buy diseased cattle; yet it is done frequently in our midst, without exciting any special feeling among the people. The well-fed citizens who reads of sick cows, and scraggy bulls, and broken-legged steers, turns pale with disgust as he reads, but it never occurs to him that possibly the bit of steak before him comes of just such stock. We need laws that will severely punish the selling or offering for sale of such cattle in the market, as well as their exposure for sale by the butcher, and then the people should take sufficient interest in the matter to enforce the laws. The poultry men need watching as well as the drovers and butchers. There is no doubt of the fact that chickens dying of cholera are frequently dressed and sold in the market.

Brace Game Gamblers.
 Vigilance committees once cleared San Francisco of the gambling fraternity, and cleared Vicksburg and divers other places, when the law was powerless and the police afraid. These cities were not much more cursed than Indianapolis is to-day, and the News fears that in a few months of the untrammelled license, which has characterized the past winter, will almost increase the moral element to some such action. There have been sickly raids occasionally, ending in limited fines by the Mayor, and there have been a few indictments of professional gamblers, but the civil authorities utterly and contemptuously fail in curbing, much less eradicating the evil. What has been done, has been done by the City Marshal or the grand jury, and it is well known the trouble the Marshal experienced in securing assistance bravely than other victims, and he tried suicide as a bait. Here is his spectacle of a young boy, almost nineteen years of age, then pawning his watch, jewelry and clothing, of which these robbers despoiled him without conscience. It would have been a braver act, and fully as honorable, to have enticed him into an alley, garroted and robbed him, and besides it would have saved the youth the deep remorse which served him in his suicidal attempt. Somehow the O'Leary saloon has always been a rendezvous for the more heartless class of gambling scoundrels, who ply their victims with the vile whisky poured over that bar and render him powerless for self protection. The O'Leary is thin-skinned, and he frets and champs like a bloated bull, when the press attacks his den, and he raises his hand, a la Irish Heep, and exclaims "Be Jesus, I had nothin' to do with it," when approached on the subject. Occasionally there is a lick amiss, but it will be a sin if for this Saturday night outrage he is not held equally responsible with Cox and that other scoundrel, Downs.

A Curiously Trained Dog.
 [N. Y. Correspondence St. Louis Republician.]
 I was wading about this week to buy cages and dropped into a cellar in Amity street, where a man keeps birds and dogs and monkeys. There I made the acquaintance of a newly imported Scotch terrier of marvelous sagacity and perfect education. But alas, misguided intelligence! He has been for years the accomplice of a London thief, whose little game was played by this dog. He is taught and trained to recognize a pocket-book in a lady's hand, to jump and frisk about her, then to seize the pocket-book and run; his master catches him up and secretes him under his coat and joins the hue and cry after the dog down street. At last he was dropped upon, the little game discovered, and in the court the little dog was principal witness. A lady was walked past being loosely followed by the pocket-book and dog, he seized it and carried it directly to his master. The master was sentenced and the dog bit. He certainly did some astonishing bits of thieving in my presence, stealing a small package from my muff that lay on a chair.

WEATHER REPORT.
 INDIANAPOLIS, March 6-57 A. M.

Chicago, Ill.	20 N clear
Cincinnati, O.	24 N clear
Fort Gibson, Ark.	33 E fair
Fort Sully, D. T.	22 NW cloudy
Indianapolis, Ind.	20 NW clear
Knoxville, Tenn.	24 E clear
North Platte, Neb.	16 S cloudy
Lacrosse, Wis.	22 SE fair
Leavenworth, Kan.	22 E clear
Louisville, Ky.	27 clear
Memphis, Tenn.	29 SW clear
Nashville, Tenn.	30 clear
New Orleans, La.	28 E clear
Omaha, Neb.	30 N clear
Pittsburg, Pa.	27 NW cloudy
Shreveport, La.	27 E clear
St. Louis, Mo.	22 E clear
St. Paul, Minn.	22 SE cloudy
Vicksburg, Miss.	35 SE clear
Yankton, D. T.	25 N snow

New Medical Books.
 Jones & Sievekings' Pathological Anatomy, (new edition)..... $4 00
 Wilks & Moxon's Pathological Anatomy..... 6 50
 Williams' Veterinary Practice..... 10 00
 Salter's Dental Pathology and Surgery..... 4 50
 Steiner on Diseases of Children..... 3 50
 Beard & Rockwell's Medical Dictionary, (new edition)..... 6 25
 Fieber's Electricity for Nervous Diseases..... 75
 Brown on Fevers..... 50
 Carpenter on the Microscope..... 50
 Dobill on Winter Cough, (new edition)..... 3 50

CATHCART & CLELAND,
 26 East Washington Street.

LADIES' FINE STATIONERY
 Latest styles and shapes just received by
JOHN & PORTER,
 Booksellers and Stationers,
 NO. 4 EAST WASHINGTON ST.
CHAMPION Hair Cutting.
 We have refitted, in the finest style, our Tonsorial Parlors, No. 176 Virginia avenue, where we give special attention to all Tonsorial work. Ladies' and Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.

Chas. N. Hayden, M. D.,
 INDIANAPOLIS.
 Office, Franklin Fire Insurance Building, room 4, second floor, corner of Circle and Market streets. Office hours from 10 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4 P. M.

FOR LOW PRICES
 And first-class work, go to GEORGE MOWL, Merchant Tailor, 19 North Illinois st. Cleaning and Renairing a specialty.

