Wallace had to be moved from Kansas City, Kans., to Kansas City, Mo., because local officials insist on segregation. Wallace does not speak before segregated groups, even in the South. The Rev. Archibald J. Carey responded to Ioueson.

Fraternal messages were brought by Bishop J. A. Hemlett from the Council of Negro Churches; the Rev. J. Edward McCorkle, Zion Church, and Rev. Laine C. Cleaves, Los Angeles, the C. M. E. Church. Response were made by Rev. Edward D. Williams, Milwaukee, Wis.; the Rev. Joseph Gomez, Cleveland, and the Rev. George N. Collins, Arkansas Conference.

One of the biggest items remaining on the agenda, now that the elections are over, is the location of bishops because of the new ruling passed that all bishops must be moved, the question of where each bishop will operate remains to be settled.

Other business conducted over the weekend included the reading of the report of the Episcopal Committee and a report by the late Rev. D. W. Witherspoon, first secretary of the Pension Fund, by Bishop D. Ward Nichols.

Proposed legislation that has not been acted upon and has only a slight chance to be passed includes several reforms.

One bill, introduced by Caswell W. Crows of the Fourth District, calls for the withholding of pay of bishops in force work except for time actually spent in such fields plus 90 days' furlough per annum. Another proposal to limit the time for presiding elders and ministers in a district is considered one that would bring up too much opposition for consideration.

Racial Relations Awards Granted by Church Federation

Mrs. Jessie Jacobs and Mrs. Geneva Towns were among 10 persons cited for work in bettering race relations in the city at the annual meeting of the Church Federation of Indianapolis last week in the Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church, 416 E. North st.

Mrs. Jacobs was honored for her leadership in the fight against segregated schools, and Mrs. Towns for her activity with the Council of Church Women.

The federation's Interracial Award was conferred on Rev. Richard Rettig, pastor of the Carrollton Avenue, Evangelical and Reformed Church. Rev. Rettig left the meeting in order to speak against segregated schools at a school board session then going on.

Miss Anna P. Stout presented the award to Rev. Rettig in token of his work as a pastor and as a citizen for better human relations.

Others cited for race relations activity were Joseph K. Shepard, Mrs. Royal McClain, Gilbert Forbes, H. J. "Joe" Pierson.

William J. Stout, Charles Posner, Chester W. Wharton, Dr. Howard J. Baumgartel.

Radio Station WFBM was given a special citation for the program "Let Us Forget — The American Dream."

METHODIST CHILDREN'S MEET HELD AT SIMPSON CHURCH

The first annual Methodist Children's Conference and Laboratory Session for the subdistrict was held at Simpson Methodist Church Saturday, May 15. The theme of the conference was "Our Living Church."

The conference was held with the purpose of acquainting teachers of the Vacation Church School with the problems facing them in the vacation school. The school is held during the summer months for children out of regular school on summer vacation.

The four local Methodist churches were represented by teachers and students. The teachers plan to have a Unified Vacation Bible School in all four churches. They also plan to cooperate with the Recorder in its "Go to Sunday School" campaign now in progress.

During the first session the children were grouped according to their age and grades in school and were taught various subjects accordingly. The beginners were coached on "Happy Times in Our Church"; primary pupils, "Learning About Our Church"; juniors, "Friends at Work" and the intermediate group, "Our Living Church." Special classes were taught in handicrafts, literature, and exhibits. Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, Indiana District Director of Children's Work, is the director of the Vacation School and was in charge of the conference. Rev. C. T. R. Nelson, executive secretary of the Lexington Conference Board of Education, was registrar.

Teachers present were Mrs. Wallace Scott, of Scott Methodist Church; Mrs. L. R. Simmons, Barnes Methodist, and Mrs. C. T. R. Nelson, Simpson Methodist. Assistants to the teachers were Mrs. Ester Nall and Miss Corine McGowan of Simpson and Mrs. Vera Malone, Miss K. Frances Polard, and Miss Christine Hayes, all of Barnes Methodist Church.

"master race" patrons.
If you know Head, you know he then stepped up and tried to purchase a ticket himself. After being refused, he asked for the manager.
"I still say that colored people don't come to this theater," were Manager James Morehouse's first words, according to Head.
"I see they don't," Head replied, looking around at the music student and his companion.
The round ended after the exchange of a few more well-chosen words.
Owner in Court
Next round will open next Thursday, May 27, at 2 p. m. in Municipal Court Room 3. Head is to appear as complaining witness against Mr. Cantor, 122 E. St. Joseph st., manager of the firm of Cantor Amusements which owns the Esquire.
Cantor is charged with violation of the Indiana Civil Rights Law in connection with the refusal to admit Head to the theater on May 1, for reasons of race. The case was continued by Judge Joseph M. Howard on May 13.
The case is said to be the first criminal prosecution under the Civil Rights act in the history of Marion county.
Similar charges against Morehouse were dismissed on May 10 when Head failed to appear in Court Room 3 promptly at 2 p. m. The NAACP secretary said police officers had told his wife he was to go to Municipal Court Room 4.
By the time he discovered the "error" and went to Court Room 3—about 2:20 p. m.—the case had been dismissed.

BUCK PASSED ON JIMCROW IN ARMED FORCES
WASHINGTON (ANP)—A shrewd game of "buck-passing" was witnessed here Saturday when the Department of Army and the Selective Service Board each attempted to blame the other for the policy of segregation practiced in the last war.
Testifying before a commission of inquiry at the YMCA, Col. Campbell Johnson, administrative assistant to the director of selective service, pointed out a clause in the Selective Service Act of 1940 which says that there will be no segregation because of race or color. The provisions of this act were followed in the selection of men, he declared. The segregation came in the delivery. This was due to the Army's request to deliver so many white men and so many colored men.
In reply to questions by members of the commission, Col. Johnson admitted that separate files were kept of white and colored selectees. The racial identity was determined by information provided on their draft cards. He claimed that writing one's nationality on a card is not a form of segregation.
James Evans, civilian aide to the Secretary of Army, on the other hand, cited examples where the Army a certain class of men who obviously colored, but who wore turbans and robes and insisted that they were not members of the colored race. This happened so often, according to Mr. Evans, that guards at the Pentagon were instructed to keep them out of the building.
The sale of "Don't Join a Jim Crow Army" buttons was launched in front of the White House Friday, where a picket line led by A. Phillip Randolph, Mr. Randolph's sign read, "If we must die for our country, let us die as free men, not as Jim Crow slaves."
The commission was composed of 19 Negro and white citizens who agreed to hear the sordid story of Army Jim Crow which will serve as a basis for recommendations pertaining to UMT and draft legislation which will be made to Congress.
Thurman L. Dodson, president of the National Bar Association, served as chairman of the commission. Other members were Kermit Eby, CIO educational director; Harold Gibbons, director, United Distribution Workers of St.

BUCK PASSED ON JIMCROW IN ARMED FORCES

WASHINGTON (ANP)—A shrewd game of "buck-passing" was witnessed here Saturday when the Department of Army and the Selective Service Board each attempted to blame the other for the policy of segregation practiced in the last war.
Testifying before a commission of inquiry at the YMCA, Col. Campbell Johnson, administrative assistant to the director of selective service, pointed out a clause in the Selective Service Act of 1940 which says that there will be no segregation because of race or color. The provisions of this act were followed in the selection of men, he declared. The segregation came in the delivery. This was due to the Army's request to deliver so many white men and so many colored men.
In reply to questions by members of the commission, Col. Johnson admitted that separate files were kept of white and colored selectees. The racial identity was determined by information provided on their draft cards. He claimed that writing one's nationality on a card is not a form of segregation.
James Evans, civilian aide to the Secretary of Army, on the other hand, cited examples where the Army a certain class of men who obviously colored, but who wore turbans and robes and insisted that they were not members of the colored race. This happened so often, according to Mr. Evans, that guards at the Pentagon were instructed to keep them out of the building.
The sale of "Don't Join a Jim Crow Army" buttons was launched in front of the White House Friday, where a picket line led by A. Phillip Randolph, Mr. Randolph's sign read, "If we must die for our country, let us die as free men, not as Jim Crow slaves."
The commission was composed of 19 Negro and white citizens who agreed to hear the sordid story of Army Jim Crow which will serve as a basis for recommendations pertaining to UMT and draft legislation which will be made to Congress.
Thurman L. Dodson, president of the National Bar Association, served as chairman of the commission. Other members were Kermit Eby, CIO educational director; Harold Gibbons, director, United Distribution Workers of St.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

This week's column will be another of those "hello — goodbye" affairs, chiefly because the writer almost pulled a "hello-goodbye" act Saturday night — "hello" to a car, and "goodbye" to dear old life. . . (I was in an automobile wreck, and miraculously escaped death) . . . Ah well, on with the news. If, along about the close of the Flanner House Guild tea Sunday afternoon there was a noticeable exodus of people, they were probably gone over to the library of Crispus Attucks high school, where the Book Lovers club celebrated its 25th anniversary with "guest day".

One hundred beautifully gown'd ladies enjoyed an interesting talk by Mrs. EUGENE PULLIAM on her travels in Europe. Mrs. CLARISSA COVINGTON sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss EMILY GARRETT. . . A social hour followed. . . A color scheme of silver and white was carried out in the decorations. Club members served punch from beautifully decorated tables. . . Mrs. CHARLES ASBURY is president of the club, which was organized in 1923 by Mrs. WILLIAM W. WALKER and the late Mrs. GRANT H. CLAY.

ELLIS J. DIGGS, who will receive his master's degree in physical education in June from Western Reserve university, Cleveland, spent last Friday with his mother, Mrs. CARRIE DIGGS. . . He was accompanied by a classmate, OWEN WALKER. . . Mrs. Diggs accompanied them to Louisville, where they spent the week-end with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. VIRGIL GILMORE. And now — good-bye!

MARRIAGES

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leaks, 136 So. Sheridan st., announce the marriage of their daughter, Lillian, to John H. Bacon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bacon, Sr., Cleveland, which took place Saturday night, May 8, in the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sears, 1108 So. Kenwood ave. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. Devashir, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist church, Anderson. Mrs. Carolyn Dabney was the bride's only attendant, while J. W. Spriggs, Chicago, was best man. A reception followed.

Mrs. Nettie Fox, 2444 Sheldon st., announces the wedding of her daughter, Helen, to Carl Anthony, son of Mrs. Mary Anthony, 2553 Sheldon st. The wedding will take place Sunday, May 23 at 11 in Allen Chapel A.M.E. church. A reception will follow in the home of the bride.

Hubbard Center Civic Club Meets

The Hubbard Center civic club met Monday evening of last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hart, 2859 Shriver ave. Plans were completed for sending a girl to the YWCA camp this summer. Plans were also made for a party for charter members of the club in July. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Hazel Manlove, 2841 Shriver ave., Monday June 14. Mrs. Jeannette Sims is president. Melvin Hayes, Chicago, former resident, was week-end guest of his sisters, Mrs. Malinda Johnson and Miss Katie Taylor. They also entertained their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Trowell, Louisville.

Douglass Center

By Mary Catherine Turner

A very large crowd attended the barn dance given last Monday night by the Re Bops, Betty Shields and Myrtle Montgomery, president and secretary of the club, were married to Francis Smith and Clarence Hibbit, respectively, in a double-wedding ceremony last week. A reception and shower in their honor was given at the center by the Re Bops. The couples received many gifts.

The banquet given by Sportsman club at the center was a huge success. Mayor Al Feeney was principal speaker.

A Mothers Day tea was given at the center by Trinity church Sunday afternoon. The girls completed the beautiful setting by being dressed in formal.

New members are being accepted weekly into the Re Bops club. All girls wishing to join may do so. No dues are charged, presence at the meetings being the only requisite. Meetings are held each Monday evening from 6:30 to 7:30. Dances start at 8. All club members get in free.

Girls and boys who come to the center regularly are asked to leave their names if they would like to attend baseball games at Victory field without charge.

Softball practice will be held every week-day for boys and girls wishing to play on teams.

The popularity contest sponsored by the Hedephones club for purchase of sweaters for the Re Bops is off to a good start. Who will be "queen"? Come to the center on Wednesday night, May 26, and you will see her. A dance with music by Laswell's orchestra, will follow the crowning. Make this a "must" on your calendar.

Parents are welcomed to the center at any time. Games and square dances are a feature of the entertainment for parents each Friday night.

WEST PARK View Notes

By Evelyn Kimble

Rev. F. Williams preached for the Sunday morning services. Residents of the community regret very much the loss sustained by the Garrett family in the death of Mrs. E. Garrett's father in Tennessee. Mrs. Garrett, accompanied by her children, Milton, Gertrude, and Carrie, motored to Tennessee for the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hadley were guests at Sunday morning services here.

The Lum and Abner club met April 22 in the home of Mrs. Marjorie Collins. The table setting consisted of "April Showers" decorations with the centerpiece of spring beauties. Place cards were tiny umbrellas. A very delicious buffet luncheon was served. Ruth Thompson reported this very lovely affair.

GET SPECIAL AWARD: These leaders of the 33-X guild of L. S. Ayres and company, Helen Keno, Glodine Reed, Bernice Jones, and Johnnie Simpson, discuss the program at the Flanner House Guild tea Sunday afternoon, where they received a special award for bringing in the largest number of patrons. It was estimated that over half the patrons for the tea were brought in by the energetic girl workers. Mrs. Jones is president of the 33-X guild.

