

GOOD AND EVIL IN THE MODERN TRUST

Senator Hoar Points Out Just Where the Danger Is, and Suggests the Remedy.

IT IS IN HIS LATEST BILL

Senator Vest Uses Sharp Words When It is Proposed to Refer His Resolution.

WASHINGTON, January 6.—When the Senate convened today, the Vest resolution, introduced yesterday, instructing the committee on finance to prepare and report a bill removing the duty on anthracite coal, was taken up.

Mr. Vest said there was nothing in the resolution that the finance committee could furnish light on, and therefore he could not see the necessity of Mr. Aldrich's motion, made yesterday, to refer the resolution to the finance committee. "This is no longer a party question," said he, "but a question of absolute necessity. We are actually in the hands of a few men who have been frozen to death, and my only solace is to find a remedy for this disgraceful and outrageous condition of affairs."

Silent and Dumb.

Senators stood silent and dumb, he said, either afraid or unwilling to take any action, answering the appeals of the poor, freezing women and children with a party cry "stand pat." Nothing is to be done, he continued, with the sacred elephant of the Dingley tariff law.

The Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. Lodge), he declared, had endeavored to administer a homoeopathic dose in the shape of a suspension of the duty for ninety days, but if medicine is needed at all, it is an allopathic dose. In referring the resolution to the committee, he said, it would have no chance to pass.

"Don't we know," he continued, "that when we send the resolution to the finance committee we send it to its execution?" He said that all he wanted was for every Senator to put himself on record. He criticized the tariff law and said there was no more chance to-day, in his judgment, to reduce a single duty in the Dingley act, than for him to carry off the Capitol on his shoulders.

It was a question of raising money for the next campaign for President that was the end of the discussion.

Aldrich Asks Delay.

Mr. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, said he desired to make a Rhode Island record, but as Mr. Hoar had given notice that he would speak on the trust bill, he asked that the resolution go over until to-morrow.

Mr. Nelson asked where the provision relating to coal was inserted, and Mr. Aldrich said it was in the second section. "Test then said the Congressional Record showed that Mr. Allison offered the provision; that it was debated at length and voted on, the Republicans voting for it and the Democrats against it."

He declared that the Republican leaders had at silent under the declaration of the Secretary of the Navy that the duty on coal had been "snatched or smuggled into the Dingley bill."

Senator Hoar Speaks.

The resolution went over and Mr. Hoar addressed the Senate on his anti-trust bill.

Senator Hoar's speech was devoted entirely to the question of trusts and to an explanation of his recently introduced anti-trust bill. He began his address with the assumption that all thoughtful men are agreed as to the necessity of legislation. He said that as yet there had been only apprehension and alarm, but no serious injury, except in the case of the recent coal strike, on account of trusts.

On the contrary, the progress of our material prosperity had been rapid in the past few years than ever before had been known, and our workmen were better off. Still there was, he said, actual peril, and it was none the less real, and because it involved only the future and not the present.

The Senator discussed the effect of the control of vast wealth by individuals, saying that in such a system there was much to threaten republican liberty. Most of the vast fortunes of the present day had been accumulated within thirty years.

Shot at Rockefeller.

"Is there anything to render it unlikely," he asked, "that if one of these vast fortunes has grown from a hundred thousand to a hundred million, or a thousand million, in thirty years, that in the hands of the next possessor, in another thirty or fifty years, the hundred million may become a thousand million? Is there anything to stop the accumulation of these vast fortunes? Can not the same power and business ability and capital that can control all the petroleum in the country by and by control all the coal? Can it not control the railroad and the ocean carrying trade? Can it not buy up and hold in one man's hands the agricultural and mining lands of new and great states and the coal mines, and silver mines, and copper mines?"

But, great as were the possibilities of the accumulation of great wealth by individuals, he did not find in such accumulation the same peril that is found in corporate control of such wealth. This was true, he said, because the natural man dies, and his estate is distributed under the law, while the corporation lives on forever.

Escapes the Court.

"It never goes through the Probate Court," he said, "its internal transactions are kept secret. It is not anxious for its own honor or reputation, except so far as its honor or reputation is essential to its getting money. It has no soul and no conscience. In general, the men who are most powerful in its management can, if they see fit, avoid responsibility to public opinion. They always expect to avoid personal liability for obligations."

The Senator said that now the great corporations are in good hands, but suppose some Napoleon of finance should come into the control of a thousand million dollars, would not that possibility be a real public danger? Such a power could make wars, or it could prevent wars. It could threaten a community with a coal famine or a wheat famine, and it could execute its threats. He had no fear but

FOUR LIVES LOST IN A HOTEL FIRE

Mrs. E. T. Perry and Two Daughters Perished in the Somerset at Chicago.

THE FOURTH VICTIM JUMPED Niece of Mrs. Perry Died on Her Way to the Hospital—Porter is Blamed for the Disaster.

CHICAGO, January 6.—Four persons lost their lives in a fire at the Hotel Somerset, an eight-story structure at Washburn avenue and Twelfth street, early today. Three of the victims—Mrs. E. T. Perry, age thirty-five, and her two daughters, eight and nine years old—were burned to death or suffocated in their room on the fourth floor.

The fourth victim, a woman, jumped from the window of a room on the same floor to the street and was fatally hurt.

William A. Parker, a guest, jumped from the window of a room on the fourth floor to the roof of a two-story building adjoining the hotel. He sustained a broken ankle and severe bruises. The financial loss was about $3,000.

Morgan's Fine Hand.

Mr. Hoar said that many as were the evils doing by the combination of capital, some of them would be counterbalanced by corresponding advantages, and added: "I confess I like to see Morgan buying up great lines of ocean steamships. I like to hear of foreign potentates and principalities and powers bowing down when he visits the continent of Europe. We need great strength. We need great individual power if we are to rival foreign nations in the great matters which they also control by individual power. We must, if we can, look out in protecting ourselves, not to destroy them but to create them. We can give them a law which will not impair their strength and not check their natural and rightful growth, and that I hope, is all we mean to do. But it will be a bad bargain if we buy the dominion of the continent or the empire of the sea at the cost of American local public spirit."

"But great wealth should be controlled as the servant of man and of government."

TOO MANY CIGARETTES.

Eighteen-year-old boy went insane at Hartford City.

HARTFORD CITY, January 6.—An eighteen-year-old boy, made insane by smoking cigarettes, has been before Mayor Leonard today for a hearing. The doctor thinks medicine and abstinence from cigarettes will relieve the boy's mental troubles and the inquest will be delayed to await the result of the medical treatment. The boy is a brother-in-law of George Styles, and is an oil pumpman.

THE BIG DAM IN COURT.

Judge Anderson Hears Argument in Case of St. Joseph River Dam.

Judge Anderson, of the Federal Court, today heard argument on the affidavit in the case of the St. Joseph Navigation Company, asking for a temporary injunction against the St. Joseph and Elkhart Power Company, to restrain the latter from building a dam across the St. Joseph river, between Elkhart and Mishawaka.

The power company had, up to the time of the filing of the suit, spent $50,000 on the dam, and when completed it was to have cost more than $1,000,000. The purpose of the company is to convert the natural power of the river into electricity and to sell it to manufacturers in neighboring cities.

The dam would have produced 12,000 horse-power. The power company holds that the navigation company's contention is groundless, because the river can not be made navigable, there being five dams and many bridges in the way of carrying out such a plan.

HEAVILY SENTENCED.

Three Negroes Carrying Concealed Weapons Sent to Workhouse.

There were three negroes in the Police Court today, who were thought to be footpads. If they were not highwaymen they might as well have been, as they were punished as such. The police have been making strong efforts to rid the city of footpads because of the notoriety given by the number of hold-ups. All suspicious persons and those carrying concealed weapons are looked up.

DETECTIVES DID NOT APPEAR.

Left Anti-Saloon League in the Cold at Newcastle.

