VA. STATE LOOM AS CHAMPIONS

(By SHERMAN A. HARMON) HAMPTON INST., Va., March 4.—The fast Virginia State Trojan quintet turned the tide on the Pirates in the Hampton gymnasium Saturday, to boost their championship stock to a higher level and to hand the Hampton team its first defeat on the home court this season. Filled with thrills and excitement, the game was at no time clinched by their team as both held the lead at intervals throughout the game. The capacity crowd that lined the sidelines were kept in an uproar throughout the last half and when Hampton went in to the lead for a brief period in the closing minutes the Pirates became frantic and desperate. A last-minute rally was sufficient to put the Trojans in the lead with the Pirates fighting in vain to score the two necessary goals to tie the score.

J. HERBERT BREAKS WORLD RECORD IN N. Y. C.

NEW YORK, March 4 (ANP)—Four sepias stars, Jimmy Herbert of New York U., Ben Johnson of Columbia, Ed Gordon and Lloyd Thompson of Xavier U., either ran or jumped away with national titles in the National A. A. U. track and field championships Saturday night before 15,000 spectators at Madison Square Garden.

Herbert, pushed by one of the fastest fields ever assembled, made ten victories out of eleven races by winning the 600-meter run in 1:20.3 to set a new world record in this event. He won by two yards over Charley Bettham, white, former Ohio State star.

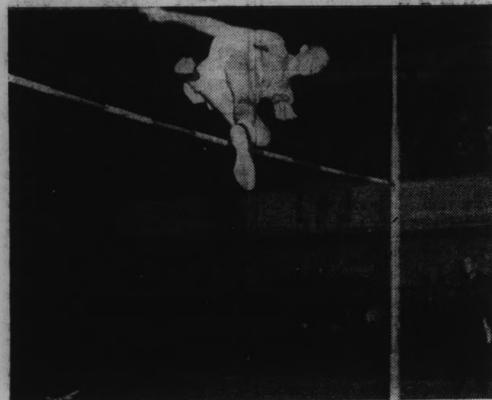

Ben Johnson equaled the world's indoor 60-meter record held jointly by himself and Jesse Owens, and retained his title won last year. The time was 6.6 seconds. Herbert Thompson, of the Pioneer club, down Harlem way, was second.

Ed Gordon, former Iowa U. broad jump star and 1932 Olympic champion, finally staged a comeback to win his specialty at 23 feet 4 inches.

Lloyd Thompson, finest competitive high jumper yet developed in a colored college, beat such stars as Cornelius Johnson and Melvin Walker, Olympic and world champions, respectively, to win the title. Thompson leaped 6 feet 7 1/2 inches, with Johnson and Walker second and fourth at 6 feet 6 inches. Thompson is coached by Ralph Metcalfe, former Marquette ace, who has also fashioned Enos Hicks into one of the nation's best sprinters.

'SONNY BOY' HAS 'EM FAINTING BEFORE 'KAYOED

CHICAGO, March 4. (ANP)—Homicide Henry Armstrong, who couldn't get $5 for preliminary fights here three years ago, took away $5,000 for bludgeoning Everett Rightmire to a technical kayo in three rounds before 8,042 spectators in the International Amphitheatre, Friday night. It was the featherweight champ's first appearance here since becoming a headliner.

Rightmire, Sioux City white veteran, who is Illinois State featherweight champion, fainted in his room before the bout. It was blamed on the heat in the badly ventilated room, plus "nervous excitement" which some cynical sports fan gave the name of "plain fright". However, he was revived and the Illinois Boxing Commission physician examined him thoughtfully and had him shadow-box for ten minutes. He was then pronounced as fit as ever for the actual.

In scoring his 33rd knockout in his last 34 fights, little Henry started slow the first round, but won the frame, then turned on the heat just before the bell, ending the second with a right to the body and a left to the chin. As the third began, Henry launched lightning rights and lefts that bewildered Rightmire, and down he went for a nine count. As soon as he got up, Armstrong planted another right on his chin, and Everett sprawled on the canvas for nine seconds more. On arising, he was greeted with a third right that all but lifted Rightmire into the air. He came down on his back, and when the count again reached nine, his seconds tossed the towel into the ring.

Armstrong weighed 132 1/4 to 130 for the loser.

WEST VA. WINS MID-WEST TILT

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 4.—Led by slinky Benny Taylor, flashy "Freak" Wilson, and two clever half-handlers in Smith and Brown, the Yellow Jackets of West Virginia State College won the Mid-Western Tournament Championship by smashing their way to a clean-cut 36 to 29 win over the Kentucky State College Thorobreds. Opening the tournament with a surprisingly easy victory over favored Lincoln, the West Virginians stood in class throughout the tournament closed. They had met two tough opponents the first half and had conquered them. Then they met two easy foes, thus making them a much fresher team in the last night, while the Thorobreds apparently tired, were forced to battle Lincoln, Wilberforce, and West Virginia in a row. Since the tournament was the "Round Robin" type, the winner had to be decided on a percentage basis. No trouble was met in figuring the West Virginians' record during the regular season. Behind the Kentuckians came the disappointment of the tournament—Lincoln University—considered co-favorite with West Virginia. The Missourians were defeated by three teams whom they had previously defeated. Their only victories were over the two conference weaklings, Tennessee State and Louisville, who finished fifth and sixth.

In the final game, the Kentucky Staters had a chance to enter into a triple tie for the title by defeating West Virginia. Had they done so, Wilberforce, West Virginia, and Kentucky would have each won four and lost one. But the task was too great, considering that the Yellow Jackets didn't let up one moment during the tournament. They took a 4 to lead early in the game, and never one during the remainder of the game were they very seriously threatened, although the Thorobreds were but three points behind with eight minutes to go. However, they pulled away to win 36 to 29. The large crowd was in an uproar during most of the last half, cheering the home boys in an effort that they might pull the game out of the fire, this wasn't possible, so the Kentuckians had to be content with third place in the tournament.

West Virginia, Kentucky State Wilberforce Win Opening

Springing a great upset to start off the Mid-Western Tournament the West Virginia Yellow Jackets swamped the highly favored Lincoln University quint by a 46 to 30 score. Supposed to be a close battle, the West Virginians found their task quite easy in subduing Lincoln. Kentucky State, using their second team most of the day defeated Tennessee State easily by a score of 45 to 29. In the final game of the morning, Wilberforce breezed to a 50 to 21 win off the lowly Louisville outfit.

In the first afternoon game, Lincoln came back to form by winning easily from Tennessee State, 60 to 31. This was followed by the easiest win of the day, Kentucky State's second team walloping hapless Louisville 73 to 9. Every one of the ten men who participated in the game contributed to the total. The third game of the afternoon resulted in a 42 to 33 win for West Virginia, over Wilberforce.

Faced by Captain Robinson, who tallied eleven points, the Thorobreds started off the night's activities by drubbing Lincoln 40 to 33. The final two games of the day resulted in wins by West Virginia and Tennessee State, respectively by scores of 46 to 16 and 61 to 28.

Wilberforce Upsets Kentucky State, 40 to 31.

In the second day's play, Wilberforce University sprang one of the greatest upsets of the tournament by surprising the highly favored Kentucky State five by the score of 40 to 31. Assuming a commanding lead in the first half, Wilberforce added to their total during the second half, and although Kentucky State crept up slightly, they were unable to overcome the Ohioans' lead. This was the Kentuckians' first defeat of the tournament in the second game of the afternoon session. West Virginia defeated Tennessee State by the score of 50 to 33.

In the last session about which mention has been made, West Virginia defeated Kentucky State, Wilberforce came out on top of Lincoln, 43 to 34 in the only overtime game of the tournament, and Tennessee State defeated Louisville 40 to 27 to chalk up their only win of the tournament. One surprising feature of the entire tournament was the total absence of a very close game.

XAVIER DOWNS CLARK FOR SIAC

TUSKEGEE INST., Ala., March 4. (ANP)—The fifth annual Southern Conference Basketball Tournament reached a climax here Saturday night before 2,800 fans when Xavier University, of New Orleans, completely outclassed the favored cohorts of Clark University, Atlanta, by a score of 98 to 22.

In the battle for third place Alabama State College, of Montgomery, outscored South Carolina State College of Orangeburg, 48 to 42, in a thrilling basket-making bee.

Thus Xavier, defeated but once in 1938 by any college team and recognized as the kingly of collegiate quintets in the United States, won her first championship after having been kicked away from the semi-finals in 1935 and 1937.

