TO INCREASE ITS CAPITAL

INDIANA NATIONAL BANK'S IMPORTANT MOVE.

STOCKHOLDERS MEET AUG. 6

At Which Time the Stock will be Increased from $300,000 to $1,000,000—None on the Market in Years—Its Value.

The Indiana National Bank will increase its capital from $300,000 to $1,000,000. This move has been under contemplation for some time, and the call for a stockholders' meeting was issued Saturday.

The meeting will be held August 6, thirty days' notice being required by law. However, proxies are already in for most of the stock, so there is no doubt that the increase will be made.

The bank has been carrying an unusually heavy surplus, $700,000, with undivided earnings, according to its statement, April 24, of $230,500. The new issue of stock will be against the $700,000 surplus and the undivided profits, when passed to surplus, will more than meet the requirements of the national banking law that the surplus be equal to 20 per cent. of the stock issue.

The surplus, after the new issue of stock, will be in excess of 20 per cent. of the capital stock.

Not on the Market. The stock of the bank has been practically off the market for many years. There are only about thirty stockholders, and these have been very slow to part with their holdings.

Whatsoever anyone would pay for it. Quotations are entirely nominal, being anywhere from 350 to 375 bid and, according to the Commercial and Financial Chronicle, the standard New York financial daily, the bank's stock is valued at $100,000,000.

There have been a few sales during the last year, but they have never got on the market.

Paying Twelve Per Cent. The bank is now paying 12 per cent. on its stock, or about 4 per cent. on the investment. Its policy has always been to pay a comparatively small dividend and accumulate a large surplus.

This surplus, together with the conservative management of the bank, is what has given the gilt-edge classification it has had.

The bank was originally chartered in 1858, when it succeeded to the business of the Branch Bank of the State Bank of Indiana. In 1885 its charter was extended.

Volney T. Malott, its president, has been with the bank since its organization. His other officers are: Edward L. McKee, vice-president, and Edward B. Porter, cashier. For many years George B. Yander was vice-president of the bank.

It was reported some time ago that she had entered into a combination to boost the price of coarse grain, and many of the local traders now right on the market, remembering what the old lady's abilities in manipulating a market were when she got started.

She set straight her cap, pulled her glasses straight and summoned two of her trusty brokers in the work. The man has been instructed to get active in corn, create a big fuss and make every one think that he was working a big deal.

The rain was not in the sun and was active and the rain was not in the sun and was active and the rain was not in the sun.

The price started about 42c for July corn and 44c for September. This morning the market opened at 48c to 49c for July and 49c to 50c for September, touching 50c. Dame Nature was not minded to press the market too heavily, and her bureau gave out the information that the condition was not so bad as some people seemed to think, at the same time offering a little of the corn placed with her by her farmer clients, so the price eased off a little.

Her campaign of necessity affected oats, and that grain to-day was at 31c for September delivery. Pork, too, was affected, as high-priced corn means high-priced hogs. September pork was as high as $13.30.

Her Views on the Deal. Dame Nature is proud of her success in this deal. She feels that putting corn to 50 cents on its merits is a great achievement, even for an old operator like herself. It has been five years since July corn has sold as high in the list month of the life of the option as it sold to-day.

She claims to be the farmer's friend, and her commission business is not to take a scalping profit, but to help the producer.

Telephone War in the East. Independent Companies Will Carry It to New York and Boston.

NEW YORK, July 10.—President Thomas, of Cleveland, O., newly elected president of the Independent Telephone Association, says:

"I will take charge of the construction of an independent telephone system in New York and Boston. Plans are being laid for the construction of a long distance trunk line between the two. We will pursue an aggressive policy in the East, where the independent telephone movement has been practically neglected.

The construction of a system in New York and Boston will cost about $5,000,000."

INTERURBAN TRAINS HIT. Employees Escaped with the Exception of William Herron.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) BRAZIL, Ind., July 10.—The gravel train on the interurban street car line and a hliman's train collided just west of the city last night, demolishing the gravel train. The employees jumped and escaped, with the exception of William Herron, who was thrown on his head and severely injured.

EASY FOR SHAMROCK II. The New Challenger Again Shows Fine Sailing Form.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., July 10.—William Crockett, seven years old, son of William Crockett, of Alexandria, who was kidnapped four months ago, has been found in Louisville. The boy's mother died some time ago and he was placed in the care of Charles Stark. A strange woman took the child away and it was some weeks before the father learned that his son was gone. Crockett traced the boy to the name of Gertrude Bibbs, of Louisville, where he was recovered.