NEWCASTLE, Ind., January 6.—The cases against local saloon men, brought on information by two detectives, employed by the Anti-Saloon League, came up for trial in the Circuit Court, but the detectives failed to appear. The league was ready to wage an active fight against the saloon men. The cases were indefinitely postponed, as the detectives, who they sought license for a saloon at Knightstown, was defeated by a remonstrance yesterday. Each meeting of the county commissioners sees an applicant for license from that town, but each one is defeated by a remonstrance.

WILL BE BROUGHT HERE.

Isaac O. Williams, Charged with Raising Postoffice Money Orders.

A dispatch to The News from Toledo, O., says that Isaac O. Williams, charged with raising postoffice money orders, had a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner B. E. Rrough today and was bound over to the Federal grand jury, to convene at Indianapolis in June. Bail was fixed at $5,000. The prisoner will be taken to Cleveland tonight for official removal to Indianapolis.

JONES'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

State Superintendent Would Have Teachers' Present Scale Continued.

The advance copies of the biennial report of Frank L. Jones, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, were re-issued today. His device, several pages to recommendations to the General Assembly. He advises that the present wage scale for teachers be continued, and that the State Board of Education be relieved of inspection of high schools.

He points out that some of the State revenue from liquor licenses might be used in relieving the financial embarrassment of corporations that are without sufficient funds to provide requisite school facilities. The State, he says, should prevent the erection of unsanitary schoolhouses.

DUDLEY FILES BOND.

He Has Entered on Second Term as Sheriff.

SULLIVAN, Ind., January 6.—John S. Dudley, who was deposed as sheriff of Sullivan county by Governor Durbin, has drawn a bond for his new term, and it will be filed by Saturday. His new term began January 1, but he has ten days in which to present his bond.

The men who signed the bond are Charles E. Davis, president, and William C. Jamison, cashier, of the National Bank of Sullivan; Noah Crawford, Dudley's father-in-law; Patrick McEnery, a retired business man; C. J. Sherman, owner of the largest department store in Sullivan; James R. Sizy, Democratic candidate for Auditor of State and a wealthy farmer.

The bond is for $5,000, and any of the men who signed it could pay five times over.

REPLY TO CASTRO.

Great Britain and Germany Are Willing to Arbitrate.

WASHINGTON, January 6.—Secretary Hay has received the British answer to President Castro's last proposal relative to arbitration. It is assumed that the British note reflects the views of the German government. The note states that if Venezuela wishes a conference with a view to submitting the differences to arbitration, Great Britain will accede, there is warrant for the expectation that the case will now surely go to The Hague.

The next step will be a reply from President Castro. The question of raising the blockade will only be opened after President Castro's acceptance of the power reservations. The state of war is not modified by today's note.

WANT ARCHITECT'S ADVICE.

Two Student Halls May Be Built at State University.

Members of the executive board of trustees of Indiana University met in Indianapolis last evening and discussed the advisability of building two student halls at the university, east of campus. The campus for the student hall fund has been so successful that $30,000 it as the disposal of the committee.

No decision was reached by the executive committee, which consists of President Bryan, Edwin Cory and Nat J. Hill. This committee appointed Nat J. Hill, Charles L. Henry and James W. Peeler a committee to select an architect. On the architect's advice as to what can be done with the $30,000 in building two halls, one for the young men and one for the young women, will depend largely the final decision of the executive committee.

Fairbanks's Bond Bill.

Senator Fairbanks has introduced his bill to permit national banking associations to deposit bonds issued for the purchase of an interoceanic canal as security for circulation. It has been referred to the committee on finance.

Trust Legislation.

It was Representative Overstreet, of the House committee on trusts, who suggested that the committee send a letter to Attorney-General Knox inviting him to communicate his views as to trust legislation to the committee. The Indiana member was delegated to prepare the letter, which he did. This letter of advice, published today, is taken to reflect the President's views. Callers at the White House receive the impression that failure to enact a trust law means an extra session.

Not for Gurley Brewer.

It was announced at the White House today that the Librarian mission will go the Rev. Dr. Lyons, colored, of Baltimore. This shuts out Gurley Brewer, of Indianapolis, who had asked for the place.

Editor an Inventor.

Oliver V. Kennedy, former managing editor of the Muncie Star, who now has important newspaper connections in this city, has applied for a patent on an advertising design for savings banks, which has been favorably received by a number of leading savings institutions. He said that he has received a splendid offer for the exclusive use of the design.

Soldier Ordered to Lafayette.

Capt. Frank H. Abright, of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, who last evening was ordered to Lafayette as professor of military science and tactics, is now at the Presidio, California. He recently returned from service in the Philippines.

Steele and Roosevelt.

Newspapers of the country today put Representative Steele, of Indiana, in the attitude of charging that the President is subject to what Mr. Steele calls the "little pettifogging army life in Washington." The records show that when Representative Hay asked the Indiana member if he meant that the President was subject to the coterie here, he replied: "That is not what I mean."

Oxnard on Duty.

Henry T. Oxnard, head of the bee-sugar trust, is now exerting his powerful lobby against the bill to reduce the duty on the Philippines products entering the United States to 25 per cent. of the Dingley law. The association passed a resolution favoring the $5,000 appropriation by Congress for various States to study methods of corn growing.

SELECTING ARBITRATION COMMISSION MEMBERS

MAYOR SEES THE MEN HE WANTS.

TELLS ONE HE'LL BE GAME

Says He will "Stand Pat" on What-ever the Commission Decides as to Elevating Tracks.

Mayor Bookwalter spent most of today seeing the men that he is asking to be members of the elevated tracks "arbitration" commission. He declined to disclose who the seven members would be. He said he preferred to wait until he had all seven.

The mayor said one of the men he asked wanted to know the nature of his plan. "I told him I had no plan; that the commission was to decide on the plan," said the mayor. "I told him that if the commission decided that all the tracks should be elevated, I was game enough to stand pat on it."

"The same would apply if the commission recommended part depression, part viaduct or anything else. Thereupon, he accepted."

The mayor says the commission will serve about thirty days. He will announce all the names this week, he says.

AN OLD CROOK ARRESTED.

Ed Quinn Once Served a Term in Indiana State Prison.

MIAMI CITY, Ind., January 6.—Ed Quinn, one of two men arrested at Quincy, Ill., for the robbery of the First National Bank at Abington, Ill., was once a noted crook and robber, who served thirteen years in the State prison here for robbing a jewelry store at Laporte, Ind. He has been in the State prison, and occurred more than twenty years ago. The proceeds from the Laporte robbery amounted to $15,000. Quinn and two confederates taking diamonds, watches and other jewelry.

A short time before the holidays Quinn came here to renew old acquaintances among his former keepers. He was not the dark-haired, eagle-eyed man of years ago. A life of imprisonment was weighed heavily upon him. His hair is white and his eyes have lost their luster.

Quinn was "born with a silver spoon in his mouth" and began sowing his wild oats early in life. He was finally cast out by his family and became a burglar and general crook. The robbery of the Laporte store was the largest affair in which he ever engaged. One of his confederates turned State's evidence against him. Quinn was librarian while in prison here.

Quinn was here at the time of the robbery of the Westville bank, and detectives watched him for some days, but he gave a satisfactory account of himself.

USED MAILS TO CHEAT MALES.

Married Woman Advertised for Husbands, Got Money.

MARIETTA, O., January 6.—"Irene Mousel," who advertised herself in matrimonial papers as "a striking brunette, twenty years of age, handsome, attractive and cultivated, and of aristocratic family," and who secured large sums of money to defray expenses of her journey to her intended husbands, has been identified as Mrs. D. O. Hazelrigg, wife of a prominent oil man of Williamsport, W. Va., and placed under arrest.

Postmaster Rose, of this city, has received scores of letters from ardent lovers old and young, who have been cheated. No one suspected Mrs. Bessie Hazelrigg, who is a native in society circles in Marietta, O., and Williamsport, W. Va., but the fact that she visited the Marietta post-office frequently, although a resident of Williamsport, excited suspicion.

