South Bend Urban League Head Gets State Post

Dennis Dowdell Named to Board Of Correction

SOUTH BEND — The executive director of the local branch of the Urban League and the Haring House, Dennis Dowdell last weekend was named a Democratic member of the State Board of Correction by Gov. Matthew E. Welsh.

Mr. Dowdell, a graduate of Wilberforce University, received his master's degree in social work from Wayne University, Detroit. He has held the Urban League post here longer than 7 years. He stated that his appointment to the $10,500 state job would necessitate his resignation from the Urban League post within the next 30 days.

The timing of his resignation will depend upon the ability of the Urban League to find his successor, he noted. He also stated that he does not plan to move his family to Indianapolis until about June.

As a member of the three-man Board of Correction Mr. Dowdell will act in a supervisory capacity over the state's prisons and correctional institutions. He will serve in the office his first political appointment, for a four year term. According to reports Mr. Dowdell expects to work closely with the Governor's Youth Commission in his new full-time job.

Prior to coming to South Bend he did social work in Warren, Ohio. (Continued on Page 2)

Riot on U. of Ga. Campus Halts Negro Students' Attendance

ATHENS, Ga. — Hundreds of bitter students in a screaming mob roamed the University of Georgia campus Wednesday in rock-throwing demonstrations that triggered the suspension of two Negro students who the day before had sat down quietly in classes with white students without incident.

The two students, Charlyne Hunter, 19, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, were suspended "for their own safety," school officials said. Police were forced to use tear gas bombs in efforts to break up the shouting mob which had gathered in front of the dormitory of Miss Hunter and began throwing rocks at her window.

Dr. King Tells Demos to Keep Campaign Pledges

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Notice was served last week on President-elect John F. Kennedy by a prominent integration leader who many Americans, including President Eisenhower, believe directly had a hand in Kennedy's election.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., addressing some 2,000 Negroes with a few whites mingled in the audience, told an Emancipation Day rally at the city's Memorial Auditorium that Negroes expect President-elect Kennedy to fulfill Democratic campaign pledges on civil rights.

Dr. King declared emphatically "The Negro played a major role in electing Mr. Kennedy."

"Must remind Mr. Kennedy," "We must remind Mr. Kennedy that we helped to get him into the White House," King said, "and we must remind him that we are

Filibuster Vexes Senate

Liberals Blast Action Against Curb on Debate

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special Wire) — The bill which would have provided for majority rule in shutting off debate in a prolonged filibuster failed in the Senate Wednesday 50 to 46 votes. Sen. Vance Hartke (Dem., Ind.) was a co-sponsor of this measure introduced by Sen. Hubert Humphrey (Dem., Minn.).

Sen. Hartke said, "I regret very much that this bill which would have made enactment of civil rights legislation much easier failed. However, since the margin was very close, I believe we can look forward to some liberalization of the present rule requiring agreement of two-thirds of the Senators who are present to close or shut off debate."

In another aspect of the controversial issue a motion to refer the dispute to the Senate Rules Committee for study (late Tuesday) was offered by Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana. This proposal had the backing of Republican leader Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

THIS PROPOSAL or offer failed following protests of liberals of both parties. Opponents also blocked Sen. Mansfield's proposal for an agreement to vote on the motion over the weekend. No agreement was reached on any other voting time in keeping with his

Father Given One Year On Farm

Thornton Horsley, 35, formerly of 2256 N. Rural, was sentenced one year on the penal farm for failure to pay support for his three children.

Horsley, cited for contempt in Circuit Court, was $765 behind in payments, and according to Judge J. L. Niblack this made the sixth time he had been brought to court for non-support. His children had been supported by taxpayers at the amount of $158 a month in welfare payments.

The judge said Horsley could have his sentence revoked any time he pays the deficit.

H. N. Middleton To Be Honored At Annual Meet

DR. H. N. MIDDLETON

One of Indianapolis' greatest citizens, Dr. H. N. Middleton, prominent heart specialist, will be honored at the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA annual meeting Friday evening, January 20 at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Middleton, head of the board of directors at the YMCA and general secretary of the Hoosier State Medical Association, will receive special recognition in a program especially designed for him entitled, "The Salute To A Great Citizen."

Dixie Leader Challenges City to "Freedom Race"

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

Stars danced in the heavens and the morning light stood on the mountain-top as a TV-famed integration leader preached a powerful sermon Sunday to install the local NAACP branch and youth council officers.

Rev. Kelly Miller Smith, leader of the Nashville, Tenn., sit-ins who was featured recently on NBC-TV's "White Paper," demonstrated that he is not professor of homiletics at American Baptist Theological Seminary for nothing.

Speaking eloquently from the theme "We Shall Overcome — Some Day," Rev. Smith headed his 350 listeners at St. John Baptist Church till their doubts and fears melted away. Then he brought them through as a united body ready to go out and battle non-violently for full freedom in Indianapolis.

At the end of his address the audience leaped to its feet in an ovation.

The meeting was an unusually good start for the NAACP branch in its year's program. Harmony reigned supreme. Rev. Andrew J. Brown, St. John pastor who is beginning a 2-year term as NAACP president, outlined a clear and efficient program of "NAACP Tuesday" meetings designed to avoid pitfalls of the past.

Rev. Brown called on the "Martindale ministers" to lift the coloration and the audience responded to their well-organized appeal with an offering of $253.93. The ministers were Revs. F. Benjamin Davis, James L. Cummings and E. T. Johnson, all of whom, along with Rev. Brown, pastor churches on Martindale Avenue.

Postman Arrested After Dog Bite

One grim event led to another recently for Joseph Jarrett, 41, of 3612 Caroline. Patrolman Ted Hickman was called Wednesday to the 1300 block of Park when Jarrett, a mail carrier for the Post Office, reported that he had been bitten on the right shoulder by "a vicious dog" while delivering mail on his route.

Patrolman Hickman and Jarrett then located the dog and its owner, Erban Brenner of 1304 Park, who reportedly became involved in an argument with Jarrett. In a statement given to the Recorder Jarrett charged that Brenner became very abusive toward him and called him derogatory names and because of that he struck Brenner.

Jarrett was later arrested on a disorderly conduct charge and slated in Municipal Court, Room 5, Thursday afternoon where his case was continued until 9 a.m. on Jan. 27. He was being represented in court by U.S. Attorney Phillip Melangton and Atty. Rufus Kuykendall, who volunteered his services after hearing the case.

Present Laws Are Difficult To Enforce

Supporters of the move to create a state Civil Rights Commission, which was called for by Gov. Matthew E. Welsh in his message to the Indiana General Assembly on Tuesday, this week made strong efforts to line up bipartisan backing for the measure.

A leader of the civil rights movement conferred Wednesday with Lieut.-Gov. Richard O. Ristine, the Republican top state official, who had expressed support for civil rights in his inaugural address.

Earlier in the week Richard Wayne Guthrie of Indianapolis, GOP Speaker of the heavily-Republican House of Representatives, clarified his position after a vigorous statement by Dr. Ford Gibson, NAACP state president.

Guthrie, who last month pledged cooperation for civil rights, had omitted the question in his list of priorities for House action. But following Dr. Gibson's challenge, he explained the oversight was unintentional.

The civil rights advocates were anxious to obtain Republican as well as Democratic support for the plan, in order that fair play for minorities might not become a political football in Indiana's divided governmental house.

IN HIS MESSAGE to the legislature, Governor Welsh said: "We are becoming keenly aware of how far we fall short of the principles of equality and freedom that we say we endorse."

"The turmoil throughout the world and in the Southern portion of our nation gives further evidence that justice and equality must be extended to all people regardless of their race, their religion or the nation of their birth."

"To ensure that no Hoosier will be denied employment or access to public facilities or establishments offering service to the general public, there will be presented to you an Administration measure to create an effective Civil Rights Commission, with the power to enforce a Civil Rights Act that will guarantee to every citizen his full rights."

"COUPLED WITH THIS measure will be two amendments to existing laws which will give the state the power to institute proceedings to enforce our present equal-accommodations laws when local authorities fail to do so after having been given reasonable opportunity."

"Our present laws, while basically good, fail for want of effective and prompt local enforcement."

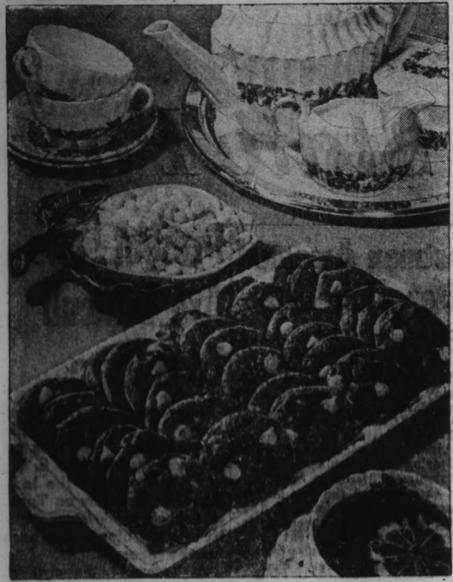

"Both political parties and the leadership of both parties in the General Assembly have declared themselves to be in favor of this kind of action to put meaning be (Continued on Page 2)

MYSTERY BLAST: Flames shot skyward on the Eastside this week as a mysterious blast destroyed this home at 1619 N. Arsenal. The home was occupied by the John M. Robinson family. Firemen, who were called to the home on one occasion on the report of an explosion, said no one

Versatile Lemon Chip Cookies Are Loved By Young and Old.

LEMON CHIP COOKIES: The chocolate chip cookie takes on a new taste treat when lemon chips—so good in sauces, frostings and desserts—are added to the cookie batter. This departure from the norm gives a wonderful new flavor combination that will bring clamors for "more, more." (ANPhoto)

By BETTY COOK for ANP

If you're one of those women who are always on the lookout for new ideas, and if you haven't yet caught up with lemon chips, do get some right away. These delicious, lemony nuggets, like their chocolate chip cousins, are good in sauces, frostings, desserts... and, of course, cookies.

There are three good recipes on the package, but here is a cooky recipe we think is extra special. It's for chocolate cookies, lavishly sprinkled with lemon chips—a wonderful flavor combination, and mighty pretty, too. Everyone, young and old, will love them... and love you for making them.

LEMON CHIP CHOCOLATE COOKIES

- 1 3/4 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 egg, beaten
- 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted

3/4 cup buttermilk or sour milk
1 cup (6 ounces) lemon chips

METHOD: Combine sifted flour, salt and soda, and sift together. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and cream together thoroughly. Blend in egg and slightly cooled chocolate. Stir in sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, mixing well after each addition. Add lemon chips and mix well.

Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 10 minutes or until well-done. Makes 5 dozen cookies.

hind our words. "I urge your favorable consideration of this legislation to ensure that no Hoosier is denied the rights to which he is entitled as a human being and as a citizen of our state."

NEGROES AND THEIR attorneys who have had experience trying to get court prosecutors to move on civil rights cases, hail the commission plan as a step that would take enforcement out of the horse-and-buggy age and put it into the '60s decade.

At the same time, it is pointed out that under similar set-ups now in force in other states, actual court cases over discrimination are not increased but generally diminished. Out of 19 industrial states, it is reported, Indiana and Illinois are the only two not yet having Civil Rights Commissions.

SPEARHEADING THE CITIZENS' drive for the bill, as distinct from Governor Welsh's effort, is the Indiana Conference on Civil Rights Legislation, headed by Atty. Rufus C. Kuykendall, formerly of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission.

The Federation of Associated Clubs, through its legal advisor Henry J. Richardson Jr., is also lending strong support. Heading the team inside the legislature are Representative James S. Hunter of East Chicago and Senator Jesse L. Dickinson of South Bend.

Irving Levine of the Indiana Jewish Community Relations Council, who along with Atty. John Preston Ward is "quarterbacking" the drive, called Wednesday for "strong public pressure, in the form of visits and letters to the Assemblymen and letters to the editor, to get Republican as well as Democratic backing for the Civil Rights Commission bill at this crucial stage."

Held As Link In Assault, Shooting Of Officer; Freed

A youth, held in the January 2 shooting of an Indianapolis policeman, was released this week after police told Judge John C. Christ of Municipal Court that they had insufficient evidence to link 18-year-old Carl W. Kinchlow with the shooting of Patrolman Elmer W. Cliburn.

Kinchlow, who resides at 125 McLean, had been held for the past week on a preliminary charge of assault and battery with intent to kill after witnesses identified him as the man who tried to escape after seriously wounding the police officer.

Kinchlow, although wounded by bullets, was able to kill James P. Rayburn, 21, of Gary as he attempted to escape, after plans were foiled for the alleged robbery of a Westside supermarket.