SHE LOVED HIM.

NATURE & CO., BROKERS

INSANITY INQUIRY ENDED

OLD LADY HAS NOT LOST HER CUNNING.

AND A REPORT EXPECTED FROM THE GRAND JURY.

PUTS CORN TO FIFTY CENTS

MAY BE NO INDICTMENTS

That was the Prediction by Persons in the Court House—A Recommendation About Treatment of Insanity Patients Possible.

After a short session this morning the grand jury concluded its investigation of the insanity inquiry. Its report was expected late to-day or to-morrow forenoon. But, for that matter, one was expected all this morning.

It was announced that it would be submitted to Judge Alfred at 10 o'clock, then at 11, still later at 12, but none came. Judge Alfred finally departed, tired of the delay.

It was the impression about the Criminal Court that no indictments of any sort would be returned against any of the members of the "trust." Belief was expressed that if charges of conspiracy to defraud should be preferred against them they will be filed by the Attorney General. His deputy, Cash Hadley, continues his investigations among the records in the clerk's office, and his reticence is taken to indicate impending action.

It was said this morning that the grand jury, in its report, if it returned no indictments, would make recommendations for what it considered a betterment of the system, among them, some sort of detention hospital, but Prosecutor Ruckelshaus refused either to confirm or deny this.

Dr. W. F. Christian, police surgeon, spent an hour before the grand jury just before noon.

The City Board of Health, at its meeting to-day, decided formally to await the report of the grand jury before making and investigation of the connection of the dispensary physicians with the "trust."

Dr. William S. Beck's Reply. Dr. William S. Beck, who returned to the city to-day after an absence of several weeks, says he feels that an injustice was done him in the interview on the insanity inquiry by Dr. W. B. Fletcher.

He says an examination of the records and indictments would be made in only one or two insanity inquiries in the last eighteen months. Prior to that time he was in a good many cases, but more frequently as the attending physician. "In every case in which I appeared," said he, "I did what I believed was right, and what Dr. Fletcher would have done had he been the examining physician."

Dr. Beck says he was frequently asked to act as attending physician and always refused. "Eighteen months ago I declined to have anything to do with the insanity business," said he.

JOURNEY OF EPWORTHIES. Poor Accommodations, but the Trip Is Being Enjoyed.

(From a Special Correspondent.) MEXICO, Mo., July 10.—(On Board Indiana Train, en route to San Francisco.)—I have just crossed the Mississippi river. Our train was delayed several hours on account of exchange of tickets. Everybody is complaining of the poor accommodations and miserable service. The cars furnished by the Pullman company are old and shabby. The weather is pleasant and all are in good health.

We left Tipton, Ind., at 3:30 yesterday afternoon. At Bloomington we picked up two cars from Chicago, and with eight well-filled coaches were soon skipping over the tracks as a Chicago & Alton special. In spite of the miserable accommodations, everybody seemed cheerful. The train is in charge of Mr. E. N. Hicks, T. P. A. of the Lake Erie & Western, and he is doing everything in his power to get the train through on schedule time.

CHINAMAN WAS LYNCHED. Attacked a Woman in a Lumber Camp.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., July 10.—Young Fook, a Chinese coolie employed at a boarding-house at Mount Breckenridge, number thirty-seven on the east of Bakersfield, in the mountains, was lynched by lumbermen.

The Chinaman attacked Mrs. Kenney, wife of the foreman of the mill, with a butcher knife, inflicting a serious wound on her face. He struck Mrs. Kenney's little daughter, but the injury is slight. The screams of the woman brought the lumbermen to the scene. Kenney was the first to reach the house. He was attacked by the Chinaman and received a severe cut on the wrist. The lumbermen knocked the Chinaman down, placed a rope around his neck and hanged him to a tree.

CHILD'S FUNERAL PUT OFF

THAT ALICE COTHELL'S DEATH MAY BE PROBED.

MURDERED IN DUNN'S BARN

Farm Hand and Hired Girl Held at Ft. Wayne—Evidence Against the Wealthy Mill Owner Continues to Grow.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) FT. WAYNE, Ind., July 10.—A thread at a time, a web is being woven about Charles Dunn, the aged and wealthy mill-owner of Walledon, Ind., who is held for the murder of Alice Cothrell, a neighbor's child.

