

Attucks and Shortridge Set for Shoot-Out

Tigers Rated Shaky Favorite In Showdown

By CHARLES S. PRESTON
It'll be sudden death for Attucks or Shortridge before you see The Recorder again. The state champion Flying Tigers and the Blue Devils who all but derailed them last year will clash on the first night of the sectional basketball tournament at Butler Fieldhouse, Wednesday at 8:30 p. m.

Shortridge has won 3 of its last 4 games with Attucks but lost the big one when the chips were down. Favored in the 1959 sectional, the Satans held a 1-point lead over the Tigers with 7 seconds to go, when Don Swift fired the shot heard 'round the state.
That 63-62 margin was closer than anybody else got to Bill Garrett's boys all the way. On Jan. 14 this year, Cleon Reynolds' charges again nipped the Tiger's tall, 58-57.
Most fans think next week will be Attucks' turn, especially if Jerry Trice — who was riding the bench in last month's game — makes his presence with the coach.

BY THE SAME token Attucks rules a shaky favorite to win the sectional. Seccina, Tech, Broad-Ripple and Cathedral, all well-regarded, are bunched in the top bracket, while the Attucks-Shortridge winner probably will find its chief opposition from North Central at 7 p. m. Friday.

In fact if it weren't for undefeated Muncie Central, which is "everybody's choice" to win this 58th state tournament, the Tigers might have their supporters to keep the crown despite their 14-5 record with one game remaining. There is a widespread feeling either that Garrett has been fusing all the time, or that Attucks just naturally "owns" the tournament. Nobody'll be surprised a bit if the Green-and-Goldsters come on.

ELSEWHERE AROUND the state, Negro and predominantly-Negro teams got stiff breaks in the tourney shuffling. At Southport, first-year coach Johnny Wilson must send his Wood cagers against the host Cardinals at 1:15 p. m. Friday. If the Cardinals can get past that one, however, they draw a bye into the semifinals.

Gary Roosevelt, No. 3-ranked quietest that hung a 71-61 pasting on Attucks last month, goes against tough mostly-tan Gary Pollock at 8:15 Thursday. The Chucks are the only two teams to defeat high-rated East Chicago Washington. At Evansville, Lincoln faces Memorial at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday. If the Lions survive that one, they will meet the Bosse-Central victor.

ATTUCKS SECTIONAL TICKETS went on sale Thursday to students, teachers and season-ticket holders. Athletic Director Ray Crowe said the remainder would be sold Friday (Feb. 19), Monday and Tuesday to the general public.

LENA HAS HER FLING: Taking offense at racial slurs made by two white men in a Beverly Hills restaurant early this week, Singer Lena Horne told the offenders, "This is America, you cannot insult people like that." So saying, she let fly a barrage of dishes, ashtrays and a hurricane lamp. "I lost control . . ." she told police who stayed at the restaurant just long enough to make out a brief report of the incident. No one pressed charges.

WON'T BLAME WHOLE RACE FOR ATTACK BY TEEN GANG

Newsman Blames Authorities for 'Coddling' Thugs

"It would be ridiculous to blame the Negro race for what happened to my wife and me," Eugene "Jep" Cadou, Sr., told a Recorder reporter Thursday morning.
Still suffering from injuries sustained when he and Mrs. Cadou were attacked late last week by a gang of teenage hoodlums, the veteran UPI newsman emphasized, "It isn't a question of race. It's a question of coddling teenagers, no matter what their race."

He said his news work has kept him in touch with "such fine men as Ray Crowe and our two Negro state senators (Robert L. Brokenburr and Jesse Dickinson)" and that it would be ridiculous for him to blame the whole Negro race for the actions of "a bunch of thugs who should have been locked up a long time ago."

MOTHERS OF TWO of the attackers, he said, called to apologize and beg forgiveness.
"But that hasn't changed my attitude," he asserted. "How would you feel if you were attacked by a cowardly bunch of thugs who beat you before they even asked you for your money — no matter what color they were?"

The Cadous, leaving an Indianapolis Press Club dinner party late Thursday night of last week, were walking to their car in the Statehouse parking lot when five youths approached them from behind, knocked them to the ground and robbed them of some $75. Cadou was struck in the face. The couple managed to get (Continued on Page 3)

Officers' Promotions Climax Behind-the-Scenes Struggle

The announcement this week of the promotion of two Negro police officers climaxed a behind-the-scenes struggle of several months' duration, The Recorder has learned.

Victorious in the spirited competition were Oscar B. Donahue, new acting lieutenant, and David S. Jeter, promoted to acting sergeant.

WYING WITH DONAHUE for the assignment as Indianapolis' third Negro lieutenant was Sgt. Roger N. Harrison, 942 W. 32nd, a 12-year veteran of the department. Jeter reportedly was in direct competition with Officer Warren E. Greene, 2735 Winthrop, who joined the force in 1956.

Capt. Anthony Watkins is the only Negro in the history of the department to rise above the lieutenant's rank.
Lieut. Donahue, who will begin his 19th year of service next June, was a patrolman until his promotion in 1955. Except for two years on a vice detail with then-Lieut. Watkins, he has worked on special assignments from the inspector's office.

The personable, hard-working lawman made headlines last April when, almost single-handedly, he captured Edgar Alexander, "The Slasher" police say was responsible for two rape-butcher knife attacks in the vicinity of 19th and College.

Other highlights of his outstanding career include the capture of holdup man Emmett Ord in 1955 and the apprehension of 11 holdup men over a two-year period, 1953-55. He and his partner James "Bruiser" Gaines received citations for their efforts.

Donahue has had several close brushes with death, including the time in 1944 when an escaped mental patient snapped a gun twice in his face while the officer was standing in front of The Recorder. After the gunman was subdued, an officer tried once again to fire the gun. It went off.

ONLY ONCE in his 17 years on the force has he actually shot at an offender. On that occasion he wounded in the leg a suspect in a hold-up attempt.

Aside from his police work, over which he shows an amazing enthusiasm, his principal interest in church work. He is an active member (Continued on Page 8)

Waiter Shot In Row Over Newspaper

Following a reported argument about "buying a newspaper" Robert Flowers, 26, 928 Camp, was shot in his right thigh early this week.

His alleged assailant was Joseph Chapman, 30, 1441 W. 35th. Both men were waiters at the Indianapolis Athletic Club where the shooting took place in a locker-room of the basement.

Chapman was arrested at his home following the shooting on a preliminary charge of assault and battery with intent to murder. Witnesses charge that Chapman shot Flowers with a .38-caliber revolver.

Martin Luther King Held on Tax Charge

ATLANTA — Rev. Martin Luther King was arrested here Wednesday night on an indictment on two counts of perjury in connection with his 1956 and 1958 income tax.

The world-famed civil rights leader branded the perjury charges "a further attempt by the state of Alabama to harass me because of my integration activities."

His bond, set at $2,000, was signed by his father, with whom he is co-pastor of one of Atlanta's leading churches, pending an extradition hearing within the next 30 days.

Rev. King recently moved to Atlanta from Montgomery "to expand my base of operation in the civil rights struggle."

CAMERA-SHY: Already wounded in the thigh during a brawl over a newspaper Sunday afternoon, Robert Flowers, 26, 928 Camp, bolts through a General Hospital door to avoid being "shot" again. Flowers reportedly was shot by Joseph Chapman, 30, 1441 W. 35th, during the argument in the Indianapolis Athletic Club where both men work. His effort here is to avoid being "shot" by Recorder Photographer Jim Burras who still managed this rather unflattering candid.

Opal Tandy Makes Bid for State Senate

Active in Democratic party affairs of the city and county for more than a decade, Opal L. Tandy announces that she will seek the Democratic nomination for state senator in the May 3 primary.

A confirmed supporter of the Democratic party, he aspired to nomination and election to the lower house of the General Assembly, the last time in 1956.

He is a colorful veteran of World War II in the European Theater where he served under the "soldier's soldier"—Gen. George A. Patton.

He is editor of a local weekly newspaper, The Herald-Times.

Cong. Joe Barr To Speak Before NAACP Youth

Congressman Joseph W. Barr, by special invitation, will address members of the NAACP Youth Council at the group's regular weekly meeting on Feb. 21 at 4 at Fall Creek YMCA.

Speaking on the subject of "Civil Rights," Mr. Barr will later respond to a question and answer session. Barr was the fourth member of Congress to sign pending Civil Rights Bill.

Representing Local 120 in the conference were Lloyd Gilbert and David Senter, business agents of the local, and William Davis and Robert Gross, members.

Bride of a Week Fatally Stabs 'Abusive' Mate

TOLEDO, Ohio (ANP) — A bride of a week last week stabbed to death her 30-year-old husband after he smashed a clock she prized and struck her, his wife told police.
The victim was Aubrey Reid, a Purple Heart Korean war veteran, who was stabbed in the chest with a hunting knife.
His wife, Barbara, mother of five by a previous marriage, admitted the stabbing and said she did it in self defense. Her husband, she said, came home in the early morning hours and started abusing her. When he smashed the clock and struck her, she plunged the knife into his chest, Mrs. Reid said.
Police summoned by neighbors said Reid was dead when they arrived.

MURDERERS SERVANTS FOR MISSISSIPPI'S GOVERNOR

JACKSON, Miss. (ANP) — How would you like to have as house servants eight desperate murderers serving life sentences in the state penitentiary for their crimes? Well, that's what Mississippi's new governor Ross Barnett has in the governor's mansion here.

'TOO COLD OUT THERE'; ESCAPEE SURRENDERS

COLUMBUS, Miss. (ANP) — Eugene Jones escaped with three other prisoners last week from the Lowndes County Jail.
While a posse was out searching for him, he suddenly appeared and surrendered himself to two women deputies.
"It's too cold and damp," he explained, "to stay outside hiding from the law."

Recorder Worker Reports Tire Theft

While James Cherry, Recorder linotype operator, was setting a story about a burglary Wednesday night, thieves were busy removing both rear tires and wheels from Cherry's car.
The theft was discovered shortly after 1 Thursday morning.