Voice of the East Side

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

Sunday afternoon promises to mark one of the season's best anniversaries when the E. P. Coti missionary society observes its 33rd anniversary. The missionary and church, New Bethel Baptist, will also include an appreciation token for Mrs. Cordelia Watson, president.

Among those participating will be Mesdames Alberta Young, Parthena Crawford, L. Peters, Margaret Sparks, Adelaide Lillard, E. Woolie, Lena Jones, and Kathryn J. Wood, all representing various fields of missionary work.

Singing groups taking part will be the Metropolitan missionary chorus and the Good Samaritan singing group. Mrs. Nellie Cole will sing solos.

Mrs. Edna Martin, instructor for the Eastside center, will be principal speaker. Others appearing on program will be the pastor, Rev. George Baltimore, Nathan Watson, and James Bousley, and all groups of the E. P. Coti missionary society will be represented. The general public is invited. Your columnist will be master of ceremonies.

Well, time tells everything. For months and months I have been associated with our social editor, and not until last Sunday did I have the slightest idea that he was a master of music. Last Sunday I heard some of the sweetest music I have ever heard played by our own Richard C. Henderson at St. Philip's Episcopal church on North West street. I enjoyed every minute of the service, including the wonderful message delivered by Fr. J. C. Jones, vicar. I also had the pleasure of meeting one of my good friends with whom I had worked in various campaigns, Mrs. Sue Artis, and also Miss Hazel Alexander, who reminded me of school days when the west side used to play softball with the east side girls. I was living on the west side at that time. Don't ask how long ago that was.

Have you heard? The NAACP has been fortunate in securing the most significant play of the season and dramatic thunderbolt. "Deep Are the Roots". You must see it Saturday, June 5, in the C.A.H.S. auditorium. Wilson A. Head, a representative, says tickets are available at the Senate Avenue Y.M.C.A. and other localities which will be announced later. Remember the date, June 5.

The general public is asked to attend the "Mock Association" sponsored by the deacons board of Mt. Moriah Baptist church Sunday, Mrs. Rosa Lee Johnson is president, and Rev. E. T. Johnson, pastor.

The recital of Warren Elzy, tenor, was largely attended last Wednesday evening at New Bethel Baptist church under auspices of the senior choir. Mrs. Lucretia L. Love was accompanist.

The committee named to decorate the grave of the late Dr. N. A. Seymour includes Mrs. Lillian Williams, former church clerk, Frank Boyd, Sr., Ruby Jackson, William Moore, and Mrs. Mattie Simmons.

Mrs. Edna Bush, 2435 Yandes st., has returned from the General hospital after an operation.

A birthday party was given in honor of Mrs. Cecil Cross at 1634 Bellfontaine st. Saturday night. A lovely time was reported.

The work of the Eastside Baptist center located at 1519 Martin Dale ave., carried on by the All-Baptist Fellowship, is attracting attention from all denominations. Students of Mrs. Ellen T. Morin will participate in a benefit recital Friday at School 26 at 8 p. m. for the center. Rev. David C. Venable is president of the fellowship, and B. J. Jackson is financial chairman. The public is invited.

Miss Doris Ramey, 911 E. 15th st., is now employed at Reiner fur company each day from 5 to 9. A call will be appreciated.

A group of lady baseball fans will take a bus to Cincinnati Sunday, June 6 to see the famous Jackie Robinson play. The bus will be under direction of Mrs. Dorothy Terry, 2247 Columbia ave.

Over Two Thousand Attend Flanner House Guild Tea

More than 2000 friends and patrons of the Flanner House Guild tea Sunday afternoon.

The 29 organizations which decorated tables competed for awards as the most beautiful, most interpretative, and most unique. Judges were Mesdames Theodore Griffith, Roy Clithorne, and Perry O'Neal.

Awards for the most beautiful tables went to the Women's Improvement club, the P.T.A. of School No. 26, and the Marion county department of public welfare, with honorable mention going to the 33-X guild and Blockettes club.

Most unique tables were those of the Walker beauty school, Nursery Parents, and Young Professional Women's club. Honorable mention was achieved by the Lockefield beauty salon.

Judged the most interpretative tables were those of the Active Northside Girls, a children's table prepared by guild members, and Browns club, with the Independent Friends receiving honorable mention.

An award was made to members of the 33-X guild in recognition of the fact that their table brought the largest number of patrons to the tea. It was estimated that almost half of the patrons were obtained through the work of this one organization.

An outdoor program of singing and dancing under the direction of Mrs. Rose Thompson entertained the guests. Included on the program were the Metropolitan missionary chorus directed by Mrs. Mary High; Flanner House day nursery under direction of Miss Ora Lee Harvey; mixed choir of School No. 17, Mrs. Marietta Johnson; School No. 23, Mesdames Gertrude Hicks and Nettie Jones; Primary band of School No. 57, Miss Blanche Horner; St. John A.M.E. church Gospel Harmonizers, Mrs. Pearl Hill; Veterans' quartet, William Robinson; School No. 4, Miss Albertine Johnson; and Majorettes of School No. 42, Mrs. Irene Jones.

Mrs. Dorothy Whiteside, president of the guild, made an award to Shirley Board, who was chosen as symbol of the tea, and Mrs. Perry O'Neal made the presentations of the ribbon awards.

At the close of the tea Mrs. Nettie Ransom, general chairman, expressed her appreciation of the interest and support which the community had shown in this year's Flanner House Guild tea. She added that it was only through the co-operation of the guild members, assisting organizations, and the Flanner House staff that the tea was made possible.

Walker Beauty Students Hear Salesman, Attorney

DeWitt Hector, state salesman for the Walker products throughout Indiana, spoke to students of the Walker beauty school Thursday morning on "Competition in the Beauty Field."

Monday morning of this week the students heard Marjorie Perry, attorney and treasurer of the company, in a talk on "How to Succeed in Business."

The Walker beauty school won the first prize at the Flanner House guild tea Sunday afternoon for the most unique table. The table was decorated in the school colors, blue and white.

Hostesses were Mesdames Lena Martin and Cleo Barnett and Miss Hattie Dyeus.

It has been announced that models will show creations of the students of the school on the first Thursday of each month at 12:30 p. m. in the Walker Coffee Pot. Creations of operators in the Walker beauty shop will also be shown.

BRIDGE HOUR CLUB AWARDS GUESTS PRIZES

The Bridge Hour club met with Lois Benedict. Prizes were won by Antonia Coley, Isabelle Gilman and Inez Smith. Guest prize winners were Roberta Smith, Eric Barthe, Willette Sharpe, and Florence Bessy.

Plans were completed for participation in the Flanner House guild tea Sunday afternoon. Thelma Whittier, president, Minerva Jarvin attended the meeting at Flanner House Friday evening.

Friday To Mark YWCA's Seventh Annual Aquacade

The health education department of Phyllis Wheatley Branch YWCA will present its seventh annual aquacade on Friday, May 21, at 7:00 p. m.

"Aquabelles and Aquabeaus" will open the swimming exhibition with a demonstration of synchronized swimming, employing side and breast strokes, back crawl and American crawl, and combination strokes.

Advanced swimmers will participate in the specialty portion of the program which will include speed swimming and underwater racing. A demonstration of life-saving techniques, diving and figure swimming will complete the program.

The program features members of the girls' and co-ed swimming classes under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Ogelsby, acting director of health education at the branch.

Captains of the twenty districts organized for the annual membership drive of the YWCA are continuing their efforts to reach a one hundred percent goal for their districts. The membership goal for this year has been set at three thousand members.

District captains are: Miss Clara Bugman, Mrs. Ethel LaShea, Mrs. Helen Reeves, Mrs. Henrietta Bowling, Mrs. Cindy Ferguson and Mrs. Roberta Wiggins, representing districts one through five; Miss Willie Charles Stephens, Mesdames Candace Pinkston, Helen Clayton, Lottie Granberry, Olivia Rodman, Osma Spurlock, Consuelo Simpson, representing districts six through twelve. Mrs. Ada Thompson, Mrs. Lucille Crowe, Mrs. Nanette Mae Allen, Mrs. Nettie King, Mrs. Rachel Overby, Mrs. Mercedes Guest and Miss Beatrice Cruse are captains of districts thirteen through eighteen.

Represent Gaillard Unit At Auxiliary Conference

Four juniors, Maxine and Norma Stanley, Shirley Hamer, and Clara Scott, represented Gaillard Unit No. 107, American Legion auxiliary, in the delegation of over 250 attending the annual state junior auxiliary conference at the World War Memorial last Saturday.

The juniors were accompanied by the unit president, Mrs. Mary S. Battles, in place of the junior activities chairman, Mrs. Teresa Sanders, who was unable to attend.

Included in the exhibit of junior activities were poppy posters and hospital tray favors from Unit 107. After the morning session the group had luncheon at the Forty and Eight Chateau, followed by a tea at the Governor's Mansion, where they were received by the first lady of the state and shown through the mansion.

A committee of judges from the unit, including Mesdames Marie Overstreet, Ann Kennerly, Wilma Suter, Elizabeth Enix, and Jessie Cunningham, selected the poster made by Charles Thomas, fifth grade pupil at School 4, to be the one sent to the district contest.

Mrs. Elizabeth Green, Girls' State chairman for Unit 107, presented Miss Elinor Grissom, junior attending CAHS, as an outstanding student and talented choice to attend Hooster Girls' State in Bloomington the last part of June.

Mrs. Nebraska Horner, poppy chairman, requests members who have not contacted her to do so in preparation for the selling of poppies Saturday, May 29. Unit 107 will have poppy headquarters at the Senate Avenue YMCA that day.

B. F. M.—I am 22, married 5 years to a very sweet man of 25, loves me. We have a pretty little girl 2 months old. Our apartment rent has increased in price and we can't move as no one wants a baby in their home. Do you think we should buy a home of our own even though there may be a depression?

Ans.—Invest in a home - the monthly notes would not exceed the rent you are now paying and will have to continue paying in the future for a place to live. A home is a wonderful financial investment.

K.Y.—I married in 1945 but we did not stay together but 2 years. I gave my wife nearly everything that she wanted but she stayed out nights, ran around with a drinking crowd. I do not drink. Last month I met a sanctified lady and fell in love with her. I started treating her like a friend, giving her what she wanted and now she has somebody else. I want to know am I too free hearted or too quick to fall in love?

Ans.—Seemingly, you have the idea that all the ladies want is presents and plenty of spending money. That's not enough. They want a little love and romance along with these other nice things. You're trying to buy love - therefore, you can't hold a friend. Change your technique - be more romantic and spend less money.

G.M.C. — My wife is in the State Hospital for mental Ans.—Leave her there. The doctors have given you some encouragement but if you bring her home before she is well, it will be detrimental to her progress. It's a strain on you both but it is definitely to her advantage to stay and receive treatment.

D.C.L.—I have been out of service for two years but I can't seem to be satisfied. I am thinking seriously of joining the Army when I finish school in June. Give me some advice?

Ans.—Join the colors again - if you can't find your place outside of the Army. Many ex-G.I.s have returned to the service because they prefer it to the opportunities open to them as civilians.

B.T.—My husband and I have been apart 12 years. Five years after he left, I had not heard from him, so believing it was all over, I got my divorce. He came to see me before Christmas last and in February he returned and said he needs me. But he resents having to re-marry. I love him dearly. How can I bring about our re-marriage? To lose him again would be more than I could bear.

Ans.—Take him back on condition that he will re-marry you. For that is the only proof of his sincerity in wanting to make you a husband. If he objects - he doesn't love you. And you may as well face the music now before you get involved.

J. D.—Tell me how I can hold on to my money?

Ans.—The book "HOW TO KEEP YOUR MONEY AND ATTRACT GOOD LUCK" tells you better than I can. Send one dollar through this column for a copy of this wonderful book.

Shut-in Day To Be Observed

Shut-ins day will be observed Sunday, June 6, under sponsorship of the Shut-ins Day association, a national group which sponsors a "shut-ins" day on the first Sunday of each June.

Aim of the group is to have everyone visit at least two shut-ins on that day. Mrs. Ruth Cunningham, director of the Indiana branch, points out that greetings and messages are also appreciated by those who are shut in.

Warren Elzy Makes Debut Appearance At New Bethel

All's well that ends well" might well have been the subtitle for the debut recital Wednesday night of last week in New Bethel Baptist church of Warren Elzy, tenor student of Lucretia L. Love.

The tremendous contrast between the opening numbers and the closing numbers of that one recital are almost unbelievable. Mr. Elzy got off to a miserably poor start, caused, no doubt, by the fact that it was his first big appearance, and one could almost see his knees shaking.

By the second group he seemed to have gotten over most of his nervousness, and by the third group the audience was able to tell that he had a really lovely voice.

It is a small voice, approaching the lyricism of Roland Hayes much more than the heroics of Lauritz Melchior - and when it was treated as such it was a delight to the ear. Particularly in the humorous song "Duna" was this obvious. Whereas the ear was not too well treated in the rollicking "La Donna e Mobile" from Verdi's dramatic opera "Rigoletto", the sheer pleasure of hearing "Duna" compensated for it.

