MARY CHURCHILL. She is Discovered in This City by Superintendent Fletcher, of the Insane Hospital, and Restored to Her Parents—Her Story Without Sensational Features.

Mary Churchill, daughter of Col. James O. Churchill, of St. Louis, the sixteen-year-old girl, whose sudden disappearance from her home in St. Louis the evening of August 19 created such a sensation, and for whom the police of the entire country have been looking ever since, was discovered in this city Saturday evening in the insane hospital.

On September 4 a girl, calling herself Jennie Lockwood, applied to Dr. W. B. Fletcher, superintendent of the hospital, for employment. He was struck by her elegant bearing, and becoming convinced that she was deserving of the position, he engaged her for the week ending Saturday evening.

When she remained until Saturday evening, during her stay it was observed that she was quiet, industrious and frugal, and that she was a competent pianist. Her hair, which was as Mary Churchill's was not discovered until Saturday evening. Dr. Fletcher, late in the afternoon, happened to see a paragraph in one of the city papers to the effect that it was believed Mary Churchill was in this city.

The idea instantly occurred to him that the girl was the same as the girl who had been reported to have been in the insane hospital. He instantly telephoned to the police headquarters that the girl was at the asylum. Thomas J. Gallagher, of the St. Louis Police Department, who had been in the city several days in search of the girl was at the police station at the time and on getting the word, hurried to the asylum having in his possession a photograph of Miss Churchill.

On meeting Dr. Fletcher he showed the picture to him and it was at once recognized as that of the girl who had been reported to have been in the insane hospital at once for her, but it was discovered that she had gone to the city in company with Annie Holtzen, a fellow domestic. Mr. Gallagher then went to the Holtzen residence, 453 Locust street, accompanied by Mrs. Talbot, the chief of the ironing department of the asylum. The girl being called for by Mrs. Talbot, she was recognized by Mr. Gallagher the instant she entered the room, and seeing her identity was discovered she confessed it.

She told the story of her flight from home, which was left on the evening of August 19, while her father and mother were out driving. At the St. Louis depot she was met by a man who brought her to Indianapolis. On her arrival here she spent the night at Hunt's hotel and the next morning sought an intelligence office, and directed to the Brunswick hotel, where she was given employment as a chambermaid. Not liking the work, she left the hotel, and went to the insane asylum where she was employed as stated. As soon as her identity was established a telegram was at once sent to her father, who took the first train for Indianapolis, arriving at the asylum the following afternoon. In the meantime Miss Churchill's cousin, Dr. Van Valzoh, of Terre Haute, had come over and recognized the girl as being the same as the girl who had been reported to have been in the insane hospital.

Her father, who was accompanied by Mrs. Talbot, took the girl to the Grand hotel. Colonel Churchill and Dr. Fletcher then proceeded to the Spencer house, from which she was taken to the residence of her father, where she was given employment as a chambermaid. Not liking the work, she left the hotel, and went to the insane asylum where she was employed as stated. As soon as her identity was established a telegram was at once sent to her father, who took the first train for Indianapolis, arriving at the asylum the following afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Knight will begin a limited engagement at the Grand, appearing in "Bronco" Howard's comedy drama, "Baron Rudolph" the best play in their repertoire. Mr. Knight is a comedian of great talent and his support is said to be good. Miss Lizzie May Ulmer will appear at English in Jouquins Miller's "Forty-Nine," assuming the role of "Carrie." Miss Ulmer has made a success of this play in the east, and will doubtless draw good houses.

At the Park, Harry Miner's Comedy Four will begin a week's engagement. The company is a very strong one including Murphy, Mack, Murphy and Shannon, Miss Mollie Wilson, the Jaskley twins, Charles and Ella, and Les Peasley, the Westlys, Carlo Benedict, Katsushin, the Japanese and others.

On the 15th, there is a week from next Thursday, Clara Morris will appear at the Grand Opera house in "Article 47." In the peculiar life of her genius she is the greatest actress in the world, and it is a matter of course that she will appear here in only one performance. The prices will be the same as those for the Broadway season.

shall be retained by my said wife." The amount of this legacy was subsequently changed by the testator, and the residue of the estate was given to his wife, Elizabeth, and her heirs forever. She afterwards married and the said Elizabeth refused to pay the legacy, claiming that it ceased at the marriage of said Martha. This was a suit to recover an annual installment of the legacy. Elizabeth argued that by the action to recover the legacy the husband of Elizabeth was revived as a party defendant. (104 Ind. 37; 19 Wis 323.) As to whether the condition annexed to the gift of the residue of the estate, which provided that the legacy should cease whenever Martha should marry, was a condition of the marriage and void and after such marriage Martha would still be entitled to the legacy as a trustee and personally liable. (Perry on trusts, sec. 512.)