Asthma Formula Prescribed Most By Doctors—Available Now Without Prescription

Stops Attacks in Minutes... Relief Lasts for Hours!

New York, N. Y. (Special)—The asthma formula prescribed more than any other by doctors for their private patients is now available to asthma sufferers without prescription.

Medical tests prove this formula stops asthma attacks in minutes and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful asthma spasms.

This formula is so effective that it is the physicians' leading asthma prescription—so safe that now it can be sold without prescription—in tiny tablets called Primatensin.

Primatensin opens bronchial tubes, loosens mucous congestion, relieves taut nervous tension. All this without taking painful injections.

The secret is—Primatensin combines 3 medicines (in full prescription strength) found most effective in a combination for asthma distress. Each performs a special purpose.

So look forward to sleep at night, and freedom from asthma spasms. Primatensin only 99¢ at any drug store.

proposal. Yet Sen. Mansfield, chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, implied that no stones will be left unturned in seeking action later in the session on a measure to place tighter curbs on Senate filibusters.

EARLIER THIS week Sen. Humphrey, Democratic whip in the Senate, and Sen. Thomas Kuchel (R., Calif.), Republican whip, noted that both the Republican and Democratic Party platforms "called for the principle of majority rule in the Senate on the question of cloture."

Again both concurred in the observation that "it is now evident that the prospects for more realistic talkations and filibusters are better than ever before."

Commenting on the proposal by Sen. Mansfield to refer the issue to the Senate Rules Committee early this week, Sen. Paul L. Douglas (Dem., Ill.) said that if Sen. Mansfield's motion was adopted it would be "a black day for the Senate, the country, and particularly the leadership of the Democratic Party."

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R., N. Y.) and Clifford P. Case (R., N. J.) joined Sen. Douglas in opposing the proposal or motion by Sen. Mansfield. All asserted that any change recommended by the Senate Rules Committee was likely to run into a southern filibuster that could not be shut off except by a two-thirds majority.

THE PRESENT fight for action against filibusters is based on the contention that at the outset of a new Congress, a filibuster against a change in Senate rules can be halted by a majority vote. However, this opinion is sharply challenged by Dixie foes of any change in the filibuster rule.

Two anti-filibuster proposals have confronted the Senate. The strongest—favored by liberals—would permit limitation of debate by a majority vote of 51 of the 100 Senators after the filibuster ran 15 days.

A compromise proposal provides that filibusters could be halted by a three-fifths margin of the Senators voting. It now requires approval of two-thirds of the Senators voting to limit debate.

The Dixie champions of filibustering say that giving "unbridled power to a temporary majority" would undermine basic constitutional principles.

white sheet on which derogatory words were scrawled. A number of policemen had been standing by Myers Hall where Miss Hunter lives, but it soon became apparent that they could no longer cope with the rapidly-developing demonstration.

Police reportedly arrested a number of the students, building them away in parked patrol wagons. On Tuesday the two Negro students integrated quietly in classes with white students, ending 175 years of segregation at the state school.

No crowds bothered them. There was just the usual flow of students making their way to the classes in a score of buildings spread out over an area of more than two miles. Some of the white boys and girls cast curious glances at the two Negroes. Others paid them no attention. Some spoke to them. There were no jeers or catcalls and it was just another day starting at one of the nation's higher educational centers.

Miss Hunter, who had been enrolled at Wayne State University in Detroit, is studying to be a newspaper woman and Holmes wants to become a doctor like his grandfather. Holmes had been attending Morehouse College in Atlanta.

On Monday of last week a cross was burned on the edge of the university campus near some fraternity houses in the presence of about 200 chanting, yelling students.

Elsewhere on the campus an estimated 3,000 students signed petitions asking the university be kept open if integrated. The petitions were presented to the Legislature.

This action came after Federal Judge W. A. Boyle granted a stay of the integration order to permit an appeal by the state to a higher court. During the appeal the doors of the university were slammed shut in the faces of all students while state officials wrestled with the dilemma of state segregation laws versus federal court integration orders. The governor of Georgia, Ernest Vandiver, had even cut off funds to the school under a state segregation law.

Executive Offices

Dear Policyholders and Friends:

The year 1961 is our 40th anniversary.

When our company was founded in 1921, its name was Liberty Life. In 1929, following a merger with Supreme Life and Casualty of Columbus, Ohio, and Northeastern Life of Newark, New Jersey, our name became Supreme Liberty Life Insurance Co. Now we are making one more change.

Why? Because, in these four decades, the world in which we function has changed almost beyond recognition; and we have changed, and grown, with it. In these next years and decades even more dramatic and meaningful developments will affect the entire world—our country as a whole—and the Negro community most specifically and most tellingly.

The '60's will see Negroes continuing to make great gains in education, voting rights, employment opportunities and improved living standards. Even now, the bonds of colonialism are being struck off in country after country around the globe; and here at home, the shackles of second-class citizenship are loosening a little more each day. Throughout our nation, hundreds of thousands more Negroes will be able to increase Family Financial Protection; and they have a right to expect that practical and proper means of handling it will be available for them.

Providing such protection is not only our business but our duty. Through more than 300 trained insurance experts on our staff, we are already "Guarding Family Futures" in 136 communities from coast to coast. But we expect to expand the breadth of this service greatly in the next few years; our service can be most helpful—for example, Hawaii.

In addition, we are developing new forms of coverage to meet changing insurance needs—for example, modern policies which will insure health as well as life, with monthly pay features, to protect a whole family on a low-cost and practical basis.

Therefore, our Board of Directors has agreed with me that the name of our company should properly emphasize the full scope of our services, both in kind and in territory served. With this end in view, our official corporate name has now become

SUPREME LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA.

We cordially invite your inquiries regarding the forms of protection which we can now make available for your family or business. Look in your phone book for our local office—or write direct to our Home Office in Chicago.

Most sincerely yours,

 Paul Johnson

"Freedom Race" Completed Training

of race." Rev. Smith proposed, "to see which city, Indianapolis or Nashville, becomes free first."

He explained that in his opinion, "The goal of first-class citizenship will be reached in the South first. This is because in the South, we know what we are fighting. When a Jimcrow housing project is built they put a sign on it, 'Whites Only.'"

"Secondly, I believe Negroes in the Southland are more freedom-conscious than those out of the South. Sometimes in the North a breath of freedom intoxicates, so that we forget all else."

AFFIRMING HIS CONFIDENCE that victory is ahead in the integration struggle, Rev. Smith listed four reasons why "we shall overcome":

1. "We have the past which encourages us about the future. Even from the dark slave pens come the inspiring Spirituals — 'a voice of hope, not of doom.'"
2. "We have discovered a new weapon, non-violence. It is a weapon with which the Southern white man cannot cope."
3. "There is a new sense of togetherness that has come over our people in this land. We know that until full freedom comes to Jackson, Mississippi, there will be no freedom in Indianapolis!"
4. "Certain Divine resources are accessible to us. We have a hope in God."

Reporting progress in Nashville, Rev. Smith said some 20 eating-places that would have refused service a year ago are now open to Negroes. The number of Negro pupils in integrated schools has risen from 9 to 100.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE James S. Hunter of East Chicago, dean of the General Assembly who is serving his 11th term, made a strong plea for Indianapolis residents to visit the state legislature on behalf of civil rights bills.

"We have three City Councilmen in East Chicago," he said. "We have three City Councilmen in Gary. But here in the state's capital city, with 80,000 Negroes, you have no City Councilmen. Wake up, Indianapolis!"

The "NAACP Tuesday" plan was announced by Rev. Brown as follows:

1. On the Tuesday after the first Sunday in each month, all NAACP standing committees will meet at Second Christian Church, 20th and Kenwood. The public is asked to bring its problems and suggestions to these meetings.

2. On the Tuesday after each second Sunday, the NAACP board of directors will meet at the home of Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, 419 W. 40th.
3. On the Tuesday after each third Sunday, NAACP branch meeting will be held at various locations. These meetings will be informative and inspirational.

Next month's branch meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 21, at the United Packinghouse Workers Hall, 621 W. Washington.

OTHERS TAKING PART in Sunday's program included Wallace Hollins, Rev. Solomon Benn III, Rev. R. L. Fisher, Rev. William H. Weaver, Rev. Roosevelt Mumford, Atty. Patrick E. Chavis Jr. and Levi Lewis.

After several weeks of illness I would like to say "Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year" to all my fans as we wave good-bye to 1960 and look forward to the future with great anticipation.

As I have said many times before, one would be surprised to know how many persons in different states read The Indianapolis Recorder. This was proven during my recent illness when cards came from Rev. Carothers in Nashville, Edna Dobbins in Glendale, Calif., Barbara Hollins Cliff in Cleveland, Ella Curry in Portland, Ore., Marjella Gary in Seattle, James Amos in New York City, O. D. Porter in Bowling Green, Jackie Johnson in St. Louis, Leroy Love in Gary, Lula Cummings and Ella Worthy in New Orleans, Alice Johnson in Milwaukee and Mrs. Nellie S. Ping never forget old friends in time of illness or distress.

Then too, I would like to mention some that sent "green backs" including the Verne Overtons, The Indianapolis Recorder and Chandler Houston. Bringing the final gift was Dr. Ford Gibson, state president of the NAACP, who had a beautiful pot of flowers.

This column would be incomplete if I did not mention Clarence and Haidee Wilson, friends of many years who came and picked me up when they were informed I had fallen out of bed at 2 a. m. is no play thing but they came to the Marriott Hotel where Odell Evans, Tommy and Burford were standing by with telephone operators doing all they could until the Wilsons arrived.

I just must mention Dr. F. Benjamin Davis, my pastor, my husband and my dear old pals, Anna Walton, Margaret Shackelford, Ellen Merriwether, Daniel Jones, Lucy Cutler, Queen Es'er Franklin, Willa Thomas, church columnist, and William A. Bailey who encouraged me to keep praying and fighting. At Olive Senior Choir and South Calvary's Workers Council also remembered the Ole Scribe.

So much to you... "I am trying to give flowers while you can smell them." Thanks to The Recorder for allowing this NEWS SHEET to run.

WHILE SHUT-IN four of my long-standing friends died, Mrs. Clifford Williams, 1305 Yandes, in her 80's was the same pal to me. She was a member of New Bethel and had been ill several years yet managed to carry a smile and take care of herself. Mrs. Kathryn Smith and Mrs. Jeanie McKenzie Services for her were held in New Bethel, with Rev. F. Benjamin Davis delivering the eulogy. King and King Funeral Home was in charge.

BENJAMIN BROWN, brother of Mrs. Florence Martin, 3344 Rader, also died. Mrs. Brown was proprietor of a chili parlor on Indiana. He will be missed by many old timers. His rites were held in the chapel of Stuart Mortuary.

FUNERAL SERVICES for Mrs. Orlando Moss, sister of Mrs. Viola Mills, and mother of Henry Moss, were held in the Patton Funeral Home with Dr. Davis officiating. Mrs. Moss had worked with the Missionary Society and Willing Workers of the church. She was a member of the Eastside Better Business and Civic League.

LASTLY THE funeral of Mrs. Elvira Jackson, mother of Miss Lorene Horne, 713 Locke, Rites were held last Saturday at Barnes Methodist Church with Rev. Paul Ayers delivering the eulogy. Officiating Rev. Ayers left a burning message with the congregation when he said, "If we live here on earth without the church, we would not be satisfied in heaven," adding, "God loves those who are willing to do the small task and not just the big jobs."

Mrs. Cecil Powell Fetes Louisville Couple On Their 25th Anniversary

Surrounded by more than 100 of her many friends, Mrs. Cecil R. Powell, 2518 Boulevard, entertained her sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Wall, prominent Louisville couple, on their 25th wedding anniversary, Monday evening, January 2.

Mrs. Powell, the charming hostess, greeted her guests in a becoming gold brocaded skirt, quite full and short, with a black blouse trimmed with gold, radiant with the gaiety of the occasion.

The celebrants really got into the spirit of the affair as they entered the beautiful and well-appointed home each receiving little white wedding bells which Mrs. Powell pinned on them.

Mrs. Walls, the honoree and bride of 25 years, was charming, happy and youthful in a delf blue Chantilly lace dress with shoes in a matching color. She donned a white orchid corsage, a gift from friends and received several gifts, flowers and telegrams.

Adding a dash of color to the affair and further bearing the message that the Walls were celebrating their silver anniversary were pretty decorations throughout the house.

A green Christmas tree, trimmed only in white carnations and wedding bells with white ribbon bows, was the center-of-attraction in the living room. White cherubim were daintily as they hung from the wall along with greenery and candles over the fireplace.

