

URGES REPUBLICANS TO CORRECT PRIMARY LAW

E. C. TONER EDITORIALY DISCUSSES PLATFORM PLEDGE.

VIEW OF CRITTENBERGER

[Special to The Indianapolis News]
ANDERSON, Ind., December 7.—In a signed editorial, under the heading, "The Republican Platform and the Primary," Edward C. Toner, editor of the Anderson Herald, said in his newspaper today:

"The publication by a responsible news correspondent of what purports to be the facts connected with the adoption of the direct primary clause in the recent Republican state platform reveals an attempt on the part of the opponents of the direct primary to interrupt the recent election results in Indiana as a mandate from the people to take away from the voters the power to select their nominees for senator and Governor. It is now said that, prior to the state convention, a plank was submitted to the leaders of the Republican party and that it was their judgment that the primary either be repealed altogether or at least so far as it affects the Governor and senator. This judgment of the 'leaders' is now proposed to substitute for the language of the convention plank, the language declared for revision but not for repeal."

"As a member of the resolutions committee, and as a Republican citizen, I am wondering if these 'leaders' were who so graciously settled this vital question before the convention. Were they responsible representatives of the rank and file of the Republican party commissioned to formulate the party's attitude on an important question of government? Was the regularly elected delegate to the convention, knew nothing about them and their decision. The members of the resolutions committee, after full discussion, adopted this plank calling for revision of the primary and the convention adopted it."

Action of Convention.
"Since when did the judgment of a few 'leaders'—themselves, not members of the convention—take precedence over the recorded judgment of the regularly elected representatives of the party citizenship assembled in convention?"

"The Republican convention expressly declared for the revision of the primary law; the Democratic convention expressly declared for its abolition. The people expressly and by overwhelming vote, placed their approval on the Republican platform. Can gentlemen seriously argue in the face of these facts that the people thereby decided that they should be deprived of the power to nominate their own candidates for Governor and senator, and that the old convention system be restored?"

"The big question raised by this discussion is the issue of the democratic control of the great political machines which constitute the actual government in America, the political parties. Unless political parties are so organized as to make them under control by their own citizenship there is little hope of popular control of government which of necessity is governed by political parties."

"Let the Republican party in Indiana address itself to the constructive task of correcting the weaknesses of the direct primary system instead of running after the jack-in-the-box of hoping for improvement under the old uncontrolled delegate convention system."

Crittenberger Defense.
Dale J. Crittenberger, formerly auditor of state, chairman of the Eighth district Democratic committee, in his newspaper, the Anderson Bulletin, came out last evening with a defense of the primary election law. His editorial, under the heading "The Primary," follows:

"The women are on a sound, safe platform when they demand and support the present primary law. Of course the women in the man in this: if the law needs some few corrections the amendments should be made. But the law should not be killed. The primary is the people's law and this is the very reason why politicians are against it. Under the primary they can not always control things. They sometimes get bumped and swatted. With women, politicians of the undesirable class will have a harder row than ever. They will have more and more control of affairs, and they will be supplied by the people."

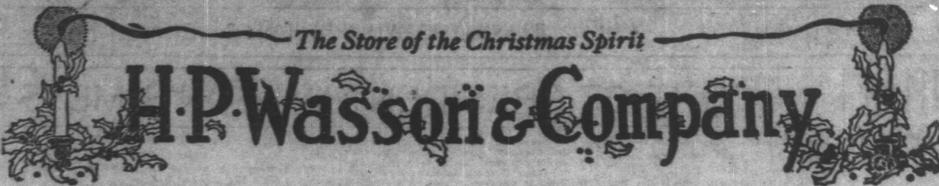

Safe and Sane Place?
"If any candidate is all right, he or she will not suffer from the people—in a primary. If a candidate is not right he or she ought to suffer—and the primary is the safe, sane place to have the disapproval registered. The candidate who can not trust the people ought not, in turn, to be trusted by the people."

"If the politicians' hue and cry against the primary scare this Republican legislature into emasculating this law, then the people will hold responsible, and defeat that party for killing the law—temporarily. Let no politician make the mistake that the people do not want a primary. They do. The Anderson women who have gone on record in its favor are to be commended. They are on safe political ground."

GOVERNOR REPLIES TO MINE LEADERS' VIEWS

WEST VIRGINIA EXECUTIVE DEFENDS USE OF TROOPS.

CITES LOCAL UNION HEADS

CHARLESTON, W. Va., December 7.—Governor John J. Corwell, in a statement issued from his office here, replied to the criticism of the international executive board of the United Mine Workers at Indianapolis, which, Sunday night, took issue with him for calling federal troops into the strike zone.

"Since the tragedy in Mateswan, early in May, when a number of employees of the Velsa Detective Agency were assassinated, no employees of that or any other agency, so far as I know or have been able to find out, have been in the strike region, except to pass through on a train or to appear at court at Williamson in answer to a summons. If any are in the field, they are not guards but secret operatives. Not have any other armed guards been employed by the operators, so far as I can learn.

"These things they agreed not to do, following the Mateswan tragedy, and I promised to protect life and property in that region to the best of my ability, and they promised to employ no private guards.

"In addition to this, the sheriff of Mingo county, the force of deputies have been friendly to and sympathetic with the union miners. The local union officials will verify that statement.

"While the officials at Indianapolis are giving out their statements for the purpose of poisoning the public mind and John L. Lewis is calling on me to resign my office and denouncing me for bringing federal troops into the county, the officials in charge of the strike in Mingo are giving out statements expressing satisfaction with the treatment they are receiving at the hands of the troops, and proposing me as arbitrator of their troubles. Evidently the Indianapolis people are not in close touch with the situation.

"I have tried to make it plain to both sides and to the general public that I have no part or parcel in the fight of the United Mine Workers to organize the Mingo field and could have none if I wanted it. I am interested only in preventing civil war down there, and in bringing to an end the murders and the sniping that have been going on in stopping the dynamiting of property and the lawlessness that has prevailed. It was for that purpose that I brought back federal troops into the county and asked that it be put under martial law, but under temporary military control.

"The troops are helping to collect guns and otherwise clean up the situation. As soon as they complete this work they will be withdrawn. Steps in the meantime are being taken to increase the state police force. A new sheriff will come into office in Mingo on January 1, and I am confident that the county and state will then be able to prevent future serious trouble, no matter how long the strike continues."

DISTILLERS ARRESTED.

Secretary and Treasurer of Louisville Firm Face Indictment.

LOUISVILLE, December 7.—O. H. Wathen, secretary, and W. F. Knebelkamp, treasurer, of E. Z. Wathen & Co., Louisville distillers, were arrested here last night on warrants charging violation of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act. The arrests resulted from an indictment returned in Chicago recently by a federal grand jury implicating Wathen, Knebelkamp, Mike de Pike, Hedler and other persons in a "whisky ring." Wathen and Knebelkamp were charged with transporting 1,000 cases of whisky from the Wathen distillery at Hobbs, Ky., to Chicago on forged permits. Both men denied having known the alleged illegal nature of the permits. They were released under bond of $3,000 each and required to appear Friday in federal court at Chicago.

COURT SUSTAINS PLEA TO DISCHARGE VIEWERS

MADISON COUNTY IMPROVEMENT HELD UP BY RULING.

WORK ON WIDENING CREEK

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ANDERSON, Ind., December 7.—Judge W. S. Ellis in the Madison county superior court today sustained a motion by remonstrators to discharge viewers and to reject the report on the proposed widening and deepening of Kill Buck creek, from Anderson to a point in Delaware county, involving several thousand acres of land. A. H. Peters, a former commissioner of Madison county, and Henry Stinson were the viewers, and A. H. Doyle was the engineer.

What the Judge Said.

Judge Ellis in making his ruling said "this case is before the court at this time on a motion by remonstrators to reject the report of viewers and discharge the viewers. The motion alleges that the commissioners or viewers were not disinterested. There is little dispute about the facts and the work was said to require some time and some expense.

No Improper Motive.

The court said no fraud, corruption or improper motive is charged against the commissioners or any one else on account of these acts. The only question being one of law and was they disinterested.

Misinformation.

GREAT MEN MEASURE QUALITY OF CITIZENSHIP

VIEW OF ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE IN GREENCASTLE ADDRESS.

TELLS OF COLLEGE DAYS

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

GREENCASTLE, Ind., December 7.—Albert J. Beveridge, formerly United States senator from Indiana, as a guest of DePauw University and the Putnam County Bar Association here last night, spoke in Meharly hall on "The Development of the American Constitution Under John Marshall."

Dr. George R. Gross, president of DePauw University, introduced Mr. Beveridge and said that he was a "former United States senator and hoped he would be a future senator."

Mr. Beveridge is a graduate of DePauw with the class of 1885 and is one of the university's noted alumni. In his speech Mr. Beveridge told how he came to write the works on John Marshall and dwell at length on the development of our Constitution during the life of the famous jurist.

Speaks to Students.

Mr. Beveridge was the guest of Dr. Gross last night, and this morning spoke at chapel time to the student body on "The Act of Public Speaking."

Excerpts from Mr. Beveridge's address at Meharly hall follow:

"Great men are not only the richest fruit of the country that produces them, what is far more important is the fact that great men measure the quality of the people from whom they spring. A mediocre nation produces mediocre leaders, while a great people produce great leaders."

Gratitude in Groups.

"For example, our own country has produced men from whom all history furnishes no superiors. For instance, at the same period the then youthful American people had as their leaders Washington, Hamilton, Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Marshall, Henry, and numerous others of hardly inferior quality. Such a group of men has never been seen at the head of the public affairs of any other one country at any single given time."

Will Pass in Time.

"But this will pass in time; just as soon as the people suffer the evil consequences with enough severity to make them realize what is happening they will themselves remedy this obvious defect."

YOUTH DIES OF INJURIES.

Daniel Maupin, Middletown, Was Shot Accidentally While Hunting.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ANDERSON, Ind., December 7.—Daniel Maupin, age nineteen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Maupin, of Middletown, is dead of injuries he received November 27. He was accidentally shot in the back with a shotgun in the hands of his companion, Adolph Watkins, also of Middletown, while they were hunting rabbits.

Maupin had crawled through a wire fence and Watkins, carrying the shotgun, was following when the hammer of the gun caught on a strand of wire and the weapon was discharged. Maupin received the full load of shot.

EXPRESS COMPANY ALSO LOSES SMALL SUM OF MONEY.

TRUCK USED TO HAUL SAFE

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

WINCHESTER, Ind., December 7.—Fugitives early today entered the United States postoffice and the office of the American Railway Express Company at Parker, which is eleven miles west of Winchester, and obtained small amounts of money, the postoffice safe, and postage stamps amounting approximately to $1,500. The robbery was one of the boldest committed in Randolph county in years.