Hoosiers on Relief Rolls

Out-of-Staters Getting Highway Jobs, Hodcarriers Tell Lieutenant Governor

Lieut. Governor Crawford F. Parker, director of the state's Commerce and Industry Department, declared this week that his office will not tolerate the employment on state jobs of "foreign labor" while Hoosiers sit on the sidelines and sign the relief rolls.
Mr. Parker, in a conference with representatives of Hodcarriers and Laborers' Local 120 on Tuesday, stated that all contracts for state work should specifically demand that in the employment of workers, contractors must employ workers from within the counties in which the work is being done before any consideration can be given to persons from outside the areas.

HE PROMISED that the proper state officials would be directed to notify contractors immediately that compliance with this part of the contracts is expected. He further promised that proper methods for policing state jobs would be pursued.

The issue arose recently when officials of Local 120 called upon the state's second-ranking administrator for relief of what they termed a "grave" problem.

Samuel Collier, president of the local, and Roland Lolla, secretary-treasurer, directed a letter to Mr. Parker. In it they declared: "The 5,000 members of this organization are suffering from a problem which prohibits their employment to the maximum potential of available jobs in their field in Marion and Shelby Counties.

"Contractors are going outside these counties and the state to bring in workers to

Slays Burglar to Save Business

"He was a good boy and I loved him. I just don't believe it."

This from the mouth of Mrs. Roy Wright of Anderson in answer to a reporter's query, "What kind of man was Frederick Eugene Smith?"

Thus, a typically devoted mother described her feelings for an only son who, only a short time before, had been shot to death in the attempted burglary of a television and appliance shop.

The dead man's troubles began in 1943, in Anderson, when he was arrested for burglary and received a suspended sentence, and ended 17 years and 18 burglaries and larcenies later on the morning of Feb. 13 on a dark and lonely street.

It was about 11:30 Friday night when Jesse Rogers, 39, of 421 W. 23th, owner of the M&E Television & Hi-Fi Service at 3961 Boulevard, went to sleep on a cot in the rear of his store.

ACCORDING TO ROGERS, the store had been burglarized four times in the past six months and burglars had taken $1,700 worth of TV sets and a tool chest valued at $600. In an effort to stop his business from going on the rocks, he started sleeping in the rear of the store with a 12-gauge shotgun beside him.

He also built an alarm system so that whenever the front door glass was smashed, lights would come on inside the store.

The next morning, at approximately 5:45, Rogers said he was awakened by breaking glass. The store lighted up and the intruder was silhouetted in the doorway of the store. A big, burly man stooped over and began to pick up a 21-inch TV set.

From behind a curtain, 20 feet away, Rogers fired one shot from his shotgun.

"I shot him square in the chest," he said. "I didn't like to do it, but I had to save my business."

Stumbling from the shop through the broken front door, Smith fell dead on the sidewalk in front of 3947 Boulevard.

Smith was pronounced dead by Deputy Coroner Frank Tinsley and his body was ordered sent to the General Hospital Morgue. On the evening of Feb. 13 his body was sent to the Richard Taylor Funeral Home in Muncie for services which were conducted Feb. 17. Burial was in Beech Grove Cemetery in Muncie.

Noted Liberal Badly Hurt In Attack by Negro Hoodlums

CHICAGO (ANP) — Dr. Leo Bishop, 43, vice-president of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, said from a hospital bed late last week, where he was suffering from gunshot wounds inflicted during a holdup "this experience has not changed my convictions."

Dr. Bishop, white, one of the nation's best known workers for interracial harmony, was shot by a gang of teenage Negro hoodlums who committed a series of holdups after consuming a fifth of whiskey.

After learning the identity of their victim, one of the youths, Lonnie Bennett, 14, wrote the noted minister a letter. It said:

"DEAR MR. BISHOP I am sorry it was you whom I shot. You don't know how badly I felt about shooting you. If I had known I never would have done it. When I get out of this trouble, I would like to keep in touch with you."

Then in an afterthought, Bennett added a PS:
"I am so sorry it was you. No hard feelings I hope. That did not happen to the victim because of race. This had nothing to do with the robbery."

The other boys now in custody likewise expressed regret at having shot a man "who was trying to help my race." None of them, however, expressed any sympathy for their other holdup victims of the night.

The youngsters ranging in age from 14 to 19, including two girls started out in two cars to drag race after getting the whiskey from a drug store delivery boy who said he was going to tell his boss he had been robbed.

Spotting Dr. Bishop and his wife, Paula, walking along a south side street, the youths leaped from the two cars and in executing the holdup shot the minister.

Wounded, Dr. Bishop appealed to youths in the second car, for aid not knowing they were a part of the holdup team.

Ignoring his plea, the youths drove off.
Twenty-nine hours later they were rounded up through information provided by Willie Leroy Wheaton, 37, a Negro policeman who was born in Mississippi, and with the cooperation of Kinzie Blueitt, Chicago's only Negro police captain who was born in Chicago.

"I AM NOT WORRIED about me," Dr. Bishop said in the hospital. "The doctors tell me I'll get well. But I am very much worried about those Negro boys and girls. They and other delinquent teenagers, both white and colored, are full of the virus of hate and lawlessness."

"So long as we allow children, whether colored or white, to be brought up in squalor, deprived of decency and self-respect, just so long will we have incubators turning out young delinquents and future criminals in many parts of the city," he said.

"Negro crime is particularly tragic because it does such a great wrong to the thousands of intelligent, respectable colored citizens of Chicago," he added.

One of two youths arrested last week when a Technical High School guard found 111 barbiturate tablets on him was fined $115 in Municipal Court Feb. 11 and sentenced to 160 days at the State Farm.

19-year-old John Morrow, 919 E. 24th, was found guilty of violation of the 1935 Narcotics Act, and his friend, Warren Maxey, 19, 3550 N. Illinois, was freed after he said he didn't know Morrow had the pills, known as "red devils."

Both boys were seized in the school locker room by school guard, George Martin, a retired policeman.

'Paintbrush Battle' Highlights Union's Segregation Troubles

MEMPHIS (ANP)—Members of Local 988 of the United Automobile Workers of America are looking to the courts here to put an end to a battle of paint brushes that has developed from jimerow rest-room and drinking fountains in the union's headquarters here.
Recently, painters were employed to paint the hall. They did so, and erased all jimerow signs.
The local then hired painters to repaint the jimerow signs.

THE $130,000 HALL, built by the local, has been the scene of dissension for two years. The local is made up of 1,800 workers, about 500 of whom are Negro.
Most are employed at the International Harvester plant here.

Last week the local filed suit in Chancery court seeking an injunction against the UAW executive board from assuming administrative control over its affairs.
The local officers claim they have the right to establish jimerow policy to which of color, the Negro members object. The national executive board contends that the jimerow facilities at the hall are contrary to the national policy of the union and has therefore ordered them eliminated.

Negro members of the local first objected to the jimerow fountains and restrooms while the building was still in the blueprint stage over two years ago.

Pat Greathouse of Detroit, international vice president of the union, came here January 27, saw the signs and ordered them painted out. After he left the city, local officers had them repainted.
BUT GREATHOUSE returned several days later, was angered to see the signs and ordered them removed again.

At a meeting held with officers of the local, Greathouse told them they would be subject to discipline if they went to court in their insistence on maintaining jimerow facilities in the union hall.

Jailed Woman Fasts 3 Weeks In Tax Protest

CHICAGO (ANP) — Miss Eroseanna Robinson was in her 21st day of fasting Monday in the federal detention section of the Cook County jail.

Miss Robinson is the former athlete and social worker who refuses to pay her income tax because some of it will be used "for military and war purposes."

A member of an anti-war, anti-communist group called the Peace-makers, Miss Robinson has avoided paying income tax since 1954 by limiting her income to less than $800 per year.

THE FEDERAL CHARGE against her is not refusing to pay taxes, but refusing to file a tax return. She was put in jail, however, for refusing to answer questions put to her by Federal Judge Edwin Robinson.

Prison officials say she exercises strenuously every day in the nude, entertains visitors, but accepts only water for sustenance.
 County Jail Warden Jack R. Johnson said if she persists in her fast, he will seek a court order permitting doctors to feed her in travenously.

Lucy Malone

Funeral services for Mrs. Lucy M. Malone, 35, 1916 Sugar Grove, were held Feb. 13 in the Patton Funeral Home, with burial in Crown Hill Cemetery. She died Feb. 10 in Methodist Hospital.

She was a life resident of Indianapolis and survived by her husband, Ernest Malone; her father, Edward Williams; three sisters, Mesdames Doris Carey, Geraldine Jewell and Laverne Parsons, and three brothers, Edward and Albert Williams, Indianapolis, and Virgil Williams, in Germany.

 out segregation.
 The statement noted, however, that the students "are opposed to segregation in all its ugly forms and accept it as a duty of American citizenry to do what we can for its abolition."

From two other areas, support was given for the striking students. The North Carolina NAACP put its stamp of approval upon the movement, as did the American Civil Liberties Union.

Rev. Fred L. Shuttleworth, president, Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights, Birmingham, also approved the movement, speaking to 600 persons in Goler Metropolitan AME Zion church last Friday night, on the subject "Go Forward." The minister said: "It is time for leaders to speak the truth with us and with those who oppose us."
 "We need leadership that will lift us up. We can't expect Southern politicians to give us freedom . . . This is not a battle between you and Woodworth, Kress, Walgreen and the other stores."
 "This is a battle between right and wrong."

Alabama 'Head Beating' Victim Freed of Officers' Charges

PRICHARD, Ala. (ANP) — The climax to a shocking Christmas Day "head beating" incident was written Friday when George Moore, 31, Prichard police-brutality victim, was freed of the three charges lodged against him in connection with the incident.

Police Court Judge Jesse V. Cochran dismissed Moore, who was held on charges of drunk and disorderly, and also an allegation of attempted rape made by a Negro woman about six days after it was known that he had complained to the FBI with regard to his accusations of police brutality.

MOORE APPEALED the conviction and said he was not arrested by anyone on that night.

During the trial proceedings Friday a woman who identified herself as Sally May Pugh, 27, 2420 Prichard Lane, testified that Moore had attempted to rape her on Christmas morning — and that was the event which led to his arrest and the terrible beating inflicted on him by a person or persons acting under color of law.

However, on cross-examination by Atty. Vernon Z. Crawford, the woman admitted that she had gone to the Jolly Spot, a night club in Prichard, on Christmas eve night about 10:30 o'clock, had "four or five beer" and left at 2:30 o'clock Christmas morning, went home and to bed for two hours, then arose at 4:30 a. m. to go and look for her husband, when she was approached by George Moore, who allegedly attempted to rape her.