Lighted candles emitted a soft glow over the many exquisite and gorgeous arrangements of white flowers and silver leaves. The same decor of white, silver and green was carried out in the dining room.

As her centerpiece for the dining room table Mrs. Powell had a pyramidal arrangement of white roses and carnations with silver leaves sprayed with green mist further carrying out the color scheme.

Lading the table was a deliciously prepared dinner consisting of turkey, ham, breads, hot and cold sandwiches, relishes, fruit and pound cakes, French coffee and egg-nog.

Assisting the hostess in the dining room and living room were Mmes. Guy L. Grant, Lorenz Simpson, Lionel F. Artis, Roy D. Clinthorne, Henry L. Greer, Henry R. Wilson, Henry McCall, James Anderson and the Misses Jane Stout and Phyllis Waters.

A catering staff, made up of club members, served the guests refreshments and entertained them in the highest fashion possible. Tables were placed around the room, leaving the center of the floor open for dancing and socializing. RECORD SPINNERS?: From the smiles on the faces of the above persons one wonders if they really had their minds on spinning records for the enjoyable dance given by the Intercollegiate Club at the YMCA or if they really were concentrating on looking "pretty" for photographer Jim Burres. Well whatever the reason for the smiles (from left to right) Elroy Edwards, a member, Miss Ina James, vice-president of the club; Miss Pat Motley, a member, and Robert Taylor, president of the club seem to be expressing the general feeling of satisfaction guests and members showed at the semi-formal party held in the Gallopade Room last Friday night, from 10 to 3 a. m.

From the architectural details of the Crystal Palace, built in London for the first International Exposition, 1851, come the motifs for this collection of dining, living and bedroom furniture. From this era of mid 19th Century comes a hint of the Victorian mood. Dignified and handsome, the good Queen would have been shocked to know this cabinet is compartmented for glasses and bottles. She might miss the carved ornamentations, typical of her time. The dignity of the round arched panels and the elegance of the over scaled brass lock plates and keys with gold tassels would have charmed her, as it will today's homemaker.

Many of the best loved Colonial furniture design elements are richly combined in this new group called American Treasury. Especially interesting in this dining group is the combination of the Queen Anne type of leg and foot on the gate leg table, with chairs which show a Chippendale influence. Part of a large and complete set of pieces for every room, the designs are not meant to be exact reproductions. They re-create the spirit of an era. From antiques in the DuPont Winterthur Museum and other sources the designer chose moldings, turnings, paneled doors, other details, combining them skillfully for today's living.
Drexel Furniture Co. #2

Young furniture for young sophisticates. This bedroom group is truly childproof. All large surfaces are teak-grain laminated plastic, accented here with oyster white. Accented with black the same group takes on a more masculine look. The "balcony" bed, 54 inches high, hints of a canopy, but for a modern child or young adult might be a tiny stage for cherished possessions. Drawer and cabinet units bunch and are available in various widths and include the spacious desk. The group is priced for budget-minded parents.
Kent-Coffey Mfg. Co. #3

In the design mood of 16th Century England, this two section cabinet has been adapted for 20th Century fun. The top will house a TV set and records or other equipment. The lower section is planned for stereo or Hi Fi. Center doors are double hinged so the full interior of both top and bottom sections are revealed. The top unit has a pull out shelf for adjusting TV set for viewing, reception.

No Trouble as 2 Enter U. of Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (ANP)—When two 18-year-old Negro youths registered for classes at the University of Tennessee last week it marked the first time in history that members of their race were admitted to undergraduate classes at the 167-year-old institution.

Charles Edward Blair and Theodus Robinson, Jr., both graduates of all-Negro Austin High School, are the two new students. Blair will major in accounting in the college of business administration. Robinson registered for a pre-law course in the college of liberal arts.

Another report listed a third Negro applicant to undergraduate classes, Mrs. Willie M. Gillespie, a 41-year-old Knoxville housewife. She is also a graduate of Austin school.

Both Blair and Robinson came to the campus alone. White students looked on with interest as they stood in the registration line but there were no incidents.

The university announced that four Negroes had qualified to be admitted to undergraduate classes at the beginning of the winter quarter, but Blair and Robinson were the only ones who showed up.

The university's board of trustees Nov. 18, voted to admit qualified Negro applicants to undergraduate classes at the beginning of the winter quarter.

The graduate school has been integrated since 1954.

Among other recent Knoxville "firsts" reported was the lifting of racial barriers at Miller's Store, one of the largest in the South, where cafeteria services are now open to the general public.

Also, the dining room in the newly-built Trailways bus terminal removed all color bars about two weeks ago. Many drug and department stores in the Knoxville downtown area have served Negroes in their eating facilities without discrimination for the last several months.

Mothers' Efforts To Save Children Futile; 8 Die In Fire
COLUMBUS, Ohio (ANP)—A mother's efforts to rescue her eight children, ranging in age from seven months to 14 years, were futile when the youngsters perished last week in a fire that ravaged their two-story dwelling.

The mother, Mrs. Fannie Cowan, 28, suffered severe burns. She was listed in fair condition at Columbus hospital. Her husband, James, 36, suffered minor burns on his head, neck and hands.

Dead are Conell Foster, 14; Reuben Johnson, 8, and Frank Steapel, 2, all Cowan's stepsons, and all five of the couple's children—James, 5; Druessella, 4; Robert, 3; Lawrence, 18 months, and Judith, 7 months.

Cowan, a maintenance man said he was awakened early on the morning of the tragedy by his wife shouting that the house was on fire. He said his wife tried to reach some of the children but was enveloped in flames. Cowan grabbed her and threw her from the house into the snow-covered street.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution.

Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

TRIPLE FASHION HIT...FROM ONE SEWING PATTERN

by Evelyn Cunningham

Armed with a pattern, fabric, sewing machine and zeal, the beginner tackles her first sewing job with optimism. She has been assured that anybody who can read and who has the will can make her own clothes. She envisions the accumulation of a huge wardrobe at a minimum expense. She swells with pride at the prospect of testing her creativity.

Sometimes — not too often — she runs into a snag. She bogs down. She becomes impatient. She might find that the fabric she has selected does not lend itself too well to the style she has chosen. Or she might discover that she has not followed her pattern instructions carefully. These things may happen to a beginner. They are far less likely to occur, however, if the beginner starts out with one of McCall's "Easy to Sew" patterns. Long hours of meticulous planning, styling and cutting have gone into the production of patterns that reduce the margin of error — almost to nothing.

It's McCall's Pattern #5471 that gets the "triple treatment" here. Misses' 16-20. 50¢. It's a proportioned dress — scaled for the short, medium or tall woman. And, it's "Easy to Sew"! Shirtwaist lines make it perennially sound fashion. Side zipper closing by Talon is fashion's perfect finishing touch. New Magic Zip has woven sewing guide line right on the tape. For a season-right dress, stitch up this pattern in winter cotton or wool.

Making sewing even easier, McCall's has created a number of proportioned dresses, skirts and slacks. These patterns eliminate the necessity of extensive altering: raising or lowering the waistline or hemline or adjusting the shoulder line.

One of the most popular of the proportioned dresses is the violet plaid pictured here (McCall's Pattern No. 5471). The three dresses are proportioned to fit the tall figure (5' 8"), medium figure (5' 6") and the shorter figure (5' 3"). The dress has a dart fitted bodice and four-gore gathered skirt. Long or short sleeves may be made. Long sleeves are gathered into buttoned bands and short sleeves are turned back to form cuffs. The dress has a round collar and front neck opening. Besides cottons and silk, this dress may be made in lightweight wools, flannel or synthetic mixtures.

While it does not come in proportioned sizes, the Misses' and Junior dress and pinafore (McCall's Pattern No. 5449) has been recommended by SEVENTEEN.

Made here in blue printed cotton and solid blue corduroy the outfit offers endless variety. The dress has a fitted bodice and four-gore gathered skirt. It may be sleeveless and collarless or have three-quarter set-in sleeves, gathered into bands, and a band collar. The "underdress" has a back zipper closing. For a professional appearing placket, always use a Talon Magic Zip available in 4" to 36" neckline zippers.

The back-buttoned pinafore also has a four-gore gathered skirt. It is laced with ribbon in the front and has corded piping in the waistline seam. The bodice is lined and the front edges are interfaced. Suggested fabrics include printed cotton, calico, synthetic mixtures, shantung, surah, velveteen, or taffeta.

Here's a floral reason for seeing double! Floral print cotton dress goes under a Tyrolean corduroy pinafore, to wear or not. For holiday evenings the duo might be done in black and white: black crepe dress with black and white taffeta pinafore. The young and charming fashion: McCall's Pattern #5449. Junior 11-15 and Misses' 10-18. 50¢.

West Nurses Guild, the following nurses were present at the funeral: Ethel B. Sml h. Katherine Anderson, Pearl Willis, and Tomary Sweatt, president. Others taking part in the last rites were the Elks and Household of Ruth who turned out in large numbers, along with the Eastern Stars, Rev. A. J. Turner, associate minister of Mt. Olive Baptist Church of which Miss Horne is a member, Mt. Olive singers with Mrs. Helen Beeler among the group, Norene Harrison and Rose Katz Jordan who rendered solos and Mmes. Kathryn Grissom who read the obituary, condolences and resolutions. Interment was in New Crown Cemetery with Jacobs Brothers in charge.

Mrs. Laura Scott of Dayton attended Mrs. Jackson's funeral. To me, this seemingly was a homecoming because so many of my old chums were present such as Laura, whom I had not seen perhaps in 30 years and Anna Porter Kennedy. Others in Naptown whom I see once in 10 years, yelled out "Mary Elizabeth" making me now that she or she was a school chum. I dropped the Elizabeth because many said "Lizzie."

My heart goes out to Miss Horne, a close friend of mine, because she has never been separated from her mother, who had lived with her.

Well so much for the "letter from home" as many out-of-town fans call this column.

SATURDAY NIGHT the hubby and I enjoyed a lovely dinner at the Indiana Lodge 104 as guests of Mrs. Cora Rogers. The Eastern Star with Mrs. Lucie Love, most worthy matron, were hostesses for the annual dinner. Decorations were Christmas and New Year's colors.

Out-of-town guests partaking of the merriment were Mrs. Lardelia Pearson, W. H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Patterson, Mrs. Fannie Morris and Mrs. Essie R. Griggs, all of Fort Wayne. More than 65 persons attended the affair. Mrs. Hattie Beaman, an Eastside resident, is a member of the organization.

MISS DIANA Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Horton, 3143 Winthrop, has returned from the hospital. Miss Horton is the niece of Mrs. Annie Mae Horton.

MRS. MARY Heater, 2156 Boulevard, a widely-known figure in Eastside circles, entered Methodist Hospital for an operation which turned out successful. Friends may call the member of New Bethel Baptist who, along with other members of the church, helped establish an "emergency fund" for those in distress.

MR. AND MRS. William Johnson, 834 Camp, had as their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cunningham of Louisville, who enjoyed many parties while here.

A RECEPTION will be held Monday night by members of Greater Canaan Baptist Church at which Rev. H. L. Davis will be installed as pastor. Rev. Davis was formerly pastor of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church. Many ministers and wives, along with the general public, are expected to attend the installation.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON St. John Baptist Church was full from the upper balcony to the lower floor when Rev. Kelly Miller Smith of Nashville appeared as principal speaker for the installation services of local NAACP officers. Rev. Andrew Brown, pastor of the church and new president of the local NAACP chapter, and officers of the adult and youth groups were installed.

Rev. Smith, a dynamic speaker, expounded, "Our group is moving inch by inch with violence. We have hope in God. Twenty places in Nashville have opened their doors to Negroes." He continued by saying, "The Southern states will perhaps reach the goal of 'non-segregation before the Northern states,' closing by stating, 'We shall be free at last; someday we shall overcome.'"

Assisting with the offering were Revs. James Cummings, E. T. Johnson and Rev. F. Benjamin Davis. Accepting new members were Mmes. Gertrude Gibson and Virgie Davis.

Rev. Brown made an appeal for volunteers to work at the NAACP office in the Walker Building. Anyone desiring to help in any way will be gladly welcomed. This is a big job and is going to take all of this city to put over.

EARLE BARNETTE, state treasurer, and several others of the state including myself, were compelled to sit in the balcony due to the large crowd.

"ESPECIALLY TO FANS OF 'VOICE OF THE EASTSIDE'." We have a good church columnist in the person of Miss Willa Thomas. Due to the fact that we do not wish to duplicate her column, we want to make this column a "social column." We feel there are lots of parties, dinners, guests, weddings and other activities which would give us a real "Voice of the Eastside" column.

LET US TRY IT. There are 100's of adults on the eastside participating in many activities. Please phone or write me. Call ME. 3-0095 or write, 504 Dorman. Help make this one of the best columns by having news in my possession Sunday night.