MARKET REPORT. Indianapolis Wholesale Market-Daily Report. The dry goods market opens rather quiet and numerous auction sales of woolen fabrics in New York, at a lower range of prices, has had a tendency to depress the market here. The market is generally quiet, with a few exceptions. Cottons are about steady and moderately active. Business in groceries shows no remarkable protraits beyond the average humdrum of a daily routine. The vim of speculative trading has been somewhat lessened by the fact that every Irishman will respond to the call of the committee, who are all responsible men and will push the matter vigorously. The committee on subscription is composed of the following gentlemen: John Caron, Capt. C. H. O'Brien, McGettigan, Edward F. Hart, Capt. Jas. McHugh, Dr. Sullivan, John J. Thos. Burns, Timothy O. Reardon, Patrick Manley, J. H. Keenan, Pat Walsh, William Curry, J. W. McFarlane, John Roland, P. W. Kennedy, and P. J. Keltner.

Poison. Mercury has produced more misery and made more cripples than war, pestilence and famine combined. If you have any blood disease or skin humor, it is your duty to yourself and posterity to take the only vegetable cure, which is Swift's Specific.

FOR LADIES. I have been using, for a month or two in my household, Swift's Specific (U. S. S.), the greater portion of it having been consumed by the female portion of my family, and with the happiest results. It acted like a charm on my wife, who had been in bad health for a long time, and for whom I have paid hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicines. It began to build her up from the first dose. Another female member of my family took it with equally satisfactory results. It is certainly the best tonic for delicate ladies that I have ever used, and I have exercised close confinement in poorly ventilated houses, severe colds, and malarial fevers, and it has produced sickness among my daughters and sisters, and I believe Swift's Specific is the remedy for all these evils of blood poisoning.

TREATMENT OF CANCER. For twenty years I have suffered from a cancer on the side of my neck near the shoulder. I have exhausted the whole catalogue of remedies without any relief. The cancer growing worse all the time, the whole upper part of my body became stiff and full of pain. I had virtually lost the use of both arms, my general health had broken down and I saw it was only a question of time when life itself would be destroyed. In this condition I commenced the use of Swift's Specific. The first relief I received was the stiffness in the neck, the second gave me perfect use of my arms, and I feel strong and well. I have not had a recurrence of the cancer since I commenced the use of Swift's Specific. I believe it will cure all the cancer and skin diseases mentioned in the enclosed list. W. R. ROBINSON, Davenport, Iowa. Our treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free to all who send for it. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga.

Judge Woods will call the law docket for issues in the federal court, at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The remains of Philip A. Brown, who was killed by a cyclone in Arizona, in July last, reached here to-day and were interred at Crown Hill.

Last evening the water works made connections, and for the first time for two weeks the pressure was had. It came in good time for the work last night.

The damage suit of David Pearson vs. Charles Patterson, which was set to hearing at 10 o'clock, was postponed to 11 o'clock on a change of venue, has been returned by agreement.

The police board met this morning, and determined that all persons in the city should be kept closed to-morrow, on account of the election in the Fourth ward.

Prof. Collett, state geologist, has been appointed one of the judges of the mineralogical department of the Louisville exhibition, and will attend to-morrow or next day.

Latest advices by wire from New York quote the market there in a position to warrant an 8c quotation for turkeys here, instead of 7c, as quoted in another column.

Thomas Tucker and Shelton H. Jolly have gone to the police court, the former for stealing $1.75 from Ira Roane, and the latter on charge of taking an overcoat from Allison Jones.

The supreme court commissioner, made vacant by the resignation of Judge Morris, has been tendered by Judge Zollars to Walpole G. Colerick, of Fort Wayne, ex-congressman.

It is whispered that the pins are set for Mr. Herndon to succeed Mr. Layman as president of the aldermanic board. This is an honor upon which the eyes of Alderman Pritchard are set.

Richard T. Comer and wife, of Frenchtown, Harrison county, the former the head center of the counterfeiting gang arrested last week, were brought here last night by Detective Hobbs, who accompanied them to their arrest unaided, and under circumstances reflecting in the highest degree upon his skill and courage.