From evidence which the county authorities obtained to-day, it is believed that the child was lured to Dunn's barn, and there murdered. Her body, it is believed, was hidden in a pile of sawdust until it was thrown into the cistern under Dunn's house, where it was found.

Held as Witnesses Only. The authorities announced this afternoon that Marie Sampton, the domestic, and Bert Reed, Dunn's farmhand, who were arrested last night, are held not as accomplices, but as witnesses.

Little Alice Cothrell was to have been buried this afternoon, but her funeral was postponed to permit the physicians hired by Allen county to make another examination to determine the cause of her death.

Arrests Made Last Night. A second surprise came last night in the Huntertown mystery, when Marie Sampton, the domestic in the Dunn home, was placed under arrest for alleged complicity in the crime.

This arrest was on information by Mrs. Madden, living near Huntertown, who told the authorities that Del Reed, a laborer, employed by Dunn, had told her that both Dunn and the domestic were concerned in the killing.

Mrs. Madden said Reed told her that while he was in Dunn's home Tuesday evening preceding the discovery of the body in the cistern, he heard Dunn and Marie Sampton coming down the stairs, talking excitedly.

Not Dead, Said Dunn. He finally distinguished the words, "But she is not dead yet," to which Dunn replied, "If she ain't she will be soon; I'll finish her."

Reed also said that he attempted to slip away, but he was overheard by Dunn, who wanted to know how long he had been listening, and who remarked, "If you ever breathe a word of this I'll put you where she is."

Other threats followed, and according to the story, Reed promised not to mention the circumstances.

Marie Sampton Arrested. It was on the strength of this story that Marie Sampton was arrested, and she was also determined to retain Reed as a witness, as he declined to corroborate the story, saying he had heard nothing nor seen anything that would incriminate Dunn or the domestic.

The Sampton girl steadfastly refused to talk, and she was committed to jail last night. She is an orphan, she had been living with her father, who died a Chicago asylum four years ago, and was given a home with a farmer in Abolts township.

Dunn Protests Innocence. Afterward she worked in this city, and she went to the Dunn home about a year ago.

Dunn still continues to affirm his innocence, but he will only discuss the matter with several others, attracted to the scene, and a similar experience. The current was finally cut off, but before Nelson had been literally cooked by the electric current, Nelson had a brother and sisters in Evanston, Ill.

Disappeared Eight Days Ago. Alice Cothrell was first missed at Walledon a week ago yesterday. The entire neighborhood was searched, she had been seen on an errand to the house of Dunn, the richest man in the village.

Finally, Sunday afternoon, J. E. Balou, a school trustee; George Warcup and James Noonan went to Dunn's house and said his home was at Constantinople.

"I have already looked everywhere about here, and there is no use of your coming in and bothering my wife," said Dunn. "The cistern has been dragged and whole place gone over."

Dunn gave away. The men entered the house and looked into all the rooms and the outside buildings. Finally there was no place left but the cistern. This cistern is covered by a double door. The first door is on a level with the kitchen floor. Two feet below it there is another trap door covering the mouth of the cistern. Dunn followed the men about. When the door was lifted he said he did not believe the child could have fallen into the hole, for it was always covered and the opening was too narrow.

Body Taken from Cistern. As soon almost as the rake had touched the bottom it met an obstruction. Hauling it to the surface, the body of the little girl was discovered. It was neither swollen nor decomposed. As soon as it was laid on the floor W. W. Barnett, the county coroner, was called. He, in turn, sent for Dr. C. L. Greenwell, of Hunterton. The two made an examination of the body.

It was agreed that the girl had not died by drowning. The condition of the body showed that. As it lay in her coffin yesterday there was no indication of the bloating that comes from such a death. On the right knee was a slight bruise. About the throat there was a line discolored, as though the child had been strangled. This is the finding of the coroner's jury.

The Family is Called. It was an hour after the body was found before the family was called. The grief of the mother was pitiful. Kneeling by the body of her child she called to her to speak. She insisted that she could not be dead; that she must talk to her. Neighbors led her back to the little house, while other carried the body. All this afternoon she sat alone in the little parlor where the body was lying by an open window. Her eyes were dry. The tears would not come.

"I do not know why it is," said Mrs. Cothrell. "Alice was such a good little girl. I do not see how anyone could be wished to harm her. I can not see how it could be. In anyone's mind to treat her badly."

The father walked from room to room and then around the house. He said: "I have no doubt that Dunn killed her."

FIGHT WITH A POSSE

Indianapolis Burglars Surrounded at Colfax.