CHILD IMPROVED
Due to alert action on the part of his sister, an 18-month-old baby was saved Monday after a possibly fatal accident. The child, Clyde Gray, 1222 W. 30th, is reported in fair condition at St. Vincent's Hospital after his 14-year-old sister, Maria, called police explaining that he swallowed fuel oil.

Chatting with the FAC

By FLSA JACKSON

Monday night's regular meeting was honored with the presence of Rev. William Nelson, pastor of Wallace Community AME Church. Rev. Nelson, Indianapolis representative of the State FEPC Commission, brought us a challenging message.

Following the address all officers elected to serve FAC for the year were installed by Rev. Nelson.

INTERESTING reports were made by several committee chairmen. Bud Garnett launched the financial drive by distributing gleaners to everyone present. S. W. James, FAC president, made an impassioned talk to open the drive on a high note. The slogan, "Let's Get It Done In '61," coined by Mr. Garnett presents a challenge to FAC members and well-wishers to help pay the mortgage on the club home.

ECHOES from last week's legislative dinner are coming in from all directions. The executive editor of The Indianapolis Times, the principal speaker, gave a timely address which was well received.

AT THE TOPPER: The whole town is talking about the personable Lem Winchester, extraordinary vibraharpist, and his fabulous quintet currently appearing at the Topper Nightclub, located at 34th and Illinois. The former policeman is one of the nation's leading jazz artists here for a two-week stand.

Indiana Hair Designers Make Pledge To Render Best Service Possible

Members of the Indiana Hair Designers, an organization of registered cosmetologists, made an important New Year's resolution. Approximately 300 members in a meeting last Monday at the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA pledged themselves to "render to the public the best in service in the year 1961." Mrs. Laura Hughes stated, "A special membership drive is now on. All licensed beauticians, whether working or not, are invited to join this group to help maintain and promote better beauty practices. Volunteers are vitally needed to give free service at the Marion County Home, Central Hospital and the Marion County Juvenile Home.

This is good practice and a worthy service to the community. Two special programs have been planned for the near future. On Sunday afternoon, January 29, a gala evening including musical entertainment and a fashion show with the city's leading talent will be held.

An announcement will be made later for a trip to the "Big Show" in Chicago and the regional meeting of the national Beauty Culture League in Wichita, Kansas.

With all business completed, the Indiana Hair Designers invite you to come forward and help in building a great service organization.

Curator Suggests 'Chuckie' Be Changed

MEMPHIS (ANP)—Albert Garner, curator of the Tennessee Ornithological Society last week called the myth of the Owl's wisdom all wrong and suggested that the chuckie, "the Wise old owl," be replaced by "the wise old crow."

He said: "The black crow is probably the smartest bird we have. He is quick-witted, loves to play and has worked out a watch system that protects him."

But Bud Jenkins, Beale Street personage, takes issue, saying: "The black crow is the dumbest bird that ever tapped a wing, and his pappy, 'ol Jim Crow,' is a dirty back-biting, Negro-hating varmint—so dumb he couldn't tell you which way an elevator was going—if you gave him two guesses."

DR. GUY GRANT'S SPECIALTY IS HARD WORK

By RON WOODS

His trademark is hard work and devotion to duty. He's a former newspaper carrier, a pioneer of the City Clinic for Indigent Children and one of the 10 founders of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity who presently is regarded as a man with outstanding qualifications in the important and sensitive field of dental surgery.

He was named president of the Indianapolis Recorder Charities, Inc. when he was only 36 years old and has served with distinction for 24 years. If this sounds like a page from a Horatio Alger book, it is so intended. It simply describes the career of Dr. Guy Levis Grant, one of the most respected citizens of Indianapolis.

DR. GRANT, who really looks like a doctor, was appointed president of the charity organization in 1937 following the death of then president Harry R. Willett. When he took over this position the noted Negro leader, despite his youth, faced a formidable task of creating a relief program for the city's countless number of destitute Negroes. Dr. Grant thumbed through his memory Monday night after being asked about the early days of the grim hunger panic which had gripped the city of Indianapolis. He recalled the thousands of needy families that appealed to the organization for help, not understanding the problem quite so well as they understood cries of hunger.

"We'd stay up all night long trying to figure out ways and means to reach these folks," Dr. Grant said. "I remember that there were stacks and stacks of letters asking for help that had to go unanswered. We would get up early and fix baskets of food, sometimes having to deliver them in knee-deep snow."

DR. GRANT said the structure of civilized life in this great city was shaken to the very foundation. "We began to realize that the situation was growing worse and that we could never accomplish all that we had hoped for because the need was far greater than the supply," he recalled.

The object of all the bitter struggle, therefore, was to encourage the good and more fortunate people of the community to respond to the needy requests for help — and for Dr. Grant and the community there was in all this the satisfaction of gaining a hard-fought victory over an adversary.

"In those fledgling years," he recalled again, "the community suddenly became very cooperative and the various clubs about town really started lifting their fingers to help in this great cause."

"The organization was getting bigger and bigger and the need was getting greater and people began to understand those cries of hunger."

The Recorder Charities, it was learned, has grown into one of the largest charitable organizations in the state. As of today there has been a sizeable growth in the spirit of unity and cooperation within the organization itself. A main unit of the organization, The Recorder Women

DEDICATION TO DUTY: Whether he's at home or in his office, Dr. Guy L. Grant is busy keeping pace with our fast-changing world. (Recorder photo by Houston Dickie)

Sponsors, headed by Mrs. Louise Terry Batties, was cited by Dr. Grant as being "largely responsible for the achievements which have brought so much joy to the unfortunate people of our city during the years." Along with other charitable projects the organization sponsors such much awaited events as the Annual Recorder Benefit Christmas show, in its 13th year; the Annual Benefit Skating Party sponsored by the Goodfellows, and office collections, store donations and church collections, all for the benefit of the needy.

THE DYNAMIC Dr. Grant takes great pride in the above accomplishments of the Indianapolis Recorder Charities, but the source of his greatest satisfaction stems from the unselfish generosity of the Negro community itself.

And when he was asked by this reporter how he became interested in charity work, he had this to say: "Ever since I can remember I've always wanted to do something for the welfare of humanity. My main profession was to aid children in the welfare of their teeth."

"I remember when I first graduated from dental school. The late Mrs. Emma DuValle, former superintendent of the Colored Orphans Home, had asked me if I would help out at the home for awhile because they didn't have a dentist or any dental facilities there. At that time there wasn't even a dental clinic in the city. Anyway, I accepted the offer and stayed at the clinic for 15 years without salary. (During this time a City Clinic for Indigent Children was established at the home.) In his you might say was the satisfaction I got from helping those who could not help themselves."

(The Orphans Home Dr. Grant referred to was formerly located at 25th and Keystone, the present site of the Marion County Juvenile Center.)

During the years when Dr. Grant was struggling to complete dental college, he said, he delivered newspapers for the Indianapolis Star. But there was not much mention of that factor in Dr. Grant's "rags to riches" story Monday.

However, it isn't difficult to trace Dr. Grant's successful career, at least up to the time he enrolled at Indiana University, for certainly there could be no Negro college student in Indianapolis who does not know of his connection with the national college Greek-letter organization known as Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. Besides being one of the 10 original founders of the fraternity (and also one of five founders still living), Dr. Grant has served as grand historian of the Kappas for the past 10 years.

A CHARTER member of the fraternity, he will be deservedly honored as such when the fraternity celebrates its 50th anniversary on the IU campus, where it was founded in 1911, in August of this year.

Dr. Grant was born in New Albany, in Floyd county. He attended New Albany schools and in 1915 was graduated from Indiana University with a B.A. degree. In 1920 he graduated from the Indiana University Dental School as a doctor of dental surgery.

Following graduation he began practicing with a long-time friend, Dr. S. A. Furniss, in the office he now maintains at 406½ N. Senate. He's married to the former Laura Hammons of Noblesville.

Dr. Grant is so busy he has little time for hobbies. He does, however, belong to the NAACP, the National Dental Society, the Progress Investment Company, the Bachelor Benedict Club and Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

HIS medical profession, of course, means much more work for the doctor. But work is his forte and he devotes an unusual amount of time to it. It is not uncommon for him to be in his office at 8 a. m. and he is often still on the job far into the evening.

Out of The Woods

By RON WOODS

Although we've only been on the Naptown scene a couple of years, we've witnessed many first night thrills. . . . But none were so tender as the one the Topper (night club) opening nighters gave the LEM WINCHESTER Quintet, making their debut on that scene. . . . It was spontaneous, atomic and loving. . . . And after the talented group had convulsed us all for almost two hours. . . . The co-owner of the place, Gene Lob, raced to the stage from his back-of-the-house-table, and, embracing the microphone, spoke to the audience. . . . The speech took about three minutes. . . . On Gene's complaint that the word Class was difficult for him to define. . . . Class, in Lem's case, means Talent. Lem, who comes from the Big City big time bottles, has at least three special numbers that will probably be aped by the better jazz fans. Especially, "But Not For Me," "Round About Midnight," and "Charles" (their theme song) which should go down in the history books of music as a classic. The combo behind Lem (on the Vibes) are expert musicians named Gerald Price Jr., piano, composer of the theme song; Billy Davis, drums; Dan Y. Settle, bass; and Sylvester Dee Allen (a comic on the bongolo who submitted several routines at the show Monday night he should never omit. . . . All funny. . . . And besides that Sylvester is the best bongolo player we've seen in these here parts in a long time.

The group are such pros they even make the loud talkers and junks at the bar listen respectfully. . . . Which reminds me to all the world: Lovely JACKIE WOSLEY was one of the jazz enthusiasts who had plan to catch the Red Garland opening on the scene. She approached this writer and, waving her trim finger under my nose, complained: "I'm mad at you Ronnie because you told me that Red Garland would start at the Topper on Jan. 9th." . . . "Please don't be angry with me, Jackie," I replied with dignity and logic. "It was my fault, cause Garland got sick and couldn't make the trip!" . . . But you readers didn't know it 'cause the agent didn't call co-owner Ernie Lowy until a couple of days before the opening.

A GLIMPSE OF LEM: Billed as one of the finest young musicians to come on the jazz scene in some time, Lem was born in Philadelphia on March 19, 1928. His musical career started in Wilmington, Del., in 1941 in a high school band along with the late Clifford Brown, who rose to great heights in jazz until his untimely death a few years back. In 1958 Leonard Feather, the noted jazz critic heard a private recording by Lem, and on the strength of his record took him to the Newport Jazz Festival, where he created quite a sensation in the critics choice concert to the extent of winning second place in the International Jazz critics poll for that year.

The unique part of this was that at the time Lem was a police officer in Wilmington, having held this position for ten years. Since this time he has forsaken the police "beat" for the musical beat and is making a success of it.

He has recorded with the Ramsey Lewis Trio for Argo Records and is currently signed with Prestige Records. He has to date five LP's under his own name, besides his new one, "Lem's Beat" (soon to be released) . . .

IT'S HOW the mop tops: DON WOODS thanks me for mentioning him with those babes, but says the one and only is MARILYN MAXWELL, with a lovely Northside dish. The rumor that HOWARD BOWLES is planning to merge with a Chicago gal has city desks atwitter. Can you check further? . . . The report that BETTY STOKES will merge soon is bunk. She still has two more years in school. . . . BOB COLEMAN burns if you mention bust LOUISE CARPENTER who said for publication: "Bob is a boring fellow." BETTY PARROTT in another quick switch from ROLAND WOODS to MIKE DEMPSEY, whoever he is.

HOUSTON DICKIE bears a resemblance to GAINES WILLIAMS, doesn't he? "Peaches" . . . MACK JR. is the best dressed young duck in town. . . . Interesting point by a reader: "What about Franklin Terrell, Frank Anderson, Larry Hoskins, Dave Scruggs, Milton Baltimore, Reggie Cheatham, Marcus Phelps and Milton Coker?"

WOODS OF WISDOM: WORLDLY RICHES are like nuts; many clothes are torn in getting them, many a tooth broken in cracking them, but never a belly filled with eating them. Like, BOOM!

Mich. Clergy Surveys Crime Wave

Following several violent tragedies in the flare up of crime in the city of Detroit, the Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance has planned to initiate a program of extensive study of the local crime problem.

Discussing the crime problem recently in the city the Rev. Robert Robert L. Potts CME minister and president of the Ministers' Alliance suggested that all Negro citizens share both the ills and progress of the community. Further, Negro citizens must accept the same responsibilities as any other public spirited citizens.

