THE SPORTING WORLD. GAME IS DECLARED OFF. BAD WEATHER PREVENTS BUTLER-INDIANAPOLIS GAME.

Pittsburg and Cincinnati League Teams will be Played—The Schedule Meeting. Manager Watkins, who stayed at home to keep house for the Indianapolis baseball club, was at the grounds, yesterday, superintending the work there, and consuming his leisure time discussing the weather. Watty felt discouraged. He said that Indianapolis had become the clearing-house for the weather, and that a man never knew whether to go bare-foot or wear snow-shoes. Watty also asserted that the weather hereabouts is as fickle as a woman's mind, or like Goldstein's luck—sometimes it is bad, and sometimes it is good. While thus discussing the weather Watty lifted his eyes to the cloud-flecked sky, and saw there a large "V" floating toward the north. It passed directly over the ball park. It was made by a flock of wild ducks taking advantage of excursion rates to reach the great lakes of the north for the summer. "Hi! Hi!" shouted Watty. "Everyone stared at him. He pointed to the sky. "It will be warm to-morrow," said Watty, smiling. This morning Mr. Watkins announced that the birds were not ducks, but snow birds, and that the game with Butler College, University of Indianapolis, had been postponed on account of the sleet and ice at the park. Watty also authorizes the statement that he has abandoned all confidence in the usual and ordinary signs of good weather, and that hereafter he will be a "thorough Missourian—from Joplin."

Games with Pittsburg. To-morrow the Hoosiers expect to begin a series of three games with Pittsburg. "Rube" Waddell is on the pitching staff of the Pirates, and among others known here are Fred Ely and Clarke. Sunday the Hoosiers are to play in Cincinnati with their regular team, while the Indianapolis "Reserves" will play the Matthews (Ind.) team at Matthews. Monday the regular team again plays in Cincinnati, and Tuesday Cincinnati plays here. Wednesday of next week the Regulars play the Reserves. If the American League season does not open until the 15th of next week, Indianapolis will play Dayton here, April 20 and 21, and in Dayton, April 22 and 23. The schedule meeting of the American League will be held at Chicago, to-morrow. When President Johnson left Hot Springs he said the schedule he had prepared fixed April 19 as the opening day. Many of the clubs, however, favor a later date—April 25—if it comes. The dates named. President Watkins will leave to-night for Chicago.

Condition of Stewart. The Indianapolis players returned from St. Louis, last night. They report snow and ice, and that the game with St. Louis is getting well, and he and Hickey will be in the game with Pittsburg to-morrow. Hickey has reported in good physical condition by reason of his training at Memphis. He says Stewart did not have smallpox at Memphis, but that he had slight varioloid. He has completely recovered and waits only settled on favorable conditions before joining the club here. In the games to-morrow Heydon and Powers will do the catching.

STATE LEAGUE PROSPECTS. Five Cities Are in Line, All Waiting on Wabash. The fact that Elwood is no longer a candidate for a franchise in the State league may cause the schedule meeting for to-morrow to be postponed, unless the Wabash megaphone promoters suddenly stop their long-range talking and come to the front. Throughout the winter, more talk came from Wabash than from any of the other cities, and it appeared that the future of the league rested with Wabash. The promoters in that city were excellent boomers, and the league prospered on paper. At its recent Kokomo meeting, however, which meant business from the jump, President Hill received a message from the Wabash man, saying that he could not be present, but that his city was wild for baseball, and to go ahead with the schedule, as he would submit any action the other magnates might take. This sounded well, but the other magnates preferred to have the Wabash man put up his money, and it was decided to postpone the adoption of the schedule until last Sunday, when the magnates were ordered to report at Anderson. Again there was a hitch over Wabash, and the secretary was authorized to see just what the trouble is. Another city may have to be secured.

The other five cities in the league are in first-class shape. All have strong local backing and are well equipped with finances. Several teams are already made up and players have begun to report. With another good week from the equal of Anderson, Muncie, Marion, Kokomo or Logansport, the outlook for a successful season of State League ball would be brighter than ever before. It is unfortunate that, just at the last minute, one of the six original cities should fail to come. The original schedule called for a four months' season. Business men are behind each of the clubs, and the leagues will be run on strictly business principles.

DR. HARLEY PARKER SIGNED. The Ball Player's Friend will Play with Minneapolis. Dr. Harley Parker, who has bobbed in and out of the league four or five times during the season, has again signed with Minneapolis. Parker, in addition to being a fair pitcher and a first-class utility man, is undoubtedly one of the best baseball physicians in the country. During the winter months he practices with his father in Chicago, and has made a special study of massage. In the last three years he has had occasion to treat many a dead baseball arm, and there are a number of National and American League players who owe their lives to his treatment. Among the veteran Millers he has treated a number of his patients. The fourteen men signed by Minneapolis, ten have "dinky" arms or worn-out legs, which will have to be carefully treated. Dr. Parker prepared several liniments for different ailments which afflict ball players in the early spring, and has received orders from some players in nearly all of the National and American League clubs for one or more of his preparations. The duties of house surgeon, however, do not seriously interfere with his ball playing. He is a strong man to have in any club.

