WARNS CANDY EATERS.

Hurty Urges Them to Improve Health and Save Sugar.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) SHELBYVILLE, Ind., November 8.—Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, in a letter which he has sent to a local newspaper concerning the eating of poisoned candy by some local women, urges that less sugar be consumed as a matter of bene- fit to the public health, as well as to conserve the supply. The advice of the secretary of the health board is as follows: "This offers an opportunity to tell your readers something about eating candy. Physiologists and those who have studied dietetics and nutrition all say 'The people eat too much candy,' and the children eat too much candy. The mother who gives her child a penny to buy a stick of candy with is all too frequently permitting the child to poison itself, not that the candy is poisonous, but eaten between meals and whenever the child wants it, its digestion is certain to be disturbed. Candy is a good thing for dessert. That is, it should be eaten with other food and always in a limited quantity. It is safe to say that in the examination of school children 80 to 90 per cent. of them have more or less stomach or bowel trouble. All of this trouble is due to wrong eating and much of it to the overeating of candy and sweets, especially the eating of such things between meals and at odd times."

CURB SUGGESTED FOR RETAIL COAL PROFITS. NEW INSTRUCTIONS TO STATE FUEL ADMINISTRATORS. MAY LOWER THE PRICES.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—Possible reduction of retail coal prices was indicated by the fuel administration today in instructions to state fuel administrators empowering them to change methods of fixing retail margins.

May Fix Profit. "When such a condition is reported in your territory we suggest that your local committee make a careful investigation of the costs of doing business to each of the dealers and if it appears that more than a reasonable profit is being enjoyed, that the committee arrive at a fair and reasonable profit to be allowed the retailer, send their recommendations to the state administrator, who will pass upon them to determine whether their findings are equitable and just to the consumer and retailer as well."

Make Appeal for Cars. Directors of the National Coal Association appealed today to a committee representing the railroad war board, the priority shipment committee, the fuel administration and the interstate commerce commission to give the bituminous coal industry of the country enough railroad cars to enable it to produce on full time.

WINGS OF ANDERSON'S MAYOR TO BE CLIPPED

REPUBLICAN COUNCIL MAY HOLD MELLETT IN CHECK. MAY REJECT APPOINTMENTS

(Special to The Indianapolis News) ANDERSON, Ind., November 8.—J. H. Mellett, re-elected mayor of Anderson by a plurality of 52, has decided not to resign because four of the five members of the next city council are Republican and practically will control affairs of the city by their majority on the boards. It will be the first city council out of control of Democrats in Anderson for ten years past. Mellett was a member of the city council four years before he was elected to his first term as mayor, and he was one of the dominant members of the council during the Foster administration. Republican found no comfort in the city council after Mellett was elected councilman, so they relish the change that will come about in January, when the city administration will not be a one-man affair.

Has Appointing Power. Mayor Mellett will have a few appointments to make. It is expected he will not displace Paul O'Keefe, city attorney, who was one of the main speakers for Mellett in both of his campaigns. Elmo Funk, city engineer, is another who will be retained. Just how much further the mayor may proceed remains to be determined, for it is expected a Republican council will not agree that Mayor Mellett shall make or dictate appointments as he has been doing for four years. The city council, as a board of public works outside of the city, would have control over the police department. The council, it is asserted, has the sole power of making and filling appointments for the public utility.

May Be Checked by Council. There is a probability of Mayor Mellett attempting to create a board of public works outside of the council, and thereby retain control of all affairs usually referred to or controlled by the board of works. But such a board must be appointed by the council, and it is pointed out that the new council, following a program of economy, will not agree to a board of works outside of the council.

The board of works, having control of the municipal water and light plants, the fire department and others, will, it is expected, see to it that the excessive number of Democrats in the light and water plants be supplanted with members of other parties, or perhaps the number of Democrats in the light and water plants be reduced in order to ease up the salary demands of the city. The police department also may be reorganized. At this time John W. Mountain, Democratic city chairman, who succeeded Mountain. Black and Mountain came from Alexandria when Mountain was mayor, ran for the office of city deputy, and when Mountain retired Black succeeded him as sheriff.

DEMOCRATIC BLUNDER. How Ft. Wayne Was Won by Republicans by Plurality.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) FT. WAYNE, Ind., November 8.—The election here provided no surprise in the defeat of the Democratic ticket, but the sweeping nature of the adverse vote was a surprise to the leaders on both sides. The change from a plurality of 1,800 four years ago to 2,500 this time in the city ticket was due, first, to deep-seated antagonism to the present administration, led by William J. Hoesy, who is a Republican. The second reason was the tactical blunder of the Democratic managers who insisted on submitting a national for local issues. "They felt sure that the issue on support of the President in the conduct of the war they could overcome the people's distrust of an antagonism to the record of the local administration. Not that Hoesy was the candidate to succeed himself. The Democratic candidate, Maurice Niezer, was eminently respectable and worthy of his party's chief clerk Tuesday, but the announcement of his candidacy was made on the day that Hoesy announced he would not be a candidate to succeed himself and the people drew the inference, which could not be dislodged, that Niezer had struck a bargain with the unpopular Hoesy and they would take no chances on more of that kind of influence in city affairs.

The tactical blunder consisted in the insistent effort to brand every Democrat opposed to Hoesy as a traitor to the cause of the war. The Democratic registration as disloyal to Wilson and the flag. This was kept up day after day in the party newspapers and by the speakers, and it drove the Democrats of German name so far away from Niezer that they were not even in the race. The Democratic ticket, since the election, has been heard to say that the Republican nomination for county offices next year will be worth having.

BUNCH FOR CONGRESS. Boom Started by Supporters of Muncie's Re-elected Mayor.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) MUNCIE, Ind., November 8.—Flushed by the success of Dr. Rollin H. Bunch's victory when he was elected mayor of Muncie by a plurality of 204 votes, his political friends here have started a boom for Bunch for congress. They say that since his overwhelming victory in a city that is normally Republican or at least formerly was Bunch has come by rights the "first Democrat" of the Eighth district, and is entitled to the congressional nomination. These friends say that Bunch is in close touch with the Madison county Democratic organization and being in absolute control of that in Delaware, and Chester H. Shapleigh, both of infantry, two counties would be able to run over the four small counties that complete the district.

It has been commonly understood that John A. M. Adair, last year's candidate for Governor of Indiana, and for ten years previously to last, March 4, 1911, was an even better representative in the lower house, would again be a candidate for the U. S. House of Representatives. The Bunch adherents say Adair has become a "dead one." They point out that not only was he defeated in the gubernatorial race, but he was unable to continue the Democratic succession in the office of eighth district representative and that as a consequence Albert H. Vestal, Republican, of Anderson is now representing the district in congress instead of Judge Jacob S. Denny, Democrat.

Minor Election Aftermath. WINDFALL—The following Republicans were elected here: Trustees, William E. and Elijah Perry; clerk-treasurer, Fred Dunn. CROWN POINT—Benjamin F. Hayes, the newly elected mayor of Crown Point, has offered to put $45 of his $500 salary back into the city treasury. SALEM—The citizens ticket was elected here by good majorities, as follows: George R. Foster and Jerry M. Jamison, trustees; Ward W. Shanks, clerk; Mason Martin, treasurer. REDKEY—The result of the election here was an even split. The Democrats and two Republicans were elected. The Democrats elected Charles H. Hays, clerk-treasurer, and George Faunce trustee. The Republicans elected Alfred Hatzell and David Cook. NOBLESVILLE—The Republicans of Sheridan elected their entire ticket, Tuesday. It was an even split. The town clerk, clerk and treasurer, their vote was two to one against the Democrats. Four years ago Sheridan was the only town in Hamilton county that elected a Progressive officer. HUNTINGTON—The Republicans and Democrats split the town ticket at Market. Usually Democratic. Mart Bair (Rep.) was elected marshal in 1912. The Republicans elected Leonard (Rep.) was elected secretary-treasurer. J. J. Wolf and George Ditzler were elected trustees. The Republicans elected Charles H. Hays, clerk-treasurer, and Frank Christmas, clerk, and Frank Andrew, treasurer. COLUMBUS—Two towns in Bartholomew county that had been changed, making it the duty of the town trustees to appoint a clerk and treasurer. The Republicans put candidates for marshal in the field and voted on them. At Clifford G. B. Everard had no opposition so nobody will contest his election. At Jonesville Fred Meninger, who was a candidate on the People's ticket, tied with Harry Crane, who ran on the Citizens' ticket. Each received 27 votes. ALEXANDRIA—Dr. W. F. Thomas, Republican candidate for mayor, who lost to R. H. Malone by four votes, was elected marshal. The Republican candidate, who was defeated by Joseph Marley by four votes also, say they have received reports that several mutilated ballots in their favor were not included in the final tabulation. It is believed that evidence may be obtained to show that at least two or three voters cast ballots who did not live in Alexandria.

PERU—The citizens' movement was not popular in Peru, so only two councilmen on the ticket. The first Democratic member of the town board for more than twenty years, was defeated for re-election by Charles Swain, formerly a member of the county board of commissioners. Mr. Swain was at Kansas City on business for more than a month preceding his election, but his friends looked after his campaign. Howard Walker, Republican, was elected clerk. In the town elections at Summitville and Lapel there were no contests, the voters merely ratifying citizens' tickets with no others in the field. HARTFORD, CITY—For the first time in twenty-two years the Republicans made a clean sweep of the municipal election, win-

Did Not Sing in German. YONKERS, N. Y., November 8.—Prominent feeling against Teutonic music became apparent at a concert here yesterday afternoon, when it was announced that Harry Lohr would sing in German. Mrs. Robert Jacobson, who has a son in the United States army, protested that it was improper to sing a German song under the present circumstances and was vigorously applauded. Mr. Lohr confined his vocal efforts to French and English songs.

Four Republican Cripples in City and County Offices

(Special to The Indianapolis News) WASHINGTON, Ind., November 8.—The Republicans of Wabash county and of this city seem to be partial to cripples when selecting candidates for public office. Dr. L. W. Smith, Republican, who was elected mayor Tuesday after overturning a normal Democratic plurality, lost both legs several months ago in an automobile accident. Joseph Cowgill, Republican county assessor, has no hands. R. B. Van Dusen, Republican, elected city clerk Tuesday, has only one leg. George Schlemmer, Republican, elected city councilman Tuesday, fell out of an automobile just before the election and broke an arm.

GIVES DETAILS OF DEATHS.

General Pershing Reports Suicide of Major B. B. Lewis. WASHINGTON, November 8.—Major Birdseye H. Lewis, detailed to the aviation section of the signal corps and attached to General Pershing's staff, whose death was previously reported to relatives in private cables, committed suicide last Saturday. The war department was so advised today by General Pershing in a message, giving no details. Major Lewis, who was twenty-nine years old and a resident of Millbrook, N. Y., entered the army after the war began. He is survived by the widow, a daughter of Oakleigh Thorne, New York capitalist. The deaths of one noncommissioned officer and three enlisted men attached to the expeditionary forces, also were reported by General Pershing. Two died from accidental wounds and two from natural causes. Sergeant Carl C. Taylor, infantry, died October 27 from a gunshot wound, believed to have been suffered accidentally. His next of kin is his father, Chester O. Taylor, Dover, N. H. Private James Shea, attached to a truck company, died from accidental injuries to his head. His emergency address is J. J. Comer, New York city. Privates Wagoner Roland Naylor and Chester H. Shapleigh, both of infantry, died November 4 from pneumonia. Naylor's next of kin is his father, Walter Naylor, Pleasantville, N. J. Shapleigh's is his mother, Mrs. K. Shapleigh, Elliott, Me.