THIEVES LEAPED FROM A HIGH WINDOW AS BULLETS FLEW.

MANY SHOTS ARE EXCHANGED

ALL THE BURGLARS ARE YOUNG MEN FROM THIS CITY.

Two of Them Had Been Employed at the Atkins Saw-Works—One Surrendered in the Battle.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) COLFAX, Ind., July 10.—Three men were discovered robbing the general store of E. H. Johnson, at 3:30 o'clock this morning. Harry Smith, who says he lived at Louisville, Ky., is in custody, but the other two escaped. The robbers, while carefully closing a screen door, awakened S. F. Eberhart, who keeps a restaurant nearby.

A number of citizens were summoned. They advanced upon the front and rear of the Johnson building. Two of the robbers were inside the building, and in an endeavor to escape, they fled to the second floor and jumped through windows to the ground. Smith was one of these, and, after several shots had been exchanged, he surrendered. His companion was wounded, but made his escape.

Bloodhounds Were Used. Bloodhounds were brought to the scene, but they did not discover the trail of the fleeing robbers. Smith says he had been working in the Atkins saw-works, at Indianapolis. He came here from Lafayetteville yesterday evening, and he was going to Cincinnati. His companions, he says, he never saw until his arrival here, and it was by their suggestion that the robbery was planned.

Pawned Valuables at Indianapolis. Smith has in his possession two pawn tickets, both dated the 9th inst. One number 6534, is for a watch, with the New York loan office, No. 70 West Washington street; the other for two set rings, ticket No. 7248, with the Capital loan office, 25 West Washington street, Indianapolis. He is seventeen years old.

Arthur Mortenbeck, eighteen years old, son of Mrs. Mary Mortenbeck, of 728 Virginia avenue, Indianapolis, was captured at Darlington as concerned in the burglary. He was brought to this city and had in his possession a pair of shoes and some handkerchiefs, taken from Johnson's store.

He says the name of the third man implicated is Ernie Roberts, of 223 East Morris street, Indianapolis. Mortenbeck worked with the Atkins Saw Company and the United States Desk and Cabinet Company, of Indianapolis, and Roberts had been employed in a hoinny mill in Bain street.

At the Pawn Office Here. Inquiry at the New York loan office showed that a young man who gave the name of Harry Smith, and his address as 609 South East street, pawned a gold filled watch there yesterday morning for $5.00. The pawnbroker said he had never seen the man before.

TANGLED IN A DEADLY WIRE.

Chicago Man's Frightful Death in Colorado.

CAMERON, Colo., July 10.—Edward Nelson, of Chicago, was killed by a live electric wire running into the barn of W. G. Wagner, town recorder, at whose house he was a guest. Not knowing that he was entangled in the wire, Nelson turned on the current to light up the barn. The odor of burning flesh attracted Wagner, who realized at once that his friend had been shocked. He attempted to disentangle him from the wire and was himself knocked unconscious. Several others, attracted to the scene, had a similar experience. The current was finally cut off, but before Nelson had been literally cooked by the electric current, Nelson had a brother and sisters in Evanston, Ill.

ENORMOUS CURRANT CROP.

One Hundred Persons Employed in Picking and Shipping.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) GREENFIELD, Ind., July 10.—One hundred and twenty boys and girls are picking the enormous currant crop on the fruit farm of D. H. Goble, near this city. The pickers are paid 1 cent a quart and they earn from 50 cents to over $1 per day. The currants are very fine, and bring excellent prices in Cincinnati, where they are marketed. About 200 crates a day are shipped.

SULTAN HAS PAID UP.

State Department Has Received that Indemnity Claim.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 10.—The State Department has received the amount of the American indemnity claim against Turkey—$86,000—through the American consul at Constantinople.

The Government assumes full responsibility for the distribution, the Turkish consul at Constantinople, and the sum of $85,000, and leaving it to the State Department to distribute this among the soldiers in its own discretion and after its own fashion. It is stated that as soon as the officials can prepare their list they will communicate with the claimants.

HOT WEATHER BACK AGAIN.

AFFAIRS AT BROAD RIPPLE

WAITING FOR THE REFORM ADMINISTRATION TO MOVE.

GROWTH OF HIGH SCHOOL

Next Term Likely to Open with Enrollment of 230—Echoes of July 4—Sharing in the General Prosperity.