Logansport's Team. (Special to The Indianapolis News.) LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 11.—Manager John S. Ray, of the Logansport League ball team, has signed two Logansport players, Walter Shewmon, pitcher, and Bert Hazel, third base. Other promising local players will receive a trial. Jake Cuppy, a brother of George Cuppy, of the Cleveland, and one of the fastest amateur pitchers in this part of the State, has been signed by the Wabash manager. The players now under contract as members of the Lo-

SETTLED IN ADVANCE. Craig and Allen Elected Delegates by Acclamation. (Special to The Indianapolis News.) CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., April 11.—The preliminaries to the district convention here were interesting. An effort was made to defeat W. H. Craig, of Noblesville, who wanted to be a delegate to the national convention, W. H. Marker, of Tipson, as chairman, and J. A. Noblesville, as chairman, and J. A. Noblesville, was also mentioned. It was finally decided to allow the delegates to make a choice between them, and Craig won. Marker and Kane were unable to make any impression on the supporters of James Allen, of Fountain county, the other candidate for delegate. When the Republican district convention was called to order, this morning, the fight for the two delegations was quiet and uninteresting. An effort to have no opposition, Mr. Marker, of Tipson, relinquishing the contest last night, was called the meeting to order, and a permanent organization was effected by the election of Judge Neal, of Noblesville, as chairman, and J. A. Greene, of Crawfordville, secretary. The fight having been made and won last night, the proceedings were quiet and harmonious. Mr. Marker making the motion that Craig and Allen be elected delegates by acclamation. Speeches were made by Captain Hart, U. S. Hunt, Leopold Levy, Judge Haggard and others.

NICARAGUAN EXPEDITION. Reported It Holds a Town in Disputed Territory. NEW YORK, April 11.—A dispatch to the Herald from Kingston, Jamaica, says: Your correspondent has interviewed persons arriving on a packet from Colon regarding the military expedition which it is reported, landed on Colombian soil on March 31. They say that the expedition started from some Central American port, and went ashore near David, a town in a borderland territory claimed by both Costa Rica and Colombia. The report says the expedition marched inland toward David, which it is believed, was taken without much resistance, as the garrison there consisted of only fifty men. The expedition started under General Herrera. It is composed of two hundred men. It has six small mountain guns, five hundred extra rifles and considerable ammunition. The United States cruiser Philadelphia sighted the vessel which carried the expedition to Colombia on the Nicaragua coast, and followed the craft to Punta Arenas. Indians in New York. RAILROAD STOCK

ALL OF IT HAS NOW BEEN SUBSCRIBED FOR.

Bates House Soon to be Demolished to Give Place to the New Building.

The stockholders and directors of the Indiana Hotel Company met at the Bates House, last evening, to study the plans and secure the sale of the remaining stock on the new hotel, the Claypool, which is to be erected on the site of the Bates.

The plans for the interior were presented and demonstrated by Mr. Andrews, the architect. They were enthusiastically approved by all present.

The secretary made a financial exhibit of the stock sales and other financial conditions of the enterprise, which, together with the architect's plans, so satisfied the stockholders that they subscribed for the unsold stock, which amounted to over $74,000, thus completing the total requirement of investment up to $700,000, and leaving no obstacle to stand in the way of going on with the erection of the building.

The next several weeks will be devoted to the detailed preparation of the plans and specifications, which will be supervised directly by E. F. Claypool, Henry W. Lawrence, Mr. Andrews and an executive committee of the directors. Immediately upon the plans and specifications being completed, bids will be taken from some of the largest building firms in the country and local contractors will also have the opportunity of bidding.

Mr. Claypool, Mr. Lawrence and the directors have decided that no steps will be taken to remove the old building until the new one is in every detail and not until a large proportion of the structural steel, that is to go into the building, is delivered on the premises. By this means no time will be lost in the erection of the building. The contractors say that it is impossible to say just when these conditions will be fulfilled, but the work will be carried forward as rapidly as it can be handled.

AT THE RUMMAGE SALE.

Stock is Running Short—Dr. Sutcliffe's Bacon.

The rummage sale, 404 South Meridian street, has brought $33 to the fund for the City Industrial school. The stock is running short because of the difficulty in securing wagons to make collections at the homes of donors. Thus far there have been 24 contributors of stock. Of these twenty-seven are residents of Merion place. Among the merchants who have sent in stock are Charles Mayer & Co., L. S. Ayres & Co., Griffith Bros., Charles D. Pearson, Fayette & McCree, the Indianapolis Hardware Company, Joseph A. Rink and Boyd, Besten & Langen.

REVISE THE CHURCH CREED.

Presbytery Vote for It by a Big Majority.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., April 11.—The U. S. Presbytery was thrown into a turmoil by an address from the Rev. Dr. Taylor, of Clinton, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at Rome, who advocates the elimination from the Confession of Faith of paragraphs one to seven of Chapter 3. These paragraphs cover the doctrine of election and reprobation, in reprobation of which Dr. Hillis, of Brooklyn, resigned from the Chicago Presbytery.

BUSINESS OF SUB-STATIONS.

Reports for the Quarter will be Sent to Washington.

Postmaster Hess has directed the sub-station clerks to report on the business for the quarter ending March 31, and the reports will be sent to Washington. They will include the sales of stamps and other supplies, as well as the money order figures. Joseph E. Haxwell, auditor of the Indianapolis postoffice, began this afternoon to check up the business of the sub-stations for the four months hereafter the reports will be made regularly.

DAMAGE SUIT VERDICT.

Albert C. Reese is Awarded Judgment for $4,000.

The Superior Court jury that heard the suit of Albert C. Reese, a member of the fire department, against the Union Rail way Company, the Pan-Handle Company, and the L. E. & W. railway for damages, to-day awarded him $4,000. A truck driven by Reese was struck at the Delaware street crossing.

SMALLPOX VICTIM.

Arthur Nizer, of South New Jersey Street, is Stricken.

The City Board of Health was notified to-day that Arthur J. Nizer, living at 255 South New Jersey street, has smallpox. The case was examined by C. E. Ferguson, who pronounced it a genuine case of the disease.