If You Feel "Below Par" your blood is probably deficient in red cells, and is thin and sluggish, your general health is not good and you probably have many "off" days. When your vitality is thus lowered, you are easy prey to any disease that comes along, because your resistance is feeble. Gude's Pepto-Mangan "The Red Blood Builder" A general health builder for convalescents, weak, run down, anemic and overworked people, and a desirable tonic for invalids, the aged, and delicate children. It builds, braces and tones. It reconstructs the very stream of life—the blood, by adding to it thousands of new, rich, red blood cells. It also puts iron in the blood—in an easily digested form that is acceptable both to the palate and the stomach. If you are listless, nervous and lack force, if your appetite is poor, and your energy is low, take a course of Pepto-Mangan. It has brought back the full joy of living to thousands and should do the same for you, unless you have a serious organic disease. Pepto-Mangan has a pleasantly aromatic taste, and cannot impair the digestion or injure the teeth. Its beneficial results are usually soon apparent. Friendly Warning: Gude's is the one genuine Pepto-Mangan. It is sold only in bottles and packages as shown here; never sold in bulk. Select substitutes. Read circular around bottle. For sale by all druggists. Pepto-Mangan is made only by M. J. BREITENBACH CO., New York Manufacturing Chemists.

are "fired" by the same type of men, raw-boned fellows and efficient enough in their work but hardly big enough to be entrusted with the responsibility of deciding on the fitness of an employee for other work in the same factory.

When a worker is discharged there is ordinarily no recourse, though the man discharged might be made of good use in another department.

The labor shift could be reduced in all probability by the use of different methods, and a movement in the right direction is already being noted.

Progressive industries now hire men through an efficient employment department in the charge of a man or woman of general, as well as special, training, who is really capable of judging of an applicant's fitness for the work he is to do.

When hired and found unsatisfactory in one department, an attempt is made to make use of the training he has already received by transferring him to another department. No man is permitted to be discharged without an adequate reason being given.

Promotion is assured efficient employees and there is an effort to make working conditions pleasant and profitable. Such policies introduced now might help to relieve the situation.

AFTER-ELECTION SENTIMENTS... Words oftentimes obtain extraordinary significance from the circumstances under which they are spoken.

Before an election the public expects a candidate to express any sort of sentiment likely to obtain votes. After the election not so much is expected.

Attention is called to these words of Mayor-elect Jewett, spoken at the Marion Club after his election:

"Now that the campaign is over, I want to tell you something. I declined to take a salary for my campaign as a public service corporation, from a salaried position or a gambler. My hands are not tied by anybody. I stand today with a single promise having been made to the highest or the lowest. It is my sincere desire to give Indianapolis the square deal it has ever had in government."

"My hands are not tied by anybody. I stand today with a single promise having been made to the highest or the lowest." Voters hear such sentiments before election often. They expect them and would be surprised if they were not forthcoming.

After the election they do not expect them. From most candidates such after-election sentiments would come as a distinct shock.

"Has he not got what he was after? Why, in the name of politics, should he continue his campaign after election?" These are likely to be the views of the "practical" politician. Mr. Jewett, apparently, has other ideas.

The city again has reason to be congratulated on its choice in the mayoralty campaign.

Some of the county fuel administrators are calling attention to the fact that coal dealers tell them farmers are among their best customers.

They have reported that farmers insist on having coal although they have plenty of wood that could be burned if the trouble were taken to cut it. Furnaces in so many farmhouses have given the rural dweller about the same tastes as his urban brother.

But if the coal shortage continues some of us are going to be compelled to get back to first principles. The old open fireplace not only sends out grateful heat but it is a pleasant place to contemplate, and in the country, where wood is plentiful, is the very best place to make the start. It may be admitted, however, that it is a long way from the standing tree to the fireplace, and sometimes a lack of labor interferes with a greater use of wood for fuel.

But probably the city hall crowd has a good deal to say that it is saying to itself.

The coal supplied to dealers by the coal administration will burn just as well as if the jobber's 15 per cent had been paid.

The anti-war note in the elections also was too faint to create a discord.

The snuffages objecting to a diet of potatoes and cabbage do not appreciate real luxuries.

New York's chances for being sorry till the next time are also good.

Snow and smoke are some of the non-desirable by-products of which the government might curb with general satisfaction.

One trouble with cheap substitutes is that they don't seem to remain cheap.

It would only be following a well-established precedent if an Indiana man were to capture the kaiser.

It is apparently going to become harder and harder to get liquors into this country, but we don't need them as badly as we need some other things.

There is a time for the discussion of peace, and that time will come when the gates of Berlin-Senator Reed.

Maybe we'd better wait until it has broken them down.

Cheer up, girls! Suppose you had to knit sweaters with that paper yarn they use in Germany!

Now that booze can't be imported from any place except the Virgin Islands no doubt some of the booze foundries wish that they had more foresight about expanding their business.

If there are as many complications about reducing the price of bread as there have been about reducing the price of coal the prospect doesn't look immediately encouraging.

There is no diplomatic representative with the mission - Washington dispatch.

Tut, tut! Who could be more diplomatic than Colonel House?

And furthermore, we shall, if we make this winter's days completely quiet, stand a lot better chance to raise bumper crops next summer. The quality, as the state entomologist implies, is worth a whole lot more than his board and keep as a farm helper.

We'll sure have to hand it to the weather man so far for doing all he can with the November weather in the interest of coal conservation.

What's in a name? Four Zimmermans were elected mayors of Indiana cities Tuesday - at Richmond, at Cannonville, at Mt. Vernon and at Veedsburg - and all presumably are good American citizens.

their co-operation, which has been proved of extraordinary value, in loading and unloading promptly, and for the roads themselves to make the utmost efforts to obtain the fullest use of their equipment and to add in every way to traffic efficiency.

TERRE HAUTE... The people of Terre Haute in the election of Tuesday defeated the old gang - or what was left of it - and elected as mayor, Hunter, the Republican candidate. This was no bipartisan victory, but one gained for good government.

The question was one of beating Gosson and his crowd. A few years ago it would have been impossible for the people of Terre Haute to win such a triumph. But much has happened in that time. Many of the scoundrels were convicted of crimes against the franchise, and sent to the penitentiary.

Thus it was demonstrated that there was a power for righteousness that was stronger than the forces of evil. There is no man who contemplates fraud in elections who must not at the same time contemplate the possibility of a collision with the federal government operating through its courts.

All of this must be very discouraging to the corruptionists and bulldozers.

So the people of Terre Haute had their chance, and they made the most of it. Their action of Tuesday reflects great credit on them, and will prove helpful to the city. For years the town has been advertised to the world - and with perfect truth - as the home of crooked government, lawlessness and vice.

The revelations made in the trial of Roberts and the rest were shocking. But they were also true. They must have made a deep impression on the good people of Terre Haute. Such conditions can not exist in a community without doing it great harm, both from the commercial and moral points of view.

Many assumed that there would be the same old result this year. But they have been proved wrong. The city took a step in the right direction. The old despotism has been at least temporarily broken down. But it is easy to backslide. If the people are to have good government and law enforcement they must keep steadily at the job. For their enemies are always at work. The new mayor can do much, but he must be loyally supported. But for the present it is enough to congratulate the people of Terre Haute on their escape - effected by themselves - from the old slavery.

Fake German Democracy... America is a democracy. We vote for our representatives, our senators, our President.

England is a democracy. Englishmen vote for the members of the house of commons, and though the house of lords is largely an hereditary body, the commons, if it persists, can pass any law over its veto. The king is mostly a figurehead with little governing power.

Germany is not a democracy. To be sure Germans vote for members of the reichstag. But the reichstag has no power. It is a mere rubber stamp. It can discuss governmental affairs, but when its discussions do not please the emperor, it persists in doing so, and is summarily sent home. What is this democracy? It is not like our senate, which is elected by the people, but is appointed by the rulers of various nations. Germany and its members are obliged to vote in accordance with the wishes of their overlords, for it originates most legislation and can block most of that it does not like.

Therefore, the bundsrath rules Germany. The reichstag only talks about it. Who rules the bundsrath? The kaiser. As king of Prussia he appoints seven-tenths of its fifty-four members. Only fourteen members are elected by the commons, and they are obliged to vote in accordance with the wishes of their overlords, for it originates most legislation and can block most of that it does not like.

MILITARY DICTATORSHIP HANGS OVER GERMANY

VON HERTLING SERVES NOTICE ON PROGRESSIVES.

FACTIONS ARE IN A CLASH

COPENHAGEN, November 8.—The threat that a military dictatorship is inevitable unless insistence on a radical vice-chancellor is dropped and the government of Count von Hertling as it now stands is accepted is held out over the progressive democratic elements in Germany.

Count von Hertling, through a semi-official note in the Norddeutscher Allgemeine Zeitung, announces that no promises whatever were made to give the radicals the two posts they desire. Representatives of the radicals and Hertling have issued an equally authoritative statement that they adhere to their old position. The radical press indicates that the chancellor's compromise proposal to appoint a radical deputy to the newly created ministry for occupied territories with a seat in the Prussian cabinet is not accepted, because such a post would be merely temporary and the occupant would be in the face of the military authorities.

Drifting Toward Split. The situation is drifting rapidly toward the goal desired by the reactionaries—that is, a split in the present minority in the reichstag and the formation of a new coalition embracing the Liberals and the National Liberals.

Such a bloc, which would have a bare majority in the reichstag, is by no means impossible, notwithstanding the apparent unity proclaimed by the military cause. The radical center is by no means averse to following the chancellor along a road marked with party advantages. The National Liberals, who for the most part are conservatives and reactionaries and whose hearts never were in the present majority bloc, intimate strongly in their formal announcements of Herr Friedberg's withdrawal of his acceptance of the vice-presidency of the Prussian cabinet, that they are in an alliance. Herr Friedberg gave as the reason for his withdrawal that that party advanced relations to his prospective office which could not be fulfilled, and in so doing rendered vain hopes of creating a dependable working majority in parliament.

The Socialists apparently have abandoned the dictum expressed by Philipp Schledermann on Sunday, that the new von Hertling government, which differs from that of Dr. Michaelis only in the person of its chief, provides all necessary guarantees of responsible government as a precondition to peace. The Socialists declare that they have no confidence in an administration made up of conservative and nationalist elements imposed on a substitute of old line bureaucrats, and will remain in opposition unless the desired places are given to the radicals, whom the Socialists regard as their representatives in the reichstag.

The Tagessblatt and other radical newspapers say that if Chancellor von Hertling bows to the "hidden powers" and the influence of the court clique, the opposition will introduce on November 22, a resolution of confidence in the government. Count von Hertling's position is much like that of Dr. Michaelis, after his "as I interpret it" speech.

Fraud Warning Issued WASHINGTON, November 8.—Warning is given by the postoffice department of attempts to circulate counterfeit or forged Cuban money orders in the United States, especially among banks and large business houses. OTHER LINES TO FOLLOW

WASHINGTON, November 8.—John R. Lee and A. W. Copland, of Detroit, have been named members of the official committee of three from the automobile industry to aid the government in applying the energies of the industry to the prosecution of the war. Mr. Lee was named by Henry Ford and Mr. Copland by the motor accessories manufacturers. The third member of the committee will be appointed by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

Gradual conscription of a considerable part of the nation's motor manufacturing facilities for war purposes is expected to begin as soon as details can be worked out. It will be the duty of the new committee, working with the war industries board of the council of national defense to adapt the industry to the needs of the government.