People of Broad Ripple have been waiting patiently for something to happen since the "reform administration" was elected in May. That "something" was scheduled to happen this afternoon. It was the filing of affidavits by town marshal Shields against the several saloon keepers of the suburb for selling liquor in forbidden hours, particularly July 4. One saloon keeper, it is said, is exempted.

The Reform Marshal.

The burden of making things better rests mainly on Town Marshal Shields, for, although the Citizens' ticket was all elected, two of the old town trustees held over, leaving only one of the "reform" trustees on the present board. He is in the minority and not in a position to give the marshal much backing. The latter has not yet drawn much attention to himself. His arrests to date consist of three boys for swimming in a public place in the river and a big black Nobleville woman, who strayed into town drunk. He called in the tallest man in the suburb to help him and, after the trial, sent him, with another deputy, to the city with the muscular woman in charge. It is said she became sober on the trip, whipped them both and escaped. Broad Ripple people make a point that the boys arrested were from the city. They say they have only law-abiding citizens there, and all trouble comes from the outside.

Not Over July 4 Excitement.

The town is scarcely yet over the July 4 excitement. After the great crowd had eaten and imbibed everything at the park, it swarmed to the town and cleaned the bakeries, grocers, hotels and restaurants of everything in the edible line, and then strung along in thousands from the park west past the town in wild efforts to get on the cars.

High School's Rapid Growth.

Manuel B. Plasket has been appointed principal of the Broad Ripple high school. He has had seven years' experience in high school teaching and is a graduate of the State Normal and of Indiana State University. For the last three years he has been with the West Newton schools. Miss Bessie Hendrick has been his new assistant and Arthur Jackson, of the old staff, will continue. There will be three teachers in the grades—Miss Pearl Cummings, Miss Anna C. Young and a third to be appointed.

PAID A FINE OF $500 AND COSTS.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) LAPORE, Ind., July 10.—The Brill-Wet shooting affair came to an ending to-day in the Circuit Court, Mr. Brill, the millionaire mine-owner, of Cleveland, O., pleading guilty to an assault on attorney W. Lawrence E. Carr, and paying a fine of $500 and costs.

Eczema

It is also called Salt Rheum. Sometimes Scrofula. It comes in patches that burn, itch, ooze, dry and scale, over and over again. It sometimes becomes chronic, covers the whole body, causing intense suffering, loss of sleep and general debility. It broke out with its peculiar itching on the arms of Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md., and all over the body of Mrs. Geo. W. Thompson, Sayville, N. Y. troubled Mrs. F. J. Christian, Mahopac Falls, N. Y., six years, and J. R. Richardson, Galt, O., fifteen years. These sufferers testify, like many others, that they were speedily and permanently cured by

KILBOURNE FOR GOVERNOR

WAS NOMINATED BY THE DEMOCRATS OF OHIO.

SMOTHERING OF A BRYANITE

Sought Recognition of the Kansas City Platform—Resolutions Do Not Mention Money or the Nebraska—The Issues.

CONVENTION HALL, COLUMBUS, O., July 10.—The Democratic State convention has had to-day under peculiar circumstances. All the more conservative elements had combined in the preliminaries against the friends of Mayor Tom L. Johnson, but the combination was not maintained after the committees were selected. The contest was in the committee on resolutions and on both national and State issues.

The Johnson men won on their favorite views on State matters, and the others on national issues. There is no reaffirmation of the Kansas City or any other platform. There is no mention of previous platforms or of Bryan. The subcommittee of seven that drafted the platform stood 4 to 3 in favor of the conservatives, but the full committee rejected both the majority and minority reports.

COL. JAMES KILBOURNE.

He was born in 1841, graduated at Harvard, fought in the civil war, is popular with laboring ranks and is a member of the Democratic party. He is a neighbor and warm friend of the late Allen G. Thurman.

Three Cheers for Johnson.

Before Chairman Salen could proceed the Cuyahoga county delegation gave three cheers for "Tom Johnson and Charlie Salen," and the demonstration that followed indicated that the Johnson men were in more of a mood for cheering than yesterday. The closing part of Salen's speech on railway taxation was loudly applauded.

When Downing and his delegation gave up their seats there was a wild scene.

Downing has been a leader in Montgomery county for twenty years and a delegate to State and National conventions for many years. He was State Oil Inspector under Governor Campbell ten years ago and revenue collector under President Cleveland.

A Bryan Man Squelched.