She had previously testified that Moore accosted her before daylight and during the cross-examination said it was after daylight.

Her inconsistencies led to a list of her charges against Moore. It was suspected that she had been "planted" in the case after Moore went to the FBI with his police brutality complaint. Crawford also asked her wasn't she under the influence of intoxicants at the time and didn't know what happened.

MOORE SAID that he had never seen the woman before and that he would not have been interested in her under any circumstances.
 Prof. C. E. Powell, President of the Non-Partisan Voters League, which handled Moore's defense, praised Judge Cochran for his "fairness in the case." Attorney Crawford for his "fine representation" and J. L. LeFlore, veteran civil rights leader, who contributed evidence to "sustain our contention in this case."

"The church is here to stay; regardless of who may leave any church, that church will move on, God has and always will have somebody to carry on the church."

Rev. Stephen Wells, pastor of Corinthian Baptist Church, brought out many good points last Sunday from Kings 18:21, and a singing group directed by Mrs. Julia Means sang out their hearts, especially their rendition of "Over The Hill."

Responding to an invitation to participate on the program at the Church of God of which Rev. M. Murray is pastor, we witnessed one of the programs with the largest musical numbers heard for a long time.

MRS. MARY BOARD, one of the best in the city who plays gospel numbers, is still doing a fine job despite her blindness. Mrs. Armitha Smith of Mt. Olive Ocfette appeared with more was the singing groups and there was the Golden Rule Baptist Choir with Rev. M. Murray as soloist. Rev. Robert Little was master of ceremonies.

ENROUTE HOME Rev. Little had us to drop in and see the beautiful structure of the Church of the Living God of which Rev. Charles C. Staples is pastor. This is one of the finest small churches of its kind in the city.

You would have to go inside to appreciate the beauty of it with all maple pews, pulpit and chairs. The runners on the floor are bright red. The church is located at 27th and Rader.

On leaving the church I bumped into Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stephens who are members of the Union Baptist Church. They were arriving for the night service. The Stephenses are active members of the church. Rev. Otis Nance is pastor.

THE CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD on Rader will have a two-weeks service with Rev. Walter Edwards, and Rev. T. Almond will also speak during the two weeks, Feb. 16 thru Feb. 26. Good preaching and singing each evening, is reported by Rev. Staples.

Fletcher Andrews To Be Honored At Shiloh Baptist

MR. FLETCHER ANDREWS

Fletcher Andrews will be honored Sunday, February 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the Shiloh Baptist Church when all the singing groups of the church along with some of the outstanding singers will come together in a special program of appreciation.

Mr. Andrews is a product of Barnesville, Ga., where he was graduated from the Booker T. Washington High School and attended Morris Brown College and Iteed Business College at Atlanta, Ga.

It was a lucky day for Indianapolis when Mr. Andrews chose this city for his permanent residence. After uniting with Shiloh Baptist Church, he has shown that he is a man of many talents. His voluminous tenor has helped to bring many persons into the church where he has served faithfully and diligently and the congregation has been revived repeatedly by his singing. He is skilled in office and business procedure and his hand work can be seen in many of the programs and other literature used around the church. Not being satisfied with knowing of himself, but being willing to pass on to others his knowledge and experience, he assumed the responsibility of teaching and training the Shiloh Chancel Choir. Later he became the Director of the Shiloh Gospel Chorus, which is considered one of the city's most outstanding singing aggregations. He is the Cole Singers, the Shiloh Chancel Chorus and the Shiloh Chancel Choir. In the X-Ray Department of the Marion County General Hospital where he is employed, he is well liked and respected and affectionately known as "Andy."

The public is invited to come out and join in this program of appreciation for one of our city's finest young men.

TIME FOR CLEAN, PAINT AND FIX-UP CAMPAIGN

While you see the benefit of spring cleaning and renovation of your own home, perhaps you wonder about the effectiveness of a present community beautification program. Provided everyone cooperates, what will we gain?

Even this partial list will most likely surprise you: development of community spirit, reduction of fire losses, instruction in good housekeeping, respect for property, vacant lot improvement, promotion of safety, and discouragement of crime.

There is also citizenship for children, improvement of employee morale. Clean-up supports business, stabilizes, restores and increases the value of real estate. It's up to you — if each of us supports the campaign, we will all benefit.

Clean Up — Paint Up — Fix Up — it's a winning proposition. Make your yard a park.

Keep speed wrapped up over the holiday season, urges the Indiana Traffic Safety Foundation.

Church Magazine

Airs Views on Mixed Marriages
NEW YORK (ANP) — The magazine Social Progress, a publication of the Presbyterian church, devotes its entire February issue to a thorough discussion of interracial marriage. The magazine contains 14 different articles on the subject.

The consensus of theologians, clergy and laity, North and South was that a Christian commitment could not preclude the marriage of a son or a daughter across racial lines.

"All talk and all striving for desegregation and for full equality and community of rights and duties of the people of different races living together in America is but rubbish unless it includes the willingness to accept and protect racially mixed marriages."
Rev. Elder C. Hawkins, moderator of the Presbytery of New York, said that before such marriages could have much hope of success the country must recognize the Negro as a whole person.

Mississippi Solon

Seeks Equal Rights for Negro Gamblers
WASHINGTON (ANP) — A Mississippi congressman called on the Civil Rights Commission last week for an investigation of charges that Negro gamblers are being discriminated against in New York City.

Rep. John Bell Williams based his complaint on reports made by Adam Clayton Powell, fiery Harlem congressman, that New York police have been arresting Negro policy racketeers and ignoring the "trappings of white gamblers." Williams' communication to the commission Williams declared, "It appears that the New York Police Department is protecting white gamblers while not protecting Negro gamblers."

"Whether this constitutes a denial of equal protection of the law," the Mississippian ironically observed, "I leave to your judgment."
Gordon M. Tiffany, the congressman's staff director, promptly replied that the Mississippians' "reservations had been 'noted with interest,'" and that "at the next meeting of the commission, these matters will be placed before it for consideration."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvements" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinkage) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were consistently over a period of many years.

In fact, results were so convincing that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or ointment for relief of hemorrhoids with immediate results.

Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Founders Day Dance to Honor Four NAACP Youth Workers

The much-awaited day of the NAACP Youth Council's Founders' Day dance will be wholeheartedly welcomed by at least four of the 36 charter members. Reginald Cheatham, William Hardy, Carole Stevenson and Robert Williams will receive special awards for their outstanding services and contribution to the council since it was organized in October of 1958.

Climaxing weeks of intensive planning, members of the local group, headed by Wallace Hollins, president, will converge on the Indiana University Medical Center from 9 to 1 on Feb. 19 to honor the national association, which was founded 51 years ago, and Youth Council founders and youth organizations which have joined the NAACP in its fight for freedom.

AMONG THE HIGHLIGHTS of the affair will be the appearance of the Three Souls, whose popularity is rapidly spreading throughout the country.

Summarizing the history of the youth council, members will recognize Mr. Cheatham as its first council president and also pay tribute to the Mr. Esquires Club which was the first youth organization to join the council Mr. Cheatham, incidentally, is present president of Mr. Esquires.

Presently, Mr. Hardy is state NAACP youth president; Miss Stevenson is national youth work secretary and Mr. Williams is state and local youth advisor.

Tickets for the dance may be purchased from any council member.

With the recent surge of teenage hoodlum activities fresh in the minds of youth council members, the council feels that this is an appropriate time to meet with the mayor and police chief to offer its assistance in helping to solve the problem.

The day of the meeting will be announced later.

Out-of-Staters

The Recorder, was asked by Mr. Parker to sit in on the meeting. Also attending were Charles E. Decker, director of the state Fair Employment Practices Commission, and James C. Cummings Jr., Indianapolis field consultant.

The union representatives said that as the result of illegal practices of some contractors, members of their organizations, already limited by the seasonal work, are denied employment even during the peak months.

Numerous laborers from Local 129 are almost perpetually in line for relief and unemployment compensation checks while men from Kentucky, Tennessee and Ohio earn money on jobs financed by Indiana tax payers, it was asserted.

These imported workers save their native states to spend the money, the union men charged.

After hearing the charges Mr. Parker immediately set up an appointment for the group with George M. Foster, executive director of the Indiana State Highway Commission.

The lieutenant governor made his feelings on the matter clear to the commission executive.

The next day, Wednesday, the commission sent a letter to all district engineers and project engineers in the bridge construction and road construction divisions informing them they were to be absolutely certain that contractors on state jobs observe all clauses in their contracts.

The letter stated: "You are to give your attention to this matter to the end that you not only discuss the situation with the contractor, but that you periodically review the contractor's payroll and the labor personnel to satisfy yourself that the intent and spirit of the law is being complied with."

THE CORRESPONDENCE also pointed out that reports had been received that discrimination because of race and creed had been practiced by some contractors.

"This, of course, is specifically contrary to the specifications as contained in each contract."

John Peters, chairman of the highway commission, and C. E. Verelgeas, chief engineer, signed the letter together with Foster.

Part of the policy incorporates complete customer satisfaction. Salespeople are trained to guarantee the customer a proper fit and to insure satisfaction. Schiff's will always gladly exchange a purchase or cheerfully refund the money.

WHILE SCHIFF'S stores are a part of the Shoe Corporation of America, each store is a separate entity. Unlike most chains, each store manager is in complete charge of his store. He does his own merchandising and buying which results in the merchandise in a particular store being exactly the type of merchandise wanted in that particular neighborhood.

Schiff's stores carry a long list of nationally famous brand-names which are advertised in America's leading magazines, including Madison Square for Men in Esquire; Madison Square for Boys in Parents; Dream Step in Vogue, Mademoiselle and Glamour; Friskies in Seventeen; Correct Step in Good Housekeeping; and Blue Bird in Parents.

Other well known items at Schiff's include Sport Star basketball shoes, Sport Star golf shoes, Ten Strike bowling oxfords, Chicago roller skates, Canadian Flyer ice skates, Seal tennis oxfords and shoes — Polar Bear rubber footwear and Cozy Toes and Lazy Pals house slippers.