Priority Orders Are Indicated. Priority shipment orders already have indicated what industries may be called on next for direct aid in bringing victory to the American arms. Restrictions on the shipments of materials for the manufacture of furniture, pianos and other luxuries will be placed several weeks ago. The army's needs will be the determining factor in deciding when other industries will be shown how they can do their part.

So long as war demands do not find hindrance in the manufacture of luxuries, there will be no disturbance of any industry, but the war industries board has made it clear that it will not hesitate to call on any manufacturer to turn his plant to making war supplies if the shortage of raw materials, the problem of transportation or the need for more munitions renders such a step imperative.

Auto Plants' Status. A priority order which cut off from the automobile manufacturers all shipments of alloy steel precipitated conferences with them and the decision to apply the policy of virtual conscription first to motor plants. The order subsequently was revoked, but may be reimposed if conditions demand.

With the growth of the army it is expected that many raw materials needed in munitions work will be shut off partly or entirely from nonessential industries, which will be expected to begin making government necessities. It is the announced policy of the council of national defense to let contracts to established plants wherever possible, not only to save time, but to prevent unsettlement of labor conditions.

CANDY FOR OLD BATTERY A

Five twenty-pound boxes of chocolate were sent today by parcel post to old Battery A, of the Indiana 1st field artillery regiment, as a Christmas greeting from the Merchants Heat and Light Company.

The consignment consisted of 1,800 pieces. It was sent to Capt. Sidney S. Miller, of the 57th brigade, 42d division, 150th field artillery. The Merchants company has several employees in the battery.

About a year ago H. H. Harrison, president of the company, sent Christmas chocolate to Battery A while it was on duty on the border.

ROUNDS UP EFFECTS OF NINE ORGANIZATIONS.

RAID MADE TWO NIGHTS AGO

CHICAGO, November 8.—Data concerning nine pacifist organizations were seized and names and addresses of their officers obtained in a raid by government operatives on the headquarters of the American peace conference and the women's peace conference, it was revealed yesterday afternoon.

The organizations named in search warrants issued by the federal authorities were: American Embargo Conference, Friends of Peace, Conference for Peace, Terms, People's Peace Party, Labor's National Peace Council, publishers of "The War Between the United States and the Imperial German Government," publishers of "Nationalism and Cosmopolitanism," publishers of The People's Counselor, and the Press Publishing Company.

The raid was made two nights ago, but announcement of it was suppressed until late today.

The officers are also said to have discovered two cards of admittance to the house of representatives issued to Theodore H. Lunde, a Norwegian piano manufacturer, held here under bond for violation of the espionage act.

The People's Counselor is issued under a Washington date line, but it is supposed to be printed in Chicago.

"How Could You Afford to Buy a Thor Washer for Your Wife?" The foreman and the credit man met and the credit man wanted to know how the foreman could afford a Thor electric.

"When I bought a Liberty bond the other day, and I began to blow about what a good investment it was to wife, I laughed at me. Of course I was sore.

"Well," said she, "you think you're pretty smart, but I have been trying to get you to make an investment in the Thor washer, and you passed it up."

"That's what she said. You can bet I bought the Thor. What's the use of paying $2 a week for the family wash when a Thor will do the work?"

Many a man would see the point if there were more women like the foreman's wife.

You can buy the Thor here—there's no electric that's better—and the saving will just about meet the payments. After that the Thor—they last a lifetime—will begin buying things for you. Come see it.

Will Kaiser's Italian Success Bring Victory to the Allies?

"The collapse of the Italian Eastern front is disheartening to the Allies," says the Indianapolis News, "not because it points to sure defeat, but because it postpones their victory."

In all sections of the country we find the press discussing this staggering and unexpected blow in a tone not of pessimism, but of increased hopefulness and grim determination. The Chicago Tribune remarks that "the Stars and Stripes are in the trenches today, and they are going forward there, not back, forward till the enemy's power is beaten down, and he is ready for peace for all time;" while the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph remarks that "Germany is making a fight to a finish and America must deliver the knockout blow." A full-page map graphically explains military operations.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for November 10th, the leading article discusses from every angle the recent retreat of the Italian army and its probable effect in bringing ultimate victory to the Allies.

This number of "The Digest" is particularly interesting, as a glance at the following headings, describing additional articles, will prove:

Ten Big Loads Like This or About 68,400 Pairs of Shoes Shipped in One Day to Our Busy Stores

This is what just one big eastern factory that makes women's fine dress shoes shipped to our busy stores.

More than once, yes, more than a hundred times, we have made the assertion that it was only by operating our large chain of stores and by purchasing our shoes in such immense quantities that we are enabled to offer good shoes at such low prices. This one little illustration can give you only a very slight idea of our gigantic buying power, because it represents only one line of shoes (women's dress shoes). Just picture in your mind the dozens of other factories that are kept humming to supply our stores with men's, boys and children's shoes. Then, and then only, will you begin to grasp the true significance of OUR BUYING POWER.

Consider this fact. Doesn't it seem only reasonable to presume that a concern buying in quantities like this and at quantity prices CAN AFFORD TO SELL FOR LESS? It will pay you to investigate our claims, and see these shoes, for in these days of uncertainty and high prices, it is YOUR DUTY TO ECONOMIZE.

BIG SUBSCRIPTIONS TO LOAN ARE SCALED DOWN

PEOPLE READY TO TAKE TOTAL OF $4,617,532,300.

LIBERTY BOND TOTALS GIVEN

WASHINGTON, November 8.—Once again the American people have given their government a war loan of many millions more than was asked. Secretary McAdoo announces that total subscriptions to the second Liberty loan were $4,617,532,300, or 54 per cent. more than the subscription of the $2,000,000,000 first as minimum for the loan. Half of the over-subscription will be accepted, making an actual issue of $2,308,766,150. There were 3,487,000 subscribers, 59 per cent. of whom made subscriptions of $50.00 or less, and will receive their quotas in full.

Pare Down Big Ones.
Federal reserve banks were instructed today to pare down subscriptions of more than $50,000, according to a sliding scale approved by Secretary McAdoo, after final tabulation last night of the flood of bond orders poured into banks at the close of the spectacular nationwide campaign twelve days ago. The secretary was elated over the result, particularly since every federal reserve district exceeded its quota. Officials pointed out today that despite the size of the loan, it represents only a small part of the $20,000,000,000 estimated national wealth, or even of the $40,000,000,000 estimated annual income of the nation. Total subscriptions represent a loan of about $18 for each family in the United States.

Total Near Six Billion.
The bonds issued under the second Liberty loan raise the total of popular war loans in America to $5,000,000,000, including $2,000,000,000 obtained by the first Liberty loan last June. In addition, nearly $2,000,000,000 short-term certificates of indebtedness have been issued by the treasury, to fall due on dates when the loan installments are due, and to be redeemed out of loan proceeds.

Augurs Future Success.
"The success of the second Liberty loan, like that of the first, is a distinct triumph for the people of the United States," said Secretary McAdoo, announcing the loan results last night. "It not only demonstrates the patriotic spirit and resources, but augurs the certain success of any future loans that may be obtained by the government."

The secretary added a denial of reports that the loan would be reduced in January, 1918. "In view of the large over-subscription of the second Liberty loan," he said, "I am glad to state that this will not be necessary." He has generally understood that the third loan would be sought probably in late February or early March next year.

How Districts Subscribed.
The New York federal reserve district subscribed nearly three times as much as the second district in Chicago. The results in each district follow:

District	Total	Per Cent. of Over-Subscription	Quota
New York	$1,509,483,400	75	$900,000,000
Chicago	585,833,200	29	200,000,000
Cleveland	438,198,800	22	200,000,000
Boston	478,950,000	24	200,000,000
Philadelphia	350,250,000	18	200,000,000
San Francisco	292,471,100	15	200,000,000
Richmond	201,212,000	10	200,000,000
St. Louis	184,380,700	9	200,000,000
Kansas City	150,125,700	8	200,000,000
Minneapolis	140,732,600	7	200,000,000
Atlanta	90,000,000	5	200,000,000
Dallas	77,899,800	4	200,000,000

Although only 1 per cent. of subscriptions were greater than $50,000, for which only part allotments will be made, $1,200,000,000, or nearly half the big aggregate was made up of the larger sums. More than $750,000,000 was subscribed in individual amounts of more than $10,000.

Tribute to Armed Forces.
In his statement, Secretary McAdoo thanks the various persons and agencies responsible for the loan's success. In this he pays this special tribute: "I should like to make special mention of the soldiers and sailors of America who came forward with subscriptions amounting to more than $100 million. These gallant men are not only giving their services and their lives to their country, but are lending their money as well, to strengthen the government in this great war for America's rights and world democracy."

Why Limit is Observed.
In explanation of the reasons for not accepting the full amount of subscriptions, Secretary McAdoo declared the government as a matter of policy must abide by announcement of plans for the second Liberty loan, made October 1. "The government," he said, "must never alter the basis upon which it offers an issue of bonds after the subscription is closed. Having announced that only one-half of the over-subscription would be accepted, the government must, of course, faithfully observe that basis. Whenever loans are offered to the public the banks and the public adjust themselves both consciously and unconsciously to the basis of the offering, and it would be extremely unwise to alter that basis after the subscriptions have been received."

Basis of Allotment.
The allotment of subscriptions over $50,000 was authorized by Secretary McAdoo, as follows:
"Between $50,000 and $100,000, inclusive, 50 per cent. but not less than $50,000 will be allowed, reducing $300,000,000 subscribed to $150,000,000.
"Between $100,000 and $200,000, inclusive, 75 per cent., but not less than $100,000, will be allowed, reducing $242,000,000 subscribed to $181,500,000.
"Between $200,000 and $1,000,000, inclusive, 50 per cent. but not less than $200,000, will be allowed, reducing $758,000,000 subscribed to $379,000,000.
"Between $1,000,000 and $5,000,000, inclusive, 50 per cent., but not less than $500,000, allowed, reducing $250,000,000 subscribed to $125,000,000.
"Only 4.8 per cent. of the single $50,000 subscription, the largest received, will be allowed, making the issue of $20,407,600."

First Loan Results.
Subscriptions to the first Liberty loan, which closed June 15, were $3,055,000,000, a 50 per cent. over-subscription of the $2,000,000,000 offered and allowed. There were more than 4,000,000 subscribers, and allotments were made in full on subscriptions of $10,000 and less.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—To stop speculation in condensed milk the war trade board, at the request of the food administration, has announced that no exports of milk will be licensed except on certificates from the manufacturer that the product was sold direct for export purposes and that the raw milk was bought at prices "no higher than the prices paid by other buyers in the territory in which the milk manufacturers' plant is situated."

England Sure of Result

LONDON, November 8.—Field Marshal Viscount French, commander of the home forces, in a speech yesterday declared that Great Britain must be prepared for any and every eventuality. "For all we know," he said, "the next surprise may be an invasion of this country. Be ready, then, for anything."

Major-General Sir C. F. N. Macready, adjutant-general of the army, in a statement, asserted that Great Britain still needs men. He could not give exact figures, but declared: "Every man that can be spared from the industries is needed—badly needed. Every woman that comes forward helps her country by releasing a man. We appeal to them to answer the call."

