BACK ON THE 15-MILE FRONT

Russians Win New Victory Over Austrians South of Dniester River in Galicia.

CAVALRY CROSSES RAILWAY

Berlin Admits Withdrawal—Allies Gain on Sorbie Front—Germans Have Advance at Verdun.

ROME, August 8.—The war office today announced the capture of the Gorr bridgehead by the Italians. It is said the city is being shelled to drive out the Austrians.

LONDON, August 8.—The Russians have won a great victory south of the Dniester, in Galicia, opening up a breach fifteen miles wide in the Austro-German lines east and south of Stanislaw.

Following up this success, the Russian cavalry has pushed across the Stanislaw-Kolomea railway and according to Petrograd reports has crossed the Tetonis to the southwest of that line.

The Russians in their drive captured the town of Tlumacz, about thirty miles within eighteen miles of Stanislaw, an important railway junction on the main line to Lemberg and about seventy miles southeast of the Galician capital.

Berlin, in today's official statement admits the withdrawal of the Austro-German troops from the Tlumacz area, and previously prepared positions. Otylna is the main line railway, fifteen miles southwest of Tlumacz.

Other Positions Threatened. The Russian advance serves still further to threaten the Tetonis positions along the Strips, to the north, already menaced on the left flank by General Brusiloff's successful operations along the Strips south of Brody. It is continuing his advance in this latter region, Petrograd declares.

The capture of more than 5,000 prisoners by the Russians in the Strips during August 4 and 5 is announced.

Both at Verdun and on the Somme front in northern France, the opposing armies are engaged in almost continuous fighting. The advantage at Verdun seems for the moment to be with the Germans, while along the Somme the entente forces appear to be the decided gainers.

At Verdun, the French-Thiemois sector is the most active. Along the Strips, the British are making a series of attacks early today and succeeded in again gaining a footing in the Thiemois work, where the fighting was very heavy. Elsewhere the British were battling with heavy losses, Paris announced.

The British statement follows: "The enemy, after his five-day attack, has not made any fresh inroads on our positions. On the Somme, our troops pushed forward in places east of Trones wood, and fighting in the vicinity of the Thiemois station is proceeding. In the eastern portion of the Thiemois sector, the enemy attempted a bold attack on our lines, but was driven back without difficulty.

North of the Thiemois sector, our raiding parties successfully entered the German lines and blew up some dugouts. In an enemy attempt to break up our lines yesterday on a bombing expedition. They were cut off by our troops, and the enemy's machines were destroyed. The enemy's machines scattered, returning precipitately, pursued our patrols. Our troops were ordered to planer had to make forced descents behind their own lines."

Gorz Is Objective. The offensive opened by the Italians along the Piave, when they had their objective is attracting renewed attention to this field of war. Several lines of entrenchments were carried by the Italians in their first assaults, which also gained them 3,000 prisoners, and Vienna claimed that the last great victory of the war had been achieved. Latest reports from Rome credit General Cadorna's troops with the capture of a number of additional positions.

The conviction is general at Rome that the Italian offensive is a very important one, and that it is a very serious one. Although they may be slow, Constantino reports a series of gains for the Turks in the Caucasus. The Russian front was put down with heavy losses to the Russians, according to Constantinople. HATYLY REPUDIATES PART OF PLATFORM

NOTIFIED OF HIS SELECTION

The first of Indianapolis's three national political notification meetings this campaign was made today when J. Frank Hanly, in accepting the Prohibition nomination for the presidency, repudiated a part of the party's platform.

In a more emphatic manner than even Alton B. Parker brought confusion to the Democratic party in 1904, Hanly turned down the initiative, referendum and recall declaration made by the national convention at St. Paul, Minn.

Both Hanly and Ira Landrith, of Nashville, Tenn., the vice-presidential nominee, were formally of their selection this afternoon at the Hanly home at 902 North Meridian street.

Robert H. Patton, of Springfield, Ill., headed the committee that notified Hanly by the Marion county board of review, which is the board of review of the state.

Why He Left Republicans. In replying to Patton's address Hanly said that he had left the Republican party because of the "covert understanding and secret commitments" which made it impossible for him to deal with the liquor problem.

He added that he would not support the initiative, referendum and recall platform that he could not and would not support. His words follow:

"The only platform one plank which I neither approve nor accept, which I can not defend in the campaign; which, if elected, I would oppose, and which I would not support as a proposed law I would not support. I would not support the initiative, referendum and recall platform that he could not and would not support. His words follow:

RAILROAD WAGES

Shall they be determined by Industrial Warfare or Federal Inquiry?

To the American Public:

Do you believe in arbitration or industrial warfare?

The train employes on all the railroads have voted whether they will give their leaders authority to tie up the commerce of the country to enforce their demands for a 100 million dollar wage increase.

The railroads are in the public service—your service. This army of employes is in the public service—your service.

You pay for rail transportation 3 billion dollars a year, and 44 cents out of every dollar from you goes to the employes.

On all the Eastern Railroads in 1915, seventy-five per cent of the train employes earned these wages (lowest, highest, and average of all) as shown by the payrolls—

The average yearly wage payments to all Eastern train employes (including those who worked only part of the year) as shown by the 1915 payrolls—

A 100 million dollar wage increase for men in freight and yard service (less than one-fifth of all employes) is equal to a 5 per cent advance in all freight rates.

The managers of the railroads, as trustees for the public, have no right to place this burden on the cost of transportation to you without a clear mandate from a public tribunal speaking for you.

The railroads have proposed the settlement of this controversy either under the existing national arbitration law, or by reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission. This offer has been refused by the employes' representatives.

Shall a nation-wide strike or an investigation under the Government determine this issue?