There never was any doubt in the minds of the packed Logan Hall court as to which was the better team. Xavier had too much power and two much finesse for the Clark team. The Clark scoring, built around Abbey Henderson and Joe Johnson, was stopped cold while Bray, ashly Xavier forward, pushed eight baskets home; most of them 30-footers from side court. The intricate Xavier teamwork was so efficient, so well executed that the final game was not thrilling.

The Alabama Carolina struggle was just the other way and only a red hot finish saved the night for Alabama whose Tucker and Moorman tossed eighteen and sixteen points respectively.

Never was a SIAC tournament better handled. There were twelve teams entered and a packed gallery every night. Play started with a bang and the first afternoon and evening of play brought forth these results: Clark 56, Knoxville 23; Florida 36, LeMoine 30; South Carolina 29, Morehouse 24; Fisk 35, Tuskegee 33; Xavier 34, Morris Brown 13; Clark 36, LeMoine 20; Alabama 37, Talladega 15, and

Colored Stars Might Add Many Points At Bulter Relays

PARIS ACCEPTS OWENS' RECORD

PARIS, March 4. (ANP)—Jesse Owens' mark of 10.2 seconds for the 100 meter dash was finally accepted as a world record, although not without opposition, by the International Athletic Federation Monday.

Owens' mark was made in Chicago during June, 1936, in the Olympic try-outs. World record considered when it was found the track was three-fifths of an inch short, although that would not have affected the time. Finally, the American committee members decided to accept it after race officials said that they measured the distance before the day of the race, found it accurate, and suggested the change came as the result of temperature affecting the steel measuring tape.

The I. A. A. F. rules committee approved the record Saturday, but it was learned there was some opposition to its acceptance on the ground that the star athlete was aided by a "favoring wind."

CITY TOURNEY GETS UNDER WAY

Last Wednesday evening the eighth annual City Basketball Tournament under the auspices of the auspices of the Senate Avenue Y. M. C. A. got under way, with all teams of the Social Service League, the Commercial League, and the Industrial League playing. From the league standing, and play during the season, looks like the winner will be hard to predict. Even the youngsters rallying against the more experienced players are showing up in grand style, and the Industrial League team players, are strong and hard, and will likely bet to the final brackets. Just what will happen will be determined Saturday at the final games beginning at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Following the games, trophies will be awarded at the Walker Casino where the entertainment will be held. Donors of trophies are: Winner, John A. Patton; Runner-Up, Marbury Coal Company, of which Robert T. Marbury is manager; Sportsmanship, Ward Wilson, all of whom have donated trophies over a period of nine years.

South Carolina 40, Fisk 33. The play of Fisk, Tuskegee, and South Carolina featured this first round. On Friday night, Clark and Xavier had little trouble disposing of Alabama State and South Carolina State. Clark handled Alabama 34 to 23, and Xavier outdistanced South Carolina 37 to 21. This set the stage for the final night.

(Special to The Recorder) The host of colored stars which is expected to take part in the Butler University Indoor Relays this year when they are held at the Butler Fieldhouse, March 19 will add many points to their respective team standings according to the latest reports from Relay officials.

Coach Lawrence Holmes, 22-year old director of the meet, has announced that colored stars in the high jump event will probably again hold the spot light. With the Ohio State entry blank which was received several days ago came the name of Dave Albritton, senior high-jumper. Dave, as senior Indianapolis fans will remember, was the teammate of Mel Walker, who jumping for the Buckeye team at last year's carnival, broke the world's indoor record.

Dave and Mel battled each other all last season for the record and climaxed their private "feud" at the Relays last season. Albritton is coming back again this year with the determination to wipe that old record off the map. He is expected to meet stiff competition in the form of one Dave Burke of Marquette University. Burke was also in competition with Albritton and Walker last season for the world's indoor high jump record. When these three colored lads get together at this year's carnival, mid-western sports fans will receive a real thrill.

Also coming with Ohio State team is Paul Garrett, sprinter, who has been showing up well in the indoor meets this season. He has been entered in the 60-yard dash by Coach Larry Snyder of the Buckeye team. An entry any day now is expected from the University of Pittsburgh who will bring Johnny Woodruff, colored Olympic star, who holds many records. If entered, Johnny would run on the medley relay team in the university section.

Tickets may be bought at the university bursar's office or at Spalding's Sporting Goods Store, 9 East Market street. Members competing with other organizations on the campus for the loyalty trophies which will be awarded after the close of the campaign on March 16.

SMITH SETS 2-MILE CLIP

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 4. (A NP)—Jimmy Smith, who is expected to fill the shoes, this year, of Don Lash, and the first Negro track captain in Indiana University history, set a new army and meet record in the two-mile run as the Hoosiers defeated Illinois 55 2-3 to 38 1-3, in a dual track meet Friday night. Smith navigated the distance in 9:15.4 and was not pressed in the event. Only one faster two-mile race has ever been run in Big Ten competition, and that was by Lash, world record-holder.

Beatin' the Gun

(By ALVIN MOSES for ANP) A Display of Gameness Unsurpassed One expects prize-fighters to be game for that to some is their chief stock in trade, but the yarn we are about to spill here and now has to do with a quality of gameness few fighters have been called upon to display.

Holmes into a big card in this metropolitan area. The writer dropped into Cal's dressing room an hour before the battle was scheduled to get under way and from our wealth of experience as a former boxer, trainer and conditioner, talked over the plan of fight he should wage in view of his weakened condition.

Holmes carried that plan out to perfection halting Eley with a flurry of head and body punches that would have toppled a heavy-weight. Had the fight gone the full route, Holmes might have collapsed and the public sitting out there might erroneously have said unkind things of him. Such is the fight racket. Our hat is off to the games' little warrior we've known in years and a kid who seems destined to wear the toga of the 147-pound brigade before many moons have passed.

Stewart Has Field Scared Stiff A lethal hook that exploded so swiftly and powerfully upon the chin of (where do you get that Irishman gag) . . . Ed McGuire that fans are still arguing along after the light had been switched off as to the type of punch Stewart tossed, the Pittsburgh windmill proved beyond cavil why the likes of Solly Kreiger, Glen Lee, Apostoli, and other rankers suddenly duck into convenient cyclone cellars at the mere mention of the name . . . Ossie Stewart!

Irish Eddie McGuire was no setup, fans . . . just paste that in your new spring Kelly. In fact, Ossie has the class to turn such a performance against the headman of his division if successful in getting the gent to clamber through the hempen strans that inclose local 24-foot arenas. The rise of Stewart is a personal tribute to the hard work and absolute belief in the Pittsburgh sensation on the part of Promoter Douglas of the Rockland Palace club, and his efficient press relations man . . . Irv Rudd. Some whispering has been going the rounds about Stewart

STEVE CASEY MIGHT MEET SEPIA MATMAN

BOSTON, March 4. (By Mabe Konitz for ANP)—The first official world's heavyweight wrestling championship featuring a Negro challenger is cooking on the fire right here in Boston amidst the delightful aroma of baked beans and brown bread. Seppie Samara, topnotch colored wrestler of Promoter Charlie Gordon, is expected to meet bit Steve Casey, recognized title-holder and the feature performer of Promoter Paul Browner. The Garden is proposed for the site of battle, and the title will be at stake.

The situation calls for a few words. Promoter Gordon and Promoter Bowser are natural rivals. Browner is the veteran here, and he is a national figure in the game. He owns the more veteran and all-star wrestling presentations. His champion is Steve "Crusher" Casey, who claims (don't we all?) the world's championship. The Crusher has been of late first boyed and finally irked by a similar claim emanating from his alleged African beantown rival. And today the city is split up.

Promoter Browner, operating mingling with some of our local sepias 175-pound threats while waiting around for a shot with leading middleweights. Such advice is the bunk pure and simple. While we believe that darn few of the light-heavies could hold off this "Sable Bearcat" . . . It just doesn't make sense for the kid to risk accidents in a division in which he could hardly hope to concede the weight to the likes of Fox and Lewis, while . . . in his own division . . . he stands out like a sore thumb.

Reynolds' Band 'Swings' at Bronzeville Ball

Indiana Sportsmen's Show Features Native Africans at Fair Grounds

W. C. HANDY, STEPIN FETCHIT MAY START SHOW TEAM

MEMPHIS, March 3. (ANP) — Handy left for Detroit where he was to discuss plans with Stepin Fetchit. Later, he is scheduled to go to Hollywood and assist Paramount with the filming of "St. Louis Blues," the company having paid $5,000 for use of the song as a movie title.

Naptown AFTER DARK

SHOULD WE SWING? . . . There is a little girl down in Rockville (we are sure) who would answer to the name of Duches. . . She is none other than the sister of Kathrine Dickerson. . . She is the real edition of what a younger sister is when her boy fren comes round.