Schiff's currently have nine convenient locations in Greater Indianapolis: 140 and 259 E. Washington, Broad Ripple and Fountain Square and in the Eagle Dale Plaza, Irvington Plaza, The Meadows, Twin-Aire and the Westside shopping centers.

Empire Life and Accident Company Chalks Up All-Time High Record

Empire Life and Accident Insurance Company with its home office in Indianapolis, began its second half-century by breaking all previous performance records.

The 22 district offices in the state of Indiana hung up the best record in the company's history; the first nine months of 1959 practically equaled the company's best full year — 1956; and the field staff showed a substantial increase.

Empire Life now serves more than 235,000 policyholders and has over $150 million of life insurance in force in the state of Indiana.

HIGHLIGHTS of Empire's 51st year included the introduction of several new ordinary and weekly premium contracts and exciting "trips and gifts" contest for the field force and the inauguration of a new system of debit accounting.

This new procedure was developed through the joint effort of Empire and the Royal McBee Corporation and represents an important "first" for the debit insurance industry.

Empire Life was started in 1908 by two enterprising brothers — C. S. and J. M. Drake. At first it was tough sledding and the company saw many lean days. But the Drake brothers devoted themselves to their new organization and their long hours and hard work produced results.

Over the past 51 years, the company has paid millions of dollars in claims to living policyholders and beneficiaries. Empire's 200 field representatives serve Indiana exclusively.

C. S. Drake headed the company at its inception and was president until his death in September, 1935. He had a keen understanding of the life insurance business, an inexhaustible supply of vim, vigor and vitality, aggressiveness and the vision necessary to build a successful business organization.

J. M. DRAKE became president following his brother's death and remained as president until 1955, and was able to guide the company with the insight gained as a "jack-of-all-trades" during the company's early days. He sold and established debts, checked collections, paid claims and held regular sales meetings.

Today J. M. Drake is chairman of the board, actively serving the company at the age of 76. J. I. Cummings has been president of Empire Life since 1955, and has been associated with the company since 1937. He began as a field representative, progressed to division manager in 1939, vice-president in 1952, and president three years later.

Mr. Cummings has not only helped Empire Life to make tremendous advances, but has been a leader in the life insurance industry. His ability as a good life insurance executive is recognized by others in the business. He served as president of the Life Insurers Conference in 1957.

From its earliest days, Empire Life has built a reputation for integrity and concern for its policyholders. The company's first debits were scattered and always covered on foot, summer or winter. And many was the mile that an Empire

Controversy Rages Over Daddy Grace's $25 Million Estate

By SAMUEL P. PERRY JR. BOSTON (AP) — Simply put, Daddy Grace, though buried in a $20,000 coffin, remains as much a controversial figure in death as he was during his rich lifetime.

In New Bedford, Atty. Roy F. Texeira, who was appointed the administrator of the Grace estate by Bristol County authorities, told the press that he had found $300,000 in Daddy Grace's name in New Bedford banks and about $97,000 in real estate. Atty. Texeira conservatively estimated the total wealth of Bishop Grace at $25 million.

The prominent attorney also disclosed that prior to death of the religious leader, he had been dickered with a New York City mercantile establishment with an eye to purchasing it for a sum of about $6 million.

TEXEIRA HAS FILED an appearance for Mrs. Jan Grace of New Bedford so that she can get one-third of the estate, which is the legal widow's share in Massachusetts.

Seeking a daughter's share of the estate is Mrs. Irene Noriega. However, a legal battle is foreseen inasmuch as Bishop Grace's will, drawn in 1948, did not mention Mrs. Grace. Mrs. Grace contends she and Bishop Grace were married on Feb. 11, 1909, and there was no legal divorce.

In the meantime, state and federal income tax officials have taken an intensified interest in the taxable portion of the late religious leader's estate. Inside sources note that Bishop Grace had his church invest heavily in government bonds which paid off in non-taxable interest.

BUT AN INTERESTING question has been raised by Attorney Texeira. He informed reporters the Bishop Grace had $80,000 on his person at the hospital where he died in Los Angeles. The entire amount disappeared, to add still another aura of mystery to the case.

Atty. Texeira plans to visit each of the 300 churches of the House of Prayer in an effort to untangle the legal and financial affairs.

Negro Student Drops Out of U. of Florida

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—George Starke, 22-year-old Negro law student at the University of Florida, has dropped out of school, according to a statement by university officials Friday. Starke was the first Negro to attend the university.

Though Starke had been on academic probation—required to maintain a "C" average to remain in school—university officials had been dropping because of poor grades.

Thus Esther M. Langston, Orlando, a medical student, is now the only Negro at the university. Her grades have been described as "satisfactory."

Dual Justice Assailed in Mississippi Courts

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP)—Mississippi's dual system of justice as exemplified by the recent Tupelo and Corinth racial violence cases — was denounced by the Ministers' Conference of Meridian and vicinity last week.

In a telegraphed protest to President Eisenhower, the conference noted the difference in sentences meted out to Negro and white violators of the law.

Tupelo, three Negro youths received 20-years-to-life sentences for assaults upon three white men, none of whom were killed. In Corinth, however, of eight white boys who shotgun-murdered a Negro youth and ear-wounded another, four of which were suspended. The remaining seven were released without indictments.

White Farmer Linked With Miss. NAACP

MEMPHIS (AP)—Alton West, 52-year-old white dairy farmer, knows how it feels to be hounded and harassed by people who believe, though not rightly, he is not what he says.

West recently told of spending two years waging a hopeless fight against reprisals for his rumored affiliation with the NAACP. He and his family were virtually driven off their $85,000 farm in Lake Cormorant, Miss., because (1) he was allegedly an NAACP member; (2) he had Negroes in colored churches; (3) he had Negroes to join the NAACP; and (4) he had Mrs. Daisy Bates of Little Rock at his home.

Though he denied NAACP membership and/or visiting a colored church since he was a boy, and had been cleared of the charges by the state's sovereignty committee, he said that a "Little Hitler machine in DeSoto County" continued to exert pressure upon him.

He reported that even in Memphis, where the NAACP exists, he hasn't been able to find work and his son was recently fired from a job with a local auto dealer after a check was made of his last employment and address.

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa. (AP)—The national organization representing 1,800,000 Methodist women recently called on the 1960 General Conference of The Methodist Church to "take clearly defined steps to remove the pattern of segregation from the structure of the church and from its total program and practices."

'Son of Slaves' Retires From Ft. Wayne Police Force

Special to the Recorder

FT WAYNE — "I can claim the distinction of being the only member of the Ft. Wayne Police Department who had parents that were slaves." This from the mouth of one of Ft. Wayne's outstanding citizens in answer to the interviewer's questions regarding his recent establishment of an AFL-CIO chapter in Ft. Wayne after more than 40 years with the Ft. Wayne Police Department.

Lieut. Oliver S. Lee, a native of new Richmond, O., came to Ft. Wayne in 1910 and worked as a chauffeur before joining the force in 1919. He was the second Negro policeman to be appointed. At the time the Negro population in Ft. Wayne was only 1,000.

"MY FIRST ASSIGNMENT was that of patrol and ambulance driver," Lieut. Lee recalls. "After seven years in this assignment I requested a transfer to walking a beat, which was granted."

Continuing in this assignment, Lieut. Lee learned more and more about police work. On Jan. 1, 1935 he was promoted to the rank of detective sergeant, the first Negro police officer to be promoted to this rank. A few years later, 1952, he was promoted to detective lieutenant, another first.

Mr. Lee stated that he was able to meet with a high degree of success in his rank because of the wholesome cooperation of his fellow men and city officials, both Negro and white.

Aside from his police activity, Lieut. Lee has always found time to render his service in a religious, fraternal and social manner. He is a longtime member of United Baptist Church, the board of directors of the Phyllis Wheatley Social Center, St. Mary's Lodge, F&M; United Supreme Council, 32nd degree; and the Imperial Council, Prince Hall affiliation. He is a member of Hamite

Elks Lodge No. 428 and was elected ruler when the present Elks Rest was purchased. A former state vice-president of the group, he was also past chief of the northern district.

MR. LEE SAYS, "I have served the public for 40 years. At present I have no definite plans, save to spend considerable time at my summer home at Idlewild, Mich. I am happy to retire with the best wishes from hundreds of well-wishers, among them many who ran afoul of the law and I was directly or indirectly involved.

"My guiding principle has always been never to look down upon a person regardless of who he is or what he has done, and always to be ready when advisable, to temper justice with mercy."

George Meany Hurls Blast At Congressman Adam Powell

Special to the ANP

NEW YORK—Long dormant efforts to build up a national Negro labor council were awakened here last week by an attack on Rep. Adam Clayton Powell by George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO.

Meany in Bay Harbor, Fla., attending the executive council of the AFL-CIO said he thought Powell unfit to head the House committee on labor and education.

POWELL IS SLATED to succeed Rep. Graham A. Barden of North Carolina who plans to retire at the end of this session.

Meany's blunt statement brought a swift rebuttal from A. Philip Randolph, only Negro member of the executive council.

Randolph said that while he did not approve Powell's absenteeism, nor his racist statements "I think he is entitled to the job under the seniority rule."

He also said that Powell has a good voting record on Labor issues and that he plans to retire at the end of this session.

"Regardless of what he says," Randolph declared, "I'm sure Mr. Powell is not a racist at heart."

Meany's attack on Powell came spontaneously and overbalanced a statement that he was renewing efforts to break down the one remaining racial barrier in the AFL-CIO. It is the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

Many feel that Meany was extremely injudicious in attacking Powell. They fear that if Powell is made chairman of the committee, he may be influenced in his judgments by Meany's attack.

Teenage Terrorism -- Emergency Situation

Would to God we could suggest some easily workable means for ending the reign of terror instigated by our teenagers gone mad.

There's little point in glossing over the fact that perpetrators for most of the atrocities are Negroes.

It has become distressingly obvious, however, that something has to be done now. Gangs of terror-bent hoodlums no longer content themselves with an occasional purse grabbing and other abuses of defenseless women.

It is, of course, significant that most — though by no means all — of the offenders come from poor, unstable families and slum neighborhoods, that most of them feel themselves victims of discrimination, particularly in job opportunities.

We think Mr. Cadou will forgive us when we say it is perhaps fortunate that he and his wife were victims in one of the more recent gang attacks.