Again he noted the crime is a total community problem, yet more disruptive factors breeding the criminal personality appear in the Negro community — the slum area or despicable housing, unemployment, police brutality and comparable situations or conditions.

He challenged the course of things wherein a slur is cast on the entire group of Negro people, or a disproportionate emphasis has been attached to the criminal activities of the Negro community. He proposes sustained action to combat crime in keeping with programs initiated by a city-wide or agencies-wide conference and study of the problem.

The Rev. Fred D. Porter, AMEZ minister, asserted that Negro people cannot contribute their share to solution of crime problems of the community if they continue to remain separate and apart from the rest of the community. He noted that some recent reports indicate that the problem of crime has been equally disturbing to the entire Negro community as in any slum area.

Otherwise he noted, if we are to be successful in combatting the crime spectacle conditions or factors conducive to the spawning of crime actually must be alleviated. He proposed broadening the possibilities of decent living, including improved housing and employment opportunities.

Seemingly, in an admonition to the church or church members he asserted, as Christians we must begin to live more of the brotherhood that we have so long talked about, we must begin to become our brother's keeper in deed and in truth.

One might assume that the city of Detroit can afford more facilities for exploration of its crime problem than the city of Indianapolis. However, it appears that the crime problem is more distressing in the Michigan metropolis, with a general spectacle of despicable housing, unemployment and comparable conditions or situations.

Notwithstanding in contemplating the crime problem of either or both urban communities the alleviation of housing problems, unemployment in some manners and other parallel conditions the spectacle of crime will be retarded. However, in keeping with the admonition to church members of Detroit or our "no mean city of homes" — we must begin now to do more (something) about our housing problems, employment opportunities and other conditions conducive to the spawning of a larger criminal element in the population of our city.

Traditions of 2nd-Class Citizenship Wanning

Second-class citizenship, based on such extraneous factors as race, religion and national origin is on the way out, according to recent observations of Herbert B. Ehrmann. He is president of the American Jewish Committee.

His observations were made on the basis of any analysis of the 12th edition of "The People Take The Lead." This pamphlet represents or contains the annual round-up of civil rights advances over the nation by the American Jewish Committee.

Some evidence sustaining his observation was pointed out by Mr. Ehrmann in the removal of the color bar from the constitution of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. He also cited the merger of Negro and white locals by the American Federation of Musicians and the National Association of Letter Carriers.

Over the world of music the pamphlet hails the employment of numerous Negro musicians in symphony orchestras, Broadway musical shows and television orchestras in New York last year. The civil rights evolution, peaceful for the most part, that has occurred over the last decade reached its highlight in 1960, Mr. Ehrmann ventured.

The nation will come closer in "the decade of the sixties to the democratic ideal of equal opportunity for all citizens, Mr. Ehrmann predicted.

Highlights of the year of 1960 on civil rights advances according to the pamphlet, "The People Take The Lead," were as follows:

The student (southern Negro) sit-in movement, bringing about desegregation of chain-store lunch counters in over 100 southern cities.

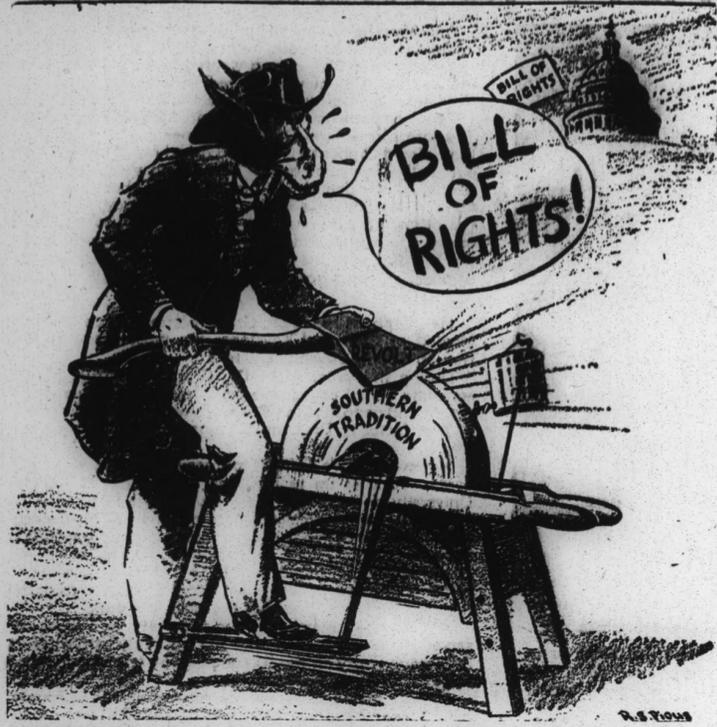

The U. S. Congress passed a second federal civil rights law (in 85 years) with particular emphasis on protecting the right of every citizen to vote.

The State of Delaware joined sixteen other states with enforceable fair employment practice laws. Seventeen public school districts in the South began desegregation bringing an additional 100,000 Negro and more than 5,000,000 white children of the South into "integrated situations."

The commitment of the nation to a continuation of the evolution of civil rights was emphasized in the 1960 national platforms of both major political parties.

We salute the American Jewish Committee on its good work in the field of civil rights. Again we would like to share the optimism of the organization on its outlook in regards to evolution of civil rights in "the sixties" — yet we await to see or hear about the spirit and action of some southern politicians still fighting the Civil War over the Southland and at one point on the banks of the Potomac River.

Negro Press Creed The Negro Press believes that the United States of America can best lead the world away from racial and national antagonism when it accords every man, regardless of race, color or creed, his human and legal rights. Hating no man, fearing no man, the Negro Press strives to help every man in the firm belief that all are hurt so long as any one is held back.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

The Inevitable Must

REV. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

LARGER LESSON: John 3:1-7, 12-21. MOTTO TEXT: John 3:17. This is another of those great personal interviews which John is in the habit of emphasizing. It is important to note these man-to-man talks that Jesus made during His ministry.

Dwight L. Moody said if the harvest be garnered it must be handpicked. Did you note when Billy Graham was in your town his insistence on prayer and personal effort? Why not organize a St. Andrew's Club in your church? Maybe that would be the largest emphasis of the brotherhood.

What about your Sunday School class and your day-to-day contacts? Billy Sunday used to get his members to sign a pledge like this: "I promise to not let a day pass that I do not speak a word to win someone to Christ every day of my life from here onward." What about your pledge?

I would like to think that this top man in the Jewish church was a very busy, yet sincere, man who took time out to find where Jesus was and went to see him.

The bold defense he made for Him in the Sanhedrin Council and his reverence at His burial corroborates this idea. However, let us consider our lesson as follows: I. An Inevitable Must, John 3:1-7. II. Look And Live, John 3:12-16. III. And We Are Witnesses, John 3:22-30. IV. The Judgment Is Now, John 3:17-21.

AN INEVITABLE MUST. No flattery of words nor dizzy praise could shake our Master from going to the core of human personality and the truth of His divine message. "You are a real preacher sent from God," said Nicodemus. And straight to the point Jesus said, "Ye must be born again." The new birth reveals that man as just a natural person cannot see the rule of God.

Therefore, something must occur from God. He is both blind to things of heaven and also man cannot actually go into the Kingdom without the miracle from above.

LOOK AND LIVE. However, life does not have to be hopeless as either Walter Lippman, the philosopher, or I have pictured it. The 13th verse is one of three of the most hopeful verses ever uttered. Verse 13 tells us sin is awful but our case is not utterly hopeless. As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness so also must Christ be lifted up. This is another must.

I was lying down in my study somewhat discouraged about two weeks ago when I slipped off to sleep. I was awakened by Sister Jewel Brown and Theresa Tucker's children's choir of our church singing. The staccato touch of Sister Tucker and the skilled richness of the little children's voices drove the hope in and tears from my eyes.

I told my wife when I got home that I was glad she organized that little choir for it carried me back to the time when I used to sing in the children's choir and heard Father Young sing "Look and Live" fifty years ago and it still rings true.

AND WE ARE WITNESSES. ES. I am always proud to go back to John the Baptist. I like pioneers and what a one was he! He was truly a voice in the wilderness. "No greater had trod before," said Jesus and with all the crowds of Aeon and the Jordan He bent it before Himself and His congregation. This is the center of our testimony. Here we come back to our introduction, stop and read it again.

This is the way we follow Him through the regeneration of not only individuals but society itself. This is somewhat what Abraham Lincoln meant when he said: "That this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

THE JUDGMENT IS NOW. Believe and be saved. Disbelieve and be condemned. Trust and be relaxed. Doubt and be damned. I am trying to say that what you do about Jesus will decide your very tomorrow and today. Paul closes his sermon on Mars Hill by saying that God has appointed a day to judge the world by Jesus Christ. The Day of Judgment is now.

How To Get Rich Quick

By Andrew W. Ramsey

The rules have changed since the "economic royalists" made their easy millions and it is generally considered next to impossible nowadays for an American born poor to become a millionaire.

Gone are the old frontiers and the laws regarding financial operations have become so restrictive that the get-rich-quick boys have been all but run off the market.

There are still a few avenues left for ambitions and not too scrupulous individuals to accumulate a considerable bit of money without running afoul of the law.

Perhaps the most lucrative of these avenues is the home improvement racket among Negro home owners. All that one needs to start are some printed cards, a catchy firm name, a few well-sharpened pencils and arrangements for a lending institution to buy one's contracts.

The market is large, for contrary to the popular claim that Negroes do not keep their properties in repair, the average Negro buying a home on mortgage or contract spends a considerable amount annually on improvements because home ownership ranks next to car ownership among Negroes as a status giver and the more modern the home the more status it gives.

OUR IMPROVEMENT entrepreneur does not need to know how to do any of the repair or improvement work for which he offers to contract. He can hire small contractors or jacks-of-all-trades to do the actual work. All he needs to do is to operate his pencil so that he can hire the workmen, buy the raw materials and come out of it all with a very neat profit.

If our enterprising businessman wants to really make a killing, he will do very little newspaper advertising, because that would make him somewhat liable to follow certain rules. He will hire men to pass out cards from door to door or he will employ door-to-door solicitors to drum up trade and every time he succeeds in landing a luscious contract he will place a sign in front of the home reading,

"The improvement is being done by A. Swindler Home Improvement Company" or words to that effect.

The actual operation will work something like this: The door-to-door salesman will notice that the Joneses have had a new patio added to their mortgaged "palace" and he will call on the Smith's who live next door and by trading upon their desire to keep up with the Joneses, will sell them on the idea of a more elaborate patio for no downpayment and 36 months to pay. And the beautiful thing about it will amount to only $19.50 a month. The impressed Smith's sign the papers and the entrepreneur runs quickly to the lending institution and gets his money and sends out a patio contractor who charges him $300 for doing the job. The Smiths will gloat over their triumph over the Joneses while paying $700 for a $300 job.

The fact that it is done on FHA does not prevent he swindle. The lending institution is merely doing its normal business in lending the money. It lends it all the more readily since it is insured by an agency of the federal government.

OUR AMBITIOUS young businessman can install new bathrooms without knowing anything about plumbing, new furnaces without knowing anything about heating and make exorbitant improvements without knowing anything about masonry, painting or carpentry. He only needs a good knowledge of elementary arithmetic and how to use the yellow pages of the telephone directory.

Of course some of his prospective victims are going to want to know about his reputation. After he has done a few jobs for Negroes known to the victims he can always use them as references. To make this easier he can offer each "satisfied customer" ten or 20 dollars for each new customer they get for him.

Thus with a sizeable crew of "birddog salesmen" he can really get contracts almost as fast as he can write and he can move his margin of profit up until it reaches the sky without running into legal difficulties.

For the ambitious young man with few scruples there lies a golden opportunity to get rich quick. There is a possible obstacle for the young Negro who tries to enter this racket—the lending institutions may not be so prone to buy his papers. Until that little equity is remedied the racket will be run by whites. And until the laws are changed or some organization takes up the fight against the ruthless exploitation of the Negro homeowner, the racket will continue to exist and the racketeers will continue to get rich quickly.

Letters to the Editor...

Defends Fair Share Job Drive, Writer Raps Views of Critic

To The Editor:

This letter is in answer to an article entitled "Effort for Negro Manager in Negro Neighborhood Opposed," which appeared in the Dec. 24 issue of your paper. I must take issue against the person mentioned in this article, not because she is against Negro progress, but because she just doesn't know what she is talking about.

First she tried to mislead the public by stating that the "Fair Share" Organization wants the A & P food store, located in the Westside Shopping Center, to fire their white manager and replace him with a Negro manager." The truth is the Fair Share Organization wants a Negro to manage any business that is 90% Negro trade, and if the management of that business wants to fire a white manager to do it then that is the white management's business not Fair Share's.