At the postoffice the robbers loaded the safe, containing a small sum of money, the stamps and money orders, on a motor truck and hauled it away before daylight. At the express office the money was taken from the money drawer and the office furnishings were roughly handled.

ADJUTANT-GENERAL TO ASK MILITARY REVISION

WILL SEEK CHANGES BEFORE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

PLAN FOR STATE TROOPS

A revision of the military laws of Indiana to conform with the new provisions of the national defense act, adopted by the congress last June, will be proposed to the Indiana state legislature by Harry B. Smith, adjutant-general of Indiana, who is now investigating recent laws of other states.

At present Indiana has no real army with the possible exception of two or three companies, which could be ordered to act in case of public disturbance. Twenty-one companies are now organized or in process of organization, but the services of nearly all would have to be voluntary, as they have not yet come under the national law.

The old Indiana militia law makes no provision for such modern army departments as aero and balloon squadrons, observation and intelligence departments, the enlarged use of tractors, and many other military features made necessary by experience in the world war. The organization of companies will have to be different, and many other vital changes will have to be made in order to conform with the national law.

In order to come up to government requirements, the Indiana national guard will have to have 3,000 troops in commission before June 30, 1921, and 6,750 troops by 1923. By the end of the fifth year, the state must have 800 troops for each congressional district. Government inspection of Indiana companies has already begun.

Carefree.

FORMER INDIANAPOLIS MEN HELD AT ST. LOUIS

JAMES F. DONAVIN AND ROBERT EDWARDS ARRESTED.

SHOE CONCERN INVOLVED

(Special to The Indianapolis News) ST. LOUIS, December 7.—James F. Donavin, formerly head of the Donavin shoe company, of Indianapolis, and Robert Edwards, also of Indianapolis, are under arrest here and federal warrants charging fraudulent use of the mails will be asked against them, according to J. M. Donaldson, assistant inspector of the Kansas City, who questioned them.

Donavin, who six months ago established the Kansas City Shoe Company with elaborate offices at Kansas City, Mo., is charged with having obtained $15,000 from merchants in the state of Kansas by selling them bogus agencies for his company's shoes. The agencies were sold for $50 to $125, the price varying according to the size of the town in which the merchant was situated. He is said to have closed the office and left Kansas City suddenly some time ago.

Sample shoes mentioned. Donaldson said Donavin had no shoes for the agents to sell except sample shoes kept in the office of the company.

Donavin says his company was legitimate and that although he had no shoes to sell he intended to make arrangements with wholesale shoe dealers to supply his agents with shoes. Edwards asserts he knew of nothing wrong with the transactions and that he only was carrying out the instructions of Donavin, by whom he was employed.

Donavin and Edwards first were arrested on suspicion by the police last Thursday, but were freed on $10,000 bond. They were rearrested Saturday and were questioned today by Donaldson, who arrived at St. Louis on Saturday.

Donavin was in possession of a list of letters and checks which bore the name of the Knickerbocker Shoe Company.

Federal Grand Jury Investigation. An investigation of the transaction of J. F. Donavin, who formerly did business as the Donavin Shoe Company, 54 West Georgia street, is pending before the federal grand jury in this district. The matter was brought to the attention of the district attorney by postoffice inspectors when the last regular grand jury was in session. No indictment was returned. Donavin was then confined in a sanatorium. Later he moved to Kansas City, where he is said to have organized the Kansas City Shoe Company. Miss Freda O'Donoghue, who was Donavin's secretary in the Kansas City Shoe Company, also is said to have come his secretary in the Kansas City Shoe Company.

It is presumed Donavin was arrested in Missouri on information given by the postoffice inspectors at Indianapolis. It is said that while in business in this city Donavin sold agencies for his company's shoes to the amount of $15,000. It is said that each agent should have credit in the purchase of shoes to the amount of $100, but that in many cases he failed to deliver any shoes, and that when he did deliver the shoes they proved to be of poor grade and high priced. The assets of the company were finally sold by a receiver for approximately $5,000.

ASKS $11,983,848.94 FOR DIPLOMATIC CORPS

COLBY SETS OUT ADDITIONAL STATE DEPARTMENT NEEDS.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—Diplomacy can no longer be mainly concerned with political questions, "but must devote greater attention to far-reaching economic issues," Secretary Colby declares in a memorandum accompanying his estimates of appropriations for the state department for 1922, addressed to the secretary of the treasury. Secretary Colby estimates that $11,983,848.94 will be necessary for the maintenance of foreign relations, an increase over the previous year of nearly $2,000,000.

The United States, Mr. Colby said, finds itself in keen commercial competition with other nations which are reviving and intensifying their efforts to gain foreign markets; to occupy the markets formerly controlled by enemy powers and to attain a higher degree of economic production. He added that reason "an adequate staff of technical experts" in the foreign service is needed.

Lack of money to pay for needed help in the consular service abroad has brought about general conditions, the secretary asserts, adding that while "exigencies of diplomatic duty" demand that our representatives be men of exceptional ability and attainments, the service is losing many of its most efficient men through failure to "provide them with an appropriate standard of living."

The aim of the department, the memorandum says, while giving "effective purposes and direction to diplomacy should afford even greater facilities for supplying more precise and better digested material to the department of commerce which is in direct and continuous contact with the business world and which is charged with the dissemination of commercial information."

DUTY ON WHEAT PRODUCTS

Bill Presented in House by Washington Representative. WASHINGTON, December 7.—Representative Summers (Wash.) introduced a bill proposing duties of 25 cents a bushel on wheat, $1.12 a barrel of 100 pounds on wheat flour and on other wheat products a straight 25 per cent ad valorem rate. Tariff duties on citrus fruits of 15 cents a pound are provided in a bill introduced by Representative Randall (Cal.). The rates are the same as those carried in the Payne-Aldrich bill.

Representative McLaughlin (Neb.) introduced an amendment to the farm loan act, which would increase maximum loans to pay one borrower to $10,000, except where the money is loaned for agricultural purposes. In such cases loans not exceeding $25,000 would be permitted.

ACCUSED IN LIQUOR CASE

Logansport Hotel Man Arrested and Brought to Indianapolis.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) LOGANSPORT, Ind., December 7.—Henry Gillan, proprietor of the Johnson hotel was arrested here Monday by Frank Rehm, United States deputy marshal, accused of violating the liquor law by having liquor in his possession.

He was taken to Indianapolis and arraigned before Charles W. Moore, United States commissioner, where he was bound over to the federal grand jury under $1,000 bond. The bond was signed by John M. Gillan, of Kokomo. It is said that the information that led to the arrest was obtained several weeks ago when the Johnson hotel was raided by officials. Gillan is one of the men indicted by the local grand jury in connection with the alleged local "whisky ring."

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Escaped Convict of Hartford City in Saskatchewan, Canada.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) HARTFORD CITY, Ind., December 7.—Rhus Cavanaugh, age thirty-six, former Hartford City man who escaped from the Michigan City Penitentiary in July, 1919, with four other prisoners, will go to trial soon at Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada, charged with wife murder, according to a letter received here Monday night by Albert Sutton, county sheriff, from the chief of police at Moose Jaw.

The letter says Cavanaugh has been going by the name of Carl Cavanaugh at Moose Jaw, and information regarding his past life and relatives is requested. One brother of Cavanaugh, William, lives in this city, two in Muncie and another in Jay county. Cavanaugh was sentenced to the State Penitentiary October 15, 1918, on a charge of criminally assaulting his fourteen-year-old niece, daughter of William Cavanaugh, of this city. His wife was a trapeze artist and he and four other prisoners fled from the penitentiary farm.

The woman Cavanaugh is alleged to have murdered never lived here. She was a Canadian girl and was married to Cavanaugh after he left this state. The information from Canada concerning him, is the first received since he escaped from the penitentiary.

SELECTS MEMORIAL SITE.

Committee of Randolph County Submits Plans for Building.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) WINCHESTER, Ind., December 7.—The memorial committee appointed by the commissioners of Randolph county to select a site and submit plans for a community memorial building in this city for world war veterans, has taken an option on a lot, 52x115 feet, where the Hirsch homestead now stands, in North Meridian street, also the Hirsch lot, 52x50 feet, across the alley to the west, and the lots on North Meridian street, owned by Harry Mosler and Dr. G. C. Markle. It is planned to erect a building 155 feet square on these lots in the form of a Greek temple of brick and stone, which is to be fireproof. The cost will be approximately $450,000. The first floor is to contain an auditorium which will seat 1,500 persons, a gallery and a large stage, with ample space to accommodate traveling shows. Community rooms for men and women, the administrator's office and checkrooms.

FIRST LADY HOSTESS TO NEXT 'FIRST LADY'

MRS. WILSON ENTERTAINS MRS. HARDING AT TEA.

GUEST SEES WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, December 7.—For the first time within the memory of the oldest of the White House...

After Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Harding had chatted a while, they walked about the White House through the green and red rooms and the state dining room...

Talk Over the Household. Mrs. Harding prepared to depart after spending an hour with her hostess and had progressed as far as the front doorway when Mrs. Wilson suddenly recollecting details of the White House household organization...

On leaving the White House, Mrs. Harding remarked that she had had a very pleasant visit indeed, but she asked to be excused from answering any questions as to her visit. This was her first meeting with Mrs. Wilson and her first visit to the mansion over which she soon is to preside.

Invitation Immediately Accepted. Mrs. Wilson's invitation to have tea at the White House was received by Mrs. Harding in the forenoon and she immediately accepted. After leaving the Capitol and before going to the executive mansion she called on a number of friends.

THE ARMENIAN PROBLEM. In tendering to President Wilson an invitation to settle the difference between the Armenians and the Turkish Nationalists, the league of nations went far in search of influence that might meet the requirement of a neutral attitude toward the tangled affairs of the near east.

Reports from the Associated Press correspondent at Tiflis show that Armenia is now in a state of utter chaos. Half of the country is overrun by Turkish Nationalists, half of the population is wiped out by war and starvation.

The Bolsheviks are reported as seeking an alliance with the Turkish Nationalists while at the same time working among the Armenians to induce them to form a soviet republic.

The authorized representatives of the people are themselves very largely unrepresentative of the people.

boast about the last ditch senators. About all the irreconcilables have revealed in these statements is that they are forced to reach far and desperately for encouragement in their stand.

There is a question as to the right of Argentina to withdraw. The covenant provides that any member of the league may, after two years notice of its intention to do so, withdraw from the league, provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of its withdrawal.