INDIANA CORN GROWERS.

H. F. McMahan, of Liberty, was Elected President.

The Indiana Corn Growers' Association, which closed its session at the State House last yesterday afternoon, elected H. F. McMahan, of Liberty, president; T. A. Coleman, Rushville, vice-president; and Scott McKee, Shelbyville, secretary. The association passed a resolution favoring the $5,000 appropriation by Congress for various States to study methods of corn growing.

COMMISSION MEETS AGAIN.

Non-Union Men Tell Their Side of the Story in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, January 6.—After its recess of the holidays, the anthracite coal strike commission resumed its work today by hearing the non-union men's side of the controversy.

The sessions of the commission in this city are being held in the United States Circuit Court room in the Federal building, and it is expected that fully a month will be occupied in taking the testimony of the non-union men, the coal operators and mine workers in rebuttal. When the commission adjourned at Scranton, the miners had closed their case, and the non-union men were engaged in presenting their side of the controversy.

CHEAPER COAL IN STRAW THAT TIME

Attorney-General Considering an Investigation After the Legis- lature Adjourns.

COAL EXCHANGE IS BUSY

Anthracite Commands Twelve Dollars, and a General Advance is Made in All Coals.

The State of Indiana will take a hand in the investigation of the coal situation, and may go after the coal men, probably about the time the bluebirds begin to fly and the gentle odors of spring suggest lighter clothing and a consideration of straw hats.

In the meantime the coal men are not inactive. Last night the Indianapolis Coal Exchange met, and, after canvassing the situation, decided to put prices higher. Members of the exchange have set their application in putting prices up without advance of the mines to justify such action, since the grand jury reported that there was no evidence on which to indict its members for conspiracy in restraint of trade or combination to control prices. The grand jury had had evidence to the contrary.

There is almost no anthracite in the city. The only dealer who could be found to quote an actual delivery price on anthracite coal today was the Garyman Fuel Company. It has some first quality anthracite to sell at $12 a ton. This is the highest price that anthracite coal has reached in this market. Dealers who have no anthracite and who are members of the Coal Exchange are quoting $8 and $9. The official price of the exchange seems to be headed for $10.

General Advance in Price. Pocahontas smokes was put to cents higher, to $7.50. There was no advance in this coal at the mines, and there is a fair supply in the city. It is said that it was advanced because the people need the coal and the members of the exchange need the money. Some members were still quoting $7 to-day. Bitum coal was put up to $4.75. This followed an advance at the mines, made by the operators' association. It did not cost any more to mine coal when the operators advanced the price than it cost to mine it. The operators also needed the money, and thought that the people needed the coal. There is a general advance of 2 cents on other coals and coke and 5 cents on slack other than Indiana slack.

The Marion county grand jury investigation of the coal situation and refusal to take action to relieve the consumers from paying the high prices imposed, and the factories from the danger of being closed by the scarcity of coal. Other county grand juries have been slow to pay attention to the coal situation, and to take action as may be necessary to enforce the laws of the State against such combination. Charles W. Miller, Attorney-General, has been in the city for some days, and it is believed that he will take the coal situation into consideration.

Will Investigate. "This office will investigate the matter. It had not been called to my attention, and I am not familiar with the general situation, so that I can not say what will be done. If there is anything discovered which would justify this office to take further action, it will be taken."

"Just when the investigation can be made, however, I do not know. The office force, with the exception of Cassius C. Hadley, is new to the work, and Mr. Hadley has been in the city for some time. He leaves us in straits. Then, too, the Legislature will be in session now for about two months, and during that time the Attorney-General is kept busy by it and the Governor."

"It does not look to me as though this office could make the kind of investigation that the coal situation requires until after the session. Though, remember, I do not say this to fix a definite time at which the investigation will be made, but to show the condition in which we will have to work."

No Action at Present. In response to a question as to whether the Attorney-General could not order the prosecuting attorneys of the various counties to make investigations in the coal regions and report to him, he said: "Of course, we could request them to make such investigations, and report, but then, you know, the reports would be of little value, and if the prosecutor did not desire to take action on our request we could not enforce it."

THE SALOON KEEPER PUT OUT A PUBLIC PAMPHLET.

A MASS-MEETING FOR SUNDAY

One Thousand Names on the Blanket Remonstrance—Threatens Twenty-Two Saloons.

The twenty-two saloons in the Twelfth ward, which includes all of West Indianapolis, are threatened with being wiped out of existence by a blanket remonstrance that is being prepared under the direction of the Anti-Saloon League. The Revs. B. L. Allen and George Heninger have been leading the fight. The blanket remonstrance, to have a majority of the voters in the ward, must have 1,000 signatures. The Rev. Mr. Heninger said to-day that they had already between 750 and 1,000 signatures. All of them have been carefully solicited and attested and it is said that they will stand against assault in the courts.

A mass meeting will be held in the Trinity Methodist church next Sunday afternoon and at that meeting it is thought, the 1,000 signature mark will be passed. Before they quit work, the anti-saloon people propose to have 200 signatures of the required majority.

Effect Would be Sweeping.

The blanket remonstrance will then be filed against all applicants. A force fight is expected on the first case or two, but if the validity of the blanket remonstrance is established it will mean that all of the saloons must close as soon as their present licenses expire.

The saloon people are waking up to the peril of their situation. They have begun a house-to-house distribution of a pamphlet entitled "The School Fund Jeopardized." In it is rehearsed the loss of the saloon license money to the school fund.

The anti-saloon people will issue a circular in which they will rehearse their claims of the great saving if saloons are wiped out. Police protection and Police Commission expenses could be greatly curtailed, it will be stated, and this saving would be greater than the loss by reason of shutting off the liquor license fees.

FOUNDATION DAY.

State University is to Install New President at Same Time.

William Lowe Bryan will be installed as president of Indiana University on January 20 and 21, when foundation day will also be celebrated. Governor Dutton will be asked to preside at the ceremonies and the committee from the university hopes to have many members of the Legislature present.

The program for the anniversary of the university includes the names of James W. Foster, Prof. E. H. Lindley and former President Joseph Swan. There will be a reception for visitors in the evening, when Prof. G. E. Karsten will speak.

The installation of President Bryan will occur on the morning of January 21. President W. H. P. Flanner of Brown University, Chief Justice Hadley, of the Indiana Supreme Court, Mr. Bryan, and President E. B. Andrews, of the University of Nebraska, will be the speakers. The new Science Hall is to be dedicated in the afternoon, and the speakers will be as follows: Prof. Edward L. Nichols, of Cornell University; Prof. John M. Coulter, of the University of Chicago; and Prof. Arthur L. Foley, of Indiana University.

The students of the University will give their annual play on the evening of January 20.

DR. ALEXANDER'S CASE IS AGAIN POSTPONED

FEBRUARY 2 IS THE DATE NOW SET FOR TRIAL.

DR. MORRISON NOT IN COURT

Judge Bailey Acts on Testimony of Dr. Moffett that Defendant Has "Walking Typhoid."

Dr. Frank A. Morrison, who was served with a formal subpoena to appear in Criminal Court to-day before special Judge John M. Bailey, to testify as to the condition of Dr. J. C. Alexander, awaiting trial on the charge of grave-robbing, failed to obey the order. He did not appear in court, nor did he send any word regarding his absence.

Prosecutor Ruckelshaus wanted Judge Bailey to order an attachment to be issued against Dr. Morrison, but the judge would not take this step. Ruckelshaus then requested that the Court appoint a physician to examine Dr. Alexander, but this, too, was refused, Judge Bailey doubting his right to do this.

Judge Bailey said he was satisfied that whatever testimony Dr. Morrison might give regarding Dr. Alexander's condition, or that any other doctor might give, would be in line with that given by Dr. E. D. Moffett yesterday, who testified that Dr. Alexander has "walking typhoid" and would not be able to leave his room for a month.