I would like to add that as far as opportunities for the Negro in Indianapolis is concerned it is as bad or worse as in the Congo. Both ruling classes have the same secret agreement not to advance the Negro. This partly proves that imperialism is the same the world over.

Secondly, this person stated that she was a Negro and was proud of her race. Did she notice the front page of your paper and see the Labor Department report on unemployment and how it concerned her race? I am wondering if she thinks the Negro is proud of her for not wanting them employed and upgraded?

I have heard several different people state what they thought was wrong with the picketing, but to this date I have failed to be convinced that what Fair Share is doing is wrong.

The Fair Share Organization and its great leader, Rev. Mozell Sanders know that something must be done about Negro unemployment, especially in places where the Negro supplies a great majority of business.

At one time I was about to believe that our "Uncle Toms" and "Aunt Janes" were dying out, that they were only confined to the lower class people who uncle tom to get special treatment. Now it is plain to see what has happened. We've sent Tom and Jane to school and with the brainwashing the TV, radio and press services are giving, we have a new species in the form of intellectual ruling class lackeys. So it is understandable why our local ministers, doctors, lawyers and other professional people refuse to be identified with a struggle of this kind. We must realize that doctors never have raised a hand in Indianapolis to ward off oppression (a few have—you can count them on one hand). The only thing they will join is AMA.

History has proven that no struggle has been successful unless the common class of people helped out so it is up to us to get it done. One way to help is to call a lackey's hand every time it is raised. And do like the Co-Op Civic League is doing—we join Fair Share and Rev. Mozell Sanders in this struggle, and also in the fight against white reactionaries and black bigotry, because they are the cause of this epoch.

Lawyer Agrees on Importance of 14th Amendment

To The Editor:

Open letter to the board of directors of the Indiana Civil Liberties Union—

I am heartily in accord with your ideals respecting the Bill of Rights, and in my opinion the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States is the most important document in the world.

As you aptly phrased it, mere words do not suffice to preserve freedom, and my latest appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, in Forma Pauperis, in the case of Will Arthur Andrews vs. Robert O'Neal, Sheriff of Marion County, is tangible proof that I share your beliefs and views.

If I can be of any assistance in a tangible way by legal representation for any worthy cause or person, rest assured my legal services are available as my contribution to your noble and praiseworthy efforts to preserve and protect the civil rights and liberties of all Americans regardless of race, creed or color.

Respectfully yours,
William C. Erbecker,

Minister Says Negroes Must Come Together

To The Editor:

The war drums are beating on every side. Men are beating their plowshares into spears, their pruning hooks into swords. Here and there wagon loads of scrap iron is pulled into the junk yard, and Nasser is talking about A Bombs. Air-lifts of fighting machines are moving through space. Men have forgotten that God is a warlord. If men will continue to do wrong, God is going to stop them.

God is a bold sovereign. If men keep on shaking their puny fists into God's face He will let the world know He is God. He does not allow anything to interfere with His power and authority.

When Lucifer challenged God's power in heaven and marshaled His forces, on the plains of Paradise God marshaled, His Cherubim, His Seraphim, and in battle array, God placed Himself at the head with His royal standard of heaven, and cast Lucifer out. He opposed the general Lucifer and the whole universe shook. God became the victor and cast Lucifer out of heaven, and now Lucifer is at the head of his army. That is why there is so much trouble in Louisiana. When anyone transgresses against God's powers He goes to war in defense of His rights. A general once asked "Whose side is God on?" God is on the side of the right. If we as a downtrodden race would just come together and lay a small foundation of our own whereby we will be able to help keep our children from trying to stop the policemen's bullets with their bodies, for it can be done.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

From the Bible

Give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good; because His mercy endureth for ever. — (Psalm 118:1)

Throughout all ages and all eternity, Almighty God seeks the soul of His children—seeking to fill our lives with the joy that comes from His good, His loving-kindness, His strength and His mercy. We create our own utter misery by wilfully turning away from Him.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

From the Bible

Be still, and know that I am God.— (Psalm 46:10)

These are days of uncertainty in our beloved land, of anxious questioning about our future. Frightening predictions are made on every hand, and the temptation is to lose faith and courage. We seek peace for our country and peace of mind and soul... Let us take a quiet moment to reflect: Do we love God? Do we trust in Him?

Flying Tigers Face Jeffersonville Fire House to Get Recreation Use

Old Station 23 Will Be Used As Play Center

Old Fire Station 23, at Udell and Rader, will be taken over by the Park Department and converted into a community center, The Recorder was assured Tuesday.

The fire station is being moved to a new building on Burdall Parkway and a reader had asked this newspaper to see whether the old building could be used for neighborhood recreation purposes.

City Parks Director A. J. Thatcher said:

"You can bet we weren't asleep on this. How do you think they got the land (on Burdall) for the new station? We wouldn't let them have the land till they gave us the papers for the old building."

THE BUILDING WILL come to the Park Department "in a couple of weeks," Thatcher said, but it cannot be converted for community use until next fall.

"We are operating on the budget drawn up last June, and we don't have funds for personnel or renovation of the building at this time," he said.

"The building will be boarded up, and late this summer we will renovate it at the time we do this work throughout the city."

"We may be able to assign one person as a community worker there this fall. We plan to invite all the parents of the neighborhood in and have a Grand Opening."

"Then we can install table tennis facilities, and provide for dancing and other club activities. Of course a great deal will depend on the cooperation we get from parents of the community."

THE TAKING OVER of abandoned fire stations by the Park Department has become something of a policy, Thatcher continued.

"We got the old station at Morris and West, but the United Fund won't let us use it as a community center because the Concord Center and Mayer Chapel are both nearby," the colorful director explained.

"So we are going to use that one as a sub-station for equipment." THE RECORDER was alerted to the Fire Station 23 situation by a call from Gaines Williams, 940 Udell.

"I live four or five houses from the station and the only places my kids have to play are the small park and wading pool across the street from the firehouse," Williams said.

"Why don't you find out whether the old station could be converted into a community center?"

The Recorder did just that and discovered that Mr. Thatcher had the same idea as Mr. Williams. Whether the Park Department's time-table is satisfactory, is of course another question.

The "park" referred to is large enough for a softball diamond — providing you have no long-ball hitters. — C.S.P.

JABBO'S KINGS HOST KY. FOES

The Gibraltar Insurance double city champs will play an all-star team from Covington, Ky., at Dearborn Gym on Sunday at 2:30 p. m., it was announced this week by their energetic manager, James "Jabbo" Gilreath.

The Gibraltar roster lists such performers as Bill Brown, DeJuan Boyd, Ernie Butler, Stanley Richardson, John Bridgeforth, Bill Hampton, Herschel Williams, Donald Thurman, Charlie Brown and last but not least, player-manager "Jabbo" himself.

The team won both the City "A" Tournament at Dearborn and the Em-Roe Holiday Tournament at the Fall Creek YMCA, which places it at the top of the heap in Naptown independent net circles.

Covington's visitors comprise the team that won the Kentucky high school state championship in 1959, and have continued playing together as an independent outfit. The game was arranged through the good offices of Oscar Robertson, "Jabbo" said.

'Si' for Cuban Players

HAVANA — Minnie Minofo and other Cuban baseball players who make their living in the United States during the summer received official assurance last week they will have "no trouble" joining their U. S. clubs.

A high official in the foreign ministry said the government would not interfere with ball players leaving for the States. The only problem will be getting U. S. visas now that diplomatic relations have been broken.

Gray, Horton Head Hill's Golden Gloves Build-Up

An ambitious boxing program in preparation for the Golden Gloves was launched Monday at the Hill Community Center, 1806 Columbia.

Although the center no longer has a PAL Club, the staff plans a first-rate program with emphasis on serving all youth of the neighborhood.

To achieve this purpose, recreational supervisor Leo Floyd has enlisted two of the biggest names in local boxing: Archie Moore, and the highly-respected Cleo Horton.

Gray and Horton will work with aspiring leather-slingers in an effort to return Hill Center to its former prominence. As was at the center that amateur boxing started in Indianapolis back in 1938-39, Floyd recalls.

ANOTHER MOTIVE OF the program is to get ready for the new Hill Center building which the city has announced.

The annual Golden Gloves tournament will begin Monday night, Jan. 23. Boxers desiring to take part, but who have no team, may come to The Recorder and sports editor Charles S. Preston will help them.

Last week a Golden Gloves veteran, Charles Barnett of 2110 College, came in and The Recorder sent him to the Hill Center which is near his home.

Mayer Chapel Middleweight Champ Chester Winters Joins Marines

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Chester Winters, well-known Indianapolis amateur boxer and former Crispus Attucks High School football star, has joined the U. S. Marines and is going through training at the Marine Recruit Depot here.

Winters was the Golden Gloves and Mayer Chapel middleweight champion in his home town.

HE REPRESENTED the Fall Creek YMCA in the Golden Gloves tournament of 1958. That year he lost a decision to Donald Lee of St. Rita's who went on to win the title.

Shortly afterward, Winters joined the Mayer Chapel boxing squad and went on to capture the 1959 Novice 175-pound championship.

Since February of 1960, he has climbed steadily in the fight ranks. First he fought Olympic champion Cassius Clay of Louisville, dropping a close decision. He fought Rudy Clay twice.

Chester's winning streak started with a decision over Ed Larkin of Cincinnati, in a bout at Mayer Chapel this fall. He was all set to fight the Cincinnati middleweight champion and National Golden Gloves king when he enlisted in the Marines.

AL ALLEN, Winters' coach at Mayer Chapel, states: "In my opinion Chester Winters can be listed in the same class with Cleo Horton, Norman Johnson and the other top boxers to come out of Indianapolis."

"Chester will go far in the Service as a boxer and when he returns to Indianapolis, I hope to take him on up to the top."

"He will be missed this year by his team in the Golden Gloves but we will fight on all the harder and hope to see one of our boys as National Golden Gloves champion."

WILMA HONORED BY PHILLY SOCIALITES

PHILADELPHIA (ANP) — Still receiving honors for her superb performance in the 1960 Olympic Games last summer, Wilma Rudolph, the jet sprintress from Tennessee State University and Clarksville, Tenn., was cited along with actress Joan Crawford and Arthur B. Spingarn, president of the NAACP, by the Philadelphia Cotillion Society, at the society's 12th annual Christmas cotillion.

While some 2,500 persons looked on, the smiling Miss Rudolph was presented with the society's Star of Malta in a ceremony held in the main ballroom at Convention Hall.

Miss Rudolph has been receiving honors since returning home triumphantly from the Olympics. Recently she was named one of the 10 Leading Young Women of the Year for 1960 by Mademoiselle magazine.

A brother act had the scoring honors wrapped up in the Pythagorans "A" and "B" basketball leagues this week.

Richard Hickman of the Trinity Warriors led the "A" league with a 22-point average. Just to keep things in the family, his brother, James Bailey, was pacing the "B" loop.

Hickman was high man with 25 in a game with the Southern Cross Crusaders last week, but to no avail as the Crusaders took a 76-68 verdict.

This was the first "A" victory over the Warriors for the Crusaders, who were bolstered by the return from New York of Ronald King. Willie Jackson was high for the Crusaders with 21.

The Central J's are leading the "A" league and the Warriors are second.

IN "B" PLAY the outcome was reversed, with the Warriors beating the Crusaders 66-61.

John Bysscoe of Southern Cross scored 21 while his teammate Joe Durham hit 19. Bailey tallied 19 for the Warriors.

In the Orange Bowl game at Miami, and Mel West figured heavily in Missouri's 21-14 win over Navy. Another tan star for the Tigers was Norris Stevenson.

The game was witnessed by a crowd of 71,218, including President-elect John F. Kennedy.

In all, 11 Negro players took part in the two bowl contests. They were Fleming, Joe Jones and Charlie Mitchell for Washington; Munsey, quarterback Sandy Stephens, Judge Dickson, Robert L. McNeil and Bobby Lee Bell for Minnesota; and West and Stevenson for Missouri.

Cathedral's big Irish continued their stride-for-stride duel with Attucks' big Tigers by beating Shortridge last week, 82-63.

Coach Bill Frohlinger got 21-point production from outside-shooting Gary Toft; 20 from 6-8 Walt Sahn, who also pulled down 27 rebounds; 19 from Men Blaylock, 12 from Ronnie Keller and 8 from Roy Smith.

Meanwhile Sahn and Smith, operating in the Irish "diamond zone," held city scoring leader Ron Thomas to 17 points — only 9 of them in the first three quarters.

The classy Satun forward was aided by Lou Halpin, with 14; Wade Stewart, 11; Roosevelt Jackson, 9; DeWitt King, 8, and Sonny Foster, 4.