LOBBIES AND PEOPLE. The Congress and the various state legislatures will be besieged—as they have been—by lobbies that are wholly unobjectionable in character in themselves, and unlike the old lobbies, seek no selfish advantage.

There is a principle at stake which is fundamental. With the extension of the functions of the state, people are more and more anxious to control it, not in their own interest, then in the interests of certain classes or individuals in a threat to true representative government.

As to the bearing of the matter on representative government, we have this from the same authority: We have seen representative bodies of various voluntary associations and regular constitutional organs of the state, in order to deliberate on proposed measures and to transmit to the authorized representatives of the people their approval or disapproval of the proposition, and it scarcely caused a comment.

The authorized representatives of the people are themselves very largely unrepresentative of the people. For in days gone by many of them were too considerate of, if not subservient to, the interests and so were not representative at all.

been said about the "senatorial oligarchy." Of course every one knows that to be a bit of highly imaginative and harmless fiction.

THE FARMERS' DEMANDS. There will be general sympathy with the demand of the American Farm Bureau Federation, in session in this city, that "congress give immediate consideration to the necessity of opening foreign markets to the products of American agriculture and industry."

There can be no doubt that on election day Gompers fell far and hard. It is unthinkable that the next administration will pass an Adamson law. No one now believes that the labor vote can be delivered.

Wholly incoherent with this policy is the demand that "an embargo be placed on the importation of such agricultural products as come into destructive competition with American products."

BROADER ACTIVITIES FOR INDIANA FAIR PLAN

CLOSER RELATIONSHIP WITH THE STATE SOUGHT

BOARD COMMITTEE MEETS

Plans for broadening the activities of the state board of agriculture and bringing about a more direct relationship between the management of the Indiana state fair and the state of Indiana were discussed yesterday by a special committee of the state board. The committee held an informal discussion of a number of proposals for more effective work and a closer cooperation with the state government, but without final action for recommendations until the board members have had an opportunity to confer with a committee which has been named by Warren T. McCray, Governor-elect, to suggest improvements along this line.

Present Status.

At present the state can not exercise direct control over the affairs of the board, although substantial state aid in a financial way is given. The committee made final settlement of matters relating to the holding of the state fair last fall. It was decided to invite Mr. McCray and Charles C. Jewett, mayor of Indianapolis, to address the meeting of the state board of agriculture in Indianapolis January 4.

For State Aid.

Proposals for drawing up a bill for introduction at the next legislature for uniform state aid in the payment of premium money at the county fairs were discussed by a committee headed by John Isenbarger, of North Manchester, a member of the state board of agriculture. The bill would grant from $100 to $1,500 to county fairs, based on the value of premiums for live stock, poultry and other agricultural products.

In turn, the county fairs would have to submit to certain regulations, including detailed reports to the state, and all receiving state aid would have to incorporate it in its constitution during the first year of two the state, under the terms of the bill, might be called on to pay to county fairs all the way from $25,000 to $75,000.

MAN WANTED ELSEWHERE.

Frank J. Prince held on fraudulent check charges.

Detectives have received word that Frank J. Prince, giving his address as 200 North Delaware street, who was arrested several days ago on charges of issuing fraudulent checks, is wanted on similar charges in Chicago and New Orleans. He is alleged to have issued checks aggregating $150 in New Orleans and others to the amount of $50 in Chicago. Officials of the Indiana Reformatory, according to a dispatch from Jeffersonville, believe the man under arrest in Indianapolis is the Frank J. Prince who served a term at the Reformatory for passing a check for $100, and later was returned to the institution as a parole violator. He was employed by Dr. D. C. Peyton, then superintendent, after his discharge from the Reformatory, according to the dispatch, but later was discharged. Prince was arrested in Indianapolis by Detective Stone, O'Donnell, Kohn and Fossati as a result of an affidavit filed by H. H. Smith, of the Hotel Lincoln, who alleged that Prince passed a worthless check for $25 at the hotel.

Girl's Condition Improves.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) GREENCASTLE, Ind., December 7.—The condition of Miss Hilda Varney, the DePaul University student, who was shot Saturday night by W. P. Sackett, at Greencastle, was reported somewhat improved today and indications are that she will recover.

BREAK WITH UNION.

Boston Clothing Manufacturers Say Agreements Were Disregarded. BOSTON, December 7.—The Clothing Manufacturers' Association of Boston has voted to break all relations with the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America. Agreements which have governed the employment of 1,500 persons in the clothing industry here were said to have been abrogated by the workers' union.

Encouragement by the union members to deliberate restriction of importation of goods at the time of the strike agreement which expired December 1 and the basic agreement between the association and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers had been "disregarded frequently," by the latter.

These agreements, the latter continued, have proved a decided detriment to the clothing industry in this market and have so increased the costs of production that today members of our association are unable to manufacture clothing at a price acceptable either to retail or to consumer, as a result of which practically all of their shops are now closed.

Union Rejects New Agreement.

NEW YORK, December 7.—Members of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America in Greater New York and Newark, N. J., voted tonight to reject the wage and working agreement submitted by the Clothing Manufacturers' Association. They decided, however, to remain at work.

Persons Reported Missing

E. Halsey, who lives in Mars Hill, has asked the police to assist him in a search for his daughter, Helen Halsey, age fifteen, who has disappeared. The girl has dark hair and brown eyes and was wearing a dark red coat and a black hat when she left.

Albert H. Cohen, of Chicago, has asked the police to assist him in a search for Nicholas Clarence Greenberg, age sixteen, who ran away a few days ago from his home in Chicago. Cohen said he learned the boy had tried to enlist in the navy in Indianapolis Friday.

Mrs. L. E. Smith, of Terre Haute, has asked the police to search for her daughter, Laura Smith, age fifteen, who is missing from her home. The girl was wearing a gray coat, white slippers and black stockings at the time she left.

whatever legislation on the subject goes through at this session. Industry brings out the fact that the sentiment in favor of an embargo is by no means as pronounced in the senate as in the house. Senator Colt, of Rhode Island, chairman of the senate committee on immigration, said today he did not favor shutting the door against all immigrants for any period of time.

Favors Stricter Law.

The Rhode Island senator said he appreciated the necessity for a stricter immigration law, but he thinks it would be a mistake to go as far as the house seems inclined to go. According to Senator Colt, the senate committee on immigration is about equally divided on the question of embargo legislation. The outcome, the Rhode Island senator believes, will be that the senate committee will report a bill imposing additional restrictions, restrictions that will result in reducing the number of aliens coming in.

R. B. HARRISON IMPROVED.

Traction Car Motorman Absolved from Blame by Coroner.

Russell B. Harrison, state senator from Marion county, who was injured Sunday afternoon in the automobile accident in the National road, in which four other men lost their lives, is much improved today, according to physicians at the Methodist hospital. He is suffering from a severe nervous shock and injuries to his head.

Dr. Paul F. Robinson, coroner, has absolved from blame R. E. Denny, of Greencastle, motorman on the Indianapolis car which struck the automobile in which Mr. Harrison and the others were riding. The men who lost their lives in the accident were Nick Clones, proprietor of the Athenaeum, 31 West Maryland street; James Latson, owner of the Victory confectionery, Illinois street; George Paton, owner of the Orpheum café, 217 Indiana avenue, and Harry Hardy, a cook employed by Clones.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS PLAN IS PRESENTED BY PAYNE

INTERIOR SECRETARY EMPHASIZES ALASKAN PROGRAM.

REVIEWS INDIAN SITUATION

WASHINGTON, December 7.—Need of a far-sighted government policy with respect to many of the country's internal affairs is emphasized in the annual report of Secretary Payne, made public at the interior department. Lack of a definite aim was said to affect particularly the administration of activities in Alaska, in dealing with the Indian tribes, in preservation of the national parks and forests and in handling the great reconstruction problems of maintaining a high agricultural production.

On the subject of Alaska, the secretary said the primary problem was transportation and advised the operation of government-owned steamship lines in order to insure development of the territory's resources. Two lines now serve the region, but Mr. Payne indicated their service was unsatisfactory.

The government railroad in Alaska, he said, is a total of 840 miles in length and will be completed and in operation in 1922, Mr. Payne reported. He added that the department had untold mineral wealth and praised the work of the engineers.

Urges a Tonnage Tax.

In connection with Secretary Payne's discussion of Alaskan transportation, Governor Hugg, territorial executive, urged the establishment of a tonnage tax on all shipping to and from the territory and the building up with the money thus raised of "reasonable rates and schedules." He advocated also government appropriations for the construction of a scheme of highways to serve as feeders wagon roads to the government-owned rail lines.

The governor's report says intoxicating liquor is finding its way into Alaska from British Columbia in large quantities and "bootlegging seems to be increasing. The stocks of liquor are exhausted." The governor reported that "distilleries were becoming well known," adding to the menace which he said existed. He urged the provisions of the Volstead act with respect to the use of whisky for medicinal purposes be extended to Alaska, claiming that "many lives could have been saved had whisky been available" during the emergency of the pneumonia and influenza epidemics in the territory.

Touches Internal Problems.

Of internal problems in the United States, Secretary Payne said the difficulty is that people do not like to live alone, but prefer to live in towns and villages and enjoy the conveniences of modern life which are beyond the reach of a scattered population living on large farms. Can this be remedied by the formation of neighborhood associations? Small farms bringing the people nearer together and intensive cultivation of these farms may be the answer.

Secretary Payne advocated passage of the Smoot "rural homes" bill, which he said would give the interior department an opportunity to do much important work in farming development and the restoration of farming population through increased land ownership by those who work the land.

Along with the farm life question, the secretary took up the activities of the reclamation service of his department. The interest in opportunities on the land, he said, has greatly increased with the demobilization of the fighting forces. The department, although handicapped by lack of money, has been assembling "a large amount of valuable information" which will be of use to the country in the future.

The government had spent to June

38 a total of $125,000,000 on reclamation projects, the secretary reported, and approximately 2,150,000 acres of land have been made arable through the reclamation efforts of the government.

Discussing the Indian question, Mr. Payne urged that citizenship be extended to all Indians and said their children should, where possible, be educated with the white children and "encouraged in every way to become part and parcel of our national citizenship."

The policy of issuing fee patents to the Indians for their lands was strenuously opposed by the secretary, who said that to continue "this placing the min a position to sell in my judgment, fraught with the gravest dangers and will inevitably pass on thousands." Mr. Payne believes that until the Indians are educated and have become accustomed through long experience to dealing with the white people they should not be permitted to deal with them on "even terms."

During the last fiscal year, the general land office allowed entry of 15,434,491 acres of Indian and other public land, an increase of approximately 4,500,000 acres over the previous year. More than 11,900,000 acres were patented in the year, an increase of 1,600,000 acres over 1919.

