John Burroughs Nature Notes

Can You Answer These Questions?
 1. With a crow nest in winter?
 2. Is there a black fox and silver grey fox?
 3. Why do certain birds migrate and others do not?

Answers to Previous Questions.
 1. Do birds of a feather flock together in winter?—Birds do not of a feather flock together in winter. Hard frosts make all the world skin. In severe weather, when the snow lies deep on the ground, I frequently see a loose, heterogeneous troop of birds pass my door. These birds are probably not drawn together, even though possibly by any social instinct, but by common want: all are hungry and the activity of one species attracts and draws after it another and another.
 2. Do squirrels like apples?—I have seen the ground under a wild apple tree that stood near the woods completely covered with the "chokings" of the frozen apples, the work of the squirrels in getting at the seeds. Apparently not a seed had been lost, but they did not eat the pulp of the apples. It is only in winter, when other food is scarce, that the squirrels will ever eat the seeds of the apples.

 What relation has color to the fragrance of flowers?—Darwin says a considerably larger portion of white flowers are sweet scented than of any other color. The only sweet violet I can depend on are the white wild ones. Notice how all the fragrant blossoms of the fruit trees have white or pinkish blossoms. I recall no fragrance in the blue flowers of New York or New England that is fragrant, and the earliest yellow flowers, like the dandelion, are not fragrant.

Inheritance Tax Falls Off.
 Inheritance taxes collected by the state in the 1915-1919 fiscal year are nearly $100,000 short of the usual annual collection. The total for the year, which ended September 30, was $423,795. The state has had no inheritance tax collector since October, 1918, when Frank D. Hughes, of Angola, became ill. Collections since then have been made largely on court assessments. Because of the unusual time required by officials in applying the new tax law some of the collections were delayed and will show up in next year's statements.

VON KERSNER DEMANDS REVISION OF PROTOCOL DENIES RESPONSIBILITY FOR SCAPA FLOW SCUTTILING. POLK CLOSES A LOOPHOLE

PARIS, December 4.—Revision of the protocol of the Versailles treaty of peace is demanded by Kurt von Kersner, head of the German peace delegation, before he will sign it. Responsibility for the sinking of interned German warships at Scapa Flow is denied by the Berlin government and it is demanded that the allied claims for indemnity for the ships be referred to the League for arbitration. It is suggested that the paragraph of the protocol referring to the evacuation of Lithuania is unnecessary as that evacuation now is considered complete and final. Demand Change of Coercion. In addition demand is made that the paragraph providing for coercive measures by the allies in case of violation of the treaty terms should be changed so that there can not be an invasion of Germany in times of peace on any trivial pretext. Advice received from London say that papers recovered from the German warship Emden, which has been located at Scapa Flow, show that Rear-Admiral Adolf von Trotha, head of the German admiralty, wrote to Admiral von Reuter, May 9, 1918, telling the latter, who was in command of the interned German ships, that the surrender of the ships to "the enemy remains out of the question." Directions from Admiral von Reuter to his officers giving directions as to the scuttling of the ships, also were found in the Emden's safe. These documents probably will have a bearing on future developments of the situation which is delaying the final step in putting the peace treaty into effect. No Two Understandings. Frank L. Polk, head of the United States delegation to the peace conference, summoned Von Kersner Monday and told him that Germany should not interpret as being in her favor any delay that might be encountered in the negotiation of the Versailles treaty in Washington, according to newspapers here. There can be in the United States several ways of understanding the treaty. Mr. Polk is quoted as telling Von Kersner, "The Scapa Flow question will contain strong representations as to the consequences of further resistance by Germany. The council yesterday decided to give the small powers which possess submarines a few of the smaller German torpedo boats.

Supreme Council is Busy. The supreme council spent most of today's session discussing the attitude of Germany toward signing the protocol putting the peace treaty into effect. The form of a note to Germany on her objections to the protocol was taken up by the council but no final decision was taken. It is anticipated that the reply to the German note regarding the Scapa Flow question will contain strong representations as to the consequences of further resistance by Germany. The council yesterday decided to give the small powers which possess submarines a few of the smaller German torpedo boats.

Notice to Gas Consumers

By order of the PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION gas consumers are forbidden to use gas for heating purposes and gas companies are ordered to cut off the supply of gas to any persons who violate this rule. This order of the COMMISSION is issued to conserve the coal supplies of gas companies during the present period of coal shortage. For other gas uses it is difficult to find substitutes, but for heating purposes substitutes may easily be found. It becomes the duty of this company to cut off any consumers who are found to be using gas for heating purposes. It is hoped that no cases will occur where such action will be necessary, but that all of our consumers will co-operate loyally with the COMMISSION in conserving coal supplies. Coal dealers of Indianapolis are prepared to make deliveries of our BY-PRODUCT COKE at a price which is relatively cheaper than that of any coal now available. There can be no fuel famine in Indianapolis if the people place their orders promptly for this coke.

Are the Coal Operators Profiteering? The amazing statement of ex-Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo that the profits of bituminous coal operators ran as high as 2,000 per cent. in 1917, and his implied charge that they still are profiteering at the expense of both the public and the miners, has started a pretty rumpus in the editorial columns of the nation's press. The United Mine Workers' Journal thinks that Mr. McAdoo's statement is vindication for the miners in their claim that the operators "could grant a substantial wage-increase out of their profits without increasing the price of the coal to the consumer." Mr. McAdoo's implications are false, reply the operators, and his "misleading statements and insinuations are the kind of stuff which Bolshevism breeds upon," while the Philadelphia Public Ledger, recalling a clause of the Revenue Act which makes it unlawful for a Treasury official or agent to divulge confidential information which comes to him in his official capacity, asks significantly, "Will William Gibbs McAdoo be able to run for the Presidency if he is in jail?" The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for December 6th discusses the question as to whether the coal operators have been taking undue profits from the public, and presents opinions from all quarters bearing upon the subject. Other news features in this week's number which are of keen interest to the public include:

INDIANA TAKES LEADING PART IN CHICAGO SHOW

HOOISER LIVE STOCK BREEDERS WIN MANY PRIZES.

ALL CLASSES ARE ENTERED

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
CHICAGO, December 4.—Indiana not only has the 1919 corn king of the world and two grand championships in the fat stock divisions of the international live stock show and hay and grain show, but also the champion live grower of a big region of the country. He is Joseph Daley, of Shelby county, who received the sweepstakes yesterday for his half-bushel sample of oats. Daley previously had won the credit of the corn show.

Checking of the awards showed that several Indiana men won in the small grain divisions besides Mr. Daley. William Tritch, of Cornua, drew eighth on his display of oats, and Sausman Brothers, Crown Point, thirteenth. Jacob Munde, Frankfort, who won several places in the corn show, drew fifth on his display of soft wheat. Cliff Martin, Muncie, got twelfth in the same class, and Sausman Brothers, eighteenth, on wheat. Martin also was twelfth in the white wheat class.

Hog Breeders Win.

Wilson Brothers, Muncie, breeders of Angus cattle, held a cow and calf for $1,590, and the Renner stock farm, Hartford City, had one polled Hereford yearling heifer which sold for $1,650. F. R. Mullendorfer, Franklin, sold a pure polled Hereford cow for $1,000 and a bull for the same amount. Warren E. McCray, Kentland, who has the largest herd of Herefords at the show, took a large part of the prizes, but Romeo Fairfax, a wonderful two-year-old bull, was beaten for the championship of this breed by a bull belonging to E. E. Mack, of Georgia. This is the first time that a grand championship in this line has gone to the south. J. W. Yannatta, Lafayette, owner of the Blancheard, a five-year-old cow tipping the scales at 1,555 pounds, was at the top of strong contender for grand championship honors of the breed.

Bells Red Polled Let.

George Incichen, of Geneva, took first, second, third, fourth and fifth prizes on his animals, and later sold the entire lot in the Red Polled sale for $2,900. W. W. Rose & Sons, Rossville, and M. J. Ranck & Sons, Roanoke, tied the Indiana field in the Polled Shorthorn class with J. H. Clamme, Upland. Close to them Clamme annexed two firsts and a second prize. Ranck got a first, two seconds and a fifth, and later sold a bull calf for $1,000. The bull was the junior champion of the breed. The Roses took eleven prizes, two of which were firsts. Indiana Belgian breeders went big with Harvey Smith, Boswell. He headed the breed.

Other Indiana winners in Belgian classes were Harry Stamp, Roschdale; Barker, Carmel, and Harry Perbeck, Princeton.

Carroll, a two-year-old mare, owned by Smith, was the junior champion of the breed.

Hog Owners Show Well.

Hog men also showed well. Claire Rhodes, Pine Village, showing the junior champion boar in the Hampshire breed. Rhodes made an excellent record, getting seven firsts and eight other prizes. J. K. Miller, Thorntown, took his share of the Chester White ribbons, while Willie Essie, Tipton, and Esig & Son, Leesburg, won several prizes in the Hampshire classes. John F. Stever, Crawfordville, showed the champion pen of barrows of the Berkshire breed and also drew several other prizes.

FOR NEW NATIONAL GUARD

Rifle Range for Each Company Will Be Provided.

Each company of the new national guard in Indiana will have a rifle range when it is ready for real work. The old guard companies in some places never had ranges on which to shoot, but under authority Harry B. Smith, adjutant-general of Indiana, has received from the war department, rifle practice facilities for the future organization are to be greater. General Smith is looking after renewals of old leases and prospects for new ones. The six proposed Indianapolis companies will use one range. There will be about eighteen other ranges in the state. In the class in the preliminary show of Herefords and she bids fair to be a

LAFAYETTE FIRE DRILL.

Test Is Directed by Deputy Fire Marshal Styner.