George H. Roberts, minister of labor, also made a statement in which he declared that the war will be won by the allies, whatever setbacks the allies may suffer.

"We will go on until victory is attained," he said. "The enemy must be made to acknowledge his guilt and shame. His crimes are crimes against

Cure for War Disease

AMSTERDAM, October 11 (by mail).—German newspapers announce that the army physicians have discovered a successful method of curing the nervous affliction so frequent among disabled soldiers which causes a constant trembling of the whole or part of the body. Dr. Ernst Bayer, head of the nerve hospital at Roderbrinken, has outlined a method of electrical treatment, which, it is said, often effects a complete cure in a few days, and is almost invariably effective within a period of three weeks. The newspapers describe his method as follows: "By the application of a gentle electric current which causes no pain whatever, good results have been obtained in a few minutes or at the longest two and a half hours. A course of treatment is required after this, which does not last more than two or three weeks, and in light cases is finished in a few days. New attacks may occur due to excitement or nerve strain, but are easily cured."

"Keep Kolynos in Your Kit"

There is a tremendous amount of human interest in putting up a "comfy kit" for a soldier.

Every woman working in an auxiliary unit pictures to herself the soldier at the front using the various articles included in the kit she packs.

The letter opposite furnishes a vivid picture of the unusual emergencies in which these "parcels" from tender hands at home may figure.

It will remind every American soldier to "keep Kolynos in his kit" and every woman preparing a "comfy kit" to include in it a tube of this soldiers' dental cream.

Price, thirty cents.

Dear Sirs:
I am sending you a little account of how Kolynos was used in a far different way than usual, by my brother, a soldier on the Peninsula. In each parcel we always enclosed a tube of Kolynos.
He landed soon after the first lots, and water was still very scarce, they had none at all, except that kept for emergency in their bottles, which they had strict orders not to touch.
Then they were ordered to charge the enemy!
Just before, by a happy inspiration, he pulled out his tube of Kolynos, and with aid of saliva washed it well round his mouth.
This acted better than water. He was so pleased that he passed it round to his pals, who were all done up. They, too, used it to the last squeeze, and gave three cheers for "Butler and his tube!"

TWO HOLDUPS IN CITY; ONE VICTIM IS WOUNDED

WILBUR CHAILLE IS SHOT THROUGH EAR BY NEGRO.

HOMES ENTERED AT NIGHT

Two holdups and a number of petty robberies were reported to the police last night. In the holdups neither of the victims lost anything of value, but one of the men was slightly wounded. In the other instance, when the robber failed to find any money, he struck his victim in the face, ordered him to run, and then fired two shots at him as he fled to safety.

Ordered His Hands Up.
Wilbur Chaille, 290 Oliver avenue, was shot through the right ear by a negro, who stepped from between two telegraph poles at Michigan street and Beauty avenue, and ordered Chaille to throw up his hands. Before he could do so the negro is said to have fired, and the bullet passed through Chaille's ear. The negro then turned and fled through a vacant lot, without making any effort to rob his victim. The police said that the negro's purpose was probably robbery, but they believed he lost his nerve at the last minute. Chaille, who is employed as an orderly at the city hospital, walked to the hospital, where his injuries were attended by Robert Toy, age fifty-five, 212 East Raymond street, reported to the police that a negro held him up near the plant of the American Crosscutting Company Sherman drive and the Big Four rail road, where he is employed as a night watchman. The negro, he said, pointed a revolver at him, and ordered him to throw up his hands. Toy said that he did not have any money in his pocket, and when the negro failed to find anything of value, he struck Toy, ordered him to run and fired two shots at him.

In East Michigan Street.
Burglars Wednesday night broke into the home of Morris Goldstein, 215 East Michigan street, and after ransacking the house, got a small savings bank containing about $18 and a woman's gold watch. The police were called but the robbers got away before they arrived.

Mrs. Anna G. Moore, 1925 North Pennsylvania street, told the police last night that some one stole seven women's wallets from a wash line, where they had been hung out to dry.

WITH ALLIED ARMIES.

American Medical Sections Receive Many Awards for Bravery.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—The United States now has 3,150 medical officers, nurses and members of ambulance sections of the army attached to the British and French armies, it was announced today and provision has been made for training 120 more sections for service with the French army.

This American personnel is lent to the British and French forces and is subject to recall and reassignment with American troops. When such reassignment is made fresh units now in training will be assigned to the British and French troops.

British army officers often have lauded the work of the American medical officers and more than thirty citations for fine service by American ambulance sections have been made in French orders. More than 100 members have received the cross of war, three have received the military medal and two have earned the insignia of the Legion of Honor.

NO PERMIT TO KREISLER.

Pittsburg Bars Violinist Because He Is Austrian Soldier.

PITTSBURG, November 8.—Charles S. Hubbard, director of public safety, yesterday ordered the police department to refuse a concert license to Capital Fritz Kreisler, the violinist, who was advertised to appear in Carnegie Music hall this evening. The director stipulated, however, that Kreisler's manager be permitted to cancel the engagement before the order was enforced. It was also announced that another concert at which Kreisler was to appear as accompanist Saturday had already been canceled by the local management.

Director Hubbard received protests from a number of patriotic organizations and from many individuals against the Kreisler concert. They took the ground that since Kreisler was an officer in the Austrian army, and Austria was the ally of America's enemy, it was unpatriotic to permit him to appear at a public entertainment.

U.S. WASHINGTON
DUSY REAGAN
Body, Headed by E. M. House, Arranges for Conferences With British Leaders.

NO BEARING ON PEACE
Secretary Lansing Makes It Clear That Allied Gathering is Not of Political Nature.

LONDON, November 8.—The special American commission to the allied war conferences arrived in London last night. It is headed by E. M. House, a special commissioner, and includes a honorary rank of special ambassador.

"We had a pleasant and uneventful voyage," Mr. House told the Associated Press. "The weather was fair. There were no submarines. It was the best vacation I have had in two years."

The commissioners were met by Ambassador Page, Vice-Admiral Sims, commander of the American fleet over the Atlantic, and Foreign Secretary Balfour. There are twenty-seven persons in the party, including the food controller, Bainbridge Colby, of the United States shipping board; Dr. A. E. Taylor, representing the food controller; and Paul Cravath, Mrs. House and two women acting in a secretarial capacity are in the party. Mr. House and Mrs. House were driven to the residence of the duke of Devonshire, where they will stay while in London.

Hold Short Meeting.
The members of the mission arose late this morning, much refreshed after their first comfortable night's sleep in many days. The first thing they did was to go into conference with the House presiding. The meeting lasted an hour. Mr. House outlined a tentative program for a series of conferences with British officials. Each member of the mission will conduct a similar series of conferences with British officials in charge of similar activities in England.

Admiral Benson issued an early call on Admiral Jellicoe, first sea lord, and General Biles arranged to visit the war office during the day.

America Fully Awake.
"I am impatient to see with my own eyes the great efforts England is making toward solving the shipping problem," said Mr. Colby, "and with this end in view will pay an early visit to the great shipyard at Devonport, now fully awake to the importance of tonnage in this war and is carrying out a program of increasing the tonnage shipbuilding now takes priority over all other work in our country."

Some of the members of the mission are planning an early visit to France.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY LANSING.
Arrival of Mission and Its Purpose Are Outlined.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—American representatives to the international war conference are in England ready for discussion of the plans for co-ordinating the military forces and economic resources of the governments opposing Germany in the world war.

Arrival of the mission, headed by Edward M. House, friend and confidant of President Wilson, was announced by Secretary Lansing. No intimation of the date and character of the conference yet has been disclosed by the state department, but it is thought here that the sessions are about to open.

War Sole Topic.
Secretary Lansing made it clear that peace terms and political questions will not be subjects of discussion at the meeting of representatives of the allied powers. Although necessarily subdivided into many phases, the present war, with dominant emphasis laid on means for a speedy, successful conclusion, will be the sole topic of discussion.

With the personnel of the mission representative of the government's chief agencies for conducting the war, it is expected that President Wilson's special envoys will be able to lay immediately before a conference a complete and explicit statement of America's resources in man power, industrial efficiency and economic wealth.

Personnel of Mission.
Secretary Lansing's statement is as follows:

"The government of the United States will participate in the approaching conference of the powers waging war against the German empire and has sent as its representative Edward M. House, who is accompanied by Admiral W. Benson, chief of naval operations; Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, chief of staff, U. S. A.; Oscar F. Crosby, assistant secretary of the treasury; Vanos C. McCormick, chairman of the war trade board; Bainbridge Colby, United States shipping board; Dr. Alonso E. Taylor, representing the food controller; Thomas Nelson Perkins, representing the board of Ordnance and Purchases; and Secretary of Labor Lansing.

Lansing States Purpose.
"The conference is essentially a war conference," with the object of perfecting a more complete co-ordination of the activities of the allied powers engaged in the conflict and the more comprehensive understanding of their respective needs in the prosecution of the war. It is assumed that the subjects to be discussed will embrace not only those pertaining to military and naval operations, but also the financial, commercial, economic and other phases of the present situation, which are of increasing importance to the successful prosecution of the war.

Higher Efficiency Probable.
"There will undoubtedly be an effort to avoid any conflict of interest among the participants and there is every reason to anticipate that the result will be fuller co-operation and consequently a much higher efficiency and a more vigorous prosecution of the war."

"The United States, in the employment of its man power and material resources, desires to use to the greatest advantage against Germany. It has been an easy problem to determine how they can be used most effectively, since the independent presentation of requirements by the allied governments has been more or less conflicting on account of each government's appreciation of its own wants, which are naturally of greater importance than the wants of other governments. By a general survey of the whole situation and a free discussion of the needs of all, the approaching conference will undoubtedly be able to give to the demands of the several governments their true perspective and to make a plan for the general plans for the conduct of the war."

Best Use for Resources.
"Though the resources of this country are vast, and though there is every power to devote them all, if need be, to winning the war, they are not without limit. But even if they were greater they should all be put to the best advantage in attaining the supreme object for which we are fighting. This can only be done by a full and frank discussion of the plans and needs of the various belligerents. It is the earnest wish of this government to employ its military and naval forces and its resources and energy to the best advantage in the greatest return in advancing the common cause."

"The exchange of views which will take place at the conference and the conclusions which will be reached will be of the highest value in preventing waste of energy and in bringing into harmony the activities of the nations, which have been unavoidably acting in a measure independently."

"In looking forward to the assembling of the conference, it can not be too strongly emphasized that it is a war conference and nothing else, devoted to solving ways and means to intensify the efforts of the belligerents against

STIMULUS IS GIVEN TO Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN
CYRUS M'CORMICK THE CHIEF SPEAKER AT BANQUET.
PROMINENT MEN ATTEND
A new determination to carry on the campaign for $35,000,000 which is to be conducted all over the United States, was made by about 200 Young Men's Christian Association workers and members last night at a banquet given by the Indiana division of the war work council at the Claypool hotel.

The meeting was for the purpose of adding stimulus to the campaign which is to provide the money for the war work which must be done by the Y. M. C. A. in the military camps of France, Russia and Italy as well as the training cantonments in the United States. Indiana will be expected to provide of American finance and American financial resources. Vanos C. McCormick carries information as to foreign shipments and the plans for distributing war lacks over American industries so that the staggering load can be carried without a falter. Mr. Colby has the facts as to ships, transports and cargo boats, built, building or planned. Dr. Taylor can tell all Food Administrator Hoover has been able to learn as to the store of food on hand and the quantity that can be produced in any given time, while Mr. Perkins can show what has been done toward providing an order of precedence for outward-bound cargoes.