FREE PROHIBITION... The Governor of a great commonwealth, in a speech made at the annual convention of the Prohibition party, said: Mr. Chairman and Members of the Nominating Committee—Speaking as the duly authorized representative of the Prohibition national convention but, really, as the voice of the people, I have formally notified me of your nomination by the Prohibition party for President of the United States.

Why He Came Prohibitionist. Desiring a remedy, turned instinctively to the party which I was, and long had been, affiliated and which had greatly honored and trusted me, as the agency through which I could best remedy the evils and redress the public and private wrongs of the nation, especially those exposed the wrong as best I could, and planned for action. The hearing and the minds of the party were willing to make an affirmative response, but I felt that I could not do so until I had brought to the party a tariff commission free from partisan control and bias, composed of specialists, not hopped and wrought with members, and adequate and permanent provisions for its maintenance, and which would be able to pick the right course concerning any and every schedule to be laid before congress and the country, with the understanding that the judgment will continue to the welfare of the people, and that no industry or labor without imposing a tariff, made a party to the tariff.

Merchant Marine. With you, I favor the creation and maintenance of an American merchant marine, and I favor the establishment of a government-owned and operated program of government ownership of ship subsidies and the Democratic program of government ownership of ship subsidies. I favor the creation and maintenance of an American merchant marine, and I favor the establishment of a government-owned and operated program of government ownership of ship subsidies.

Approves McKinley's View. I quote with satisfaction and approval the last public utterances of President McKinley before his tragic death. The people of this country have developed so enormously, and our products have so multiplied, that the problem of the export of our surplus goods has become an immediate attention. Only a broad and liberal policy of exchange and trade will meet the needs of the future, strengthening the weak places in our industrial and commercial structure, and making us ready for any storm or strain.

Church and State. With your declaration "for the absolute separation of church and state with the guaranty of full religious and civil liberty to all," I am in complete accord. It voices the oldest and most persistent ideal of the American people. The Pilgrim fathers, the Puritans of the Massachusetts Bay colony, the Quakers, the Baptists and the Scotch Quakers, all sought homes in the new world where they might have the freedom to worship God each in his own way. Later, when the colonies became states, they sought to have the same freedom to worship God each in his own way.

The Initiative, Referendum and Recall. There is in the platform one plank—no reported by the committee on resolutions, but adopted by the convention—which I can not approve nor accept. It is that we should not defend the campaign; if, elected I would oppose, and which, if brought to me as a proposed law, I would vote against. I refer to the following: "We favor the initiative, referendum and recall. My statement in regard to this is based upon the assumption that the declaration implies approval of the initiative, referendum and recall in state and national affairs. If so intended, I can not yield it as my assent. So applied I believe them to be a most representative constitutional government.

Woman Suffrage. For forty years you have favored woman suffrage. Your attitude in regard to it has been neither born of fear nor forced upon you by party expediency. To you it is a measure of simple justice—a thing which has a right to be. It is a thing which you stand four-square with you, and if given force we will not be satisfied to "recommend" it, but we will stand first for it, and we will not be satisfied to "recommend" it, but we will stand first for it, and we will not be satisfied to "recommend" it, but we will stand first for it.

Americanism a Common Heritage. The motto of the American people is Americanism. It belongs to us all. It is a common heritage and no group of men and no party can claim it as an attribute solely and peculiarly its own. If it were solely the possession of any group of men, it would be a party badge, for it is not then typify the spirit of the nation. Your platform rings true when it declares: "This is the land of all peoples and belongs to no one. It should stand first for the affection of every citizen; and he who loves another land more than his own, he is not a citizen here; but he is a better citizen who, loving his land above all others, has gained from its history and traditions that which inspires him to better service to the land in which he lives."

Labors and Social Justice. The complexity of the social fabric, the extent and magnitude of industrial and commercial enterprise, the consideration of vast industrial and commercial interests, and the working out of the character of the increase of our population and its segregation into gigantic and congested centers, have made it necessary for the federal action in behalf of social welfare, and that justice may be done to humanity, its rights protected, and its development assured. I accept the platform in this behalf announced in your platform.

Preparedness or Militarism. In common with the nations of the earth, we are confronted with a momentous cataclysmic moment in the history of the world. Practically all Europe is in arms—probably 25,000,000 men. In the heat and strain of such a struggle—where peoples are battling for their lives, and where the sword is the instrument of aggression. Treaties have become scraps of paper, the sovereignty of the world is being invaded, their lands made battlefields, their peoples despoiled and their cities and homes destroyed. The nations are innocent citizens—men, women and children—have been killed without warning on the high seas, where they were engaged in peaceful commerce. It is armed to the teeth. And it seems to regard no restraint.

World Peace. Peace must needs soon come to the distracted nations now at war. Exhaustion, due to the toll of war, in treasure and in blood, will soon compel it. When it does come, the world's opportunity will have arrived—the hour of the establishment of a world court, with power, to which shall be referred all international justiciable differences; a council of conciliation backed by an international police force.

Denounces Extreme Programs. But even this is not enough to satisfy the extremists. It is gravely announced that the president is presently passing the standing army and providing for the conversion of the navy into a marine force. The nation for the moment, has been swept off its feet by the passage of a more striking and notable bill in Mexico, to be falling and have long failed to perform it. So disregarding our duties, we are justifying our course, when later, the nations, the property of the United States, has been confiscated, and the lives of our citizens have been taken, demand reparation at once.

What is Americanism? What is its content, its fibre, its essence? We are hearing much of it these days and are hearing even more of it before the close of the year. It is a word which has become a household name, and it is a word which has become a household name, and it is a word which has become a household name.