Rupture Cured.
 If you wish to CURE your rupture, call and examine DR. ROBINSON'S Self-Adjusting Elastic Truss. You can wear it day and night without the slightest change or inconvenience. No charge for consultation. Office, 17 1/2 Virginia av.

CELEBRATED MICHIGAN FLOUR
 FOR SALE BY
LEACH & SCHAUB,
 Nos. 108 and 110 Massachusetts avenue.

REMOVAL.
 PERRIN & MYERS, Attorneys at Law, have removed their office to No. 20 Thorpe's Block near Court House.
GEORGE K. PERRIN,
DAVID A. MYERS.

NEW HARDWARE STORE.
 Special inducements offered to builders and others. Call at Buchanan's Block, No. 139 Fort Wayne avenue. JOHN CARTER.

INDIANAPOLIS INSURANCE COMPANY.
Bank of Discount and Deposit
 PAY INTEREST ON DEPOSITS.
 Buy and sell Exchange, deal in Commercial Paper, and make Collections in all parts of the United States.
 Office in Company's building, cor. Virginia and Pennsylvania sts., Indianapolis.
WM. EMMETT BROWN, President.
ALVE C. JAMISON, Secretary.

BARTHOLOMEW & DUBS,
 Attorneys and Counselors at Law,
 No. 57 EAST MARKET STREET,
 (Thorpe's Block), INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

GUSTAVUS H. VOSS,
 ATTORNEY AT LAW,
 Nos. 3 to 11 N. W. & New's Block, Indianapolis, Ind. Will practice in the United States and State Courts. Special attention given to Corporation, Bankrupt and Commercial Law, and Collection of Debts.

COLLECTING
 Of all kinds promptly done in the city. Also collect claims in all towns and cities in the United States.
SEAFER & BROWDER,
 40 North Delaware street.

PAINTER'S MANUAL—House and sign painting, gilding, graining, staining, glazing, gluing, silvering, glass-staining, analysis of colors, harmony, contrast, &c., 50 cts. Book of Alphabets, 50 cts. Book of Symbols and Ornaments, 50 cts. Watchmaker and Jeweler's Manual, 50 cts. Taxidermist's Manual, 50 cts. Book-maker's Manual, 25 cts. Employment Seeker's Guide, 25 cts. Of booklets, sent, or by mail.
JESSE HANEY & CO.,
 113 Nassau street, New York.

WOOD ENGRAVER
 CLEANING BLOCK
INDIANAPOLIS

Piedmont Coal.
ENGLE & DREW,
 14 North Pennsylvania Street.

Fire Alarm Signals.
 4 Pennsylvania and Market.
 5 Headquarters Fire Department.
 6 East and New York.
 7 Noble and Michigan.
 8 New Jersey and Massachusetts avenue.
 9 Winston and North.
 10 No. Engine House.
 11 Delaware and Fort Wayne avenue.
 12 New Jersey and Fort Wayne avenue.
 13 Fern and Massachusetts avenue.
 14 Christian and Ash.
 15 Park avenue and Butler.
 16 Harrows and Mallot avenue.
 17 Archer and John street.
 18 College avenue and Seventh.
 19 Alabama and Seventh.
 20 Meridian and Seventh.
 21 Kansas and Lincoln avenue.
 22 Alabama and Morrison.
 23 No. 9 Rose Hotel House.
 24 Pennsylvania and Michigan.
 25 Meridian and Second.
 26 No. 5 Engine House.
 27 Pennsylvania and No. Clair.
 28 Illinois and Michigan.
 29 Pennsylvania and Home avenue.
 30 Mississippi and William.
 31 Pennsylvania and Michigan.
 32 No. 1 Engine House.
 33 City Hall and New York.
 34 California and Vermont.
 35 Blake and New York.
 36 Indiana ave. and St. Clair.
 37 City Hall and New York.
 38 North and Blake.
 39 West and Walnut.
 40 Market and New York.
 41 No. 6 Engine House.
 42 Geisendorf and Washington.
 43 Pennsylvania and Michigan.
 44 Meridian and Washington.
 45 Illinois and Ohio.
 46 Tennessee and Washington.
 47 Kansas and Lincoln avenue.
 48 Indiana, three squares from river.
 49 Missouri and Maryland.
 50 Mississippi and Washington.
 51 No. 4 Engine House.
 52 Illinois and Louisiana.
 53 Mississippi and McCarty.
 54 West and South.
 55 Tennessee and Georgia.
 56 Meridian and Ray.
 57 Madison avenue and Coburn.
 58 Madison avenue and Dunlop.
 59 West and Rockwood.
 60 Market and New York and Merrill.
 61 Union and Morris.
 62 No. 2 Hook and Ladder House.
 63 Meridian and Louisiana (Gas Works).
 64 Delaware and McCarty.
 65 East and McCarty.
 66 Alabama and Virginia avenue.
 67 Virginia ave. and Bradshaw.
 68 East and Coburn.
 69 Pennsylvania and Madison avenue.
 70 McKean and Daugherty.
 71 No. 3 Engine House.
 72 East and Georgia.
 73 Washington and Benton.
 74 Georgia and Benton.
 75 Forrest avenue and Pine.
 76 Dillon and Bates.
 77 Virginia avenue and Dillon.
 78 Huron and Dillon.
 79 Spruce and Prospect.
 80 No. 8 Rose Hotel House.
 81 Washington and Delaware.
 82 Washington and East.
 83 New York and Davidson.
 84 East and Dumb street.
 85 United States Arsenal.
 86 Oriental and Washington.
 87 Female Prison.
 88 Market and Highland.
 89 Market and Noble.
 90 No. 7 Engine House.
 91 Meridian and Georgia.