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
LAFAYETTE, Ind., December 4.—Six hundred pupils in Jefferson night school in this city were marched out of the building in one minute and ten seconds yesterday afternoon in a fire drill test conducted by Harry N. Styner, deputy state fire marshal, assisted by the teachers and the Lafayette fire department. A similar test was conducted at each of the grade schools with generally satisfactory results. At none of the schools did the pupils realize that their hasty exit was a practice measure. At the Ford School 400 pupils marched out of the building in one minute and twenty seconds. Sixty-five pupils in rooms on the third floor of the building did not hear the alarm and were not out of the building until nearly a minute later than the others. The deputy fire marshal condemned the school alarm and ordered a new one. He said that had there been a fire yesterday some of the pupils on the third floor might have perished. He also ordered panic release bars placed on all doors. The city fire department responded to each alarm from the schools and made swift runs.

REPUBLICANS DISCUSS LOCAL ORGANIZATION

HODGIN REPORTS ON QUESTION OF CHAIRMANSHIP.

MEETING AT THE CLAYPOOL

A meeting of about 150 Republican workers of Marion county was held last night in the assembly room of the Claypool hotel where several speeches were made in reference to policies of the local Republican organization during the coming campaign. Word had gone out from some quarters that the meeting was to be held for the purpose of protesting against city administration forces taking part in the formation and management of the new county organization next year, but nothing was said at the meeting directly mentioning the city administration, except a word of praise by Emaley W. Johnson for the Indianapolis board of safety. There was a liberal attendance of persons known to be out of harmony with city administration leaders, and many friends of the administration also dropped in to observe what was going on.

Montgomery Chairman.
George N. Montgomery acted as chairman of the meeting and called on Dr. E. E. Hodgkin to make a report as chairman of a committee which had been appointed at a closed meeting held previously for the purpose of planning for a county Republican organization. Dr. Hodgkin said there were many volunteer workers and efforts were being made to organize in all parts of the county. He said several persons had been considered for the county chairmanship, but that nothing had been done in that direction. Mr. Montgomery was authorized to appoint men to assist Dr. Hodgkin's committee.

On the motion of Peter B. Trone, a committee of three was appointed by Mr. Montgomery to draw up resolutions congratulating Senators Harry S. New and James E. Watson on their stand in regard to the league of nations. Mr. Trone, Mr. Johnson and W. O. Dunlavy were appointed on this committee.
Mr. Johnson was called on to outline the purpose of the meeting, and made an address calling on everybody to work for complete Republican success next year. He said this must be brought about by the practice of clean politics and a fair chance for all candidates.

Friend of State Administration.
Referring to the state administration, Mr. Johnson said Republicans were proud of the record it had made during the war. He said the tax law was not a bad law, and when corrected in some respects by the next legislature, would be acceptable. In regard to the next primary, he said no group of men should be allowed to dictate a slate of candidates. He said the meeting was not "hostile" to any one in its character.

Among others who were called on to make short talks were O. D. Haskett, John O. Spahr, W. O. Dunlavy, Joseph M. Hillner, J. D. Atherton, George Snider, J. Herbert Hartman, Dr. Richard A. Poole, Peter B. Trone and Jesse Martin. The tenor of the talks was along the lines of good Republicanism and fair primaries.
Dr. Poole said he thought the political house in Marion county should be "cleaned from the inside."
Among those who attended the meeting but did not speak were: L. O. Hamilton, Taylor Groninger, several members of the city council, Martin Hyland, Judge Theophilus J. Moll, of superior court; William Bosson, Thomas Harvey, Corwin P. Sells, George O. Hutsell, city clerk; Henry Cochran, deputy to Edward Sourbier, county treasurer, and many others.

MORE ACCUSED MEN ARE IN FEDERAL COURT TO PLEAD

Newberry Election Case Defendants to Number of 100 Are to Be or Have Been Arraigned.

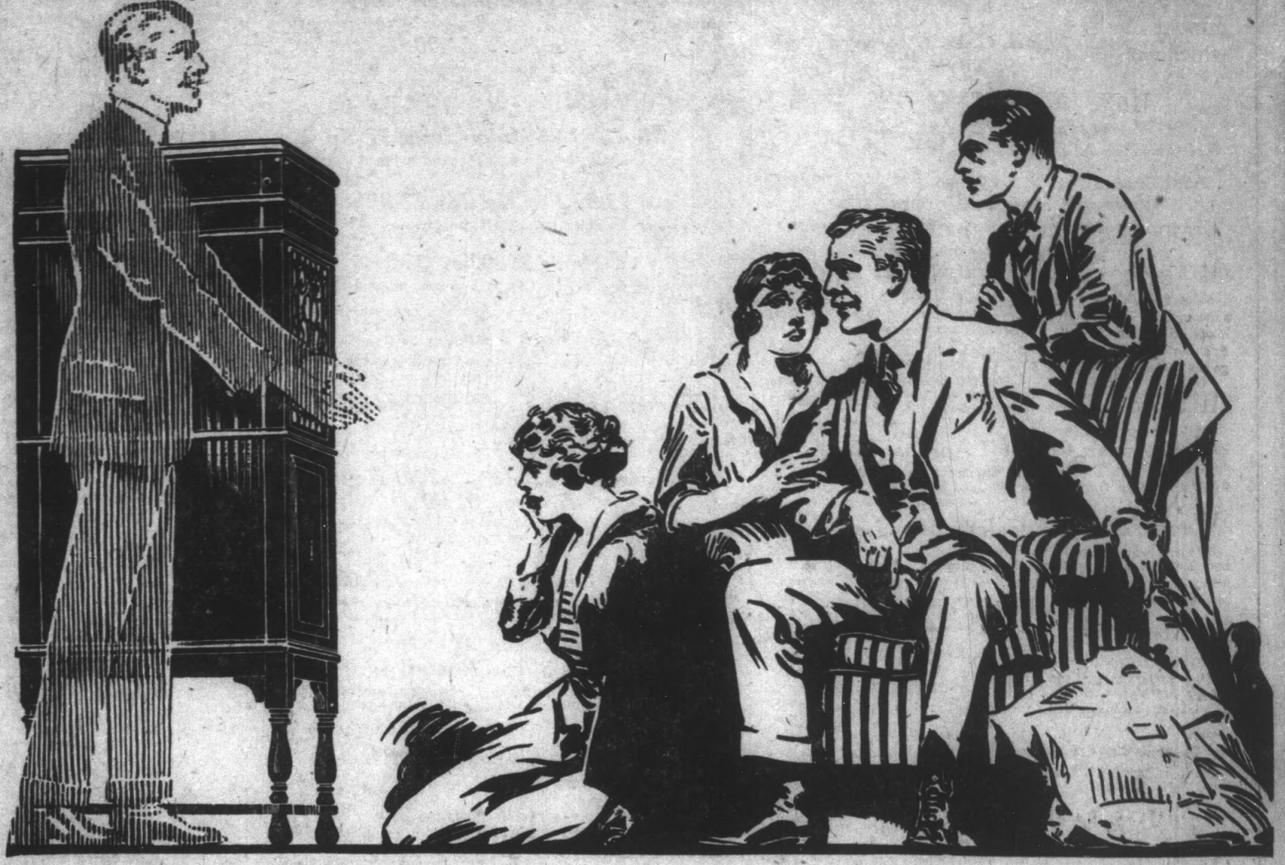

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., December 4.—Political workers and others indicted by the federal grand jury in connection with the election of Truman H. Newberry, United States senator from Michigan, continued to appear in federal court today for arraignment. Nearly 100 of the 135 indicted have either been arraigned or are here awaiting arraignment.

Out of the gathering of Michigan Republicans here for that purpose, has grown an indicted men's club. State Representative George W. Walsh, of Grand Rapids, is sponsor for the organization. It is to be known as "The 135 Republican Club." Large blue buttons are to be worn by the members, white lettering proclaims: "I helped keep Henry Ford out of the White House."
Names of more than a dozen men named in the indictments were given out today. They are Dewitt Brown and R. G. Tetrov, respectively deputy state game warden and deputy sheriff of Stevenson, Mich.; Will L. Darline, Harbor Springs; a deputy state oil inspector; Glenn Williams, court stenographer, Adrian; John C. Rittenhouse, Cheboygan; Roger M. Andrews, newspaper publisher, Monticello; James T. Fisher, Laurium, banker; Lewis Burre, Houghton, deputy state oil inspector, and William Crebassa, L'Anse, Mich., former sheriff of Baraga county.

In response to bench warrants the following men appeared to plead: Carl D. Mosher, Dowagiac; Frank T. Bohn, Newberry, Mich.; Peter Brady, Cross Village; William E. Lewis, Hart; Gladstone Beattie, former sheriff of Paw Paw; Fay Dunning, Lansing, and Henry Dotsch, Escanaba.

Who Doesn't Know About "Gift Granny?"

"Lives there a man" or woman in Indianapolis who has not heard of Gift Granny?

From ancient myth Gift Granny has come down through the years, white-capped and white-kerchiefed, to render to us, in modern time, her invaluable service.

How many times has each of us racked our brain for the right thing as a Christmas gift, for some one who "has everything"? And how many times have we been almost sure we had gotten the wrong thing?

But now, all nerve-racking indecision and sometimes disappointment can be done away with very simply and quickly, in Gift Granny's wise way.

She will pen for you a note to relative or friend, without revealing your name, address or sex, mentioning to them that "some one" wants to know what they most want, and asking them to fill out the enclosed list with their wishes. All the thrill of the mystery of Christmas is still retained, but without the disappointments, and without the one questioned knowing what the gift will be or from whom it is to come.

Gift Granny will be only too happy to serve you, because to give happiness is her mission here.

There is no charge or obligation to you.

SCOTTISH RITE TAKES UP THE FINAL DEGREES

CLASS OF 265 TO RECEIVE THIRTY-SECOND.