Discussing the national park system, Mr. Payne said a number of projects involving the use of national park lands as storage places had been proposed, but that he had opposed them on the ground that it meant the establishment of a precedent which would eventually lead to the commercialization of the national parks.

Work of the bureau of mines included assistance at twenty-seven mine accidents, seventeen at coal mines and ten at metallic mines. The bureau also trained 10,177 miners in first aid and mine rescue work in the twelve months as compared with 9,781 in the previous year. The bureau continued its investigations of ventilation in metallic mines of the west with a view to eliminating dangers from rock dust and humidity.

FIVE CENTS A RAT IS PRICE SET BY COUNCIL

ORDINANCE IS PASSED PROVIDING A BOUNTY.

CITY CONTROLLER TO PAY

Rats by the hundreds infest many downtown eating houses, corner grocery stores and buildings where quantities of foodstuffs are kept, according to statements made before the city council Monday night, just before it passed an ordinance fixing a bounty of 5 cents for each rat-killed in the city. The rat population in Indianapolis was estimated at more than 250,000 by Dr. Mark Zeigler, of the United States public health service, under whose direction rat-killing week will be observed in the city next week.

"I have heard rumors regarding our downtown restaurants, since this agitation began," said Russell Willson, councilman, "so the other night I decided to investigate. I passed one of the most prominent restaurants, where thousands of persons eat every day, and concerning which I had heard a number of rumors.

"Playing hide-and-seek."

"I was surprised to find a four-foot improvised curtain around the windows, but I finally found a crack and looked in. Down the aisle came two rats. I looked again, and saw a dozen or more playing hide-and-seek over the tables and chairs and counting them." Dr. Herman G. Morgan, secretary of the city board of health, said he too, had investigated certain rumors, and corroborated the reports.

"I saw dozens of rats in the serving room of a certain restaurant," he said. "These same conditions exist in many other restaurants, at corner grocery stores and where there is a quantity of food. However, the downtown district is worst infested."

In Apartments, Too.

Dr. Zeigler said he has found several apartments, erected less than a year ago, infested with rats. He submitted the draft of an ordinance that would provide for ratproofing of new buildings.

Under the ordinance passed, a sum of $1,000 is appropriated, of which $100 is now available, and the city controller is authorized to pay 5 cents for each dead rat, and make the proper provisions for paying the money. It is expected that he will require the tails of dead rats to be submitted as proof before the bounty is collected.

Negro Found in Doctor's Office Gives Information of Gambling.

Charles Carle, colored, who has a poolroom and soft drink place at Indiana avenue and Blackford street, was arrested Monday night on a charge of keeping a gambling house as a result of a story told to Sergeant Dean and Detectives Traub and Speed by Malachi Lock, colored, who was found in a physician's office, arguing from several knife wounds. According to the police, Lock told them he had been injured by another negro in a fight resulting from an argument over a craps game in Carle's place. Lock is held in the detention ward on a charge of gaming.

and affidavits will be issued for others who were in the game, the police said.

Reliable

RELIABILITY, like friendship, doesn't mean very much until it's put to test, until it makes good its claims. R-B has done this to the satisfaction of its many friends.

It is the same today in quality and workmanship as it was in the beginning—its wrapper is still of imported Sumatra; its filler still of full-flavored, long leaf, in Londres shape for smoother draught.

And the R-B system of distribution is just as efficient as ever in keeping every dealer amply supplied with fresh, rightly-seasoned stocks.

R-B Londres still sells for the old price—8 cents—because the square deal policy refused to compromise its sincerity by going higher.

INSURING OF UNEMPLOYED

English Law Affecting 4,000,000 Workers Operates Antagonistically. LONDON, December 7.—Eight million British workers become automatically insured against unemployment under the unemployment insurance act of 1920, which has just come into operation. This new act extends compulsory insurance against unemployment to practically all persons in receipt of remuneration not exceeding £50 a year. After a "waiting period" of three days of unemployment, beneficiaries become entitled to 15 shillings a week for men, 13 shillings for women, 7½ shillings for boys under eighteen and 6 shillings for girls under eighteen. To qualify for benefit, an insured person must not quit his or her job without good cause, and must not have been discharged for misconduct or have gone on strike. There must also be no refusal of a suitable job offered, and should a dispute arise on the question of "suitability" the insured person may appeal to a court of referees. Not more than fifteen weeks' benefit may be drawn in any one insurance year. Employers are free to set up insurance schemes of their own, giving equal or greater advantages. The state rate of contribution to such special schemes of contracts will not exceed 50 per cent. of the amount paid to the general scheme, as it is taken for granted that in industries with insurance systems of their own the rate of unemployment will be lower than in other trades.

URGES ALASKAN PROGRAM.

Territorial Governor Submits Annual Colonial Report. WASHINGTON, December 7.—An appeal for greater co-ordination in the policies of the federal government and for "the greatest possible mood of self-government" runs through a long series of recommendations for governing the territory of Alaska submitted in the annual report of Thomas Biggs, Jr., territorial Governor, made public today. The Alaska Governor urges the definition of some sort of colonial policy as applied to the territory, asserting absence of such a policy has caused capital, supposedly headed for Alaska, to turn to British Columbia. This causes him to remark that "in Canada the founder of a great new industry gets knighted; in Alaska very often indicted." Governor Biggs in dealing with progress made by the territory, submits figures showing the total commerce of Alaska with the United States the last calendar year amounted to $195,585,991, a decrease of $17,850,236 from 1918, due largely to after-effects of the war, to a smaller run of salmon and to lessened copper mining resulting from the slump in the copper market.

Conservation of Energy. [Baltimore American] "Olds ought to be discouraged from kissing one another." "On account of its sentimentality." "No, indeed; on account of its economic waste."

John Burroughs Nature Notes

Can You Answer These Questions?
 1. Are birds that flock brighter than solitary birds?
 2. Are cows and sheep good engineers?
 3. Will a starfish amputate one of its own arms?

Answers to Previous Questions.
 1. Why is the robin such a success? The robin is wonderfully adaptive. If he does not find a tree to his liking, he will nest on the wall, or under your porch, or even on the ground. His colors are not brilliant, but the secret of his success lies in his courage, his force of character, so to speak, and his adaptability.
 2. Can a dog express joy? When John Muir and his dog Sticksen at the imminent peril of their lives, at last got over that terrible crevasse in the Alaska glacier, the dog's demonstrations of joy were very touching. He raced and bounded and out-capers and barked and fawned himself and his master as only a dog can.

 3. How do the shoots from a stump reproduce the parent trunk? Cut down a tree in the forest, and in the spring half a dozen or more shoots start from the stump and replace the parent trunk. They grow vigorously the first and second season, and maybe for several years more. But some of the shoots outstrip their fellows, they get the lead, they get more light more foliage, and this enables them to take up more nourishment from the soil. The others lag, then stop, then die.

Think Drug Traffic in Indiana Is Decreasing

Legal traffic in narcotic drugs in Indiana is decreasing, the state pharmacy board believes. It observes that the number of prescriptions for such drugs is decreasing. In a recent report the board said: "The number of addicts is now almost negligible. This condition has been brought about by constant surveillance and the system of reports required of druggists. With the disappearance of the whiskey drug stores from the state, the business of the balance is of a very high standard. The narcotic evil is in a great measure disappearing, and many druggists have announced their intention of discontinuing the handling of narcotics entirely."

LADIES, Don't Read This! It is for your Husband

Mr. Man, can you think of any more practical and appreciated gift than a new sewing machine, and particularly if the wife is owner of one of the old back-breaking styles?

If you were to do the sewing, frankly, now, wouldn't you want a machine that was light-running?

We will make a special allowance of fifteen dollars for any old machine (regardless of make or condition) on the price of a new machine.

—Christmas eve delivery, and you can pay—

$1 Down

and one, or two dollars each week until Christmas.

—Pettis sewing machines, fifth floor.

At every vital point, the FREE sewing machine has valuable improvements that make it far superior to all other machines:
 The FREE sews faster.
 The FREE runs lighter.
 The FREE lasts longer.
 The FREE is more beautiful.
 The FREE has less vibration.
 The FREE is easier to operate.
 The FREE makes an absolutely perfect stitch.

When not in use for sewing, the Free-Westinghouse is an artistically designed and useful piece of furniture, a writing desk, or serving table, as you prefer.
 The motor, instead of being merely an attachment, is built right into it—thus always in place and never in the way.
 There is no treadle or no pedal to push. The speed is regulated easily, and surely by a slight pressure of the knee, and 75,000 stitches are obtained at a cost of one cent.

real partner and not a mere ornament... Speaker at Bureau Meeting Says Steady Rate Than High Prices Are Essential.

RENTER PROBLEM GROWING This Class Becoming More Numerous and Ownership Is Harder to Obtain.

What the farmer needs is steady prices rather than high prices... Dean Davenport, dean of the College of Agriculture of the University of Illinois, told delegates to the national convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation at the Masonic Temple today.

The farmers' problems are to be worked out by the dirt farmer... "Agriculture is the only industry that is not a monopoly."

Loss Must Be Distributed... Dean Davenport said that American agriculture can stand losses such as those incurred by the recent depreciation in prices of farm products if the losses are equally distributed.

Touching the problem of homes on the farm the speaker said that the renter can never expect to have as good a home as a farm owner.

Local conditions of marketing in most places are about as bad as they can be... The market is being run by a few men on the farm and the farmer must do what he can to get his products into the market as soon as possible.

Resters Becoming More Numerous... Governor W. P. F. Harding, of the federal reserve board, was the principal speaker at the afternoon session.

Federal Reserve and the Farmer... Governor Harding's subject was "Federal Reserve and the Farmer."

Gray Silver, Washington representative of the federation, introduced the Washington Office and the Back Home, and H. C. McKenzie, of Walton, N. Y., chairman of the federation's committee on taxation, made an address on federal taxes.

McKenzie urged farmers to stand squarely against the proposal to repeal the excess profits tax and to insist on a fairer basis for the deficit in the federal revenue.

"Behind the proposal," said Mr. McKenzie, "is the effort of big business to shift the burden of taxation directly upon the consumer."

McKenzie said that the farmer would escape with the payment of nominal tax entirely out of proportion to his income.

Remedies Worse Than Disease... "The repeal of this tax," he said, "involves finding some other source from which an equal amount of revenue can be derived and, so far as my knowledge goes, all the remedies proposed are worse than the disease."

Two Obstacles... "The repeal of this tax," he said, "involves finding some other source from which an equal amount of revenue can be derived and, so far as my knowledge goes, all the remedies proposed are worse than the disease."