Again, on the quieter of the spirituals one was pleased by the beautiful quality of the student's voice. All singers do not possess this gift of being able to sing quiet numbers beautifully, so many of them having to depend upon dramatics, the ability to hit a high note, and tremendous chest power to put their songs over.

Mr. Elzy should feel fortunate to possess such a voice, for when a quiet, smooth voice is developed to its utmost it is a thing of much rarer and purer beauty than the dramatic voice. He might do well to develop it along the lyrical line, rather than ruin it trying for a dramaticism he doesn't possess.

His most noticeable faults are inadequate breathing and a tension in the nasal zones when he hits a high note. However, he is still a student, and I feel confident that his teacher, Mrs. Love, will work on these two defects, while, at the same time encouraging and strengthening the good points.

Although such observations are ordinarily not a part of a review of a recital, I cannot help but remark on Mr. Elzy's attitude toward music. It is a sad thing that so many, many students soon outgrow their pants and, call themselves artists, then go about town butchering up music and posing as musicians.

Far from being of this sort, Mr. Elzy is modest almost to a point of absurdity. He has that ability and desire to plod which makes a real artist if he has the necessary stuff in the first place. One of these days more of our local students will find this out, and we will hear some decent music.

Survivors include the husband, Nathaniel Madden; one son, Nathaniel Madden, Jr.; two daughters, Ernestine and Joyce Ann Madden; father, Marcellus Madden, Sr.; four sisters, the Misses Laberal, Grace D. and Marcus Madden, and Mrs. Josephine Palmer, and one brother, Marcellus Madden, Jr.

Funeral services for Mrs. Queen Madden, age 29, 2329 Oxford St., were to be held Friday, May 21, at the Greater St. John Baptist Church. Burial was to be in New Crown Cemetery.

Mrs. Madden died at her home Tuesday, May 18. She was a native of Hopkinsville, Ky., and had lived here 24 years. She was a member of the Greater St. John Baptist Church of which she was active as supervisor of young people Sunday school teacher, a member of the choir, missionary circle, tea society, and the trio singing group.

The Importance of the Sunday School in the Building of Character

By REV. M. A. TALLEY
Pastor of the Northside New Era Baptist Church

Of all of the institutions of our land none is more important in the development of sturdy character and moral armament against the multivex invasions of modern evil than the Sunday school. The Sunday school is the World Teaching agency of the church. This agency is positively imperative for the propagation of the ideals and doctrines of the church. Jesus must have captured them for life. The work in mind when He gave orders for His disciples to go into all the world and "teach whatsoever things I have commanded you."

We have done a fairly good job with the preaching commission, but a poor one with the teaching commission. Our commission is to reach every creature with Christ-like teaching. Think how short the Church is of its goal according to the command of Jesus. Think again how easy it is for the cult groups to attract members in large numbers from the so-called regular churches. Cults teach their religion. They make disciples. "As a people think so will a people." He who would win the world must capture the children. The Roman Church is teaching us some severe lessons concerning this truth. Let them teach your children from one to twelve, and they have captured the moral life. The most dominant ideals in most people's lives are those which were implanted during that plastic and docile period of early childhood. Being a great psychologist, Jesus knew the value of teaching religion and gave this great teaching commission to His disciples.

In religion "We are where our thought have brought us. As you think you travel; as you love you attract. You are today where your thoughts have brought you; you will be tomorrow where your thoughts take you. You cannot escape the result of your thoughts, but you can endure and learn, you can accept and be glad. You will always gravitate toward that which you secretly most love. In your hands will be placed the exact results of your thoughts; you will receive that which you earn; no more, no less."

"Whatever your present environment may be you will fall, remain or rise with your thoughts; your wisdom, your ideal. You will become as small as you constantly desire. As great as your dominant aspirations."—Allen. From Dr. Allan's philosophy, it is possible to remake a people by exchanging their thinking.

With these facts in mind and viewing the unprecedented trends of modern life to neutralize the vital standards of the Christian faith and observing vast departures from the basic teaching and ideals of Jesus for new ideologies and idolatries, The Indianapolis Recorder has undertaken to launch a vigorous GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL PROGRAM with the various churches and church schools of the city for the making of better citizens. Will the churches and church schools take advantage of this vast opportunity for the enlargement of Christian life in our community?

THE WAY OF LIFE, as outlined in the Scriptures, is being taught with conscious zeal and enthusiasm in many of the Sunday Schools of this city. Under the stimulus of the "Go To Sunday School" campaign instituted by The Indianapolis Recorder in cooperation with city church pastors, many new students are entering classes for religious instruction in the way citizens in a Christian community should live. Cameraman Thom Ervin, Recorder staff photographer, recorded on film these scenes of Sunday school classes in progress last Sunday. Upperleft—youngsters hear an interesting Bible story at the Triumph Holiness public. Hundreds of placards announcing the drive and lapel buttons identifying participants have been distributed by Edward C. Bailey, circulation manager, who is directing the technical phases of the campaign for The Recorder. Many of the 7,000 children of public grade and high school ages not now attending Sunday schools are expected to be secured not only as regular Sunday school students but future church members.

Presentations of the current Sunday school lesson are being given in this paper this week for juniors and seniors by Rev. Judge I. Saunders and Rev. William R. Hughley. A masterful exposition of the indispensable spiritual values of Christian principles in the lives of all citizens of good repute is presented by the scholarly Dr. Marshall A. Talley.

Pastors of other churches and denominations will also present discussion of lessons during the campaign. Civic, religious, political and educational leaders of the city have commended The Recorder for this effort to help mold the working principles of tomorrow's adults on a solid and elevating basis.

Churches (all of them Baptist) that joined in the drive during the past week, their pastors and Sunday school superintendents, are: St. John; Rev. A. J. Brown, Mrs. Leanna Black; Greater St. John; Rev. A. D. Banks, Mose Wardus; 17th Street; Rev. W. M. Edwards, Mrs. Alma McClemon.

Here is the list of churches, with names of their pastors and Sunday School superintendents, respectively, who are working in The Recorder's campaign:

Sunday School Lesson

By REV. JUDGE I. SAUNDERS
President, Baptist Ministerial Alliance of Indianapolis
Pastor, Shiloh Baptist Church
Subject: "The Temple in the Nation's Life"

Senior Topic: "Our Need of Public Church Worship."
Scriptures: Ezra 3:10-13; Psalm 84:1-2; Ezekiel 11:16, 37:26-28, ... 28.

This lesson gives a beautiful picture of what people will do when they return from captivity and are blessed to go back to their native land and re-establish themselves. They will not only look for their commercial benefits, but they will re-establish their religious services and faith in the Creator of all things. It is understood as a Christian nation, they will give God His (righteous) rightful place in their civilization.

"What They Will Do"

1. They will find pleasure in worshipping, kneeling before the Lord, our Maker.
2. They will set up altars and offer sacrifices of service for others.
3. They will keep the feasts and ordinances of their Master to prove their loyalty and obedience to His rule as their King Eternal.
4. They will not hesitate in contributing toward the rebuilding of the temple and the maintenance of an evangelical ministry which is essential to the welfare of the people and the propagating of the Kingdom of God that must live in the hearts of men.

"Foundation of Temple Laid"
And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the Lord, they set the priest in their apparel with trumpets. This must have been the joy and address of the people well-worn and crushed by those who hated them for ages past. Now to figure in the rebuilding of a nation whose ultimate outlook was to be with the presence of God, for God in the foundation of a people's life is their assurance for peace, prosperity, and protection.

God honors, loves, and defends with all power. As individuals we need Him to start with and we need Him to live with, and we need Him to die with. It is remarkable to notice the consideration the builders of the temple and religion in a nation's life, gave the priest, minister, in order of the temple which means, the minister was given authority and acknowledged as the primitive propagator of all the business concerning the on-going of the Kingdom of Righteousness. Acknowledging God first assures a definite guide, gives His presence and the beauty of a great people.

Motto Text: "David, the king of Ezekiel said, 'O come let us worship and bow down in humility, in love, in understanding, in confession of our errors, kneeling before the Lord, our Maker.'"

Summary: 1. The temple in the nation's life is to bring the beauty of God's presence, to help mold the highest ideals of culture and reality in a nation's life. For the church of God will never be annihilated because the pattern is new to all generations of our world. She is divine and the mysteries are never old. It is the joy of every believer to bow down and to worship at the altar.
2. Our songs, our prayers, our testimonies, our sermons, our lives should all be for God and our neighbors. For the temple, yes, the Church is to lift up Christ, the Man of God, who lived a perfect, Godly life. He is our example, by emulating the characteristics of His daily life we become heirs and joint heirs of the Father, the re-generator and Creator of His own.

We should not forsake assembling ourselves with each other and our God. For we are witnesses for Him in all the world.

By REV. WM. R. HUGHLEY
President, Union Baptist Alliance, Pastor, Westwood Baptist Church
"The Temple in the Nation's Life"

Senior Topic: "Our Need for Public Worship"

What exaltation and rejoicing there must have been when the young and old witnessed the restoration of the former glory of Israel. The young were filled with anticipation, while the old were shaken with memories of the past grandeur and deep solemnity that once surrounded Israel's most precious heritage. For, in truth, the joy of the whole earth is Mt. Zion. The awful vicissitudes of Babylon had been to them a fiery furnace which had melted and molded their spiritual lives into the living likeness of the moral nature of Him who had designed and executed His purpose in their triumphal return to the Land of Promise. Hidden within defeat there is a single victory, and with true Christian courage we can smile through our tears while hope springs eternal for the good is bettered by the ill, as the rose that is crushed is sweeter still.
The people held public worship because their downfall was a public one and all the nations around them were witnesses to their humiliation. Many scoffed at them and charged their God with having deserted them. What seemingly is desertion upon God's part is really reversion upon Man's part. Public worship serves notice to our enemies that He who has chastened us has now healed us, and that the rod of affliction was nothing but the rod of love.

Furthermore, it is an invitation to others to seek and accept Him by whose stripes we are healed, and a public acknowledgment from above that we are the legitimate sons of God. For if we be without chastisement, then we are not sons. As the voice of the false leader among bees is drowned out by the beating of the kettle, so, through public worship are the sinister cries of the enemies of the church lulled into silence, and the articulate voice of Christ, the Good Shepherd, rises in majestic splendor, wafted upon the zephyrs of the breeze to the loftiest top, while angelic hosts join in the refrain as earth crowns Him King and Lord of Lords.

The secular is not secure without the spiritual nor is the nation safe without the Church. Christ said, "Upon this rock I build my Church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Segregation in the Methodist Church Is Topic at Simpson

The century-old, but still highly provocative question, "The Negro in the Methodist Church," will be discussed at an open forum at Simpson Methodist Church, Sunday evening, May 23, at 6 o'clock. The group of speakers who will present both sides of the subject which deals with discrimination and segregation in the denomination include: Mesdames Jessie K. Jacobs, Evaline Jones, and Artie Wallace, and Bertrand Gardner, and John Patton.
William R. Hill, chairman of the meeting, urges the public and church members to attend. "There has been a great deal of confusion about the Negro's place in the Methodist Church and his segregation presided over exclusively by Negro bishops. Come out and get a clear understanding of the problem," Mr. Hill urges.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Hey kids! You will note a new teen-agers' column in this week's paper. It's sort of an advice column. . . You know, what to do on certain occasions, and so forth. . . Doris Franklin, popular student up at old CAHS, will write the column, which will be entirely constructive. . .

All your suggestions and questions will be appreciated and attended to. . . It will take a little encouragement to make it really go, so come on, let's give Doris a break! . . .

The kids of the southside complain that we neglect them a little, so how's this line of news, southsiders? Why doesn't Rosemary Shifflet tell some one whom she really goes with? Is it Melvin Foxe or Harry Dunn? . . . What's the deal between Norma Morris and George Boyde? From what I hear, it seems to be great. . . Why does Phillips Bivens hang around Harlan street so much nowadays? I guess it's to see Betty Noel. If he doesn't know it already, we tell him that from what we hear she seems to care with all her heart. . .

Why doesn't Loretta Franklin keep still sometimes, and quit acting like she has the jumps. . . Why doesn't Donald Graves get his chicks straight? Which ones are in his life, Margaret Blaine, Harriet Webster, or the Crenshaw girls? . . . See Ronald Taylor and Annetta Walton are doing great these days. . . What's the deal between Larry Morris and O-dreatha? It seems to be great. . . Jimmy Poindexter "Guff" sure is looking fine these days. Who's the lucky chick? . . .

By the way, to the young lady who complained because a teacher asked her why so many boys were running in and out of her house. . . Don't you think the teacher may have been trying to be your friend? . . . A lot of time we teenagers get peeved when older people try to give us advice. . . Maybe it would pay to listen sometimes. . . I wonder who John "Jack" Offutt will pick up on since his chick left town? . . . Virginia Cloyd and James Hill seem to be doing great these days. . . I see he was planning to take her to the junior prom. . .

What's the deal between Mills Turner and Geneva Bell? It seems to be pretty good. . . Betty Beeler has apparently taken Maurice Cross completely out of Josephine Brown's life. Good work, Betty. If you can keep it up. . . Marcia Williams seems to have hooked Aubrey Bacon. I hear wedding bells ringing. . . What's the deal between Edmonia Smithens and Ralph Davenport? . . . I wonder what Sharon Enix is up to now? . . . How does it stand between Charles Moss and Jane Carter these days? . . . Says, what happened between Peggy Cobb and Aubrey Perry. It seems they can't get along since Peggy don't make up her mind. . . What's to it with LaVon Drake and Dorothy Collier, and where does Joan Smithen come in? I wonder. . .