CLOSE OF CONVOCATION

Under the direction of Indiana Sovereign Consistory, the convocation class, numbering 265, today began the concluding degrees of the Scottish Rite at the temple in South Pennsylvania street and the reunion will close this evening with the exemplification of the thirty-second degree, the highest in Scottish Rite Masonry obtainable by petition.

The work began at 9 o'clock this morning and the day's program called for elaborate ceremonies connected with the grades from the nineteenth to the thirty-second inclusive. The presiding officers for different parts of the work during the day were Edgar F. Holson, Calvin W. Busch, John E. Milnor, Robert C. Mayhall, Marshall T. Levey and Logan C. Scholl. James W. Lilly, commander-in-chief, will have charge of the rites, with which the final degree will be conferred this evening. Music takes a prominent place in all the work and this is provided by the Scottish Rite choir, which includes Frederick M. Loomis, director; Clarence H. Carson, organist; Charles J. W. Parker, J. Raymond Lynn, Samuel L. Fetter, J. Morris Mack, B. A. Richardson, O. W. Linnard, A. B. Hill.

Matters of public interest were touched on by speakers at the class banquet last evening, which was attended by a large number of members. Charles J. Orison, grand master of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, denounced radicalism and declared that neither capital nor labor has the right to impair the lives of the American people, while groups wrangle over terms in the case of the present coal strike. He urged Masons to help create a sentiment that would demand legislation to prevent wars between capital and labor through compulsory arbitration.

Arthur H. Robinson also took a stand against radicalism and both speakers praised the attitude of the American Legion and made strong pleas for 100 per cent Americanism.

GROUP ORGANIZATION NAMED AS COMMUNITY SERVICE PRINCIPLE

Group organization under proper leadership as the principle on which Community Service, Inc. will work, was explained today by Mrs. Eva Whiting White, of New York, at the Independent Athletic Club on the closing day of the institute, to train leaders for community service work in Indiana. As an example of the value of this sort of organization, Mrs. White named the federated women's clubs of the country, which, she said, have done more than any other organization to educate the women of America.

Bishop, city playground instructor, was seen in a demonstration of es-theatic dancing. Discussion of the community drama, led by Miss Constance d'Arcy Mackay, was the feature of the afternoon session. George Somes, director of the Indianapolis Little Theater Society; Mrs. Leo K. Foster, of the Drama League; and Miss Carrie E. Scott, of the Indianapolis Public Library, spoke on phases of the theater. William H. Rogers, of Cincinnati, spoke on "Dividends from Directed Leisure Time and Extended Use of School Buildings." E. Walter Jarvis spoke on "Playgrounds," the Rev. Frank S. C. Wicks on "The Neighborhood Idea," and W. H. Insley on "Leisure From a Business Standpoint."

Corra Neff lives in Sonoita, Ariz. For a year she had been riding after cattle in the heat, cold, wind and sun. Her complexion was practically ruined. $17.75 WAS ON THE TABLE

Eight men, arrested a few weeks ago in a raid on an alleged gambling game at the headquarters of the South Side Italian Club, 542 South East street, were discharged by Judge Walter Pritchard in city court Wednesday afternoon. The number included Mike Guffre, president of the club, who was charged with keeping a gambling house.

New Secretary of the Better Business Bureau

GILES FERRIS OLWIN.

Mr. Olwin is the new secretary of the Better Business Bureau, succeeding George Gill, who resigned to enter business for himself. Mr. Olwin is an Indianapolis man. For nine months he served as secretary of the National Vigilance Committee in New York, which position he resigned to return to Indiana.

Nearly Frozen in Corn Field

Gus Carter, colored, who said his home is in Alabama, was found nearly frozen late Wednesday afternoon in a cornfield in the vicinity of West Washington street and Eagle creek by motor policemen Brooks and Dean. He said he arrived in Indianapolis Tuesday night and lay down in the field to sleep. The police sent him to the City Hospital.

fense that no game had been in progress, but that the defendants were making contributions to a fund, which was to be used to buy coal for the club. The money, $17.75, confiscated by the police, represented the amount collected it was said. Patrolman Reilly, who testified on behalf of the raiding squad, said he and the other officers stood at the windows of the club forty-five minutes and watched the men playing cards before they entered. He testified he saw money pass back and forth among the defendants and said that Guffre, at the time the police entered, said, "Well, you've got me right this time." Guffre denied this. Nelson Granderson, colored, a former member of the police department, who was arrested a few days ago on charges of gaming and assault and battery, and Clyde Woodson, who was arrested at the same time on a charge of gaming, were discharged by Judge Pritchard. The men were arrested on complaint of James Poland, of Ben Davis, who said he lost $100 in a craps game and that Granderson attacked him when he accused him of cheating.

Aspirin requires airtight protection

"Sanitape" keeps impurities out and full quality in

PERHAPS you do not know that aspirin cannot be exposed to even air without some loss of goodness. This is true because aspirin is extremely sensitive to impurities, a frequent sign of which is crumbling.

Crumbling aspirin unreliable

You need no longer take a chance with crumbling, unprotected aspirin. Each Acco Aspirin tablet is sealed airtight in "sanitape" (waxed paper tape)—protection until used, against the assaults of moisture and impurities in the air. Tear off one Acco tablet from the rest of the bundle and squeeze it from "sanitape" into your mouth without even your hand touching it. Acco is the only aspirin that is never touched by human hands, moisture or impure air from the time it is made until it is taken.

ACCO the safe ASPIRIN, in the new hygienic packing

The Albany Chemical Company, for forty years makers of standard products for hospitals and the medical profession, guarantees Acco Aspirin to be genuine aspirin of supreme quality.

VEGGS AT FULTON FOUR TIMES IN FEW MONTHS

EFFORT TO ROB STATE BANK FAILS.

HOLE IN THE VAULT DOOR

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
ROCHESTER, Ind., December 4.—For the fourth time in a few months robbers visited the town of Fulton, south of here, early yesterday. They failed in this attempt to rob the Fulton State Bank. When Howard Frain, cashier, opened the bank he found the front door badly scarred and the lock pried off. In the vault door was a large hole, and all preparations evidently had been made to place a charge of explosive, when the robbers left the building and did not return. The fact that Fulton has no street lights, due to the fuel conservation orders, aided the robbers in their work.

Mr. Johnson, whose eye was removed a few days ago, is progressing satisfactorily and left the hospital today.

SIX MEN KILLED, THREE ARE HURT IN EXPLOSION

BLAST IN SHAFT OF COAL MINE NEAR CLINTON.

VICTIMS WERE CARETAKERS

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
 CLINTON, Ind., December 4.—Six men were killed and three more were injured Wednesday afternoon in an explosion in Bogie coal mine No. 2, west of Clinton. Nine men were in the shaft at the time of the blast. The dead are:
 John Stark, Terre Haute, room clerk at the mine, formerly postmaster at Clinton, married, two children.
 Charles Watson, Clinton, assistant mine boss, married.
 John Logsdon, Terre Haute, room boss.
 He Robertson, Clinton.
 Herbert Campbell, Clinton, office man.
 E. G. Stephens, Clinton, civil engineer.
 The injured men are Louis Price, of Clinton; Scott Kerrell, of Clinton, mine boss, and William Wabbe, of Princeton, assistant electrician. Price and Kerrell were burned about the head and face. Wabbe was seriously burned and one leg and one arm were broken.
 It is reported that the mine apparently was not badly damaged.
 The dead and injured men were known as monthly men, being employed by the company on a regular salary and not members of the union, now on strike. They had gone to the mine to get coal enough to keep the mine boilers in operation during the shutdown. Several cars of coal, which the company had mined for this purpose, had been confiscated by the government and the mine bosses, clerks and electricians had been sent to mine several cars of coal for the boilers.

 An investigation as to what caused the explosion has not been completed, but it is believed to have resulted from dust accumulation and a windy shaft. The men are thought to have lost their lives from suffocation rather than being burned to death.

CLAUDE VIRTS KILLED IN MINE Former Crawfordville Man Opening Shaft Near His Montana Home.

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
 CRAWFORDVILLE, Ind., December 4.—Claude Virts, age thirty-three, formerly of Crawfordville, was killed yesterday in a mine he was opening near his home in Montana. The message was received by his father, H. B. Virts, of this city. Virts went to Montana ten years ago, after his graduation from Wabash College with the class of 1909. He was on a ranch near Carls, Mont., for a time and when killed was running a 400-acre ranch. He had leased some land near the ranch and recently had received permission to open a mine. He leaves a widow and five small children. His father and one sister, Mrs. F. Harrell, of this city, also survive.

ON DANGEROUS GROUND.

Evangelist Warns Parents Against Compromising With Evil.

Christian parents who compromise with evil for their children's sake are treading on dangerous ground, Mel Trotter, evangelist, told the audience at Tomlinson hall Wednesday night, in a sermon on the "Temptations of Moses."
 Mr. Trotter drew an illustration of the high school girl who informs her parents that the whole school is taking to dancing and she will be called a "boob" or "prude" if she declines to dance. The speaker asserted that no girl ever begins dancing in the public dance hall. "The leader of the brood and the nation," he said, "is in your own home where you serve booze and dance to the music of the piano or the talking machine."
 "Temptations" was the subject of the revivalist's talk at his noon meeting at Tomlinson hall.
 There will be no services Saturday, but plans are being made for a mass meeting Sunday night.

EXHIBIT OF PHOTOGRAPHS

Nature Study Club Contest at the Art Institute.
 Indiana scenery and views form the subjects for the photographic exhibit and contest which has been placed at the John Herron Art Institute by the Nature Study Club of Indiana. A general invitation has been extended to every one interested in photography to submit photographs for exhibition and all Indiana photographers, both amateur and professional and all members of the club are invited to enter the contest.