JOHN YOUNG, Attorney,
 ROOM 8, first stairway south of Postoffice.

T. S. ROLLINS,
 (Late of Logansport, Ind.)
 ATTORNEY, room No. 13 Hubbard Block, Indianapolis, Indiana.

OLIVER M. WILSON,
 Law Office—Room 4 Thorpe's Block, Indianapolis, Indiana, fronting Court street.

Dr. J. A. COMINGOR,
 Office, 76 E. Michigan St.

AUSTIN F. DENNY,
 ATTORNEY AT LAW, Rooms 33 and 35 Thorpe's Block, east of Post Office.

Real Estate
 BY W. E. MICK.

10 room cottage, new and handsome, on Christian avenue; will take some good inside lots or small house; lot in part, or will sell cheap for cash payments.

FOR TRADE.
 2 new cottage houses, unincumbered, on Eighth street, to trade for a house of 7 or 8 rooms, and will pay cash difference.
 Four vacant lots on College avenue to trade for a house and lot or a small farm.
 Two-story frame house, modern style, large lot, finely finished, 10 rooms, cellar, cistern, well, wood-house, etc.; is worth $12,000; can be bought for $7,500—decided bargain.
 Grand residence with 12 rooms, modern appliances; large lot, 67x135, on North Pennsylvania street; will be sold at a bargain for cash payment, or will take some trade property.
 I have a number of the choicest residences on the principal north and south streets to sell or trade.
 Cottage house in northeast part of city to sell at a great bargain—only $1,700.
 Cottage on East Michigan street to sell at a great bargain. Several years will be given on a part of the purchase money—price, $3,800.
 Corn Shelter for sale very cheap, or will trade for a good inside lot—will pay for itself in 60 days—price, only $1,200.
 I have improved property in a great many of the country towns to trade for property in this city, and will assume an incumbrance or pay cash difference.

A WISH.
 Mine be a cot beside the hill,
 With a gallon of ice cream from Pyle's;
 A willow brook that turns a mill
 That grinds the ice to freeze the cream.
 Around my ivied porch shall spring
 The fragrant roses of the cream,
 And Lure on her wedding day,
 Shall have melted ice cream for a big outlay.

17 North Pennsylvania Street.
PYLES.
REPERIODICALS.
OF THE British Periodicals.

The political ferment among the European nations, the strife between Church and State, the discussion of Science and its relation to Theology, and the constant publication of new works on these and kindred topics, will give unusual interest to the leading foreign Reviews during 1875. Nowhere else can the inquiring reader find in a condensed form the facts and arguments necessary to guide him to a correct conclusion.

The Leonard Scott Publishing Company,
 41 Barclay Street, New York,
 Continue the reprint of the four leading Reviews, viz.:
 EDINBURGH REVIEW, (Whig.)
 LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, (Conservative.)
 WESTMINSTER REVIEW, (Liberal.)
 BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEW, (Evangelical.)

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.
 TERMS:
 For any one Review..... $ 4 00 per annum.
 For any two Reviews..... 10 00 "
 For any three Reviews..... 15 00 "
 For all four Reviews..... 20 00 "
 For Blackwood's Magazine..... 4 00 "
 For Blackwood and one Review..... 7 00 "
 For Blackwood and 2 Reviews..... 10 00 "
 For Blackwood and 3 Reviews..... 13 00 "
 For Blackwood and the four Reviews..... 15 00 "
 The Postage will be prepaid by the Publishers without charge to the subscriber, only on the express condition that subscriptions are paid in advance in full at the commencement of each year.

CLUBS.
 A discount of twenty per cent. will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $12 30; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $45, and so on. To clubs of ten or more, in addition to the above discount, a copy gratis will be allowed to the getter up of the club.

PREMIUMS.
 New subscribers (applying early) for the year 1875 may have, without charge, the numbers for the last quarter of 1874 of such periodicals as they may subscribe for. Or, instead, new subscribers to any two, three, or four of the above periodicals, may have one of the "Four Reviews" for 1874; subscribers to all five may have two of the "Four Reviews" for 1874. Neither premiums to subscribers nor discounts to clubs can be allowed unless the money is remitted in full to the publishers. No premiums given to clubs.
 Circulars with further particulars may be had on application.

The Leonard Scott Publishing Company,
 41 Barclay Street, New York.

BOTTOM FIGURES
 At Carpenter's Marble and Granite Works. A splendid selection of Scotch Granite and Marble Monuments. Marble Mantels cheaper than Slate or Iron. N. W. Cor. Meridian and Ohio streets. Branch Office, 16 South Meridian street.

FRANK M. RYAN,
 Silk Hat Manufacturer and Repairer, No. 37 South Illinois street.
 Old hats made over to the latest style and to look like new. Hats blocked while you wait.

INDIANAPOLIS RAILROAD TIME-TABLE.
 DEPART. ARRIVE.

CLAYTON, OH., CHICAGO, & INDIANAPOLIS.
N. Y. & B. Ex. 4:25 a.m.	N. O. Ex. (daily) 7:30 a.m.
Union Accom. 6:25 a.m.	People Ex. 9:45 a.m.
N. Y. Ex. 4:10 p.m.	Union Accom. 7:40 p.m.
N. Y. Ex. (daily) 7:35 p.m.	St. Louis Ex. 7:15 p.m.