Opal Pope and Virginia Thurman seem to be making all the latest jumps. What's to it, girls. . . Donald Hill and Jean Johnson are going for each other in a big way. They looked cute together in the show last Sunday. What a great couple! Keep it up, kids. . . I wonder why Marilyn Altan thinks she can get to Jerry Hunter when two other chicks are vying for first place. Somebody had better play on out, there's no room for all three. . .

Leanne Williams is reported to be making a play for Charles Hess. . . I wonder why a girl like Edna Woods so, when Katherine Miller seems to have the deal sewed up. . . I notice Alene Phelps is trying to play the cool role, but the cool role is so hard to play in this case, since Robt. Coleman is now interested in a northside chick. . . Morris Woods is playing Mary Williams, now that Kathryn Johnson and Bunny Vincent have put him down. . .

Renell Williams and Early Woods are on the gone chick since they have their two chicks now. . . Why do all the fellows go into a daze when they see Icky and Jean Johnson dance together? . . . What's the deal between Delores Ackles and Leslie Legg. . . Is it a fact that certain people are trying to take advantage of Dorothy Jones and Robert "Robbie" Jones's friendship? . . .

Wilma Dorsey looks as if she is really lost in the night without a certain friend. . . We hear wedding bells are to ring soon for Lorraine Westmoreland and Willie "Play Boy" Ackles. . . Where are Willie Clark and Martha Smith these days? He sure was having his fun at the show one Saturday not so far back. . . Who is Bernice Skaggs's new flame? . . .

TEEN TIPS

By DORIS FRANKLIN

You got a bid to the prom with the B.G.A.S. (big guy about school), and everything is moving along smoothly. You're simply having the time of your life, until it all over and the question arrives "What to do now?" . . .

No parties to attend? And your date suggests your house? Well, unless your parents are very definitely awake, veto that suggestion, but quick. Your house is no place for your escort after the dance, while the parents are abed and the lights are low. What'll the neighbors think? . . .

Of course, the perfect thing is a breakfast party at some classmate's house, properly chaperoned by adults, and with the whole gang there. It's really more fun any way, don't you think?

Bus-A-Minute Express Awaits Speedway Fans

Special "One-A-Minute" express bus service again will carry thousands of race fans to the 500-Mile classic at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Monday, May 31.

Speedy non-stop trips have been scheduled by Indianapolis Railways over a special route direct from downtown to the huge oval in Speedway City. As has been the case the last two years, large buses will leave the Traction Terminal Bus Station every minute starting at 5 a. m. and continuing until after the start of the race.

Fans will arrive at the main gate 20 minutes after leaving the Terminal. Passengers will unload at the southwest corner of the Speedway, which has been set aside for use of pedestrian traffic.

Return service also has been arranged from the Speedway to the downtown area at the conclusion of the race.

Many local and out-of-town fans who recall previous traffic tie-ups are planning to avail themselves of the speedy, 20-minute trip to the scene of the world's greatest auto speed classic.

AMEZ CONFAB ELECTS THREE NEW BISHOPS

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Dr. Raymond L. Jones, pastor of Broadway Temple A. M. E. Zion Church and host to the 33rd Quadrennial session of the General Conference was elected Saturday morning as the second bishop of three elected at this conference.

Dr. James C. Taylor, pastor of New Jersey was the first elected on Thursday night after three ballots had been taken. There were more than 50 candidates for the elevated position.

Dr. H. T. Medford, Washington, D. C., secretary of Foreign Missions for 20 years, was the third and last bishop elected.

After the election of Dr. Jones, Dr. J. N. S. Tross having received the third largest number of votes on that ballot made a motion that the rules be suspended, and that Dr. Medford be elected unanimously. The motion carried and Dr. Medford became a bishop.

Bishop-elect Taylor was born in Cambridge, Mass., a product of Bates College, Chicago Theological Seminary. He has pastored some of the leading churches in the connection and has been pastoring in Paterson, N. J., for 12 years. He is married to the former Mrs. Anne Page, Goldsboro, N. C.

Dr. Raymond L. Jones, was born in Chattanooga, Tenn., and is a product of Livingstone College, Hood Seminary. He has pastored in North Carolina, Kentucky, and Washington, D. C.

His work as foreign missions secretary has been outstanding. He is married and the father of two sons and a daughter. Aside from being a great churchman, he has been very active in the civic life of the nation's capital and a very successful business man.

MRS. DUVALLE DAVIS DESCRIBES TRIP FROM EUROPE TO AFRICA

(Editor's Note—Mrs. Emma DuValle Davis, writer of the letter printed herewith, and her husband, Rev. George L. Davis, pastor of the Nazarene Baptist Church, Philadelphia, where they live, left this country a year ago to visit her son, Cecil DuValle, in Germany. Mrs. DuValle Davis is well known in Indianapolis where she lived for many years during which she served for a long time as superintendent of the defunct Colored Orphans Home at 25th street and Keystone avenue.)

(Concluded from last week)

After spending the day on board the ship at Alexandria, we left for Port Said, Egypt, from which, after customary loading and unloading of freight and passengers, we took off on a seven-day journey to Jeddah, Arabia, via the famous Suez Canal and across the Red Sea, whose turbulent waters Moses had parted centuries ago for the safe passage of the Children of Israel.

Jeddah is the seaport to which the Mohammedans journey once a year on their way to Mecca, where they pay traditional homage at the grave of the great Moslem leader. Authorities at this Arabian port also refused us permission to go ashore. We were told the city was very dirty, and that some Americans lived there who were interested in the development of rich oil fields opened up in the vicinity.

The ship to which we had transferred back at Port Said was a forbidding looking freighter which we were compelled to take because of a strike among the seamen at the Egyptian port. Although it appeared ready to turn over any minute we reluctantly accepted assurances it was safe. Our cabins were small, each with a trough-like bed built to accommodate only one, although two passengers were assigned to each if the widest stretch of conventions permitted.

When we had time to look around we discovered there were on board hundreds of barrels of oil, many bales of tobacco, large bundles of brooms, hundreds of drums of vaseline and many things on their way to Arabia and Africa.

We did not regret our trip on this freighter which has taken us down the Suez Canal to Suez City, to Jeddah, and now, on the first day of April on our way to Aden, Arabia, after four days and three nights at sea.

When we reach Jibuti, Africa, we shall have crossed the Red Sea three times. Before leaving Jeddah we had a chance to see some half-civilized people the Africans called "Fuzzy-Wuzzies" because of their long hair matted down with animal fat. They unloaded and loaded the ship, the ragged clothing which they never change clung.

MRS. EMMA DUVALLE DAVIS

ing to them like scarecrows. They are not known ever to bathe.

At Jeddah we also saw a small African girl, a nurse, who had been bought by a Greek merchant. We also heard that under this virtual system of human slavery, African men can be bought here for approximately $80 in American money.

We left Jeddah March the 30th, making many stops before reaching Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The Reverend and myself found the trip very interesting and filled with many wonderful experiences. My son, Cecil, stood the trip as well as any of us. On board ship were many Mohammedans bound for Aden where they operate stores. They pray four times each day, washing their faces, hands and feet from the urn that looks like a teapot before spreading their prayer-mat on deck in preparation of 15 minutes of bowing each period of prayer. They seem more dutiful in matters of worship than most of us aboard.

We have seen men belonging to different tribes with their cheeks marked. One tribe, the Dinkas, display three straight lines running about three inches across their faces. Another, the Shankia, distinguish themselves with three horizontal lines, while the Mahas sport an "H." Some of these people, judged on Western standards, would be very good-looking, but for their disfigurements.

Many more strange sights await us, we are assured as we journey along the coast and into the interior of the Dark Continent, Africa.

NAACP Head Ousted By Postal Office on Disloyalty Charge

By GRACE E. SIMONS

LOS ANGELES (ANP)—The NAACP this week branded charges against Frank H. Barnes, president of the Santa Monica branch, "absolutely unfounded," and expressed its determination to fight for his vindication and reinstatement in his job in the Santa Monica post office.

Barnes, who has spearheaded the fight for jobs for Negroes at the Sears, Roebuck and Co. store in Santa Monica and who has repeatedly led the picket line in front of the store, on May 3 was suspended from his job, which he has held for six years, on the vague grounds of "disloyalty."

Atty. Loren Miller, head of the association's West Coast legal department, said that on Tuesday he received a telegram from Walter White, NAACP executive secretary, officially authorizing him to file an answer to the charges and to defend Barnes.

"Our review of the evidence," said Miller, "convincing us that the charges are absolutely unfounded. We regret the use of the loyalty order in this connection as an unwarranted intervention of the federal government in a community dispute revolving around the legitimate demand of Negroes for employment on the basis of merit and not of color."

Nebr. Educator Will Speak for Fisk U. Commencement

Bishop Matthews Makes Appeal on Ousting AMEZ's

By ALEXANDER BARNES

LOUISVILLE — Bishop William Walter Matthews who was retired this week by the 33rd Quadrennial Session of the General Conference of the A. M. E. Zion Church fled vehemently with the General Conference, to avert the sentence so as to enable him to be a retired bishop without restrictions.

He petitioned the General Conference that as an act of fairness and justice that count number one be disregarded. This count charged him with defacing or effacing a passport which was used as the basis to keep him in office at the 1944 General Conference. He furnished that he at no time changed or altered the said passport and that when it left his possession there was no alteration or change.

He told the General Conference that the number two count in which he was charged with immoral practice and unbecoming conduct for bishops, same being interpreted association with a woman in a questionable way. He alleged that at no time had he conducted himself improperly in open or in secret with said woman and challenged any person to present evidence substantiating any improper relationship.

The second count also contained a charge of him having married a woman who had not obtained divorce according to scriptural grounds. He stated that he married the woman in the belief that she was free and unencumbered having been instructed by a lawyer she was free.

He felt that the charges not only defamed or maligned his character, reputation, and standing, but that his present wife the former Miss Etoria G. Dryver is the subject of much ridicule, scorn and disfavor of her associates and friends.

Sen. Taylor Faces Ban by Okla. City On Jimcrow Issue

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—The local municipal auditorium was not available for a speech by U. S. Senator Glen Taylor because the city refused to allow the meet or speech without segregation. C. B. Baldwin, manager of the Wallace for President campaign, in a telegram to Mayor Allen Street and City Manager William Gill said that the National Wallace for President Committee was "serving notice that the voters of your city, both Negro and white, will be afforded the opportunity to hear our cause at an unsegregated meeting at a later date."

Baldwin's telegram to the city officials said "we will take whatever action is necessary to enforce the constitutional right of free assembly in your city."

Senator Taylor's appearance was cancelled because of the irreconcilable policy of Henry Wallace and Senator Taylor not to speak before segregated audiences," Baldwin said.

Dept. of Justice May Probe Arrest of U. S. Senator in Ala.

BIRMINGHAM (ANP)—The United States Department of Justice will investigate the arrest of Sen. Glen Taylor here May 1, Col. John D. Hill, U. S. district attorney, revealed this week.

His office and the FBI along with the Justice Department's Civil Rights Section will probe the circumstances of the arresting of the vice presidential candidate on the Henry A. Wallace ticket.

Center of the investigation will be to determine whether Senator Taylor's arrest violated him of rights guaranteed by the Constitution—freedom of speech and freedom of assembly. Officials will also be studying complaints of delegates to the Southern Negro Youth Congress that they were intimidated.

The man who ordered local police officers to enforce segregation at the SYNC Conference, Safety Comr. Eugene "Bull" Connor, could not be reached for comment.

Senator Taylor, fined $50 and given six months' suspended sentence and 14 masters of art degrees are scheduled to be awarded at the graduation. Following the senior class day activities in the afternoon of May 29, the annual regatta of the music department will be held in the chapel. The annual Cravath Memorial Service will be conducted May 30 at the National Cemetery with President Charles S. Johnson as principal speaker.

UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND FEATURES HOWARD U. CHOIR MAY 22

The famed Howard University Choir participates in a special CBS broadcast supporting the 1948 campaign of the United Negro college fund, Saturday, May 22 (CBS, 4:00-4:30 P. M., EDTST. From W. TOP, Washington, D. C.)

Thomas D'Arcy Brophy, Chairman of the Publicity Committee of the United Negro College Fund, Inc., and President of the advertising agency, Kenyon and Eckhardt, will speak from New York on behalf of the Fund's current activities.

The Choir is under the direction of Warner Lawson, Dean of the Music Department of Howard University, which is one of the members and beneficiaries of the Fund. The program will comprise the following chorale selections: "I Believe In One God" by Tschaiakovsky, "Salvation Is Created" by Tschaiakoff, "Ave Maria" by Rachmaninoff, "Madame Jeanette" arranged by Alan Murray, the traditional mountain dance song "Cindy" arranged by Robert Wilson, and "Yonder Yonder", a Russian folk song.

INSPIRATION FOR YOUTHS NOT AT A. M. E. MEET

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (ANP)—It is well that congregations at home and especially the youth, fast being lost to the Catholics and other Protestant denominations, cannot see the tactics of some of their "men of God" here at the 33rd Quadrennial session of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

For the youth no program has yet, nor apparently will be considered by the body.