CONSUMPTION

You must stop that coughing at once, or before you know it your lungs will be affected and your life endangered by consumption. At this time of the year you must be particularly careful, as throat and lung troubles are hovering around, and often times nearer than you can possibly imagine. Only last week a strong, robust young man, in the prime of life, who lived in White Plains and did business in New York city, had a slight cough, but it was so slight that he paid no attention to it, and in a short time he was confined to his office work. In four days it went to his lungs and he died from pneumonia within a week. Many such cases are happening every day, and every one of them can easily be cured by

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

The dose is a teaspoonful in a half glass of water every two hours until the cough is relieved. It is a SURE CURE. It will cure any cough in 24 hours if the patient will use it as directed.

CURED WEAK LUNGS.

Dear Sirs—Having suffered with weak lungs, severe cough and loss of appetite, I tried nearly all medicines, but without benefit. A few weeks ago on advice I commenced the use of your Pure Malt Whiskey. My appetite improved almost immediately, my cough stopped and my lungs are as strong as ever, my strength has returned, and I shall continue its use. Respectfully, FLORENCE WHITING, No. 1102 C. St., N. W., Washington, Jan. 4, 1903.

STOPPED HEMORRHAGES.

Gentlemen—My lung trouble is two years old. Had about eight or ten hemorrhages, which broke me down in weight and strength. The last, in February, was the worst of all, so that I thought and believed myself that I could not see another summer. When I commenced to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey my weight was 117 pounds; my weight to-day is 129 pounds; my appetite is a good deal improved in every respect. I feel stronger from day to day; no hemorrhages since I used the Whiskey.—GOTTFRIED EBER.

IT IS ABSOLUTELY PURE.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey cures coughs, colds, consumption, grip, bronchitis and pneumonia. It stimulates and enriches the blood, aids digestion, builds up the nerve tissue, tones up the heart and fortifies the system against disease germs. It prolongs life, keeps the old young and the young strong. It contains no fuel oil and is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. This is a guarantee.

CAUTION—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Unscrupulous dealers, instead of the excellence of the preparation, will try to sell you cheap imitations, so-called Malt Whiskey substitutes, which are put on the market for profit only, and which, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand "Duffy's" and be sure you get it. It is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey which contains medicinal, health-giving qualities. Look for the trade-mark, "The Old Chisel," on the label.

The genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold by all druggists and grocers, or direct at $1.00 a bottle. Write for free medical booklet containing symptoms and treatment of disease and convincing testimonials to the Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, N. Y.

GAMBLERS ARRESTED; POLICE NOT TO BLAME

JOHN A. REAGAN SWORE OUT WARRANTS.

TRIED TO COLLECT WINNINGS

He Caused the Arrest of Edward Beiser When Beiser Refused to Cash Chips.

Edward Beiser, a saloon and gambling house keeper, at 18 South Delaware street, was in the Police Court to-day, not through the efforts of the police, but because John A. Reagan reported him. Reagan said he was induced to go into Beiser's game and gave the gambler a good "chance."

When the time came to "cash in," Reagan had trouble and failed to get his money. He hastened to the police station with his tale of woe, and the police could not do else than recommend that warrants be issued against Beiser.

Reagan's is the same old story, often told of cheap gambling houses. Reagan said he wandered into the saloon last Sunday with a friend to buy a drink. A "copper" for the game lounging about the bar suggested that they go up-stairs and indulge in a little friendly game of "draw." Reagan felt "sporty" and he joined the game. Luck was with Reagan, and after a time he counted up his chips and found that he was $42 to the good. He asked the keeper, Ed Beiser, to cash his chips.

A winning of $42 was sure to embarrass the keeper, and the other players, and they demanded that Reagan continue in the game. Reagan said he backed against the wall, and Beiser counted out of him and invited him to fight. Reagan said the other men in the place urged a "rough house," and that he was so agitated by their action that he hurriedly escaped.

He told his story to Captain Kruger and the latter recommended the warrants. Kruger said he was not to blame for the warrants late yesterday afternoon, and went to the police station, besides Beiser, three men giving their names as Martin Pierce, George Roberts and Morris Dare.

The cases were continued by the prosecutor until January 15, so that other warrants may be served.

WHAT THE INSPECTOR HAS DONE TO SMOKE

BARTEL HAS MADE STRENUOUS EFFORTS THIS WINTER.

A BOOK IN THREE CHAPTERS

He Sent Out Notices, He Went to Chicago, and He Visited Tomlinson Hall.

Building Inspector Bartel's "strenuous" efforts to abate the smoke nuisance this winter may be summed up in three chapters:

Chapter I.

September 27—The inspector sent a number of smoke producers a "strenuous" note. In it he said he had been instructed by the Safety Board to file affidavits against all violators of the smoke ordinance. The ordinance makes it a nuisance to produce smoke, and provides a fine of from $10 to $50 for each day it is continued.

He also sent a copy of the ordinance to the smoke producers.

Chapter II.

Two months passed. The inspector sent out another letter. This time it "invited" the violators to "quit" the nuisance, or "invite" some other smoke producers to go to Chicago and see a consumer the mayor discovered there. The inspector did not intend to invite the others. Neither did he intend to make the trip. Dark clouds of smoke appeared on the horizon. The mayor also appeared.

"To Chicago?" he commanded.

And the inspector went.

Chapter III.

One week passed. The inspector returned from Chicago. He was aroused to activity long enough to journey to Tomlinson Hall and view the consumers, of the pattern seen in Chicago, that had been attached to the boilers in the hall. He declared himself too busy to attend to smoke crusades.

Inspector Bartel says he has no present intention of prosecuting smoke producers, notwithstanding the declaration in his note of September 27. The principal reason is that he does not know of a practical smoke consumer, he says.

"And if you have them arrested they just pay their fine and go ahead," he says.

When it was suggested that in Chicago and other cities, smoke producers were prosecuted persistently until they did something toward abating the smoke, he said:

"Well, if you do that here, they will just pull up and leave the city."

"No," he continued, "I can't say I think that is a bluff. Is the consumer in Tomlinson Hall practical? It may be, but I don't know. You can't tell. It may be all to pieces in six months. Still, I think the conditions this year are better than last, don't you? And they are all burning more soft coal, too."

COFFLET OUT ON BOND.

Cantrill Tells Little, but Detectives Believe Cofflet is Guilty.

William A. Cofflet, the alleged grave-rober who was trapped in going to the county jail Sunday to see Rufus Cantrill, and arrested by the detectives, was released on a bond of $1,000 to-day, furnished by E. H. Clark, of 1534 Martindale avenue. Clark made an affidavit that he was worth $2,500 in Marion county property, but admitted that there was a mortgage of $1,200 on his property. Cofflet had nothing to say to the detectives and the only evidence against him is the information given by Cantrill. The police say they believe there is little doubt that Cofflet was implicated in some manner with the ghouls, else he would not have called at the jail several times to see Cantrill. It is apparent that Cantrill is well stocked with damaging information, but he is not as communicative as he has been. He wants his bond reduced to $1,000, and because it is not, he thinks he is not being treated fairly. "The ghouls in custody believe there is a conspiracy among the physicians to delay the trial of Dr. Alexander on the ground that he is too ill to be tried. Detectives Asch and Manning say they will not allow the sentiment to die down. They expect to show that grave-robbing has been going on since the investigation began.

PETITION TO SELL STOCK.

Charles H. Irwin to Dispose of Shares in French Lick Springs Hotel Co.

Charles H. Irwin, administrator of the estate of the late D. P. Erwin, filed a petition in Probate Court to sell the estate's stock, 50 shares, in the French Lick Springs Hotel Company to Crawford Fairbanks. The face value of the stock is $100 a share, but the administrator asked to sell for 75 cents on the dollar, or for $75.00. An order to this effect was issued by Probate Commissioner Walker. The price paid for the stock is greater than any of the stock has sold for. Fairbanks and Thomas Taggart, president of the French Lick Springs Hotel Company, are anxious to buy up as much of the stock as possible. They already own a controlling interest.