It will give added weight to the request of the mayor and chief of police for an additional 200 police officers on walking beats.

The conference we have in mind is not the traditional political gab-fest where assorted orators view with alarm and adopt resolutions, but would include leaders from all segments of population.

Most community leaders who have given any thought to the problem know fairly well what its causes are.

Once desegregation is started — and there is no returning — there will be no real adjustment until the process is complete and every person can feel himself an integral part of his community's life.

We think we understand something of the problem confronting juvenile court judges. We feel certain there would be more convictions and more actual sentences if there was SOMEWHERE TO PUT THE OFFENDERS.

Like wise, money spent on increasing our city police force to realistic proportions is money well spent.

The conference should also point out the crying need for more and better recreational facilities for young people in all parts of town.

The obviousness of the fact that lack of parental guidance plays a huge role in lawlessness among young people is surpassed only by the near-impossibility of gaining the attention and cooperation of those parents.

The mayor's call for strict enforcement of the curfew law, which makes it illegal for teenagers under 18 to be out after 11 without good reason, will doubtless mean that several "nice kids" will be picked up; this probably is an unfortunate necessity.

The community-wide conference should give us a fair idea as to just what those forces should be.

Negro Press Creed The Negro Press believed that the best lead the world away from racial and national antagonism when it records every man, regardless of race, color or creed, his human and legal rights.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Ambassadors in Bonds

By The Union Baptist Alliance

REV. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

(LARGER LESSON: Acts 20:13-21; 16. LESSON PRINT: Acts 20:18-21, 28-35. MEMORY VERSE: Titus 2:11,12.)

Now it may not have been such a great sermon, but I shall look into Paul's life through Christ or Christ's life through Paul.

SAINTS WITH A MANNER OF LIFE (Acts 19:23; 20:7-21, 33-35) I know you have heard the piercing question: "And what kind of Christian is that?"

Well, that is a very direct and searching question. So we shall look into Paul's life through Christ or Christ's life through Paul.

Here was no "When you are in Rome do as the Romans." His was "When you are in Jerusalem, Antioch, Philippi, Athens or Corinth as a Christian in Christ, do as He bids you."

AMBASSADORS IN BONDS (Romans 15:25-33; Acts 20:22-23; II Corinthians 5:18-21) "I go bound in the Spirit," says Paul. He took into account that he had collected funds to help the poor saints at Jerusalem.

I wish I had the gift of West-brook Pegler so that I might expose this subject in enduring terms.

George Maxwell, 860 W. 10th.

Spread Hate and Suffer Consequences To the Editor: A few days ago, some ministers asked for prayer because of the recent killing.

Parents, when you teach your child to love and respect all men as brothers and he will have no choice but to love you too.

With Christian love, William J. Baker, 745 N. Elder.

Which strengthened him. MISSION COMPLETED (Acts 20:24-25, II Timothy 4:6-18). There is a sad note in this lesson.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, when hesitating to fully carry out the tactical instructions of his high command, remarked, "Old soldiers never die. They attack and retreat a little, re-occup their armies and pass on to new worlds to conquer."

So did our champion here. The story is told of a World War I soldier who was found wounded, stripped and cold. Taking him to camp, his rescuers asked his name, rank and point of enlistment, to which he had no presence of mind to reply.

Well, here are Paul's credentials: three times shipwrecked, a night and a day in the sea, in danger from rivers, beaten 39 times by his own brethren.

These were the marks of his apostleship. With these he could say: "I have kept the good fight; I have kept the faith; I have finished my course, and I am ready to be offered up, for the time of my departure is at hand."

It MUST BE HARD for any thinking person to reconcile a belief in a Supreme Being with the ways things are run under His direction.

I don't think it is too much to hope that in the next decade we will possess a better understanding, Christianity's failure may be overcome by Communism's success.

Strangely the driver of the home-state car (Indiana) was a top executive of a nationally known manufacturing firm of a nearby (Indiana) county.

Brotherhood Day Is Over

-- Churches Can Relax

By Andrew W. Ramsey

The ancient Romans had a holiday called the Saturnalia which came the 17th of December and which was observed in honor of Saturn, the god of agriculture.

IN OUR OWN DAY we have no Saturnalia because Saturn does not belong to our pantheon which includes besides the God of Abraham and Jacob, the gods of money and white supremacy.

For instance, one of the offerings of our often suborned television has been a program called "Queen for a Day" on which some colorless and frumpish housewife is gifted with many of the fineries that present-day queens wish they could afford and crowned "queen" for that particular day.

But in a more significant area we Americans have a way of imitating the Romans. This particular day for the righting of some one of our particular wrongs.

And the remarkable thing about it is that white congregations which have sold their houses of worship to Negro congregations in what they call euphemistically "changing neighborhoods" and moved to lily-white neighborhoods still get in on the act and glibly talk about and glibly listen to the philosophy of universal brotherhood!

And many of the white churches which on Brotherhood Day would be greatly shocked to see Negroes in attendance at their

And these special days the one paralleling the Roman holiday which comes as a mild palliative for the rigors of racism in the birth month of Abraham Lincoln, the Great Liberator.

THE CHURCHES of America which operate on either side of the color line during the other 364 days of the year stage a great revival of brotherhood that is brotherhood in a sort of non-social way.

The affected congregations dutifully listen to pious sermons on the brotherhood of men and the Fatherhood of God and go home with their basic attitudes unchanged to await Brotherhood Day the following year.

Some churches go a little further. Some of their auxiliaries get into the act and the men's group, the women's missionary society or the youth group of the white church will also have a Negro speaker and duly view the situation with alarm and go home.

BETWEEN THE LINES

For His Works' Sake

By Dean Gordon B. Hancock for ANP

The passing of Bishop Charles Manuel Grace is an event of more than ordinary importance. When Jesus Christ was in the flesh, there were those who doubted him and suspected that He was an impostor and a false prophet; and His teachings were seriously questioned by the upper echelons of Judaism. They refused to believe the miracles that were being wrought before their eyes.

And there was always the impulse to shrug Him off. But Jesus implored them to hear Him in His teachings, and if this seemed impossible, to hear Him for His works' sake. It is easy to appeal from a man's teachings and doctrines, but it is not so easy to appeal from his works! In the last analysis Jesus staked His claim to the allegiance of the people on the mighty works He did for the people.

The late Bishop Grace should be appraised for the constructive works he did among the people. Within a generation he did a marvelous work in the building of the religious empire from nothing but a dream to greatness.

Bishop Grace cannot be "shrugged off." When a leader single-handedly builds an organization that proudly boasts of 500 houses of worship and a total membership of 4,000,000 and with real estate conservatively estimated at $25,000,000, he has something; and that something is extraordinary.

Today our land is overrun with cults of one kind or another, but Bishop Grace's solid achievements place him above the cult level and in the class of great achievers. Those who have had more formal education are at first inclined to shrug off Bishop Grace, but when he shows what he has done without formal degrees, and we show what we have not done with our great degrees, Bishop Grace stands out in bold relief.

Aside from the possibility that his religious empire will fall apart on the day of a general "subordinates get up in his deadly work, the fact will be that the Negro race can be led constructively by those who have the vision and the genius. Bishop Grace easily built one of the most powerful religious organizations to be found in this country.

The phenomenal rise and achievement of Bishop Grace poses a mighty challenge to the older denominations of Negro churches. What is it that Bishop Grace had that they do not have? Most of his followers were taken out of other churches.

WHY DID THESE members change churches? One of the outstanding facts of current church history is the growth of the Holiness Church among whites and Negroes, and a second fact is that these Holiness members were once members of other churches the most important of which is the Baptist denomination.

It must be observed that Bishop Grace's great boast was that he baptized his first convert in a mud-hole. Almost all of the Holiness Churches are some variety of Baptists since they all make much of baptism.

Too often members of Baptist churches join Holiness churches and are re-baptized. Just why people with Baptist inclinations drift away from Baptist churches is a matter which should deeply concern the ministry of the Baptist denomination.

THIS COLUMN deplored a few weeks ago that our Negro artists too invariably sing over the heads of their audiences, and we are here venturing the suspicions that our better educated ministers may be preaching over the heads of certain segments of their congregations.

As one young minister was heard to say, "I am an educated man with degrees from such and such colleges and seminaries and I propose to set the level of preaching high and the people must come up to my level."

Trice's 'Attitude Problem' Perils Tiger Chances

BEATIN' THE GUN

Oscar Rated Greater Than Baylor and Wilt

By BILL BROWER For ANP

While some wisecracks in the basketball world continue to devalue Oscar Robertson, the Big O clicks merrily along, establishing himself as the greatest college cage performer of all time.

There are those who dispute that claim, saying that even among the current crop Jerry West of West Virginia and Tom Smith of St. Bonaventure are superior.

But statistics speak louder than words and based on the staggering figures alone, Oscar has to be the greatest. His contemporaries can't touch him and we believe he is a better college performer than Elgin Baylor or Wilt Chamberlain.

His astronomical point total is now 2,693, far surpassing the old 4-year record of 2,587. He has at least an outside chance to tally 3,000 before his career at Cincinnati comes to an end.

WE THINK A Philadelphia sports columnist has the best size-up of Robertson's stature.

"They all want to challenge Oscar, Robertson," he wrote. "He's the stock character in the television Westerns: 'The fastest gun in town.' In all dramas he's always a bad man turned good, yet all the cowpokes, hot heads and unknown gunslingers want to test his draw."

Then the writer added: "In a way this is Oscar. He merely wants to lead his own life, averaging 43 points a game. Making every All-America east of Shanghai, and getting a fresh offer every day from Abe Saperstein.

"But whether it's Wichita, or Houston, or Peoria, or New York. Continued on Page 16

Big O Heads For Last Trip In Southland

CINCINNATI — Coming up is Oscar Robertson's last trip to the Southland as a college player—and according to reports, it is none too soon for the Big O.

The University of Cincinnati Bearcats will play at Houston, Tex., Saturday. There it was that Oscar, as a sophomore, ran smack into the shocking experience of unexpected hotel discrimination.

According to a published account, the Cincinnati authorities had arranged for the team to stay at a hotel with all the blissful ignorance of Little Red Riding Hood entering her grandmother's cottage.