In all events this was the picture at the end of the fifth day: 1. Only two pieces of constructive work, (a) removal of bishops' relatives from the Episcopal Committee, and (b) a law that an overhead budget will be made for the Connection, and it will be illegal for bishops to levy additional assessments.

2. Eleven hours were lost in filibustering with conduct by delegates that would shame gangsters. There are men and women of refinement in the assemblage but they cannot get a hearing. Men with the loudest mouths are in control.

3. Six days only remain until the lease expires. During this time all legislation must be enacted, committee reports and general officers' reports must be made, fraternal addresses must come from sister denominations, and finally general officers must be elected and bishops must be consecrated.

Other activities of the conference were: The Rev. John A. Alexander, Indianapolis, of the Fourth District, was chosen chairman of the Episcopal Committee; the Rev. O. Sherman of the 12th District, vice chairman, and the Rev. R. W. Mance, Seventh, secretary.

Efforts of Rev. George Sims to regain his place as secretary of the General Conference were crushed by an overwhelming vote. The Rev. Russell S. Brown, chosen at the special session of Little Rock, was retained.

tence for trying to enter the "colored" entrance to the SYNC conference, has served notice of appeal.

MODERN WOMEN SEEK 2-WAY HELP LIKE THIS

What to do for woman's oldest problem, functional monthly pain? Many a girl and woman has found the answer in CARDU's 2-way help. You see, CARDU may make things lots easier for you in either of two ways: (1) started 3 days before "your time" and taken as directed on the label, it should help relieve functional periodic pain; (2) taken throughout the month like a tonic, it should improve your appetite, aid digestion, and thus help build up resistance for the trying days to come. NOW IS THE TIME TO END SEGREGATED SCHOOLS

Funny thing—no member of the Indianapolis School Board uttered a single argument in favor of segregated schools at the "lively" public hearing last week.

We hope this indicates the new Commissioners do not hold to the standpat views of their predecessors on the question.

To any such fair-minded board members, we address a word of warning: Don't put it off!

This is the year, we are convinced, to end the undemocratic and outmoded system of segregated schools. And this is the time of year—with all summer to prepare for the change. That's the way it was done in Gary.

We understand the matter is to be carried before the plat-form-makers of the political parties next month, as well as into the courts. The best solution all around would be for the Indianapolis board to take its own action. And—now is the hour.

PREJUDICE, A MENTAL AILMENT

Speaking recently in New York the eminent psychiatrist, Dr. Julius Schreiber, director of the National Institute of Social Relations asserted that prejudice not only menaces the "mental health" of the biased-minded person, but corrodes the entire framework of democracy.

Dr. Schreiber served as Chief of the Program Section of the War Department's Army Orientation Branch during the war with the rank of lieutenant colonel. In his speech he emphasized the importance of work on the community level to combat prejudice. Also he outlined a seven-point program to curb intolerance.

The program included research, education, legislation, action against rabble-rousers, changes in community patterns, joint participation of various groups in discussions and concerted action on social issues. We note that such a program would knock abruptly the feet from under influences or groups which have profited through the perpetuation of all manners of bigotry, intolerance and unjustifiable theories of superior or inferior peoples. And through the ages, or up to now, such influences or groups have been able to maintain confusion in the mass mind.

Dr. Schreiber defines prejudice as "an emotional blind spot," opinion or attitude which is actually, a conclusion formed without carefully examining the facts, an idea uncritically accepted or not measuring up to reality."

This is the whole long story of the failure of social justice in all promising organized societies of human beings. The "emotional blind spot" in individuals or groups through the ranges of masses in all organized societies and through all the ages accounts for too much of "man's injustice to man." And ignorance of real facts or compelling responses generally to outmoded traditions have motivated the mass mind in all areas and all times.

However in borrowing from observations of Thomas Jefferson, outstanding founder of our Republic, "it takes time to make men see what is for their own good." But finally in the fast-changing small world of today and tomorrow there is grave danger in sustaining outmoded traditions (in substance mental ill-health) an overall threat eventually to rights of any or all men and a danger to our whole democratic theory of life.

HALT THE MUNDT BILL!

Since we editorialized last week against the Mundt "Police State" Bill, developments have confirmed our view that it is the most dangerous measure to come before Congress in modern times.

The House of Representatives passed the bill and sent it on to the Senate, demonstrating that it is not a mere gesture. Powerful forces are determined to enact this "thought control" bill into law.

The national NAACP as well as the national CIO and other groups called for the bill's defeat. The NAACP statement pointed out that the NAACP itself might be OUTLAWED, if the bill should pass.

Don't let anyone kid you that this is merely a bill to "bring the Communists into the open." Actually it would outlaw any group disliked by Rankin, Mundt and their fascist friends.

You should write to Senators Capehart and Jenner at once, urging them to oppose the Mundt Bill.

CONGRESS MUST DELIVER ON CIVIL RIGHTS

We wish to point out to our readers that an alarming and somewhat peculiar situation has arisen in Congress, in respect to the civil rights program we have heard so much about during the past year.

Many people have listened to so much oratory on the subject that they believe some progress is being made. Such however, is not the case.

With the adjournment of Congress only four weeks away—June 19 is the projected date—neither President Truman nor the Republicans have taken action to assure passage of anti-lynching, anti-poll tax and FEPC bills. And it is only through passage of these three measures that the major part of the civil rights program can be enacted into law.

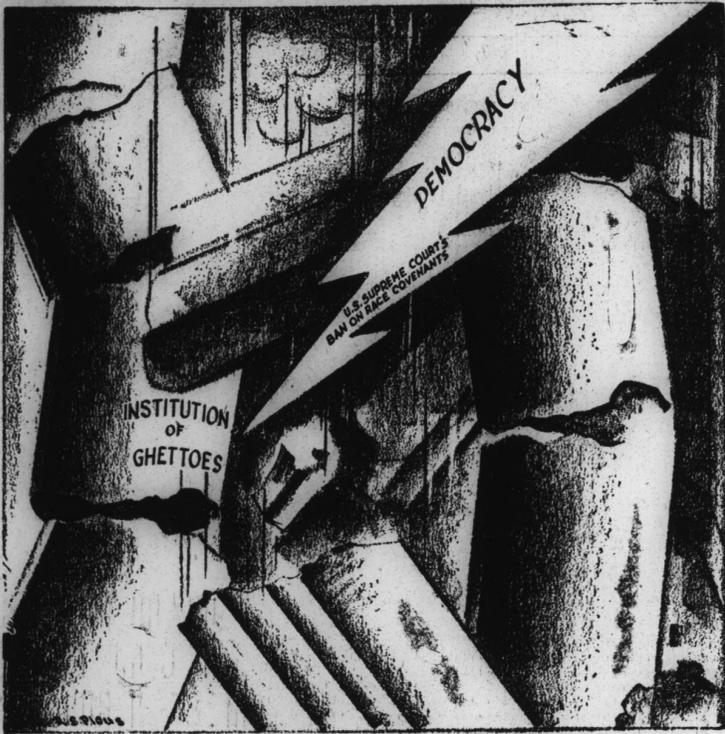

Senator Taft, the majority leader in the Senate, issued a list of 10 "must" bills which he said Congress should pass in the time remaining. The anti-poll tax and FEPC bills were not on the list, while the anti-lynching bill was No. 10.

This indicates a purely political gesture late in the session, when the Republicans will "try" to pass the anti-lynching measure in order to embarrass the Southern Democrats. The customary filibuster will follow, and the Republicans will eventually "yield." Then they will go out and tell Negro voters what they "tried" to do, and what bad fellows the Democrats are.

Is this what the famed civil rights program has dwindled down to? Why does President Truman not have a word to say, if he is a "civil rights champion"? What about the Republican Presidential candidates—have they all been giving mere lip-service to civil rights?

Leaders of the NAACP, National Committee for a Permanent FEPC and other organizations have a heavy responsibility during the remaining weeks of Congress. It is up to them to battle as never before, to demand that Congress stand and deliver on civil rights legislation.

There is no business before the nation's lawmakers, either on or off Senator Taft's "must list, that should be given priority over the civil rights program. Obstructive tactics of Southern Democrats, abetted by reactionary Republicans, must be met and defeated before June 19. It is a matter of life and death for American democracy.

PRIVATE NEGRO COLLEGES AT THE CROSSROADS

It is fervently to be hoped that the presidents of the participating colleges of the United Negro College fund were not high-pressured by the high-ups as has been recently alleged. It is further hoped that our educators did not attempt to cover as has been intimated.

Even the casual student of interracial affairs knows how easily Negroes who try to cooperate with whites are suspected and this is what drives a large sector of Negro thought to minimize and disparage all interracial efforts. These Negroes cast suspicion upon all interracial efforts except their own. It becomes all the more understandable that certain moral stamina and convictions are necessary when dealing with a matter as vital as that of the establishment of regional schools for Negroes of graduate aspirations.

Even more regrettable than an attempt to high-pressure the Negro college presidents would be their failure to "come clean" on the matter. If the regional school is established for Negroes in is established for Negroes in spite of their opposition, nobody will blame the Negroes just as no intelligent person blames Southern Negroes for living in a segregated economy. When segregation is forced upon one against one's will and efforts it is no disgrace to those who are its victims.

Segregation becomes a reproach to Negroes only when they accept it without protest and resentment, either inner or outer. From the very beginning of the regional school talk this column has strenuously objected to the plan and its implications. But there are times when an educator must have convictions and act upon these and that such times may coincide with another United Negro College Fund drive need not make much difference.

Some years ago efforts were made to launch among white friends a financial campaign, in Richmond, during the presidency of Dr. William John Clark. The organization had been perfected and workers had been assigned their several duties and the kick-off was impending, when of a sudden we are reliably informed, one of the workers arose in the meeting and interrogated President Clark thus: "Dr. Clark, do you believe in segregation?" Whereupon President Clark replied sharply in the negative. He was on the spot, where he might have talked a bit without saying anything, until he got himself together. But he spoke what was in his heart and would not back down.

The campaign did not materialize but through the years I have admired the man and his courage. Virginia Union missed some money but it gained what is even more important, a certain self respect. After the aforementioned incident, President Clark's financial way was hard and so was Virginia Union's but its head is still above water. Better a thousand times not to have a United College Fund than to have it at the expense of a race's pride and manhood. Before me lies a statement made by the representatives of the land-grant colleges before the Senate committee. They met the issue squarely and left no doubts in the mind of the committee where they stood on the regional school plan. If the land-grant college presidents who must serve at the will of Southern whites can speak up there is no reason why the presidents of the private colleges cannot take their stand, come what may. The regional school may be forced upon the Negroes, but it certainly will not be the fault of the presidents of the land-grant colleges.

This whole matter of accepting or declining the regional set up brings into sharp focus the question of how much will

Negroes invest in their opposition to segregation. Perhaps, after all, if we supported more adequately our private colleges out of our own funds, our college presidents would have less reason to quail before the challenge such as was allegedly thrown to them recently in New York. Booker T. Washington saw clearly 50 years ago that "back talk" without something to back it up amounts to little more than sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal.

The Negro private colleges at the cross-roads and if we are in dead earnest about relief from segregation and the burdens thereof, we must make up our minds to pay our way. The "Richard Allenization" of the race is imperative! Let's go all out in support of the United Negro College Fund campaign.

ANTI-RESTRICTIVE COVENANT DECISION WILL HAVE WORLD-WIDE RESULTS

The unanimous decision of the Supreme Court restricting anti-Negro realty covenants to the status of private agreements which are unenforceable in the courts is of world wide importance. The decision probably represents final victory for Negroes and other racial and religious minorities in a long struggle for equal access to the land in the U. S. For the crux of any system of racial and religious discrimination is exclusion from use of the land on the same terms as those who would enforce unfair discrimination.

This struggle for the land has been going on in America for centuries. The Indians lost the struggle and lost their lives. The South lost the struggle with the North during the Civil War on the issue as to who would make the rules concerning the use of the land. The South wanted the rules made in such a manner as to permit slaveholders to use slaves wherever they pleased.

Since the Civil War struggle between Negroes and the rest of the citizenry for use of the land has been carried on with increasing bitterness. Negroes have won temporary victories as when they induced the Supreme Court to declare over 30 years ago that land segregation laws enacted by the states are unconstitutional. But we lost position after position to restrictive covenants in city after city. Only last week did we find a county which is honest enough to admit that state governments should not use their powers to enforce private agreements which would in effect deny Negro citizens equal protection of the laws.

As we stand now, a Negro citizen, so far as the law is concerned, is free to acquire and use land anywhere in the United States. Thus the United States of America becomes the first country in the whole world where there is a strong Negro-white race problem, to accord Negroes equal access to the land. This development is bound to have a good influence on race relations elsewhere in the world.

In most of the lands where Negroes are in the majority comparatively small white populations exercise a social, political, and economic monopoly

In The Nation's Capital

By LOUIS LAUTIER For NNPA News Service

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People should withdraw its support from the Federal Aid to Education Bill.

The identical arguments made against the joint resolution giving the consent of Congress to Southern States to set up and maintain regional schools can be advanced against the Federal Aid to Education Bill.

It gives Federal sanction to race discrimination and segregation in the elementary and secondary schools of the South. In states having separate school systems for white and colored students, it provides for an equitable distribution of Federal monies but permits those states to continue to expend disproportionate amounts, per capita or per classroom unit, on white and colored pupils.