Report on Membership... In the treasurer's report, given by J. L. Greenhaw, of Hopkinsville, Ky., such matters as number of meetings during last year, figures of increase of membership, and number of states they qualified or intended to qualify were given in detail.

Unsound, He Says... Discussing the proposed sales tax which would provide generally a turnover tax on all business, including personal services and capital assets, and taxes on merchandise and retail sales, Mr. McKenzie termed the proposition unsound in all its aspects.

The basis of the tax would be gross income and the tax would have to be paid out of the corporation's profit in the business or not in many cases it would be paid out of capital where there is no profit from which to get it.

The program for the evening session consisted of a talk by the Lever agriculture extension act, and address by Willis H. Clayton, of the Guaranty Trust Company, of New York, who is to speak on "Credits Expanding."

A special meeting for the women guests of the convention was held at the Palm Court of the Claypool in the afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, Dr. Ruby Cronin Smith, director of home economics, Miss N. Y. talked on "Problems of the American Rural Home and How to Meet Them," and Miss Florence Ward, of the department of agriculture, delivered an address. The program also provided for a round table discussion on "What the Farm Bureau Do."

"Man's Real Partner... "Woman's Place in Farm Organization" was the subject of an address by Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, of Michigan, before the delegates Monday evening. "As is life, so in politics and in business the woman wants to be man's real partner and not a mere ornament... "Woman's Place in Farm Organization" was the subject of an address by Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, of Michigan, before the delegates Monday evening.

PLANS FOR NEW GYM FOR

The new building will be used principally to lodge members of the club. The ground on which it will be erected, immediately to the north of the present building, is now owned by the club.

Among the contemplated improvements will be the enlargement of the gymnasium, making a large enough so that athletic games and contests may be held before big crowds.

The gymnasium will be forty feet wide and 135 feet long, with a balcony, according to plans, and will be the largest of its kind in the city.

Other contemplated improvements will include at least two basketball courts, a wrestling and boxing and additional room facilities also will be enlarged.

The cost of the new building will be used for dances and other informal affairs.

The improvements suggested are needed by the club, Mr. Uhl said today. The proposal of sleeping rooms has not been generally discussed.

The sleeping rooms will, of course, be a big demand by bachelor members.

While these improvements are regarded necessary to the proper development of the Independent Athletic Club, Mr. Uhl said, they are not something to be made immediately. They are contemplated as a long-range plan.

The high cost of material and construction, however, is not a factor in the final approval when construction costs shall have reached their peak.

The building committee is composed of Joseph R. Morgan, Charles B. Fawcett, George W. Wiedly, Russell E. Sumner, Clarence Sweetser and Roy F. Adams.

Dr. Rumely Says He Had Three Conferences Before Buying Paper.

NEW YORK, December 7.—Festifying today at his trial in Federal court, Dr. Edward A. Rumely charged with concealing alleged German ownership of the New York Evening Mail during part of the war, said that before buying the paper he had three conferences with Dr. Heinrich Albert, German fiscal agent.

Postoffice inspectors for the purchase were made in Dr. Albert's office at the third meeting in May, 1918, he said. The witness also testified that he tried to keep as low as possible the amount to be advanced by Hermann Sleson, American agent for the German fiscal agent over an article in the Evening Mail.

Dr. Albert to control the editorial policy of the Evening Mail, he said. He also testified that he had once had a clash with the German fiscal agent over an article in the Evening Mail.

AIR MAIL SERVICE DELAYED Postal Officials Unaffected Whether or Not Great Lawsuits are Settled.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—Postal officials are uncertain what action they will take on the request of Alfred V. Lawson, contractor for the Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis air mail service for a four-month extension of time.

Lawson is under a $50,000 bond to place the aerial mail fleet in operation by January 12, the maximum time limit. A proviso states, however, that by mutual arrangement this period may be extended.

Postal air mail officials received Lawson's letter yesterday afternoon stating that because he could not get his equipment ready starting of service would be delayed.

Postal officials have already begun an investigation with a view of checking up Lawson's statements. The report will be reached for at least a week.

Wright Corporation Gets Federal Re-training Order in New York.

NEW YORK, December 7.—Federal Judge Julius M. Mayer today granted an injunction, restraining the Wright Corporation, Ltd., from operating its aircraft disposal company, Ltd., in New York.

The injunction was granted after the Wright Corporation had imported into this country 2,365 British airplanes and 34,400 motors. These machines form a part of a lot valued at $500,000,000, turned over to the Aircraft Disposal Company at 1 per cent of their cost for sale here through Handley-Pearce.

The restraining order comes in application of the Wright Aircraft Corporation, which, asserting the surplus British planes were infringements of Wright patents, said that they were permitted to enter the United States by the new industry here would be ruined.

Apropos the Reduced-Price

SALE OF SMART FROCKS

Many choice bargains in smart dresses await the selection of the woman who did not get down to the price reduction sale of ready-to-wear last week. May we not repeat that the garments are all from our own regular stocks—none were "bought especially" for the sale.
They are of the Ayres standard quality in materials, style and workmanship.

And More Recently Reduced Models Have Been Added to the Sale

Deserving honorable mention, we think, are tricotine dresses in navy blue and black, attractively made. They are now only $26.50.

Serge dresses, made in good straight lines, enlivened with colorful embroidery; plain models, up to $33.50.

Several Tricotine Dresses at $39.50

One model in the sale at this price has a tunic front, embroidered with coral beads.

Another is a navy blue tricotine with a narrow black satin vest, beaded in red; very effective.

Higher priced models correspondingly reduced.

CITY COUNCIL REFUSES TO INCREASE SALARIES

REJECTS PLEA TO AID POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN.

BREAK IN PRICES IS CITED

A plea for an increase in salaries for members of the police and fire departments was turned down by the city council Monday night on the ground that rising costs are on the down grade. The council also postponed action until the second Monday night in March on an ordinance introduced providing for a 10 per cent. salary increase for policemen and advances of from 2 to 5 per cent. for officers of the two departments. The present salaries are fixed by an ordinance that expires April 1. The council intimated that it would vote next March to continue the present salaries in effect.

Fred Bonfield, an attorney, presented the ordinance for the policemen and firemen. He said patrolmen and firemen are now receiving $4.97 a day, and were asking for $4.52. Salaries will revert to the old schedule of $4.98 a day on April 1 unless the council takes action, he said. The cost of living, Mr. Bonfield, continued has not yet affected the consumers and members of the two forces, many of whom have large families, "can not make ends meet." He said policemen have to buy two uniforms a year, costing about $42.

Not in Retail Prices.

"The drop in the cost of living may be reflected in wholesale prices, but it certainly is not reflected in retail prices," said Mr. Bonfield.

In the discussion, Mr. Bonfield asserted the members of the two departments had the understanding that the 1921 budget of the board of public safety contains provision for these increases in salaries. George Williams, executive secretary of the board, said the provision was originally included, but was later left out, "because the tax levy wouldn't stand it." Gustav A. Schmidt, president of the council, said he had insisted that the budget should not provide for increases, because "I saw then the downward trend in prices was coming."

"Prices are tending downward," vacated the barn by January 1. As it is, it will be a long time before we will ever have a municipal yard. The city hasn't got the money."

Council Enlightened.

The council failed to take action last night on an ordinance introduced three weeks ago, approving a contract entered into by the board of works for the purchase of two White tractor trucks for the city ash department. The board of works asked quick action on the ordinance, pointing out that the trucks are needed in the ash department, and that if bad weather should come, or one of the trucks now in use should break down, part of the city would have to be neglected for a time. Councilman William B. Peake, chairman of the finance committee, asked further time to consider the ordinance, because the board hasn't enlightened us on why they need the trucks.

"Well, let's knock it off now," said Councilman Carnifex. "Maybe they will tell us why they want the trucks then."

Councilman Russell Willson said the chairman of the finance committee should have investigated. Councilman Jacob P. Brown said the city might suffer unless the trucks were method of rationing gas during gas shortages this winter. Mr. Willson is chairman of the committee considering the ordinance.

An ordinance was introduced increasing salaries of the assistant city engineer, and other engineers and draftsmen of the department, to a minimum standard set by the American Association of Engineers. The total increase for the department would be $5,480 a year.

CUT IN PRICE OF ICE CREAM

South Bend Manufacturers Reduce Cost to $1 a Gallon. (Special to The Indianapolis News) SOUTH BEND, Ind., December 7.—Another reduction in the cost of living was seen here Monday when one of the local manufacturers cut the price of ice cream to $1 a gallon, delivered to the house. In quantities of less than one gallon, the price is 35 cents a quart. Retailers in the business district, however, continue to ask 70 cents a quart. They assert that the $1 price can not last.

LOSS BY FIRE OF $40,000.

Burning Oil Pumps Spread Flames at Walkerton Plant. (Special to The Indianapolis News) SOUTH BEND, Ind., December 7.—Ignition of oil fumes by electric contact when an electric light bulb over an oil tank broke, Monday, caused a loss by fire of $40,000 at Walkerton, St. Joseph county. The property destroyed was owned by the Independent Oil Company, with headquarters at Mishawaka. The warehouse, office and three motor trucks, loaded with oil, and a number of steel casks of oil were destroyed. Heads of casks were blown off and damaged buildings in the neighborhood. An underground tank was also damaged by the explosion of gasoline. Several homes in the vicinity of the plant were saved from the flames by efforts of volunteers.

on conviction of having presented false evidence to the county for the burial of the pauper. He has served about fifteen months of his sentence.

ACCUSED OF RAISING MONEY

Negro Arrested Charged With Passing $10 Bill Made From a $1. Walter Jefferson, colored, giving his address as 418 West North street, was arrested Monday by Motor Policemen Hudson and Landers on charges of passing raised money and post-larceny. He probably will be turned over to the federal authorities for further investigation. Jefferson, it is alleged, gave a $20 bill to Mary Farber, who was a grocery at 1441 North Senate avenue, in payment for a small purchase. He received a $10 bill in the change which was returned to him. He then made another purchase and presented in payment a $10 bill, which the police say had been raised from a $1 bill. The Farber woman discovered the fraud at once and notified the police. Jefferson ran from the store, but was caught a short time later at Senate avenue and Fifteenth street.

The Light Cure

YOU can catch more bugs in light than in darkness. Somewhere in the dark between farmer and consumer somebody is adding a whacking big unearned increase to food and clothing prices. Honest retailers and wholesalers are powerless to prevent it. But—if the searchlight could be turned on these little-understood, in-between transactions, factors like wasted labor, unequal distribution and reckless speculation would stand out in bold relief. To cure these evils, the light method is advocated by the

American Farm Bureau Federation

THE LEADERS of this great national organization are in Indianapolis today. One-fourth of all the farmers in the United States are members of Farm Bureaus represented by delegates here. If all their members could parade down Washington Street, 5000 a day, ten months would be required for the procession to pass Monument Circle.