Nizer has a wife and two children. He is a well-known digger and says he has no idea where he contracted the disease. His home will be quarantined at once. It is believed that but few persons have been exposed.

Mrs. Estelle C. Richardson Dead.

Estelle Carpenter Richardson died to-day, after a long illness. Mrs. Richardson was born in Delaware, O., May 21, 1846, where she spent her childhood. She moved with her parents to Greenwood, Mo., in 1865, where she was married to Benjamin A. Richardson. They came to Indianapolis in 1897. She became a member of the Presbyterian church, and held membership, first in the Second Presbyterian and then in the Memorial Presbyterian, was marked by conspicuous usefulness. She was a help to her husband as captain of his old company, the Richardson Zouaves, going into camp with them in all their competitive drills and personally looking after the comfort and well-being of the boys. For many years she was a member of the Women's Relief Corps, George H. Thomas Post.

Heard at the Hotels

DeWitt C. Justice, of Logansport, who wishes to be appointed United States district judge from answering the largest stockholder in the Burlington pike, where two bridges and a toll-house were destroyed by a mob last week. At the Denton he spoke of the road's history. The road was built by the State and the government to Carroll and Cass counties, and from there passed into the hands of Mr. Justice's father and others. Mr. Justice said that the road is one of the finest in the State, and has cost the company now over $50,000. A few years ago Cass county purchased a part of the road, but the commissioners of Carroll county would not buy the other end, although Mr. Justice says, the price was made low. "I know that toll-roads are obsolete," said he, "but we have our money invested in the road and we can't give it away. The residents of Carroll county, where the trouble occurred, objected to purchasing it, because they feared it would take trade away from them and bring it to Logansport. We want to sell now, and are willing to let it go for the amount for which it is appraised for taxes, but as long as we have the road we intend to keep it. We are now repairing the damage, and will have the bridges up again in a few days. The men who were in the mob will be determined to pay for their actions. A number are well-to-do farmers, and a judgment can be collected if we can get the parties."

"The night the mob did its work last week, I drove out to the bridge, intending to see the road, and I saw the toll collected for me. I returned home at 11 o'clock, and in less than an hour after the mob I arrived at Logansport, saying that the mob had forced him to leave."

Mr. Justice asserts that the road is now worth $5,000 a mile. A part of it will be used by the Indianapolis & Logansport Traction Company, of which George J. Marrot, of this city, is president. It is said that the farmers along the road are not to pay toll, and that if it is not possible by the county or other arrangements are not made, they will continue their work of destruction.

Perry J. Freeman and J. M. Lantz, of Richmond, were at the Grand last night. They have obtained a franchise for an electric road from Richmond through Cambridge City to the Wayne and Henry county line, and they now propose to build a road from Cambridge City to Connersville. They are arranging now for building their road to Cambridge City.

Last night at the English, members of the State Cannery's Association had considerable amusement at the expense of Dr. Thompson, of Newcastle, their president. The doctor was a candidate for joint Senator from Henry, Fayette and Union counties, but was defeated. While he was making his canvass he was made a member of the Cannery's Association, and his opponents for Senator started the report among the farmers that he was at the head of a trust, and an president he received $100 a meeting, and could call a meeting whenever he desired. When the votes were counted the doctor was about seven hundred behind the winner, and his friends had confidence in his being nominated. Members of the Cannery's Association asked him at their meeting if he expected to get $1,000 for coming here to preside.

The book department is being well supplied with magazines, novels and periodicals of all kinds, all of which meet with ready sale. A number of baby carriages have come in. These and children's playthings are considered good stock. The strongest demand is for children's and mothers' supplies, and the dealer in charge said that contributors make a special effort to send in these articles of wearing apparel.

He Saved His Bacon. A little story is told of Dr. J. A. Sutcliffe, whose wife was greatly interested in the rummage sale for the benefit of the Boys' Club. The doctor gets his supply of bacon from an old friend in the country, and while the other sale was in progress, a box of his particular brand of smoked pork arrived. This, with other boxes, found its way to the rummage sale, and the doctor had great difficulty saving his bacon at the very moment when it was being placed on the bargain counter.

GREEN FOOD IN SPRING.

Great care should be used in allowing fowls free range in the spring, where they will have an abundance of green foods, for the early growth of all green stuff is watery and apt to cause a bowel trouble that may settle into permanent weakness. The better plan is to present to the fowls a portion of two days each week on the fresh green of two days range will keep them in good condition all the year around. When fowls are sick with bowel trouble from too heavy feeding on fresh greens, keep them in the house away from the fresh growth until they recover, and add salt sufficient to season the ration with a portion of one egg heavily on the range in the spring, will frequently cause a falling off of the egg supply and pull the fowls down in flesh, hence some care must be taken to carry the fowls from winter feeding to the range, so that they will neither get sick nor fall behind in the production of eggs.

WHICH IS THE BEST BREED?

Regularly each spring the question is asked, which is the best breed? But it is a question which no man qualified to answer for another. One may get Leghorns to advantage, while his neighbor succeeds best with Minorcas. If the market demands a large, plump carcass, don't use Leghorns. It is generally admitted that where the broiler egg can be sold readily, Plymouth Rocks and Wyandottes are the best general purpose breeds. Minorcas and eggs are bred to handle, with the points in favor of the Leghorns for quantity.

WELL WORTH Imitating.

In Delaware, fruit and vegetable growers have formed an association for mutual benefit and protection, which proposes to have its goods handled in such a manner that the consumers may absolutely rely on what they purchase. All goods are sent through certain commission men and every package bears this stamp: "The contents of this package are guaranteed to be as good all through as on top." In addition to this stamp and the name of the association, the package bears a number, so that the commission man knows who ships the contents and whom to call to book should there be any dishonest packing. It will be seen that this label by no means guarantees the grade, but simply its uniformity. Thus the grower of a superior product is not in the least injured by the inclusion of a lower grade along alongside if both bear the stamp. The buyer, relying on the guarantee, sees that the difference in value and pays the price which best suits him.