The Rens bidded their many friends goodbye and ankled away to end their season next month. . . This summer, if you should get around Philly, you could find Tarzan Cooper taking it easy on a position that he has held for many years. . . Bruiser Saitch could be found selling life insurance in N. Y. C. . . We Willie Smith calls it a day in summer looking after playground equipment in Cleveland. . . Johnny Holt will be among New York's Finest (Policeman) if you are around Sugar Hill. . . And Fats would be found around some baseball park looking 'em over. . . So far, that is all. . .

Every once in a while a person who does things crosses this mediocre horizon of ours. This time, we met Richard B. Alphan, splendid talking and energetic salesman for the Abbott Laboratories in Chicago. . . Dr. Robert Hatch and Dr. Pritchard are keeping things balanced for the youthful visitor. . . Business and Socially. . . SOCIAL ITEM . . . James Anderson, student of Blackstone, lovely sister, Mrs. Theresa May Banks of Washington, Pa., placed the sun back into the sky when she visited Naptown recently after being in Iowa for a short time. . . And does she make Frog Week sound inducive? . . . As if we didn't know. DROPPING THE ANCHOR . . .

There is a certain doctor in this town who should get a judgeship in a divorce court. . . He has done more than some "Is Honor" in keeping the "Parting Ways" closed to heated young couples. . . And he is a young man but a veteran in the game. . . Doctor Lloyd (Commentator) Taylor was the only basketball player on the Rens team who didn't play Monday night. . . (Aside) wonder why so many dunces maintain that the game was "in the bag," Monday? . . . If we have a reputation for true statements, believe this: The game was on the "up and up." . . Yours Truly. . .

Tiny Bradshaw returned to the Terrace the past Monday night to start the week off playing for the Community Hospital Benefit. . . Was he tops? . . . Asked some seven hundred patrons. . . The Terrace looked like a page from the "400" and "50." . . Among the many were Dr. and Mrs. Guy Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Houser, Dr. and Mrs. George Watkins, Herbert Willis, Mr. and Mrs. William McFarlen, James Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams, Dr. Wales, Andrew Sharp, George Dixon, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Horner, Mr. and Mrs. Ona Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perkins, Mitchell Walker, Anna Hopson, Louise Makel. . . Bob Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Charle Davis and the Y. M. C. A. divorcee. . . (To wit) nothing like getting in a bit of humor. . . Tiny will be there all this week. . . "Ole Red" really sends the guests. PIPPING THINGS UP . . .

Ofays still come into the neighborhood and expect to run a business without the benefit of sepi workers. . . We don't mind and we know you don't for you never say or do anything about it. . . Charlie Ervin returned to Philly and now things won't seem the same around the spots. . . Especially the singing duets. . . Johnny Martin still fills the glasses at the Rainbow . . . and how . . . fastest in town, so they say . . . look-see. . .

Saw a gent and the former Mrs. talking things over last Saturday night at the Pongo. . . No, no, no, they will never hit it off again. . . (That's gospel). FROM THE MAILBAG . . . Dear Admirer. . . We are working on the letter and promise to break them all next week. . . Nuff said? . . . Thanks for the tip and did you get the mental telepathy message? . . . AND SO TO CLOSE . . . Saw Florence Elders out again and were we glad. . . Places don't see the same "mit-out" Florence. . . Franklin Thompson could tell if he only would, who fried pancakes with hair-grease. -30-

One of the outstanding features of the Indiana Sportsmen's Show which opens Saturday at the Fair Grounds will be a typical African village with a group of natives in their homeland attire. This exhibit made a big hit in the National Show which closed last Saturday in New York.

The dances and tribal rites are performed against a typical native background with replicas of native huts and a white hunter's camp. Rare African birds and animals lend additional atmosphere as does a remarkably complete exhibit of mounted specimens.

The leader the drums beat the wilder the whirl of excitement in the cages which house the baby lions, chimpanzees, monkeys and other animals. A mother monkey with her nursing offspring is a prime attraction. She is a watchful mother and a stickler for discipline.

BRONZEVILLE IN INDIANAPOLIS

OVERHEARD . . . Are you going to the big Bronzeville Nomination at the Walker, tonight? "You bet I am," said a lovely little damsel, to her boy-friend, the other night along De Avenoo. And that, my frans, seems to be the answer of hundreds of Bronzevillians, when asked are they, too, going to attend this gala affair. We know you will want to hear the Voting Results as they peel forth through the loud speaker. . . Come out and bring your friends . . . and enjoy an evening of delightful and pleasurable entertainment. . . Whether you like to dance or not, you'll surely enjoy listening to the results. . . and we sincerely hope that your friend will be among the lucky TWELVE. Don't miss this enjoyable evening of surprises.

SO LONG PAL. . . Word comes to us from Dayton, Ohio, that naturally saddens our heart. . . Our good fran, John Robinson, native of London, Ohio, and former businessman in Springfield and Dayton, passed away Saturday, February 19, in the St. Elizabeth's Hospital in that city. He was buried Tuesday, February 22. In the passing of fran Robinson, Dayton has lost a real good citizen; his sons a real father. We know that his journey over Jordan was a pleasant one. . .

FORMER BOSS PASSES. . . Word comes out of Richmond, Va., where yours truly first saw the light of day, telling us of the death of John Royal Cogbill, foreman for 30 years on The Richmond (Va.) Planet, our alma mater. . . Well do we remember the days during our apprenticeship in a newspaper print shop. His consoling words; his comradeship; his untiring efforts to teach us the mechanics of the trade, and his constant devotion to duty, helped to make us a "slave" to the newspaper "professh." Because of his teachings, we sallied forth a little more than 20 years ago to conquer the journalistic world. The going has been rough at times; the old ship unsteady, but his consoling words of years ago have contributed much to keep our feet in the straight and narrow path. We know that he has gone to join that army of newspapermen in that land of milk and honey, where, we, too, hope to join him in the bye and bye. We have enjoyed the life in the raw, because we were fortunate enough to have known him in our youth.

The boys really went to town, and what music. The band is under the direction of Prof. L. A. Morris, manager and camp educational director.

MAYOR OF BRONZEVILLE WILL HELP TO PROMOTE THE CIVIC WELFARE OF COLORED INDIANAPOLIS

Sue Bob Church for $55,000 Taxes

Property In Famed Beale Street Involved In City, County Action

MEMPHIS, March 4.—(ANP)—Property along Beale street owned by Bob Church, Republican leader, which was once valued at $120,000 will be sold to collect $55,000 back taxes, if a suit filed Friday on Chancery court is won by the city and county.

This is the first action of its kind ever taken jointly by city and county, and seeks to consolidate all suits filed against the Church estate since 1917 and includes front foot assessment levies for 1936 and '37. It also asks that the sale be made in bar of redemption, which would mean Church would not get the customary two years to redeem it, if sold.

Twelve pieces of property, the residence of the estate left Bob and his sister, Annette, by their father, R. H. Church, Sr., ex-slave, are involved. The realty once was valued at more than $200,000, and was actually assessed at $120,000. Officials doubt, however, that it would now bring the $55,000 in taxes due.

Charity Ball, Community Hospital Drive Crack Records

As the greatest and most effective as well as spectacular drive in the history of the Community hospital heard closing, Henry J. Richardson, Jr., director, disclosed that $1612.77 in cash had been raised and $500 in pledges collectible in ten days were reported at the last meeting held Wednesday night at the Senate Avenue YMCA. A grace period of ten days extension has been set to close all loose ends.

Reports from the skating party at Douglass Casino under direction of Richard Winston, and from the charity ball held at Ferguson's Sunset Terrace were yet in complete but are rapidly being closed. It was learned. Every person is urged to attend the final report meeting March 14 at the YMCA at which time all cash, tickets and pledges must be accounted; the money is needed now, Attorney Richardson said.

Sale of tickets stopped three times during the evening because of the overflow crowd, approximately one-third of which could not be accommodated in the Terrace and so went to Ferguson's Sunset cafe next door. Denver Ferguson donated the Terrace and left nothing undone in cooperating to make his share of the charity ball the most outstanding unparalleled affair of its kind in the history of the city—all Indianapolis.

Watson to Run For U. S. Senate

James E. Watson will run for the senate again. Announcement to this effect was made here recently by the former senator. He was first elected to the position in 1916, was re-elected in 1920 and 1926 and for almost fifty years has been a prominent and dominant figure in national politics.

"All my life," Watson said, "I have been interested in sound government. My long experience in government should qualify me for further service in the solution of our present crucial problems.