The Summer "Life Savers" are fruit, cereals and green vegetables. Meat in Summer overtaxes the liver and kidneys, while potatoes cause intestinal fermentation. Get away from the heavy diet and give Nature a chance. One or two Shredded Wheat Biscuits, served with milk or cream or fresh fruit, make a deliciously nourishing, satisfying meal. Such a diet means good digestion, good health and plenty of strength for the day's work. All the goodness of the wheat in a digestible form. Serve it for breakfast with milk or cream; eat it for luncheon with fresh fruits. Made at Niagara Falls, N.Y.

Ideals and of peace for the world, than armies and navies can ever furnish. The leaders of the Republican party, headed by the Republican President, are in the midst of a frantic effort to declare a "crisis" in the "emergency"—a "crisis" is confronting the American people in the impending

They have wrought themselves into a veritable frenzy of alarm lest "Americanism" shall become a mere slogan, and the honor of the republic be lost. But nothing could further from the truth, for the "crisis" is not a "crisis" at all. It is also true that in such a cataclysm as that there is danger to our peace and stability, and that it is in our power to avert it. But this danger inheres in the condition there, and is in no wise dependent upon the president who may be elected here in November.

There never was a better time in the history of the country for a man dissatisfied with the attitude of either the Republican or the Democratic party, or with the present administration, to register his protest against its party's unrighteous attitude. Such a man who is so impressed with the import and vitalness of the present situation, and who is so concerned for the future of his country, should not be content with a living, virtuous issue. Now is the time to strike.

CURTAINMENT OF PAPER FORGED ON PUBLISHERS

REDUCTION IN SIZE OF ISSUE SAID TO BE IMPERATIVE.

WASTE IS TO BE ELIMINATED

NEW YORK, August 8.—Newspapers of the United States today are confronted by such a scarcity of news print paper that curtailment of its use in every way possible has been forced on them. Unless economies are effected by the newspapers a famine in paper required by them will result in a few months, according to the manufacturers of the material, who declare that the only way a crisis can be averted will be through the curbing of their resources by the newspapers themselves, particularly by those of New York. This means a concerted stoppage of waste of news print paper by a reduction in size of newspapers, by the refusing of unsold papers and by cutting of the exchanges materially. If this action is not taken the manufacturers will be forced to supply paper on allotment, limited by their inadequate production and their rapidly diminishing supplies.

Have Agreed to Limit Size.

To meet the emergency the publishers in Manhattan have agreed to limit the size of the papers and to limit dealers' supplies strictly to requirements. Fifty mills in the United States and Canada are working three shifts of men eight hours each daily six days a week, yet their production so far falls short of the requirements of the market. It is being reduced at the rate of 5,000 tons a month. At the end of June, the last month for which figures were compiled, there were only 65,194 tons of news print paper in the country, against 70,000 tons last year there were 92,967 tons. It is impossible for the mills to increase their production. Their output in June was 140,153 tons, which is 95.4 per cent. of their capacity, and an increase of 27,000 tons a month over the production of June, 1915. Yet even this tremendous increase is insufficient to meet the demand.

For several months this demand has been eating heavily into the surplus stock. The fact that the minimum is in sight was what caused the newspaper publishers to reach an agreement last week for the curtailment of all waste and to curb the tendency to increase the size of the papers at this time of year. In the fall, as a rule, circulation increases and advertising rates fall. An increase in the use of news print paper would wipe out the total production and the reserve stock, but for the action just taken by the publishers.

Mills Can Not Save Situation. Although at the time it seemed a risk, the paper manufacturers began to increase their facilities when the demand for news print paper increased. This country and Canada have had facilities added to them for a 15 per cent. increase of print paper production. Most of the new machinery now is in operation. One difficulty lies in the inability of manufacturers to have machinery supplied on short notice. It is estimated that it takes a year and a half to get a mill in operation. In a few weeks new machines that can turn out fifty tons a day will be in operation but at the present rate of consumption these can not save the situation.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN AFTER SEPT.

WILSON MAY BE NOTIFIED BEFORE CONGRESS ADJOURNS.

M'CORMICK AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, August 8.—At a White House conference yesterday it was decided to open the Democratic national campaign soon after September 1, regardless of whether the congress still is in session then. Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and Homer S. Cummings, the committee's vice-chairman, took lunch with the President, and remained with him for four hours yesterday evening in the White House. While no date was set for the notification of the congress, McCormick said that if the congress remained in session after September 1, the notification might take place before adjournment. Under such circumstances, the notification would be made by the President on the occasion, immediately afterward to Washington.

Invitations to Speak.

Invitations sent to the President to speak in various parts of the country will be announced within a few days. Wilson will make no definite engagements, however, until a date for the adjournment of the congress is agreed on. He already has promised to go to Hodgenville, Ky., September 1, to speak at Lincoln memorial exercises, and has made a tentative engagement to visit St. Louis September 19, or 21, to address an organization of underwriters. The Hodgenville speech, however, will be of a nonpolitical character.

Chairman McCormick said he planned to have the Democratic campaign in full swing by September 15. Mr. Cummings, who is chairman of the speakers' bureau at Democratic headquarters in Washington, told the President of the progress made in assigning speakers to the various states.

It was definitely determined that the President would not speak in Maine, where the Democratic convention is being held, but he probably will write letters and in other ways take part in the campaign. William J. Bryan, Mr. Cummings said, probably can not take part in the Maine campaign, but will make many speeches later.

Personnel Announced Soon.