The commanders of all the armies of the allies and General Pershing, Mr. McCormick said, "have requested that the work of the Y. M. C. A. be carried out to the greatest efficiency in France. There is also great opportunity for the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the camps of Russia and Italy."

Mr. McCormick said his work in the Y. M. C. A. organization was devoted to the business end and he spoke of the many business men and financiers in the country who are giving up their time and money to see that the program of the Y. M. C. A. is carried out. He said that a number of these men met recently in New York and worked out a budget of expenses which must be paid by the Y. M. C. A. during the next nine months. He said the $35,000,000 will be needed and that it will be expended according to the budget arranged by this committee.

"The United States," he said, "will spend $50,000,000 a day in the prosecution of the war. If that amount is to be Germany by complete co-operation under a general plan and thus bring the best of peace and satisfactory conclusion."

Newspapers Kept Silent.
Announcement by Secretary Lansing of the arrival of the party "at a British port" released American newspapers from a pledge of silence as to the movements of the mission and its movements. The departure of this group of the most distinguished men in the government's war councils was a carefully guarded secret until they were safe through the submarine zone. Even many army and navy officials were not aware that their chiefs had sailed.

The men who compose the American mission are regarded by the government as eminently fitted for their part in the task, as each has been personally associated with the development of some phase of the vast mobilization of the nation's resources since the United States entered the war. Admiral Benson has personally supervised and directed the expansion of the navy.

General Bliss has seen the American army grow under his own hand. An assistant chief of staff he fell heir to the task of building the great machine out of raw materials and raw recruits when General Scott, then chief, was sent to Russia after the Russian revolution.

Each Expert in Line.
In Oscar T. Crosby the mission has a member familiar with every intricacy spent in killing men, surely $35,000,000 will not be a large amount to spend in nine months for the purpose of making men better soldiers and better men."

The Rev. J. D. Forward, formerly of Indianapolis, who is now engaged as a religious director in the Y. M. C. A. department at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., told of the work being done by that organization and of the appreciation that is shown by the men.

"Maintaining the morale of the men is the greatest question of the army," he said. "The hardest thing about war is the disintegration that comes when the boys are off duty. A crowd of men always has the tendency to fall to the level of the coarsest in the group."

Place to Write Letters.
He said that the Y. M. C. A. is the only place in any of the cantonments that provides a place for the soldiers to write letters home. He read extracts from a number of letters written by soldiers in camps here and in France, showing that the influence of the Y. M. C. A. was felt by the boys and that the entertainments that are given by the Y. M. C. A. as part of the recreation program are appreciated.

Other speakers were John E. Wilder, of Chicago, state secretary of the Illinois Y. M. C. A.; Charles McLaughlin, of Vincennes, a member of the state committee of the national war work council; all the speakers predicted that the desired $35,000,000 would be subscribed in Indiana and that all the counties in the state would rally to the call and provide their quotas.

Guests at Banquet.
The out-of-town guests at the banquet were: B. W. Anderson, Plainfield; G. W. Applegate, New Albany; George Ball, Muncie; Dr. J. H. Baldwin, Clark County; E. B. Ball, Muncie; C. A. GENERAL LEWIS LEAVES FOR SERVICE IN FRANCE

WHITNEY IN CHARGE OF CAMP SHELBY.

FOREIGN OFFICERS ARRIVE

[By W. H. Blodgett, Staff Correspondent of The Indianapolis News]

HATTIESBURG, Miss., November 8.—On orders from the war department General E. M. Lewis, commanding general at Camp Shelby, has been relieved from duty at this camp. General Lewis left at once for a seaport for overseas duty and will be assigned permanently to the American army in France at General Pershing's headquarters. He will be succeeded as commander of Camp Shelby by Brigadier-General H. H. Whitney, the regular army officer in command of artillery. As General Lewis is relieved, not only the camp, but a brigade of Indiana troops, General Whitney, while commanding the camp, will retain command of artillery units.

Successor Not Selected.

Who will succeed General Lewis in command of the Indiana brigade has not been announced. Brigadier-General Roger D. Williams is here without a command and it is believed that temporarily he will be in command of Indiana troops. The senior Indiana colonel may be advanced to the command, and if that is done the command would go to Colonel Thomas R. Coulter, commander of the 152d infantry. It is more than likely, however, that a regular army officer will be detailed to take command of Indiana troops until they start for foreign service.

General Lewis was appointed to be commander of the Indiana brigade in 1916, made up of the 151st and 152d infantry and the 15th machine gun battalion. He came here in September, and shortly after his arrival was made commanding general of the 38th division. Major-General W. H. Sage, the commanding general, was assigned to foreign service. Under General Lewis's administration Camp Shelby has reached a high plane of efficiency. When General Lewis leaves the camp that is a universal regret, not only among the Indiana men, but among the officers and men of all units.

The men who served with General Lewis on the border in Louisiana and they all hope when they get to France they will be able to serve under him again.

Whitney is Popular.

General Whitney, the new camp commander, is regarded one of the best artillery officers in the service. Indiana men who are in his command are well pleased with the treatment they have received from him. Brigadier-General Roger D. Williams, who may become commander of the Indiana troops, has for many years been at the head of the Kentucky national guard, and has a splendid reputation. When this division was organized, General Williams was placed in command of the depot brigade. Since the depot brigade was abolished General Williams has been without a command, but it is understood that he is slated for foreign service in a short time. Unless his foreign assignment is changed he will not command the Indiana troops.

The French and British commissioned officers and thirty noncommissioned officers have reached Camp Shelby. They will be assigned to the different brigades and to instruct the American troops in every branch of army service. Hahn Young Lee, a member of Camp C. of Indianapolis, battalion of engineers, Captain Francis H. Miller, commanding, was instantly killed late yesterday afternoon by a tree falling on him. Lee, who was a civil engineer by profession, was working in the woods where it was necessary to cut down a large tree. The tree fell on him directly in its path and was crushed. Lee was a member of a wealthy family living in Hawaii, and came to Indiana as a student at Purdue university.

He was about twenty-three years old. The body will be buried in the National cemetery at New Orleans.

Major Horace F. Hill, Jr., commanding the signal corps battalion, has recommended first-class Sergeant Dick Rogers for a commission as first lieutenant in Company A, of Indianapolis.

Machine Guns Crackle.

The rattling of machine guns was heard for the first time on the target range today, a range that army officers say is one of the best in the country, which is a compliment to Major Howard F. Noble, of Indiana, under whose direction the range was built. Major Noble has as his assistants in the range work Second Lieutenants Will W. Bridge and Albert Lammell, of Hammond; John C. McCord, of Louisville, and J. Wesley McEynolds, of Kokomo. The school is conducted by Captain Ord, whose father and brother are in the regular army. He is assisted by Sergeant Louis Deveraux, who was connected with the machine gun company of the 8th cavalry. The students at this school are the captains of all the rifle companies which includes the captains of various infantry companies from Indiana. The targets are placed against an embankment ten feet high and eight feet wide at the base and a constant stream of lead is poured through them. The range is what Major Noble calls an "out door shooting gallery."

In the last few days a number of forest fires of mysterious origin have occurred in the vicinity of Camp Shelby. Several small buildings, and some buildings have been set on fire by some unknown agency. Yesterday evening a fire started in the headquarters building. Two companies from the 152d infantry were called out and kept the fire from spreading.

"I don't understand about the frequency of these fires," said General Lewis. "It looks as if some one was starting them purposely." An investigation is being made.

DRAFT EVADER SENTENCED

St. Paul Man Receives Fifteen Years at Hard Labor.

CAMP DODGE, Ia., November 8.—Fifteen years at hard labor in a federal penitentiary was the sentence given Otto Wangerin, of St. Paul, Minn., a draft law evader, in the first conviction by general court-martial at his camp.

Major W. A. Graham, division judge advocate, made public this sentence yesterday. It was charged that Wangerin refused to obey orders.

J. G. Stivers, of Casanova, Ill., a member of Company A, 88th infantry, was sentenced to five years in the federal prison for theft of $10, it also was made known.

FAMOUS FOR GRAIN DEALS.

Charles W. Partridge, Wealthy Chicago Merchant, Dead.

CHICAGO, November 8.—Charles W. Partridge, age seventy-four, multi-millionaire owner of department stores and a generation ago famous for spectacular deals in grain, died here yesterday. Ten years ago Mr. Partridge divided $2,000,000 among his four children, one of them being the Princess Engallicheff.

Valuable Cargo of Jute.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, November 8.—A shipment of jute yarn, said to be the most valuable ever received in this country, was brought by a steamship which arrived yesterday. The consignment totaled 20,000 bales, valued at about $2,000,000. The freighter had brought 2,000 tons of manganese ore destined for munition factories.

Horse Dealer Shoots Himself.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., November 8.—James Thacker, age seventy-three, a widely known horse dealer, ended his life yesterday by firing a bullet from a revolver through his head. Four children are assigned as the cause. Five children survive.

Let's Get the Facts Straight

George F. Standke

I mean phonograph facts—the facts about phonograph prices and phonograph values.

You may not believe it, but the Brunswick Shop offers Indianapolis not higher prices—but lower prices and better phonographs.

No, these are not CUT PRICES. Anybody can cut prices. We do not. These are the right prices for you to pay for the world's greatest phonograph—the Brunswick—that plays every record—Pathe, Edison, Victor, Columbia.

I say to you—and look you right in the eye—the family that buys a phonograph this Christmas without investigating the Brunswick will be throwing money away. They are paying a premium for prejudice.

I challenge any phonograph maker in the United States to show a phonograph selling for $200 that, in appearance, tone or value will equal the Brunswick that sells at $130. And the same thing is true of every model in the Brunswick line—it is the biggest value on the market for the money.

I have been in the phonograph business all of my business life. I have sold every well-known make of phonograph on the market today and when I selected the Brunswick as the phonograph that I would sell—after I had heard it—after I had investigated—after I had learned the values it offered—when I selected the Brunswick, I selected it because I knew from twenty years' experience in the phonograph business that the Brunswick would be the city's popular phonograph in a few short months.

Why did I know it? Because I know that the people of Indianapolis are not going to pay extra prices when they can buy a better article for less money.

I want you to come into the Brunswick Shop and hear the Brunswick. Come right in. Tell us that you want to put the Brunswick to any test you can conceive of. Make us show you its construction. Make us play all the records—have us play a Victor—play an Edison—play a Pathe—play a Columbia—then go out and compare the Brunswick values that you have seen in the Brunswick Shop with the values any other manufacturer can offer—and be guided by your judgment.

I would like to have you come in this week, if you can.

A Store — And More

GIFTS FOR I. U. SOLDIERS.

Codes Knit Articles for Former Students Now in Service.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., November 8.—Indiana university coeds are doing their part to provide Christmas cheer for Battery F, the local unit of the 15th field artillery; the Indiana university ambulance unit, and all other Indiana university men now in the service of their country, and before November 15 a three-pound tin box, containing presents and a Christmas greeting from an Indiana coed, will be in the mails addressed to an individual soldier. Each girl has selected one man to whom she will send a Christmas cheer box.