"My record for sound constructive legislation, together with my desire to assist my party, prompts me to announce that I am a candidate for the Republican nomination

Falls on Ice-Pick;
Woman Wounded

Esther Turner, 20 years old, 331 Blackford street, went to the City Hospital Wednesday morning at five o'clock, and told attaches there that she fell on an ice-pick and received a wound in the left arm above the elbow. She had been drinking, police said.

Gilbert Fontaine, 45, 123 West Norwood street, fell on his face as he left a store in the 800 Block in South Capitol avenue.

Police sent him to the City Hospital in an ambulance and arrested him on a drunk charge.

Louis to Defend Title Third Time; Meets Thomas at Chi

NEW YORK, March 4. (ANP)—Joe Louis, busiest heavyweight champion in modern boxing history will stage his third title defense at the Chicago Stadium on Friday night, April 1, with Harry Thomas as his opponent. It was announced Thursday, just one day after the fighter had disposed of Nathan Mann in three rounds.

Louis left Thursday night for Chicago, accompanied by his wife, the former Marva Trotter, who came here to see the bout, after attending a testimonial dinner given for James J. Braddock from whom he won the championship and who is a personal friend.

The Thomas fight will be his third defense since winning the crown at Chicago on June 22, and is expected to be interesting mainly because the white boy has a powerful right-hand punch and was given a technical kayo by Max Schmeling a few weeks ago in eight rounds. Critics are interested in seeing how long it will take Louis to defeat Thomas. In addition to the knockout by Max, Thomas has taken the count on only one other occasion and that was while fighting Unknown Winston in Chicago during 1936.

The match between the champion and the tough white boy is scheduled for fifteen rounds and will be the first indoor heavyweight

AGED BINGA BANK HEAD LEAVES PRISON

First Lockefield Bride

In the quietness and serenity of her home, amidst pleasant surroundings, Mrs. Ethel Byrdson, formerly Mrs. Ethel Lewis, was so nervous and excited, Wednesday, that she couldn't pose for a photographer to take her picture. And rightly so, too, because there were many things of which to be proud and thankful; First, she was one of the early occupants of the spacious Lockefield Garden Apartments, and next she became the bride of Robert Byrdson, a local businessman, Tuesday, whom she had been seeing a lot of in recent months.

The wedding ceremonies were held at the home of Rev. W. E. Ramsey, pastor of Antioch Baptist church, who officiated. The bridegroom's mother and aunt were in attendance. Both Mr. and Mrs. Byrdson has been married before. They are at home to friends at 367 Lockefield Apartments, Building Nine.

Served 3 Years Embezzlement Term; Pioneer Chicago Banker

CHICAGO, March 4. (ANP)—The heavy, steel doors of Joliet prison swung open last Saturday morning, bringing freedom to Jesse Binga, pioneer Chicago banker, who had served nearly three years of a one-to-ten-year sentence for embezzlement of $32,500 of the funds of Binga State bank, which closed on July 31, 1930.

The release of the aged banker, now 73 years old marks finis to the famous case, but Binga must report to parole officers at intervals for the next three years.

Founder of the institution which bears his name, Binga, following his indictment for embezzlement in 1932, was granted 40 continuances, before he actually was committed to state prison in April 1935.

A prominent Catholic, and in failing health since his incarceration, Binga's friends have waged a long fight for his release. Two years ago, Atty. Clarence Darrow, famed criminologist, and the Rev.

Confesses Dope Use; Given Sentence

Sergeant Carl Ashley, head of the vice squad, arrested Samuel Woods, 21, 318 North Senate avenue, and Marvin Young, 21, 705 North Senate avenue, Apartment Six, when they approached him in front of a downtown theatre seeking to purchase some "reefer" cigarettes. They are to be investigated.

Carrie Provine, 25 years old, living in West Fifteenth street, was sentenced by Judge John McNelis, in court 3, Tuesday, when Sergeant Ashley presented a signed statement that Mrs. Provine made of her own accord stating that she had used heroin and marijuana weeds. She has been arrested on a vagrancy charge for investigation by the vice squad.

Judge McNelis fined her $50 and cost and sentenced her to serve 120 days in the Women's Prison. She will be treated there for the "habit."

Dope Traffic Draws Police Fire

(EDITORIAL, PAGE 10)

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles concerning dope and its traffic in Indianapolis. Believing that the public is entitled and should know some of the effects the use of dope causes, a RECORDER writer has been assigned to ferret the facts and publish them. This series will also include some methods and instruments employed against users, addicts and those who traffic in it, as well as the law elements brought into play against this evil. The purpose of this series is wholly constructive, informative; it being our belief that an educated public makes the lot of the dope traffic hard.)

Climaxing a one-year narcotic drive, Sergt. Carl Ashley, head of the police vice squad, said this week that a total of over one hundred arrests and convictions had been made by his squad last year in the handling of dope addicts.

The drive was started over three years ago but was intensified in the last year, Ashley said, when it was found that marijuana weed was being grown and

New Albany Woman Vanishes; Recorder Staff Joins Search

Investigation by police officers into the disappearance of Miss Elizabeth Blakeman, formerly of New Albany, Ind., but who more recently was employed in Indianapolis for a northside family, the Edgertons, hasn't to date uncovered any promising leads. Miss Blakeman was last seen by parents February 10, but because her employer was out of town her disappearance was not reported until February 20.

Miss Blakeman left her place of employment Thursday, on half holiday, had her hair dressed in a northside beauty shop, visited friends in Shriver avenue, called upon a minister and his wife and since that time there appears to be no record of what happened to the woman.

The description of her given is: Age, late forties; dark complexioned; long hair; height, about 5 feet two inches. As far as could be learned, she was not subject to or shown evidence of a lapse of memory or any condition which would cause similar behavior.

An account just opened with a local banking house had not been subject to any withdrawals and several new dresses had been purchased by Miss Blakeman. As far as could be learned there was no existing reason for nor did her actions indicate that she entertained the idea or feared foul play. Despite efforts of police, however, no trace of her has been found. A friend of the Blakeman family enlisted the aid of the INDIANAPOLIS RECORDER and it was eagerly given. Plans by the RECORDER are rapidly being formulated and put into execution. Any person knowing any scrap of information, no matter how trivial, will be gladly accepted by the RECORDER or the police department.

CORONER CLOSES PHILLIPS CASE

MATCH BRINGS CRITICAL BURNS Not Poison But Complications Brought Death--Report

Swathed in bandages, from head to foot, Fred Miller, 19 years old, 1150 Fayette street, was in a critical condition today at City Hospital suffering from second and third degree burns received Tuesday night.

He was burned severely about the lower part of the body. Hospital attaches do not expect him to live.

Miller went to the home of his step-father, Arthur Davis, 42 years old, 341 Darnell street, earlier in the evening and was there when he caught fire.

Davis said his son had been drinking and asked him for a match to light a cigarette and burst into flames soon after he turned his back. He said he did not know whether Miller stumbled into a stove or knocked a kero-

Rollie Phillips, 43 years old, 1206 N. Senate avenue, who died at his home suddenly last Wednesday morning, was a victim of complicated diseases which included coronary occlusion and nephritis. Dr. Ezra D. Alexander, deputy coroner, revealed after having held an inquest into the case following rumors that Phillips had been poisoned to death.

Mrs. Barbara Phillips, Phillips' wife, told officials at the coroner's office that she believed her husband had met foul play saying that he had taken a small amount of gin earlier in the day before retiring Tuesday night.

WILL PETITION CHI MAYOR ON ACUTE HOUSING

CHICAGO, March 4.—(ANP)—Petitions asking assurance from Mayor Edward Kelly that Negroes will not be limited, segregated nor excluded altogether from the Jane Adams, Trumbull Park, and Julia Lathrop homes, already constructed in predominantly white districts, and demanding a statement of the Chicago Housing Authority's Negro policy, are now being circulated on the Southside.

SAY EAST SIDE SHOP ENTERED

Burglars, who entered the Vald for Cleaners, 1316 E. Sixteenth street, early Tuesday morning by breaking a front-door glass escaped with clothing valued at approximately $400.

Milton Jackson, 34 years old, 1310 East Sixteenth street, owner of the cleaning establishment, said that thirty men's suits, valued at $225, ten ladies' and men's overcoats and two dresses all valued at $175 were taken by the burglars, who escaped through the same door they entered.

Bud Tolliver, 23, 1222 North Senate avenue, reported at Police Headquarters that vandals have torn off lights off his car several times and left them in the street. The lights were valued at $250.

While William Brown, 37 years old, 1618 Martindale avenue, attended church services Tuesday night, some one entered his home and stole a suit and two pairs of shoes.