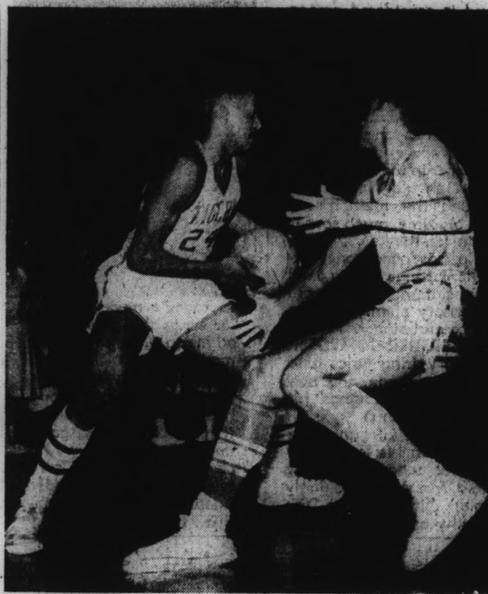

Thus Oscar, who was then the only Negro player on the team, was rudely surprised when the desk clerk singled him out: "YOU can't stay here."

THE HUMILIATED young star was hustled off to Negro accommodations, while the rest of the Bearcats stayed on that year in subsequent visits to Dixie, according to the report, the whole team has stayed together in college or private facilities.

The Jimcrow treatment seemed to nett Oscar, and he scored only 13 points against Houston—low for his college career.

Ironically—or maybe on purpose—it was against the same club, in a game played this time at Cincinnati, that he tallied 29 two weeks ago to break the all-time major college career record.

Last year the all-time All-American was the subject of vicious abuse and name-calling from the Continued on Page 16

KEY MAN IN KEYHOLE: Whether Attucks wins its 8th straight sectional basketball title next week at Butler Fieldhouse may depend in large part on the pivot play of Jerry Trice (24), shown being guarded by Learmon Blaylock of Cathedral in last week's game. Jerry hit 14 against the Irish and the next night counted 23 as Attucks lost at East Chicago Washington, 52-50. Trice will have to "straighten up and fly right" if he is to help the team. LIKE PICKING MUNCIE This nonpareil is the smallest type we have at The Recorder. If there's anything this writer hates, it's getting on a handwagon. Before the basketball season started, we saw the Attucks and Muncie Central teams in the same gym and we said, "One of them will win the state." We've been waiting for a Tiger sign but it hasn't come. So it's got to be the Bearcats. Now go ahead, Attucks, and make a fool of us all. There's nothing we'd enjoy more. — C. S. P.

Reluctance of Oscar Stymies Pro Plan Here

"Oscar doesn't want to play in Indianapolis and so that's all there is to it," Ray Crowe said Monday regarding the proposed establishment of a professional basketball team here with Oscar Robertson as the drawing-card.

"I don't know why he doesn't want to play here."

He declined to identify the men interested in backing the proposed team but said one of them "was in pro basketball before so he must know what it costs."

Illini Persuade Searcy to Return

Edgar Searcy, former Attucks basketball "Star of Stars," has returned to the University of Illinois and the team.

Earlier Searcy was discouraged because he didn't see enough action. When the Illini played at Purdue he refused to make the trip, but came home to Indianapolis instead. He said he was going to join the Army.

A delegation including the coach and some of the players came here and persuaded Ed to return to school, a member of the family told The Recorder last week.

On Monday, Searcy counted 11 points but Illinois lost to Ohio State, 109-81.

Is Oscar Trying To Top Brother?

One record Oscar Robertson probably wants to break is 65 points in a game. You see, that would make him top man in the family.

The "Big O's" older brother Gailcy, registered that total in an Army game in Germany a month ago.

Bailey or "Flap," who set the Indiana all-time college scoring record while at Indiana Central, has served as an excellent "pacer" for Oscar throughout his career. Oscar tallied 62 against North Texas State last week.

Wood 'Lays for' Manual In Southport Sectional

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

Continued friction between pivot ace Jerry Trice and Coach Bill Garrett this week threatened Attucks' chances for its 9th sectional basketball crown.

After the state champs squeaked past Wood 72-69 Tuesday with Trice on the bench for coming late, a fuming Garrett said:

"He got here when we had already been on the floor 10 minutes. This is the second straight (city) game he's done that. I excused him last week at the Cathedral game, because maybe his bus had been late, but we can't depend on him.

"He might play one game in the tournament, and not show up for the next one."

Garrett, the state's Coach of the Year in 1959, has had trouble all season with the stellar junior's attitude. Trice has sat out four games and part of at least one

Heavy Aims at Olympic Trials

Other for disciplinary reasons: "I'd rather beat Manual than any other team in the state," the first-year Wood coach declared. "We lost to Manual by only four points, and next week we're going to get 'em. One of their players called one of our boys a (bad racial expression) and Coach Dick Cummins said, 'Oh, we just got that sort of thing.' Well, we haven't forgotten it. "See you at the regional!" he concluded cheerfully.

THE FIRST SHOOT-FEST between teams of Wilson and Garrett marked a historic occasion. These were the two high school "Mr. Basketballs," of 1946 and 1947 respectively, who launched the modern era of high-scoring basketball dominated by Negro players. In 1950 the wave spread to Attucks and then to most other big-city schools.

Wilson, who was all-state center at a fraction under 6 feet to win the nickname "Jumpin' Johnny," was the same problem at Wood where only one of his players stands over 5-11. (He is Jerome Clark, 6-2.)

AGAINST ATTUCKS' LINEUP which could average 6-5 if Garrett wanted it to, the Woodchucks looked like boys playing men. However, they soon found an equalizer in the sensational outside shooting of Dick Davis (21 points), Willie Smith (17) and others.

These boys fired from the dress-room door, and the Chucks also hit 19-for-25 free throws to make a rattling good game of it. Wood held a 4-point lead in the 2d quarter.

"What I could do if I had that 6-5 Stu Smith off of Garrett's bench!" Wilson said, deploring Wood's lack of height.

In fairness, it works both ways. With the exception of Don Switt, who scored 17 of his 19 points in the last half to save the game, the Tigers are hurting as badly for outside shooters as Wood is for tall boys.

We still think the only solution is a trade, after the fashion of organized baseball (smile).

Dr. Bishop is white, and one of the nation's best known workers for interracial harmony in the nation. Said Dr. Bishop from his Chicago hospital bed: "This experience has not changed my convictions." NEWSMAN AND WIFE ATTACKED . . . Marion County threatens to place a charge which carries a mandatory life sentence against three youths held in the robbery-beating last Friday of Eugene J. Read, if you will, their addresses . . . Just what makes boys from good homes turn to crime . . . and what can be done to get this type of boy back on the main line . . . are some of the questions we must answer in the months and years ahead.

Mr. Cadou, who is the father of The Star, in an article in last Sunday's Times, said: "These so-called children were experts at crime. I feel we adults should start bearing down on those packs of marauding juveniles who roam around hunting us as if we were their legal prey. Somebody in this particular pack had a car and it was 1:30 in the morning. Why should parents let their children run loose with a car all night long? . . . ONE OF THE mothers of the boys who were arrested for slugging and robbing us telephoned me last night. She seemed very sincere. She said she was very sorry we had been hurt, and regretful that one of her boys was mixed up in it. I didn't know what to tell her. . . AND WE DON'T know how to thank this mother for being frank and sincere enough to call Mr. Cadou and tell him she is sorry . . . So many mothers coddle their children and refuse to believe anything bad about them . . . and this is not only bad but wrong thinking . . . And we know that other mothers in our community join this boy's mother in her message to the Cadous and their son. It was truly a regrettable incident — for which the whole town is sorry!

WOMAN ATTACKED . . . Tuesday night at about 9:20, two Negroes between 25 and 30 are alleged to have severely beaten Mrs. Jenie Darmer in her home taking $6 from her billfold. The woman, a widow, lives at 1857 Holloway.

WE HAVE contended all along that what is needed most in this man's town ARE FOOT POLICEMEN . . . Men walking beats in pairs and on opposite sides of the street at the same time in trouble areas . . . It worked in Cincinnati years ago and it should work here . . . We mean walking patrolmen . . . NOT loafing 'cops' in drug stores, restaurants and taverns . . . But dedicated men like Donahue, Watkins, Hadley, Davenport, Dabner and others . . . This thing can be stopped . . . and good police work can stop . . . But, we as citizens must do our part . . . we must cooperate with the police . . . Instead of telling your friends who committed certain crimes . . . tell it to your favorite officer . . . and you MUST have one! This Thing MUST STOP!

GOOD NEWS . . . POLICE SERGEANT OSCAR DONAHUE . . . a hard working policeman at all times . . . has been promoted to the rank of acting lieutenant. If there is any man in the department who deserves a promotion . . . it most certainly is Donahue . . . and it couldn't have happened to a better fella . . . police officer and otherwise . . . Officer David S. Jeter was promoted to acting sergeant . . . Here again was a good choice . . . and our congrats to the mayor, Safety Board and chief for these timely appointments . . . We know, if given the chance . . . these men will get results . . . But they and their fella officers must not be hamstrung by politicians and high brass plus social do-gooders.

UNCALLED FOR . . . Two waiters quarreling over the Sunday paper led to shooting of one waiter by the other in the basement (of a) places of the Indianapolis Naptown . . .

Naptown is really on bigtime and in a real big way . . . what with such name attractions as the Four Tops, singing sensations, direct from a 3-month stay in Las Vegas and formerly with the Arthur Braggs "Idlewild Revue," who open Monday nite for six big days at the Pink Poodle with special George Washington's Birthday matinee Monday from 3:30 till 7:30 . . . and FREE souvenirs for the ladies. Regular matinees every Saturday from 3:30 till 7:30.

Currently on tap at the bistro thru Saturday are such top names as Leonard and Leonard, formerly of the Larry Steele Revue, who appeared on Ed Sullivan's TV show a while back; Harold Smith, song-nation show-stopper from Milwaukee; the Four Sounds, TV and radio stars, and Chewa, the sultry exotic dancer. Don't miss this show this weekend.

The popular Southside entertainment spot specializes in fried chicken, shrimp dinners, mixed drinks and carry-out service plus three bars for the ladies . . . Coming March 14 — the one and only Faye Adams.