In only one year of existence the Federation has accomplished wonders, as is shown in detail in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN dated December 4th. But there is yet much to do, for a cowhide will not sell for enough to buy a pair of shoes, and Corn Belt farmers find it cheaper to burn corn than to sell it and buy coal.

Hence the Federation proposes to turn the light on food costs, on supply and demand, on marketing—so that consumer and producer alike may know what happens in the dark.

FOOD speculators and market parasites must be eliminated in the common interest of farmers, legitimate middlemen and city consumers.

The editors and contributors to THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, who travel 300,000 miles a year in their study of farm problems, heartily endorse the Farm Bureau program. The findings of these able men appear from week to week in big feature articles in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, together with powerful editorials, illuminating cartoons, and bully fiction.

More than 700,000 progressive families pay $1.00 the year to get the national farm viewpoint which a subscription to THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN gives them. For city people who do not have the farm outlook we are glad to contribute this advertisement to promote a better and more cordial understanding between farmers and city dwellers.

MUCH OF WORK DONE BY PATIENTS AT INSTITUTION

SOUTHERN HOSPITAL IS INSPECTED BY COMMITTEE.

BIG FARMING OPERATIONS

By Richard T. Enderson, Staff Correspondent of The Indianapolis News.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., December 7.

Large farming operations and wide employment of patients in farm work and in indoor institutional work are outstanding features of the Southern Indiana Hospital for the Insane, which the legislative visiting committee inspected Monday. These features make for a low maintenance cost.

Dr. C. E. Laughlin, the superintendent, believes work contributes to the mental and physical health of the patients, as well as to economic welfare of the institution. He is an advocate of occupational therapy. Formerly every employe of the laundry was a patient, and now all but two of the laundry workers are patients. Men operate the mechanical washers, rotary driers and the mangles, while women iron the pieces not suitable for mangle treatment.

Most of the farm and garden work is done by patients. Of course, there are many in the institution incapable of such duties, yet more than half the population of about 250 do something designed by the institution to benefit them and incidentally to assist the state in their maintenance. All the bread is baked by two or three men patients, and men and women patients assist in the kitchen, although they do not do the cooking or have any control of the electric ranges. In the power house, patients have nothing to do with the machinery, but they assist in handling coal.

Hogs and Cattle.
The institution has 450 head of hogs and 100 head of cattle. Most of the time men patients do much of the feeding and assist in the butchering. Hogs are butchered every week, and it is rare that any pork must be bought. This year about one-fourth of the beef consumed was butchered from the institution herd and last year about one-third.

Cattle are kept primarily for milk. A herd of thirty-seven Holsteins was bought in 1913 for $5,500. At that time milk could be bought for 10 cents a gallon. The first year the value of the milk yielded was almost equal to the original cost of the cows, figuring milk at 10 cents a gallon.

The hospital was opened thirty years ago. Then the tract included 180 acres. Last year 555 additional acres were added, half of it cleared. Dr. Laughlin says the clearing of the land will afford wholesome employment for able patients in mild winter weather.

Grounds Are Attractive.
The visiting committee visited the hospital Monday. Many men patients were raking and hauling leaves from the spacious grove lawn on the slope below the institution buildings. The grounds are attractive, particularly in the summer, and strange as it may seem, there is beauty even in the hog lot. Little cement ponds, which provide water for the hogs and a place for them to wallow, have trellis covers of Dorothy Perkins roses and clematis.

The buildings for the sick patients are three stories. They are less modern than the buildings of the Southern Hospital for the Insane at Madison but more modern than those of the Central Hospital at Indianapolis. Their capacity is 370. The average population for the fiscal year 1919-1920 was 290. The total cost of maintenance in that year was $177,954. The board of trustees has not yet met to decide what specific requests will be made for the two-year period beginning October, 1921, for which the next legislature will appropriate. An appropriation of $15,000 was made by the special session of the legislature this year to piece out the period ending September 30, 1920, but the institution drew nothing from the Governor's contingent fund.

More Women Than Men.
Women patients outnumber the men about forty. There are eighty-eight epileptics, most of them women. The Indiana Village for Epileptics has not yet provided for women. The visiting committee watched with deep interest the men and women filling into their separate dining rooms. They sat at the back of their chairs until a bell sounded, and then they sat down in unison. Meat, krait potatoes, bread and butter were served at this particular meal, and each patient received an apple.

After inspecting the hospital, the legislative committee consisting of Senator Fettes, Duncan and Representatives Otto G. Fifield and David Murray, went to Lincoln City, thirty-five miles northeast of Evansville, to visit the Nancy Hanks Lincoln Memorial park.

GRAVE OF LINCOLN'S MOTHER.
Committee Finds Property Well Cared for, but Money Needed.
[From a Staff Correspondent] LINCOLN CITY, Ind., December 7.—The legislative visiting committee, which visited the Nancy Hanks Lincoln grave and memorial park Monday afternoon, found the property in good condition. Every year an increasing number of persons visit the grave of Abraham Lincoln's mother, who is buried in a grove on the top of a hill near the center of the six-acre park, a quarter of a mile south of the town.

Visitors come from all parts of the United States and sometimes from foreign lands to pay homage to this woman. Until two years ago, a register for visitors was kept, but scanty appropriation was depleted and there is no register now, although many persons leave their cards in the register box.

No Large Sum Needed.
The financial needs of the park are not great. The maintenance appropriation is usually $4,200 a year. Out of that the $60 a month salary of Noah Spurlock, the custodian, is paid. Sometimes a specific appropriation is made by the legislature for a special improvement. A short driveway from the township road up the hill to the grave is paved with crushed rock, and the borders are beautified with shrubs, trees and flowers. An iron gateway opens into the driveway.

Land that lies between the public road below and the iron fence bordering the north side of the park is privately owned. This property is not well cared for and detritus greatly from the beauty of the park. The suggestion was made to the committee by Andrew J. Rhodes, secretary of the memorial park board, and by Mr. Spurlock, custodian, that the state should buy it, and members of the committee talked favorably of the suggestion. About five acres are involved.

Good Public Road Needed.
The township road, from which the park driveway leads, is not improved, and it was the opinion of the committee that local pride in the park should assert itself by providing a good public road.

The hill making up most of the park is wooded with oak, hickory, walnut, mulberry and persimmon trees. Gray squirrels, almost as tame as kittens, ran down the trees and approached members of the committee. There are more than 100 of them in the grove. Custodian Spurlock feeds them nuts and grain, and places nesting boxes in the trees, for the trees do not afford enough natural nesting places for so many. Fox squirrels were put in the park some time ago, but the gray squirrels drove them out. A pair of deer are to be placed in the park soon.

Members of the committee, standing by the grave of Nancy Hanks Lincoln, read with much interest the inscriptions on the monuments. In 1879 a monument of marble was erected. The inscription reads: "Erected by a Friend of Her Martyred Son." This monument and the grave are surrounded by an iron fence, just outside the fence and near the old monument is the granite monument provided by the state. The inscription reads: "Nancy Hanks Lincoln, Mother of Abraham Lincoln, Died October 5, 1812, Age Thirty-five Years." Spencer County Memorial.

Try this way of Popping Corn

POPPING corn is lots of fun. Everybody likes to hear the cheery explosion of the kernels in the popper or kettle. Mingled with the enjoyment is the keen anticipation of the crisp, delicious, flaky, marshmallow-like Tip Top Pop Corn that will soon be served.

Use a kettle with a cover. Melt a sufficient quantity of butter, or half butter, half lard, in the bottom of the kettle to flavor the amount of corn you want to pop. Pour just enough Tip Top Pop Corn to cover the bottom of the kettle into the melted butter and stir until you hear it pop. Then put the cover on the kettle and you will know that the corn is all popped when the miniature bombardment ceases.

Salt to suit your taste. You will find that the butter has covered every kernel in such a manner as to make the finished corn simply delicious.

LEAGUE'S FRIENDS WORK FOR A UNITED PROGRAM

EXCHANGE IDEAS ON SUBJECT'S PRESENTATION TO HARDING.

VISIT MARION NEXT WEEK

The Indianapolis News Bureau, 33 West Building, December 7.—Those influential Republicans who believe the United States should go into the existing league of nations after proper amendments shall have been made now are engaged in exchanging views by mail as to how they shall present the matter to President-elect Harding when they go to see him at his home at Marion, next week. There is a desire on the part of these friends of the league to get behind one plan and urge its adoption by the President-elect.

It was said today by persons who are participating in the exchange of views that the probability is that the Taft suggestion will be that soon after March 4 a commission be sent to confer with the league committee on amendments. Herbert Hoover, who is to go to Marion next week, is understood to look with favor on the Taft suggestion, and it was said today that Hoover also is inclined to believe there is no better way to handle the matter.

The commission suggestion, however, has not been favorably received by senators. The irascible are against it. Apparently there is the feeling among senators that the solution must be found by the senate. Senators evidently have no grievance against former President Taft, but they are not disposed to accept any outside suggestion.

FOUR PERSONS ARRESTED.

Woman and Three Men Held by Police Under Molestation Charge.

A woman and three men, who gave their names as Florence Austin, E. D. Greery, E. J. Eldridge and John Huron, and their addresses as Buffalo, N. Y., were arrested Monday night, when sergeant Dean and Patrolman Wilkerson found them in a house at 722 North West street. All are held under high bond pending further investigation.

The woman and Greery are held on statutory charges, and the other two are charged with vagrancy. The police said they found a new automobile, bearing a New York license plate, in the rear of the North West street address. The machine's tools were found in the men's possession.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

AT THE THEATERS TODAY.

English—William Rock's Revue. At 8:15. Murt—Not So Long Ago. At 8:15. B. F. Keith—Vaudeville. At 8:15 and 8:35. Lyric—Vaudeville. Continuous.

Elaborate, Low-Brow and Funny.

William Rock's Revue of 1920, which brought joy to the usual large and discriminating theaterful at English Monday night, is of that class of entertainment wherein scenery, girls and jazz take the place of plot, sentiment and music. In its division it takes the grand prize, the blue ribbon and the gold medal. Senseless, rhytmical, all of it, as subtle as a beer keg and about as refined, it has a world of talent, pretty girls and stage pictures, liveliness, and an irritating, ignorant air that distinguishes it from the laughs that laugh steadily rolling.