Police arrested Thomas McKinney, 30, 2020 North Illinois street, for driving through a safety zone drunken operating, and no driver's license.

The officers said they chased McKinney from Sixteenth and Illinois street, where he went through the stop-sign to McClane place, west to Capitol street, south to Twenty-first street, and east on Twenty-first street, before they caught him. His case was continued until March 16th, to be heard in police court 4.

Ky. Solon Fights Job Discrimination

Would Block Work Ban on Public Project and Buildings

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 4. (By Hazel Browne Williams for ANP)—Although G. W. Anderson, Jr., of Louisville, is the lone Negro representative in the state assembly, he is making himself felt.

Four out of six bills he recently introduced in the house have passed, he has just introduced a measure intended to prohibit discrimination of Negroes in employment on public works and buildings, and has apparently blocked passage of the bus segregation and whipping post measures.

The employment bill would prohibit any contractor doing work for the State of Kentucky from refusing to hire qualified workers because of color. If there is discrimination, offenders are liable to penalties of $10 per person discriminated against for each calendar day, to be deducted by the state, and cancellation of the contract with forfeiture of state fees due for a second violation.

Bryant Named District Parole Officer

Appointment of Otis R. Bryant, 34-1-2 E. Wyoming street, Indianapolis, as a district parole officer in the Division of Corrections in the State Department of Public Welfare, has been announced by Thurman A. Gottschalk, administrator of the State Welfare Department. Mr. Bryant becomes the first colored district parole officer to be employed under the Indiana Welfare Act and probably the first in the nation under the cooperative provisions of the Federal Social Security Act.

Forty-three years of age, married and the father of three children, Mr. Bryant brings to his new position a world of experience in the field of social improvement which well fits him to supervise the daily lives of the colored adult parolees under his supervision. He will be directly responsible for all such parolees in Marion county and will probably be entrusted with special work among colored adult parolees in all parts of the state, according to John H. Klingler, director of the Division of Corrections in the State Department. Frank Hope is Supervisor of Parolees in the Division of Corrections.

Although aware of holding a high place on the eligible list of applicants for position of district parole officer, as the result of taking an examination in open competition under the Indiana Merit System of employee selection, Mr. Bryant's appointment nevertheless came as a surprise to him. It was not an undesired honor, however, and was the result of long years of training and struggle which should serve as a model to others not to allow failure and disappointment to defeat them in their struggle to achieve the goal which they have set for themselves.

Mr. Bryant's efforts to become a recognized parole officer read like a fiction story. Working his own way through Emmerich Manual Training High School in Indianapolis, he was graduated with honors in 1911. Lacking funds, he was unable to afford a regular college course providing a degree in social work but that did not deter his from obtaining a thor

Still another outstanding appointment made by Watson was that of Cornelius Richardson of Richmond, Ind., to a post in the Virgin Islands.

The former senator was swept from the Senate by the Democratic landslide which elected Frederick VanNuy in 1932. Once a "favorite son," he has seen service as a representative in congress nominated for governor of this state but lost to the late Thomas R. Marshall, and three terms as senator. He was majority floor leader in the senate during the Hoover administration; previously, in 1924, he received the vote of the Indiana delegation for the presidential nomination and four years later in the Hoosier primary received the presidential preference vote.

W. H. LARRABEE REENTERS RACE FOR CONGRESS

With a record of continuous service since the Seventy-second Congress, Representative William H. Larrabee of New Palestine has announced his intention to run for renomination in the May Primary, but declined to make a statement regarding a platform. He is from the Eleventh district.

"The people of my district are well aware that I have kept their interests foremost in my mind and always have endeavored to reflect their interests and wishes in my legislative action. No one can do more," Mr. Larrabee declared. "My future actions, if renominated and reelected, will be motivated only by a desire to serve my district, my state, and my country to the best of my ability," he said.

Congressman Larrabee is chairman of the committee on education, and a member of the census, coinage, weights and measures, and insular affairs committees.

WHO'LL BE THE FIRST MAYOR OF BRONZEVILLE?

HANNAH NOONE IS CANDIDATE FOR RECORDER

Retiring as Center township trustee, Miss Hannah A. Noone has announced her candidacy for nomination for county recorder on the Democratic ticket in the Primary election.

Her reelection to the trustee post followed her election to that position in 1930 and is now completing her eighth year in this work. She was defeated two years ago when a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county treasurer. She will seek the recorder position on her record as township trustee, Miss Noone said.

Miss Noone was educated in public and parochial schools and is the daughter of Michael J. Noone, who was for many years active in Democratic politics prior to his death.

She is a member of St. Catherine's Catholic church; Daughters of Isabella, Council of Social Agencies, Marion County Women's Democratic club, Young Women's Democratic club, Seventeenth Ward, Democratic, president of Old Hickory Democratic club, and a former member of the Marion county tax adjustment board, a position she held last year.

but that he doubted that his board had the legal authority to make such a move.

The delegation which recommended the change suggested that the commissioners cooperate with the welfare board in supervising the activities of the inmates if they should be turned over to the welfare board. They said that a survey had been conducted by trained social service workers and warranted such a move.

The home, which was originally built for 100 is now housing approximately 150 orphans. Many of this number could be returned to relatives or their own parents. It was explained by the civic leaders.

Mrs. Susie Millikan, director of the Orphans' Home, could see no direct need for a veritable shifting of responsibilities of the home to another county department and recommended that more adequate water drinking and toilet facilities be placed, those which have been unable to meet the needs.

Others interested in the situation expressed belief that the home was a "football" being kicked around by petty politicians for personal gain.

"I am most grateful for the fine spirit and splendid effort as well as the unity of attack shown by all the workers, chairmen and friends. Of especial note is the most gratifying response of the public at large and of the churches, many of the latter having taken or will take special offerings for the Community hospital. All the credit goes to those tireless workers and a generous public." Attorney Richardson was unminced in his praise of both public and workers, saying that they had successfully conducted the biggest and most effective campaign in the hospital history—not only in reaching a cross section of the city but in ???ing more hospital minded than ever.

She did not know whether he died on the floor or while on the bed. Mrs. Phillips denied a Reporter's report that she told officers Eddie Butler and Osa Woodall that they had attended a movie late Tuesday night. She said that as she went for help Phillips cried that he was dying and had been poisoned, to which she replied, "No, you are not. Every time you get sick you say that." When she returned Phillips was dying.

SERVED 3 YEAR

Joseph F. Eckert, pastor of St. Anselm's Catholic church, appeared before the State Parole Board with a petition of 10,000 signatures, seeking his release. Binga was also a charter member of old St. Monica's church, established nearly a half century ago at 26th and Dear born streets.

Because of his reputed wealth and social position, the Binga case attracted wide attention and marked the first time a colored Chicago banker had been called to face a charge of such proportions. He founded the bank in 1908 as a private institution, and opened for business as a state-chartered bank in 1921. During its peak years preceding the stock market crash of 1929, the corporation built the Binga building, 35th and State streets.

Following its admission to membership in the Chicago Clearing House, Binga State bank was credited with upwards of 200 stockholders, representing Chicago's outstanding business and professional people, and several thousand depositors having more than $1,500,000 in deposits. Stock was rated at about $170 a share, having more than $1,500,000 in deposits. Stock was rated at about $170 a share, and more than a score of specially trained employees managed the bank's affairs.

At his second trial in 1933, before Judge Farley, Binga was charged with embezzling money entrusted to him by depositors for purchase of stock in a proposed national bank. The national bank never formed, and the prosecution contended that the money was not accounted for when Binga State bank closed in 1930.

Defense attorneys at both trials contended that under the laws, funds to be used for the purchase of national bank stock cannot be placed on deposit in a state bank. They said no evidence had been presented to show that Binga had embezzled the funds. The accused banker, who denied the charges at the first trial, accepted the guilty verdict at the second trial. He faced the court and heard, without show of emotion the verdict that sent him to Joliet penitentiary.

USES ONIONS AS TAXI FARE

An onion thief who substituted his merchandise as legal tender in payment of taxi bills is under arrest. Officer Dulin Judd received information and went to the 400 block in Indiana avenue Tuesday morning and arrested Lee Matthews, 19, 2229 Howard street, Dennis King, same address, when he found Lee Matthews with three bags of onions.

Matthews said that he stole them from a South Side grocer, along with some apples and potatoes. He sold some of the potatoes to a restaurant owner, he said, gave his sister a bushel of apples and paid a taxi driver a bag of onions to bring him to the Avenue.

Both are held on vagrancy charges to be questioned by detectives.