 The members of the club and their friends will meet Saturday night at the Art Institute to vote on the prize-winning photographs in the contest. It is suggested, however, that the members take advantage of the opportunity to see the collection that is now on display so that the voting process will be conducted with no delay. Twelve groups of pictures, including enlargements, small prints in which all members of the club will be interested, etc. have already been entered and others are expected.
 Mrs. C. W. Meredith is chairman of the committee on photography, which includes Frank C. Hohenberger, of Nashville, formerly of Indianapolis, who will give a talk on his art photographs from Brown county, and Dale J. Crittenden, who will use for his subject, "How to Use the Camera."

HEALTH BOND SALES TO RIVAL CHRISTMAS SEALS

CAMPAIGN OF TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATIONS.

ELKS AID THE MOVEMENT

The sale of health bonds in the campaign now being carried on by the state and county tuberculosis associations, promises to rival the sales of the High Red Cross Christmas seals in other years, according to leaders in the campaign. This year is the first time the Marion County Tuberculosis Association has attempted the sale of the health bond, selling in denominations from $5 up, and early reports show that they are meeting with much popularity. A number of $100 bonds have been sold already according to the county authorities. The state association reports an order for one $500 bond, and as to bond of this denomination was provided by the national society, the state division is now having a bond of this kind designed and printed. That the Elks have got behind the anti-tuberculosis work, was manifest today when reports were received at the state headquarters that in many places local clubs have bought $100 bonds. In Logansport, the Elks bought an automobile for the use of the visiting nurse whose duty it is to make calls on those afflicted with the disease. The race among the seniors of the

WILSON RENOMINATION.

New York World Says Step Could Not Fall to Be a Mistake. NEW YORK, December 4.—The New York World, Democratic and a strong Wilson supporter, referring to the indorsement of President Wilson for a third term by the Democratic convention of South Dakota, said editorially today that "from the point of view of the public welfare the renomination of the President could not fall to be a mistake." "No matter how the campaign began, it would end as a conflict over the third term," the World said. "The World does not believe that under any circumstances the President would consider a renomination; nor could any sincere friend of the President desire that his splendid career should end in such an anti-climax. For an anti-climax it will be, even if he were re-elected."

The book was placed on sale Saturday by the publishers, Little, Brown & Co., of Boston, and book stores here have copies of it. Mr. Saylor formerly was dramatic critic of The Indianapolis News.

FEDERAL AGENTS STAGE BIG CRIMINAL ROUNDUP

SAFE BLOWERS, BURGLARS, CONFIDENCE MEN FOUND.

JAIL DELIVERY HEADED OFF

TOLEDO, O., December 4.—Federal raids that started here yesterday and resulted in the detention of more than 150 men, one of them a city councilman, were continued today by officers from various parts of the country. The raid was spectacular and developed the fact, officers say, that Toledo is headquarters for some of the most prominent safe blowers, burglars and confidence men in the country. It was said that a number of police officials were under investigation and that safety deposit boxes in banks have been attached and will be inspected for evidence. Four of the men arrested yesterday were hurried out of town, the officers taking no chances on a jail delivery here. Several thousand dollars worth of narcotics were found hidden in cellars, together with a large quantity of goods, known to have been stolen from interstate railroad shipments, safe blowing tools and other unlawful paraphernalia. So secret were arrangements for the invasion of the federal officers prepared that not even the chief of police was cognizant of it. Investigation has been going on for more than a month. The capture of a number of alleged

Signing of Peace Simply Had to Wait on Luncheon

Par Thieves Make Haul

LONDON, December 24.—Why the peace with Germany was signed at Versailles at 3 o'clock in the afternoon was explained by Sir George Riddell at a luncheon to French Journalists here. Sir George said that when arrangements were being made for the signing he suggested to Premier Clemenceau that it should be 11 a. m. for the benefit of the press. M. Clemenceau replied: "No, it is impossible. What about luncheon?" Sir George insisted: "What about the press?" M. Clemenceau replied: "What is the press to 600 suffering stomachs? It will be 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. I hope the question will not be raised again."

RESIST COLLECTION OF HORIZONTAL INCREASE

SEYMOUR TAXPAYERS OPPOSE STATE BOARD ACTION.

TOWNSHIPS JOIN IN CASE

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
SEYMOUR, Ind., December 4.—The Chamber of Commerce here, acting in behalf of the taxpayers in Seymour, will file a suit in the Jackson circuit court to resist the collection by the county treasurer of the horizontal increase of 50 per cent. ordered by the state tax board on personal property. A decision is expected before January 1, when the auditor turns over the tax duplicates to the treasurer, but if the case is not determined by that time an injunction against the auditor will be sought.

Several townships will join in the test case. The chief contention of the farmers is that some classes of personal property, such as wheat and other grains, were listed for taxation according to a fixed scale of valuation and that the horizontal increase ordered by the state board resulted in the final appraisal of such property at considerable more than its actual value.

The plaintiffs will question the authority of the state board to make horizontal changes. The right of the board to fix the earning capacity of corporations will also be questioned. In another suit to be filed for the Bluff Milling Company in this city.

Files a Demurrer.
(Special to The Indianapolis News)
FRANKFORT, Ind., December 4.—Little time was taken in circuit court here for Earl F. Gruber, attorney, to file a demurrer to the answer of the state in the tax injunction case, Monday the state, through the attorney-general, filed an answer to the ruling of Judge Combs overruling the state's demurrer in the action of Abraham McClamroth and other Clinton county taxpayers against the county auditor and treasurer and the state of Indiana in which an injunction is asked restraining the officers from placing the horizontal increases in assessments on the duplicates as ordered by the state board of tax commissioners.

Mr. Gruber filed his demurrer to the answer yesterday morning. Just what the next move by the state will be is a matter of conjecture.

HOUSE REPUBLICANS TO LIMIT APPROPRIATIONS CURTAILMENT PLAN LOOKED ON AS POLITICAL ASSET.
NEW REDUCTIONS PROPOSED

The Indianapolis News Bureau,
25 West Building.
WASHINGTON, December 4.—Republican leaders in the house wish to limit appropriations at this session of the congress to $4,000,000,000. The estimate submitted by the secretary of the treasury call for $4,845,410,931, and it is believed that supplemental estimates will run the total to more than $5,000,000,000.
By such a curtailment the Republican party could go before the country in the next campaign announcing that it had saved nearly $800,000,000 under estimates by the Democratic administration, more than $1,000,000, 000 this session and $600,000,000 in the extraordinary session.
Chairman Good, of the appropriation committee, thinks that $4,000,000,000 should be enough for the year ending June 30, 1921, and he looks for more estimates, probably about $125,000,000.
By oversight or for some other reason, he said today, more than $100,000,000 of continuing appropriations were omitted from the total estimate. We must have extraordinary funds to produce anything like this revenue to meet this estimate of expenditures.

"The President in his message suggests the possibility of a reduction in taxes. A reduction, however desired, is impossible as long as departments continue to make extraordinary estimates for expenditures.
"It would seem there is no co-ordination between the President and the secretary of the treasury.
As to the Railroads.
"If an additional estimate should be submitted from the railroad administration it would swell the total to nearly $5,500,000,000 for the railroad administration; $1,250,000,000 was requested formerly, but the congress allowed only $750,000,000. An additional estimate now of $400,000,000 for this purpose, with some $125,000,- 000 for other purposes, would make a grand total of $5,400,000,000.
Mr. Good did not indicate where the cuts should be made. Other leaders predict drastic reductions in the appropriations for the army, which asked for $989,578,557, and in the $542,021,564 called for by the navy. A general cutting down in the number of government employees is favored, some leaders being ready to eliminate virtually all extra help.
Determined.
(Edinburgh Woman)
"I want a set of golf clubs," said the worried looking man.
"Certainly, sir," answered the dealer in sporting goods. "By the way, I believe you bought a set of clubs from us yesterday."
"So I did, but I am determined to learn how to play that infernal game if I break every golf stick in town."

ARGUMENTS CLOSED IN NEWS OWNERSHIP CASE

PROSECUTION GETS TEN DAYS IN WHICH TO FILE BRIEFS.

IMPORTANT POINT RAISED

Attorneys in the case of the United States against Delavan Smith, charged with violation of the postal law under Section 23, of the penal code, by making alleged false statements in regard to the ownership of The Indianapolis News, completed their arguments on the defendant's counter to the indictment before Judge A. B. Anderson in the federal court Wednesday afternoon.

At the conclusion of the argument, J. B. Slack, United States district attorney, asked for about ten days' time in which to file a brief outlining his answers to the demurrer, and this was granted. The defense had already filed a short brief with the demurrer, but the court said that if attorneys for the defense desired to file an additional brief after the district attorney's brief had been filed, sufficient time would be granted.

Thompson Closes Argument.

In closing the argument in support of the demurrer, William H. Thompson, of counsel for the defendant, emphasized the point made by his associate, Ferdinand Winter, that Section 23 of the criminal code, under which Mr. Slack had based and on which the prosecution relied to make a case, could not apply in the present case. Mr. Thompson showed, after citing numerous legal authorities, that the government had strained a point by bringing the indictment under Section 23, which carries a prison sentence provision, when the only act of the defendant was the making of a statement in a newspaper which would possibly be construed to apply to the circumstances alleged in the indictment was Section 23, which carries only a penalty of a fine limited to $500.

Revisions Cited.

Mr. Thompson called attention to the fact that there is a cleavage between the Supreme court of the United States, in the case of Cross vs. North Carolina, in which it says expressly that Section 23 is to be applied to forgery, altering and counterfeiting an instrument, but that there is no contention in the present case that the affidavits were not genuine. The case of the United States vs. Davis also clearly shows through court decision, he said, that this construction put on Section 23 is correct, and that the words "falsely made" in Section 23, refer to the making of a forged instrument, but no forged instrument can be shown in the case at issue.

ground, and there is a later statute embracing a milder, or less severe sentence, that the result of the situation is that the older statute has no application to the specific offense covered by the lighter statute.