Terre Haute, Cincinnati & St. Louis.
 F Line (daily) 4:35 a.m. South Ex. 6:55 p.m.
 Mail Express 4:30 a.m. Express (daily) 9:10 a.m.
 Express (daily) 4:40 p.m. Accommoda. 1:15 p.m.
 Night Express 6:45 p.m. F Line (daily) 6:10 p.m.

Terre Haute, Vandalia & St. Louis.
 Pa. Ex. (daily) 11:25 a.m. F Line (daily) 4:30 a.m.
 St. L. & B. Ex. 8:30 a.m. Mail & Ex. 10:15 a.m.
 Terre Haute Ac. 1:50 p.m. Atlantic Ex. 4:30 p.m.
 Night Express 8:00 p.m. Mail & Accom. 6:30 p.m.

INDIANAPOLIS & ST. LOUIS.
 Day Express 7:40 a.m. Night Express 4:10 a.m.
 Madison Accom. 1:50 p.m. Accommoda. 11:40 a.m.
 Night Express 8:00 p.m. Day Express 6:45 p.m.

INDIANAPOLIS, CINCINNATI & LAFAYETTE.
 (Cincinnati Division.)
 Chi. F. L. daily 4:10 a.m. C. F. Line, dal. 11:16 a.m.
 Kansas Express 7:20 a.m. Green Bay Ex. 12:30 a.m.
 Chi. & St. L. Ex. 6:20 p.m. Green Bay Ex. 9:25 a.m.

Lafayette Acc. 6:05 a.m. C. F. Line, dal. 8:15 a.m.
 C. F. Line, dal. 11:25 a.m. Log's & Laf. Ac. 11:25 a.m.
 Chicago Acc. 12:30 p.m. Pa. Mail & Ex. 5:50 p.m.
 Laf. & Log's Ac. 6:00 p.m. Laf. & Ind' Pa. 10:25 p.m.

INDIANAPOLIS, BLOOMINGTON & WESTERN.
 Pa. Mail & Ex. 12:30 a.m. Night Express 6:50 a.m.
 Madison Accom. 1:50 p.m. Chicago Ex. 11:40 a.m.
 Champlain Acc. 3:40 p.m. Pa. Mail & Ex. 5:50 p.m.
 Night Express 7:20 p.m. Accommoda. 7:35 p.m.

CINCINNATI, HAMILTON & INDIANAPOLIS.
 Mail 7:00 a.m. Mail 1:15 p.m.
 Express 4:00 p.m. Express 8:05 p.m.

INDIANAPOLIS & VINCENNES.
 Vincennes Ac. 6:40 a.m. Spencer Ex. 10:30 a.m.
 Mail & Calro Ex. 9:00 a.m. Vincennes Ex. 11:40 a.m.
 Spencer Ac. 8:45 p.m. Mail & Calro Ex. 6:15 p.m.

INDIANAPOLIS, PERRY & CHICAGO.
 Mail, T & D Ex. 6:30 a.m. Det. & Chi. Ex. 4:15 a.m.
 Kok. & Chi. Ex. 12:30 p.m. Columbus Ac. 9:40 a.m.
 F. W. T. & D. Ex. 3:55 p.m. Pa. Mail & Ex. 5:50 p.m.
 C. & M. City Ex. 11:25 p.m. Mail, T & D Ex. 6:00 p.m.

JEFF, MAD. & INDIANAPOLIS.
 Morning Ex. 4:20 a.m. Night Ex. 11:00 p.m.
 Mail, daily 8:30 a.m. Columbus Ac. 9:40 a.m.
 Evening Ex. 12:30 p.m. Pa. Mail & Ex. 5:50 p.m.
 Day Ex. 7:20 p.m. Day Ex., daily 7:10 p.m.

MAGUIRE HOUSE,
 Now open, East Ohio street, between Pennsylvania and Delaware. Patronage solicited.

DR. F. M. HOOK,
 OFFICE:
 No. 46 1-2 Malott Avenue.

R. HAMMOND Attorney at Law,
 INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
 Office—Rooms 13 and 14 Talbot & New's Block.

JOHN YOUNG, Attorney,
 ROOM 8, first stairway south of Postoffice.

T. S. ROLLINS,
 (Late of Logansport, Ind.)
 ATTORNEY, room No. 13 Hubbard Block, Indianapolis, Indiana.

TRADE PALACE.

All we ask is a comparison of values to prove that we are beating all competition in the prices of

- BLACK SILKS,
- COLORED SILKS,
- OPERA SILKS,
- Striped and Fancy Silks,
- BLACK ALPACAS,
- BLACK MOHAIRS,
- BLACK BRILLIANTINES
- BLACK CASHMEREES,
- Etc., Etc., Etc.

L. S. AYRES & CO.
TRADE PALACE.

N. B.—See Trade Palace Monthly for March. Price five cents a copy.

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER OR IN STOCK,

From $18 to $36 per Dozen.
OVER THIRTY NEW STYLES TO SELECT FROM.

THE "ACME" OF PERFECTION IN FIT, WORKMANSHIP AND MATERIAL.
"THE BEST IS ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST."
For a full stock of Men's Furnishings go to
WALLACE FOSTER'S,
22 East Washington street.

TRY Our Hats. YOU WILL BE PLEASED. BAMBERGER, 16 East Washington St.