Pekins for Profit.

The Pekin duck grows more rapidly than other breeds, is better brooded in the house and the ducks are good layers. The feathers are pure white and the flesh a rich yellow and of good flavor if the birds are properly fed. A point in their favor is that they are easy to handle and stock suited to the conditions you are able to give them. That is, if one is able to provide a stream for the ducks, then stock should be obtained from breeders whose ducks have had this privilege. If one can not supply this water, then care must be taken to have ducks, whose ancestors have been raised without water in which to swim. Many of the failures in duck-raising are due almost wholly to the attempt to raise ducks without water, except to drink when they have come from a race of ducks that have had access to water for many generations.

Treatment of Common Roup.

The most common form of roup may be detected by the foul odors in the house, the difficulty the fowl has in breathing and the white-coated throat. The disease in many ways is similar to croup in children. When it is detected each afflicted bird must be treated by itself, a few drops of camphorated oil down its throat, and a drop or two in the nostrils. A good way to apply the oil is with the can used to hold oil for the sewing machine. This dose should be repeated for three or four mornings and each fowl should also have a tablespoonful of milk in which three grains of bromide of potassium has been placed. Each night close the house and burn a mixture of sulphur, wood tar and turpentine, until the fowls are nearly suffocated. After which the house may be opened, ventilated, and then closed tightly. If any of the fowls do not improve under this treatment they are too far gone to save and it will be more profitable to kill them at once. In the early spring overhead ventilation should be used for the purpose of keeping the fowls open to attacks of throat trouble.

The Rough Rider Strawberry.

The new aspirant for public favor is a cross between that grand variety, Gandv, and the desirable but not so well known Bureka. If the Rough Rider succeeds as well in other sections as in the place of its birth, northern New York, it will be a welcome addition to the list. It has not been thoroughly tested at Edgewood, but the habit of growth is encouraging. The blossom is perfect, requiring no other variety planted near it for pollination. The berries are large, irregular in shape, dark red in color and of good quality. It ripens so late that the berry season in northern New York is extended through the winter months so that it may be shipped for long distances.

and savage cliffs as we drew nearer with mingled awe and admiration, which were rendered greater by the strange pulsing glow, now red as blood, now yellow as wheat straw that beat irregularly behind them. The appearance was that of some vast conflagration had been dying out beyond the hills, and the beating light was shaking in our ears, causing a low roaring sound like heavy surf on a windless night. A sudden recurring rattle of reds and oranges, like a fire of a thousand rifles, broke through the gloom, and then, as if by a magic spell, the light died down, till again through the stillness only that long-continuous surf would boom on unseen beaches.

"I can not afford that," he said, speaking without heat; "these young men are over-deer to take any chances with me. Then will and I resolve that if the iron were kept on us we would not march at all through the woods. That was all. Presently Eborra came and crouched with us behind the bushes. We looked at each other in the face of Morgan's treasure and his deadly garrulousness. Eborra tried hard to restrain his words, but the whips of his tongue were so effective that he could not keep his mouth shut. I judged that most likely the charm lay in the person using it, more than in the words themselves. Nevertheless, we did our best, and as Eborra said, succeeded not.

"Go forward—do not fear," he said. "No harm shall come to any of you on this island. Promise it." Then he was silent a moment as if waiting to take advantage of a favorable moment in another's feeling. "Philip," he said, "I speak to you. You are my son. It is to you I have been worthy father. Yet now, before I go into the presence of the Judge, I would thank your hand. Mine is stained, but I would have you know that I love you. The blood of a father for which men hold me in loathing is not upon it. Take my hand and tell me that you forgive me. I forgive you freely for all the ill you have done me." I answered, "I have you brought on my mother I do not forgive."

"This was all the assistance Eborra could give me," he said. "I have been otherwise. Yet at the last my heart dwelt upon her. Yes in the end she was my mother. I love her. At least tell her that the thing which I shall do, I do for her sake!" Stanfield, my hand, Capt. Stanfield. I always thought of him as that—not as my father. His grasp came to me through the darkness. He glowed above the trees, stand by the forest, watching the men going over the side into the boats.

GOVERNMENT REPORT.

Condition Lower Than Expected—Mortality of Animals. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—The April report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture shows the average condition of winter wheat on April 1, 1899, and April 1, 1898, and a ten-year average of $3.8. While the ravages of the hessian fly in Ohio, Michigan and Indiana were reported as being one of these three States producing more than half a crop, an exceptionally high condition is reported from the winter wheat States west of the Mississippi river and from the Pacific coast. The principal averages are as follows:

Pennsylvania, 75; Ohio, 87; Michigan, 81; Indiana, 81; Illinois, 81; Missouri, 81; Kansas, 96; Texas, 101; Oklahoma, 99; Washington, 104; Oregon, 100, and California, 100. The average condition of winter rye is 84.8, against 84.9 on April 1, 1899, 82 on April 1, 1898, and a ten-year average of 81.1. The percentage of mortality among farm animals during the year ending March 31, 1900, was not only below that of last year, but was also below the ten year average. Of horses, 1.8 per cent are reported as having died of disease, against 2.3 per cent the preceding year and a ten-year average of 1.8 per cent. Of cattle, a mortality of 1.1 from winter exposure and of 2 per cent from disease is reported against 1.8 per cent from exposure and 2.0 per cent from disease the preceding year, and 1.6 per cent from exposure and 1.8 per cent from disease as the ten-year average.