MONEY FROM WPA CHECK STOLEN

Police are looking for Tasco Ross, 20 years old, 200 Block West Twenty-third street, on a theft charge.

Mrs. Lulu Wooten, 70 years old, who lives alone at 140 Tacoma terrace, told detectives that she cashed her WPA check for $23 Tuesday and put $21 of it in her pocketbook in a dresser drawer.

Later, she said Ross went to a store to purchase twenty cents' worth of hamburger and when he left she missed her pocketbook. Ada May McTay, 27, 968 Hadley street, was treated at the City Hospital for a possible fractured rib and her husband John McTay, 31 years old, was arrested on an assault and battery charge with intent to kill, and violation of the 1935 beverages act.

Mrs. McTay said that her husband struck her in the side with his fist when they argued over a craps game.

Police officers went to 916 Colton street and arrested McTay, where they also confiscated a small quantity of alcohol in a five-gallon can.

DOPE TRAFFIC

cultivated in the city on a large scale.

Sergeant Ashley and his squad revealed that they had destroyed enough of the growing weed in this city equivalent to thousands of cigarettes known as reefer. Of all the different kinds of dope used, marijuana is the most widely sought because it is easier to get and cheaper to purchase than heroin, cocaine, and morphine.

Even the poorest addict can secure this type of "pleasure" because he has only to secure a small amount of the weed and roll it into a cigaret or smoke it in a pipe.

Arrests on these charges in Indianapolis have brought sentences of 180 days and fines of $100 and costs. Most of these convictions have been made on the evidence presented by the vice squad and the signed confessions of the addicts who readily consented to their habits for such reasons as a desire to be cured or given temporary relief at a penal institution.

Smoke from the marijuana weed, Sergeant Ashley said, is doubly detrimental to its user in that it destroys valuable brain tissues that cannot be replaced even if the victim is fortunate enough to be cured. It subjects the body to such a strain that the user is highly sensitive and susceptible to tuberculosis, pneumonia, syphilis, and other wasting diseases.

After having been a user for some time, Sergeant Ashley said, the addict finds that it is impossible to give it up. If he stops suddenly he suffers great pains and aches throughout the body. It is for this reason that cases in their earliest stages are sought. If found out early it is highly possible that a cure can be effected and the potential addict, if sent to an institution, will in all probability, receive a sentence on a misdemeanor charge that will not leave him with a criminal record.

The marijuana weed is grown in the summer months and cured for use during the winter. Sergeant Ashley said. He said that during the first two months of this year, the sale of dope in general, its use, and the amount of it in circulation had dropped approximately 25 per cent over a like period of last year. This is due, he said, to the relentless and consistent efforts he has put forward, with his squad helpers.

He said that the ratio among colored and white users was about fifty-fifty.

Sergeant Ashley explained that the use of dope had varied effects on different users. Some of them, he said, had a desire to commit petty crimes, rape women, indulge in wild sexual debaucheries, and even commit murder.

Others have the opportunity to exploit their best work when in the midst of a habit pleasure doing such things as writing poetry, giving speeches, writing songs, imitating their favorite movie stars and heroes.

Still there are others who retire to the quietness of their own homes and use their particular kind in secrecy. They usually brood over some family trouble or financial problems that have pressed them for a long period of time. While in this seclusion, if found by anyone, they are kind, docile, and gentle. The usual dope addict when in a "mood", has the tendency to do just the opposite of what he does in every-day life.

They have various instruments to use in administering to them.

REV. L. JOHNSON YMCA SPEAKER FOR MARCH 6TH

Reverend Louis Williams Johnson, rector of St. Phillip's Protestant Episcopal Church, of this city will be the speaker at the Monster Meeting on Sunday, March 6 at 3:30 p. m.

Reverend Johnson comes from Connecticut, having received his elementary education in the public schools of Hartford. It was in the city of Hartford that his father entered the Episcopal priesthood and established the first colored Episcopal church in the state.

In 1929 Reverend Johnson entered the School of Religion of Howard University from which he received the degree B. Theol. and in 1935 he entered the Philadelphia Divinity School from which institution he received the degree Bachelor of Divinity. After graduation from the latter institution, he went to work for the City Mission Society of New York at the Training School for Boys in Orange County, New York. He had a most interesting career at the school, doing work with boys along lines of character training.

Father Johnson was ordained to the Diaconate in Christ Cathedral, Hartford, on June 15, 1927, by Bishop Budlong of Connecticut, and to the Priesthood by Bishop Francis of Indianapolis at St. Phillip's Church on January 16, 1928. He is the second priest to be ordained in St. Phillip's Church. Since coming to Indianapolis he has undertaken his work with vigor and already made himself felt among the general public in the city.

The subject of the address Sunday will be: "Youth and the Church". The Southern Quintet under the direction of Gerard Williams will furnish music. The meeting begins at 3:30 p. m. and is open to the general public.

several that include a needle, glass tube and spoon to mix the batch in.

They administer it by injecting it into the large arm vein with the needle. This treatment lasts for hours and gradually poisons the entire system of the addict.

Sergeant Ashley said that hundreds of users have an entire outfit so cleverly concealed on their person that the average person would never detect its presence. He demonstrated some of their tactics.

When unable to buy it outright, Sergeant Ashley said, some addicts forge prescriptions to a druggist in a vain attempt to secure a treatment. Two confessed prescription forgers are serving time now he said.

City authorities handle cases here when the addicts are caught as users or under suspicion of being a user. Federal authorities step in, however, when a possessor of any kind of dope is found. Having it in your possession in any form, or amount, is a federal case, Sergeant Ashley said.

What is not generally known is that there is a particular type of addict known as a "privileged dope addict." The government allows these users to have a liberal amount administered under a physician's care, when it is found that he is suffering from an illness such as tuberculosis, brought on by the use of dope, that will not allow them to discontinue the use of some type of a nerve stimulant.

If not permitted to do so they would go completely insane and eventually die.

In his office, Sergeant Ashley has literature, and important data on dope fiends, their habits, their methods of concealing its presence, and actual samples of several varieties of hope. He has a sample of marijuana weed, female and male, from the first stages through the period of complete cultivation.

RHINY WILLIAMS TO MANAGE

the baseball ranks of former years. The team will be one of which the city can be proud, he promises.

There are more than enough good local boys to form a smart and colorful aggregation, with proper coaching, Rhiny said, and as manager of the Jones A's he promises to give the public more than its money's worth. Training will begin March 7; further details will be announced at a later date.

Rhiny Williams, who has much valuable league experience behind him, has been connected with such teams as the Lexington Hard Hitters, Dayton Marcos, Black Yanks, Newark Eagles, Homestead Grays, having been a colorful pitcher of the old apple for a seasonable number of years. His favorites, Rhiny says, are the curve ball, fast in-shoot, another which he would not discuss beyond a knowing wink.

Long noted as a heady pitcher and one of the steadiest in the game, Rhiny has built quite a reputation for strategy by taking advantage of runners, batters, and the break of the game. His management of the Jones A's should put Indianapolis far up on the road to baseball supremacy again.

INDIANAPOLIS A. B. C. BASEBALL PLANS SHAPED

With Ted Strong, Sr., at the helm, the Indianapolis A. B. C.'s baseball club is being organized for the new season. A new set of backers will replace those of last year—Dr. George Watkins, Mr. Johnson, and others—with George Ray, one of the leading citizens on dope fiends, their habits, their methods of concealing its presence, and actual samples of several varieties of hope.

In his office, Sergeant Ashley has literature, and important data on dope fiends, their habits, their methods of concealing its presence, and actual samples of several varieties of hope. He has a sample of marijuana weed, female and male, from the first stages through the period of complete cultivation.

He has deals trading players that will assure Indianapolis with a team that will compete with the Pittsburgh Crawfords or Homestead Grays since Detroit, Cincinnati and St. Louis have dropped out of the Am. Loop. This leaves it to the remaining clubs to bid for the players of these clubs. Strong has the inside track on such players as Moss, Bibbs, Houston and Easterling, there from Cincinnati. Petway from Detroit, Charlie Johnson, Clarence Pearson, from St. Louis; Dean Thomas and Bancy Thomas from Detroit. With such players as McCall of last year's roster, John Reed, Roy Walker, Ted Strong Jr. and Les Hannibal. With these players and players to be traded will give Indianapolis one of the best teams in the league. The A. B. C.'s will open a headquarters on Indiana avenue where the fans will be able

Craps Game Leads To Serious Shooting

While City Hospital doctors fought to save the life of Al Weiske, white, 35, 2636 Guilford avenue, Clyde Cade, 31 years old, 311 North Senate avenue, who allegedly shot and critically wounded Weiske along with James P. Hutton, Central Hotel, whom he also shot in the leg, as the aftermath of a craps game, is in the Marion County jail under high bond for assault and battery with intent to kill, and vagrancy.