BAPTIST MISSION BOARD.

Meeting Which Heard Reports from Every Part of the Field.

The annual meeting of the Indiana Baptist State mission board was held to-day, following a luncheon at the home of its chairman, the Rev. T. J. Villers, 1741 North Meridian street. The board consists of sixteen members, and the time of the board was taken up in hearing reports from various parts of the field. There are 80,000 Baptist communicants in the State, representing a constituency of 10,000 persons.

The board is now adding in the support of seventeen churches. One new church to receive partial support has been organized recently at Indiana Harbor. Applications from a number of churches asking aid are now under consideration.

The Rev. Albert Ogels, of this city, was re-elected superintendent of missions, and Mrs. N. H. Leslie, of Muncie, was re-elected State intendency.

Restraining Order Continued.

Judge McMaster has refused to grant the motion of the Eureka Refrigerator Company to dissolve the temporary restraining order issued against it on petition of Harry C. Tanner, former secretary of the company. Tanner had the company restrained from selling certain shares of stock in the company, on which he alleged he held a claim. The restraining order will be continued until Saturday, when a further hearing will be had.

FOR MISS McEWE.

Mrs. J. M. Dalrymple and daughter, Mrs. J. Richard Francis, gave a large reception this afternoon in honor of Miss Frances McEwe, who spent several years abroad, and is now connected with the western life in this city, where she was known in "madison circles." The rooms were embellished with a frieze of Southern smiles, with vases of polianthes and scarlet carnations filling the white mantels in the parlors. In the dining-room green and white prevailed, with white roses for the flowers and all of the appointments in crystal and butterfly glass of white fluted satin. The light throughout was from scores of tapers set in pretty holders. An orchestra played during the reception.

Assisting in the hospitalities in the several rooms were Mrs. W. T. Brown, Mrs. H. W. Kellogg, Mrs. John Reagan, Mrs. W. L. Williams, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Greenfield, Mrs. W. B. Sale; adjutant, J. H. Kille; chaplain, E. B. Armstrong; quartermaster, E. J. Saverage; officer of the guard, Charles Goodwin. The new officers of the Relief Corps are: President, Mrs. Mary Menefee; senior vice-president, Mrs. Laura Meriat; junior vice-president, Mrs. Lydia Paschel; treasurer, Mrs. Sarah Osburn; chaplain, Mrs. Mary Stone; conductor, Mrs. Ella Herman.

Book on Sons of Revolution—The Indiana Society of the Sons of the Revolution expects to get out, early in the spring, a new edition of "The Book of the Sons of the Revolution in Indiana, 1776-1862." The book will be edited by William Allen Wood, of the board of managers. Contributions have been obtained from Charles Elliot Norton, president of Harvard; Cyrus Townsend Bruns, President College of the California society; and other distinguished writers on subjects of interest to hereditary patriotic organizations. A bibliography of material concerning George Rogers Clark will also be included. The publication committee is D. M. Barry, W. L. Elder, W. A. Wood, John T. Barnett and Leslie D. Ciancy.

Retail Tobacconists Will Meet—E. E. Pierson and others who have taken the lead in the anti-tobacco trust agitation in Indianapolis, say that a meeting of the tobacco retailers will be held during the next ten days, and the work of organizing to resist the encroachments of the United States Cigar Company, should the trust try to enter Indianapolis, will be taken up again. Several meetings were held before the holiday season.

FAMILY HAD "ROUGH HOUSE"

Troubles of the Dunns, Who Live in North West Street.

The Dunn family, of 15 North West street, has a hard time in the Police Court to-day. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn have an unsavory reputation with the police. They started a "rough house" and were arrested. Mrs. Dunn's son, Ed Sine, took the part of the woman in the fight, and they beat Dunn to their hearts' content. Mrs. Dunn was fined $5 and sent to jail for thirty days. She was fined $15 for assault and battery. Dunn, who is a loafer, went to the workhouse for 140 days. Sine could not pay his fine and was sent to jail.

PURE BLOOD Necessary to Life. Vinol Makes it.

POOR BLOOD CAUSES ERUPTIONS AND WEAKNESS.

Vinol Makes Pure, Rich, Red Blood.

BECAUSE WE KNOW THIS WE GUARANTEE ITS ACTION.

Impoverished blood is a sure sign of internal disorders. We see every day too many people whose faces plainly show that there is something radically wrong.

We want all of our fellow-citizens to know of our splendid blood purifier and blood maker.

We refer to Vinol.

Vinol, as we have before stated, is a purely scientific preparation.

Vinol owes its virtue to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated state the active curative principles, taken from the livers of live cods—the same elements that formerly were found in cod-liver oil, and which made it famous.

Vinol does not contain the grease or fat that characterized cod-liver oil and made it in many cases worthless.

Vinol acts upon every one of the great vital organs, and by invigorating and purifying their strength, enables them to properly perform their functions.

Vinol's effect on the stomach is marvelous. It tones up this, the greatest of the organs of the body, and enables it to obtain from the food which is taken into it the necessary elements to create flesh and muscle tissue, bone structure and pure, rich, red blood.

We are in receipt of a letter from a Salvation Army woman which reads as follows:

"I took Vinol after a bad attack of grippe, and so much good did it do me that I persuaded my sister to take it. She was all tired out. Had no appetite and her blood was very poor. It did her as much good as it did me. I—BESS HANSEN, 718 River St., Fall River, Mass.

Won't you please come in and see us? We are always glad to extol the merits of Vinol.

We will give you back your money if you don't find Vinol will do all we claim it will. Could any one do more for you?

THE HEAD AND TAIL OF OLD FRANKLIN COLLEGE

PRESIDENT AND JANITOR GRADUATED IN SAME CLASS.

THEIR PLACES REVERSED

Janitor was at Head of the Class, and President Traded Along at the End.

[From a Staff Correspondent.]

FRANKLIN, Ind., January 6.—A singular condition exists in the official family of Franklin College. The president and janitor of the institution graduated from the same class of 1861. On commencement day the janitor proudly carried the diploma. His sword hangs in the president's room, while the president's sword hangs in the janitor's room. To-day their positions are reversed. In 1861, the class roster on commencement day bore six names. In the list were William Tecumseh Stott and William Henry Harrison McCoy. The latter was to deliver the class address because he had won that honor by his attainments in study. The other had only to listen. Stott and McCoy were bosom friends and proudly the former looked upon his friend who was bearing the class honors. That friendship has lasted through the years, and today the same strong tie remains unbroken.

Years Brought Changes.

The years brought on its changes. Stott hurried away to war after he had received his diploma. His sword hangs in the library of Franklin College to-day. The war separated Stott and McCoy. In 1869 Stott was elected an instructor in Franklin College. McCoy was then in business.

In 1872 Dr. Stott was elected president of the college, a position that he still retains. In the same year McCoy was elected a member of the college board of trustees.

In 1884 he was named as superintendent of buildings and grounds on the recommendation of his old friend and classmate, Dr. Stott. McCoy insists that he is just "janitor," although the title of superintendent of buildings and grounds is more dignified.

It was McCoy's ambition to be connected with old Franklin College in the declining years of his life. So with President Stott he is spending the last years of his life in the service of the beloved institution that he was affiliated with in his boyhood days.

The Head and Tail.

"Yes, Dr. Stott is the head of the college and I am the tail," laughingly remarked the old janitor. "We have been associated for years and I guess we are trying to outdo each other. Both of us are getting old, but we are happy in our work."

Proudly the "head of the class of '61" looked upon the condition of the buildings and grounds. In the old college halls a sobriety would be an intruder. He was hanging a chandelier in the library when a visitor found him.

"That is Dr. Stott's sword there," said the janitor, as he pointed to a glass case on one of the book shelves. "He carried it through the war and it is now the property of the institution that he has served so faithfully all these years."