An active campaign will be carried on by the Democrats in more states this year than ever before. No states will be conceded to the Republicans, they declared. The Democratic organizations in Republican strongholds are being strengthened with the idea of putting up a fight along the line. Formation of the Democratic campaign committee has been almost completed. Mr. McCormick announced, and its personnel will be announced within a few days. Plans for winning the women voters will be pushed actively, according to Mr. McCormick in a note of the committee. Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee, favors a federal suffrage amendment. A women's bureau at the New York headquarters will be organized in the near future.

History of Indianapolis in Centennial Souvenir

An Indiana centennial souvenir, giving an outline history of Indianapolis and sixty drawings and photographs of past and present Indianapolis scenes, has been issued by Max R. Hyman. This will be the official souvenir of the Marion county day centennial committee, under the auspices of which the souvenir will be sold and distributed. The souvenir is a handy booklet that can be mailed easily in large quantities. It is printed on high quality paper and contains a large amount of historic and descriptive material. The face of the cover is a drawing of the "Capitol in the Woods," as it appeared in 1820, and on the back is a quotation from the poem, "Indiana," written by Isaac H. Julian.

WILL LEAVE WAY OPEN FOR POLISH FOOD PLAN

GREAT BRITAIN TO TAKE UP QUESTION AGAIN.

WILL ANSWER GERMAN NOTE

LONDON, August 8.—The foreign office will send a memorandum to Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, which will leave the way open for a resumption of the negotiations for feeding the civilian populations of the German-occupied areas, the conditions for which are laid down by Great Britain were recently rejected by Germany. The memorandum will suggest that the British government would reopen the question if it regards such a step as advisable and useful.

Predicts Good Harvest.

Germany's reply rejecting the British offer, which has already been published in the United States, and Great Britain's reply thereto, will be made public here within a few days. The British reply will answer the contentions of Germany that the British proposals were too long delayed, and that owing to favorable crop prospects, relief action could apparently be dispensed with after October, and also that the next harvest would provide for the needs of the people, with the exception of the areas under their condition would be straitened. The reply will say that the first contention is false, that it is unworthy of discussion, and that reports in the possession of the British government refute the latter part of the German reply. The British reply, which leaves a resumption of the negotiations to the judgment of the United States, doubtless will be received with grateful surprise in Poland, and will be made public as a rejection of them would end the negotiations.

Aid for Noncombatants.

Discussing this phase of the situation, an official of the foreign office told the Associated Press that the offer to resume the negotiations would be made in good faith, but that no assurance could be given that the British proposals could be made again on the former basis since the government had been informed that the Germans already were taking the harvests in the occupied areas. This official added that the policy of the British foreign office was to give encouragement to some plan under which a neutral territory could be withdrawn from the civilians in the occupied areas as a precedent which would make a distinct advance tending to soften the hardships of noncombatant populations.

U. S. OFFICIALS NOT HOPEFUL.

Believe British Stipulations Will Prevent Agreement.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—While officials here will take advantage of any new avenue opened by Great Britain for negotiations of an agreement under which relief supplies may be sent to Poland and other territories occupied by the Teutonic armies, they entertain little hope that the forthcoming foreign office communication will permit material progress in that direction. In its last memorandum on the subject Germany declared Great Britain had insisted on guarantees manifestly out of the question and added the further declaration that the British proposals would be "devoid of purpose." It is believed unlikely here that the British stipulations which have been a stumbling block from the start and which have been described officially as the last word of the foreign office on the subject. The London officials regarding the new memorandum, however, aroused considerable interest here. It was said the stipulations added the further declaration that the attitude of both sides, still stood ready to take any possible step that might lead to an agreement.

Lutheran Synod Not to Be Changed.

Municipal Control of Milk Routes Proposed in London

LONDON, August 8.—The house of commons' war committee on prices is preparing a report on the milk supply of London and will recommend municipal control of distribution in a manner similar to the present postal deliveries, according to the Daily News, which says: "It has been found that the present sporadic distribution by the various milk companies involves a tremendous amount of overlapping, irregularity, waste and the employment of useless labor. The organization of this distribution by a central authority would result in great saving and benefit. Distribution on postal lines would mean several deliveries daily. "Districts will be mapped out so that rivalry among the various milk companies will not result in wastefulness in national resources."

Many Firms Promise to Give Demonstrations at Indianapolis Exposition Week of August 28. The committee was composed of Lester F. Moorman, T. W. Rodabaugh and Frank W. Gray. The St. Louis exposition was a success, they said. Thousands of farmers came from all parts of Missouri and surrounding states to inspect the tractors. More than 100 firms exhibited and a tract of several thousand acres was plowed. All of these firms gave assurance that they would exhibit at the Indianapolis exposition. Plans for the Indianapolis exhibitions are being perfected rapidly. The demonstrations will be given each morning and afternoon on a 60-acre tract six miles west of Indianapolis on the National road. It is expected that 100,000 farmers will attend.

been exceeded. An analysis of the statements from Class 1 railroads, or those controlling most of the mileage in the country, shows that part at least of the transportation system to be in a sound condition financially.

The Lehigh Valley report indicates that high class freight was responsible for the prosperity. The increase of 30 per cent in the railroads owed the boom of 1915 to war business, but it is evident now that they are profiting more from domestic traffic than from shipments for export.

It has been the contention of the employees that increased earnings justified increased wages but before future and additional concessions, based on present conditions, are made, it might be well to be sure that factors are not transigent.

ARREST YOUNG ATTORNEY AFTER WOMAN'S RESCUE

F. R. HOUSE, AGE 29, ACCUSED OF ATTACK BY THE POLICE.

CONFESSES, DETECTIVES SAY

Francis R. House, age twenty-nine, an attorney with an office on the twelfth floor of the Law building, was arrested today on charges of grand larceny and assault and battery with criminal intent.

The Brown woman, who was arrested on a charge of grand larceny, was later without bond, told the police that House invited her to his office and then attacked her.