W. L. Finley offered a substitute for the preamble, reaffirming the Kansas City platform and expressing continued confidence in W. J. Bryan. He said he wanted to ascertain whether this was a Democratic convention or looking backward. Ohio Democrats were looking backward, Finley's motion was overwhelmingly defeated, both by viva voce and standing votes, while Finley was yelling for a call for a conference.

Popular Prejudice a Bar to Trial.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) MUNCIE, Ind., July 10.—A great crowd, composed principally of women, is hearing the argument in the trial of the first member of the McCarry gang, for criminal assault. William Thayer, accused of the six men who assaulted Althea Pickett, two weeks ago. The defense claims that the trial is a popular prejudice makes a fair trial for the defendant out of the question.

Conversion Into an Apartment House.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) GREENFIELD, Ind., July 10.—Capt. E. P. Thayer has purchased the Orabell Hotel, and will convert it into an apartment house. It has been operated as a European hotel.

Bank Checks More Numerous.

Bankers notice a slight increase in the number of checks since the two-cent stamp, heretofore required, has been done away with. The increase is expected to be more marked toward the end of the month.

The Ohio Democratic Platform

Cities and Taxation.

The government of municipalities of the State should be radically reformed and wise general laws be enacted to correct abuses and prevent their recurrence. Inefficient, expensive, unbusinesslike, partisan and corrupt, the system which has prevailed has encouraged the best interests of the State with the government of the cities and the denial of home rule; has fostered special legislation and the imposition of burdensome taxes without the sanction of the people, and has brought about the corrupt employment of party leaders to secure valuable franchises without adequate compensation therefor.

Tariff Reform and Monopolies.

Tariff reform was never more urgently demanded than now, when the production of the country so far exceeds its power of consumption, when foreign markets are a prime condition of its continued prosperity, and when the existence and abuse of trade barriers are recognized by the policy of protection of favored industries. The abolition of the so-called protective system and the substitution in its place of the traditional democratic policy of a tariff for revenue, so burdened the industry for the benefit of another, is demanded.

Imperialism and Expansion.

The powers granted the Federal Government were not meant to be used to conquer or to subjugate other countries. Their use for such purposes not only belies our declaration of the rights of men, but also unbalances our system by increasing the centralization of power and antagonism to the ultimate overthrow of home rule.

Agriculture and Labor.

There is no question of the right of labor to combine for the assertion of its rights and the protection of its interests. The burdens of the unjust laws which oppress labor, for so long a time, should be removed, and the chief on those who till the soil or labor at other forms of production. Although these constitute a large majority of our citizens, they have never been permitted to share in the halls of legislation the same rights as monopolies, nor demanded special privileges. They have patiently endured the operation of these laws which keep them and give to others their share of the national wealth.

Corruption Not Prevalent.

The advocates of direct primaries point out that unless the Australian system is used, the party will be ever more productive of corruption than the old delegate system of nominations. The names of all the candidates are printed on the same ticket. Without the Australian ballot system voters can mark their ballots anywhere and any time, and there would be nothing to prevent selling and buying of votes.

Behind the Collins Boom.

Old Soreness at Judge Stubbs for Cutting Off Prosecutor's Fees. The office and the court house have been the scene of a great deal of talk concerning the little meeting held the other night to elect in booming Mr. Collins for the Republican nomination of police judge. This gossip is to the effect that George W. Stubbs is to be punished for offenses committed years ago while he was police judge. During his term John Holtzman was county prosecutor for the first half and furnished a deputy prosecutor to the Police Court. Charles S. Wittise was prosecutor during the second half, represented in the Police Court in many of the cases that came before Judge Stubbs the offenders against the majesty of the law were poor and ignorant persons, who were not criminals, but had been guilty of misdemeanors, many of them trivial. Judge Stubbs, like the other judges, was not given the discretion given him by the statute, was lenient in many cases and failed to "sock them" for fees. The prosecutor was not in business for his health, and as his fees in this court were a good deal curtailed, there was considerable bad blood between him and Judge Stubbs.

Butler Directors Meet.

The annual business meeting of the board of directors of Butler College was held at the college, in Irvington, to-day. The report of the secretary showed the total assets of the college to be $300,250, of which $133,000 is in apparatus, library, buildings and grounds and the remainder in cash invested. The total expenses for the year were $77,000. The number of students was 236, an increase of 17 per cent. over last year.

Charge that Jones was Illegally Elected Committeeman.

