

STATE PRISON IS FOUND IN EXCELLENT CONDITION

COMMITTEE PRAISES MANAGEMENT OF FOGARTY.

LARGE PROFIT FOR STATE

(By Lester Walker, Staff Correspondent of The Indianapolis News)

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., November 29.—It has been a pleasant task for the legislative visiting committee to investigate conditions and needs of the Indiana State Prison, for here is an institution that is not only self-supporting, but actually returns a surplus to the state.

Edward J. Fogarty, warden of the prison, told the visitors that he hoped to do even better this year than last, when about $40,000 more was turned into the state treasury than the total sum expended for the upkeep of the prison. The reason the state legislature is asked to provide a regular maintenance fund for two years and appropriations for whatever improvements that might be needed is that all profits from the prison industries must be turned into the state treasury.

Mr. Fogarty thinks that in the future it will be possible for the prison to turn into the state treasury each year from $150,000 to $200,000 more money than needed to run the institution.

At present, the prison population is considerably smaller than it has been in the past. There are only 850 men in the institution. From an industrial point of view, Mr. Fogarty could use from 200 to 400 more men to advantage, but he is not sorry that conditions do not lead to a larger population.

In addition to the regular maintenance fund, a request for about $40,000 for improvements is being made, the largest item being for contemplated improvements in the department for criminal insane which is one of the remarkable features of the prison.

Late Arrivals Fed.

Owing to a line of train connections after an inspection Monday of the Indiana School for Feeble-Minded Youth, at Ft. Wayne, State Senator Estes Duncan, of Cleveland; State Representative David N. Curry, of Carlisle, and Mrs. Ida Belser, secretary to the committee, did not arrive at the prison until midnight last night. But the warden had a warm meal prepared for the visitors at his residence. Then he took them into the greenhouse, which Senator Duncan said reminded him of California.

Warden Fogarty told how the binder twine factory in the prison had been developed from a losing venture to a profitable industry for the state and about improved conditions for the inmates by getting them interested in the weaving industry. A phase of the visit most impressive was that the warden seems to know individually every inmate in the prison and affectionately referred to most of them as good fellows. His house man and other prisoners who looked after the comfort of the visitors are all "lifers" but men who are trusted absolutely by the warden.