When the chandelier had been repaired the old janitor descended the ladder and led the way to his cozy room in the south wing of the college.

"I live here," he said, as he opened the door that led into a large room. In which the fire in a big stove burned brightly. Three big rocking chairs told that the old man and his friends rested comfortably here when rest was to be had. Old college annuals and newspapers lay in profusion on the floor. The walls were adorned with college pictures. Many of them were pictures of men who graduated from Franklin and had achieved honor in the world.

Franklin's Best Class.

"The class of '61 was the best class that ever left old Franklin," said the "head of the class." "Up to that time there had been no class as large as ours. There were six of us—six of the happiest boys that ever left school. Of course, the war had just begun, and there was sadness in many hearts, and I mean that, considering conditions, we were happy."

"On commencement day two of the boys had already enlisted, but Dr. Silas Bailey, who was then president, told the boys that they could have their diplomas if they would. They were Tom Morgan, who afterward became General Morgan, and Ben Atkins, who achieved honor in the army."

A Story of the Class.

"There is an interesting story connected with our class. Shortly before Morgan and Atkins left for the war, Dr. Bailey called the class together to talk to us regarding the responsibilities of life. He urged us to try to make a name for ourselves."

"Try to do something for yourself," he said, "and make a name for yourself. So many parents try to make their children great by giving them the names of men who have achieved greatness. I have never known a boy that has ever honored the name to a high degree, and—"

"President Bailey noticed that we were all laughing. He was quick to see a joke and he recalled that five of the boys in the class bore the names of great men. There was William Tecumseh Stott, Thomas Jefferson Morgan, Benjamin Franklin Atkins, George Washington Grubb and William Henry Harrison McCoy. Poor Potter! He bore the ordinary name of John Williamson Potter, although all of us insisted that

COLLEGE JANITOR AND COLLEGE PRESIDENT CLASSMATES.

JANITOR W. H. MCCOY, of Franklin College. PRESIDENT W. T. STOTT, of Franklin College.

It was John Wesley Potter. Well, when Dr. Bailey caught on to the joke, he laughed, and said that of course there were exceptions to that rule. But wasn't it strange that all of us had names of men who have won greatness?"

Of the class of '61, there are four survivors. General Morgan and John W. Potter are the departed members. Both died in 1891. Potter died suddenly while serving on an election board at Greenburg, this State, last election day.

Keeping Up Class Spirit.

The class held a reunion seventeen years after graduation. In June, 1901, another reunion was held, and all were present except General Morgan, who lived in New York.

Only Dr. Stott and Janitor McCoy are left in old Franklin to tell the stories of '61 and to keep up the old class spirit. As "head and tail" of the university, they weave around it the college spirit of other days.

Janitor McCoy is well past his seventieth milestone in life. He did not attempt to rise high in the ranks of the college, but maintained a humble position. His work as a member of the official board was recognized at all times, and when he was made superintendent of buildings and grounds in 1894, he went to work to make old Franklin the picturesque university that it is.

Never a day passes that he and Dr. Stott, his beloved classmate, do not meet as "the head and tail of the college" to talk over the work and to gossip on the days that were. No doubt the classmates will end their days serving the college which they loved so dearly.

TRIAL OF DR. GULMYER.

Twenty-Five Witnesses Summoned in Elkhart Shooting Case.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

GOSHEN, Ind., January 6.—The trial of Dr. Henry Gulmyer, the young Elkhart dentist, for shooting his sweetheart, Miss Lulu Barney, with intent to kill, began in the Elkhart Circuit Court in this city yesterday before special Judge Anthony Deahl, J. D. Ferrall, the regular judge, being ill with pneumonia.

About twenty-five witnesses were summoned and the prosecution believes the trial will require not more than two days. Miss Barney has been subpoenaed as a witness and is able to be present, though this is the first time she has left her room since she was shot. The nature of her defense was not disclosed, but she is being carefully guarded by her attorneys.

Dr. Gulmyer shot his sweetheart on November 7, on her return from a visiting party, in company with two Chicago men and an Elkhart girl. It was thought for weeks that the victim would die.

LAFAYETTE MINISTERS AND THE POLICE BOARD

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES AGAINST POLICE.

THREE MINISTERS ARE NAMED

Reports that the Police Board Has Received Money from Saloon Keepers, Gamblers and Others.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

LAFAYETTE, Ind., January 6.—The Lafayette Ministers' Association has appointed a committee, including the Rev. H. T. Gary, of the First Presbyterian church; the Rev. W. D. Cole, of Trinity M. E. church, and the Rev. C. H. Trout, of the First Christian church, to look into charges that have been made by a local newspaper against the board of metropolitan police commissioners, to learn if there is sufficient truth in the charge to warrant the Ministers' Association in asking Governor Durrin to investigate. The members of the board have been openly accused of receiving money from saloon keepers, gamblers and women. They are also said to have a more direct financial interest in some of these concerns, which are said to have been conducted under their protection. So much publicity has occurred that the gambling rooms of the city have been closed, and saloons have been compelled strictly to observe the liquor laws, as they pertain to closing.

The affair has caused a great deal of commotion in John Morgan, whose term expires soon, and who is opposed for re-appointment, is a prominent church worker and a substantial citizen. The members of the board say that they court an investigation. The ministers' committee will report at a meeting to be held next Monday.

Don't Try to Cure Hemorrhoids With External Applications.

When it is such a well-known fact that hemorrhoids or piles is a disease originating in the morbid dilatation of the veins of the lower part of the rectum, it seems incredible that people afflicted with this painful trouble should go on doctoring with external salves and washes, when the diseased parts can only be reached by an internal application.

The suppositories used in Pyramid Pile Cure are composed of the most soothing and healing oils and lotions known to medicine. And act on the diseased veins and surrounding tissues like magic, giving almost instant relief. The dilated blood vessels are relieved, the irritation subsides, the inflammation ceases and bleeding is stopped.

The predisposing causes of piles are such as protracted constipation, hemorrhages, pregnancy, corsets, etc. In fact, the causes are all fully covered in a very interesting little book published by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mo. The same will be sent free to any address upon application.

The general principles of treatment are, according to the evident causes, active habits, avoidance of other irritating rules, etc., avoidance of constipation and each night the injection of a Pyramid suppository to heal and cure the afflicted parts.

This treatment has been effective in instances by the testimony of thousands of people who have been permanently cured, and by the evidence of druggists; the case of Mr. Samuel Gould, 533 Myer-menning ave., Philadelphia, is a fair sample.

For twelve long years I have suffered terrible torture from piles. I had been unwell for many years, and had been in Cleveland, Ohio, in the year 1885, and once in Toledo, Ohio, in 1890, and also tried a number of salves and ointments from different doctors. I at last found a permanent cure by only using two fifty-cent boxes of Pyramid Pile Cure. The first two or three applications gave me relief at once. I am now entirely cured and thank God for finding such a magnificent cure as the Pyramid Pile Cure.

M. C. CLENDENNING, OF KANSAS CITY, WILL SPEAK. PLATES FOR THREE HUNDRED

No Time to be Lost in Organizing the Coliseum Company—No Set Program. M. C. Clendenning, secretary of the Kansas City Commercial Club...

The grand—the Lafayette Show. The entertainment at the Grand this week is rightly called "The Lafayette Show."

His first act comes fourth on the bill. There is an elaborate setting occupying the full stage, and on this Lafayette does many of his old tricks and illusions and some new ones.

The show opens with Arminia aerialist, who performs some very creditable feats on the high trapeze and walks across the stage hanging by her toes to a ladder suspended near the flies.

The five Nesses do a musical specialty. In which the taste of all musicians should be satisfied, for their repertory runs the gamut from Italian opera to "Sunday Afternoon."

Possibility of Indianapolis Entertaining Political Parties Next Year —G. W. Bliss on the Coliseum Project.