MEET MACK WEAVER . . . the young man who writes songs and sings them with a feeling . . . and is considered among Naptown's newest and most promising talent. . . Mack wants his many friends to know that he'll be appearing Tuesday nite at the Hub-Bub . . . one of the city's top play spots. Mr. Weaver is beginning a career in the music world that should land him among the footlights of the big time, much sooner than he thinks . . . The fella has good tone, excellent range and good enunciation, which are necessary elements for a successful singer.

THE SINGER-COMPOSER began writing lyrics at a very early age and now composes and sings his own songs in a style all his own . . . In an effort to explain his long delay in the song-producing field, Mr. Weaver jokingly said: "It may be the quality or lack of quality in today's modern popular songs that has inspired me to write what I feel may be songs more suited to the majority."

Mr. Weaver's latest song hits now pending publication are "Together Again" and "The Rose," with others to follow. Be sure and dig this young singer Tuesday nite at the Hub-Bub. (Saint)

'The Big Country' With Gregory Peck and Jean Simmons at Walker Sunday

"The Big Country," William Wyler's epic film of the American southwest, stars Gregory Peck, Jean Simmons, Carroll Baker, Charlton Heston and co-stars Burl Ives and Charles Bickford with Chuck Connors and Alfonso Bedoya. It's the story of an Easterner who is plunged into a bitter western range war when he tries to mediate a long-standing feud between two families who claim water rights to the same land.

"The Big Country," an Anthony Worldwide Production filmed in Technirama and Technicolor for United Artists release, will open Sunday at the Walker Theatre. William Wyler and Gregory Peck produced and Wyler directed from a screenplay by James R. Webb, Sy Bartlett and Robert Wilder based on a novel by Donald Hamilton. The screen adaptation was written by Jessamyn West and Robert Wyler.

Franz Planer was chief cameraman for the outdoor drama.

CHUCK CONNORS is about to fight a gun duel with Gregory Peck while Burl Ives sees to it that the fight is a fair one. Scene is from the dramatic western, "The Big Country," filmed in Technicolor and showing Sunday thru Wednesday at the Walker.

HEAR BELAFONTE, POITIER TO SWAP MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR MOVIE ROLES

NEW YORK (ANP)—Harry Belafonte and Sidney Poitier, both enjoying marked success as actor and movie producer, reportedly have signed a reciprocal agreement whereby each will appear in a movie made by the other's corporation.

The multi-million dollar deal was concluded at the Blue Angel here following a conference between Belafonte, Poitier, Max Youngstein, president of United Artists; producer Robert Harigan, and Harry's lawyer, Sidney Davis.

According to the agreement, Poitier will co-star with Belafonte in "El Cid," a flick to be produced by Harigan in Italy. It is based on the Moorish conquest of Spain. That's one part of the deal.

THE SECOND PART of the deal calls for Belafonte co-starring in Poitier's movie, entitled "P.M." It is the story of an African prime minister.

One other condition of the deal: Each would give the other a Bentley car and contribute to each other's favorite charity.

It was noted that Belafonte and Poitier started their stage careers in humble surroundings in the American Negro Theater 15 years ago. Each operated small unprofitable clubs, it was reported.

That's how Poitier got the first big break. One night when Belafonte was away helping his father, a building superintendent, a producer came to see him, found Poitier filling in for Harry and signed Sidney.

MRC BROADCASTS "FRONTIERS OF FAITH" NEW YORK (ANP)—FRONTIERS OF FAITH returned to the television screens Sunday with a repeat broadcast of "Africa Disturbed" featuring Dr. Emory Ross, veteran African missionary. This was a remake of a program originally broadcast September 6, 1959.

Peter Roberts of NBC interviewed Dr. Ross on the progress of the African people towards nationhood. "Africa Disturbed" was the first of a series of FRONTIERS OF FAITH programs that will continue through April.

Belafonte Folk Singers To Open N.Y. Night Club NEW YORK (ANP)—The Belafonte Folk Singers, an exciting new 12-voice vocal group will be introduced as a full-fledged theatrical attraction with a four week engagement at the Village Gate, commencing Feb. 25. The Folk Singers, founded by Harry Belafonte, work completely independent of the famed actor-singer.

Robert DeCormier, musical director for Harry Belafonte, will also serve as conductor-arranger for the ensemble. Steve Roland, guitarist, and Walter Raim, baritone, regular singing members of the dozen voices, will supplement their vocal talents by serving as accompanists.

The Belafonte Folk Singers offer a wide repertoire, and among their offerings will be "Ox Drivers," an American pioneer song; "El Caballo Blanco," an Argentinian Gauche song; and "Si-dai-ye," a South African festival song.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

LOCATION GIGS: many steady jobs have opened here in recent weeks for the cats, more so, than at anytime.

In fact, in the very near future we see better engagements available for all. However, some of the musicians who are lucky enough to have these jobs do not take care of them in the way that they should.

NEGRO NAMES IN MUSIC: The noted composer ROBERT NATHANIEL DETT distinguished himself through skilled emphasis in the native character of Negro music. He was particularly successful in his settings of spirituals for chorus of which his arrangements of "Listen To The Lambs" is perhaps the best known. Born at Drummondville, Quebec, in 1882, Dett went to Oberlin, O., to study music when he was 21.

During his lifetime the composer made contributions in many areas of music. His "Juba Dance" is one of the raciest bits of folk-type music ever published, yet it is not too exotic for conservative ears. Dett's larger works include "Charles Jubilee" for orchestra and "The Ordering of Moses," for soloists, chorus and orchestra.

After appearing as a concert pianist and holding a number of positions as director of music in various institutions, Dett was placed in charge of music at Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., where he remained 18 years. From 1931 to 1937 he taught privately in Rochester, N. Y. At the time of his death, in 1943, he was in Battle Creek, Mich., where he had organized a Women's Army Corps chorus and was directing music activities at a USO clubhouse.

DID YOU KNOW that the local musical world is currently sporting a new tenor sax star in the person of Eddie Lacey formerly of Washington, D. C.? The cat has been waiting the horn for over 19 years and has appeared in many of the top-flight bistros in the nation's capitol. Eddie wants some gigs. For information contact Yours Truly . . .

CHARLES PEOPLES, singer-composer is soon to go places with his songs—"Just Say The Word" and "Tonight" . . . Here's wishing him the best of luck in his new venture.

THE RECORD The famous COUNT FISHER and his trio currently playing six nites a week at the Music Bar located in downtown Indianapolis has been on the bandstand here longer than any septa or otherwise group. The drummer-ma made a name for himself some years back at the late Ferguson Hotel Lounge and opened up George's Bar and Orchid Room.

We have been advised that the Count has one of the best small units in the Midwest . . . Carry on the good work my friend. We are pulling for your continued success.

THE BEAT CLOSSES WITH THESE LINE—DON'T DRINK TOO MUCH LIVE REFRESHMENTS WHEN WHEELING IF YOU WANT TO BE AROUND FOR THE NEXT GIG . . . DO YOU DIG?

LOUISVILLE, KY: Jovette Records, a baby disk firm of about four months received its biggest shot in the arm by the route of two occurrences: the first coming via a favorable rating of its month ago releases "Just In Time" and "How Is the End Gonna Be" by singer Joe Cook in a recent issue of Cashbox Magazine.

The second prosperous event was the releasing of Billy Rudolph's hilarious disk "Pretty Eyed Baby" backed with "Shot Gun" on the up and coming new label. Rudolph, a talented arranger is heard on both sides supplying the vocal and playing some tasty '88' Cook, a pash baritone, is capable of doing justice to most any tune whether it's of the R & R—Jazz—Calypso—Pops—medium. Cashbox, weekly music publication highly regarded as "The musician's Bible" rates his "Just In Time"—B. His coupling "How

The good life is yours because you have earned it, and because you have learned to use the materials and services of a high living standard.

How did you learn about these things? Probably through advertising.

A newspaper is on strike, and business drops 7% in two weeks. In another town, a radio station goes on the air for the first time. Tempo along Main Street picks up, as more people shop for more things.

Advertising is, above all, communication. It tells you what is available, and makes you want to have it. Yes, advertising increases our desire for new and better things. America's record proves it is good to reach for a star. By reaching, we have provided the good life for practically everybody. Can any other nation say as much?

A. L. COX, secretary-treasurer of Marott Shoe Stores, Inc., 18 E. Washington, announces an extensive remodeling project at the downtown store. The nationally known shoe merchandising firm which operates the second largest shoe store over the nation and four other stores in the city area is headed by Virgil Gabauer, president.

The firm is planning to open two new stores in other Indiana cities, and now operates a store in Anderson. A fifth local store and a store at Columbus, are in planning. Local stores are located in the Eagle Lake Plaza Shopping Center, Irvington Plaza Shopping Center, Wilgro Shopping Center and at Greenwood.

Mr. Cox observed that remodeling of the main store, 18 E. Washington, is indicative of the nationally known firm's belief in the future of downtown Indianapolis as a merchandising or shopping (area) center.

The remodeled first floor will accommodate 14,000 pairs of shoes, with a men's and women's department. A new entrance to the basement floor store also is being built. Mr. Cox further noted that a luxurious salon for higher-priced women's shoes is planned on the second floor.

The 75-year-old shoe merchandising organization has occupied the location at 18 E. Washington since 1911. The late George J. Marott, merchant prince, realtor and founder of the firm, on his death left the store or shoe business to employees (on the basis of service records) and the Butler University Foundation.

THOS. E. HANIK is executive secretary of the Indianapolis Auto Trade Assn., 822 N. Illinois, which reports franchised new car dealerships in Marion County registered 2,122 new passenger cars for the month of January, 1959, total registrations of new cars amounted to 1,823.

The pace for January of 1960 was set by Chevrolet leading sales with 531 passenger car registrations compared to Ford's 476 units. Other new car registrations were: Oldsmobile, 141; Dodge, 125; Pontiac, 118; Plymouth, 110; Buick, 94; Rambler, 87; Mercury, 48 and Studebaker, 33. In the compact car line Falcon listed 134; Corvair 45 and Valiant 34.

In the so-called luxury car line Cadillac registered 74 units, Lincoln 13 and Imperial 9 units. During the month, foreign car dealerships registered or delivered 173 units as compared to 175 units for the month of January, 1959.