If Weiske dies, Cade will be re-labeled for murder. Employed as a porter in the Hutton poolroom, 334 Massachusetts Ave., Cade told police that after the couple had "ganged" him they came upstairs and Hutton fired him.

Cade said that he reached in a drawer, grabbed a gun and fired at Hutton striking him in the left hip. Hutton quoted Cade as saying, "I might as well finish the job," when he told Cade, "You had better get out of here."

He then went back and shot Weiske, wounding him in the abdomen. Police and detectives, who arrested Cade at the poolroom, stated both Hutton and Weiske for vagrancy.

19 RACE MEN FIGHT JAPAN

PEIPING, March 4. (CNA) — A Japanese spokesman declared last week that 152 American volunteers, mostly aviators, were serving with the Chinese defensive forces. Nineteen of the Americans were Negroes, he said.

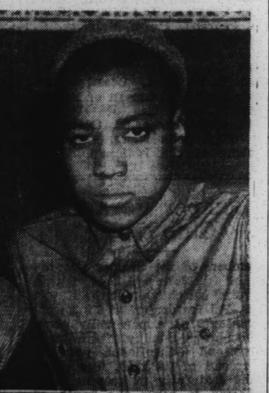

From the fact that the announcement was made by an officer of the Japanese forces in North China, it was inferred that the Americans are operating on the Chinese Red Army, which has to its credit many victories over crack Japanese units.

Within the last few weeks, the Eighth Route Army, supported by the armed population in its zone of operations, defeated an offensive by 50,000 crack Japanese troops and put the enemy on the defensive. From last available reports, the invaders were desperately striving to hold off a series of fierce counter-attacks that are disrupting their communication and supply lines, endangering the entire Japanese foothold below the Great Wall of Shanai.

Juveniles Held as Purse Snatchers

With the arrest of four boys, and the subsequent sentencing of two to minimum terms of sixteen months at Plainfield School for Boys, Gary authorities believe that a gang of purse-snatchers, their ages ranging from 13 to 15 years, which has been terrorizing the central district has been smashed. Officials report that the boys had snatched an unbelievably large number of purses and that two of the lads had nuisance records extending over a period of many years, once since the age of seven.

Who Was Crispus Attucks?

By Joseph C. Carroll, Ph.D.

This week we are celebrating the one hundred and sixty-eight anniversary of the death of Crispus Attucks, which happened in connection with an incident on the eve of the American Revolution, which patriotic zeal rather than historic accuracy has schooled us into calling the Boston Massacre.

Again and again, the question has been raised in the minds of those who have the timidity to think: Who was Crispus Attucks, a runaway slave, a fool, or a roustabout of the streets of Boston? We have long since been taught to believe that he was a runaway slave from Framingham, Mass., who had made good his escape and had established himself in a gainful occupation in Boston. Recent historic research and common sense, however, have produced sufficient evidence to establish the fact that he was neither a runaway slave, nor a roustabout of the streets, nor a fool, so simple as to attack a British regiment with a club, but a freeman, and a seaman by occupation.

The Boston Newspapers, of 1750, carried advertisements for the capture and return of a runaway slave belonging to one Mr. Brown of Framingham. When we remember that Framingham is today a suburb of Boston, only eighteen miles from the heart of the city, it does not seem possible that a slave could have been contented so long as there was only eighteen, miles distance between him and his master. If such were the case, either Mr. Brown was too lazy to attempt his recapture, or Attucks was so worthless that his master was glad to be rid of him. There are instances too numerous to mention of masters from the extreme South recapturing their runaway slaves in the remotest Northern states, and returning them to the land of bondage. Under the protection of the fugitive slave law of 1793, the Compromise of 1850, and the Dread Scott Decision of 1857, professional slave-catchers were always at the services of masters who had runaway slaves at large. If a master could trace a runaway slave all the way from South Carolina or Georgia to Indiana or Pennsylvania, capture and return him, surely Mr. Brown could have traced his from Framingham to Boston?

A Boston paper of March 5, 1770, states that the Crispus Attucks killed in the streets of that city on the night of that date was a free Negro from Providence, Rhode Island, who had stopped over night in the city en route to North Carolina. Then, too, according to the advertisements for the runaway from Framingham in 1750, the name was Crispus Attucks. On the other hand the Court records of the City of Boston for the trials of the British soldiers for murder on the night of March 5, 1770, gave the name of a Crispus Attucks, a free Negro, from Nassau on the West Indies. The records also show that this man was a sailor, in the service of a Captain Fowler, and the vessel on which Attucks served was in the Boston harbor that night and he was therefore at liberty.

Another bit of evidence to substantiate the fact that the Attucks killed on the night of March 5, 1770, was not the runaway slave, is the fact that it was customary, if not a law, throughout the slave period to indemnify masters when

CHI FIGHTS BAN ON RESIDENTS WPA EMPLOYES 225,080, SAID

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4. (ANP)—A total of 225,080 colored workers were employed by the WPA during the last quarter of 1937, according to a report prepared for Administrator Harry L. Hopkins by Alfred Edgar Smith, administrative assistant. These workers constituted approximately 15.2 per cent of all persons employed by the WPA at this time. Mr. Smith's report states that one in every six WPA workers was a Negro. Approximately 152,000 of the colored workers were men and 73,080 were women.

The report commends the wide employment of Negro white-collar workers and supervisory personnel by the WPA, the decrease of juvenile delinquency as a result of the WPA recreational program and the general furtherance of improved race relations in the administration of the work-relief program. On the other hand, it points out that Negro workers are still the hardest to place in private industry, that mechanization of agriculture is adding to the complexity of the rural Negro's seasonal employment problems, that private industry is still foisting its "unemployable" Negro workers on the WPA, and that an increasingly large number of colored workers now have no other recourse than to unemployment relief.

RESTRICTION GROUP FORMED CHICAGO, March 4. (ANP)—Another neighborhood group, the Hyde Park Property Owners Association, has been formed to keep residents of the over-populated Negro district from expanding in the area between 51st and 55th streets, Cottage Grove and Lake Chicago, it was learned last week. This new organization is similar to other groups aided by the University of Chicago and helps present a solid wall against colored expansion eastward in Chicago.

BUSINESS PIONEERS OPEN DRY GOODS STORE AT LOCKEFIELD

THE BEAUTIFUL LOCKEFIELD GARDENS DRY GOODS STORE OWNED AND OPERATED BY NEGROES

The above reproduction shows the interior of the beautiful Lockefield Gardens Dry Goods Store which was opened to the public for business Wednesday, February 23, and which was received with much enthusiasm. Mrs. Emma Tribble Roberts and Mrs. Julia M. Campbell, who are co-owners have been receiving many compliments from the hundreds of visitors who inspected their merchandise and saw for themselves the high quality of their goods and the low reasonable prices and quality which can not be excelled any place in town.

This is the first store to be opened in the government project and is stocked with latest in fashions and designs in wearing apparel for men, women, and children. In addition to a well-stocked Notion Counter, the owners are sparing no effort and expense to give their customers anything they desire in that line and extend an invitation for inspection at any time. The Lockefield Garden tenants are especially urged to examine their merchandise before buying elsewhere and to take advantage of their unusual bargains.

Mrs. Tribble-Roberts has had wide experience in the business, having started the Tribble Dry Goods Store at 233 W. 21st street four years ago which is still running with a very lucrative clientele. This store was started with less than 200 square feet of floor space and through her ability as a close buyer and clean cut sales ability has increased the space capacity of the store to more than 1200 square feet in less than one year with employment of from three to five Negro women clerks.

Mrs. Julia M. Campbell, co-owner of the Lockefield Garden establishment, has had fifteen years of experience in this line and is widely known as an accomplished designer of ladies garments, corset-fitting, and alterations. She spent several years in California fashioning for some of the most exclusive and wealthy people in Los Angeles and Pasadena.

With the combined abilities of these two worthy women—the pioneers of Negro business—the stimulators of the Race's economic status—the Negroes of Indianapolis can't go wrong in giving them their whole-hearted support. Build Your Race When You Buy We need More Employment—we need more substantial enterprises. BE A BOOSTER!