Of sheep, the deaths from exposure amount to 1.0 per cent, and those from disease to 2 per cent, against 3.5 per cent from exposure and 2.3 per cent from disease the preceding year, and 2.5 per cent and 2.3 per cent the respective ten-year averages. No estimate of the number of swine on January 1 last having been made by the department, the rate of mortality for the country at large can not be determined. Of the seventeen principal States, however, twelve report a mortality below that of last year, and the rate is unchanged, and only in North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Arkansas is it reported as being higher than in 1899. In five States containing an aggregate of less than 1,000,000 head of swine is the mortality reported above the ten-year average.

As regards the condition on April 1, horses are reported as being 84.8 and sheep at 89.8, as compared with 84.4, 83.5 and 81.4 respectively on April 1, 1899.

CLEVELAND'S LECTURE.

The former President applauded at Princeton. PRINCETON, April 11.—Ex-President Cleveland delivered before a large audience in University Hall last evening the second of his lectures on "The Independence of the Executive." He began by speaking of the pressure for the removal of public office-holders immediately after the change of administration in 1885 and the substitution of Democrats in their places. He said: "I have no sympathy with the intolerant people who, without the least consideration of the meaning of party work and service, superciliously affect to despise all those who apply for office as they would those guilty of flagrant misdemeanor. Why should we indiscriminately hate those who seek office? NO MENTION OF PORTO RICAN BILL IS DESIRED.

Matter will be Passed Over in a General Resolution—Defense of Beveridge and Crumpacker.

When the news comes from Washington that the Porto Rican bill has been passed, the troubles of the Indiana Republican leaders will begin. That, by the way, was an unpleasant custom that the purchasers followed—of that seeking ahead of the Durbin men, and he would have been beaten but for that Durbin that proved his loyalty to Durbin and report from Allen county is that Durbin will get the greater portion of the delegates.

RIGHTS IN CITY STREETS

CITY ATTORNEY'S OPINION AGAINST WATER CO.

Objection to Double Tracks in Mont-calm Street Are Not Well Founded, He Holds.

In an opinion, delivered to the Board of Public Works to-day, John W. Kern, city attorney, denies the Indianapolis Water Company protection from the city for its twenty-five year main in Mont-calm street, where the proposed street car line to Riverside Park is to be laid. The Water Company asked the board to forbid the street car company's laying a double track in the street, because this would make it difficult, if not impossible, to tap the main. The company was willing to have a single track laid. The city attorney gives two reasons in his opinion why the street car company is entitled to use the streets. He says that at the time the water company laid its main, it was bound to take notice that the street was likely to be used by the street car company, or other corporations, at a later date, and it took the risk.

ORDERED TO MAKE REPAIRS.

Chief Barrett Complains of the Street Car Rails.

Two notices were sent to the Indianapolis Street Railway Company to-day by the Board of Public Works. Chief Barrett reported to the board that the rails of the tracks at Sixteenth street, between Columbia and Martindale avenues, are several inches above the level of the street, and that it is unsafe for the fire apparatus to travel in the street. Superintendent of Streets Herpel called the attention of the board to the condition of the tracks at the Massachusetts avenue and Tenth-street crossing. The rails, he said, project from four to six inches above the street, and he advised the board to require planking to be placed between the rails immediately. The street car company was notified of its complaints and directed to take immediate action.

Complaint of Big Four Out.

Councilman Moriarty, from the Tenth Ward, was before the Board of Public Works to-day in behalf of property-owners who complain of the cut occupied by the Big Four Railway Company's tracks, in Louisiana street, from East to Pine. A wall has been built by the company on the north side of the street, and that the side remains bare, and that the breaking of the edges of it are continually breaking off, making the passage at the side unsafe and causing parts of the sidewalk to fall away. They ask for a stone wall, similar to that on the other side. As J. O. Van Winkle, superintendent of the Big Four, was not in the city, action was deferred until Friday.

Question of Stand Pipes.

A question which the Board of Works will have to decide before the awarding of contracts for street sprinkling this year will be the payment for stand pipes from which the sprinkling wagons are filled. The Indianapolis Water Company has notified the contractors that it will place them in the improved streets, under Fred Notling, a contractor, desired to answer from the board, but was told to stand by until the board has decided. As J. O. Van Winkle, superintendent of the Big Four, was not in the city, action was deferred until Friday.

Passed the Dead Line.

Since the Board of Works has had its table placed behind a railing on a raised platform, persons desiring to address the board have had to stand on the sidewalk outside the railing. At this morning's session, Louis Haag stepped inside the railing and spoke to Albert Sahn, of the board. After the speaker had finished, Chairman Fanning said to clerk Kelley, in a voice that was audible all over the room: "What that gentleman has to say is to be kept on file in the future. We want this place for ourselves, and we are going to have it."

Other City Business.

Preliminary to beginning the work on the Illinois street bridge over Fall creek, the Board of Public Works, to-day, asked the Board of Water Works to discontinue the use of the water mains to remove their mains. The city engineer was ordered to investigate and report to the board. Dr. William S. Beck, Edward L. Mick and Alexander Harum, property owners, affected by the proposed vacation of the first alley north of Eighteenth street, from Pennsylvania to the first alley west, appeared before the board and presented a number of arguments against the improvement.

Dyer & Rasmussen, agents, were notified by the Board of Works of a report received from the superintendent of streets to the effect that the walks and curbs in several buildings in Madison avenue, for which they are agents, were in a dangerous condition. The former notice was without effect, and the board now means business.

The meeting of the Council committee on investigation and impeachment which was to have been held to-night has been postponed on account of the illness of attorney W. H. Harding's son, who is suffering with pneumonia.