Bill Van, an engaging clown as the stage sees, is greatly responsible for the air of innocence with which the comedy goes over. He is in practically every scene and never fails to be amusing. In "The Rainbow Girl," he had a scene with two deaf old ladies that was one of the comedy gems of the year. In this piece he has half a dozen scenes as funny. The present piece, in fact, for those who are amused by skilful burlesque has more midriff laughs than any of the season—for almost all of which Mr. Van is to be accountable.

A pair of blackface comedians, Avey and O'Neill, however, are not to be overlooked as providers of comedy. They have a vastly diverting act, combining dancing of a sort and capital blackface comedy. James J. Corbett makes amusing use of his big shoulders as a character in a domestic drama wherein Van and Rock are the two points of the triangle, but is else-where mostly a feeder for Van's comedy and a very good one. This domestic drama is a triumph in low, "put" comedy, as a provider of a regular actor in a number of character parts, does a bit of dancing and an entertaining character song as a British Tommy.

There is no sense to it, but it is a good contrast to it in manner and method, are Irene and Berenice Hart, who left school in Indianapolis a few months ago to "go on the stage" and get there quickly, both are fresh and young, good to look at and to hear, and with a charm that gets over the footlights beautifully. The first of some soft-voiced singing after the manner of the Smith sisters of the White Garden fame, and do it better. The applause they got last night was not altogether, by a great deal, a tribute to an Indianapolis audience to two daughters of Indianapolis. It was a recognition of pronounced charm and talent.

Marion Sunshine is a bright, bubbling leading lady, pretty and something of an actress and comedian her job requires, as in the triangle drama with Van and O'Neill. Ernestine an oriental dance. Those who were disappointed with "Anphrotis" may find recompense here. She dances well. The girls in the piece are chosen with a connoisseur's eye. There is no sense to it, but it is

A Refreshing Romantic Comedy at the Murt.

"Not So Long Ago," a comedy based on a love incident of the seventies, is the attraction at the Murt theater, having begun a week's engagement Monday night with the Shriners as first-nighters. Arthur Richman is the author of the play and he has brought to the stage a theatrical sweetness that will be decidedly palatable to those who are weary of jazz and vaudeville and nudity.

For Le Gallienne, daughter of Richard Le Gallienne, the poet, plays the leading feminine role with a sweetness that makes her one of the season's to-be-remembered players. Opposite is her co-star, Sidney Blackmer, a young actor of ability. The supporting company fits into the story with a nicety that shows care in selection.

Miss Le Gallienne has the role of Elsie, the romantic, young daughter of Michael Dover, a struggling inventor who lays claim to having invented the old high-wheel bicycle. From their humble home goes Elsie in the role of seamstress to a Mrs. Ballard, a newly rich social climber who has a son, Billy, and a fifty-brained daughter, Ursula. Elsie, the seamstress, is a devourer of sentimental novels. She has the quaint habit of seeking to find her book hero in real life, and she lands on Billy, the son of her employer. To her girls' friends in the home neighborhood she recites wild tales of romantic journeys with Billy, all of which excites the jealousy of her lover, Sam Robinson, a garrulous young drummer. With this love situation as a basis all kinds of troubles break loose for the romantic and dreamy Elsie. Social satire and money play important parts in trying to wreck Elsie's love ambitions, but she triumphs in the end—the audience would say, home unhappily if she didn't. "Not So Long Ago" has been staged with fine understanding of the styles and customs of the period. The first person to appear on the stage is a playwright. These come Sam Robinson on his high-wheeled bicycle. The containing is accurately that of the seventies and the home furnishings are equally exact in period.

Supporting Miss Le Gallienne and Mr. Blackmer are several good players, including Alice Bramley Wilson, George Henry Traylor, Thomas Mitchell, Margaret Mosler, Lattia Miller, Betty Lanley, Louise Trudwell, Mary Kennedy and R. N. Lewis.

The Shriners filled the house last night, and their guests have not been one of those social evenings that make "Shriners Night" a feature of the Murt's season. They had vaudeville and other features between acts. After the play they danced in the ballroom.

affairs that broke out in the slums and ended in Fifth avenue. The piece is entitled "Scarlet" a name derived from the flashy costume of the heroine. Miss Suratt has an Ethel Barrymore manner of voice and motion and scores a hit when, at last, love sees its shock absorbers to ride over the rough road of Vice. In Miss Suratt's company are five capable actors, John McFarlane, Jack Hayden, Grant Sherman, Charles Norman and Lorraine Landers.

Herschel Henders, the comedy pianist, scores the real bit of the bill. He literally stopped the show yesterday and had to make a curtain speech to halt the applause. Here, with a woman assistant whom he styles Madam Skiddikadink, stages a musical tura that might well be termed a musical romp. For instance, he takes the war song of the eighteenth amendment. "How Dry I Am," and camouflages it with familiar bits from the old masters until it becomes a wonderful melody. Henders is a real addition to vaudeville.

Raymond Wilbert starts the week's bill with a capital juggling act. Then follows James Carney and Della Rose in a happy little sentiment comedy, "Lost a Husband." They sing and dance to the delight of everybody. Third on the bill is Harriett Lorraine, styled Madam De Hullub, who, with Barney Crawford, stages a travesty on the vamp craze. It is amusing. Swift and Kelly stage the bill with a laughable lot of songs and patter. Their patter has a freshness that makes them one of the hits of the bill. Fred and Daisy Rial close the program with a novel turn on the stage.

Pictures and news paragraphs have their usual place.

Elaborate Oriental Setting at Lyric.

The feature of the week's bill at the Lyric is the Al Golem troupe, a novel attraction with an elaborate oriental setting. The act is a portrayal of the pastimes of the ancients, hand balancing, juggling and clever dancing of a different nature are included.

The Rag-O-Marinba band is another good act on the program. As the name implies, this band is comprised of five experts on the marimba with selections of jazz and classical music. Other acts on the bill are the Four Mountaineers, a comedy and singing quartet; Bert and Betty Ross with a checkroom scene, introducing several new song hits and bits of clever comedy; Bobby and Earle, with some good songs and chatter; Howland, Erwin and Howland, three girls who sing pleasantly; Lorraine and Her- man, singing funmakers, and the Raitos, acrobatic and juggling entertainers.

A Gray and a Fox comedy and the Pathé Review are the prologues to the main attraction.

WHAT MADE YOU SO LATE, MUTT? I'M ON MY THIRD CUP OF COFFEE!

I JUST HEARD SOME BAD NEWS ABOUT THE NEW BATTLESHIP THAT WAS LAUNCHED LAST WEEK!

THAT SO? WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH HER?

SHE WENT OUT ON A TRIAL TRIP, AND THEY JUST GOT A WIRELESS AN HOUR AGO SAYING SHE'S FAST IN THE MUD.

WHY, I CALLS THAT GOOD NEWS!

WHAT DYE MEAN, GOOD NEWS?

WELL, IF SHE'S FAST IN THE MUD SHE OUGHT TO BE A RECORD BREAKER IN REGULAR WATER!

COMMISSIONER WILLIAMS TO OUTLINE FEDERAL PROGRAM. PLANS PROHIBITION RULING

WASHINGTON, December 7.—A statement of the government's policy regarding the sale of liquors on American vessels will be made soon by Commissioner Williams, of the federal revenue bureau. The statement will result, it is understood, from an opinion of Solicitor General Garrison holding that the sale of liquors on American vessels is prohibited by the prohibition amendment...

Revenue officers said enforcement of such an order would be difficult but they were of the opinion that masters of vessels could be held responsible for any law violation on their ships. American consuls in foreign ports would report violations of the prohibition law to the revenue officers in their ports. It was said, and prosecutions would follow the return of the vessel to the United States.

CO-OPERATION PLAN BEFORE ASSEMBLY

Continued from Page One. ing to the welfare of children in Europe also were discussed today. Announcement was made today that Hon. J. P. Cullen, head of the American delegation, which has withdrawn from the assembly, would leave Geneva tonight. It was said at the American headquarters that the rest of the delegation would depart tomorrow.

Canadian Makes Explanation. Delegates Rowell, of Canada, who made the report, pointed out that the elimination did not change the present situation. The report, being merely interpretative, could not change the relations between the council and the assembly which have been marked, but was merely explanatory of the provisions of the covenant.

URGES AMERICA TO JOIN THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

FEDERAL CHURCH MESSAGE SENT HARDING AND SENATE.

CALLS FOR UNITED ACTION

BOSTON, December 7.—A message to President-elect Harding and to the United States senate, expressing the "profound interest of the churches in the moral and religious principles underlying the league of nations and expressing the earnest hope that some acceptable way may be found for our participation in such a league" was authorized in resolutions adopted by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, last night, at the closing session of its fourth quadrennial meeting.

The council also voted to recommend that the United States should do all in its power "toward allaying national suspicion and promoting world peace." The resolution asked the federal government to "set an example" in disarmament "and to cooperate fully with the governments of the world for the achievement of general disarmament."

A resolution deploring reported "crusades and unwarranted attacks" on the Jews was passed. The council voted to extend to them "an expression of confidence in their patriotism and good citizenship."

In a message to the churches of America, the council said that in the midst of world-wide unrest and uncertainly it was facing the future confidently and hopefully.

"Wherever we look in our own country and in foreign lands," the message said, "we find tasks which challenge and opportunities which inspire. The time calls for resolute and united advance. There is a message of faith and hope and brotherhood to be brought to a despondent and disheartened world."

A banquet at the Boston City Club tended the delegates by the denominational social clubs of Boston preceded the night session. The Rev. Alexander Ramsey, of London, one of the British representatives to the Pilgrim tercentenary celebrations in America, and Dr. Henry Van Dyke, former minister to The Netherlands, were the speakers.

Mr. Ramsay emphasized the need for co-operation between his nation and the United States, asserting that "upon the good will, friendship and mutual understanding of the English speaking peoples depends the future well being of the world in these critical days."

Dr. Van Dyke told the delegates the Pilgrim fathers "would think some of the tercentenary celebrations dry indeed, in view of their complaint when the captain of the Mayflower cut off their beer."

RUMELY GIVES REASONS FOR BUYING N. Y. MAIL

DEFENDANT IN FEDERAL TRIAL ON WITNESS STAND.

TELLS OF NEGOTIATIONS

NEW YORK, December 7.—Dr. Edward A. Rumely, charged with consulting from the alien property custodian knowledge of the alleged German ownership of the New York Evening Mail during part of the war, yesterday testified at his trial in federal court that he had bought the newspaper for three reasons. These, he said, were to promote the Progressive party, to present Germany's side of the war and to support business men in opposing the British blockade.

Dr. Rumely told of negotiations he had in 1914 with Dr. Heinrich Albert, the Kaiser's fiscal agent here.