Talk of corrupt methods by the supporters of Charles A. Bookwalter is being caused by the charge made by Joseph Miller, who was a candidate for precinct committeeman in the first precinct of the Fourth ward, Bookwalter's own precinct. At the primaries to elect precinct committeemen, J. Lyman Jones was declared elected in this precinct, he having 96 votes and Miller 30. Miller's charge is that Jones men were appointed as election officers and that many votes which were really cast for him, were counted for Jones. He asserts that he knows of 58 votes that were swayed that they voted for him, though he received only 30 votes in the count.

TROUBLE STILL GROWING

MORE FAULT FOUND WITH PRIMARY ELECTION LAW.

BALLOTING AT PRIMARIES

Question as to Whether Booths Must be Used—If Not Used Corruption is Probable—Where is Money to Come From?

More trouble over the new primary election law and more cursing of its provisions was the order of the day at the Republican city committee room. Democrats are laughing up their sleeves at the attitude of the Republican committee toward the new law, though it is the law drafted by Fred Zoss, one of the Republican managers, and pushed through the legislature by the efforts of the local Republican machine.

Logsdon Changed His Mind.

Chairman Fanning said at the meeting of the city committee, held last night, that he had changed his mind as to whether the primary election law did not require booths at the nominating primaries. He said he had already ordered the construction of booths at the primaries to be used at the nominating primaries. He said he had already ordered the construction of booths at the primaries to be used at the nominating primaries.

WITSTOOD SHOCK OF SEVERAL THOUSAND VOLTS.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) Tipton, Ind., July 10.—Boys captured a house snake five feet three inches long, and instead of immediately killing the reptile, it was taken to the electric light plant, to test the effect of electricity. The electrician attached a wire to the reptile's tail, and another to its mouth, which was not easily accomplished, and when all was arranged the full force of the electric current was turned on. Several thousand volts were used, sufficient to instantly kill a dozen men.

GEORGE LAKE, STORM CENTER

POLITICIANS MEET THERE TO DISCUSS PROBABILITIES.

BILLY TAYLOR FOR GOVERNOR

The Anti-Durbin Machine More in Evidence than the Durbin Machine, with Headquarters at Terre Haute.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
CEDAR LAKE, Ind., July 10.—The politicians, particularly those in the north part of the State, like to come here, get under the shady trees at the lakeside, and tell about how the country is going to be saved, and who is going to save it. They all deprecate the fact that politics is beginning so early, and all give it a push along, so that the other fellow will not have any advantage. Hammond is the Mecca for the politicians of the north end of Indiana. They want to see Murray Turner, John Dyer, "Billy" Gostlin and a few others, and then they come here, and are generally understood that W. L. Taylor, the present Attorney-General, will be a candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket, and his chances are under discussion at every meeting of the politicians. They are managed to keep out of all factional fights, and for a year or two had been making a pull for the railroad vote, and that particular class of workmen think a good deal of him.

It is told that Mr. Taylor made a good bid for the governor's vote a couple of years ago. Some of the members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen arranged an excursion to the Fair grounds in Indianapolis. The feature was a collision between two engines, and it attracted a great crowd of people. It was suggested to the committee in charge of the affair that W. L. Taylor, the Attorney-General, be invited to act as fireman on one of the engines. There was some opposition to it because the managers were afraid that Taylor would make a speech, and finally he appeared in blue jumper and overalls, threw in a few bushels of coal and acted as fireman on the engine. It was generally understood by a few that if the nomination was secured in Indiana, William Taylor would be found paddling through the bayous in a canoe looking for it. When Representative "Doc" Clark was elected, one of his friends reminded Taylor that they had given him show at the Fourth of July exhibition, and now he ought to do something for Clark, whose candidacy was pushed by the Republicans. Taylor and Clark, and now Clark's friends are talking of Taylor for Governor. Such is the story told me by a railroad man, who claims to know what he is talking about.

Speaking about railroad men organizing for political purposes, reminded another of the fact that the railroad men were the Republicans in the last campaign. On one of the floors of the majestic Hotel Hamilton, the headquarters of the railroad men's political organization, only one or two men in the headquarters were employed by railroads, but they made a good deal of money by going around with their 20,000. The fact is, that about fifteen men were mixed up in the organization, and they were paid for their services. After the election the organization dropped out of sight. The motto, "You pay me, and I'll do anything for you," lived up to. The men got their money, and have not asked for any further reward in the way of office.