Comer made the spurious gold and silver coins circulated by the Honeheer gang, in which work he was assisted by his wife. He was a man who had already "done time" for this and graver offenses, and as he always went heavily armed, and was constantly on the alert, there were apprehensions that the arrest would be attended with more or less bloodshed, particularly if upon hearing of the Pike county raid, he stood his ground.

On Friday Captain Abbott left Detective Hobbs in Pike county to gather up some additional evidence against the parties already under arrest, for Comer was already decided to defer Comer's arrest until some indefinite time in the future; but after Abbott's departure Hobbs determined upon attempting the task alone.

The risks which he underwent and the stratagems to which he resorted, if detailed, would read like a romance, for he played a part well worth the name of a "thrust" in his hands, and not only that, but Hobbs made him hand-over-hands with the materials for the counterfeit manufacture, a double-barreled shotgun heavily loaded, and three revolvers. Hastily bundling his "spoils" into a wagon, he drove to the nearest station, took the first train, and last evening surprised Captain Abbott by presenting the dreaded counterfeiter and his wife to him in person.

It was a big feat in detective circles, the best of all the good work done by this promising young secret service officer, and one for which he will doubtless receive the thanks of the department.

Comer acknowledges his crime, and is willing to do the guilty, and his wife will do the same. His arrest completes the work which the secret service set out to perform ten months ago. The preliminary examination of the accused has gone over until next week.

Sanitary Condition of Public Schools. The state health board is daily receiving a large number of reports as to the sanitary condition of the school-houses in the state. County health officers and school teachers are showing an unusual interest in the matter, and the reports coming in are very complete and abundant in interesting data.

The question whether the doors of the school-houses swinging outwardly in compliance with the laws of the state is almost invariably answered in the negative. In very few of the country school houses is any attention paid to the cleanliness or disinfection of the privies. In some instances as many as fifty privies are crowded into rooms twenty feet square. But little attention, in a majority of cases, appears to be given ventilation. One teacher reports the water furnished to schools as tasting badly and he views the proximity of two grave yards suspiciously.

The report of Dr. Hurty, the chemist, showing the bad quality of water supplied the schools in Indianapolis is regarded with a good deal of satisfaction by the local health board, as confirming the reports of its own sanitary officers recently made. One of the school authorities said this morning in answer to the question what school board proposes to do about it, that he believed the water to be no worse than pupils found at their own homes.

The Civil Rights Decision. To the Editor of The Indianapolis News. It seems to make the angels weep: A Cheap John job-later masquerading under the cloak of editorial, and criticizing in to-day's Journal, the decision of the supreme court of the United States. Candidly, Mr. Editor, has there not been enough "rot" written about this decision? It is enough to say of this opinion that it is the final decision of one of the highest courts of the world, and is concurred in by ninety-nine per cent. of the legal profession of the country. Indeed, it is not too much to say that no prudent lawyer who cares anything for his reputation, has doubted the correctness of the conclusion reached by the court. At any rate, it is the law. It is morally certain that no law of like import will ever again be passed by congress and upheld by the courts. Such a thing could not be done without a constitutional amendment to the constitution. And it is safe to say that not many intelligent men think such an amendment will be made; not because the sovereign people have not a perfect right to make such amendment, if they feel so disposed, but simply because there is no reason or occasion for such action. Then why do intelligent men and newspapers indulge in all this fuss? It may serve the purpose of each political party to get the other by the ears. The Democrats, with their characteristic tendency for blundering, are trying to make capital of it, when most people would think they have lost to gain by an agitation of the question than anybody else. The Republicans probably will not be slow to take advantage of the blunder of their enemies. If this is what it all means, it is right. For a class of men who have no more political sense than the democrats have displayed in this matter, is not competent to administer the government. I admire the attitude of The News upon this question.

Everybody should read the Farm, Herd and Home for November. Contains interesting and valuable matter and is the boss number.

Now is the time of year when the wayfaring man is beguiled with advertisement such as "Going out of business," "Stock must be closed out in thirty days," "Slaughter sales," "Ruinous prices," "Goods sold for less than cost," "We retail goods at wholesale prices," etc. This sensational sort of advertising may deceive the unwary, but intelligent people pay no attention to it. Merchants find that a plain straightforward presentation of their goods is the kind of advertising that brings returns.