HUTCHINSON & CO.,
Newspaper Advertising Agents.
Wright's Block, East Market St.
Insert Advertisements in All Papers in the United States. Estimates free on application.

A few more days of the cheap, closing sale of the Adams & Hatch
STOCK,

At 66 East Washington St. Do not delay, as such an opportunity may never occur again. Remember all kinds of DRY GOODS, from the finest silks to the commonest Calicoes, from a Point Lace Collar to a paper of Hair Pins, are sold cheapest at 66 East Washington St.

Gordon & Hess.

THE EVENING NEWS

MONDAY, MARCH 8, 1875

1 P. M. Barometer.....30.123 Thermometer.....25°

CITY NEWS.

The Evening News has the largest circulation in the city, and is the most desirable medium reaching all classes.

Dr. Homberg is recovering.

Dick Green, convicted of an attempted rape, has been taken to Michigan City.

The Memorial Presbyterian Church has dispensed with Sabbath evening services.

Miss Rappaport addressed the "Free Thinkers" yesterday on "What We Need."

D. J. Booth was taken in on a drunk Saturday and had on his person $1,100 in money.

Drs. Seaton and Everts officiated at the baptism of thirty-two persons in the canal yesterday morning.

The Dean-Sluby fire engine will have a test to-morrow afternoon on the Few York street bridge over the canal.

Twelve persons were received into the membership of the Seventh Presbyterian church at the morning session yesterday.

A party of four ladies called at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum Saturday, but were refused admittance and have made complaint to the Governor.

The L. B. & W. Road have made arrangements to sell round trip tickets to California and return at greatly reduced rates to parties numbering from ten to seventy-five.

A horse attached to one of Connelly's coal carts slipped and fell heavily to the ground, this morning, near the Bates House, sustaining, it is thought, permanent injury.

Councilman Gimber is tearing his forelock in the incubation of an ordinance to purchase so much of the Bluff gravel road as lies between Morris street and the corporation line.

Mrs. M. H. Spades returns this week from New York where she has been prosecuting her musical art for the purpose of securing a benefit which will be tendered here in this city at an early day.

The Stoddard troupe open to-night at the Academy, for four nights only, by presenting "Lawyer Money" in the "Long Strike." Character representations by him are dramatic luxuries.

Members of the Senate and the particular friends of Lieutenant Governor Sexton are raising a purse for the purpose of presenting him with a substantial gift, which will probably be a three hundred dollar horse.

Orders have been issued to the effect that any driver or conductor permitting persons over five years of age to ride on any of the street car lines shall be subject to immediate dismissal from the company's service.

The engine attached to the L. B. & W. express, due here at 7 o'clock this morning, gave out a few miles west of the city and it was necessary to send out a pony engine to bring in the train which arrived an hour late.

To accommodate the public street cars will hereafter run a half hour later on Sunday evenings and on week day nights the last car on the several lines will leave Washington street at half past 10 instead of 11 o'clock.

George Francis and Lewis Workman, hailing from Shelbyville, indulged in a lively set to at the depot waiting rooms Saturday evening, and for the interference of officers blood would certainly have flowed. The trouble began over a disputed rent bill.

The police yesterday, forcibly effected entrance into the residence of Adam Kislitz, 214 Dorman street, to find if possible some clue to its former occupant who is unaccountably missing since last month and nothing was found to indicate his whereabouts.

The alarm of fire yesterday morning was occasioned by the burning of a dwelling house on Clifford avenue occupied by a Mr. Stock, and the property of John Hanway. A defective flue occasioned the fire and the loss will reach $500 on which there is partial insurance.

A spelling match has been arranged for at the Third Presbyterian Church this evening for the benefit of the W. C. T. U., at which Mrs. Oren and George Harding will "choose up" and Enos B. Reed, Judge Martindale and other prominent citizens are expected to participate.

Fletcher Place Church, Trinity and the temperance ladies at the Third Presbyterian Church, have spelling matches to-night. Plymouth and the Bethlehem folks to-morrow evening; the University students Wednesday, and the Memorial people Friday.

Sammy Perkins, Jr., should be happy as a big sunflower, for he has finally secured the discharge of McFadden, a one-armed soldier ballif in his father's Court, and the substitution thereof of a stout able-bodied young man. McFadden's faithful service and his crippled state has gone for naught.

The Jackson Loan and Saving Association have elected the following officers: President, George Lentz; Vice-President, Louis Woerner; Treasurer, J. Wachstetter; Secretary, C. A. Biedemeister; Trustees, Aug. Haefner and Fred. Vogt. The Treasurer's statement shows a balance on hand of $592.82.

Morris Barry addressed the St. John's Temperance Society last evening, and remarks were made by the President, Frank M. Ryan. Songs were given by Miss Mary Bary, Miss Dupan, Mr. William Dougherty, Mr. John McHugo, Mr. O'Neil and Mr. James S. Gibson, and an addition of 15 ladies, 7 men and 5 boys were made to the membership.

TEMPERANCE.

Anniversary Exercises of the W. C. T. U.
The first anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was appropriately opened at Roberts Park M. E. church yesterday afternoon, at which the President, Mrs. J. R. Harvey, delivered an address, reviewing the work of the past year and detailing the history and growth of the crusade movement from its first inception. The Secretary, Mrs. Finch, then submitted a report covering pretty much the same ground as that of the President's. Reference was made to the work accomplished by the Investigating Committee, and the Treasurer remarked that the Union, in its meetings, had never discussed the question of woman suffrage save that its members had asked the right of petition.