With the exception of the personal gift in each box and the greetings, the contents of the boxes will be uniform. Each box is to contain a one-pound fruit cake, one pound of rock candy, one bayberry candle, one Christmas bell and a comfort bag, containing the personal gift and greetings. These personal gifts have been limited to one of the following presents: useful to a soldier: a sleeveless sweater, knit helmet, pair of socks, wristlets, or a package of writing material.

The majority of the coeds chose to send articles of their own knitting as their personal gifts and for the last month or more the Red Cross rooms at the university and the parlors of the sororities have been thronged almost every afternoon with girls knitting their presents.

Each overseas box will require 25 cents postage.

INDIANA STATE WEAPONS DISPLAY AT A. R. PART OF ORGANIZATION IN ITS ADOPTION. ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON

A state banner for Indiana, obtained largely through the efforts of the Daughters of the Revolution in Indiana, was displayed for the first time by Mrs. John Newman Carey, at the seventeenth annual state conference of the D. A. R. held at the Claypool hotel, Mrs. Carey is chairman of the state flag committee.

Work of Stimulating Patriotism. Whoever can do the sum of patriotism in the hearts of the people is doing a great work. "No organization is better fitted to stimulate patriotism than the Daughters of the American Revolution."

At the annual conference of the D. A. R. held at the Claypool hotel, Mrs. Carey said, in which the members of the D. A. R. have had a great share in obtaining the passage of a law providing for a state flag. The Indiana law was passed on the last legislative session.

RECEIVED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT. GOES TO FRANKLIN FRIDAY

A part of today was spent by Charles W. Jewett, mayor-elect, in opening a batch of congratulatory telegrams and letters from all parts of the United States. He received many warm congratulations from Democrats as well as Republicans, and from a large number of friends of his college days.

Mr. Jewett will go to Franklin Friday, where he will visit his grandfather, Abram D. Aten, who is ninety-three years old. He will return to Indianapolis Saturday, to place the ball in the center of the field at the beginning of the DePauw-Washburn football game at Washington park.

Mr. Jewett will probably not announce any appointment until after his return from Arkansas. A few of the many messages of congratulation to him were from the following: James P. Goodrich, Governor of Indiana; Charles W. Fairbanks, former Vice-President of the United States; Will of the Republic, Indianapolis; George H. Gruse, president of DePauw university; Dr. Edwin Post, of DePauw university; Roy West, of Chicago, a trustee of DePauw university and former Republican national committeeman.

Mr. Jewett received at the same time telegrams from Boston and Denver, from former classmates at the Harvard law school, and received many telegrams from soldiers at the United States training camp at Camp Sherman, Ohio, saying that they will do everything possible to acquaint the new city controller with the duties of the office.

Indianapolis and Vicinity. Queen Esther Auxiliary, O. E. S., met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Jewett, city controller.

Bar Association Nominations. Members of the Indianapolis Bar Association met at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Jewett, city controller, at the meeting in the library of the federal court last night as follows: For president, Aquila G. Jones; vice-president, Charles E. Thayer; clerk, J. M. Thompson; secretary, Alan P. Vestal; treasurer, Samuel E. Perrier; committee on admission, James Ashby; committee on discipline, James D. Denny and Samuel Dowder; committee on ethics, J. M. Thompson and J. M. Thompson.

Democratic Club Party. The Indiana Democratic Club will give a card party for its members and their friends on Saturday night, November 10, at the club's headquarters, 23 East Vermont street. This will be the first card party by the club this season.

Japan Supplies Aid. Japan, at the same time, has been supplying aid to Russia in practically every way, principally in war munitions, and it is believed that Russia is now able to pay practically nothing at all.

SIX DEAD IN COLLAPSE. Brooklyn Factory Building Said to Have Been Condemned.

NEW YORK, November 8.—Six women were killed and four seriously injured when a building, which authorities say was condemned twenty years ago as unsafe, collapsed in Brooklyn today. Five bodies have been recovered. Heavy machinery on the top floor is believed to have caused the accident. About 2,500 people were in the building when it collapsed. United States troops in France, were destroyed. Consumer Wagner ordered the arrest of Frederick G. Hahn, manager of the Decatur Mercantile Company, one of the largest and most successful mercantile concerns in the city. He will be held under $5,000 bail pending an inquest. The coroner said that the men who were in the building given the building their "O. K." since its condemnation.

What greater comfort than to get rid of that throbbing, persistent pain in the brow or temple? When of neuralgic origin, Sloan's Liniment applied at painful points or along nerves of forehead promptly soothes and stops the pain. Often a headache goes, if the blood is drawn from the brain by the counter-irritation of Sloan's Liniment at the base of the neck, along the spine or at the feet. Headache being also a symptom of various bodily disorders, its constant recurrence may call for a physician's advice.

MORE GOOD MATERIAL AWAITS INDIANA TEAM

FRESHMEN WILL PRODUCE PROMISING PLAYERS FOR NEXT YEAR'S VARSITY.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., November 8.—New plans are being made in varsity football looking forward to the contest with Purdue on November 24. Neither Purdue nor Indiana has won a conference game this year, and it is the last conference struggle for both eleven. The freshmen will scrimmage with the varsity every day this week. Some good material for next year's varsity team is being brought to light in the freshmen team. Although the line is comparatively light, there is a lot of pep and dash in the forward pass and in the back field. Captain Mathys is a fine quarterback, and is an experienced football player. Geiger and Anderson are hard-smashing halfbacks. The complete squad consists of Capt. Mathys, Anderson, Geiger, Buck, McCaw, Leonard, DeComb, Harris, Howard, Dennis, Deane, Edwards, Chester, Maloney, Casey, Ridenour and Cunningham. Harris was injured in yesterday's scrimmage and will probably not play any more this year.

IN OTHER GRID CAMPS

Ohio State. COLUMBUS, O., November 8.—With the last practice drawing near the varsity, driven hard by coach Wiley, showed more than the usual fight yesterday. Freshmen were scrimmaged from the start of practice. Two hours. The constant drill on line backs, take formations, end runs, and the forward pass was tiring. Freshmen were given a lot of practice in the back field and the coaches do not want to incur the danger of losing the services of the varsity players. The remainder of the week will be given over to long signal drills. The one aim is to get the freshmen into the spirit of determination in the men that will be expected to play in the contest with the Badgers on Saturday.

Wisconsin. MADISON, Wis., November 8.—The Badgers engaged in their last scrimmage yesterday preparatory to meeting Ohio State. The freshmen and second, drilled in Ohio formations, tried to break down the varsity defense for an hour, and later the first team was given a chance to try new plays which have been developed during the week. The coaches do not want to incur the danger of losing the services of the varsity players. The remainder of the week will be given over to long signal drills. The one aim is to get the freshmen into the spirit of determination in the men that will be expected to play in the contest with the Badgers on Saturday.

Illinois. URBANA, Ill., November 8.—According to high school football scout, Harry's performance against Indiana last Saturday were the most remarkable he ever witnessed. Jones' verdict on the Buckeye star was such as to lead to Zuppke to consider the possibility of the Ohio State game on some kind of a defense to the Kappa. It is felt that Charlier and Sternaman treated last night, the rest of the varsity battled the freshmen in a spirited scrimmage. Yenger and Brown were tried in the back field and showed promise. John McDevine played his best game yet as a halfback. The Illinois performance was pretty good, allowing for the letdown after the Chicago game. The team will gradually keep up his men for the invasion of Big Ten territory. It is felt probable that any change will be made in the lineup. Zuppke expects that Ohio will have to put all its cards on the table for Wisconsin, with resulting benefit to the Illini.

Minnesota. MINNEAPOLIS, November 8.—Using an entirely new back field, Dr. Williams put his Gopher warriors through a stiff workout. The poor showing of the back field men at Madison last Saturday caused the coach to make several changes. Lamp was at quarterback, Schneider, Hight and Brown, Wisconsin game, had proved himself a star. Sullivan and Holgren were at the halfback positions in place of Alexander and Carroll. Kingley and Alenderfer alternated at full back. Schneider, Hight and Brown were placed at halfback for a brief period and his appearance there speeded up the work considerably. It is expected that he will be taken from the wing position permanently, however, as there is no available substitute.

Michigan. ANN ARBOR, Mich., November 8.—Forward passes and open plays from the football program for the Michigan team, for coach Yoast is afraid to engage any of the first string men in scrimmage on account of possible injuries. Advice from Ithaca show that coach Yoast is giving his varsity a stiff program of scrimmage, in an effort to bolster up the big red line. With Van Horn of the Cornell team still on the hospital list, Michigan fans are conceding Michigan a victory by at least two touchdowns, and radicals are predicting an overwhelming victory. Michigan will have a premier back field in Weston, Sparks, Haines and Wetman, and with her strengthened line ought to make things hum for any opposition.

Twice Swims Golden Gate. SAN FRANCISCO, November 8.—For the first time in the swimming history of the Pacific coast a woman swam a round trip course across the Golden Gate yesterday. She was Miss Hazel Cunningham, an eighteen-year-old nurse. Her time was 1:25. The course was seven-eighths of a mile. The swim was unofficial, but had the sanction of the Pacific Coast Athletic Association.

Technical. Tech's first interscholastic basketball game will be with Brownsburg high November 16 in the afternoon in the school gym. C. N. Lancaster was appointed coach of the state team and the first practice was held this afternoon. Twenty-five boys are on the squad.

Manual. Manual Training high school will be the first Indianapolis high school to take advantage of the privilege granted by the school board which permits the local high schools to compete with outside high schools in basketball. Next Tuesday night the Gray team of the school league, will play the first official outside game ever played by an Indianapolis high school, consisting the annual spring tournaments, when they meet the Martinsville quintet at Martinsville. The Gray team, the interschool championship when it defeated the White team in the season's game of the season yesterday afternoon, 15 to 13. At the end of the first half the score was 10 to 8 in favor of the Gray team. Coach at forward was the individual star, and is expected to make a good showing against Martinsville, his first field goal and a foul goal for his team. Francis Peery, who is a brother of Al Peery, of Notre Dame fame, is playing an extra good game at guard this year and much will be expected from him in the championship. For the last two years Martinsville has been a rival to the south side school, and the game held Tuesday is expected to be close.

Shortridge. Although it is still early in the season, the games played in the Boys' Basketball League at Shortridge high school this afternoon had considerable bearing on the outcome of the league race. The Whites played the Blues in the first game. Coach at forward was the individual star, and is expected to make a good showing against Martinsville, his first field goal and a foul goal for his team. Francis Peery, who is a brother of Al Peery, of Notre Dame fame, is playing an extra good game at guard this year and much will be expected from him in the championship. FRANKLIN'S STAR UNABLE TO PLAY AGAINST HANOVER

FRANKLIN, Ind., November 8.—Misfortune hit the Franklin football camp again last night when Earl Campbell, star halfback on the team, was unable to practice on account of an infected foot. In the emergency coach Thurber drafted into service several of his second string men, who will perform in the game tomorrow against Hanover. Campbell was one of the few experienced players on the squad and his absence leaves a vacancy that is hard to fill. Coach Thurber drove his men through a long scrimmage workout, and despite the loss of the old combination in the back field, the varsity was able to score four touchdowns in the fifteen minutes of play after the opening kickoff. Ross, left end, will probably be in the game and his presence will mean a big boost, especially in the kicking department. The Franklin lineup will likely be: Forward and Roberts, tackles; Patton and Roberts, tackles; Riley and Beck, guards; Campbell, center; Forward and Huffman, halfbacks; Raegala, fullback, and Nelp or Naugie, quarter.