The witness related how he sold the German government gasoline tractors to be used for farm work to release men and horses for service against the British, French, Belgians and Russians. He also recounted communications he had with the Standard Oil Company which, he said, wished him to persuade his customers to establish fuel supply stations in vicinities where the Rumely tractors were used.

Wrote German Professor.

To this end, he said, he wrote Prof. Von Schultz Carver, then a member of the Reichstag, asking him to adopt a more liberal attitude toward the oil company.

Dr. Rumely said 1,000,000 persons in New York city desired to see the German side of the war "fairly presented," adding that newspaper reports of the conflict indicated untruthfully that the allies were annihilating the German forces.

Dr. McClure first started negotiations for the Evening Mail. Dr. Rumely testified, and later William Coverdale, a New York business man, went to Henry Stoddard, one of the paper's owners, to discuss the purchase for Dr. Rumely. Coverdale reported, the witness testified, that the paper could be bought for $1,200,000. Negotiations were continued, but Mr. Stoddard could not be persuaded to take stock in the paper as part payment. Rumely asserted. Previously to the purchase of the Evening Mail, Dr. Rumely said, he and Mr. McClure had considered the purchase of the old New York Press, owned by Frank Mumber.

Mentions Cotton Export.

Regarding plans to export cotton to Germany, Dr. Rumely said he wrote to southern cotton growers pointing out the opportunities offered by the German market in the hope that production would be increased, thereby augmenting the demand for tractors in which he was interested.

Dr. Rumely reiterated no money of the imperial German government was put into the newspaper. He told of his plan to form a $3,000,000 corporation with S. & McClure to publish the paper and operate with it a nation-wide news service.

When asked whether he was considered he could sell $3,000,000 in shares, Dr. Rumely said "yes," adding he had sold $45,000,000 worth of stock before he became interested in the publication. He added he intended to sell Evening Mail shares to three groups—Americans of German ancestry, American business men interested in trading with the central powers and his personal friends. Of the business interested in German trade, Dr. Rumely said he had in mind the Standard Oil Company, and of his personal acquaintances, he mentioned John D. Larkin, of the Larkin Soap Company, Buffalo.

TWO BABES ARE BURNED TO DEATH IN FARM FIRE

MOTHER LOOKS ON, HELPLESS TO RESCUE CHILDREN.

LITTLE GIRL WAS INVALID

[Special to The Indianapolis News] MT. VERNON, Ind., December 7.—While a score of persons looked on, helpless to aid, two children, Laura Elizabeth Elliott, age two, and Robert Charles Elliott, seventeen months, children of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Elliott, perished in flames Monday that destroyed the Elliott home in Point Township, seven miles from Mt. Vernon. It is thought an exploding lamp started the fire. The father was a mile from home, and the mother was milking in the barn, some distance from the house, when the house caught on fire.

The little girl was an invalid and was in her chair playing with her doll when the mother left the house. The boy was toddling about on the floor. The mother had been in the barn about five minutes when she glanced toward the house and saw it on fire. She ran to the dwelling and opened the door when a gust of flames drove her back, burning her hair from her head. The interior of the house was a raging furnace and the mother, with neighbors who had gathered, stood helpless.

Not until the home was in ashes were the bodies taken from the ruins. The father saw the flames a mile distant and started for his home, where he was met by neighbors, who informed him that his house and babies were burned.

The origin of the fire has not been determined. The mother, while not seriously injured from burns, is in a hysterical state.

BABY DIES OF BURNS.

Little Girl in South Bend Falls Lamp Off Table.

[Special to The Indianapolis News] SOUTH BEND, Ind., December 7.—Georgia Hakes, age two, daughter of Arthur Hakes, living near Mishawaka, pulled a lamp off a table Sunday night and was burned so badly that she died Monday, after eleven hours of suffering.

Sure Enough.

Give her a HOOVER

Probably she has wanted a Hoover for a long time. Why not make this holiday season long-remembered as "The Hoover Christmas?"

The Hoover electric suction sweeper is built to last and it is the only sweeper that beats, as it sweeps, as it cleans, and so prolongs rug life.

Your reward will be gratitude, rather than mere thanks, and the knowledge that you have lessened her household drudgery.

OUR DECEMBER SALE OF SILKS

With its 30% to 50% reductions on everything

Is a great service to the city and its surroundings. It has passed beyond the plane of a "sale" as the word generally means—it is an incomparable event—rich in its economies, notable in its advantages. It brings the most desirable silks produced—the fine and beautiful, those in the height of fashion—in the peak of demand, at prices that create new standards in values.

That women recognize the suitability and the sureness of appreciation of silks for Christmas is attested by the remarkable selling.

Skinner's satin is the only silk at regular price. The quotations in the heading, "30% to 50% reduction," are based on earlier prices.

BODY IN BURNED HOUSE

MAY BE WM. FRAZIER'S

HAS NOT BEEN SEEN SINCE HOME WAS BURNED.

SEX NOT YET DETERMINED

(Special to The Indianapolis News)

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., December 7.—B. W. Rhamy, Ft. Wayne physician and histologist, to whom were sent parts of the body found in the ruins of a dwelling which burned last Friday on the Merritt Chapman farm east of this city, reported today to E. D. Shadday, Blackford county coroner, that it would be five days before he could determine the sex of the specimen.

In the meantime, the authorities are continuing their investigation of the mystery. Coroner Shadday now believes that the body found is that of William Frazier, who formerly lived in the house. Frazier was known to have been in this part of the state last week, but has not been seen since the fire.

The authorities have learned that Frazier spent last Wednesday in Muncie in company with a woman whose name the authorities decline to make public. A letter, written Thursday by this woman and sent to Alexandria, addressed to Frazier, has been turned over to the coroner by the marshal at Alexandria. The letter arrived after Frazier left Alexandria. The authorities say, however, that this woman probably will not be summoned in the inquiry because they do not believe she could give evidence of value. The letter contained nothing of importance, it was said.

The question of whether Frazier might have been murdered and his body placed in the house before the fire has been raised and investigated from that viewpoint, the coroner said. Nothing to indicate that such was the case, however, has been found.

HEART AND SOUL WITH 'EM

Socialist National Committee Indorses Russian Soviet.

CHICAGO, December 7.—Resolutions adopted last night by the Socialist party's national committee asserted that the party is "heart and soul with the Russian revolution and the Russian soviet government and in favor of affiliating with the Third International at Moscow. The resolutions pointed out, however, that the party has not accepted the terms made by the Third International when it asked the Socialist party to affiliate.

A subcommittee of three presented the resolutions after hearing arguments for and against the plan for several days.

Mrs. Bertha Mally, New York, a member of the resolutions committee, introduced a resolution denouncing the policy of Lloyd George in Ireland, and it was passed.

PREVENT HAYWOOD SPEECH

Youngstown (O.) Police Break Up Two Meetings for "Big Bill."

YOUNGSTOWN, O., December 7.—Police here last night refused to permit William D. (Big Bill) Haywood, I. W. O. leader, to speak at a meeting at armory hall and later broke up an adjourned meeting in an overflow ball when another attempt was made to have him address an audience.

The meeting at which Haywood was to have spoken was widely advertised in the city. It was held at the Watkins, chief of police, refused to issue a permit, before leaving the city. Haywood said he would return later and speak in spite of the police.

Million for Forestry Work.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—An appropriation of $1,000,000 to be used in co-operation with the states in forestry work during the next fiscal year was asked of the congress today by the department of agriculture. Secretary Meredith also asked for legislation which would authorize him to recommend the essential and standard requirements to protect timbered and cut over lands from fire, in reforestation, denuded lands, and where necessary, to aid in the proper methods of cutting and removing timber for the best promotion of continuous production.

Two Alleged Fugitives Held.

Arthur Collins, who gave his address as Arcadia, was arrested Monday by Detectives Giles and Erick, and is held in the City Prison on a charge of being a fugitive from justice. The detectives say Collins is wanted in Elwood for the alleged theft of an automobile. Elvie Boyd, who gave his address as the Lorraine hotel, was arrested on a fugitive charge by Detectives Dugan and Stewart. He is said to be wanted in Akron, O., on a charge of child neglect.

Intervening Petitions.

Five alleged creditors of Samuel G. Bullup, colored, known to the police as the "Black Pool," have filed intervening petitions in superior court. Room 5 in the suit for a receiver for Bullup's assets. The petitioners are seeking to receive a part of the money due them from Bullup in the distribution of his assets. The petitioners are Nelson T. Welby, James W. Bailey, Edna Bailey, Mrs. Lummie Tode and Oscar L. Balleger. It is said Bullup obtained large sums of money from colored people in the city through a fake "get rich quick" scheme.

Little Stories of Daily Life

Looking Also.

Now the principal of this school is sarcastic as well as intelligent, and whenever she happens to mention a subject and finds that her teachers are ignorant on the subject she "bawls them out" for their ignorance. Especially is this resented by the newest recruit at the building.

Recently the principal acquired "a man" who was a widower. She is proud of the acquisition, mentioning him often in all her conversations.

The other morning she began to ask the teachers about an article she had just read in the paper. Now none of them had read it. Sarcastically she asked, "Well, don't any of you read the paper?"

The newest recruit smiled sweetly and wisely. "Of course," she returned, "but not everything in them. We just have time to read the society page and then the death and funeral list so that we shall know who the new widowers are."

Tells Joke on Herself.

The other morning when Mrs. B's new neighbor accompanied her husband to the door as he was about to start on his way to his work, she lovingly called out to him, "Good-by, Sweetheart." Soon after Mrs. B and their little daughter went to the door with Mr. B. He kissed the little one and said good-by to Mrs. B. She, not wishing to be outdone by her happy neighbor, called to Mr. B as he was half way down the walk, "Good-by, dear." Mr. B turned around so quickly to look back at his wife that he stumbled and with difficulty kept on his feet. "I saw him shaking with suppressed laughter as he went down the street," said the indignant Mrs. B.

Home the Place to Teach

Morality, Judge Lahr Says

The home, not the juvenile court, is the place for boys and girls to learn lessons in morality, Judge Frank J. Lahr said in the juvenile court Monday afternoon in discussing the case of a man charged with contributing to the delinquency of a young high school girl.

"I have been surprised at the number of cases such as this coming into court," Judge Lahr said. "Parents must realize that the high school teachers, the police and the juvenile court can not train their children to avoid the low class, suggestive motion picture screen, and to talk over with their companions just such compromising scenes as are presented in this case. With all our improved police force, our improved court system and our improved school system, we can accomplish little if the parents do not step in and take the first step in teaching their children to be better children."