COLD STORAGE COMPANY.

S. E. Kercheval to be Acting President—Election of Directors.

The stockholders of the Indianapolis Cold Storage Company met this afternoon and elected George G. Tanner, H. F. Stevenson and M. P. Woody, of this city, and A. C. Raymond and H. E. Cleveland, of New York, directors for the ensuing year. Samuel E. Kercheval, United States marshal, was elected vice-president, and will be the acting president.

dent until the return of Mr. Tanner from the South, where he went on a trip for his health recently. On account of the absence of Mr. Tanner, no election was held for president. It was stated that there was no dissension among the members of the company. W. E. Stevenson, a stockholder, said: "To show what we are doing, yesterday we closed a contract with an outside company for the next sixty-five car loads of eggs for them. We are now conducting negotiations with fruit men in California, and hope to secure contracts for storing a part of the fruit that goes to Buffalo. We are reaching out after business, and before long we hope to have a large percent of the patronage that Chicago and Buffalo get."

THREE KENTUCKY REFUGEES.

They Held a Pleasant Little Reunion—They Feel Safe.

The three Kentuckians who are in this city for temporary residence—Charles Finley, secretary of the State of Kentucky; R. N. Miller, county attorney of Breckinridge county, and Mr. Todd, held a pleasant little reunion at Mr. Finley's rooms, in the Plaza Hotel, to-day. Most of the men about whom so much "local Kentucky war news" has been written, said they had become used to Indianapolis, and liked the city. They were envious of their residence here so well they said that they might conclude to remain indefinitely. Mr. Finley jokingly said he was in a more embarrassing condition than the other two for each had personal friends or relatives here, while he had only acquaintances, and had to remain at a hotel. The three men whom Kentucky Democrats have tried to associate with the shooting of Goebel are very much at ease. They facetiously said there had as yet been no attempt to kidnap them, either collectively or individually, and they hoped to avoid the embarrassment of such an attempt. They did not know if regulations had been issued for their return to their native State.

A LONG-LOST BROTHER.

Strange Man Says He is the Missing Individual.

A man giving his name as Patrick Kendrick was taken to the police station, last night, and detained. He called at the home of John Kendrick, in the extreme southeastern part of the city, last Sunday night, and said that he was a brother of John, who had not been heard from for a number of years. The police said that John Kendrick was in doubt, and to complicate matters he showed a letter, which he had received from a labor union in a Western city, saying that Patrick Kendrick had died and was buried by the union. A number of acquaintances of Patrick Kendrick, who left the city years ago, were called in and all were positive in their identification of Patrick as the lost brother. The family had thought the brother was dead, and the case is puzzling. The Patrick Kendrick here is hard of hearing and his actions are peculiar.

ONE WAS APPOINTED

And Then There Were Nine—Just the Number of Internes.

The examinations of medical college graduates desiring to become City Hospital and City Dispensary internes, began to-day under the direction of the Board of Health. Only ten applicants appeared, and after the examination had begun, one of them was informed that he had been appointed in a local hospital, and he withdrew. Since there were nine places to be filled, the board decided that the one who was not appointed in the examination in surgery, so each of the other nine was appointed. The assignments will be made as soon as the examination papers in surgery can be graded.

OFFER FROM A SCULPTOR.

Will Make the Lawton Statue for Ten Thousand Dollars.

The Indiana Lawton Monument Commission has received an offer from a New York sculptor to make a statue of General Lawton for $10,000. The sculptor writes that the $4,000 now in the hands of the commission would only pay for a bust and pedestal. The offer of the commission, if it is stated, would pay for a full-sized statue and pedestal. The sculptor, who has written the commission, will be in New York next week, and will make a personal call on the sculptors who have written the commission. The work of raising money for the statue will not be allowed to lag.

HORSES FOR THE ENGLISH.

Local Horse Dealers Have Bought Three Car-Loads.

Blair, Baker & Walters, horse dealers at the Union Stock Yards, on order from an agent of the English government at Kansas City, to-day bought three car-loads of horses to be used by English cavalrymen in South Africa. Nearly all the horses are from farms in this State. The prices paid ranged from $50 to $100. The horses will be shipped from here to Kansas City, where they will be inspected. From that city they will be sent to Galveston, Tex., where they will be taken on board a steamer. The English agents are also buying mules in this State.

THE GREENFIELD LINE.

Said that Cars will be Bunning Within Thirty Days.

The track of the Greenfield electric railroad has been laid east from that city to the town of Gem, ten miles, and with good weather, it is announced, the track laying will be completed to Irvington in a week or ten days. The powerhouse at Philadelphia has been finished, and the machinery is now being put in. The company expects to be running cars within thirty days.

Articles of Incorporation.

The Pinyon Ridge Mining Company, of Terre Haute, which, according to its articles, will operate in and about Park City, Utah, was incorporated to-day, with a capital stock of $400,000. The City Track Association, also of Terre Haute, was incorporated, with a capital stock of $500. Other incorporations were the Lagrange Canning Company, capital stock $1,000; Mason, Long & Co., of Ft. Wayne, water pipes and boiler works, capital stock $3,000; the Terminal Social Club, of South Bend; the Clover Leaf Sanitarium, of Ellettsville, capital stock $2,000; for treating indigestion, and the Knox Coal Company, of Bicknell, capital stock $10,000.

Come to Inspect Hotels.

Frank M. Andrews, architect; Henry W. Lawrence, proprietor of the Bates House, and A. F. Potts left, this afternoon, for Chicago, to inspect the best hotels. They will return by way of South Bend, where they will look at the New Oliver, said to be the best hotel in the middle West. The points they gather will be used in planning the new 80-room hotel.