Hearings before the Senate Judiciary Committee on the resolution giving the consent of Congress to the compact definitely showed the inadequacy of education in Southern States. Excepting Howard University and Meharry Medical College, there are only 86 colored medical students enrolled in medical schools which accept both white and colored students.

One of the reasons for such small enrollment is the fact that students who have received their elementary, secondary and pre-medical training in a Jim Crow system in the South fail miserably to meet entrance requirements.

For confirmation of the low standard of scholarship among graduates of colored institutions one need only talk with any member of the faculty of the Howard University Medical School. He will tell you that he is carrying down a load-giving instruction in basic subjects which a student should have learned in grammar, high school and college.

Children should no longer be handicapped by a second-class education. Equality of education; under the Constitution, means that in a given community, all the children, white and colored alike, shall be eligible to receive the same educational training, based on their aptitudes. That is impossible in a Jim Crow system.

Moreover, the Federal Aid to Education bill leaves absolute control of education to the states. In all federal laws granting aid to the states at least some measure of control of the appropriations made is retained in federal authorities. But the Federal Aid to Education Bill, by its clear language, nullifies any implication that financial aid for education includes control of the moneys granted.

At no time in their history have the Southern States shown any disposition to meet the legal fiction of "separate but equal" education for colored and white pupils.

The NAACP contends that the regional school plan of Southern States is an attempt to circumvent decisions of the United States Supreme Court and perpetuate racial discrimination and segregation in education, and that federal consent to the compact would give federal sanction to those practices.

These contentions are equally true with respect to the Federal Aid to Education Bill. There is no reason why a colored person living in New York, New Jersey or Illinois should be required to pay taxes to support a Jim Crow school system in South Carolina, Alabama, or Mississippi.

MESSAGE TO GRADE SCHOOL GRADUATES

To The Editor The Recorder Dear Sir:

This is addressed to eighth-grade graduating classes of the United States of America, and to whom it may concern.

Let's first be men and women of character seeking, Oh, God, help us we pray to find a place in the world. Can it be found? Yes, if we have faith and work to that end. We of the eighth grade are going to the top, and we hope all others will follow. First, we must be men and women of character and intellect, and personality depends in part upon the training that the home and school will give, requires a study by we workers of our own talents and interests and thoughtful investigation.

Occupation is very important to our community as well as ourselves. It may demand at the beginning perseverance, and good judgment in finding a position. We must be faithful to our work and steadily making ourselves qualified for a greater responsibility, and the door of opportunities will open for us, if we be men and women of character. Oh, God, help us we pray, to find a place in the world.

To date we have made no formal charge against Officer Watkins and have no intention of doing so.

CONGRESSIONAL DESERTION OF PUBLIC INTEREST GETS LITTLE PUBLICITY

Laying down a solid barrage of words about the Gallup Poll ratings and the imbecilic utterances of Governor Tweedle Dee and Senator Twinkle Dum in their battle of mental dwarfs for the Republican nomination for President of the United States, the opinion industry of the nation has been able to cover up its failure to call the attention of the citizens to the almost total desertion of the public interests by the Eightieth Congress.

This Congress, now well into its second session, exhibited its true colors early in its career when it repealed the excess profits taxes on corporations, OPA and hand-picked organized labor with the Taft-Hartley Act. Its only achievement for the common good in its first session was its decision to adjourn.

Called back into session in November by the President, the Congress has consistently side-stepped every issue pertaining to the welfare of the majority of Americans. When ever public pressure has been strong for legislation to counteract the high cost of living or to provide housing, education of health protection to the unfortunate majority, the gentlemen of the Eightieth Congress have been able to divert their attention to the sensational discoveries of Representatives John Rankin and J. Parnell Thomas of two communist in every garage and Soviet propaganda in every pot.

As the inflationary threat to the Nation's economy increased, the Congress found it expedient to fool the public with a widely advertised tax reduction bill. Failing the heed the President who asked for an equitable redistribution in taxes on individuals and added corporation taxes, the nation's lawmakers passed over Mr. Truman's veto a tax relief measure highly weighted in favor of the upper-income groups. Forty percent of the nearly $5,000,000,000 of tax reduction went to those with incomes of over $5000 annually. A family man with an income of $3,000 was granted a saving of ninety dollars or thirty dollars per thousand while a family man with an income of $100,000 annually was given a saving of $1200 or $166 per thousand.

The Congress failed to levy higher corporate taxes despite the fact that corporate earnings last year after taxes were more than seventeen billion dollars, by far the highest in history.

Also ignored by the Eightieth Congress has been the national housing shortage. It is true that it gave lip service to the public demand for more and better housing and passed a bill extending a very weak rent control law to April 1, 1949, when according to all indications the situation will be even worse than now. At the same time it allowed to die the Title Six provision of the PHA, making it virtually impossible for the majority of veterans and low and moderate-income groups to acquire decent housing.

The record of this Congress in regard to the civil rights proposals of the President has been uniformly bad. It has bottled up in committees the various bills to implement these proposals and there they will die or they will be allowed to pass one house and killed in the other.

Now pending before the House is Senate Bill Number 472, providing the sum of $300,000,000 in Federal Funds to be allocated to the nation's schools. The bill stipulates that all of the children in the children in the public schools of the land must benefit through just and equitable distribution of the funds. But it will take an avalanche of letters and telegrams to force Speaker Joe Martin, House Majority Leader Charles Halleck (of Indiana) and Chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, Fred Hartley, to allow the bill to come to a vote in the House.

The members of the worst Congress in decades are banking heavily on the public's pre-occupation with the presidential race to enable them to retain their seats in the "great deliberative body on earth."

A campaign to acquaint the public with the misdeeds of its elected representatives before the November election should result in better or at least a less indifferent 81st Congress.

DEMOCRACY MEANS JIMCROW IN ALABAMA PRIMARY RACE

BIRMINGHAM (ANP)—To most Alabama politicians, "democracy" is synonymous with "Jim Crow." They fear "Communism," therefore, because it would destroy what they call "democracy."

This was the platform on which a slate of candidates was elected last week to represent Alabama at the National Democratic Convention in June. Among those who won on a program of opposition to Truman's civil rights program was Police Commissioner Eugene "Bill" Connor who was responsible for arresting and roughing up Sen. Glen Taylor, campaigning for the Third Party on a platform of equal rights for all.

Another successful candidate was Sen. John Sparkman who sought re-election under the following slogans: "For Southern race segregation in all forms. For world peace and world trade. For U. S. Military strength and preparedness. For free enterprise and collective bargaining. For Democratic party unity and success."

With that anti-civil rights platform the Senator added in his campaign that he has fought "Against Russian efforts to destroy democratic governments." "Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon threatened to propose an amendment forbidding the establishment of separate institutions for white and colored students. This was unacceptable to the Southerners.

Roy Campanella, catcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, was sent to St. Paul of the American Association Monday, as the Dodgers cut their squad to 26. Seven other players were farmed out.

Campanella will be the first Negro to play in the league. He is scheduled to appear here Thursday, May 27 and 28, when the Salinas will play the Indians at Victory Field.

Meanwhile in the American League, Larry Doby of the Cleveland Indians, who is the Cleveland coach, said Doby is a real ball player but he strikes out too much. He said "He's too eager; he gets too fast a jump on some balls—over-runs 'em."

Against Red Sox pitching in Boston, Doby hit .375, including two home runs and a double. He now has five home runs to his credit.

Cleveland, May 15.—The Indians beat the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 1, here tonight.

Doby was sent into the first game in the ninth inning and made one run, was credited with one hit, two runs, one batted in, four putouts.

Pa. Golfer Shows Wares in Newspaper Sponsored Tourney

PHILADELPHIA (NNPA)—Howard Wheeler, National Negro Open Champion, last Wednesday, shot three over par 37-38-75 to tie for second place in the elimination test for the fifth annual Philadelphia Inquirer Invitation Tournament, sponsored by the Inquirer Charities.

Wheeler, from the Fairview Gold Club, was deadlocked for second with Bill Robinson, White Marsh Valley, one of the home club's better amateurs, who had 36-39-75.

Ralph Hutchinson, from the Saucun Valley Club, Bethlehem, Pa. led the field in the elimination test, in which only five had scores of 76 or better and 81 was good enough to qualify.

In the opening round of the tournament at the Whittemar Valley Country Club last Friday, Wheeler was one of 12 golfers who shot 75 to continue in the tournament.

Ahead of this group, however, were three professionals, Bobby Lock, of South Africa, the defending champion; Ben Hogan of the Hershey (Pa.) Country Club, and Dr. Gary Middlecoff, a dentist, of Memphis, Tenn.

Bob Hamilton of Landover, Maryland, shot a 70 six shot 71s, four 72s and four 73s.

The dividing line between survival and elimination was 79. Of the record list of 193, reduced by the qualifying round with withdrawals, only 93 turned in cards last Friday.

Joe Louis Trains for Big Bout on Birthday

BLOOMINGDALE, Mich. (ANP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis was 34 years old Friday, but he doesn't seem to be having any trouble getting in shape for his June 23 rematch with Jersey Joe Walcott in Yankee stadium.

After a month of light training on the farm of a Detroit friend, near here, Joe finds himself "two pounds" ahead of schedule.

When he arrived here early in April following his European appearances, he weighed 225. Trainer Manny Seamon decided to strip Joe of three pounds while the champ was on a diet of "rest," light roadwork, sawing and wood-chopping. Friday, however, Seamon said the champ was down to 220. This simplifies the reducing schedule, since Louis has only five pounds to go to make 215 for the Walcott encounter. Joe tipped the scales at 211½ for his first bout.

Joe left today on route to Pompton Lakes. He will start sparring round practice, doing four rounds a day and working up to six during his 21 days of training. Sparring partners include Richard Hagan, Chicago; Johnny Hubbard, Milwaukee; McKinley English, Detroit; and Henry Taylor, New York.

For his birthday, Bill Bottoms, training camp chef for 12 years, made a four-layer cake complete with the trimmings. Joe's son, 10-month-old Joe Jr., was on hand for the celebration. Weighing in at 24 pounds, he donned a pair of miniature gloves to take a few playful slugs at his papa.

OXFORD, O. (ANP)—That man, Harrison Dillard of Baldwin-Wallace, has done it again. Saturday, the intrepid sprinter and hurdler who is the U. Competing in a dual meet between his college and Miami University, Dillard smashed three stadium marks by winning the 220-yard low hurdles, the 120-yard high hurdles and the 100-yard dash. Despite his brilliant performances, however, Baldwin-Wallace lost to Miami 70-52.

HOWARD U. WINS 3RD CIAA TRACK MEET IN ROW

HAMPTON, Va.—Howard University's thimble won the third straight CIAA championship meet on Armstrong Field here last Saturday. Morgan College won the Open Meet, just as last year only to fall behind the Howard Bison in the closed competition.

Howard scored 52 points to 36½ for Morgan, Lincoln's 25, North Carolina State's 22 and Delaware State's 19½ produced a hot 3-way battle for third. Sixth-place Hampton's seven scored out A. & T.'s six and West Virginia State's five.

Shaw had two points, Virginia State had one, and the five other competing schools were shut out.

Delaware State's massive Obie Palmer was the star of the day. He beat the CIAA shot put record, set by Simpson of Morgan eleven years ago, by more than four feet with a 48-foot, ten-inch heave, and cracked the discus mark of 137 feet, 3 inches, also made in 1937 by Mosby, of Morgan, with a 143-foot, 5-inch effort.

Howard's Jim Bruce and Morgan's Bob Tyler also annexed two events each, with Bruce turning in a 4:28 mile, 12 seconds better than last week's Open Meet time.

Important in the Howard victory were wins in both the medley and the mile relay and the taking of three of the four places in the 880-yard run.

Joe Louis Address Question Raised In $500,000 Suit

CHICAGO (ANP)—What is the home address of Joe Louis? Is it at 4320 South Michigan avenue here, where his wife, Marva, and their two children live? Or is it in New York?

Truman K. Gibson, attorney, who is representing the champ in the $500,000 alienation of affections suit brought by the Rev. Mathew C. Faulkner of Atlanta, says that the Chicago address is not Louis' but his wife's.

A summons for Louis to appear before Judge John Tuohy in superior court was left at Marva Louis' address. The hearing surrounds the charge that Louis robbed Faulkner of his wife's affection.

Gibson is to seek a motion to quash service Wednesday, but he let it be known that the champ was not dodging the challenge. "We'll be glad to take on this court fight after the champ gets through with Joe Walcott," he said.

Records Expected to Fall In IHSA A Track Meet Sat.

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

With a decent break from the weather man, Indiana's runniest, jumpiest and throwiest high school lads were all set this week to make the state track meet at Tech Field Saturday one of the greatest of them all.

Records held by men now potential were scheduled to be ground into the dust as a postwar crop of Hoosier schoolboys converged on Naptown to wind up an almost uniformly brilliant season.

The plot was as usual: Old King Anderson was on the throne and a number of valiant challengers were going to knock him off. To try to, that is.

Standouts among Indian fighters was a squad of Hammond Wildcats who qualified eight individuals and two relay teams in the sectional last week. Hammond was also the lead challenger to Indian domination last year, but couldn't end the three-year Anderson reign.

