had its origin in the furnace-room in the basement. The house was of brick and stone and was in the hands of the plasterers who were putting on the finishing touches. It cost $10,000.

A Fair Excuse.

"Perkins has gone to California for his health," said a certain person. "How did he lose his health?" "By earning the money to go to California."

Quills—I've a great mind to write a book.

Quills—I doubt it. Quills—Doubt what? That a great mind will write a book. Quills—No; that you have a great mind.

THE MID-WEEK QUOTATIONS

WEDNESDAY'S MARKETS IN ALL THE GREAT STAPLES.

Breadstuffs-Provisions-Live Stock

Wheat-to-day was about as erratic as usual. There was a show of firmness early, but later Liverpool was lower. Later cables came better, showing little change from last night's market. Paris was up 30 centimes and Antwerp 1 1/2 centimes. A few prominent trades gave the market support, and the opening was scored. Later, on a report of weakness in New York caused by deliveries on February contracts and news that would arrive from Pennsylvania, Maryland and Ohio, the market showed decided weakness. There was a drop of 1/4c from the high point of the day to 1 1/2c at 10:30. Northwest was 2/4c, and sold 2 1/2c last week and 2 1/2c last. Primary receipts were 77,000 bushels, against 250,000 bushels last year. Exports were 157,000 bushels. New York and St. Louis early were a little higher, but later declined, following Chicago closely. The market was the same of fifteen boat-loads for export account. There is very little trading in February. The nominal quotations at the close were: No. 1, 85c; No. 2, 84c; No. 3, 83c; No. 4, 82c; No. 5, 81c; No. 6, 80c; No. 7, 79c; No. 8, 78c; No. 9, 77c; No. 10, 76c; No. 11, 75c; No. 12, 74c; No. 13, 73c; CASHIER QUINLAN RESIGNS

LOANED $893,000 OF THE BANK'S MONEY WITHOUT AUTHORITY.

The Confession Made by the Cashier of the Chemical National Bank of New York in His Letter to the Directors.

New York, February 2.—William J. Quinlan, Jr., cashier of the Chemical National Bank, has resigned his position.

He acknowledged in a letter to the directors that he had loaned $893,000 of the bank's money without consulting the president and without the approval of the directors.

Mr. Quinlan's resignation is as follows: New York, January 21, 1898. To the Directors of the Chemical National Bank:

Gentlemen:—Within the last few months I have made loans, without consulting the president, to the amount of about $893,000 on collaterals which I know that you would not approve, and hence I have concealed these loans from you by means which were not right.

I have not been interested personally in them, and have not received a dollar of the proceeds of them, nor in but one instance received any benefit from them, and then but for a moderate amount; nor have I speculated to the extent of a single share in Wall street.

Mr. Williams, president of the bank, said to-day: "We think that absolutely the worst is known, and we are strongly in the hope that Mr. Quinlan's expectations are true, and that a large part of the money will be recovered."

The Chemical National Bank is one of the most prosperous institutions of its kind in the country, and should all the amount loaned by Mr. Quinlan prove a loss, the bank's credit would not be affected.

TWO SCORES OF LIVES

BRAVE MEN WHO HAVE SAVED THAT MANY.

They Live by the Falls in the Ohio River and Cheerfully Risk Their Own Lives to Save Others.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

Jeffersonville, Ind., February 2.—Between Jeffersonville and New Albany a road winds along the northern banks of the Ohio, which, short as it is, has few equals in the world for picturesque beauty and historical interest.

It traverses the old town of Clarksville through its entire length, and turns in and out through rocky shade and pretty suburbs, through Guinea bottom, where lived the first negro slaves brought to Indiana.

It is a child's play to push off from the shore, and in a few minutes to have broken loose above, during the night, as it usually does, tearing and rending barges, steamers, house-boats and anything else that was carrying its load.

They cheerfully set out in a gale, when the river sweeps along more than bank full, a majestic mass of irresistible waters, and save those that have been swept away, the "beautiful river" is most dangerous at this, its beautiful period.

It has been universally granted that the "meet" in Philadelphia every year is the best thing in the way of amusements. There is nothing mean about it, and it is a very good thing to do, according to his own words.

WATER COMPANY'S PUMP

THE HIGHEST PIECE OF MACHINERY IN THE STATE.

It Will Pump 24,000,000 Gallons of Water a Day—It is Built Here in Fifty-Six Freight Cars.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

The largest and mightiest piece of machinery in the State of Indiana is at the upper pumping station of the Indianapolis Water Company.

The capacity of the engine is one million gallons an hour. It weighs 2,300,000 pounds, and fifty-six cars were required to bring it to this city.

It is a single-acting pump, plunging each thirty-three inches in diameter, all having a common stroke of sixty inches.