One hears a great deal about "the Durbin machine" that is being built up, according to the Democratic papers, I have not run across that as much as I have met with the anti-Durbin machine. The "anti-Durbin machine" had its start in Terre Haute, and some of the politicians there are trying to spread it over the State. The last place I heard of it was at Crown Point, a few miles from here. The purpose of it is not clear to me, but it is initiated. Durbin can not be a candidate for Governor again, for a while anyhow, and the anti-Durbin machine, which suggested that the Governor would be a splendid possibility for the presidency, did not get on his feet as yet. The kick in Terre Haute appears to be that the Governor did not meet with the elements of the police board in that city. It is admitted that he made a good board, all things considered. There is a good deal of talk whether C. H. Hyland shall remain at the head of the police. Some of the Governor's intimate friends are demanding that Hyland be removed, and say the Governor while he is not taking any part in the controversy, looks complacently on, and would not object if Hyland was given the job. Some of the friends, of course, are protesting against any change. Some of W. R. McKeen's friends are also very active. McKeen said, a few days ago, that Mr. McKeen was hurt at the appointment of Thomas Walker as a member of the police board, because he had asked the Governor not to name Walker. An intimate friend of the Governor says that the Governor made no objection to Walker, and only talked with the Governor about the Democratic member of the board. There are some who think that the Governor is listening to too much Cretzschmar politics, and they insist that Cretzschmar be removed from the board. The error, anyhow. Seven men have told me that they are the ones that caused the break in the Terre Haute delegation to the State convention, when Colonel Durbin was nominated. The most reliable informant, however, is that "Big" Conner, the "fiat-rook" statesman, is the man who caused the break, and Cretzschmar delivered the goods. Even if the "anti-Durbin machine" reaches full growth, what is there for it to do? The Governor is not a candidate for anything, at least, not now.

The Governor is a busy man, now, trying to keep his hand out of the congressional fight in his own district. The Eighty-third Congress is the man of politics who likes to talk about what is going on, should be a Republican member of Congress, and there are three or four statements in which he wants to do so. Congressman Cromer wants to go back, but he is not being allowed to do so. His friends when he appointed "Big" Conner for postmaster at Anderson, The Governor and Cromer are great friends, and it is not beyond the possibility that Colonel Durbin had something to do with the selection of Conner for postmaster. Conner's appointment was held up at Washington for some cause, and it was only after the Governor sent a letter full of plain, but red-hot English, to the department that the commission came, and then the postmaster moved into a building of which the Governor is part owner. So Conner and the Governor are great friends. Conner must be in the great order of things, support Cromer's re-election. Suppose that one of the members of the State convention, who is inclined to get out of the way, and insists on being a candidate for Governor, what will the Governor do? Will he support a man from his own county or will he support a candidate from another county, or will he be fishing? The fishing season will be over then, and Barbee will be a pleasure boat on the lake, even with Senator "Bill" Kittinger as a companion.

I have always insisted that the danger to Congressman Cromer lay in his own county of Delaware, and he is in more danger now than he ever has been. There is being perfected against him the strongest organization that has ever been formed to defeat him. Cromer belongs to the Health faction in Muncie, and the Health faction is not as strong as it was before the failure of the Seventh National Fair in New York. The pleasant-faced and musical-voiced "Doc" Goodrich of Winchester, admittedly one of the best politicians in the Eighth, has always been a Cromer man. But this time he dare not make a move. If he does, his chances for being re-elected district committee are very slim, and it is understood he will keep hands off. Jay county

TRAGEDY NEAR NEW ALBANY

The Dead Body Lay All Night Near Joseph Turner's Home—It was Not Found Until This Morning.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) Hill had been sent to prison for life, and the mother had given up hope of seeing him a free man again. Steps to obtain his pardon had been taken without her knowledge. TRADING IN MARRIAGES

JEFFERSONVILLE IS DISGUSTED WITH THE BUSINESS.

WILL BE AN INVESTIGATION

Announcement that the Attorney-General will Act is Received with Joy in the City by the Falls.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.) JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., July 10.—The report that the Attorney-General will investigate the matrimonial business here meets with the hearty approval of many people of the better class, who are thoroughly disgusted with the present state of affairs. The amount said to be paid to magistrates and ministers has been overestimated. Where one couple pays $5 for a ceremony, fifty will not pay more than a dollar. The clerk of the Circuit Court is really the only man who profits to any extent. He receives a dollar for each certificate, which he puts in his pocket, and unless the certificate is issued, no license can be secured. This practice has been in vogue for years, the present clerk following in the footsteps of his predecessors.