House was arrested several hours later on the ledge of the window from which she dropped a few feet to an adjoining roof.

Her screams on the top of the high building attracted the attention of persons on the street below, and they summoned the police, who rescued her.

House was arrested several hours later by two detectives at his home at 133 Garland avenue.

Check Promised, She Says. The woman told the police she met House at Illinois and Ohio streets and that he told her his name was Cook.

When taken from the roof the woman exhibited many indications of a struggle. Her clothing was almost torn from her and there were numerous scratches and bruises on her face.

BRITISH NAVAL EXPERT DISCUSSES U.S. PROGRAM

ADMIRAL BRIDGE SAYS PREPARATION LEGISLATION IS TIMELY. CALLS CANAL A GREAT ASSET

[Correspondence of Associated Press] LONDON, August 8.—The naval program of the United States is a modest one, in the opinion of Admiral Sir Cyril Bridge, retired, one of England's greatest naval experts and counselors.

Canal Should Be Guarded "The action of your government seems timely. I have been one of those who consider the Panama canal as an even greater asset for defensive purposes than for commercial advantage and I believe that a larger naval program for your country certainly is justified by your ability to place perfect confidence in the canal's availability on account of slides now and then I refer to the emergency of transferring quickly from one side of your continent to the other your ships in case of attack, bearing in mind the wisdom of your being able to concentrate on both sides until the problem of slides has been definitely solved, enough naval strength to meet any attack. It appears that your naval experts have duly considered this point in making provision for 157 additional ships, including sixteen submarines, to be completed within the next three years.

Submarine's Value Uncertain "Notwithstanding some divergence of opinion on the subject, I think that it is quite safe to say that the lessons of naval engagements in the war have justified the generally accepted division into classes of fighting craft—battleships, heavy and light cruisers, destroyers and perhaps submarines. "The use of the qualifying word with reference to submarines because, in my opinion, the submarine has not proved a very important fighting factor during the present war. Perhaps contrary to popular impression, the submarine has affected only to a very slight degree the tonnage available for the main purpose of the war, the entente allies. Indeed, the shortage of tonnage which has been causing so much inconvenience is due in an overwhelming proportion to the absorption of ships for naval and military purposes. Notwithstanding this fact, the possibility of the development of the submarine must not be left out of account.

Each Ship Not Separate. "I understand it is now possible to control the fire of ships in groups, a fact not considered possible a few years ago. The belief in its impossibility was the reason for the concentration of so many guns of the same caliber on a single ship, thus necessitating mammoth displacement. If the fire of groups of ships can be satisfactorily controlled, that reason consequently no longer exists. "The size and power of individual guns, therefore, need not be reduced if the same caliber are retained, somewhat smaller ships might carry a reduced number of guns. "It would accordingly seem wise to consider very carefully whether the huge dimensions of capital ships are compatible with the possible employment in the near future of highly developed submarines.

Guns, Not Torpedoes, Effective. "Coming to the lesson of the battle of Jutland, the most striking result, to my mind, was that the guns and not the torpedoes were, generally speaking, the weapons which decided the battle. "The most interesting feature of the battle was the period during which our ships were in action without being very seriously damaged by the German fire, which seems to confirm Admiral Farragut's argument that the best armor is the turret armor. "Of our ships the Marlborough was the only one that suffered from today's attack and she kept fighting and made out well for 21 knots. What the actual German losses were by torpedoes we do not know definitely, but our destroyers were dashed forward to the contact and during the engagement and they have been effective several times. "The point is that it was the guns which decided the battle. "In addition to the class of the ships mentioned, I take it that your appropriation will cover the construction of special craft, such as minesweepers, mine layers and hospital ships and possibly even naval collars. Considering the large amount of shipping yards at your disposal, it would seem plausible that you could without inconvenience turn out the sixteen capital ships referred to in your program in the specified three years. "The armament of the ships, as outlined, as stated, seems to me to be a fair one for the three years. "The simple automatic gun, which has been in the hands of the Wright company, will be acquired in full by the corporation, it is said, by the Wright company and will be provided in large numbers and motors for aeroplane construction.

Vice-Admiral Kamimura, who was sixty-seven years old, was one of the most prominent officers in the Japanese navy. As commander-in-chief of the second squadron, he played an important part in the Russo-Japanese war, and is believed to have led in the naval assault with the British squadron against the German base at Tsing Tao, China, in 1914. In August, 1906, the squadron of Admiral Kamimura defeated the Russian warships Rurik, Gromoboi and Rossia off the east coast of Korea, sinking the Rurik and capturing the other two, damaged badly. Previously to this, Kamimura had been unpopular because the Rurik, which with the Gromoboi and Rossia composed the Vladivostok squadron, had destroyed two transports loaded with Japanese troops. His victory redeemed his reputation with the masses in Japan and his reputation further was enhanced later when his squadron took a leading part in the battle of the Sea of Japan, when Russia's naval power was destroyed. After this battle Kamimura received the title of baron and was invested with the grand cordon of the Rising Sun and the first class order of the Golden Kite.

A. T. HERT TO BE WESTERN REPUBLICAN MANAGER

F. H. HITCHCOCK TO ASSIST

CHICAGO, August 8.—William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican national committee, has selected A. T. Hert, Kentucky's member of the national committee, to be manager of the western branch of the Hughes campaign, with headquarters in Chicago. The announcement was made here last night after Chairman Willcox had consulted party leaders.

Chairman Willcox gave out a statement which said in part:

"Mr. Hert will have associated with him at headquarters other members of the committee.