Other leading contenders for the 1948 title were to be Gary Froebel, Gary Roosevelt and a couple of strong Port Wayne squads. These teams weakened each other in intercollegiate strife in the sectionals. No, it doesn't mean that they couldn't win, but the form book counts for about nine-tenths in the state track carnival.

Praise for the current season wasn't unanimous. The Crispus Attucks Tigers, who failed to score a point in the sectional meet at Tech last week, were just fied in saying "Phooey on '48!"

Coach Cortland Bishop's boys finished eighth in the state last year, but somebody heaved them this season. From the opening event of the opening meet, they had more bad luck than Job.

The Green-and-Gold season closed true to form at the sectional as William Walker and Paul Middlebrooks fell while passing the baton in the half-mile relay. Attucks was running second at the time but Middlebrooks sustained an injury to his leg and had to be carried from the field. The same runner had been unable to participate in the 100-yard dash final after qualifying in the morning.

But if Attucks had an off year, there were plenty who had "on" years. Here's an incomplete round-up of Negro boys who qualified for Saturday's finals:

Smith Leads Champs ANDERSON — Sterling Russell, Smith, last year's half-mile king, will lead the champions' fight to retain the throne. Besides running the 880, he will broad jump and anchor the mile relay team. Billy Williams is a member of the half-mile relay foursome. The Indians qualified 10 individuals and

TOP HEAVYWEIGHT PUGS CLASH HERE, MAY 27 FOR STATE TITLE

Sid Peaks, Charleston, Ind., rated as the fifth ranking heavyweight boxer of the country, will clash with the local popular heavyweight boxer, Colton Chaney, at the Mid-Get Speedway Stadium in West 16th street, Thursday night, May 27. The bout for the state title is scheduled for ten rounds.

Other fights on the card include bouts between "Bob" O'Bannon and "Windy" Gant, and a bout between "Bill" Roberts and "Shank" Chaney. The all heavyweight boxing show of 36 rounds of fighting is staged by the up and coming popular young business man-promoter, Forrest McKinney.

Boxing fans are promised a real treat in the Peaks-Chaney bout. Peaks has fought 27 fights, winning 23 with knockouts, one by decision and lost three on decision. He lost one bout on decision to Colton Chaney in this city on April 18, 1947. Chaney's record includes knockout victories of Lee Oma Buddy Walker, and several outstanding heavyweights with national records. Very recently he kayoed Mose Brown, Huntington, W. Va., in the ninth round.

two relay squads.

GARY FROEBEL—Eddie Brown and George Bell will be the men to beat in the pole vault and broad jump respectively. The half-mile relay squad, which last week turned in a 1:30.4 to break the Indiana record, includes Bell, Rufus Lackey and Charles Hill, in addition to white speedster Joe Gonzales.

GARY ROOSEVELT — Albert Simms led the state in both low and high hurdles last week. Anderson's high jump Tech will be Floyd and Thornton in the high jump, Dooley in the 440 and Hamer in the 880. The Panthers won the Gary sectional, 49 to Froebel's 37½.

EVANSVILLE LINCOLN — The Lions are sending a real delegation this time, with Henry Warfield in the 440 and 880, George Wharton in the high hurdles and broad jump, Clarence Calhoun (high hurdles), Paul Dulin (high jump) and Harlan Brooks (broad jump).

Stubbs Wins Three CARMEL — Johnson "Bill" Stubbs, jet-propelled sophomore, was the sensation of the Tech sectional, winning three blue-ribbons—in the 100, 220 and broad jump.

NOBLESVILLE Don White won the 440 at Tech last week, to qualify for the finals.

Games, Mon., Tues. Welch Nine, Trotters Mon.; Clowns Tues. Nite

Local baseball fans will be treated to a double-header baseball game under the lights at Victory Field, Monday night May 31 between the Cincinnati Crescents and the Harlem Globetrotters baseball team.

The following evening Tuesday June 1, the Clowns will clash with the Kansas City Monarchs in what promises to be one of the best games of the current season.

A gala program will precede the Memorial Day evening game on Tuesday night, May 31. A huge fireworks display will be featured. Jesse Owens will appear and run his famous race against a horse. Ed Hamann, famous comedian former with the Clowns and now with the Globetrotters will do his comedy stint.

The Globetrotters line-up includes such popular favorites of the diamond as Paul Hardy, Zell Miles, Herb Simpson, Johnny Cogdell, Othello Strong, Sherwood Brewer, Jesse Williams, Ulysses Redd, Sam Wheeler, Winslow Emons and others of that caliber. This lineup has been popular in Indianapolis for two seasons.

Welch will bring his strongest Crescents lineup to town with the greatest with such luminaries as Parnell Woods, Dave Whately, Willie Jefferson, Howard Easterling and others who have been assembled to bid strongly for the Denver national tournament championship, in which the Crescents finished second last season.

IAA Rules New Record Set by Herb McKenley

LONDON (ANP)—Herb McKenley's 440-yard run in 46.3 seconds was officially recognized by the International Amateur Athletic Federation here Friday as being the world record. The mark, established last year was one of three which the IAA declared official.

The former University of Illinois star, who is Jamaica born, stepped off 440-yards in 46.3 seconds at Berkeley, Cal., last June 28, to eclipse the 46.4 seconds held jointly by Ben Eastman and Gro-er Klemmer, both white U. S. runners.

University of California's Mel Patton, was named the official holder of the 100-yard dash record with Frank Wykoff, Jesse Owens and Clyde Jeffrey of the United States and D. J. Johnson of South Africa. He set a time of 9.4 seconds at Los Angeles last May 24. The record for the 15-mile run was awarded to Finland's Mikko Hietanen.

Sensational Flo and Her Piano Return to Club Savoy

ALAN LADD, DOROTHY LAMOUR and ROBERT PRESTON are starred in Paramount's "Wild Harvest", which starts Tuesday at the Park.

RANDOLPH SCOTT confronts BARBARA BRITTON with some damaging evidence in this scene from "Albuquerque," due to start Sunday at the Avenue.

"JIVIN' IN BE-BOP," new full length variety musical coming to the Walker Sunday, stars Dizzy Gillespie, his orchestra and Dolores Brown.

NOTED PIANIST RETURNS TO SPOT BY POPULAR DEMAND OF PATRONS

The sensational pianist, Flo, the girl who won the hearts of patrons of Club Savoy, 25th and Martindale, with her unique style of entertainment, returns to the East side bistro by popular demand of the patrons who flocked the niter during her long stay. The young entertainer returns to the scene of her earlier triumphs, direct from all over the city are crowd-fighting nite spots in the Middle West, where she has been packed in niter.

The establishment is opened every day from 8 a. m. till 1 a. m. and offers the best in entertainment at all times. Nightlifers from all over the city are crowding the spot to enjoy a menu of fun and frivolity unequalled in these parts. Aside from Flo, the spot specializes in choice liquors, wines, beer and good wholesome food. If you haven't visited Club Savoy, be sure to make a date today to be on hand this week-end and enjoy yourself amid pleasant surroundings.

DINAH WASHINGTON DECLINES OFFER TO JOIN BENNY GOODMAN

ATLANTIC CITY—Dinah Washington, blues singing stylist and record favorite, is a heart-breaker because she finds it impossible to consider the offer of a vocal role with the Benny Goodman interracial unit now being organized. ### THE THINGS PEOPLE TALK ABOUT:

The election is over. Those who won have another fight on their hands. Those who lost must not be bitter. I know that even the most liberal of politicians are skeptical about slating and nominating militant, progressive and ambitious Negroes for public office. Almost to a man Negro politicians are agreed that I should have been the person to represent them in the legislature. Something happened. I know what it was. But why should I say? The game of politics is rough and disappointing. You have to be pure in heart. I know that now. Although James McQueen, Clarence Thuston, Joe Wallace, Edward N. Suber, Henry R. Wilson, Charles Monger and others did all they could, it wasn't quite enough. I have no regrets.

The greatest tribute to my efforts was paid me by Herbert C. Willis, the mortician, who said: "The two men who could have done more for Negroes than any other and who know more what to do than anyone else are you and Rufus Kuykendall. The biggest thing that ever will happen to Negroes is the fact that you two men cannot serve the public together." Whatever Mr. Willis says I appreciate. I know what the story is. I will work in the fall for the party. Negro Democratic leaders say that they will never be satisfied until I hold public office. This is a great thing to say about a person, but I will never run again unless I am drafted.

The new Greater Indianapolis, Elks Lodge is making headway under Guy U. Blaine, the exalted ruler. It is located on 24th street and plans of remodeling are now under way. William Oscar Moore is a state organizer.

The newest slang for money is "loot." Wesley Jackson, the promoter, uses it frequently. Three policemen who used to race me to murders in the squad cars are promoted to the rank of Lieut. They are Fae Davis, who is now head of the homicide bureau; Michael Kavanagh, and Robert Reilly. All of the men were homicide men. Reilly is special investigator for the mayor. Kavanagh is in charge of the Internal Security Division. He is a former FBI agent and knows his business.

Davis and Reilly solved some of the most baffling cases in the homicide files. However, they never did solve the WAC murder and the Ora Proctor case. Now that Davenport, Spurgeon and Rogers, James are regular members of the homicide bureau, these cases may make the headlines again.

The ironic and disgusting thing about police work is that the best men are not always put where they can best serve. You can't deny facts. Jacques Duham, who is the youngest head of a shrine group in the country, would make a great homicide man. He and Davenport collected so many citations together until they resembled army decorations. Durham probably won't get that assignment. He may not even want it but he should have it anyway.

Now that the Democratic primary is all settled, watch out for demotions and promotions. Whoever gets demoted is no worry of mine, but you can bet there will be some and soon, too.

The Pyramid Barbecue Pit, 615 W. 27th street, is going great at last. Opens at 6 p. m. and closes at 3 a. m. Specializes in barbecued ham, ribs, mutton, wieners and chicken. Bernard (Fine Foods) Williams made a pleasure-cruise to Cleveland recently. Money is Honey is not exactly a new record. It's just played better by Count Basie.

Wharton A. Holland, and his wife (Dempie) celebrated their 11th-year tie-up with a final fling at the Oasis Room late this week. They had a few friends with them who specialized in doing the latest additions to the Camel walk. Amos Hartwell's riding club, Edgemont and Rader streets, is getting under way. Was there last Sunday. Will eventually set aside a Pyramid Day when Hartwell will give free instructions to all club members. This is the sport of kings. If you can't ride, you should try to learn. Clarence Thuston is the new big boss of the 6th precinct in the 11th Ward, Democratic. In a way he has come far. He beat VanWert Mullin, 61 to 31. We'll have to wait and see what Mr. Thuston's plans are before we comment further. Remember that whatever you do, you hurt some and help others. Grit your teeth and do what you honestly think is best.

One thing is fundamentally wrong with the Elks State Association. It has no state organ. Men like Claude White, Cornelius Richardson, Frank Williams, and others who have served their lodge with distinction should have their biographies in print, but who will do it unless it is done in an Elk organ. If the state association does nothing else this year, it should establish a monthly organ.

A secret attempt to purge private clubs of slot machines is under way. The purge is not exactly successful but is on its way. All the U. S. wants out of the machines is tax money. They not only want it, but will get it. Ralph Armstrong has traded his Frazier for a Hudson.

"Wild Harvest" Due At Park Tuesday

A new Alan Ladd picture that promises to be teeming with action and thrills, Paramount's "Wild Harvest" is the next attraction at the PARK theater. Beginning on Tuesday the film stars Ladd with Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Lloyd Nolan, an impressive array of favorites.

"Wild Harvest" tells the unusual and exciting story of the men who harvest the wheat from Texas to Canada. Ladd portrays the leader of a harvest crew, a rugged group of men including Preston and Nolan. They have need to be rugged since their work involves them in all kinds of physical hazards, from fist fights with rival crews to battling wheat fires.

Cootie Williams Prison Bound Next Sat., But Only to Entertain Inmates

NEW YORK CITY—Cootie Williams will go to jail next Saturday but not for committing any crime. The crowd trumpet star is scheduled to make a brief pre-holiday visit to the Elmira State Reformatory when he will entertain the inmates at an intimate swing concert along with his band.

Cootie decided to appear for the men in the institution after a recently released friend told him that the men seldom get to hear any major Negro bands although many of the men are ardent admirers of race orchestras. On hearing this, Williams said that inasmuch as he was playing a single engagement in the town next

Saturday night, he would be happy to arrive early in the day and entertain the men for a short while.

MURIEL SMITH TO SING "CARMEN" STRAIGHT
New YORK (AP)—Muriel Smith, who won fame singing in Billy Rose's jazzed up "Carmen", will get an opportunity to sing the real thing this summer. Alfredo Salmaggi, impresario who sponsored Caterina Jarboro at the old hippodrome, has signed Miss Jones to sing the title role in the opera of the same name this summer at Randall's island.

Lovely Savannah Churchill at Sunset Sunday Nite

Entertainingly So . . .

LOVELY SAVANNAH CHURCHILL, THE FOUR TONES and TAB SMITH will receive top billing at the Sunset Sunday nite, May 23, when one of the greatest attractions on the road today hits the Avenue dancery. . . GENE (SAX) POPE was in town tother day after several weeks' touring with Tiny Bradshaw's band. . . Don't be surprised if the fella pops up as an Avenue nite club owner. . . MUNICIPAL Stadium on S. West street, should be packed Sunday when our own Lincoln Bears meet the Zanesville (Ohio) Taxis in a baseball game that promises to be thrilling for 9 innings.