Mr. Thompson referred to the Barnhart law, which regulates the publishers' statements, and said that when Section 23 is read along with that law, it is clear that it is intended that the sole penalty as to any offense is under the Barnhart law, which requires a publisher's statement in order to gain admission of the newspaper to second class privileges of the mails. He said Section 23 has the words, "Whoever shall knowingly submit, or cause to be submitted to the postmaster, any such false evidence, while Section 23 uses the word 'instrument,' which has an entirely different meaning.

No Claim of Competency.

Mr. Thompson said Mr. Slack had failed to show any authorities which support the theory that the powers of the notary public were competent in the present case.

It was argued and it is frankly admitted, he said, "that there is no regulation of the department authorizing a notary public to administer an oath, and the district attorney

HOTEL ASTOR advertisement with text: VISITORS who know New York will tell you that, despite its excellence of service and cuisine, Hotel Astor rates are no higher than those of any fine hotel.

Does not point to any regulation which claims to give that authority." In answer to Mr. Slack's contention that notaries public could swear in the postmaster-general, Mr. Thompson cited a Supreme court decision to show that such a situation would not imply that the notary public had power to give oaths to such affidavits as are in question.

"I think it would occur to anybody that swearing a man to an affidavit is a very different thing from swearing a man to an office," Judge Anderson said. "In other words, a man might be an officer and never be sworn at all, but it could never be an affidavit until it is sworn to."

Powers of Notaries.

Soon after beginning his argument in the afternoon in response to the remarks of Ferdinand Winter, of a notary it did not follow the notary was authorized to administer oaths. The law of 1876, he said, giving notaries public the right to administer oaths in the manner "now," meaning at that time, administered by commissioners of the circuit courts, should have read "now and hereafter," in order to be competent, which commissioners of the circuit court, an office now abolished, once held. But "hereafter" was not mentioned in the original statute.

Mr. Thompson spoke of the 1912 law, relating to publishers' statements, saying that the pertinent part of the law did not relate to the question of ownership of newspapers but related to statements of the average circulation of newspapers in order to get mailing privileges.

Powers of Notaries.

Mr. Thompson reviewed the laws and decisions which might relate to the powers of notaries public, and said there had never been any general conferring of authority on the Supreme court of the United States vs. Hall in support of this contention, and showed that because an instrument was sworn to before counsel for the defense, Mr. Slack indicated that Mr. Winter had raised an important question in citing decisions to show that the notary public who administered the oath to the publisher's affidavits alleged to have been false when transmitted to the postoffice authorities had no legal authority to administer such oaths, as there is no law giving notaries public such powers.

Mr. Slack cited only one authority which he thought was reasonably applicable to his contention that notaries public had broad powers which would cover the circumstances in question. In questions put to Mr. Slack, Judge Anderson expressed doubts whether the decision cited had direct bearing on the case.

Powers of Notaries.

In his argument, Mr. Slack did not attempt to refute the statements by Mr. Winter showing that the affidavits in question were genuine documents, and that they had been honestly sworn to by Hilton U. Brown. In opening his argument in the afternoon, in response to the arguments of the demurrer, Mr. Slack

United States district attorney, said the government drew the indictment in an attempt to charge an offense under Section 23. The section has various subdivisions, he said, each of which could form a basis for a charge, and that is the reason that so many counts were brought in the indictment concerning alleged offenses on four different dates.

Mr. Slack declared that the part of the brief relating to Section 23 does not have application in the case. In that section, he said, there is nothing more than a penalty for presenting false evidence to a postal official for the purpose of obtaining special mail rates.

Powers of Notaries.

"That is far from the charge entered here," said Mr. Slack. "This is not an attempt to charge presentation in order to get particular postal charges."

defense, is whether or not a notary public may give oath in regard to affidavits presented to United States officials. The reason why newspaper statements should be filed, he said, is contained in Section 443 of the postal law by act of congress in 1912. The first part of this section, he said, related to the requirement for the statement, and the second part related to the penalty for failure to file, which would not now apply in the present case.

Mr. Slack presented a court decision in the case of the U. S. vs. Hardison, in 1905, to show that powers conferred on commissioners of circuit court to administer oaths was also conferred on notaries public by the act of 1876.

Powers of Notaries.

Mr. Slack frankly admitted that if it could be shown that notaries public could not administer oaths in regard to such affidavits as those in question, then there would be serious question in regard to the government's contention. He also admitted that there were not many decisions on the subject which would support the contention that notaries public had full powers in such cases. After reading the Hardison case, Mr. Slack said it came as near supporting his contention as any case he could find.

Questions Slack. Judge Anderson questioned Mr. Slack closely about the effect of the decision in that case. Mr. Slack said that in 1876 the law was enacted giving notaries power to confer oaths in the same manner as commissioners "now" conferred oaths. In 1896, he said, the congress gave

Is Your Motor Trucking Done On Faith or Facts?

A WELL-KNOWN banker recently remarked that he quickly gauged the value of a business risk by the completeness of its cost system.

Can you imagine a successful manufacturer pricing his line without knowing freight rates?

Or a merchant guessing at an item representing twenty percent, or fifteen percent, or even one percent of his costs?

Motor trucking costs are as important as any costs in a man's business.

Of the average cost of ice—46 percent is transportation. Of soft drinks—20 percent. Of brick—20 percent. Of bread and pastry—19 percent. Of laundry work—15 percent. Of coal and wood—15 per cent. Of ice cream—14 percent. Of dairy products—12 percent. Of lumber—6 percent. Of groceries and meats—4 percent.

The operating costs of 1700 trucks which were entered in the Packard National Efficiency Test for 1918 and an equal number in the Test for 1919 were kept on the National Standard Cost System—a cost system which is endorsed by leading truck owners throughout the United States for all businesses and all makes of trucks.

The experience of Packard owners with the National Standard Cost System has proved extremely satisfactory because in the long run it has automatically proved the low cost of Packard transportation.

As one of our owners puts it: "Good work comes from a good truck." He should know for he has been operating a 6-ton Packard seven days a week for fifteen months with an average load of 156 eight-gallon cans of milk weighing 13,260 lbs. And has made his National Cost System records as much a part of truck routine as filling with gas and oil.

All truck owners should know how to get the facts. There is a Packard Freight Transportation department at Packard headquarters in this city. Consult them. There is no charge for the service.

United States commissioners general powers the same as had formerly been given to circuit court commissioners, and it was his theory that the Harjoison case decision was to the effect that because general powers were conferred on commissioners, these general powers would extend to notaries public under the provisions of the law of 1876.

Judge Anderson said he doubted whether the decision cited by Mr. Slack had application in the present argument and asked a number of questions tending to bring out whether or not the word "now" used in the law of 1876, could be construed in its meaning to affect the law of 1896. Judge Anderson called attention to the fact that in the decision in 1895, in the case of the United States vs. Hardison, nothing was said to show that the law as if then stood implied that "now and hereafter" should be the words inserted in the latest law.

Mr. Slack said it was necessary to read "between the lines" in regard to the intent of the law, but he believed the congress meant to confer full powers on the notaries public.

No Question, Says Slack.

Mr. Slack said notary statements had been accepted frequently by the government and there had been no question as to their sufficiency. He said he did not understand that the defense took the position that if the affidavit sworn to by a notary had not been had as fraud would have been committed.

In this case, he said, it was not a matter of defrauding the government out of money, but if anything is done to bring about a maladministration of the law there is fraud against the government.

Mr. Slack then replied to the con-tion of the defense that no count of the indictment states facts sufficient to constitute an offense under section 23 of the criminal code. He cited a number of authorities to show that the facts named in the indictment applied to the section in closing. Mr. Slack said that the indictment was not an indictment for perjury or subornation of perjury.

INEQUALITY IN RANK PLAN.

General Pershing Makes Matter Subject of Special Report.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Inequality of the war department's reduction system toward regular officers who served, with combat troops in France, has caused so much dissatisfaction that General Pershing has made the matter the subject of a special report to Secretary Baker. In army circles it was declared that the matter of relative rank between temporary and permanent officers had superseded inadequate pay as the basic reason for the numerous resignations now awaiting official action.

General Pershing is understood to have discussed the subject with Secretary Baker prior to the departure of the secretary for Panama, but the outcome of the conference is not known.

According to data supplied to Mr.

Baker, the general reduction of American expeditionary force officers placed many who served with particular distinction in command of large units under temporary junior officers who never commanded troops.

Runaway Girl From Richmond Found by Police—Boy Missing.

Attired in boy's clothing, Pauline Mackydyak, age eighteen, who ran away from her home in Richmond, Ind., Wednesday afternoon, was found on a street car at Alabama street and Massachusetts avenue, last night, by motor policemen Bernauer and Weddie. She was sent to the detention home and will be held pending notification of her parents and the authorities in Richmond.

Emery Funk, of Danville, Ill., Wednesday asked police and detectives to assist him in the search for his son, Steve Funk, age eighteen, who ran away from his home in Danville a few days ago. The elder Funk said he had received information that his son had come to Indianapolis to get employment.

Police have been asked to search for Aaron Witherspool, colored, age fourteen, who escaped Wednesday afternoon from Dr. J. H. Regan, who was taking him from the City Hospital to the Indiana Boys' School at Plainfield. Witherspool broke away from the physician in front of the Robert W. Long Hospital in West Michigan street.

NEW PLAN FOR INDUSTRY.