"Mr. Frank H. Hitchcock has been prominently named in connection with this work, but some days ago he informed me that he was not only not a candidate, but could not, under any circumstances, give the time necessary for the work at the western headquarters. Mr. Hitchcock, however, has assured me of his willingness and desire to assist in every possible way in the work of the campaign.

"We recognize the fact that the work to be done here is of a very important nature, accordingly the organization at these headquarters will be perfected at once and the campaign vigorously pushed."

James A. Hemenway and Joseph B. Keating, of Indiana, have been considered as manager for the Chicago headquarters.

Mr. Hert, the new western manager, was formerly active in Indiana politics. For several years he served as warden of the Indiana State Prison, south of Jeffersonville before that institution became the Indiana state reformatory. Louisville, Ky., is his home.

Hert Makes Statement.

Mr. Hert's comment was confined to this statement: "It was my wish that another should be chosen for the work here, but now that I have been selected it will be my aim to do the work well. I am sure we will have the assistance and co-operation of the political leaders of our united party throughout the west and the our cause will triumph."

Later he announced that "business begins at our office at once."

"The campaign is on from this moment," he said, and gave plenty of indication that he means what he said.

Chairman Willcox said the territory to be controlled by the western headquarters will be the usual states allotted to Chicago headquarters. He said he had not considered opening a territory in the west, so Mr. Hert's allotment practically is everything between the Ohio-Indiana state line and the Pacific ocean.

SAYS HERT IS HUSTLER.

L. W. Henley Says Appointment is Pleasing to Indiana Republicans.

"No appointment from outside the state could have been more pleasing to Indiana Republicans than the appointment of A. T. Hert of Kentucky, to have charge of the western headquarters of the Republican national committee in Chicago," said L. W. Henley, secretary of the Republican state committee, today.

"The fact that Mr. Hert is a former Indiana man, and is well acquainted with the Republican workers of Indiana, makes him most acceptable to the constituents of this state," Hert is a hustler. He has been successful in business and has the enthusiastic regard of the leading ones of two states. As the Republican national committee from Kentucky he has worked in harmony with the aims of the Indiana Republicans.

Mr. Hert was formerly warden of the Indiana prison at Jeffersonville under Governor Willard T. Durbin. He went to Chicago to take charge of the Indiana branch of the party, and is now reported to be a millionaire and one of the best of leading ones of two states. As the Republican national committee from Kentucky he has worked in harmony with the aims of the Indiana Republicans.

ST. PAUL FAVORED FOR PRINTERS' TOURNAMENT

VISITORS TO BE ENTERTAINED BY FIFTY-MILE AUTO RACE.

PICNIC AT GERMANIA PARK

The tenth annual baseball tournament of the Union Printers' National Baseball League, in 1917, probably will be held in St. Paul, it was announced today.

A decision will not be made until later in the week. John M. McGowan, president of the league, said it will be St. Paul's turn to entertain the tournament, and that it probably will go to that city.

The visiting printers are expecting a number of thrills tomorrow, when four drivers compete for a purse of $1,000 at the Indianapolis motor speedway, in a fifty-mile race arranged as a tournament feature. To add to the interest a drawing has been made, and each driver will represent three league towns. John Aitken, driving a Peugeot, will represent Boston, St. Paul and Philadelphia. Charles Metz, also in a Peugeot, will carry the New York, Cleveland and Pittsburg pennants. Gil Anderson, in a Premier, will represent Washington, Detroit and St. Louis, and Howard Wilcox in a Premier will undertake to win for Cincinnati, Chicago and Indianapolis.

GOLF COMMENT
News and Views.

CHAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., August 8.—The unusual actions of a big black crow and a peppy little honey bee furnish Harley W. Orbanau, former golf champion of the Crawfordville Country Club, with a partial alibi for his defeat at the hands of Lawrence E. DeVore in the semi-finals of the annual club championship tournament. DeVore put Orbanau out of the running 4 up and 3 to play in a strenuous thirty-six-hole match. The crow and the honey bee aided DeVore in getting Orbanau's "coat."

On the twenty-fifth hole, Orbanau pulled a brand new $1 hole-in-one and drove it bounding more than 200 yards down the course. DeVore had previously driven his ball a like distance and a big black crow was noticed flapping about in the vicinity of DeVore's ball as Orbanau drove. Just as the crow noticed the new white ball rolling on the green he made a dive for it, grabbed it with his bill and started to fly away. The elusive ball, however, rolled from the crow's bill. Immediately he took a second and firmer hold on the ball and flew triumphantly away across the bluff of Sugar creek. Orbanau's dismay for he not only lost the hole but a dollar ball along with it.

While this incident started Orbanau slipping, his final downfall came on the thirty-first hole. Just as he teed up his ball and swung back his trusted driver to line out another 200-yard drive, a honey bee had been stung under his shirt sleeve, stung him on the arm. DeVore Orbanau could capture the little pest, the bee had stung him in four places. This was Orbanau's Waterloo and he lost the hole and the match.

DeVore will now play Gaylord S. McCluer this week for the club championship in a thirty-six hole match. McCluer had previously put Dr. Harry E. Greene out of the running in the semi-finals, five up and three down. The winner of the championship secures possession of the president's cup for the coming year. To hold the cup permanently it must be won three times. Robert H. Tinsley is the present cup holder.

In the race for the vice-president's cup, Bennett E. Engle bids fair to retain the honor which he won last year. He is four up on John C. Snyder at the end of the first eighteen holes of their thirty-six-hole match in the semi-finals. Marsh Jones, a Wabash college senior, will oppose the winner of the Engle-Snyder match in the finals. Engle is the favorite in both matches.