TOLEDO, O., November 8.—Sparking about "all-star" boxing shows, consider the card offered by matchmaker Ray Brown for the next show here, November 12. The bill calls for thirty rounds. The headliners are Harry Wills, colored giant, who has beaten about all the white hopes and most of the colored ones, and Sam Langford, the giant killer. They are to go twelve rounds. Almost as important as this bout are the other two, which bring together Leo Patterson and Mexican Kid for eight rounds, and Christy Williams and Jack Mitchell for ten.

PITTSBURGH, November 8.—The University of Pittsburgh football team will play a post-season game with the eleven of the 520th regiment from Camp Lee, Pa., according to a decision of the university athletic committee last night. The game will be played at Forbes field, the National League baseball park here, December 2.

ALEXANDRIA, Ind., November 8.—The Alexandria high school basketball team will play a schedule of games this winter with surrounding high school teams. The organization of a basketball team is the first move in addition since the local high school supported one of the strongest football teams in the state.

BOWLING

Youngsters as well as veterans were in form on local bowling alleys last night and as a result some high class scores were registered. High single game honors for the night went to Speicher, of the Reliable Realty quintet, when he toppled 228 pins in his second game. His first and third games were 181 and 182, respectively. The great work of Gunderson and Sourber, of the Capitol Alley outfit, was responsible for that team's victory over the Central Alley five. Of the two, Gunderson was high, with counts of 178, 182 and 190. His teammate, Sourber, downed 193, 165 and 178. For the losers, Bumb, with counts of 174, 178 and 178 was best. The consistent work of Speicher was responsible for his team winning three in a row from the Hoosier outfit. Fahlbach, of the Hoosiers, did his best to keep his team in the running when he slaughtered 186, 182 and 196, but the assistance from his teammates was poor. The Ko-We-Bas hung three straight on the Kuechlers mainly through the efforts of those two sterling shooters, Billy Berner and D. Hackard. The veteran Berner was in fair form, downing 200, 200 and 178. Hackard's score read 173, 200 and 174. In Beams' League No. 3 not a score even resembled a two-century mark was rolled. H. Sager, of the Capitol Bag Company, with a high single score of 195, grabbed the high single game honor of the circuit. The Christians lost three in a row to the Gray team. The Pioneer Brass outfit took the odd game from the Press and the Independents won two out of three from the Capitol Bag Company five. In the Manufacturers' League the Iron Atlas team took the odd game

CHANGE TO UPHOLD THE TRADITION OF INDIANA

YOUNG MEN URGED TO JOIN NEW ARTILLERY UNIT.

"Uphold the tradition of Indiana," the slogan adopted by the new 24 Indiana field artillery regiment, was the keynote of a series of stirring, four-minute appeals made to audiences in downtown theaters last night by a number of representative speakers, who are assisting the new unit in its campaign for recruits.

"That red-headed gunner of South Bend who fired the first shot for Uncle Sam's men in the trenches is calling on the rest of you Hoosiers to help him," said W. P. Herold, in addressing the crowd at the Rialto. "This new artillery that is being formed presents an opportunity for you to do this, and at the same time enables you to join a unit who are likely to be called in the next draft to go to war with your friends and neighbors."

Up to Hoosiers. Mr. Herold told the crowd that in view of the disruption in Russia, the great disaster in Italy and the shortage of men in France, it is up to Great Britain and America to win the war, and he pointed out that it is up to the Hoosiers to do their part by keeping up their former good record for enlistments. He closed his talk with a fitting tribute to the new regiment.

"This will probably be the last chance for our young men to choose for themselves the branch of service to which they are to belong in the great drama of the world's war for human rights," said Henry N. Spawan, who spoke at the Circle. "He referred to the fine record made by the Hoosiers in enlistments during the civil war, and urged all young men to do their part in the effort to set a new record now."

Former Governor Speaks. Samuel M. Ralston, former Governor of Indiana, who spoke at Keith's, referred to the fine showing of Indiana's men in the trenches, and pointed out the necessity of "upholding the tradition of Indiana" by enlisting in the new artillery regiment.

"The hour has struck," said Mr. Ralston, "for all lovers of liberty to face forward and offer to do their bit in whatever way possible toward the achievement of freedom from the destructive brutality of militarism." Similar appeals were made by Louis B. Ewbank, judge of the Marion circuit court, at the Alhambra; A. W. Hatch, at the Park; Aquilla G. Jones, at the Colonial; E. E. Gates and Ralph Buehler, at the Majestic; Dr. Fletcher Jones, at the Lyric; H. B. Wilson, at the Isis, and Horace Starr, at the Keystone.

Charles J. Orblson will speak tonight at Edlith's theater, and L. E. Brock, United States district attorney, will be the speaker at Keith's. Samuel D. Miller, whose son, Sydney S. Miller, now commands the old Battery A in the Rainbow division, will speak Friday and Saturday nights at the Circle.

RATE INCREASE DISCUSSED

Dairy Products Manufacturers Meet at the Claypool. The proposed increase in intrastate freight rates on milk and cream shipments to the same basis of rates for interstate shipments was the subject before the Indiana Manufacturers of Dairy Products at a meeting held at the Claypool hotel today. The general sentiment expressed by the members was that the railroads were entitled to increased rates, because of the increased cost of railroad operation.

Railroads in Indiana have served notice on the manufacturers that they will file a petition with the public service commission asking for the increase, and they have asked the manufacturers to agree to the raise. No definite action was to be taken at this meeting, however, and another meeting, to which farmers, dairymen and consumers of dairy products will be invited, will be held later in the month to take final action on the proposition.

"Solicitors" Practice Fraud and Confiscate Canned Goods. H. E. Barnard, federal food administrator for Indiana, today made public a letter from Mrs. A. S. Brown, a food conservation worker at Clay City, Ind., in which she told of "solicitors" working at Washington, Ind., who confiscated one-fifth of the canned goods found in each home on the false assertion that they were government agents. Similar instances have been reported from many parts of the state.

PUBLIC INTEREST GROWS IN THE WAR CAMP PLANS

CASH REGISTER WOMEN DO AN INCREASING BUSINESS. MAY BE AT FOOTBALL GAME. With the continuation of the Rotary Club canvass to raise $40,000 in Indianapolis to aid the war camp community recreation fund and the direct assistance of the United States war department, it is apparent the public is taking more interest as a fuller understanding of the need for this fund is developed.

Many team captains reported a livelier response and the cash register women on the downtown streets were doing a tinkling business as the dimes or dollars rolled their way and were rung up with a sweet smile.

In All Sorts of Coins. Just to show that the cash register women are really making a "hit," it may be said that up to Thursday morning nearly $1,000 in all sorts of coins had been rung up on these registers. Canvassers reported a subscription of $300 from A. C. Newby, The Gibson Company subscribed $100 and pledged its branches in the state to a substantial increase of this amount. L. S. Ayres & Co., Edward E. White and Victor Kendall, Rotarian and secretary of the firm, will take care of the welfare of city men. J. E. Dugas subscribed $50 and similar or slightly smaller subscriptions were coming in steadily.

DePauw-Wabash Contest. It is likely the DePauw-Wabash football fans will get a chance to face a battery of pretty women and highly efficient cash registers at the annual pigskin clash at Washington park Saturday. The Rotary Club is seeking more women sympathetic with this work for aids in the cash register squads the remainder of the week.

Money contributed in this campaign will be administered under the direction of John N. Willy, national chairman, who is here, immediately upon arrival under the direction of the war department. All of this money goes to provide recreation and clean amusement in cities adjacent to military camps, thereby supplying some strong competition for the brothel and kindred forces which are quick to attack the soldiers when they are outside of their camps. This work undertaken is a distinctive one as compared with other welfare work for the soldiers all over the nation.

COURTHOUSE BESIEGED BY THE JOB HUNTERS

SEEK THE ASSISTANCE OF COUNTY OFFICERS.

TURNED AWAY BY COFFIN

Some "slueth" in unobtrusively; others came in noisily and belligerently, but they all came and all were bent on the same errand. All were job hunters, and the courthouse was besieged by them today.

Not a few came from the police department. They were following the old, old custom. In other years, after majority election, the jobs in the police department were parceled out to the "workers" with the most "pull."

This year the same old story is being told, the job hunters not seeming able to get it into their heads that there is to be a change in the "system" at headquarters and that political pull is to be superseded by merit, as announced throughout the Jewett campaign.

Many of the policemen berded in the office of Sheriff George V. Coffin, who is talked of for chief of police. Coffin told them their visits were a waste of time so far as he was concerned, and that he was not seeking the office of chief of police.

"I'm sheriff," he told them, "and am getting along very well. I don't know anything about appointments. Mr. Jewett will make his appointments without political drag."

Some practical jokers were having their day. Among them was one man circulating a petition in behalf of one Frank Smith. The petition was boosting Smith for the job as private messenger to the mayor.

WOMEN'S PART IN WAR EXPLAINED IN DETAIL

100 AIDING STATE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE.

CLOSE CO-OPERATION IS AIM

Greater enlightenment for the women of the state on their part in the war program is expected to result from a meeting of about 100 members of the women's section of the state council of defense held this afternoon in the assembly room at the L. S. Ayres & Co. store.

Women representing practically every county in the state attended the conference, which was called by Mrs. Anne Studebaker Carlisle, of South Bend, a member of the state council of defense and chairman of the women's section of the committee.

The speakers at the meeting were Captain Hugh Knyvet, of the Australian colonial forces, who recently came to this country from service in France; Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank of Chicago, a leader in the women's war work program in Illinois; and Harry E. Barnard, Indiana representative of the federal food administration.

Must Back Up Every Move.

Mrs. Carlisle said that the purpose of the conference was to permit the members of the women's section to become acquainted with each other and to impress on the women of the state that they are expected to lend their assistance and co-operation to the state council of defense. The women of the state, she said, must realize that every move that is made by the President and the government must be backed up by every woman in the state and nation.

Mr. Barnard spoke on the subject of food conservation and outlined to the women the program which has been arranged by the food administration for the prevention of waste in food supplies and the proper use of food so that the government may have no trouble in obtaining the enormous supplies which must be sent to the United States soldiers and those of the allies in France.

Those at Meeting. The list of attendees for the meeting recited by Mrs. Carlisle included the following:

Mrs. Allison Fellows Bacon, Evansville; Mrs. George C. Hill, Miss Amy Keene and Miss Virginia J. Voss, Indianapolis; Mrs. Fred J. Newby, Knightstown; Dr. Mary A. Harrison, Ellettsville; Mrs. J. W. Merrison, Indianapolis; Mrs. Grace Meredith, Wabash; Mrs. Kate Emmert, Greensburg; Mrs. J. W. Rensselaer, Mrs. James W. Samsberry, Mrs. Jessie F. Crain, Anderson; Mrs. N. Cook, Plymouth; Mrs. Thomas Carrel, Bloomington; Mrs. R. C. Rowland, Crawfordsville; Mrs. J. W. Allen, Mooresville; Mrs. L. Ella Clark, Winchester; Mrs. Sara L. Stewart, Rushville; Mrs. Charles B. Stewart, Lafayette; Mrs. J. S. Cox, Terre Haute; Mrs. R. M. Sims, Frankfort; Mrs. Perry Heath, Rochester; Mrs. H. E. Greenfield, Gall Clay; Mrs. F. Wayne, Fannie Bain, Leitch, Hartford; Mrs. F. W. Vada, Newsmen; Columbus; Mrs. Henry P. Pearson, Bedford; Mrs. Fred Krues, New Albany; Mrs. Mindwell Crumpton Wilson, Delphi; Catharine Cox Kochenour, Brownstown; Mrs. Jessie H. Overstreet, Columbus; Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Cochran, Madison; Mrs. Emma Chandler, Petersburg; Mrs. James Mitchell, Gosport; Mrs. Estelle Lee, Newburgh; Mrs. Margaret C. North, Vernon; Mrs. Fred McCulloch, Ft. Wayne; Kale Green, Ellettsville; O. H. H. Great, Union City; Mrs. J. W. Milligan, Madison; Mrs. Alfred Snook, Kokomo; Mrs. Monte Green, and Mrs. Alice D. Babu, Lagrange.