INDIANAPOLIS business men, and some of the people who are interested in the future of Indianapolis, will banquet at the Columbia Club to-night and discuss the project of building a coliseum in this city.

It was found advisable when the business men of Indianapolis really set their hearts to the task of building a great auditorium in this city, to go at it in a slow and careful manner and to fully investigate the experience of other cities in similar enterprises.

There will be at least one guest from outside of the city. Secretary Clendenning, of the Kansas City Coliseum Association, is to arrive in the city late to-day, and he will talk about the enterprise that, in that city, has been such a great success.

It is early yet to talk about cost and location. We want Indianapolis to have a coliseum that will be practical—practical in every respect, and we do not want an institution that will become a white elephant on the city's hands.

As to what the details in the plan of organization will be, that I can not say. But if the coliseum is to be built by a stock company, it will not be different for only the business people and the wealthier people of Indianapolis to be represented in this institution.

CURED BY HIS SISTER.

Lost His Taste for Coffee, but Gave Up Liqueur Habit.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

ANDERSON, Ind., January 6.—George W. Overshiner, a well known farmer in the north part of Madison county, has dismissed his suit against his sister, Mrs. Laura J. Hosler, for $5,000 damages, because she gave him a remedy to cure him of the liquor habit. In the complaint filed last fall, it was alleged that the defendant had administered to the plaintiff a chemical preparation in his coffee and that it was done without his knowledge or consent, and had almost ruined his taste for coffee.

He also thought that his health had been impaired. Mrs. Hosler made no denial of the charge, but declared she did it through love for him and hope for his future. He did lose his taste for liquor, but did not suffer serious consequences.

Since the suit was filed the father of the two died and the children, in settling up the estate, brought about a reconciliation between Mr. Overshiner and his sister.

SAYS SUICIDE IS JUSTIFIED.

A Battle Creek (Mich.) Preacher Starts the Town.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., January 6.—The Rev. William H. Osborne, pastor of St. Thomas Episcopal church, surprised his congregation by stating that suicide is often justifiable. He declared it was the best course for a morphine eater who found it impossible to break the habit.

The Rev. Mr. Osborne recently stirred up considerable comment by chastising the society women of Battle Creek for drugging themselves in order to be able to go to parties.

TOLEDO'S QUADRUPLETS SHOWERED WITH GIFTS

TWINS AND TRIPLETS HAD COME BEFORE.

TEN CHILDREN; MOTHER IS 22

All Remarkable Birth Records Are Broken by Mrs. Spycholski's Children.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

TOLEDO, O., January 6.—This city's plural birth record has been broken. Mrs. Stanislas Spycholski, of Campbell street, gave to her husband yesterday four handsome, healthy children, two girls and two boys. The father is a carpenter. The mother is twenty-two years old. She was married when she was sixteen.

Since her marriage she has become the mother of twins, triplets, then a single boy baby nine months and sixteen days ago, and to-day quadruplets, making ten children in six years.

The two girls were born first, the eldest weighing three pounds and the second six pounds. A short time after the boys were born, the first weighing five pounds and the second an ounce more.

The names given to the girls are Helen and Dorothy in the order of their birth. The first boy born was named Samuel M. Jones Spycholski, and the second Theodore Roosevelt Spycholski.

Mayor at the Christening.

Mayor Jones will act as sponsor at the christening of the child named after him. The quadruplets will be baptized at St. Anthony's Polish church, Sunday afternoon, and thousands will attend.

People are flocking in crowds to see the little ones, all carrying with them beautiful presents for the mother and children. Several society women have given orders to their dressmakers to make nice robes for the little ones.

The Spycholski family is well able to take care of the children, but in the face of this people insist on bestowing presents on the happy young mother.

No physician was present at the birth of the quadruplets, another woman waiting or the mother. The mother is a beautiful young woman, intelligent and of Polish parents, but born in this city.

Physicians say they can see no reason why all the children should not live, as they are strong, healthy and ruly developed.

A GIRL ASSAULTED.

Young Man Living on an Adjoining Farm Charged with the Crime.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

WAVERTLY, Ind., January 6.—Miss Ida Reeves, fifteen years old, was criminally assaulted in her father's barn last evening about 7 o'clock, by Samuel Musser, a young man who lives on the farm adjoining the girl's father's. The young man came along and saw the girl in the barn and no one else on the premises. The girl is in a critical condition.

The police have been asked to watch the interurban cars for Samuel Musser, an eighteen-year-old son of John Musser, a prosperous farmer of Morgan county. They were told that the boy had assaulted Ida Reeves, a fifteen-year-old daughter of Martin Reeves, of Waverly.

The car was watched, but the boy failed to come to the city.

TWO CHILDREN DESERTED.

Half Starved and Hungry, They Were Picked Up at Muncie.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

MUNCIE, Ind., January 6.—Half starved and nearly frozen with scarcely enough clothing to cover them, two children, giving their names as Henry Ishmael, six years old, and Benjamin Ishmael, five years old, were picked up while wandering aimlessly about the streets in the south part of town, last night, after they had been deserted by their parents.

The children said that a few days ago their father, in Kokomo, ran away with a strange woman, and their mother ran away in a covered wagon with a strange man, leaving them alone. They are cared for in the Children's Home here. The children's parents are said to belong to a tribe of Ishmaelites at Indianapolis.

YOUNG WOMAN BURNED.

Miss Burden Upset Lamp While Taking a Vapor Bath.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

NEW YORK, January 6.—Miss Evelyn Burden, daughter of Mrs. J. Townsend Burden, was seriously burned at the family home in East Twenty-sixth street, Madison square, to-day. She was taking a vapor bath. In some way the lamp was upset and Miss Burden was severely burned about the legs. The house was fired. She was carried to the home of Mrs. Leslie nearby. A maid was severely burned while trying to rescue Miss Burden. Two maids who were on the upper floor were rescued by firemen. The house, a four-story brown-stone mansion, was considerably damaged.

Completing a Story of the Exodus

Miss Bessie Miller, of This City, Writing a Religious Novel of the First Dynasty of Egypt.

MISS BESSIE MILLER.

MISS BESSIE MILLER, of 1305 Prospect street, is completing a religious novel, which will be published shortly. "Kenekes, a Story of the Exodus" is the title of this biblical story, the scene of which is laid in Egypt at the time of Kenekes, the third king of the first dynasty of Egypt. The miracles of the parting of the Red sea, the waters of Egypt turned into blood, the slaying of the first-born and others have a place in this story.

Miss Miller, although born in New Ross, Kenes, a Story of the Exodus" is the title of this biblical story, the scene of which is laid in Egypt at the time of Kenekes, the third king of the first dynasty of Egypt. The miracles of the parting of the Red sea, the waters of Egypt turned into blood, the slaying of the first-born and others have a place in this story.

What Women Are Talking About

... In New York ...

Whenever Miss May Golet has half a chance she wears her favorite color, red. Her preference for this color has inspired the wearing of many red frocks seen in Fifth avenue, New York. Miss Golet walks frequently, and on these occasions she wears a claret corduroy suit made with a Norfolk jacket. A red beaver hat tops this costume. For driving in the afternoon she wears crimson cloth and elaborate hats, and on these occasions she wears a claret corduroy suit made with a Norfolk jacket.

At the opera Miss Golet is a faithful attendant, but she never has indulged her devotion to red there. Her most fetching opera gown is of iridescent spangles. She has been criticised for her frequent use of red, because it is said this color is painfully unbecoming, making her face look extremely pale and thin.

Rings in Renewed Vogue.

Rings are worn more generally this winter in New York than in many years, and women are not obliged to cling so persistently to gloves. In fact, even at balls the wearing of gloves is optional.

Rings are more elaborate and showier than ever. The most popular design is a bulky diamond affair that reaches from joint to joint, while an ingenious Parisian jeweler has sent to this country one of the long rings with hinges, covering almost the entire finger. The use of the hinge is not impaired, because the hinges act in accordance with the movements of the joints, while the finger is one girdling mass.