Dress Manufacturers to Produce New Styles Every Month.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., December 4.—Delegates at the annual convention of the Associated Dress Industries of America today voted unanimously in favor of exercising all their efforts to put the dress manufacturing industry on a twelve months basis.

It is their purpose to produce new styles every month, introduce new fabrics and in this manner meet the demands of American women for dresses, which have grown beyond all proportions in the last sixteen months.

An official statement to this effect was issued by the executive director, David N. Mosessohn, who said the new plan of the manufacturers will mean steady employment for thousands of workers in the industry and will do more toward solving the industrial unrest than anything the dress industry has ever attempted.

GOAL OF PROTESTANTISM THEME OF CONFERENCE

DELEGATES ATTEND DINNER AT Y. W. C. A.

BROAD PROGRAM URGED

Objectives and Goals of American Protestantism was the subject for discussion at today's sessions of the state training conference of the interchurch world movement at the Y. W. C. A. The discussion was led by Dr. Joseph A. Vance, of the First Presbyterian church, of Detroit. A luncheon for county supervisors for rural survey work was held at noon at the Y. W. C. A. and in the evening the advisory council named by Dr. Don D. Tullis, mobile secretary for Indiana and Michigan, will meet at luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. and of course.

by a discussion on the use of moving pictures in churches. It was declared by several speakers that there will be a reaction to the wave of sentiment which is now permitting some churches to be turned into movie shows. This reaction, it was said, may prove dangerous to the church. Other speakers said the reaction may result in merely the discontinuance of church movies. Many ministers told of the work their churches are doing with community houses in caring for the athletic and amusement needs of their communities, and it was said that this work is as successful in small towns, as in large cities.

William A. Brown, of New York, associate director of spiritual re-education for the interchurch movement, spoke at 10:30 on "The Entrance of Christ in the Home Life of America." W. W. Souder, secretary of the pilgrim memorial fund of the Congregational church, was on the program in the afternoon to discuss "The World Outlook." Mr. Souder and Mr. Brown will have charge of the conference at the closing sessions Friday, as Dr. Vance will leave tonight for Lexington, Ky., where a similar conference will be held.

Dr. Vance urged in an address on "Religious Education and American Democracy," at the afternoon session, the adoption of a program calling for the training of religious teachers, the creating of a curriculum for all grades of church schools, the establishment of week-day and vacation schools of religion, the formation of community programs and religious education through the church, and religious training in the homes.

College, and David M. Edwards, Earlham College. Dr. W. A. Mills, president of Hanover College, is to speak tomorrow.

Plans for Rural Survey. The Rev. Marion C. Bishop, of this city, state supervisor of the rural survey department of the interchurch world movement, presided at the luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. at noon. The county workers present at the luncheon discussed plans for a rural survey which is planned as part of the program of the movement. It was pointed out that a short time after the survey is completed, pastors and laymen will meet in sectional county meetings to go over the results of the survey and to study the religious situation from the county rather than from the denominational viewpoint. The Rev. Mr. Bishop has held about twenty conferences and fifty-three county supervisors have been named.

Among those present at the luncheon were: Dr. J. M. Walker, district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church at Connersville; Dr. Edgar L. Williams, Indianapolis executive secretary of the Indiana Church Federation; Dr. John P. Hill, of Lafayette; Dr. C. W. Cable, secretary of the Christian church of Indiana; Dr. C. M. Dinamore, secretary of the Baptist church of Indiana; Dr. Morton C. Pearson, executive secretary of the Indianapolis Federation of Churches; Professor Stanley Collier, West Lafayette dean of Purdue University; Dr. Thomas C. Howe, Indianapolis, president of Butler College; Professor Oskel P. Hall, West Lafayette, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; Dr. George A. Ravery, Indianapolis, pastor of the First Congregational church; Dr. Raymond J. Wade, Elkhart, district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church; Dr. S. H. Baumgartner, presiding elder of the Evangelical church, Indianapolis; the Rev. M. N. George, pastor of the Salem Baptist church at Lafayette; Lester W. Carlamber, secretary of the Y. M.

RAILROAD MAN SPENT TWO YEARS IN SIBERIA

CONDITIONS ARE TERRIBLE, SAYS W. K. HOCKADAY.

REFUGEES SEEK PROTECTION

WABASH, Ind., December 4.—W. K. Hockaday, of Anderson, an engineer on the Big Four railroad, who formerly lived here, has just returned from Siberia, where he served with the American army forces for two years. Mr. Hockaday, accompanied by John Sundheimer, of this city, enlisted for military railway service in Russia at St. Paul, Minn., in the fall of 1917. Both men were sent to San Francisco, where they embarked in November, 1917, for Omsk, Siberia. Conditions Are Terrible. Conditions in Siberia at the present time are terrible, according to Hockaday, who is visiting here at the Charles Hayden home. When he first arrived in Siberia, Archangel, was a city of about 35,000. Before he left it had grown to a city of more than 150,000. This increase was caused by the refugees of all Russia escaping to that place in an effort to escape the fighting in Russia and at the same time be under the protection of the American forces.

Siberian Industries. Practically all industries in Siberia are attempting to resume operations on a scale larger than the prewar scale, and the timber industry is the largest in the history of the country. The American forces in Siberia, ac-ording to Mr. Hockaday, are suffering more at the present time from the cold than anything else, the temperature there being from 30 to 40 degrees below zero the greater part of the time. Returns to United States. Mr. Hockaday started on his return trip to the United States from Omsk, September 10. He left Vladivostok on October 7 and arrived in San Francisco November 7. He was there about two weeks before he received his discharge from the service. After resting for a short time, Mr. Hockaday will return to his former home, at Anderson and again take over his run on the Big Four.

No Better Investment

[By Merle Sidener] Indianapolis does not have a better opportunity for profitable investment during the entire year than that ofered by the Marion County Tuberculosis Association in the sale of Christmas seals. Indianapolis, like every other rapidly growing city, suffers a great economic loss every year through deaths from preventable diseases. When it is realized that every penny spent for Red Cross Christmas seals goes to a fund which is used for fighting tuberculosis, it can be readily seen that this money is a definite investment. The fight on the "white plague" may not be as spectacular as was the great war "over there," but it is at least equally important. Every man, woman and child in Indianapolis should quickly and generously respond to the campaign in Marion county for the sale of the Red Cross Christmas seals this year.

Sympathy and Aid Asked

To the Editor of The News: Sir—Will you please permit me to call the attention of the readers of your paper that, following the custom of previous years, the National Training School for Colored People, Durham, N. C., will gratefully receive gifts of any description for distribution among its own needy students and for the people of the community and state? Gifts of books, clothing, tools of every description or money will serve and fill a great need. The readers of your paper in the past have been generous with such gifts and they have greatly helped and encouraged worthy students and the people among whom they have been distributed. Lessons of sanity, thoroughness and loyalty have been taught by all the institutions of the south, which have so nobly tried to help the nation solve its problems. The work of these institutions can not be measured by dollars. Gratefully yours, JAMES E. SHEPARD, President National Training School, Durham, N. C.

Coaley, Fire Horse, Pride of Department, Is Dead

Coaley, a fire horse who faithfully served the Indianapolis fire department continuously for eighteen years, has answered his last fire alarm and members of the department who knew Coaley and his teammate, Bob when they were the pride of the department before the motor trucks began to push the horses into the background, are mourning the loss of the horse. Coaley was on a test run from engine house No. 27, East Tenth street and Parker avenue, Tuesday, when he slipped and fell against the curb. It is thought he overexerted himself in regaining his feet and probably broke a blood vessel. He died shortly after the accident. His name was derived from the fact that he was coal black. He came to the department in September, 1901, and was assigned to chemical company No. 1, stationed at the old fire headquarters in Massachusetts avenue until the motor trucks came in.

Then Coaley and his mate Bob were transferred to the residence fire stations. Bob was in the harness with Coaley when the accident occurred.

Wanted All the Fixin's. [Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph] The little man made his way back to the theater box office. "This seat number sounds like a German submarine, it's U-19," he said. "You don't want to change it merely on that account, do you?" asked the box office manager. "No, but I thought you might be able to supply me with a periscope to enable me to see over the big woman sitting just in front."

Water Colors by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haven Brown Shown

Provincetown, Mass., the old fishing town, has come to Indianapolis again, this time in a group of delightful water color paintings by Harold Haven Brown, director of the Harvard Art Institute, and by Florence Standish Brown (Mrs. Brown). The pictures are on exhibition for a few days in the H. Lieber Company gallery. Mr. and Mrs. Brown spent five weeks of last summer in picturesque Provincetown, and the present exhibition interprets the charm of clear days and gray days and foggy days by the sea in the old New England setting.

There is a peculiar quality to sunshine along shore. The sunny pictures have it in a refreshing degree. They are done in a frankness of bright, clear color. "Sunny Afternoon," by Mr. Brown, shows warm light catching white boats on the blue water and touching the wharf sheds. The wharf piles stand tall in the low tide, and the roof line on the sheds melts atmospherically into the bit of sky showing.

Mrs. Brown's "Boats, Trees and Sea" has a sparkling quality of sunshine. It looks out over roofs and trees to a stretch of blue ocean. Her decorative interpretation of "A Provincetown Home and Garden" is charming. Besides her Provincetown pictures, Mrs. Brown shows three whose subjects were found in Indiana. "Summer Night on an Indian Lake" is a glimpse of the little lake beyond tall, dusky trees. A glow of warm light from a little house gives the suggestion of human life in the silence of night out of doors. "A Woodland Path—Indiana" shows a "Tree Treasury" and the "Summer Night" picture were painted on Clear Lake, up near the Michigan line.