Marie Downing BEAUTY AND ROMANCE SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godfrey Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving woman's natural beauty and to make the results of this research available to the public. The writer of the following column, Miss Naomi Walker of Wise, North Carolina, who is the third prize winner in my contest for letters on original beauty hints, strikes an interesting note. She puts beauty culture on the basis of artistic sculpture. You will be interested in what she says. In this great world of ours men and women are demanding answers to certain questions. To be beautiful is the challenge that every woman in America must face. Great wood and clay and molding it into something that is beautiful. We, too, can do the same for ourselves with little expense. A pauper can easily possess that "priceless pearl" called beauty as well as a millionaire. Every lady who desires to be beautiful should try controlling her voice. Try talking before a mirror or board and notice the sound of the voice. If it is harsh, change the tone because no lady is beautiful who is boisterous. Cultured, refined manners always add to the charm and beauty of a lady. We always consider the face, neck, nails, and hands first. Too many ladies sit before a mirror and spend hours daily preparing these things—unsuccessfully. The best way to acquire that lasting beauty is by selecting the creams, powders, lotions and polishes that blend with your complexion. It is useless to recommend any particular preparation because the one I recommend might not suit every case. Therefore you must first study the

On The AVEUNE

(JOE CARPENTER)

I arrived in Palm Beach, Sunday, and I think it is the most lovely place in Florida. Palm Beach is separated from West Palm Beach by Lake Worth and is only about a five-minute walk from West Palm Beach. Palm Beach is close to the ocean. Some of the richest families in America have winter homes here.

Out for a drive today we passed the homes of Joseph P. Kennedy, Atwater Kent, Otto Kahn, W. E. Hutton, E. R. Bradley and many others. There are lovely drives lined by big royal palms on both sides and the ocean drive that extends for miles. You would have to see Palm Beach to get the real picture of it.

The big motor boat races were held on the bay this week and what a sight to see,—boats traveling at the forty- and fifty-mile clip. Washington's birthday is generally considered the DAY of the season and many big affairs are given on that night. I attended the Washington ball at the lovely Sunset ballroom. The affair was largely attended as the proceeds were to be used for the colored hospital. The Dixie Rhythm Girls got off some clever swing hits for the big crowd.

As an added attraction, the Palm Beach trio played several numbers, after which Miss Billie McAllister stopped the show with her clever and most pleasing tap steps. The Chauffeurs are still coming and going. More news from the Avenue next week. Until then, I'll be seen 'til you.

PRAYER CHANGES THINGS
It matters not how great the trial That Satan around us fling, Mockery from which the world rebounds Critics that around us sing. It matters not how poor we are Or how few the friends that cling For we know that only through God Prayer Changes Things.

Prayer turns defeat into victory The hearts of men grown hard and cold Even depression has given way to prosperity The results of prayer manifold A meager existence that most of us Feel insufficient to carry on. Should bring us closer to the One Who, too, against trials has gone.

So when we fall into deep despair, Almost insensible to hunger's cruel sting May Jesus whisper this message of care— Prayer Changes Things —SPAULDING MILLS, 1303 West 25th Street

SUNNY, MIKE, AND DEWEY NOW SETTING PACE WITH MODELS

THE THREE GOBS, SUNNY, MIKE, DEWEY, ARE SETTING THE PACE WITH MODELS
By Ernest "Baby" Seals

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Irvin G. Miller's 1938 edition of Brown Skin Models played the Alhambra theatre, Philadelphia, Pa., for a two-day run February 25 and 26. The cast jumped directly into Brooklyn, N. Y., where they open a one-week's run starting Sunday, February 27, at Follies theatre. Following Brooklyn the Models have one split week in Pennsylvania after which the cast will move into good old Harlem for a one-week's run at the 125th Street Apollo. The Three Gobs, Sunny Austin, Mike Riley, and Dewey Brown, fit very nicely in the Models' cast with their comedy singing and dancing act. The trio comes to the Models direct from one of New York's hot spots where they just finished out a 16-weeks' contract.

Lovely Miss Blanche Thompson who was called home last week on account of the death of her father, returned to the cast in Providence in time to take her part in the show, which Louise Rudy was doing while she was away. Irene Cort, acrobatic tap dancer, has everyone taking notice to her act. She is wonderful and only 17. Yes, boys, her mother travels with with her. Oh, shoots!

JOHNNY HUGHINS, ACE COMEDIAN STARRING AT HILL GROVE COUNTRY CLUB
Johnny Hudgins, the one and only pantomiming comedian who has toured the U. S. A. from coast to coast also covered the foreign country with the biggest of the white shows. Mr. Hudgins has just finished a 15-weeks' contract at the Southland Nite club in Boston, Mass. Hudgins now holds a 16-weeks' contract for the Hill Grove Country Club, eight miles out of Providence, R. I., a beautiful country club that can take care of 1200 patrons with only one show nightly. Mr. Hudgins, the pantomiming comic and "wow-wow king," was well received by a huge crowd of night club lovers. Others that help make up a hot attraction is that lovely little Miss Doris Ruebottan, a lovely girl with a lovely voice. And How! "Not Bad." "Solid"—catch on? Slim and Eddie are a very clever comic dance team that gets over in a big way. These boys also do a nice bit of acrobatic stunts while dancing which helps to balance the bill just right. There is a chorus of ten hand-picked beauties who swing band. All in all, it's a hot revue.

Gossip of the Movie Lot

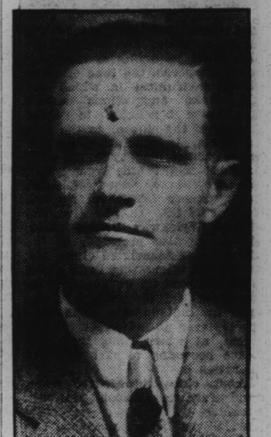

HOLLYWOOD, March 3. (By Harry Levette for ANP) — "The Is Tops" went into the cutting room last Sunday night after the final and most amusing scenes of the hilarious musical extravaganza which stars Ralph Cooper with Lena Horne and many talented supporting players had been filmed. You have never seen Lawrence Criner do comedy, having gotten used to watching "Dead-legs" Flint in "Kongo"; the deacon in "Alias the Deacon"; the gambler and murderer Bull Conners in "Life Goes On," etc. But you're going to crack your sides laughing when you see him as "Doc Doranda" itinerant quack doctor with his marvelous cure-all elixir.

"Jezebel" is ready for release here a week from now at Warner's Hill Street and Hollywood theatres. Many of the scores of colored players who worked in it are looking forward eagerly to its premiere. It proved a godsend to them by starting before the holidays and furnishing Christmas money to scores of them. A number of players and featured parts, including Theresa Harris and Lew Payton.

HOMER STONEBRAKER

Homer Stonebraker, chief deputy in the state excise department, drew much comment for his masterly handling of the Ren-Celtic basketball game at Butler Fieldhouse before more than 13,000 delighted fans. Chief Stonebraker, who has a fine word for his colored excise officers as well as for his hundreds of colored friends around and about Logansport as well as here, has much experience in basketball circles, having been an outstanding player himself some years ago. He had fine control of the situation and turned in a fine job of alert refereeing.

NEW YORK CIVIL RIGHTS BILL HAS STRONG TEETH

ALBANY, N. Y., March 4. (AP)—A new civil rights bill, one of a series drafted to carry out recommendations of a legislative committee which probed the conditions of urban New York Negroes, has been introduced in the state assembly by William T. Andrews, Harlem Democrat. This new bill, which has strong teeth for its enforcement, would revoke or suspend permits of places of amusements, resorts, night clubs, restaurants, etc., if found guilty of discriminating against any person or persons in the matter of equal accommodations. A new section is added to the civil rights law stating the policy to be followed in equal rights and outlining specific steps for the suspension or revocation of licenses of establishments which violate the Equal Rights act made a condition for the granting of such licenses. A companion bill is now before the senate committee.

RALSTON RUNS FOR AUDITOR ON CLERK RECORD

Glenn B. Ralston, Marion county clerk, the first man to be elected and who is completing his second term in that office, announced that he would seek the nomination as County Auditor on the Democratic ticket. "I am asking the voters of Marion county to support me for Auditor because of the record I have made as Clerk," Mr. Ralston said. "I stand on that record and believe that I am qualified to serve as Auditor."

Because of his duties as Clerk will keep him too busy during the primary to do so, Mr. Ralston declared that he would not be able to conduct an extensive personal campaign for the position. Suing successfully, his action compelled the county to provide adequate pay for the record voters in 1930 and 1934 he received more votes than any other candidate for county office in those elections.

A native of Marion county, the son of Boyd Ralston and nephew of former Governor Ralston, he was president of his senior law class at Indiana University. A former director of the Indianapolis Real Estate Board, Mr. Ralston is a member of the American Legion, the Hoosier Athletic club, and of the First Presbyterian church. He served as a member of the Army Tank Corps during the World War.