Her Suspicions Were Correct.

A purse containing $4.75 was stolen from the home of Mrs. Lizzie Leonard, 3022 Shelby street, this morning. She suspected Arthur Roeder, a Chicago, 12-year-old boy, living at 1509 Shelby street, bicycle patrolman Beav and Loah called at school No. 2, and after some persuasion, recovered the purse. The boy and money. The boy was arrested.

Musical Topics

The Jackson Recital.

HE recital to be given by Leonora Jackson, the gifted young American violinist, at the German House, a naturally of interest because of Miss Jackson's great success in Europe and in the large Eastern cities. That she has toured with the Boston Symphony Orchestra is in itself sufficient recommendation. Miss Jackson was born in Boston of a family which, on the father's side, was proud of its revolutionary and musical heritage. Her love for music and her special talent for the violin were displayed in early childhood, and when only six she began to study. The Jackson family at this time lived in Chicago. So marked was the little girl's progress that her teachers advised that she be taken abroad. Her mother, in 1861, took her to Europe, where, by the aid of the financial reverses prevented her remaining at the conservatory, and for a time it seemed as if Miss Jackson were to have no further opportunities of musical education. But so much interest had been awakened in her that, through the efforts of Miss Hope Cox, of Cincinnati, twenty persons of Cincinnati, Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington subscribed a sum sufficient to buy her a good instrument and to give her three years of uninterrupted study abroad. So, accompanied by her mother and her brother, a pianist, she finished her studies under the best masters of Europe, chiefly Joachim, of Berlin. After her first winter under this famous teacher, he wrote of her: "She has impressed me deeply with her talent. She plays with genuine expression and displays a command of her instrument most unusual for one so young."

State News.

Terre Haute is arranging for a concert, May 14, by Emma Nevada and her company.

Miss Mary Wood Chase will play at Huntington, to-morrow, under the auspices of the Musicale of that place.

A recent music event at Lafayette was a piano recital by pupils of William L. Parker, assisted by voice pupils of Miss E. Louise Kienly.

The Shelbyville Matinee Musicals will have their "Faust" day, April 13. At its last meeting selections were given from "The Chimes of Normandy," by members of the first section, including Miss Kinley, Mrs. Conroy, Mrs. Cagle, Miss Bassett, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Webb.

It would not be unusual to find a spirit of rivalry existing between two music societies at a little distance from each other, but evidently the Ft. Wayne and Wabash societies are above such narrowness. At its recent Hamburg recital the Ft. Wayne club had as its guests the members of the Wabash club, having furnished all of them with tickets.

A Talented Little Girl.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) BUTLER, Ind., April 11.—A talented little musician is Ethel Tress, of this city, who is barely six years old. She executes difficult instrumental pieces and as a singer she is the chief attraction of all local entertainments. She is the granddaughter of J. J. Kinley, banker, who will educate her under the leading instructors of this country and perhaps Europe.

General Notes.

Joseph O'Mara, who was last heard here in the "Three Dragons" and in the "Highwayman," has been engaged by Mr. Maurice Graub to appear in grand opera in Covent Garden this season. He is a splendid artist, and this will not be the first time he appears in grand opera, as under Sir Augustus Harris's management he sang the title role in "Faust." In "Die Meistersinger" he was David to Jean de Reszke's Walter, and he has appeared in "Faust" with Emma Eames and "Cavalleria Rusticana" with Calve.—New York Evening Post.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Quo Vadis" played to "standing room" on all floors at the Grand last night. The curtain rose at 7:30 and the performance was over at 11:15. The matinee audience to-day was unusual and the week will probably be even larger in point of receipts, than was anticipated. All evening performances "Awaits" the crowd, the Saturday matinee at 1:30. The play is now running smoothly, and is a splendid spectacle.

In "The Butterflies," next week, Adelaide Warren will make her debut with the stock company, under especially favorable circumstances. She will play Suzanne Green, the petted daughter of a millionaire. The part is a prominent one, and Miss Warren's work in it will be watched by the entire theatrical world, in which John Drew was so successful some years ago. The cast employs all the regular members of the company.

Those who saw "Humpty Dumpty" last August, will find the show now at the Park much changed, and decidedly for the better. Entire new scenes have been added, and the play is much stronger. The Hagenbeck act of the elephant, pony, monkey and boarhead is a new feature. The play is now running smoothly, and is a splendid spectacle.

For an all around burlesque and variety show the Empire theater patrons appear to be satisfied with the London Book. The company probably probably enjoy a good business the entire week.

To-morrow morning the advance sale of seats will open for the engagement of Richard Mansfield, in "The First Violin," which will be seen at English's, next day. The sale of seats for Julia Marlowe, who follows Mansfield, will open Friday morning.

Clement Scott, in reviewing "Barbara Fritchie," Clyde Fitch's new play, which will bring up the curtain at English's to-night, Wednesday and Thursday, April 12 and 13, said: "Barbara Fritchie" delights me, because it is in the best sense a well-made play. Its interest is cumulative, and arrives at its climax at the end. The play is a well constructed play, and still dargly unconventional in construction. It is a play that goes straight to the heart and touches its finest fibers." The production remains the same in cast, scenery and accessories that marked its first and successful run at the Criterion Theater, New York.

Richard Mansfield Improving.

CLEVELAND, O., April 11.—The condition of Richard Mansfield, the actor, who has been ill since his arrival here, Sunday last, has improved sufficiently to permit him to appear to-night.

ber 17, 1838, with the Philharmonic orchestra, Joachim, conducting. Since then, she has made four successful tours in Germany, three in England and Scotland, and one in France. She has appeared in some of the most famous concert halls of Europe, at Lewinschlag, at Leipzig, and the Philharmonic, at London, and she has played before the Empress of Germany, Queen Victoria and other royal personages. In 1877 she won the Mendelssohn state prize at Berlin.