One of the most striking pictures by Harold Haven Brown is his "After the Rain," with a boat in the foreground, its red sail showing dark against a sky of flying gray white-edged clouds that have just broken loose from the big cloud that rained. It is luminous in spite of the gray day, and is full of breeze. His "Old New England Chamber" is a delicious window corner with a bit of an old mahogany dresser showing and a tempting Windsor rocking chair. A flood of sunshine comes through the window. "The Old Church at Provincetown," which was shown in one of the L. H. Marvin pencil pictures, is even more charming in color. "The Painting Class" shows Charles Hawthorne's class. Mr. Brown hid under a bit of wharf and caught it snowing. "Day at Full Tide" is a beautiful bit of quiet water, and the boat and its reflection. "Sunset, Glow Provincetown Harbor" has another quiet stretch of water reaching to a distant violet shore and "Pog at Twilight" shows a fishboat unloading.

Institute Lays Plans to Assist Cripple

NEW YORK, December 4.—Plans for rehabilitation of civilian cripples have been announced by the Red Cross Institute for crippled and disabled men of New York city, which has trained many disabled service men to become skilled workers and found employment for more than 1,000. It will continue its activities on a peacetime basis under the name of the Institute for Crippled and Disabled Men. In severing its connection with the institute, which it founded as a war emergency, the American Red Cross has given it $50,000. A board of trustees has been appointed, headed by Mrs. August Belmont.

The institute founded the first special vocational school for cripples in this country, training maimed soldiers, sailors and marines to be printers, draftsmen, jewelers, manufacturers of artificial limbs, typewriter repair men and motion picture operators.

He Leads a "Double" Life. (New York Evening World) A pretty young girl Red Cross roll call worker buttonholed a widely known business man in upper Broadway the other day and asked him to pay $5 for a life membership. "I already have a life membership," he replied, somewhat gruffly. "Then lead a double life," retorted the girl. What could the man do? He did.

Do You Still Follow in Grandma's Footsteps?

The tasks of the household were taught you by your mother—and she was taught by her mother—your Grandmother—but things were different when Grandma was a girl—no railroads—no telephones—no street cars—no electric lights—now we take all of these things as a matter of course.

We have advanced in everything but in doing our household tasks—we wash today, just as Grandma did—we use soap and water.

You know how hard it is to wash cut glass with soap and water and have it look brilliant—why don't you

TRY KEE-KO?

Kee-Ko is the active cleansing element of all soaps—but Kee-Ko does not make a suds—so Kee-Ko cannot leave a film on your cut glass to mar and dull its brilliancy.

Just dissolve one tablespoonful of Kee-Ko in a pan of tepid water—wash your cut glass—rinse and wipe—you'll find a new brilliancy—a new sparkle and without the tiresome wiping of the old way.

Will you phone your grocer and tell him to send you a package to try—or are you still following in Grandma's footsteps?

NO CONFIRMATION YET OF CAPTURE OF VILLA

BANDIT LEADER SAID TO BE HELD BY OWN MEN.

FONTES CREDITS RUMOR

JUAREZ, December 4.—Mexican officials here today were without confirmation of the reported capture of Francisco Villa by members of his band, who are said to be holding him for ransom. The report of the capture came in a dispatch from a telegraph operator at Parral to P. W. Caballero, superintendent of the National Railways of Mexico for Chihuahua, who is here on an inspection trip. In some quarters little credence is placed in the report, while in others it is regarded as extremely probable, in view of interference with the Villa program to average the execution of General Felipe Angeles, his chief lieutenant. Colonel Paulino Fontes, general superintendent of the National Railways of Mexico, declared that he credited the report of Villa's capture because of his knowledge of the conservatism of Senor Caballero. "He would not give out such a report unless he had good reason to believe the truth of it," he said.

Accused of Stealing a Chop

Because he stole a pork chop, Glenn Frapp, 515 East Nineteenth street, a freeman at the Hotel Beverly, was arrested on a charge of petit larceny Wednesday on the allegation of the manager of the hotel. Frapp was charged by Judge Walter Pritchard today when the prosecuting witness failed to appear.

TAX ASSESSMENT STANDS.

Demurrer to Complaint in Churubusco County Sustained.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., December 3.—The demurrer to the complaint in the case of Ernest Cotterly et al. vs. Walter K. Durwill, auditor, was sustained Wednesday by Judge L. H. Wesley in the Whitley circuit court. The state tax board this fall raised the valuation of personal property 25 per cent. in all the townships and towns in the county except Smith township and Churubusco, where it was raised 10 per cent. The plaintiff asked that the auditor be enjoined from putting the increase on the tax duplicate on the ground that it was illegal. The complaint was held bad on the ground that the plaintiff should have followed out the remedies provided in the tax law and appealed to the board before coming to court. The assessment stands as increased. U. S. Leach, attorney of Indianapolis, J. J. Brown of this city appeared for the defendants, and Gates & Whiteleather and T. F. Gates represented the plaintiff. An appeal will be taken pending the decision in the case from Clinton county now in supreme court.

Wish to Restrict County Officials.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) LAFAYETTE, Ind., December 4.—A suit to prevent the carrying out of an order issued by the state tax commission, August 23, instructing the auditor of Tippecanoe county to increase the valuation of personal property in Wayne township, this county, 60 per cent., was brought here today by Charles Norquest and Evan Shroyer, wealthy farmers of the township, who have made John C. Doyle, county auditor, and Alfred M. Spence, county treasurer, defendants in the action. The plaintiffs contend that they did not have any opportunity to be heard on the subject before the appraisal was ordered in effect. They ask the court to restrain the county officials from collecting taxes on the basis of the increased appraisal.

WOMEN IN PARTY ARE ON SAME BASIS WITH MEN

WILL H. HAYS SAYS THERE MUST BE NO DISTINCTION.

CITES REPUBLICAN PLANS

NEW YORK, December 4.—No distinction must be made between men and women in politics, Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, declared in a speech last night at a banquet for him by the women's division of the national committee and the Republican women's state executive committee.

Mr. Hays said that the Republican party would offer to women everything offered to men. Among other future policies of the party, he outlined were a national budget, system, federal regulation but not ownership of industries, aid to business and remedial legislation for labor and strong anti-Bolshevik legislation.

"The Republican women in the country constitute one-half of the party's membership," said Chairman Hays. "The Republican women come into the party not as women but as voters. The Republican party offers the women everything we offer the men."

1,700 Attend Banquet.
About 1,700 persons attended the banquet. Mrs. Arthur L. Livermore presided.

A method by which labor may acquire an interest in the business to which it gives its efforts and a system of taxation which would not kill business initiative were named by Mr. Hays among the national plank of the party.

He declared that the Republican party stood for full political self-determination, and held up hard and fast set of rules. "Turning to reconstruction problems be dealt with first, business, which he said, must be treated with an appreciation of its fundamental importance, and not as a demagogue's shuttlecock."

"The business men of the country," continued Mr. Hays, "are entitled to every consideration, including the right to run their own business. Plans which kill initiative must not be levied. There should be a large inheritance tax on the very large inheritance. The Republican party, from its inception, has stood against undue federalization of industries and activities."

Refers to Rail Problem.

"The railroad problem will be solved, and solved fairly, with provision for a just return on real investment and with reasonable assurance for essential development and extensions. We are against paternalism in government and we are against that form of pedagogic paternalism which has developed recently in this country."

In regard to labor, Mr. Hays declared that "the economic situation was simply a matter of Roosevelt's square deal."

"To that end," he said, "we must develop a reasonable method for honest and efficient labor to acquire an interest in the business to which labor is expected to give its best efforts. Pending this development an equilibrium between production and wages must be established."

In concluding his remarks, the Republican chairman said that the recent special session of the congress had saved the nation nearly $1,000,000,000 and that this alone would warrant an "overwhelmingly Republican victory next year."

CUBA TAKES OVER COAL.

Government to Exercise Control of Supplies During Shortage.

HAVANA, December 4.—Control over coal supplies throughout the republic has been taken over by the government, a presidential decree to that effect having been issued. Coal owned by individuals, companies or societies may not be sold without authority from the government.

All individuals or companies having coal in their possession for commercial purposes must communicate with the secretary of commerce and labor within ten days and mayors must submit a list of public service corporations and industries in their respective jurisdictions which depend on coal for continuing operations. Data as to the amount of coal on hand, actual monthly fuel requirements and the manner and source of supply also must be given.

Immediately exportation of 27,000 tons of coal to Cuba has been permitted by the United States government, and this country's rapidly disappearing supplies.

NO HOTELS FOLLOW LEAD.

Chicago Concerns Fail to Compete With LaSalle.

CHICAGO, December 4.—Managers of Chicago's biggest hotels showed no indications of following the action of the Hotel LaSalle, one of the largest in the city, which Tuesday ordered a sweeping reduction in the prices of rooms and food.

"I don't know how to get a reduction of prices unless some one starts it," Ernest J. Stevens, manager of the hotel, said. "Everybody knows that this is a day of extortion. Get it while the getting is good, seems to be everybody's motto."

"Business has never been so good as it is now and it will continue to be good next year. But we are cutting prices because we want to be fair with the public. The time to cut prices is when business is at its best. The hotels are the barometer of business. If the hotels start cutting prices other business will follow."

SCIENCE ACADEMY TO MEET

Eigenmann on the Irwin expedition to Peru, Bolivia and Chile be made at the closing session Friday evening instead of in the afternoon. An address by Barton Warren Everman of the California Academy of Sciences, San Francisco, Cal., has been canceled. Sectional meetings will be held Friday afternoon. The executive committee will meet this evening.

The loss was estimated at $200,000. The opera house was erected sixty years ago, being formally opened in December, 1859.

COMMERCE COMMISSION'S REPORT FOR 1919 BRIEF

Few Recommendations are Embodied in Document Submitted to the Congress.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—The annual report of the interstate commerce commission, submitted to the congress today, is comparatively brief and makes few recommendations.