The Treasurer, Auretta Hoyt, submitted a statement of the financial condition of the Union, from which it appears the total receipts from voluntary subscription and collections at public meetings foot up $2,301.59, and expenditures for printing, attorneys' fees and incidentals, $2,298.59, with a balance on hand of $3. Bills to the amount of $496.96 remain unpaid.

Miss Hoyt, as Chairman of the Investigating Committee reported that during the year ending March 1, 1875, 322 petitions for liquor permits had been filed with the County Auditor, of which 121 have been refused or withdrawn and 201 granted. Of those defeated, 49 were appealed and the decision reversed, making a total of 72 defeated and 250 granted. There are 248 licensed saloons in the county, only one of which is outside the city, viz: at Cumberland.

The committee, at an outlay of $500.50, met with little success in working up cases for the Grand Jury. The report further states that attorneys who at first represented the interest of the saloon keepers in securing permits now decline to take such cases, alleging that they find it difficult to collect their fees, or are unwilling to be identified with the whisky element.

At the conclusion of the officers' report a number of resolutions were adopted, and those who had been reformed through the efforts of the W. C. T. U., in which they related their own experiences as a warning to others in the audience.

A $3,000 Incendiarism.

Last night a destructive fire occurred at the premises of Edward King, Treasurer of the L. & St. L. Road, who resides three miles east of the city on the National Road. Mr. King's family, save himself had come into the city to attend church services, when shortly before nine o'clock the servant girl observed the barn, which is some distance from the house, in a blaze of fire. The flames had made such headway before discovered that it was impossible to save anything or even rescue the horses and cattle, who perished from suffocation, and were burned to a crisp.

Mr. King estimates his loss, including ten valuable horses, two cows, buggy, wagon and farming utensils, at $3,000, with $500 insurance on the barn, equally divided between the Phoenix and Queen's, of Liverpool. Mr. King is at a loss to account for the origin of the fire, as no one connected with the house had been about the premises within two hours previous to the barn taking fire.

Attempted Suicide.

Saturday night a young step-son of Jacob Freund, living on West Maryland street, was drawn into Cox & Down's gambling hell, over Capt. O'Leary's saloon, where in a "hog" game of faro, he quickly lost his money, and the proceeds secured by pawning his watch, ring, overcoat and vest. Then the boy, stung by the robbery to desperation, secured morphine, which he swallowed after arrival home. An opportune discovery by his mother, and energetic medical treatment alone saved his life; the loss of which should have laid at the door of Capt. O'Leary, and the hell run by Cox & Down, which he permits up stairs.

St. Patrick's Day.

The Irish societies yesterday arranged for a proper celebration of St. Patrick's Day. Mayor Mitchell accepted the invitation to reside and Patrick Ward to grate. Hon. James B. Ryan and Father Fitzpatrick will also talk. The assembly will be had at the Academy, and the city police (32 Irish), Emmet Guards, United Irish Benevolent Society, St. Patrick's Temperance Society, Emerald Benevolent Society, and the Hibernians will participate in the procession.

Memorial Chapel.

Memorial Chapel was formally opened yesterday with a sermon from the pastor Rev. H. A. Edson, and reports from the officers, showing membership 212, total contributions $28,211.78, current expenses $4,036.44, other expenses $2,834. cost of church edifice $17,216.74 (two-thirds of estimated cost of entire structure); total assets $27,869. This is a handsome showing for a church organized two years ago with a membership of 35.

CHRONOMETER, WATCH, CLOCK AND JEWELRY REPAIRING.

W. P. BINGHAM having greatly increased his facilities for Manufacturing and Repairing purposes, is now fully prepared to undertake all work in the Watch, Clock and Jewelry Departments.

DIAMONDS set in every style. GOLD and SET JEWELRY of all kinds made to order and repaired. WATCHES and CLOCKS thoroughly repaired. ENGRAVING in all its branches. None but SKILLED and EXPERIENCED workmen employed, and all work WARRANTED to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.

W. P. BINGHAM, 50 E. Washington St.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

The Largest Stock Ever Offered in This City.
A CHANCE FOR EVERY ONE AT REDUCED PRICES AND ON EASY TERMS.
For Rent, 150 Pianos and Organs
SHEET MUSIC AND MUSICAL MERCHANDISE OF ALL KINDS AT BRADSHAW'S, 44 and 46 and No. 20 East Washington St.

A CARD.

To the Editor of The Evening News.
Permit me to correct a statement made in Friday's evening paper in regard to the Ball, given by the Order of United Americans' Mechanics at Washington Hall the evening of March 4th. King Hoodlum Catterson and others were not present. As to fears of the ball breaking up in a general row, I saw no indications of anything of the kind but everyone present enjoyed themselves without even a thought of the Hoodlums, and gave the society credit of having a ball worth of the name Americans. X

LOCAL ITEMS.

For a capital lunch at noon go to Taggart's bakery, No. 20 South Meridian street. Oysters are served in every style.

Taggart's bakeries are at 117 West Washington street, 20 South Meridian street and No. 5 Martindale's block, North Pennsylvania street.

Ladies' sewed calf shoes $2. at City Shoe Store, No. 8 West Washington street.

Thirteenth Ward.
There will be a meeting of the Democratic voters of the Thirteenth Ward, held at Mandeville's Hall next Friday evening, 12th inst., at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to the City Convention, and for the nomination of a candidate for City Council.
THOMAS BRENNAN,
Chairman.