CATHEDRAL AND ATTUCKS are slated to collide Feb. 9 at Butler.

Giant-Killers All-Round Welch Leads Red Devil Invasion

Bill Garrett, whose Attucks team plays Jeffersonville on Saturday night at Manual's gym, allowed this week that "if we keep going forward we'll be all right."

That would be the understatement of the year to the Flying Tigers' string of 10 prostate victims, culminating with Elkhart as this is written. This page went to press before Wednesday's Attucks-Shortridge game.

The young Tiger mentor had little but praise for his players' performance at Elkhart, where they won 60-44.

"Our defense has improved and we had our best first half of the season," Garrett said. "The boys' teamwork was terrific and they hustled on defense."

"We played errorless ball in the first half. Then we had a bad third quarter. We had them down 44-19 and they got away from us."

"Of course it's a fact that we haven't played four good quarters this year."

"In the fourth quarter I had the substitutes in," he explained.

A BREAKDOWN OF the contest shows that Attucks outscored the Blue Blazers, who played without star Steve Bell, 13-8 in the first period; 18-5 in the second; 13-12 in the third, and were outscored 18-16 in the final stanza.

Bill Jones played a top defensive game and led the scoring with 20 points. Eugene Hill tallied 16 and Jerry Trice 12. The Tigers controlled both backboards and shot 37 percent to 27 percent for the home team.

However, they also led in bobbles 18 to 8. For Elkhart, Little Denny Foster played an outstanding floor game and led the scoring with 17 points. Center Coley Webb, who was tied up much of the game by Jones, tallied 11.

"Well, we aren't going backward," Garrett summed it up. "If we keep going forward, we'll be all right."

"And we can," he added as an afterthought—"because we have lots of room to go forward in."

IN JEFFERSONVILLE, it appears the Tigers will meet one of the stronger opponents on their schedule. Led by rugged 6-5 senior, Bob Welch, the Red Devils last week knocked off Connersville which earlier had been a 20-point conqueror of Southport.

Jeffersonville also has defeated a good Franklin five which has one of the best centers in the state, according to Garrett.

Welch, one of the outstanding Negro athletes in the state, is now in his fourth year of varsity competition in basketball as in football. He played fullback and defensive right end for the Red Devils on the gridiron, and scored 8 points against Attucks in October as Jeffersonville won 14-12. It is not likely the hardwood Tigers can hold him to that number.

Other Jeffersonville players include 6-4 Robert Brewer, 6-3 Kent Royce, 6-2 Gary Vaher, 6-2 William Bell, 6-1 Gary Hale, 6-0 Leonard Allen, 6-0 Eddie Dooley, 5-10 Joe Beatty, 5-10 Elijah Adams, 5-10 Ozzie Gibson and 5-8 James Moore.

The Red Devils are coached by Cliff Barker, former pro star with the Indianapolis Olympians.

NEXT WEEK THE Tigers will host Lafayette Jeff's Broncos on Thursday at Indiana Central. Then on Saturday, Jan. 21, will come the BIG GAME OF THE YEAR—Attucks vs. Gary Roosevelt—BUT DON'T BE TOO SURE YOU WILL SEE IT!

The only gym available for the state's No. 2 team to clash with their hot rivals turned out to be Secunia's, which holds not more than 3,000 fans at a tight squeeze.

Roosevelt alone is bringing 1,000 followers, according to Coach Louis "Bo" Mallard. It looks like somebody will be "outside!"

Attucks is grateful to Secunia for giving shelter when all other doors will be closed. But how long will there be NO ROOM IN THE INN for Indianapolis' ONLY state champions—three times state champions—and maybe GOING ON FOUR?—C.S.P.

Ingemar goes into a crouch

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (ANP)—Swedish heavyweight challenger Ingemar Johansson has changed his boxing style from an upright stance to a crouching position.

The switch so impressed a sparring partner that he predicted Ingemar will beat champion Floyd Patterson in their third title fight at Miami Beach on March 13.

"I am greatly impressed," said Lennart Risberg, a light-heavy weight, after sparring three rounds with Johansson.

"Take it from me," he added, "Ingemar will beat Floyd this time. He has a new style. He goes lower and it is impossible to hit him."

Wood's Chucks showed balanced scoring in a 61-36 romp over Brownsburg.

Three Smiths led the way for Johnny Wilson's netters, with James counting 14, Willie 10 and J. W. 9. Other scorers were Donzil Bonds, 9; Roy Thurman, 6; Ray Mozingo, 4; Porter Tapps, 4; Wendell Mozingo, 3, and Richard Davis, 2.

HOWE'S HORNETS took a 64-62 thriller from Terre Haute Garfield on Claude Hardin's 18-foot jump shot at the final gun. The Hornets were led by Dennis with 15 while Norm Tyler scored 24 for the visitors.

Greenclads turned the trick with 6-7 Dave Barnes — the city's third big man along with Sahn and Attucks' Bill Jones — spending 11 minutes on the bench because of foul trouble.

Tom Brinkley paced the Tech scoring with 16 points while Barnes got 14 and Mickey Harrisburg 11. Other Green points were scored by James Montgomery, 8; George Harris, 5; David Barnette, 5; Richard Kramer, 4; Don Woods, 2, and Randy Miller, 1.

Tech, which extended Attucks before losing 56-53 in the City Tourney, will get Cathedral on the Green's home floor Jan. 28. This

4th Robinson-Fullmer Bout Stated Feb. 25 at Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Sugar Ray Robinson and middleweight champion Gene Fullmer will meet for their fourth title match here Feb. 25 before a national TV audience, local promoters predicted last week.

The perennial foes signed for the fight in New York, Norman Rothschild of Syracuse, N. Y., who officiated over the signing, flew here to confer with Las Vegas promoters Jack Doyle and Mel Greb.

Doyle said he was sure of support from the big Strip hotels here. He was confident the bout will be held in the 8,200-seat Las Vegas Convention Hall, rather than being moved to another site, such as Los Angeles, Miami Beach, Chicago or Salt Lake City.

ROBINSON WILL BE seeking the middleweight crown for an unprecedented 8th time. He made a great showing in their last bout, and the draw decision allowing Fullmer to keep the title was highly unpopular. Sugar Ray then claimed the New York version of the title, which he never lost in the ring.

Contract terms call for the aging Sugar Man to get $50,000 of the $150,000 television money and 25 percent of the net live gate. He is expected to net about $90,000 to $100,000.

Hockey Minor Leaguers Pushing to Join O'Ree

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON

Boston (ANP) — Willie O'Ree, whose debut in the National Hockey League marked the lowering of the last color line among major sports in North America, may be joined by another and possibly even more tan players shortly.

Hockey fans are quick to point out that the only reason a "color line" existed was the fact that in the past, there wasn't any Negro player qualified to make the NHL.

The 25-year-old O'Ree, left winger with the Boston Bruins, is currently the only member of his race in the major league of hockey, but a former teammate of Willie's is considered ripe for promotion from the minors.

He is STAN MAXWELL, who was a teammate of O'Ree with the Quebec Aces. Like Willie, he is a fast skater and considered a good prospect. Other Negro players on minor league teams include:

OSIE and HERBIE CARNEGIE, brothers who along with Manny McIntyre formed an all-Negro forward line a few seasons ago with Sherbrooke of the Quebec Senior Hockey League.

RAY LEACOCK, who formerly played with the Montreal Canadiens' juniors.

WINDY CITY SCRIBES TO HONOR MINNIE

CHICAGO (ANP) — Outfielder Orestes "Minnie" Minofo of the Chicago White Sox will be cited as Chicago Player of the Year by the city's baseball writers at their annual banquet Sunday.

The colorful Minofo will be honored along with third baseman Don Santo of the Chicago Cubs, who will receive the Chicago Rookie of the Year award.

BOWLIN' with BUCK

By JOHN BUCKNER
Local Teams Split in Tri-State Play

One local team won and another lost in match games of the Tri-State League, played Sunday at the Fun Bowl.

Hamilon Realty Co. of the city won three games, dumping a 2,944-to-2,675 series on the Palace Lanes team of Dayton, Ohio.

Norris "Big Ball" Cooper led the winners with a nice 623 series, including games of 170, 239 and 214. He had the help of Joe "Killer" King's 607 and Bill "Steady Eddie" Gooch's 604.

The Wells Gulf team of Naptown dropped a trio to the Hudephol Five of Cincinnati.

Harry Peeters blasted a swinging series of 651 — games of 245, 181 and 225 — for the Wells Gulf hustlers, but they couldn't surpass the steady hitting of the visitors.

Team totals were 2,823 to 2,751. (What happened?) Mr. Brooks led the Cincinnati legklers with a 610 series.

In a third match between two Columbus, Ohio, teams, Garland Equipment killed the Pinbusters in three games, 2,849 to 2,569.

ON THE SAME NIGHT, the mighty Rainbow Room washed out

Myers Market in their annual match game play.

John "The Glove" Pillow and Thomas "Moto" Farmer led the first set with 578 and 577 totals respectively. Floyd Tollover was high for the losers with 574.

"But wait," Robert Young took over the second set and led the Rainbow Room to another victory with games of 202, 250 and 188 for a whopping 640 total. He had the help of Charles Avant's 601. James McNeal was high for Myers this set with 572.

John "Never Bowl on Sunday" Elliott couldn't find the range until the last game. "Too late, J. B."

Totals for the six-team teams were Rainbow Room 3,346, Myers Market 3,145.

THE PLACE TO PLAY all-girl team seems to have scared off its opponents from Cincinnati. Anyway they didn't saow up—lucky things.

WE WOULD RATHER be right than rich... We named just two musicians playing local top spots... And asked for more info if we (WAZ) wrong... and did we get it... Boy, oh boy! It came in torrents plus a copy of Night & Day in Indianapolis, which carries all the play spots (but not the entertainers). It did carry a picture of Flo Garvin, Harry Campbell and the Willis (Mr. Hammond) Dyer trio. That we GOOFED is foregone conclusion... because we took our info from a local sheet that presumably was using only the clubs that advertised in their pages. Those that didn't were left out in the cold... Which also left us all alone and just about freezing... We had no intention of 'jiggin' any of the bigtime names... But to be very truthful... we did wonder where all these fine musicians were or have been during the many years The Recorder has been sponsoring its annual midnite Christmas Benefit show for the hundreds of needy Naptown families.

But be that as it may—Here's the lowdown on musicians playing our spots:

THINGS WE DIDN'T KNOW TILL NOW:
THAT MISSISSIPPI-born Abron Bridges (father of 6-year-old Ruby Nell Bridges, the first and only Negro child to integrate William Frantz Elementary School in New Orleans) has a Purple Heart.
Eight years ago, on a mountain in Korea, strapped from a Chinese Communist mortar ripped through the side of his face and into his thigh... Today he's fighting the same battle—but his little girl is in the front lines now. (From Norfolk Journal and Guide)

THAT TOO MANY of our youngsters are dropping out of school... and The Norfolk Journal and Guide closes an editorial on the subject with these words: "The chances are excellent that dropping out will be even more foolish in the future than it has been in the recent past. The emphasis is increasingly on more training, greater skill, more knowledge. So we say, to any student who thinks it would be pleasant to quit school now and lead a free life while others do the studying: Remember, dropping out now may blight your future."

THAT SOME of the smart boys are making a salary for Hank Aaron for 1961... Here 'tis: Hank has signed his 1961 contract with Milwaukee for a sum that is reported to be above his $55,000 1960 pact.

THAT SINGER Joe Williams has parted company with Basie's band, and is now working as a single...

THAT CANNONBALL ADLERLY, ex-schoolteacher, band leader and alto-saxophonist, has won the Downbeat and Metronome magazines' awards for the best alto-saxophonist of 1960.

THAT MARIAN ANDERSON will sing at the inauguration... and that more Negroes will be in the stands than ever before.

THE SHOOTING of a policeman 'other nite, so upset a reader of this column, that he stopped everything he was doing and gave vent to his feelings in the following letter:

"After going all out to attend a white church Sunday, and being treated so nice at the church. How do you think I felt Tuesday morning when I went to work. These people where I work are wonderful. They understand—but I am one of the boys. I mean (colored) and I have to have a complex. It's hard when white people are nice to you—and they want to ask you questions. Whether I know them or not. They being colored too. But they refrain from it until I make the first talk about it.

"It's rough—you better believe it. They try to smooth it up by saying, Oh Bob, it's bad on both sides. Sure I know that—but we are the ones who want to be integrated. How do we get it, by robbing, by murder, or by raping or stealing?"
"My Friend I don't understand

Little Miss Thunderbird, the petite shake dancer with the sexy ways, is an extra-added attraction at the Clowns Playhouse, 2241 Howard St. in West Indianapolis, where the best in entertainment is being offered nightly for your enjoyable pleasure.