Fraternity politics is creeping into the race for the president's cup. Both DeVore and McCluer are Wabash college graduates, McCluer having been graduated with the class of 1892 and DeVore in 1911. McCluer is a Phi Gamma Delta fraternity man while DeVore is a Phi Delta Theta.

CHICAGO, August 8.—The program for the annual championship of the Women's Western Golf Association, which will be held at the Kent Country Club, Grand Rapids, Mich., August 21 to 23, was made public today. The first round will be played August 21, four flights of sixteen each, qualifying for the championship. The first match round will be the second round of the main flights and at eighteen holes for those who failed to qualify on the first day. On August 22 the second round of the main flights and the first round for the consolation and nonqualifiers will be held. Semi-finals will be reached August 23 and the finals on the following day. A mixed foursome handicap will conclude the tournament.

Next Saturday is the biggest day of the year for the South Grove golfers as that is the date set for the opening of play in the annual championship tournament of that club. According to the official announcement of that event sent out today by President Joe Kelly and Secretary Otto Asperger, of South Grove, the tournament will start with eighteen holes of a medal play which must be completed either next Saturday or Sunday. The thirty-two low score men are to qualify for the medal play in the championship flight. The first round of match play will begin August 13, and each round will be played on succeeding weeks until the championship is decided. The preliminary matches will all be for eighteen holes and the finals alone being for thirty-six holes.

As the tournament progresses, four separate flights will be formed, and the winner and runner-up in each division will receive a prize. This arrangement makes it possible for every entrant to win a prize.

The winner in the first flight will be the champion for 1916, and will have his name engraved upon the S. G. C. trophy. To obtain permanent possession of this cup, it must be won three times. The present club champion is Morris W. Conroy, who has won it once.

The pairings for match play will be made according to the score turned in.

LONDON (by mail), July 5.—British golf players—all above military age just now—are strong for the girl caddie. In club-caddie meetings, the opposite sex is a decided success. What she lacks in carrying clubs she gains by lack of irritating comment.

Experienced and veteran golfers alike declare that the female caddie, if properly trained, is a keen interest in the game as the boy caddie, but she doesn't attempt to take all the joy out of a perfectly played "four" by piping: "Mr. Soandso always does that hole in three."

The girl caddie is doing the work on scores of British links while her brother is making munitions.

ELEVEN TEAMS ENTER CITY AMATEUR SERIES

First games will be played next Saturday—protest under investigation.

At a meeting in the park board office last night much enthusiasm was displayed over the coming city series. Eleven teams, representing the various leagues, will take part and fight it out for the city championship.

The teams that are entered are: Link-Belt, and Wheeler-Schebler, from the wholesale division of the Commercial League; Broadway M. E. and Third Christian, from the Sunday School League; Modern Woodmen and Meldon Club, from the Municipal League; Schloss Bros., from the Retail Commercial League; Fernalde A. C. from the Civic League; Langdale plant, from the Citizens Gas League, and the Duesseldorfers and Rupp White Sox, representing the independent teams.

Start Next Saturday.

The series will start August 12 instead of August 19 as previously announced. Owing to this fact no arrangements have been made for the use of local parks. A wife was sent James McGill, owner of the Indians, last night, asking for the use of Washington park. Final announcement will be made later in the week.

At the drawing last night, the Link-Belt and Third Christian drew the first game for Saturday. Wheeler-Schebler and Broadway M. E. will play the second game. Langdale Plant of the Citizens Gas drew the bye and will not play this Saturday.

In the Sunday games, Schloss Bros. and Meldon Club will play the first game and Modern Woodmen and Fernalde A. C. will play the second game.

The Duesseldorfers will cross bats with the Rupp White Sox on Sunday, August 21.

The series will be an elimination series and as soon as a team loses a game it will be out of the series. From the drawing it looks as if there will be some mighty good games.

All teams must post a forfeit of $5.

BEST AMATEUR IN COUNTRY

LUDY LANGER.

To the long list of fallen athletic idols has been added the name of Herbert Vollmer, premier amateur swimmer of the east. The young man who was enrolled as the once invincible swimmer of Columbia university and the New York A. C. met his master, Ludy Langer, of Los Angeles, Cal., the fastest swimmer in the west, performed the feat in the A. A. U. quarter-mile championship race in the placid waters of Travers Island, New York, Saturday in a way that left no doubt of his superiority.

All who viewed the race were united in the opinion that Langer's victory stamps him as the greatest amateur swimmer east of the Rocky mountains.

The visit to New York of Ludy Langer aroused considerable interest among eastern experts.

They felt pretty well convinced, before the young Californian's appearance, that the four-beat trudgeon-crawl strokes, used so effectively by Vollmer, Cann, McGilivray, Laubis and most of the championship candidates, was the best.

Langer is a devotee of four-beat "double" trudgeon-crawl and his wonderful speed speaks forcefully for the stroke he has adopted.

It is the opinion of Langer himself, that both styles are recommendable, only that each is suited for swimmers of a certain make-up, so that some will find the single variety best fitted to their own individual requirements, others will get greater results from the double.

This view does not seem unwarranted, because personal physical attributes undoubtedly play an important role in swimming, yet close students of natation are inclined to believe that eventually one style or the other will prove its supremacy for the majority of men and women.

NEW TEMPORARY LOAN IS AUTHORIZED BY COUNCIL. VOGEL SLATED FOR NEW PLACE PROPOSED BY CONTROLLER. LOAN IS THE SIXTH IN YEAR.

That the Bell administration is spending the public's money faster than the revenues of the city justify was disclosed at a meeting of the city council last night, when the council passed, under suspension of the rules, an ordinance authorizing the city controller to negotiate a temporary loan of $250,000 to pay the current expenses of the city government until the fall installment of taxes is received.