The Musicals' Opera Recital.

The opera recital to be given at the Matinee Musicals to-night will be in charge of Mrs. Ida Gray Scott. Both Italian and German operas will be from "Cavalleria Rusticana," with Mrs. Carroll Carr as Santuzza, Miss Georgia Galvin as Lola, Mrs. E. M. Ogle as Lucia, and Mr. Van Wie as Turiddu. The intermezzo, Easter chorus, scene, duet and solo will be given. The musicals' chorus will be assisted by the Philharmonic Orchestra, with William Adolovite will act as accompanist.

The prelude, spinning chorus and Senta's ballad from "The Flying Dutchman" will come next with Mrs. Fremont Swain as Sola and Mrs. F. T. Edenhart as accompanist.

"Aida" excerpts will follow. Mrs. Scott will sing the part of Aida, Mrs. E. M. Ogle that of Amneris and Mr. Croxton that of Amnastro. Two duets and a romance will be sung from this opera. Mrs. Adolovite, accompanist.

The last opera will be "Pannhauser," with Miss Igleman as Elizabeth and Mr. Croxton as Wolfram. Wolfram's romance, the prayer of Elizabeth and the pilgrim's chorus, sung by the Philharmonic Club, are the numbers to be sung. Mr. Hansen will be the accompanist.

The recital is open to the public on payment of the usual door fee.

Musical Paragraphs.

Mark Hambourg has been engaged to give a recital at Richmond, Ind., May 22.

A "Yun-Dimitri" by Edward Wright is the chief feature of the last issue of the Choir Journal.

Paul Dresser has written the words and the music of a new song, "The Blue and the Gray." It is characteristically melodious.

Miss Bertha Tower, of the Indianapolis Piano College, will give her individual recital at Baldwin's music store, Wednesday, April 13. She will be assisted by Mr. Lutz, a violinist, of Decatur, Ill.

Tha Dorre, whose Carmen, as seen at English's Opera House in this city, was a success, has been highly successful abroad, both in character and as an actress in "Cavalleria." Dorre is an Indiana girl.

A number of great works are to be performed at the coming Cincinnati festival. At the first concert, to be given Tuesday night, May 8, Mendelssohn will be the featured soloist. Mr. William Middendorf will play his first sonata in F minor, for organ, and the oratorio "St. Paul" will be sung, with Mrs. Eileen DeWitt, Mme. Schumann-Heink, Ben Davies, the English tenor, and David Bispham as soloists. Other numbers of interest on the same program are the unfinished symphony of Schubert and the Brahms rhapsody, Thursday evening. Brahms's celebrated "Cello Concerto" will be given, also Tchaikowsky's "Manfred" symphony. The orchestra will play the introduction to "Lohengrin." Liszt's "Faust" symphony and the Berlioz "Te Deum," on May 22, will occupy Friday evening, with Ben Davies as soloist for both works. Saturday night will be "Wagner night." The excerpts given will be taken from "Die Walkure" and "The Walkure" and "Die Walkure" in addition to these numbers.

TALE OF BURIED TREASURE

JAR FULL OF MONEY NEAR THE OLD RIVER BRIDGE.

A Writer to The News Asks if He is Entitled to Take It—State Property.

In a letter to The News, one John Pouterman, of Indianapolis, recalls that in 1853 a man whom he does not know to have done any wrong then, hid in the earth in the triangular piece of ground which the old settlers are trying to get the city to buy for a park, between Washington street and the Old National road, on the east bank of White river, a "thick glass jar and securely sealed." In the jar, Mr. Pouterman says, "is quite a sum of money, mostly gold, some silver." At the time, he says, he marked the spot. Some time ago he examined the ground and found the treasure still secure in its thick glass jar.

The man who hid the money was afterward convicted of some crime. Pouterman, in his letter, relates, and was sent to the penitentiary. His wife got a divorce after his conviction. Mr. Pouterman does not remember the names. He wants to know if he would be justified in going to the place and digging up the jar and appropriating the money to his own uses. He says he does not know whether the money was stolen or not.

Mr. Pouterman's name does not appear in the directory, and his name is not familiar to old inhabitants.

On the question of treasure trove which he raises, it has been held in this State that such treasure is not subject to the State. Lands or personal property, some lawyers assert, in which no individual may maintain a title, escheat to the State as original property. Under this it is held that Mr. Pouterman would have no more right to the money than any other individual of the State; but the lawyers agree that Mr. Pouterman has been letting grass grow under his feet for forty years or more, providing he is the only one having knowledge of the buried wealth.

They say that if he should visit the spot and remove the money and spend it, the State would have a hard time establishing its title to the money. If Mr. Pouterman wants to follow the dictates of his conscience, the State should disclose the hiding place to the State and let it recover the buried treasure.

One lawyer expressed the belief that the treasure was not buried there, but that some one was seeking to obtain legal decision, but was afraid to trust the advisor.

The Debate with Notre Dame.

Butler College is preparing to meet Notre Dame University in a debate on the trust question, May 3. A primary last night in the assembly room of Butler resulted in the selection of John M. Mering and Thompson, the same men who defeated the debating team of DePauw a short time ago. Prof. N. D. Howe, head of the English department, said Monday that the outlook for a victory over Notre Dame was encouraging. The subject of this year's discussion will be "Resolved, That the formation of trusts should be opposed by legislation." The debate will be held at Notre Dame. Butler takes the negative side of the question.