Some fashionable women wear the wedding ring only, but the tendency now is to another this sentimental jewel in a riot of diamonds. In some instances gloves have been slit at the seams to display rings.

Novel House Decoration.

Mrs. Clarence Mackay, in her house in Madison avenue, New York, introduced something uncommon in Christmas decoration. For weeks painters and decorators were overhauling the house preparatory to the homecoming from Roslyn, where Christmas was spent and where the family still tarries. In Christmas week fresh white shades and lace curtains were hung at all the windows. Contrary to custom, there was not a wreath of holly, not a bow of red ribbon. But scarcely had the festive waning when two huge Christmas trees in great green boxes were set on the high brown stoop. There, like sentinels, stood two girls in white, each holding something to be done with them. But the trees evidently were put there to stay.

HAVE TO TOE THE MARK.

Law is Closely Drawn on Rushville Saloons.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

RUSHVILLE, Ind., January 6.—Not in twenty years have the local saloons been compelled to live as closely to the law as at the present. It used to be said that the Nicholson law was a "dead letter" in Rushville, but such is not the case now. Saloons are compelled to close at 11 and stay closed until 5 next morning. No time after hours is even allowed for cleaning up, or other work usually done after 11 o'clock at night.

There is little gambling in the city and what few games exist are conducted in private apartments, safe from the reach of the police. City Marshal Lee Wicker assisted in his efforts to enforce the liquor laws by a police force of three men.

There have been more convictions in the police court since the present city administration came in, last September, than in the previous two years combined.

WOMAN IN THE CASE.

Dewey's Former Orderly Disappears at Ft. Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., January 6.—Lieut. Edward O. Perkins, Fourth Cavalry, United States army, left his quarters at Ft. Leavenworth December 30 on four days' leave of absence and has not since been heard from. An effort has been made by creditors to attach his personal property. Perkins was Admiral Dewey's orderly at the battle of Manila. About a week ago a woman called on Colonel Miner, commandant at Ft. Leavenworth, and said that she was Lieut. Perkins's wife, and had been married to him fourteen years ago at Ft. Stanton, N. M., when he was a sergeant. She said that his name was Edward O. Raynor, and that he belonged to an old New York family.

FRANKFORT HAS A HUGGER.

Music Teacher and Two Others Had Experiences with the Man.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

FRANKFORT, Ind., January 6.—Jack the Hugger, who has been terrorizing one of his victims by Mrs. Imogene Chumley, a music teacher. The man stepped from behind a tree, which she was passing after dark, and seized her, covering her mouth with his hands. She struggled to escape, when the man threw her to the ground, stunning her, when he escaped. The other young woman has had similar experiences with the huggers, and women are now afraid to venture on the streets alone after night.

UNION OF CHAMBERMAIDS.

An Organization is Under Way Among Evansville Workers.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

EVANSVILLE, Ind., January 6.—P. D. Drain, national organizer of the American Federation of Labor, is making an effort to organize a union of chambermaids here. There is a large number of these workers in the city. Drain organized a union of dressmakers, a short time ago.

Fair was Worth Millions.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 6.—According to the report of appraisers appointed by the Superior Court to place a value on the estate of the late Charles L. Fair, Fair was worth about $2,040,000 at the time he and his wife were killed in an automobile accident in Paris.

CLEVER LASSIE'S TRICK WON OVER SEVEN MEN

SMILES THAT THREATENED TROUBLE TURNED TO JOY.

HOW TABLES WERE TURNED

Each Young Admirer Thought He Had the Upper Hand, but He Was Much Mistaken.

NEW YORK, January 6.—This is a story of seven men and one girl, and how she evolved the paradox that made all of them winners of the wager they had made for her favors. The girl is Miss Catherine Berger, of Madison avenue. She learned that seven of her acquaintances had each made a wager that she would be the first to take her to the theater in the new year.

With a tact usually borne by older shoulders, Miss Berger decided that none should be a victim for her sake. So she sent each of the seven a letter that read: "Miss Catherine Berger had two theater tickets for Saturday evening and would you be a brother to me and be my escort—but please don't take other boys."

The secret remained secure. When each of the seven called they were shown into different rooms. When Miss Catherine announced that she was ready all were ushered into the parlor.

All seven started for some time, dumfounded at the presence of the others. Then Miss Berger herself did the honors of the hostess by taking them all to the theater and a supper afterward.

The seven young men did not collect their names until they had been ushered out of the house. Then they laughed in chorus. When the supper was finished the seven arose and pledged a toast to "Miss Berger and said in chorus: "We're all win and we all lose."

THOUGHT WAVES.

Mrs. Tingley Says Those that Are Pure will Influence Others.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., January 6.—In answer to questions from the defendant's counsel in her suit against the Los Angeles Times, Mrs. Tingley testified that she had been compared by students to Confucius, Buddha, and Mohammed. Continuing the cross-examination, Samuel M. Shortridge, for the defense, asked: "Have you not heard yourself compared by students to Jesus Christ?"

"No, sir."

The cross-examination turned to thought waves. Mrs. Tingley stating that the spreading of thought waves was not as described. A pure thought, she said, would influence others.

"If I had a pure thought," she said, by way of explanation, "I might influence you."

"If you had, madame," retorted the lawyer, "you might."

Mrs. Tingley was asked if she accepted the doctrine of Mrs. Blavatsky and William Q. Judge. She said she did. Asked if she was a theosophist, she replied: "I am trying to be," adding, "Theosophy teaches us to be pure, unselfish, and good—I am trying to be all that."

Returning to the portion of defendant's deposition that had reference to her life in New York, Mrs. Tingley said she had bitterly opposed hypnotism. But she had accepted spiritualism to a certain extent. She absolutely denied that admission fees received from "character readings" formed a part of her source of maintenance.

Into a tumbler put five lumps of ice and over the ice squeeze the juice of a large, juicy lemon. After the lemon juice has run over each piece of ice, sprinkle over with two teaspoonsful of the granulated sugar, and over all pour claret until the ice is covered; then turn into a well-chilled punch bowl. In the tumbler make the mixture five times more, turning each tumbler into the punch bowl. Then stir in a tablespoonful of Benedictine cordial, mix well, and then add a dash of the glass of fine brandy. Half a glass of sherry may also be added if desired. Stir until thoroughly mixed and if a pretty effect is desired, strew a few ripe strawberries over the top. Serve by filling the glasses half full of the punch and then filling full with iced seltzer. Add the seltzer with such force that it will mix with the punch without stirring. Place two paper straws in each glass.

A Good Apple Pudding.

Chop two apples fine; add to this two ounces each of grated bread, sugar and currents of raisins; two eggs beaten and added to the grated rind of a lemon—adding just enough of the juice to give a perceptible acid, a sprinkle of salt and a pinch of ground ginger. Mix all together and turn into a buttered pudding dish. Cover with a plate and steam for one and one-half hours. Serve with lemon sauce.

All the important appointments were given to the "anti-administration" men. Perhaps the most important change was in the committee on franchises.

Under the new order, Councilman Crall takes Councilman Negley's place as chairman of the committee, and all of the Republican members are "antis."

Councilman Wynne was retained as chairman of the finance committee. This is unusual, as he has been on the surface, one of the leading administration men.

BIDS ON SEWERS.

Board Wishes to Let Contracts—Valley and Bloyd Avenues.

The Board of Works advertised to-day for bids on two main sewers—the Valley-avenue and the Bloyd-avenue. Both will be egg-shaped, brick sewers. The Valley-avenue drain will run in Valley avenue, from Roosevelt avenue to Brookside, in Brookside to Rural, in Rural to Urbana, in Urbana to Nineteenth, and in Nineteenth to Bloyd avenue. The Bloyd-avenue will run in Bloyd avenue, from Nineteenth to Rural.

Bids have been asked before on both sewers, but none has been received. The principal reason was that the contractors were not sure of getting enough laborers to complete the work within the time specified by the city.