WESLEY JACKSON hits Victory Field Thursday nite with the Clowns tackling the much-touted Birmingham Black Barons. . . This is the game we all have been waiting for. . . Incidentally, don't forget to get your tickets now for the train excursion to Cincy on June 6 to see Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella in action against the Cincy Reds. . . The sensational Flo, deluxe entertainer at Club Savoy, reopens this week at the East Side bistro.

DUKE ELLINGTON plays the London Palladium, June 12, at $10,000 per week. . . JOHN MARRIOTT, an industrial chemist who turned actor some 15 years ago, is currently giving an electrifying performance before Broadway (N. Y.) theatergoers in the much-discussed stage play sell-out, "Respectful Prostitute". The only individual of color in the cast, Marriott comes from Boley, Okla., by way of Wilberforce and Ohio State Universities. At Wilberforce he studied under the renowned Hallie Q. Brown, where he was active in campus productions. He has appeared with the famous Karoma Players, over NBC and ABC television units and on the screen in such movies as "The Little Foxes", and "Swamp Mud."

THE FLORIDA AGRICULTURAL & MECHANICAL COLLEGE at Tallahassee, Florida, announces its Creative and Practical Arts Institute beginning June 21 thru July 17. Randolph Edmunds is director of the institute. . . NELLIE LUTCHER opened at the Red Feather Club in Los Angeles on May 17. . . Benny Carter hopes to be featured on his own national network show in the near future. . . GORGEOUS LENA HORNE will be starred along with Judy Garland in the flicker "Words and Music." . . Nat "King" Cole and his outfit opened a 17-day en-agement at the Rag Doll Club in Chicago on May 14. . . DIZZY GILLESPIE and LOUIS ARMSTRONG gave concerts at Carnegie Hall during the first half of May.

FATS WALLER'S "London Suite" will have its Manhattan premiere on the immortal pianist's birthday, May 21, at Carnegie Hall. Featured on the special Waller Memorial Program will be his protegee, Pat Flowers, playing with orchestra at this Pops Concert. The Deep River Boys will also be featured on the program.

IVIE ANDERSON, former vocalist with Duke Ellington's outfit, is presently recording for Black and White out on the West Coast. Her latest release, a nifty, is "Empty Bed Blues" and "Butter and Egg Man". T-BONE WALKER comes up on Black and White with "T-Bone Jumps Again" "I Want A Little Girl", "I'm Waiting For Your Call" and "That's Better For Me."

ACADEMY AWARD WINNER HATTIE McDANIEL, outstanding Hollywood actress, plays the title role in Columbia's five-a-week "Beulah" series. . . WALTER GREEN, the top-flight Naptown hooter who took the Big Apple in stride, is reported to be back in circulation again following a long rest. . . Day, Dawn and Dusk have been receiving top notices during their stay at the swank Ruban Bleu in N. Y. . . Stamp and Stamp, Ebony Club favorites, are easily the top dancing team around the Big Apple. . . With BUCK CLAYTON'S band supporting, Helene Humes sounds sincere and intense on the Mercury of "Today I Sing The Blues". Flipover is the leaping "JUMPIN' ON SUGAR HILL". . . One of the late Chu Berry's most famous numbers was GHOST OF A CHANCE. It is now reissued on Columbia with Cab Calloway bouncin' a jivey new tune on the flipover, EVERYBODY EATS WHEN THEY COME TO MY HOUSE. . . The Charloters, with excellent orchestral support by Mitchel Ayres, combine hot harmonizing and rhythm on Columbia's "The Last Thing I Want Is Your Pity" and the slowly boiling "When I Grow Too Old To Dream."

DOWN MEMORY LANE WITH SONGS OF YESTERYEAR. . . HITS OF 1931. "Dancing in the Dark", "All of Me", "Goodnight Sweetheart", "Sweet and Lovely", "You're My Everything", "My Silent Love" and "I Love a Parade."

Big 3-Way Bill Include "Tab Smith's Orchestra and the Four Tunes Quartette"

DUKE HAMPTON'S entertaining orchestra has top billing at the grand reopening of the Sky Club Wednesday, May 26.

SAVANNAH CHURCHILL, who comes to the Sunset Sunday nite, May 23 as headliner of the Juke Box Hit Parade of Stars unit of sock entertainment is not only one of the brightest singing stars on the present day horizon but also one of the best lookers in the public eye. Savannah, who first was discovered by a Harlem night club operator, was picked, strangely enough, not for her singing ability but her appearance! In addition to the lovely lady of song, the three way bill will also bring to amusement lovers of this town two of the outstanding radio and juke box favorites of the day in the Four Tunes and Tab Smith's band. It was the subtle saxophone artistry of Smith along with the voice of the late Trevor Bacon, which gave the nation such smash record successes as "When the Lights Go On" and "Sweet Slumber." His recording of "Mountain Air" is one of the Jazz classics of our time.

The Four Tunes, already stars in their own right, sprung to new heights when they accompanied Miss Churchill on her sensational recording of "I Want To Be Loved" and "Is It Too Late?" They are one of the smoothest singing groups in the country today, and one you should hear Sunday nite at the Sunset Terrace.

'DEEP ROOTS' HERE JUNE 5

DEEP ARE THE ROOTS, the interracial hit show of 1946, which ran on Broadway for 489 consecutive performances, will be shown in its uncensored version Saturday afternoon and evening only, June 5, at the Attucks high school auditorium, 12th and North West sts. The play, a road show production of the famed Vanguard Theater, is presented by Lewis Booth and staged by the actor-director, Herman Pfuhl. The matinee performance begins at 2:00 p. m. and the evening performance starts at 8:30 o'clock.

Described as "Controversial and compelling—a work of meaning, delicacy and power," by Howard Barnes, noted drama critic of the New York Herald Tribune, and called a "dramatic bombshell" by the late dean of critics, Burns Mantle, DEEP ARE THE ROOTS received the same unanimous praise when it later was shown in Chicago, Los Angeles, Boston, London, Prague, and Moscow. Mr. Mantle rated the production very high in his book of the Ten Best Plays of 1946.

LOVELY SAVANNAH CHURCHILL will do a repeat number at the Sunset Terrace Sunday nite, May 23. Others on the bill include The Four Tunes and Tab Smith's orchestra.

Sky Club Re-opens Wednesday, May 26th

GEORGE AULD BRINGS ALL-STAR UNIT TO SUNSET ON FRI., MAY 28

George Auld, one of America's outstanding young musicians, brings his all-star orchestra to Sunset Terrace on Friday May 28 for a one-night Concert and dance. Before organizing his new unit, George was featured with Benny Goodman, where his great tenor sax solos were hailed by critics for their tremendous drive and imagination. Goodman, in commenting on Auld's mastery technique, said

GOOD NEWS . . . The popular Sky Club, located at 427 1/2 Indiana ave., will reopen on Wednesday, May 26. . . According to the management, the grand reopening will be done in regal style and everybody who's anybody should be there. . . Toning festivities for opening week will be Duke Hampton's entertaining orchestra, the band that solidly sends you with that swiny music which has made them a favorite musical unity from coast to coast.

The Club will offer real high-class entertainment in the flesh without any extra cost and at the same time maintaining a decorum that guarantees good order at all times. The Sky Club invites you and your family to come out and enjoy a red-hot snappy floor show that couldn't be duplicated for $5 in any large city.

In order to give the youngsters some place to go, the management will feature a special Teen-age dance every Sunday from 6 till 10 p. m. with admission at 40 cents and music by Duke Hampton's band. . . Already workmen are busy putting the place in order for the gala re-opening next Wednesday nite. Remember, The Sky Club is the only spot in the city offering you "flesh" entertainment.

BOBCATS PLAY WITH 3 BLAZERS

On last Friday nite, May 14, the Sunset jumped to the tunes of the sensational Bob Womack and his great orchestra, with Johnny Moore's famous Three Blazers, as the feature attraction.

The Bobcats were not booked to play the engagement, but due to the fact Eddie Williams' band out of Cleveland, Ohio, couldn't make the job in time, due to transpor-

Columbia U. Drops Dr. Clyde Miller of "Springfield Plan"

NEW YORK (ANP)—Dr. Clyde R. Miller, authority on the adoption of the Springfield Plan for Racial Unity, is being dropped from his position as professor at Columbia University.

Dr. Miller has been notified that he will not be identified with the institution as a teacher after June 30.

A member of the faculty at Teachers' College since 1928, Dr. Miller has been on leave since 1943. At a meeting of the board of trustees on March 24, his appointment was terminated, effective on the date given above.

Dr. Miller said he took leave of absence under protest in 1943 when the university was cutting down its staff to meet a financial emergency. Later, he said, he was advised to seek permanent employment elsewhere. Putting his protest into the hands of the American Association of University Professors hoping to be eventually reinstated, he served in the interim as consultant to church groups and others interested in putting the Springfield Plan into operation in their communities.

He blamed his dismissal to a lack of interest on the part of the university administration in his program for teaching propaganda analysis and the Springfield Plan for overcoming racial and religious intolerance.

GA. INSURANCE CO. OBSERVES 50TH YEAR
AUGUSTA, Ga. (ANP)—The Pilgrim Health and Life Insurance Company observed its 50th anniversary here last week. Only two of its founders are still active with the firm: Dr. S. W. Walker, president, originator of the idea for the company, and Dr. W. S. Hornsby, executive vice-president.

The company was founded as the Pilgrim Benevolent Aid Association in the kitchen of Hornsby's father, the Rev. Thomas Jefferson Hornsby, by 19 men. Rev. Hornsby served as first president. Dr. Hornsby has guided the firm since its founding.

MIXED DANCE CAUSES 'STIR' AT VA. SCHOOL

LYNCHBURG, Va. (ANP)—White citizens of Lynchburg who have the backing of other whites were reported last week to have requested an investigation of Lynchburg College for evidences of Communist activities. The basis of the demand is a row which was caused last February when some white students of the college danced with students from Virginia State College during a session on racial problems.

When reports of the dance spread among white citizens and members of the college's board of trustees an official investigation was held and Dr. Riley B. Montgomery, president of the college, and sponsors of the interracial conference, were given a clean bill.

With regards to the proposed FBI probe, Dr. Montgomery said that he hoped that if a check of faculty members and students were made it would end the widespread and persistent town gossiping that the campus harbors "red sympathizers."

Dr. John A. Tate, president of the college's trustee board, disclosed that citizens of Lynchburg had requested an investigation. He added that "popular feeling, right or wrong" had led to a request for an FBI investigation.

Everything was quiet and calm during the two conferences at the white college last February on racial problems attended by five Negro students from Virginia State College, Petersburg, Va., until some white students "injurious" suggested the group dance when a lull came at a social gathering.

The student guests were housed in Lynchburg College dormitories, entertained at dinner and later invited to dance where five of the student hosts offered to dance with the visitors.

Several days after the incident, Dr. Montgomery said the dancing was "injurious" and that "though momentarily in duration, exceedingly regretted by the college."

ROSENWALD FUND HEADQUARTERS GO TO CHICAGO UNIVERSITY

CHICAGO (ANP)—The Julius Rosenwald Fund has deeded the house and property at 1901 Ellis avenue to the University of Chicago, according to announcement by Edwin R. Embree, president of the fund.

"The deed," Mr. Embree said, "provides that the ownership, use or occupancy of the property shall never be restricted on the grounds of race, creed, color, or national origin. This building, the former home of Julius Rosenwald, has been the headquarters office of the fund since 1932. It will be used by the university to house agencies that will continue certain aspects of the fund's work: The American Council on Race Relations and the National Opinion Research Center."

First Pepsi-Cola Scholarship Won By Tuskegee Grad

PALO ALTO, Calif. — Huberta Nicholson of New Boston, Texas, who recently received a bachelor of science degree from Tuskegee Institute, is the first Pepsi-Cola scholarship holder in the United States, Negro or white to graduate from college.

Miss Nicholson, an outstanding scholar, has been attending Tuskegee on a four-year scholarship which she received from the Pepsi-Cola Scholarship Board in 1945 when she graduated from New Boston Colored High School. At the time she was chosen from among 561 of the South's most able Negro students to win the scholarship, which has paid her full tuition, all incidental fees, and a $25-a-month allowance throughout her college career.

Studying under an accelerated program, Miss Nicholson has completed four years' work in three. She has foregone all summer vacations to win her degree with a major in physical education and a minor in social sciences. In her senior year just completed, she was elected to the honor roll at Tuskegee.

Miss Nicholson, who has not definitely decided on her future plans, has returned to her father's farm near New Boston, Texas, for the summer.

LEADER IN ITS FIELD

1. FOR QUALITY—Quality always has been Pepsi-Cola's keynote... unswerving standards of quality that govern the making of Pepsi, from the original ingredients through every step of blending and bottling.
2. FOR FLAVOR—There's just one way you can really judge a flavor, and that's to try it. Try Pepsi-Cola. We're sure you'll make it your favorite drink.
3. FOR SIZE—Naturally you want more for your money. That's just good sense. And every big bottle of Pepsi-Cola holds not 6, not 8 but 12 full ounces. Compare that with ordinary soft drinks. Pepsi is the best buy—the best value.