Don't fail to catch this clever exciting body-twisting armful of exotic charm in action at the Westside playspot this week end. The unique way in which she con-my people. If we could only wait a while, things would come our way. But no—some one of us got to upset the apple cart. Then we are two steps farther behind.

"My friend this is one thing I would like to know. What is wrong with our colored friends in Indianapolis? That they have to take some one's life. Money is enough to take—but a life. Gosh—are they crazy, or nuts or just downright ignorant?"
"Bob Board"

THE CRITERION (Catholic weekly) in an editorial captioned Good Choice, had this to say about Dr. Weaver, new housing administrator:
"The designation of Dr. Robert Clifton Weaver as Housing and Home Finance Administrator in the new Administration in Washington is a cause of widespread satisfaction. And rightly so; he has just about every possible needed qualification for the work to be done there.

"President-elect Kennedy has already expressed the hopes for the establishment of a new Department of Urban Affairs in his cabinet. If Congress has the good sense to implement his plan in this regard, then Dr. Weaver would automatically enjoy the prestige of full Cabinet rank.
"An occurrence of this kind would bring much satisfaction to every thoughtful citizen, not only because the post is being filled by one eminently qualified for it, but because it marks the emergence of those of Negro blood to full national stature. It marks as nothing else could the real unity that is in the United States."

BREEZING ALONG WITH THE NEWS: Personable Walter Gilmore, retired pullman porter, is the congenial gentleman who serves you with so much grace and ease at the 40th Street Tavern... A nice scribe came in from the Rev. Leo Lesser Jr. of Chattanooga, Tenn., and the good reverend sends greetings to his many friends... A New Year's card came in from Mrs. Ariene Carroll of Oakland, Calif. The young lady hopes to come this way soon... Mrs. Joyce Stewart Thompson is in Methodist Hospital on B-11. We all at The Recorder are pulling for her speedy recovery... Miss Dorothy (Henry) Hite of Louisville spent several days here recently visiting relatives and friends.

WILLIAM O. WALKER in his column "Down The Big Road" in The Cleveland Call-Post, closed with these pathetic words: "The jobs we have lost in the coal mines, the steel mills and in construction, will not become available to those who lost them no matter who is in the White House. Our only hope is to be qualified for the new jobs that are becoming available.

"What the government can do to help our people is to strengthen the laws so that race will not be a valid reason for rejection; set up special training classes for those unemployed so that they can prepare themselves for new jobs; keep down immigration from Europe so that United States citizens can have more jobs available to them.

"The road ahead will be a rough one unless we get busy and prepare for the future now."
(Note: This is what we have been preaching in the columns for months and months.) Politics don't mean a thing—unless you get that swing (education)... and you better believe it! Better enroll NOW in nite school... that's your only chance!

THOUGHT YOU SHOULD KNOW that Negro actor Bob Ferguson of Ohio State, Iowa's Wilburn Hollis and Minnesota's Sandy Stephens finished 1-2-3 in scoring in the Big Ten... and that Eddie Evans is the first Negro eager in the history of Oklahoma University. He's a product of Douglass High in Oklahoma City... and that neither of the new American League teams picked up Don Newcombe, the ex-Dodger and Cincinnati Redleg pitcher... and that Julio Becquer is the lone Negro on the Los Angeles Angels. He formerly played with San Diego but was with Washington last year... and here's hoping that the fabulous Leroy "Satchel" Paige will get a break as relief hurler or pitching coach for one of the new teams.

A GOOD MAN FOR A TOP JOB... It made us feel good to read of the appointment of George Leonard Weaver, 48, of Washington, D. C., to be special assistant to the Secretary of Labor... We knew Weaver as a young man back in Dayton, O., where he was born. The fella has come a long ways... all due to the fact he qualified himself over the years for the job. Thus we leave you with these words: "Don't signify unless you can QUALIFY."

NEW YORK (ANP) — Some of the entertainment world's greatest stars will put their talents on display to aid a great civil rights fighter when Sammy Davis Jr., Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Peter Lawford, and Joey Bishop appear in spectacular tribute to the Rev. Martin Luther King in Carnegie Hall here Friday, Jan. 27.
The four, who started together in the famous movie titled "Ocean 11," and who have pooled their efforts in several other stage extravaganzas, will provide a full evening of entertainment in what has been billed as a "once-in-a-lifetime event!"
The Southern Leadership Conference, the civil rights organization which Rev. King heads, will benefit from the affair.
Several years ago Rev. King made history when he led some 50,000 Negroes in a boycott which ended with the successful integration of Montgomery, Ala. transit system.

"The Plunderers" Open Sunday at Walker with Jeff Chandler

Jeff Chandler fell so much in love with 319 pages of bare screenplay that he built a motion picture company around them. That's the story of August Productions and its first offering, "The Plunderers," an Allied Artists release coming Sunday to the Walker Theatre, with Jeff, John Saxon, and Dolores Hart heading the cast.

"Don't call it a Western," warns the 6-foot-4 president of the company. And although the picture's laid in a small Texas town just after the Civil War, he's got a point there.

"The Plunderers" Could just as well have been laid in modern New York City, London, Fokolo, or Bogota. What it has to say is that widely pertinent in our time. Four young cowboys ride into Trail City at dusk on their way home from a cattle drive to Kansas. They drink the saloonkeeper's whiskey and tell him they can't pay. The sheriff in conciliatory. They grow bolder. The townsfolk keep appeasing them. And what began with a trifle explodes in a crisis for themselves and the whole community.

John Saxon plays one of the boys, a vaquero called Rondo, who precipitates the conflict by moving in on the girl Chandler loves (Miss Hart). The others are Ray Stricklyn, Roger Torrey, and Don Pollock. It is Chandler who finally resolves the situation, but not until he, like the town, has been taught a lesson.

JOHN SAXON discovers that Dolores Hart has the claws of a tiger in this scene from "The Plunderers," which stars the two with Jeff Chandler. The film starts Sunday at the Walker.

Negro Tenant Refused Help By National Red Cross

WASHINGTON — Negro sharecroppers evicted from their homes in Fayette County, Tenn., by white landowners supposedly due to "mechanization" have been refused help by the National Red Cross.

According to a spokesman for the national organization the local Red Cross chapters were authorized to join with community organizations "to alleviate suffering."

An estimated 75 Negroes, consisting of many small children, are living in a "tent city" near Somerville, Tenn., in sub-freezing weather while the courts debate the issue.

These 75 homeless Negroes are only a few of about 700 who received eviction notices effective the first of this year. While the farm owners contend they were forced to evict the Negroes due to improved machinery, the Justice Department called the evictions reprisals for attempting to register and vote.

Gen. A. M. Gruenther, Red Cross president, when asked to aid the ousted farmers by Sen. Estes Kefauver, replied by saying the policy recognized the organization's "resources would never be adequate to deal with needs growing out of social or economic maladjustments."

Gruenther contended the general feeling is that such problems must necessarily be the responsibilities of government at appropriate levels.

Folk Singer Josh White, Daughters Star on Coast-to-Coast TV
NEW YORK (ANP) — The cultural attitudes expressed by the American Negro in folk music were portrayed and interpreted by folk singer Josh White Sunday, Jan. 8, when he teamed with his daughters Beverly, 21, and Fern, 16, in their television debut as a vocal trio on the weekly CBS Television Network program, "Look Up and Live."

The Whites appeared in the first of a four-part series "The Views of Those Present," on the regular "Look Up and Live" program, which is seen each Sunday morning from coast-to-coast from 10:30 to 11:00 A. M. EST.

White, who came here after closing a successful engagement at the Gate of Horn in Chicago, sang "Run, Mona, Run," "Trouble," and "Free and Equal Blues," among other folk songs.

Besides disc jockeying, Gill was also active in other fields. He was a member of the trustee board at St. James and of the Emecees and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

A native of Elizabethtown, N. C., he was a graduate of Greensboro's A & T college.

BILLY ECKSTINE SCORES, AS CHICAGO JAZZ FRONT JUMPS

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON CHICAGO (ANP) — The Chicago jazz front really jumped over the New Year's Day holiday weekend, with a number of top artists and musical units taking over the bandstands at various night spots.

"MR. B" SENDS 'EM
One of the biggest jazz bonanzas was at the Tradewinds, a northside supper club located on Chicago's famed "Gold Coast." There, Billy Eckstine, the famous "Mr. B.," held forth, playing to nightly capacity audiences. He drew such a throng on New Year's Eve, that the management was forced to turned away hundreds of patrons.

The fine acoustics and quiet decor of the club blended ideally with Billy's romantic voice, with the result that he was at his tuneful best. As versatile as he is gifted as a singer, Eckstine mixed several trumpet solos with his rendition of such songs as "Everything I Have Is Yours," "In the Still of the Night," "Prisoner of Love" and the Duke Ellington favorites, "I've Got It Bad" and "I'm Beginning to See the Light." He was accompanied by Bobby Tucker, the pianist and exsideman for the late-Billy Holiday.

Dixie Theater Strangely Excludes Sammy Davis
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (ANP) — A local movie theater has strangely excluded the name of Negro entertainer Sammy Davis Jr. from among the list of his "Ocean 11" buddies in a paid advertisement for the movie by that name, which is being shown throughout the nation and overseas.

The Robin Hood drive-in theater listed only the names of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Angie Dickinson and Peter Lawford in the advertisement. Also left out was the name of comedian Joey Bishop.

NAACP Ask Aid For Vote Victims

NEW YORK, Jan. 6—A second nationwide appeal was sent this week by NAACP headquarters to its branches in 45 states asking contributions to aid the displaced sharecroppers in Fayette and Haywood counties, Tenn.

The first letter from NAACP Secretary Roy Wilkins last summer resulted in more than $8,000 being sent to the Memphis, Tenn., branch of the Association which, in turn, distributed food packages, clothing, and tents, to the rural families.

The food has been sent at regular intervals since July, when the campaign was started off with a $1,500 fund sent to the Memphis branch from the NAACP national treasury.

The new letter called on the Association's units to send at least $50 from their treasuries care of Jesse Turner, NAACP Memphis Branch President, 236 South Wellington Street, Memphis, Tenn.

"The Memphis branch will purchase additional tents and food supplies as needed for the families in Fayette and Haywood counties," Mr. Wilkins said.

Meanwhile, the Federal Agriculture Department announced that it would not help.

CHECKS WIFE IN BAGGAGE ROOM TO PROTECT HER FROM "WOLVES"

MILAN, Italy (ANP) — Baggage room attendants at the railroad station here were surprised last week when a French traveler, Jacques Bailou, told the employee in charge: "This is my wife; I want to check her for an hour." After paying the fee his wife, an attractive young brunette, sat quietly in a corner of the baggage room until her husband returned to reclaim her.

Pressed for an explanation for his unusual action, Jacques explained: "I have to check her because my wife is beautiful and if I leave her alone in the waiting room the 'wolves' keep trying to pick her up. It's not even safe to leave her with the police."

NAACP Income Up 13% Percent over '59

NEW YORK, Jan. 6—Through Dec. 23, the NAACP received a total of $985,731.78 in its general operating fund, an increase of $129,100 (13 per cent) over the similar period in 1959.

More than half the total general operating fund income was in the form of memberships and Freedom Fund contributions from NAACP branches amounting to $571,495.77.

This report was made here this week by Alfred Baker Lewis, treasurer, at the Association's annual meeting.

In addition to the operating fund income, the NAACP received $250,029.79 from life memberships and $99,803.58 in bequests. These monies went into a reserve account, subject to transfer to the general operating fund as required, Mr. Lewis explained.

A—In Memoriam

MRS. EFFIE A. HOUSE
HOUSE—In loving memory of our daughter, mother, grandmother and niece
MRS. EFFIE A. HOUSE
who passed away two years ago January 14, 1959.

Broken is the family circle,
Our dear one is passed away;
Passed from earth and earthly darkness
Into bright and perfect day;
But we all must cease to languish
O'er the grave of her we love,
Strive to be prepared to meet her
In the better world above.

Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Dwelle,
Parents

Mrs. Marietta Lee Byrd,

LONG—In loving memory of MARY LONG who passed away January 14, 1960.
You left us a beautiful memory,
But a sorrow too great to be told.
To us who loved you and lost you
Your memory will never grow old.
Rachel Reese, Daughter

MARJORIE BELL TERRY
TERRY-SPIVEY—In loving memory of MARJORIE BELL TERRY, BAXTER and DORLENE TERRY, and KATHLEEN SPIVEY who passed away January 2, 1960. Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break but all in vain;
To have, to love and then to part Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never —
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