Fine jewelry repaired in a neat and substantial manner at McLene & Northrop's old reliable Bates House Jewelry Store.

The old reliable Bates House Jewelry Store still remains on the same old corner, and every one who wishes to have a fine watch repaired where it will be carefully handled should leave it with Messrs. McLene & Northrop.

Fowler unequalled in Glaces' Photographs, 24 1/2 East Washington street.

Stale bread at Rockwell's five cents per loaf.

Fine toilet and fancy articles, cosmetics, soaps, pomades, combs, hair, cloth, tooth and nail brushes, cologne sets, dressing cases and all articles wanted for the toilet at lowest figures at Cobb's Corner Drug Store, opposite Hotel Bates and Occidental Hotel.

The first spring like fresh arrival in men and boy's choice suits, can be seen and bought, at Arcade No. 6, at prices to astonish the oldest inhabitant. "See them." t s

The new studio is now open ready for the reception of patrons. Mrs. M. A. Potts, 78 West North street.

Harry Fowler's fine photographs are equal to any made in the country. For proof call at 24 1/2 East Washington street. e s

Browning & Sloan, druggists and dealers in fine perfumery, Lubin's, Rimmel's, Atkinson's, Crown, Sundborg's and Bazin's fine extracts, geranium, farina and German cologne, lavender water and fine toilet and fancy articles.

Largest assortment of brackets at the Novelty Dollar Store. n s

Bowen, Stewart & Co. have an elegant stock of initial note paper, envelopes and stationery generally. n s

Nothing like "Cosmoline" for soothing the roughness of the outer cuticle, chapped hands and sore noses, and thereby "soothing the nerves" of the inner organ, as it were, at Perry's Pharmacy, opposite postoffice, where only the finest chemicals are used in dispensing, and "the best is none too good."

The best arranged and best lighted is Mrs. M. A. Potts's studio, 78 West North street.

The solons are to remain with us for awhile yet, and yet that will not prevent you from giving C. F. Meyer, at No. 11 North Pennsylvania street, a call when you want a good cigar from under Old Fellows Hall.

Ladies will please take notice, and take advantage of the great clearance sale of boots and shoes at the Boot Upside Down, 49 and 53 West Washington street.

New Glassware and Queensware department opened at the Novelty Dollar Store. n s

For the best assortment of boots and shoes for spring wear, go to the Boot Upside Down, 49 and 53 West Washington street.

The ladies will find the best place for pictures to be at Mrs. M. A. Potts's photographic studio, No. 78 West North street.

Towels cheapest at the Dollar Store. n s

It is with great pleasure that Harry Craft invites everybody to call at his Jewel Hall, 24 East Washington street, and examine the many beautiful specimens of solid silver and plated ware he has in his cases. There are many new and elegant patterns and designs, which are suitable to be placed in any establishment in this or any other city. Temptation prices marked on everything, and engraving free of charge.

THIS WEEK

Commencing to-day, we will offer some big

BARGAINS

IN

BLACK SILKS

Having just bought an immense stock of these goods very cheap, we now offer them at prices that must warrant their speedy sale.

Call and See Them.

CLOSE & WASSON,

Bee Hive.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

James Montgomery,
Practical horse-clipper. All orders will be promptly attended to by leaving the same at the stable of Smith & Cole, 77 and 79 Wabash street, Indianapolis, Indiana. Charges very moderate. e t

Photographs
Finished in crayon, India ink and water colors. Other specialties: Oil portraits, plain and colored, porcelain pictures. Jenkins' Art Chambers, 16 1/2 East Washington street. e s

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

OF THE

MERIDIAN NATIONAL BANK,

AT INDIANAPOLIS,
In the State of Indiana, at the close of business, March 1st, 1875:

RESOURCES.
Bills of exchange and notes discounted.....	$566,824 09
Overdrafts.....	4,708 05
U. S. bonds to secure circulation.....	300,000 00
Premium on bonds.....	21,000 00
Furniture and fixtures.....	4,415 39
Current expense.....	2,008 97
Rent account.....	625 00
Taxes (including interest).....	2,849 19
Due from National Banks and Bankers.....	$78,370 57
Due from redeeming and reserve agents.....	32,067 23—110,437 80
CASH.
Legal tender notes.....	65,500 00
Checks and cash items.....	14,710 13
Bills of other national banks.....	3,000 00
Fractional currency, (including nickel).....	8,004 41—82,014 54
LIABILITIES.
Capital stock paid up.....	$300,000 00
Surplus fund.....	20,000 00
Premium, discount and exchange.....	11,586 47
Circulating notes.....	270,000 00
Individual deposits.....	258,215 94
Due to National Banks and Bankers.....	235,372 62 493,588 56

I, J. G. Kennedy, Cashier of the Meridian National Bank of Indianapolis, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

J. G. KENNEDY, Cashier.
State of Indiana, County of Marion:
Subscribed and sworn to before me this eighth day of March, A. D. 1875.
J. B. McCHESNEY, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
FRED. FAHNEY,
R. S. FOSTER,
J. G. KENNEDY, Directors.

JUNE'S,

91 East Market St.,
FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

SHELL OYSTERS:

Stewed.....25 Rolled, on Toast.....30
Boston Stew.....35 Roast, in Shell.....30
Box Stew.....35 Pan Roast.....25
Fried.....25 Raw, Half-shell.....25
Served in the famous Fulton Market Style.