G. BARRON MALLORY, administrative vice-president of P. R. Mallory & Co., Inc., 3029 E. Washington St., announces that the internationally known firm (electronics field) shortly will build a 60,000-square-foot plant in Lexington, N. C. The North Carolina plant, part of the firm's expansion program, will be occupied by Mallory Battery Co., a division of P. R. Mallory & Co., Inc., which has manufacturing facilities at Cleveland and North Tarrytown, N. Y.

The firm will manufacture advanced dry-battery systems in the new plant, such as are used to power military products and hundreds of industrial and consumer units or products.

Mr. Mallory also noted that Radio Materials Co., a division of the Mallory firm, has started construction of a new 45,000 square-foot research and production faility in Chicago's new Brynwood Industrial District. This new plant will increase production of ceramic capacitors for radio, television and other electronic applications.

BEN A. LIPSHY, president of Zale Jewelry Co., announces the purchase by his firm of the eight store chain of Olsen & Ebbann Jewelry Co. At the same time Ed Braunstein also announces that Erich N. Wild has joined the local Zale Company staff. Mr. Wild's father operated a jewelry store at 7 E. Ohio longer than a quarter of a century. Mr. Braunstein is supervisor of the firm's local stores.

The Olsen & Ebbann & Co. firm operates in Indiana, Illinois and Michigan. With the purchase of the Olsen & Ebbann stores, and other six stores under construction, the Zale Company will operate 149 jewelry stores in 26 states. The firm founded in 1924 at Wichita Falls, Tex., now operates from coast-to-coast organizations with its stock listed on the American Stock Exchange. The home office is in Dallas, Tex. The firm cases and sells its own exclusive line of watches, is a direct importer from Europe of diamonds and processes more than 13,000 diamonds a week. Sales for the six-month period ending Oct. 1, 1959, were $22 million.

JAS. A. KAVANAGH is the newly appointed cosmetics buyer for Hook Drugs, Inc. He was formerly associated with Young Rubber Co., New York, and was a drug and cosmetics buyer for this drugstore chain and for the Ford Hopkins Co. in Chicago from 1945 to 1954. He joined the Hook organization in January.

LARRY PETTET, buyer of housewares for L. S. Ayres & Co., is presently on a two-month buying tour around the world. He flew from New York City enroute to Japan. In Japan he will spend a month serving as a member of a buying team representing L. S. Ayres & Co. and 26 other stores of the Associated Merchandising Corp. He will also visit Hong Kong, India, Turkey and Italy in following buying assignments. Concluding his tour he will visit Germany and England.

Oscar Rated

the outlanders want to see how far Robertson can be pushed. It is not very far.

"His weapons are obvious: A panther's body, shutter-quick reflexes, a jeweler's hands. His weakness is just as obvious: A temperament that swells from rage to indifference, moods that rule his talent."

His value to the Bearcats is unquestioned. In New York City in December the Bearcats were trailing Iowa, 28-17, in the finals of the Holiday Festival Tournament. Cincy coach George Smith called time out and instructed his team: "Get the ball to Oscar."

FIVE MINUTES LATER the score was tied. By half-time, to all intents and purposes, the Hawks were through for the evening, buried under a 33-point first-half slurge by the Big O.

"I'd have to say that was Oscar's greatest performance," said Smith, "because of the importance of the game. We've never been 11 points behind this year. Oscar proved he's a great clutch player."

Robertson has been a boon to the University of Cincinnati. Until his arrival in the Queen City, Bearcat basketball teams were something of an all-star.

ATTENDANCE-WISE, he has put Cincy U. on the map. Going into this season, Oscar and his mates had played to 550,000. In New York's Madison Square Garden, he scored 47 points before the crowd of 18,000. A gate of 17,288 watched his single-handed thrashing of Iowa.

Cincy's fieldhouse, holds 7,700 fans and now is invariably sold out. The Cincinnati Garden, seating 11,000, is likewise filled whenever Oscar performs.

No wonder Abe Saperstein has made fabulous offers to Oscar!

Big O Heads

stands in the Dixie Classic tournament at Raleigh, N.C. And he received a Christmas card with a hate message from the Ku Klux Klan in Georgia.

SOME BIG-TIME WRITERS say Oscar is continually seething inside with resentment at discrimination. But to those who know him best, he's "the man nobody knows."

After the Houston game Cincinnati will play North Texas at Denton, Tex., on Monday. And after that you can be reasonably certain of one thing: Oscar Robertson, native of Tennessee, will be out of the South and glad of it.

Historian Cites Negro's Influence On American Life

BALTIMORE (ANP) — "Without the Negro, the texture of American life would be different. It would be different in racial composition, in law, in behavior, in economy. And without the Negro, the American voice of freedom would be less compelling and less clear."

Historian Benjamin A. Quarles, 1958-1959 Guggenheim scholar and author of the definitive text 'The Negro in The Civil War,' made these observations here Wednesday. He spoke at an assembly meeting of the Morgan State College observance of Negro History Week.

THE NEGRO HAS HELPED to build America in the antebellum South, for example, the historian noted, the Negro had a monopoly on the mechanic arts and has also served labor by inventing sewing, shoe, and shoe-lasting machines.

Dr. Quarles said the Negro has also expressed his essential Americanism in his "defense and maintenance of the American way of life." Dr. Quarles noted that the Negro has fought in defense of this country in every American war. In the Civil War 186,000 Negroes served; in World War I, 400,000; in World War II, the first American to die was a Negro, Robert Brooks who was killed at Pearl Harbor on Dec. 8, 1941.

Dr. Quarles lauded the work of late Dr. Carter G. Woodson, who founded the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History and pioneered in the observance of Negro History Week. Woodson and others worked, said Dr. Quarles, to erase the concept of the Negro as a deviate.

Dr. Quarles is himself an authority on the Negro. In addition to his book on 'The Civil War,' which he wrote on a commission from Little, Brown and Company, he is the author of 'Frederick Douglass,' has edited works by the invitation of The John Harvard Library and Oxford University, and has in manuscript a study of the role of the Negro in The American Revolution. The latter work is in part the product of research Dr. Quarles undertook as a Guggenheim scholar.

Hurt by Pressure Sugar Ray Loses Title; Could Lose Wife

NEW YORK (ANP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, former middleweight champion who lost his title to Paul Pender in Boston recently, may lose his wife also, it was learned last week.

The speculation arose in the wake of a paternity suit in which the Harlem "fancy dan" is accused of fathering the six-year-old son of a pretty former night club singer.

Mrs. Barbara Trevigne, mother of two other children in addition to the one she says is Ray's, hauled Robinson into Special Sessions court last Thursday to answer the paternity charge. However, Magistrate Ludwig Glowa postponed the case until March 10 after the Corporation Counsel's office said both sides wanted the postponement.

The postponement also came amid rumors that Robinson and Mrs. Trevigne were trying to affect an out-of-court settlement. Robinson and his wife, Edna Mae, also a former night club performer are reportedly separated, and friends say that if the paternity suit is proven, the Robinsons' marriage could end in divorce.

Negroes Had Vital Role In Revolutionary War

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

George Washington, whose birthday we celebrate Monday, in addition to being "The Father of His Country" was a Virginia slaveholder.

It would be wrong to make too little or too much of this historic fact. Our nation has the oppression of black men (and the slaughter and robbery of red men) in its very bones. Yet the same Washington numbered in his command, before the Revolutionary War was over, some 5,000 Negro troops.

A much-needed light on the part played by colored Americans in the Revolution is cast in "A Pictorial History of the Negro in America," by Langston Hughes and Milton Meltzer, published by Crown Publishers, Inc., New York, in 1956.

THIS LAVISHLY illustrated book, with lively and interesting text, is a rich mine of self-confidence for Negro children and enlightenment for white ones.

It is significant that Washington changed his mind about Negro troops for essentially the same reason Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation — military necessity.

Some feel a sense of disillusionment at this. We believe it shows rather that the solution of every great national crisis has been linked with an advance toward first-class citizenship for all.

IRONICALLY, THE American freedom fighters of 1775-1783 were pushed forward by the example of the enemy. "When the Continental armies were formed," write Hughes and Meltzer, "Negroes were not welcomed and soon were officially barred."

"But when it was learned that the British had declared free all slaves who joined their side, the colonies, in order to offset the possible wholesale desertion of slaves to the enemy, adopted various policies regarding the use of Negroes."

"Some masters sent their slaves to war instead of going themselves." In 1776 New York passed a law allowing white draftees to send free Negroes in their stead, and in 1778 Massachusetts and Rhode Island allowed slaves to enlist. There were four all-Negro companies from New England. One of them — the Bucks of America — had a Negro commander.

Elsewhere Negro troops were integrated with the whites, both in the North and the South.

"ONLY GEORGIA AND South Carolina resisted to the end of the war the enlistment of Negro soldiers." These two colonies paid dearly, for about 50,000 slaves escaped to the British lines. But "even Georgia and South Carolina, while refusing to recruit Negroes as soldiers, used slaves in the continental forces as builders of fortification, tenders of horses and as body-servants to the officers."

South Carolina Negroes accompanied "Swamp Fox" Francis Marion for whom Marion County was named on his campaigns, which are now being Westernized on TV.

"On the other hand, in Georgia, at the siege of Augusta, about a third of the men manning Fort Cornwallis for the British were runaway slaves who were not acceptable as troops on the American side."

"For several years after the war a group of escaped Negroes, who called themselves 'the King of England's soldiers,' conducted raids on white settlements along the shores of the Savannah River."

STRONG HELP FOR progress in the Continental Army arrived when the Marquis de Lafayette joined Washington's staff. The distinguished Frenchman praised the valor of Negro soldiers and later became a founder of the Society of Friends of Negroes.

Two Negroes, Oliver Cromwell and Prince Whipple, were with Washington in his celebrated crossing of the Delaware and one of them is depicted on horseback as if he was a staff-officer.

Showing his determination to put independence above all else, the Commander-in-Chief revoked the order prohibiting Negroes from serving in the ranks. At Valley Forge, he enlisted the aid of a black battalion from Rhode Island, all of whose men were promised their freedom.

In 1783, Virginia granted freedom to all slaves who had served in the Continental Army.

THUS ALTHOUGH George Washington accepted the economic institutions of his time, as a soldier he recognized manhood on the battlefield. As a result many thousands of Negro Americans are entitled to be Daughters or Sons of the American Revolution.