Shoots Himself Above Heart.

George Wheeler, age thirty-five, 1204 Hartford street, tried to commit suicide last night by shooting himself with a revolver just above the heart. The bullet came out beneath the left arm. Wheeler was taken to the Methodist hospital in a city ambulance, where his condition is reported as serious.

Fugitive Caught in Illinois.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) PETERSBURG, Ind., November 8.—Charles Sutton, who escaped from Sheriff Miller here Monday evening, and who was chased by bloodhounds all night, was arrested near Lawrenceville, Ill., yesterday by a sheriff and brought to this city and placed in jail again. Sutton is alleged to have stolen fifty bushels of wheat belonging to his brother, John Sutton.

The End of Your Corns. Pain Stops at Once—Corns Lifts Off Clean.

There is nothing in the world like "Gets-It" for corns. Just apply it according to directions, the pain stops at once and then the corn lifts off as clean as a whistle.

"Yes, Daughter, 'Gets-It' is Surely Marvelous." There is no need for you to go through another day of corn agony. But be sure you get "Gets-It," accept nothing else, for remember, there is positively nothing else as good.

MARRIAGE SINCE WAR NOT EXEMPTION GROUND

DECISION OF THIRD DISTRICT APPEAL BOARD.

CASES FROM TERRE HAUTE

That young men who married after war was declared are not likely to escape military service—if the national army appeal board for the Third Indiana district, in session at the statehouse, has anything to do with it—was evident from the action the board took yesterday afternoon in a number of cases from the Second district of Terre Haute.

In going over a number of the government appeal cases from that district the board members found that nine young men, who had married after April 6, had been exempted by the local board on the ground of dependency. They reversed the decisions of the local board and certified the men for military service.

Slacker Marriages.

Those who were affected by the board's decision are Frank Hals, E. H. Brinberry, Raymond Coffel, George C. Moore, J. W. Easterbrook, John Cooper, Royden Moore, Howard W. Bundy and George F. McDermol.

Although the board members have termed all marriages after April 6 as "slacker marriages," they do not mean by that, they say, to infer that the men are necessarily slackers. They have held, however, that when a young man assumed added responsibilities after war was declared, he knew at that time that he probably would have to go to war, and should not be exempted on grounds of dependency.

Cases Reviewed Thursday.

The board spent its time Thursday forenoon in reviewing a number of re-hearing cases and disposing of a few dependency appeals and agricultural claims which have resulted from the additional calls made by some of the local boards.

Only three out of eight rehearing cases—those of Carl Hammerstein, of New Albany; William Mickelson, of Scottsboro; and Edward Fackler, of Jeffersonville—were granted.

One young man asked to be exempted on the ground of being a member of a religious sect whose existing creed forbids active participation in war. The board's investigation, however, showed that the registrant had been superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school in his home town until the draft law was passed. Then he resigned to become affiliated with the Friends church. His claim was denied.

The board expected to take up a number of government appeal cases from the First district of Terre Haute at its afternoon session.

Fugitive Caught in Illinois.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) PETERSBURG, Ind., November 8.—Charles Sutton, who escaped from Sheriff Miller here Monday evening, and who was chased by bloodhounds all night, was arrested near Lawrenceville, Ill., yesterday by a sheriff and brought to this city and placed in jail again. Sutton is alleged to have stolen fifty bushels of wheat belonging to his brother, John Sutton.

CRAWFORDSVILLE ARTILLERY RECRUITS

The patriotic young men of Crawfordsville, who are forming a battery for the new 2d field artillery regiment of Indiana, at one of their first meetings went to the statue of General Lee Wallace and there grouped themselves for a photograph. They believe the famous Indiana soldier, statesman and author is with them in spirit in this undertaking, and as he rises in bronze above this group of young men he seems to feel proud that he is a part of them.

To Patriotic Americans We Recommend the Educator Shoe

"POINTED shoes are a national menace," say the officers who have been passing upon recruits. They have found that pointed shoes inevitably cause flat feet, corns, bunions, bent bones.

As a patriotic American give up this deforming, crippling footwear. Get into the Educator shoe—made to "let the feet grow as they should."

INDIANA MISSION BODY ENDS ANNUAL MEETING

METHODIST WOMEN AGAIN SELECT MRS. STORMS AS HEAD.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE IS HELD

The last of a series of meetings of the Woman's Home Mission Society, Indiana conference, of the Methodist Episcopal church, was held today at the East Tenth Street M. E. church. This is the thirty-second annual meeting of the conference, which has been in session since Tuesday. Three delegates attended this meeting here ever before. The average enrollment has been more than 300 and more than 125 delegates from out of the city were present.

The Principal Speakers. Mrs. A. B. Storms, of Indianapolis, conference president; Miss Grace Rorback, of Connecticut, national field secretary; and Mrs. Willy P. Thirkield, national president of the church. The following officers were elected Wednesday: Mrs. A. B. Storms, president; Mrs. W. S. Jones, Indianapolis, vice-president; Mrs. Alfred Stratford, Indianapolis, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry Chapman, Indianapolis, recording secretary; and Mrs. Ella Jackson, Vincennes, treasurer.

Report of Treasurer. The report of the treasurer is as follows: Total cash, $11,465.61; vouchers, $1,085.50; supplies, $2,000.21. Grand total, $14,615.32. Increase over last year, $3,822; paid to Deacons building fund, $2,522; Methodist settlement and Indian mission, $214.40; Methodist Episcopal church, Vincennes auxiliary, $100 money per capita; St. and Sullivan and Meridian street churches, Indianapolis, great gain in pledge, $80. Wednesday evening patriotic service was held. Music was supplied by the East Tenth Street M. E. Orchestra, and Charles W. Jewett, mayor-elect, addressed the meeting. The election of the deacons' committee today concluded the work of the conference for the year.

Why Not Smokeless and Drinkless Days for All?

To the Editor of the News: Sir—A recent issue of your paper contained one of the most sensible "communications" that I have ever been my pleasure to read. I refer to the article of Mrs. J. A. Allison regarding a "smokeless and drinkless day" in all the land. That some one has not thought of this long ago, to me is a surprise.

Every loyal citizen is for the President. We must win this war. We are asked to "give up" the eating of meat for one day a week. We are asked to "give up" candy, but we must not have our regular "schnapps" and "smoke." But, Mr. Editor, in a more serious vein—what would the "giving up" of smoking and drinking mean to the war chest in one day for the city of Indianapolis alone? There are about 600 saloons in this city alone. The drink bill for this city is about $75,000 a day. Indianapolis smokes at least an average of one cigar a day for every man, woman and child. Three hundred thousand cigars are sold in this city. Another $100,000 is expended in pipes and loose tobacco used in pipes perhaps another $200,000, making a grand total of a daily waste of nearly $50,000. But take away the candy from the children—what can easily be done. Ask them to give up the "smokeless and drinkless" for one day a week. "Consistency thou art a jewel." GEORGE S. HENNINGER.

Little Stories of Daily Life

His Plight.
A certain north side man had a patriotic garden this summer and it was his habit to get up with the sun, don khaki trousers, drink a cup of coffee and work until his wife called him to breakfast, about two hours later.

He rose about 5 o'clock one morning in August and dressed completely—all but the khaki trousers, which he kept in the basement. He descended the stairs and was on the way to the basement, when he saw outside a bottle of cream left by the milkman. Thinking of the effect of sunlight on cream during the warm weather and of his cup of coffee, he peered up and down the street, opened the door, stepped out and grabbed the bottle hurriedly. Just as he turned to go in he heard a slam—the wind had blown the door shut. He found himself out on the front porch, fully dressed, with the exception of a pair of trousers. The door was locked. He looked wildly up and down the street, vaulted the low cement railing and made a bee-line for the garage, the only available place of refuge and seclusion. He remained in the garage until his wife learned of his predicament, about two hours later, and came to his rescue.

The story would have remained a dark secret had not a neighbor—a woman, too—seen the whole affair and witnessed the mad scramble for the garage. Unless the victim of the joke reads this, the chances are that he will never know that any one saw his early morning flight.

A Problem in Density.

The family had stopped to eat lunch the other day on a steep hill after a long morning's auto ride into the heart of Brown county. They had a hard time making some of the hills, but they came through. The old bus had brought 'em safe that far, the head of the house proudly said. Just then their attention was attracted to little Oswald laboring up the hill.

"Whatchu got?" demanded the next of Oswald.
"A nice pretty rock," the laborer grunted.
"A nice heavy one," big brother

They urged the baby of the family to put the boulder down, but he wouldn't. Then they forgot about him until they started home.
"What are you sitting on, Oswald?" cried the little sister, as they prepared to ramble on. The others looked around. Oswald was exceptionally tall. Of course, for he was sitting on that heavy boulder.
"Throw it out," said the father.
"Mamma, have him throw it out. It's too heavy for this car. We can't have a bit of extra weight because—"

"Well, wait a little, Oswald, seeing he was losing his ground, 'can't I hold it on my lap then? Then it won't weigh too much, will it?"

People's Concert Gets Boost on the Motograph

Held in Jail as German Spy.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., November 8.—According to a report reaching here today, Joseph Rockower, twenty-two years old, is being held in the Elkhart county jail at Goshen, charged with being a German spy. Rockower was arrested at Ligonier by B. Frank Leader, special United States deputy marshal, of Elkhart. According to the report, Rockower was a prisoner two years ago by the crew of an English cruiser while on the way to the United States on submarine, and was placed in prison in Montreal. In December he escaped to the United States and was employed by the New York Central lines. Several days ago he left his position and started on a tour of prospecting and when he arrived in Ligonier he was arrested.

Injured in Auto Accident; Dies.

Harry Small, age forty-two, of Carmel, died at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident at Carmel several days ago. He was brought to the local hospital shortly after the accident. Dr. Richard A. Poole, the county coroner, investigated.

WOMAN FLIES AT RANTOUL

Officer's Wife First of Sex to Take Air Trip at Chanute Field.
(Special to The Indianapolis News.)
CHANUTE FIELD, RANTOUL, Ill., November 8.—Mrs. C. C. Benedict, wife of Major Benedict, is the first woman to make a flight on the Chanute aviation field. Accompanied by her husband, Mrs. Benedict took a trip through the clouds yesterday. The flight was made in a special plane, which is being demonstrated here by H. W. Blakely, of the L. W. F. Airplane Company, and on this account only was it possible for her to make the flight, there being a rigid rule against civilians flying in the government planes. Mrs. Benedict showed unusual nerve and chatted coolly with her husband as the big biplane left the ground.

Official information that there will be winter flying at Chanute field was received when the government sent word that three aerial squadrons would be sent here in about three weeks. Arriving in the local officers, the arrival of these squadrons means that the field will not be closed during the winter.