An ordinance was introduced by Reginald H. Sullivan, city controller, which he believes will assist the administration in working out a plan for caring for Barrett law bonds and other securities held by the city. It has been the custom for many years, Mr. Sullivan says, for a clerk in his office to receive $300 a year for keeping these accounts. He believes the accounts should be kept under the direction of the board of public works, because the bonds are held by that department as securities.

Vogel Slated for Appointment. The ordinance he introduced authorizes the controller to appoint a clerk to receive $300 a year to do the work. William Vogel, Barrett law clerk in the controller's office, is slated for the appointment. The council passed the ordinance under suspension of the rules.

The council passed an ordinance under suspension of the rules increasing the salary of the city license clerk from $1,000 to $1,200 a year, because Edward G. Sourlier, county treasurer, wishes to have the city license clerk appointed a deputy city treasurer in order to bring the system of issuing licenses by the city under his jurisdiction.

Although knowing that the city now has a bonding margin of only about $200,000, and that the city for a period of not to exceed four months, and at a rate of interest not to exceed 6 per cent, is in the sixth temporary loan made by the Bell administration on this year, the amount being $325,000.

The council voted favorably on an ordinance appropriating $100 which was spent by the city to buy flowers to place on the coffin of James Whitcomb Riley.

An ordinance was introduced which would provide for the appropriation of $50 to Woodburn Mason, an attorney, who, with George Shirts, completed the codification and revision of city ordinances. It is proposed to pay Mason $25 for meeting with the council to explain the work he and Shirts have completed.

Legality of Action Questioned. The question of the legality of the action has been raised frequently since the two attorneys were employed to revise the ordinances, it being contended that the work should have been done by the department of law. By voting $25 to Mason the council will relieve the legal department of work which comes under its regular duties.

Ordinances were introduced that would authorize the board of public works to bid sidewalks in Fourteenth street, from Meridian to Pennsylvania streets, and to improve Ruckle street from Fourteenth street to Twenty-first street over the majority remonstrances of resident property owners.

It is not known what interest Sam V. Ferriss, chief of the bureau, might have in the improvement, as it is not known that he owns property in Fourteenth street between Meridian and Pennsylvania streets.

$500 for Fountains and Wells. Another ordinance introduced provided for the disposal of $500 of the money left from the water company appraisal fund. This fund originally was $10,000, appropriated at the request of Mayor Bell. It was to be used to buy a special car for the property of the Indianapolis Water Company. George Sturtevant, of Chicago, a consulting engineer, was employed to make the appraisal.

But the work was finished. The company and the city administration made their rate agreement without so far as the public knows, making use of the Sturtevant appraisal. That cost the taxpayers $3,500 and so far as at least as the public knows was not used.

The ordinance introduced last night provided for the transfer of $50 of the $500 left of the appraisal fund to the fountain and wells fund of the board of public works.

Following the meeting of the council, it met as a committee of the whole to revise the ordinance of the measure providing for the revision and codification of all city ordinances.

EVIDENCE IN THE SYRUS CASE. Public Service Commission Holds Hearing, but Again Defers Decision. Members of the Indiana public service commission, who act as an arbitration board to decide controversies between the union employees of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company and the company, heard evidence today in the case in which Thomas J. #### Little Stories of Daily Life

How Truth May Mislead.

An attorney who has practiced law in Indianapolis for many years, formerly was counsel for a railroad company entering the city. He told the following story recently:

"I remember a damage case we had once which illustrates how easily the truth may mislead. A man had been killed by a passenger train when crossing a grade a few miles out of Indianapolis. It was at night and a foggy night. The wagon prevented his hearing the approaching train.

"Two witnesses testified that no headlight was burning on the locomotive, and that they did not hear any whistle. It was in the days when oil headlights were used, and each headlight was equipped with a little shade like a window blind, that could be raised and lowered. The engineer and the fireman testified that they had lighted the headlight an hour before the accident and that they examined it after the accident and found it burning.

"We won the case. Several days after that I met the engineer and asked him: 'John, how did it happen those other people testified the headlight was not burning?' 'Well,' he said, 'they were right in a way. We lighted the headlight early and pulled down the shade. It was still down when it occurred, but we told the truth when we said it was lighted.'"

Makes Toilet on Street Car.

A Columbus (Ind.) young woman who overleapt one morning recently entertained passengers on a street car because she was determined not to be late in arriving at her place of employment. She obtained a seat in the car and then produced a comb. Calmly taking down her rumpled hair, she combed it and then "did" it in a fetching manner. She next produced a hand mirror and a box of powder, after which she powdered her nose, smiled at the other passengers and was ready for the day's work.

Britain at Mercy of Foreign Food Producers, Times Says

LONDON, August 8.—In an article pleading for vigorous government encouragement of home-grown foodstuffs the Times, in an editorial article today, says: "Who fixes the price for bread? The Chicago corn rings. Who determines how much we shall pay for meat? The Chicago meat trust. Who decides how much our ration of bacon shall cost? The Danish bacon producers. The price of our butter is largely regulated by Danish and French butter makers; the price of our cheese by Canadian and American cheesemakers. With the exception of milk and fish, there is hardly any article of food which is not controlled by foreign producers. "At the present crisis the price of meat affords a good illustration of the grip of the foreign producer. On the whole we may be grateful to the American meat trust for the moderation with which they have used their power. In the circumstances, why, it is asked, should we not fix maximum prices for meat? The reflection shows that this lever is powerless in the face of our necessity. We are dealing with an immensely wealthy organization which could easily afford to stand out of trade for a month. We can not wait a single day. Whatever the prices asked, we must have the meat, and we can't even refuse the use of our ships, for without this meat our armies and those of our allies would starve."