MEALS AT ALL HOURS.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.—I will sell at a private sale on the 20th day of March, 1875, at his late residence, one and a half miles north of Indianapolis, as Administrator of the estate of Samuel Pinkerton, deceased, the following property: One work horse, one set double harness, one lumber wagon, one breaking plow, one garden seed drill, hot bed sash, cultivator and harrow.
e t & v u B. C. SWAN, Adm'r.

REMOVAL.

J. R. MAROT,

Dealer in Old and New Furniture,
24 South Delaware St.

PETTICOATS

AND Pantaloon.

It is said that "This world has not yet produced her grandest specimens of the female form. Petticoat have never yet been dragged upon herpin anatomy, disarranged her vital organs, and made her truly a wretched remnant of a past glory. No earthly salvation for people whose women wear petticoats instead of pantaloons."

This is a serious mistake. There is salvation for women who wear petticoats, and relief for their ailments if they will use

SNYDER'S

Celebrated Bitter Cordial

A trial will convince you of the great merits of this Cordial, not only for female troubles, but also for Disease of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. All good Druggists keep it. Only One Dollar per bottle. Wholesale and Retail Warehouse, 68 East Market Street, Indianapolis.

SHIDELER, SNYDER & CO.,

General Agents.

Look! Look!

$1,200,000 IN PRIZES!

The Grandest Single Number Scheme on Record will be drawn in public in St. Louis on March 31st, 1875.

Capital Prize, $100,000!

MISSOURI STATE LOTTERIES,

Legalized by State Authority.

MURRAY, MILLER & CO., Managers,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

1 Prize of.....$100,000
1 Prize of.....50,000
1 Prize of.....25,000
1 Prize of.....20,000
2 Prizes of.....10,000
10 Prizes of.....5,000
20 Prizes of.....2,500
100 Prizes of.....1,000
And 11,451 other Prizes of from $1.50 to $50, amounting in the aggregate to $1,200,000!

Whole Tickets $20; Halves, $10; Quarters, $5.00.
Prizes payable in full and no postponement of drawings takes place. Address for tickets and Circulars, MURRAY, MILLER & CO., P. O. Box 2465, St. Louis, Mo.

WHEN

SATURDAY, MARCH 20.

YOU WANT

INSURANCE.

NON-BOARD—NO COMBINATION
STRONG COMPANIES

HERE THEY ARE:
WESTERN, of Canada, Assets, $1,400,000.
GIBBARD, of Pennsylvania, Assets, $875,000.
MERCHANTS, of Newark, Assets, $820,000.
PEOPLES, of Memphis, Assets, $475,000.
PEOPLES, of Newark, Assets, $420,000.
LANCASTER, Pennsylvania, Assets, $400,000.
PHENIX, of St. Louis, Assets, $250,000.

WITH CALDWELL, BROWN & CO.,
No. 70 East Market Street.

MACNEALE & URBAN'S

Fire and Burglar-Proof Safes.
P. K. LANDIS, Agent,

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
OFFICE—Nos. 3 and 4 Talbot Block.

ED. HASSON & CO.,

LEADING HATTERS,
Have introduced the "BROADWAY" for Spring. They also show some elegant styles in STIFF AND SOFT HATS.

NO. 20 NORTH PENNSYLVANIA ST.

REMOVAL--G. F. ADAMS & CO.

HAVE JUST REMOVED TO THE
New Exchange Block,
NOS. 78 AND 80 NORTH PENNSYLVANIA ST.,
And offer the most complete stock of STOVES, RANGES, FURNACES, Etc., to be found.

BELL & ISHERWOOD,

56 N. Pennsylvania St., (Talbot's New Block)
HARDWARE AND CUTLERY!
A FULL ASSORTMENT OF NEW GOODS—PRICES LOW.
HAVE OPENED AND ARE NOW READY FOR BUSINESS

REMOVAL.

L. SIERSDORFER
Has removed his BOOT and SHOE Store from 41 E. Washington street, to No. 54 North Pennsylvania street, where can be found the finest stock of Men's, Ladies' and Children's Boots and Shoes. Boots and Shoes made to order on short notice.

REMOVAL.

C. A. GREENLEAF,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE AND WAREROOM TO
NO. 26 EAST GEORGIA ST.,
Next Door to Shaw's Carriage Store.

MONEY SAVED

By insuring your dwellings in the WATERTOWN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY of New York. The Company confines its business to insuring Dwelling property only, taking no Commercial or Business risks, and with assets of more than $2,000,000. It affords security equal to the best, and at very reasonable rates. Call at Room No. 8 Martindale's Block, opposite Postoffice, and get a policy of

W. L. MORROW, Agent.

NIBLOCK, MERRIFIELD & CO.

Mine the best BLOCK COAL offered in this market.
Also deal in Coke, Anthracite and Pittsburg Coal.

OFFICE, 79 WEST WASHINGTON STREET

BRYCE'S BREAD

BRYCE'S Milk Bread, BRYCE'S Butter Crackers, and BRYCE'S Snags are sold by the leading grocers or may be obtained at BRYCE'S STEAM BAKERY, Nos. 14 and 16 East South street.

The Neatest Store in the City.

The Finest Stock of WALL PAPERS and WINDOW SHADES in the City.
FINE WORK A SPECIALTY.
MELZAR DUNBAR, 74 North Pennsylvania St.