Federal control of railways during the last year having taken over many functions of the commission, the report renews mainly recommendations made in previous years.

It is recommended that the power to award reparation for unreasonable or unlawful charges be placed wholly in the courts; that the powers of the commission be extended to holding corporations as well as those which actually operate interstate transportation lines, and that railroad operating rules be standardized.

The commission reports again that in many cases its work has been obstructed because necessary records and data could only be obtained from holding companies.

From its investigations of train accidents the commission's investigators concluded that the failure of engineers to obey signals and failure to provide adequate flag protection for trains continued to be the principal cause of collisions. The use of automatic train control was again recommended.

The investigators also found, the report says, that there was room for much improvement in the air brake equipment of trains.

The Efficiency of the Chalmers

SO much favorable comment has been made on the engine of the Hot Spot Chalmers that we are inclined to feel that many overlooked the other great essentials of this magnificent car.

There's 117 inches of wheel-base in a Hot Spot Chalmers and every inch denotes high efficiency.

Radiator to rear axle, it indicates perfect design, superior material, rare skill in workmanship, and an attention to detail that lifts it far above competition in price.

Service department records prove this high efficiency in a Chalmers by figures; it averages in cost to owners less than one per cent per year of the list price of the car for repair parts.

As a matter of fact once an owner's license plate is bolted on the Hot Spot Chalmers the car seldom returns for service.

Give it gas, oil, grease, water, and fair treatment and it'll respond like the fine "creature of steel" it is.

STENHART COMPANY TO HAVE MILLION CAPITAL TO BUILD AUTO SERVICE STATIONS IN LARGER CITIES. ADDITION TO PRESENT PLANT

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the E. W. Stenhart Realty Company, capitalized at $1,000,000. The local company plans the erection of modern automobile service stations in Indianapolis and a number of the larger cities of the state. Work has already been started on some of these buildings. The new company, according to E. W. Stenhart, who is president and treasurer, will build an addition to the plant of the E. W. Stenhart Realty Company, which contains an automobile sales and service station at Glenwood and Meridian streets. The addition will be of reinforced concrete, facing Eleventh street. It will be three-story building, 35x175 feet in dimensions. It will cost about $150,000, and will house the service station of the company only. The E. W. Stenhart company sells Dodge Bros. and Cadillac machines. Other buildings to which will be added are being started now at E. Wayne and Richmond, and work will be started soon on a building at Perry, Ind. The Perry, Ind. building will be a three-story building with cost about $100,000. The Richmond building will cost about $100,000. Mr. Meyer is vice-president of the new company, and J. K. Bryan is secretary.

DESCRIBES RED FUND.

Former Treasurer Tells Lusk Committee It Was for Defense. NEW YORK, December 4.—The Russian Socialist Federation's "fund for political victims" was created to defend communist workers arrested in "gangster raids," Dr. Michael Krasin, former treasurer of the federation, told the Lusk legislative committee, investigating radical activities today. Krasin produced a small account book and explained the use of funds entered under various heads. He said the federation recognized "political" victims, "political" victims and kept a regular fund to obtain legal defense for them and to provide similar relief. "By gangster raids," he said he meant the raids of police and department of justice agents. He said these officers used rough tactics in dealing with the radicals. Krasin told the committee that as far as he knew he was no longer treasurer of the federation. Tuesday, he said, Oswald Garrison Villard, secretary, asked him in writing to resign. He complied, but had been notified that his resignation had been accepted. Krasin said the injunction petition filed by Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, movie ambassador, to prevent the Lusk committee from forcing him to produce his records, has been postponed until Monday.

Postal Ban Is Raised With Regard to Stickers

To facilitate the handling and delivery of mail during the Christmas holidays, the requirement that domestic matter bearing on the address side adhesive seals or stickers, other than postage stamps, shall be treated as unmailable is suspended for the period from December 1 to January 1, according to instructions received at the postoffice from the postoffice department at Washington. It is reported, however, that patrons of the postoffice refrain from placing the seals or stickers on the address side.

SERVICE COST AGREEMENT PROPOSED AS STABILIZER

Guy E. Tripp Suggests Plan to Insurance Company Presidents As Protection for Investments. NEW YORK, December 4.—Adoption by municipalities and street railway companies of "cost of service" agreements, in which the cost of maintaining the integrity of the investment is included, was recommended as a means of solving the troublesome street railway financial problems by Guy E. Tripp, chairman of the board of directors of the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Company, in an address before the thirteenth annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents here today. The question, he said, was of vital interest to life insurance companies because approximately $100,000,000 of their investments were in street and interurban railway securities. Street railways were indispensable, Mr. Tripp declared, and should be operated under private, rather than government, ownership.

URGE PREFERENCE FOR COAL, STEEL AND RAILS

IMPLEMENT DEALERS WISH FOOD PRODUCTION GUARDED. BUSINESS COST TAKEN UP

A resolution to the effect that coal, steel and transportation receive preference over all other classifications on the government's priority list in order that food production on the farms may not be curtailed for lack of farm implements was adopted at the convention of the Indiana Implement Dealers' convention at the Severis hotel today and telegraphed to H. A. Garfield, federal fuel administrator, and to the secretary of agriculture. The cost of doing business and business methods was discussed at the forenoon session by R. M. Miles, of Argus, an accountant of the National Retail Dealers' Hardware Association. P. T. Rathburn, of Springfield, O., discussed "Association Work and How It Benefits the Farmer." Earl Crawford, of Connersville, at the afternoon session told the dealers what the farmers wished them to do in the way of service. George Roberts, president of the Indiana Millers' Association, was also on the program. The dealers will attend a banquet at the hotel tonight at which Charles J. Orban will be the chief speaker. The convention will end Friday afternoon.

RATES ORDERED REDUCED.

Seymour Company Raised Prices Without Commission's Permission. The public service commission has ordered effective for the Seymour Mutual Telephone Company a reduced schedule of rates and directed the company to refund to patrons the excess over legal rates it has been charging since last summer. The commission's order states that the company put into effect increased charges without authority either from it or from the federal telephone administration. This is the second instance in which the commission has ordered such excesses refunded. New primary net rates for Seymour are $2.75 for business telephone; $1.65 for residence and $1.50 for party rural. The rates are designed to yield the company 7 per cent on its tentatively fixed valuation of $75,000.

RESISTS PROBATE OF WILL

Nicholas J. Eastman Files Suit in Wayne Circuit Court. RICHMOND, Ind., December 4.—Nicholas Joseph Eastman, son of Dr. Thomas B. Eastman, formerly of Indianapolis, who died three weeks ago at his farm east of Richmond, has filed suit in the Wayne circuit court to resist the probating of the will of Dr. Eastman. The will, dated July 14, 1918, it is said, divides the estate between the son and the widow, Dora Thea Eastman. The plaintiff alleges that Dr. Eastman was of unsound mind at the time of the execution of the will; that he was unduly influenced; that the pretended will was unduly executed, and that the pretended will is not the last will of Dr. Eastman.

PREPARES TO REDUCE TAXES

Ways and Means Committee Asks Treasury for Statement. (Special to The Indianapolis News) WASHINGTON, December 4.—With the view of either repealing or reducing the excess profits tax, the ways and means committee has asked the taxation experts in the treasury department to prepare a statement for the committee showing what can safely be done. This action is in line with recommendations made by both President Wilson and the retiring secretary of the treasury, Carter Glass. The committee is inclined to go further than either the President or the secretary advised. It is disposed either to reduce the excess profits tax or to eliminate it altogether for the current year. The committee desires to know particularly from the treasury department whether, if the tax shall be reduced or eliminated, it will be necessary to provide something to take its place. Secretary Glass in his report to the congress recommended as a substitute an increase in direct income taxes.

Printer's Ink of November 6, said—
"The reason retail advertising has such a definite day-in-and-day-out following is that it is the most informative type of publicity there is. In department store news you will find real answers to every human want."

This is as it should be, for what concerns us as individuals more than anything else is in what manner and with what we shall be clothed, housed and fed. You are always justified in turning to an Ayres bulletin of store news.

Pinky Kerr says his ideal of social unrest is got in a dress suit that fits you before the country went dry. "Things have just about dwindled to a point where you get about as much service with a $5,000 car as you do with a 6-cent cigar," complained Tell Binkley today.

Little Stories of Daily Life

Trying to Fumigate.

The man of the house is not so careful with his clothing as he might be. His wife has often to remind him to change his shirt and watches her chance to get his suits to the cleaners. But recently it has been impossible to get hold of his work suit, and his mother-in-law who has been visiting wondered how long he would continue to wear it as dirty as it is.

The other night he dropped his trousers on a chair and the matches in his pocket in some way were lighted. The smell of smoke brought the family into the bedroom just as they were smoldering. After the confusion had quieted came mother-in-law's chance. "Well," she said to her daughter, "I guess he was trying to fumigate them at last."

Fixer-Up.

The fourth grade was having a contest between the boys and girls in the room. One day the teacher started a new method in the recitation by calling on the members of one side first and then giving those on the other the opportunity to correct them. The boys happened to be the first called on in this case and it looked much better for the girls. Finally one youth could stand it no longer. "The boys are not having a fair chance," he complained. "You make them go first and then let the girls be the fixer-ups for their mistakes."

BUTLER COLLEGE NOTES.

At a meeting of the sophomore class Wednesday, Roland Jones, of Indianapolis, was elected basketball captain. The class ratified the interclass basketball project. Committee reports on the prom to be given by sophomores and juniors were received and acted upon.

Forty students were guests at an informal social at Moore's Hall by the Dramatic Club in welcoming the new members. The program for the evening included impromptu vaudeville by every member, and dancing. Miss Evelyn Butler, Professor William C. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Means were faculty representatives and chaperons.
